

Cowboy Poet To Be Guest At Autograph Party June 9

Dennis Gaines, area cowboy poet who performed at the Natioanl Cowboy Symposium at Texas Tech University last week, will be guest of honor at an Autograph Party at the Motley County Library, Matador, on Saturday, June 9.

Gaines will be on hand to perform and sign autographs for his first book, New Tradition: Western Verse from 2 to 5 p.m. An entertainer in much demand for club programs throughout the area, the Matador Ranch cowboy has performed at the famous Cowboy Poetry Gathering at Elko, Nevada, the Insti-tute of Texan Cultures, San Antonio, and the Lubbock symposium.

Born into an Air Force family that moved more times than he could count, the former oil field worker of Louisiana, Texas, Gulf of Mexico, India, Brazil, and North Sea, and Alaska, has thrown his bedroll on the Matador range for the past four years. Writing poetry began as a diver-sion "to pass the time after I had already swatted all the slow files in the bunkhouse," Gaines explained.

Book collectors, Old West fans, and rural folks who value their heritage but can still enjoy a humorous look at their life style are likely to find this collection a delight.

'Yes, Ma'am, I Ride Horses" describes a shy cowboy on a rare visit to a soda fountain where he does his best to impress a pretty urban lady. "Cowpunching for Kodak" addresses the need of "them writer folks an' artists an' wannabee cowpokes" to record a failing life style at the cowboy's expense.

The darker side of lonely lives finds expression in "The Journey of Three-Fingered Jake" and "Silver Lady." The folklore of the South Texas cattle country where "everything has a sticker, a stinger, or fangs" is the poign-ant theme of "Song of the Brasada.'

The Motley County Library and the Friends of the Library, co-hosts for the summer fund raiser, encourage those from surrounding counties to attend and meet the author Dennis Gaines at the autograph party.

And the rains came! And continued to come, along with the severe weather. We were a lot luckier than some our neighboring Awards Bob Wills towns. We escaped the damaging weather , but it was a little hairy for a while. This time of year is when I want to pick up and go somewhere 'til the storm season is over, but where to go, where to go. I guess we could plan a three month vacation to wait it out.

For starters, I've always wanted to go to Disneyworld, but I'm too out of shape to do all that walking, and the rides make me turn so green my eyes can't focus. A trip to the mountains would be nice, but heights make my knees wobble and I can't breathe. The air's not really thin up there, like they say, there's simply not any air. The southern coastal area is out, the sun and my age don't mix. California is out, I never could walk on land that moves all the time. Fishing is out 'cause I never can catch anything, I enjoy camping at Holiday Inn, but you know the fish just don't bite too good there. Can't go visiting relatives 'cause... well, that's just not a good way to spend a vacation. What to do, what to do...., I guess I'll just get back to work and not worry about the weather. That kinda' keeps the boss happy.

Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reminds parents and motorists that safety should continue to be part of their daily routine.

Parents should instruct their children in the safe operation of all recreational equipment, such as: all terrain vehicles, bicyles, scooters, motorbikes and skateboards. Instruction on proper use, care of and laws applying to all such squipment should be reinforced. Safety equipment, such as pads and helmets, should be worn to minimize inju ries. Smaller children should be instructed to never ride such equip-ment as ATV's and scooters without appropriate supervision. If you are going to be around water this summer, remember to never let anyone swim alone. Establish pool rules. Keep electrical appliances away from the water. Prohibit horseplay. Never leave a child alone and never consider young children water-safe despite their swimming skills.

Motorists should use extra caution when driving in residential areas, remembering that we have longer hours of daylight. Always be looking out for children darting in and out from behind parked cars. Never assume that a child will see you. Slow down and honk your horn to get their attention, if needed.

And remember, when traveling, please buckle up and drive friendly, the Texas way telephone technology, The People's Political Action Center is able to deliver the impact of a massive letter writing campaign easily and mickly quickly.

The People's FAC is building a li-brary of letters supporting various viewpoints on controversial issues. They can be sent out under a per-son's name directly to the Presi-dent, key members of the Cabinet and Congress, and other govern-ment officials. The letters deal with both local and national issues.

The President of the People's PAC, Daniel Mosner, says that "most people feel there is no direct access to the public officials who make policy in our nation, and fre-quently it is difficult just to find out who that official is."

One Million Letters

The first national project of the People's PAC seeks a projected re-sponse of one million letters by Labor Day supporting the Pro-life or Pro-choice positions on abortion.

"Our goal is to energize the democratic process and provide a way for average people to have an im-pact on decisions which affect their lives. We can send 200 letters to a school board president in Texas or two million letters to President Bush in Washington."

"The program's technology en-ables us to bring a new issue on line very quickly. In most cases, a letter can be put up in 24 hours." "This puts Pro-choice and Pro-life on an equal footing. Both sides have telephones and can choose which letter to send. Buying influ-ence has become too prevalent and it disturbs the true will of the peo-ple," said Mosner. "Dollars don't count in this campaign — people count in this campaign — people do. All a person has to do is make a call. We do the rest."

The People's PAC puts both let-ters on line at the same time to give both sides the same opportunity to act instead of react. "The side which puts some 'grass fire' to their grass roots first will have the stronger effect." stronger effect.

The number for the People's PAC is 1-900-740-3308 ($2.00/minute). The Pro-Choice letter is on exten-sion #22. The Pro-Life letter is on extension #33.
