NUMBER 31

BY NORMAN FISHER

THERE SHOULD BE a good many guests in our town this weekend because of the District 7 senior teenage baseball tournament which will be played here.

Our past experience with Bangs -- and we have covered many games involving teams from there -- has been that its citizens are very loyal support-from the Bangs area to follow their team to Baird.

WITH LOTS AND pastures getting dryer by the day during this searing summer heat, this is the time to exercise extra care when burning trash or when throwing away a match or cigarette.

A bit of carelessness could cost someone a lot of grassland. Or, even worse, a home. Besides, it's just too hot to fight a fire these days. So, please be careful.

JOE HARRIS WAS telling us about a small snake -- it looked like a mouse snake -- which crawled between his feet the other day while he was cutting weeds under the stands at the teenage baseball field.

Although it was cramped under the stands, he finally man-aged to kick the snake far enough away that he could deliver a fatal chop with his hoe. Then later he took a look at the reptile.

"You know," he said, "that little mouse snake had three

WE ARE NOW into that hot 40-day period which many people know as Dog Days. As almost everyone knows, Dog Days are generally conceded to be the hottest of the year.

The period gets its name from the Dog Star. Hence, Dog Days.

Not too many years ago, people believed that Dog Days were not only the hottest time of the year, but that dogs were more likely to get rables during that

"QUIET MEDITATIONS" "HARD TIMES"

Hard times are bad, but there's something worse Than a scanty wage and an empty purse. For often in man's extrement need, God's grace all measure doth exceed Hard times are bad, but hard hearts are worse, The good Lord save us from the curse — That doth the nobler self dethrone And transforms flesh and blood to stone.

Hard times are bad, but they turn to good, When the heart expands in brotherhood; And in life's sorest trials shares The heavy burden another bears.

Hard times are bad, but the struggle and pain Work out for the soul's eternal gain — In the deeper sense of the Father's care, And the richer harvests of trustful prayer.

Hard times are good, if they lead us to God, From the things that can only deceive and defraud; And restore to the spirit it's rightful domain — In the life more abundant forever to gain.
