Fire Guts House Trailer

When fire completely gutted the trailer home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oldham at 2:30 Saturday afternoon in Town Village, their only thought at the time was "we've lost everything we have, but our own lives. (Their pet dog "Freckles" lost her life in the fire.) Even in the darkest moments of the blaze, when the Shallowater Volunteer Fire Dept. members (who quickly answered the alarm) were battling the blaze, which went out of control in a matter of minutes, from an air conditioner short in the east end of the trailer, the Oldhams were asking themselves, "what will we do."

In a time of need, what better place is there to live than the Shallowater community where by nightfall Saturday night, neighbors and friends of the Oldhams, even strangers who had never met them, were beginning to spearhead a drive to help the Oldhams begin a new home.

Monday night at 7:30 a community wide pounding and love offering was held for Bill and Jane Oldham and their two children, 20 year old Elaine and 17 year old Danny, a senior in Shallowater Schools. Held at the Community Club House with around 200 persons in attendance besides the persons who brought furniture, clothes and household items and placed them in a trailer, parked on the lot for that purpose. By the time everyone went home, the Oldham's were ready to start a new home, this time in a house, owned by Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Gates, Jr. at 12th St. and Texas Ave., with the first month's rent free, compliments of G.W. and Eloise.

Not only were the Gates angels in disguise, but the entire community, including Lubbock, even to the CBER's in Lubbock and the area, who spent Saturday night on their radios, asking for donations, which amounted to three van loads of clothing and food that was delivered to the Oldhams Sunday by the CB group.

Donations received at the Club House Monday night amounted to $1,729 in money, all types of cooking utensils, canned foods (both bought and home canned) linens, homemade quilts and blankets, dishes, all types of clothing for the entire family, plus other items too numerous to mention, including furniture. Reese Air Force Base sent word they had a truckload of furniture and other items to be delivered.

The Oldhams have resided here for the past three years, moving here from Wichita Falls where Oldham was transferred here to Whites Warehouse, Inc. where he is transportation foreman. Jane, who was to have undergone major surgery Monday but postponed it, was taking a leave of absence from Shallowater Super Market where she has worked for 2 1/2 years. Their daughter Elaine is employed at the textile plant in Littlefield.

First to be recognized by Mrs. Sue Jo Young, director of G.A.'s were new members. Linda Shropshire, Dana Blackburn, Anna Masten and Tonya Armes. Four girls—Sheila Young, Dawn DuLaney, Mendi Pair, Renea Applegate—were awarded badges for having completed the work of Adventure I.

White collars with badges were given to each girl. The girls shared memory verses and other works which they had learned.

Cheryl Patter and Tonya Applegate received a second badge for having completed a second year of work. Mrs. Dora Greenway assisted in the presentation of awards.

In the Acteen organization six girls were crowned Queen. They had each participated in many activities, memorized scripture verses, read books and done several projects.

Lisa Bartlett was the first to receive her crown. Carol Masten was her crown bearer. Amy Armes carried the crown for Lela Brock. Next came Seena Conner with Joel Hahenberger. Then Scott Gilmore carrying the crown for his sister, Dianne Dupler. Wayne Barnes was crown bearer for Sonja Gilmore and finally Vicki Pettiet with Mandy Carr. Two girls, who received their crown last year, completed work on the next step. Celeste Potter, with bearer Johna Pointer and Lori Semsack with Dona Kay Davidson were awarded sceptors. They each said Bible passages which they had learned.

Mrs. Bill Johnson, director of the Coronation, challenged each girl with the verse, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father, which is in Heaven."

As the girls held candles, representing the light, Mrs. Theronne Baker sang "The Light of the World is Jesus."

Homecoming Week Hectic—Join In

The Fair. Six Weeks. Homecoming Queen Elections. Harvest Festival. Lions Queen Race. Mustangs vs. Farwell on Todd Field. Alumni Meeting. Band Taco Supper. Red Mums. — and not necessarily in that order.

The students of SHS are going to be very busy because they will be involved one way or the other during that short week. There will be no school on Friday, October 1, because teachers will be having a workday.

Make your plans now to become involved with your school and community activities. Come to the Pep Rally. Congratulate the Ribbon Winners of the Fair. Buy a Mum. Walk the Cake Walk. Have a long nap on Sunday afternoon.

Senior Spotlight

by Suzie De Anda

Tony Caballero is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilberto Caballero. He resides outside of Shallowater. His birthday is January 18.

Tony enjoys fifth and sixth period. Since he is a member of DECA, he is allowed to work during these periods. Tony works at the Jessie Hayes' supermarket. He also enjoys hunting and listening to the radio in his spare time.

Tony plans to look for a job as a truck driver after graduation. The thing he has enjoyed most about his senior year is knowing he is "getting out of school."

Hall of Fame

by Steven Wilson

This week's two Mustangs and the remaining captains of the team are Curtis Lester and Jesse Longoria. The two young men are both juniors and, as captains, they are great leaders.

Curtis Lester was on the All-district second team offense last season and has All-State potential. Curtis plays both on offense and defense as guard and linebacker, respectively. Curtis is a big player standing 5 feet 11 inches and weighing 205 pounds. He uses his size well and loves to hit people with all his might. Curtis plays his positions well and I am sure a lot will be heard from him. Curtis is an able leader; one the other players look up to. Curtis wears number 60, watch for him.

Jesse Longoria wears number 18 and you can find him in the backfield behind the center. Yes, Jesse is the Mustangs' quarterback at 5 feet 7 inches and 160 pounds. Jesse, as a captain and the quarterback, must be a real leader because both jobs require such a trait. He does not play on defense and this has given him more time to concentrate on offense. Jesse has great potential at the quarterback position and should do great things in the future. Look for Jesse, he's the guy who gets the ball rolling.

The amazing thing about man's intelligence is his failure to use what he has.

NHS Anticipates Fun Year

by Alison Terry

"What it means to be in the National Honor Society" (besides getting to munch on lots of home-baked delectable goodies) opened the first official meeting of the elite group last Monday at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. Harris, our principal, spoke shortly on the honor and privilege of being an NHS member, as refreshments were greedily devoured. A new secretary, Beverly Pair, was chosen to serve for the entirety of the year. Plays; foreign customs and food presented by a foreign exchange student from Texas Tech; handwriting analysis by an expert; a visit to the Ranch Headquarters in Lubbock; a kindergarten Christmas party; and other exciting events have been placed on the agenda for future meetings of the scholastically oriented club.

Members of the Honor Society anticipate a year of fun ahead!

Graphoanalysis

by Laura Walker

Jack O'Donnell was the guest speaker for the psychology class last Thursday. However, he was not the everyday run-of-the-mill, boring speaker. Mr. O'Donnell is an expert in graphoanalysis, that is simply, handwriting.

Not everyone believes in the accuracy of graphoanalysis but there is scientific evidence that handwriting reflects the moods and character traits to a certain degree. Mr. O'Donnell stated he was able to recognize musical talent, generosity, honesty, and deceit. Several students were amazed at his analysis of their handwriting.

Mr. O'Donnell has worked with the law enforcement in breaking down a lineup of suspects. He does not claim to know everything and admits he has been wrong before but much of the studies has proved the reliability of handwriting.

Mustangs Stumble

by Steven Wilson

New Deal let loose Friday night and racked up 34 points against Shallowater. The Mustangs only came up with seven points and did not look at all like themselves.

The Mustangs failed to get a first down on their first possession and were forced to punt. New

Grand's for FHA

The F.H.A. met Tuesday Sept. 7. They got off to a good start. They picked grandparents to do nice things for at least once a month. The girls will be busy with this project and others.

The girls will be fixing things for the South Plains Fair exhibit and for entries to win prizes. The girls of Shallowater's F.H.A. organization will be representing our school to the best of their ability. Come by and see our exhibits and let us know that you know we are working for our community.

Deal not only got a first down, but marched down the field and scored on about a 21-yard run. The extra-point attempt failed. Shallowater again failed to move the ball on their second possession and punted the ball away. New Deal again marched down the field and scored on a 25-yard run up the middle. The Lions went for two-points, but failed to convert, as the quarter ended.

The Mustangs came back in the second quarter to score a touchdown of their own. The touchdown was set-up by a blocked punt which Shallowater recovered on New Deal's 2-yard line. David Coker blocked the punt and Andy Blackmon pounced upon it. Four plays were required before Ruben Gomez made it to pay dirt. Curtis Lester kicked the ball through the uprights making the score 12-7 New Deal. From this point on it was nothing but New Deal's game. New Deal scored in all quarters, but the fourth. At half-time the score stood 20-7 and in the third quarter New Deal scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion. These scores made it 34-7 and it remained that way until the buzzer sounded.

The Mustangs just did not seem to have it together, even though they wanted the game badly. It appears to me that the Lions may have wanted it a little more. I am sure though, that Shallowater will return to win if they keep their heads up and take each game as it comes, leaving them after they are played.

A Bad Streak Of Luck

by Gloria Lara

It was quite a disappointment for the 8th grade Ponies. They went against the New Deal Lions and they faced defeat. The Ponies held strong but the Lions were just a little bit bigger and stronger. The Ponies tried to score but it was useless the Lions won with a score of 33-0.

It looked as if the 7th grade Ponies had a victory on their hands Thursday night, but it turned out to be a draw. Both teams went hard against each other showing their courage but it happened that they were both good strong teams, so they tied at a score of 8-8. Both teams go against Hale Center this Thursday. We're still behind you Ponies so lets bring home a victory. Good Luck.

The Store

by Claudett Lamb

DECA has a store with all the little goodies it takes to get a kid through school. There are paper, pencils, gum, candy, and all other necessities to school life. They have a thriving business and would like to invite you to come and browse around. DECA is planning to have a great year this year so let's get over there and buy from them so their store will keep on doing a successful business. Don't forget DECA for the necessities of school. The store is open from 12:15-1:00 for your convenience. The profits will go towards a DECA Banquet.

Another Try For Victory

by Claudett Lamb

Shallowater's JV stayed home last week to face the New Deal JV only to lose by a score of 22 to zip. The Mustangs tried to hold back the Lions, but the Lions were able to come through.

The score was 6 to 0 by half-time because the Lions made their touchdown in the second quarter. Sixteen points were racked up against us in the second half.

Let's go boys. We're still behind you. Good Luck against Hale Center.
