Patriots Open Season With Win over Cyclones

by Coach Chris Burtch
Valley Patriots opened their 1998 non-district schedule with a come-from-behind victory over the Memphis Cyclones. Memphis came over as a heavy favorite, but found a tough Valley defense that held them to 153 yards of total offense. With the score remaining 0-0 at the mid-point of the game, the scenario quickly changed in the 3rd quarter, when Memphis scored on a 63-yard run by Allen Dorsey. The extra point failed and the Cyclones led 6 to 0. That would be the last time Memphis would find the end zone. Later in the third quarter, a bad snap by the Memphis punting unit gave Patriot Morgan Payne a chance to tackle the Memphis punter, for a safety. The Patriots now trailed by 6-2.

Valley was able to move the ball consistently but the score remained stuck, as the Patriots gave it back to Memphis by fumbling five times, losing three of those. With three minutes left in the game the Patriots got the ball back on their own 30 yard line, and were able to move down the field to the Memphis 21-yard line with 1:03 left in the game.

Cory Chandler then carried the ball in from 21 yards out, for the game-winning score. The 2 point conversion by Nathan Wheeler was good, and Valley led 10 to 6.

Leading tackle for the Patriots was Michael Silva, with 10 assisted tackles and 3 solo tackles. Morgan Payne also stood out defensively with 7 assisted tackles, and 4 solo tackles; one sack and one safety.

Offensively, Cory Chandler led the Patriots with 185 yards rushing on 13 carries, and he completed 5 of 8 passes for 79 yards. Also leading the Patriot offense was Nathan Wheeler with 16 carries for 75 yards and one reception for 38 yards.

The Patriots travel to Nazareth Friday to take on the Swifts in Non-District play. Come on out and support your home team.

1841 Military Camp Resolution Thought Found Near Quitauque

by Vince Taylor

Archaeologist and museum director Eddie Guffee said he is confident the site is authentic after finding more than a dozen artifacts in a 1 1/2-mile-long stretch along the banks of Quitauque Creek near Quitauque.

For years, confusion has abounded over various journals that mentioned four different Camp Resolutions.

But landmarks described in journals, logic about supply wagons on particular routes and the discovery of artifacts all lead Guffee to his conclusion, he said.

The Texas-Santa Fe Expedition began in June 1841 near Georgetown, north of Austin, after Republic of Texas leaders decided to start a trade route to what was then the Mexican city of Santa Fe.

Republic of Texas Gen. Hugh McLeod commanded the 361 men in the expedition, and the mission was tormented by complications and mistakes from the very beginning. Most of the infantrymen on the journey were young and inexperienced, at least one was 15.

But not all mistakes made on the trip came because of inexperience. After all, the territory was unexplored, for the most part. Perhaps some of the trip's worst misfortunes, happened near what is now the town of Quitauque, just a few miles south of Caprock Canyons State Park.

The expedition made its way to the banks of Quitauque Creek on Aug. 28, 1841, and pressed on to the northwest in search of a passage to get past the large bluffs and cliffs in the area.

But the group suffered at least five deaths in an Indian raid, Guffee said 11 Indians died, and after the battle, the expedition made its way back to Quitauque Creek to set up camp and reassess the situation. This Guffee said, was Camp Resolution. At the camp, Gen. McLeod decided to split the expedition in two. A main group would stay in the area while a smaller group of about 100 would travel on to Santa Fe under Capt. J.S. Sutton and Col. William G. Cooke.

After the Sutton-Cooke party departed, Camp Resolution was left overgrazed by the group's riding horses and oxen used to pull the wagons, so McLeod moved downstream.

At camp No. 2, the group suffered another Indian raid and a few more deaths, Guffee said. McLeod moved the camp twice more after the second raid, making the third and fourth camps.

Pete Laney To Be Honored In Tulia

Pete Laney will be honored with an appreciation dinner at 7 p.m. Saturday, September 19, at the Senior Citizens Activity Center (formerly Armory) at 619 SE, Second Street in Tulia.

The dinner is sponsored by the Democratic parties of Briscoe, Swisher, and Castro counties.

The theme of the dinner is "Hats Off To Pete" and the dinner is intended to be a thank you for some of his accomplishments that have benefited our three counties.

"This dinner is a non-partisan appreciation dinner so all supporters can come out," said Delbert Devin, Swisher County Democratic Party chairman. "His friends and those who just want to say 'Hats Off To Pete' should all come out."

The program will include brief remarks by representatives of each county who will praise Laney for his support and work for the benefit of their counties.

Harold Bob Bennett of Hart will be master of ceremonies. He is former head of the state FSA committee. He has known Laney for many years.

Music will be provided by Briscoe County Judge Jimmy Burson of Silvertown.

The meal will be catered by ClassiCaterers and will be roast beef with all the trimmings.

Tickets are limited to seating capacity of the center.

"This dinner is intended to honor Pete and Nelda and is not meant to be a fundraiser," Devin said. "It is our objective to say 'Hats Off To Pete' and to express our appreciation for his friendship and support."

"When you go to Austin and visit with Pete on business you can tell there is a world of difference between the genuine friendship he has for Panhandle folks and the way it is with most other legislators down there. He is truly our friend and it really does make a difference. Pete's your man and he knows you are home folks."

Laney, 71st speaker of the Texas House of Representatives was first elected speaker by the members of the House in 1993 in his 11th term as state representative of House District 85.

Foundation To Receive Grant Of $10,000

by j. Guest

Preseverance pays off!!! About a year ago, the Heritage Foundation was turned down for a grant because sufficient funds had not been raised locally to justify it. They know that if people are not willing to expend energy and sacrifice a little themselves a project will probably not be successful.

When Lawana Cruse resubmitted, a good deal more money had been raised and a lot accomplished. So the end result is a check from Lawrence E. Gill, Grants Administrator representing the Dodge Jones Foundation of Abilene, Texas.

He said, "On behalf of the trustees of the foundation, I am pleased to provide the enclosed $10,000 check which represents an anonymous grant to the Turkey Heritage Foundation for the renovation of the Gem Theatre. We know how important a project like this is to your community and appreciate the opportunity to support this effort."

He is serving his third term as speaker after being re-elected speaker in 1995 and 1997.

As presiding officer of the Texas House, Laney's continuing goal has been to conduct the legislature's business in a way that encourages public participation and earn the trust and respect of all Texans, Laney said. He has backed the adoption of extensive reforms in the way the House conducts its legislative business.

Laney is a Hale Center farmer. He received a bachelor of science degree in agriculture economics from Texas Tech University. With his wife Nelda he has three children.

Over the years Laney has received many awards and honors, including the Hats Off award from the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association. He was recently named 1998 Man of the Year in Service to Texas Agriculture by Progressive Farmer magazine. He also has been named Texan of the Year by the Legislative conference and a Texas Tech distinguished alumnus. He was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree from Wayland Baptist University. He has received the Outstanding Texas Leader Award from the John Ben Shepperd Public Leadership Forum and the 1995 Headliners Leadership Award.

"He is the only farmer in the state legislature and we need his influence in all agricultural issues," Devin said. "He is a strong supporter of public education."

"In these three counties we need a strong voice or we are left out of the picture because we are so far from Austin and our population is pretty small. When politicians count noses, do you really think they look strongly at our counties? But I guarantee Pete will represent our interests capably."

"He will more than represent us. He will do an excellent job for us. People need to understand that just because someone is elected to offices doesn't mean they are going to do a great job."

Devin said firmly: "Pete Laney does a great job and everyone needs to know that and tell him so."

Tickets are free for Briscoe County residents. Tickets may be picked up at Karol's Kountry Korner in Quitauque or from Rhenda Burson in Silvertown.

THEN & NOW!

by Eunice McFall

Today as I write this column our nation, along with Canada is celebrating Labor Day. This is a day set aside for citizens to honor the working people of our nation. It has been celebrated as a holiday since the late 1880's. In 1882, Peter J. McGuire, founder of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters, suggested a national holiday to honor the country's working people. In September of that year workers organized and carried out the first Labor Day parade in New York City. Thereafter organized labor began to campaign for a national holiday. Oregon became the first state to make Labor Day a legal holiday in 1887. It wasn't until 1894 that President Grover Cleveland signed a bill making Labor Day a national holiday in the United States.

Many countries set aside a day to celebrate labor day but in Europe it is on May 1. The Australian holiday varies from state to state. In Australia, Labor Day is called Eight Hour Day where it commemorates the successful struggle for a shorter working day.

In 1956 a postage stamp came out to commemorate the holiday. Many consider Labor Day as the final holiday of the summer and across America many people are traveling, cooking on grills in their back yards, taking picnic lunches to the beach or parks or just generally taking it easy on this Monday holiday.

We who live in a small town always seem to know who is celebrating what and where and with whom. Paul Harvey has this to say on the subject of small towns. A little town is where everybody knows what everyone else is doing, but they read the weekly newspaper to see who got caught at it.

In a little town everybody knows every neighbor's car by sight and most by sound. They also know when they come and where they go.

A little town is where, if you get the wrong number you can talk for 15 minutes anyway, if you want to.

A little town is where there's hardly anything to do and never enough time to do it.

In any town, the ratio of good people to bad people is a hundred to one. In a big town, the hundred are uncomfortable. In a little town, the one is.

Small-town gossip tends to cut down anybody who's up, and help up anybody who's down.

The small town policeman has a first name. The small town teacher has the last word.

In the class play, there's a part for everybody.

In the town jail, there's rarely anybody.

In the town cemetery, you're still among friends.

May we remember all the many blessings that we have by living in our small towns where we do know our neighbors, how they celebrate the holidays and who are always there when anyone has a need. May the laboring force of America continue to be a moving force for the masses of the world.

Keep Turkey Beautiful

by j. guest

Our mayor, Sue Johnson, and I attended a four hour workshop in Childress sponsored by Keep Texas Beautiful entitled "Organizing for a Cleaner Community."

About 30 people from Memphis, Childress, Turkey, Quanah and other towns attended the workshop. The three presenters were very knowledgeable about the subject and presented the information in an interesting way. The time passed quickly.

The workshop addressed problems such as litter, solid waste issues, litter prevention and beautification activities. By attending the workshop we received a KTB Training Manual that is loaded with ideas and suggestions for beautifying our community. Thanks to TxDOT and the Meadows Foundation, there was not a charge for attending this valuable workshop.

At a later date, you will hear more about how we can go about accomplishing some of these ideas in our own community.

Today, the tulip is considered a relatively common flower. However, during the height of the "tulipmania" which swept Holland from 1634 to 1637, tulip bulbs commanded astronomical sums. As payment for a rare bulb, one unnamed buyer delivered 8,000 lbs. of wheat, 16,000 lbs. of rye, four fat oxen, eight fat swine, 12 fat sheep, two hogsh-heads of wine, 1,000 gallons of beer, 500 gallons of butter, 1,000 lbs. of cheese, a complete bed, a suit of clothes, and a silver drinking cup.

Biblical Prophecies Seminar Set For September 15th

Lynn E. Rhoderick of Grants, New Mexico will spend his 66th birthday in Quitaque where he was born on September 15, 1932 to James C. and Bertha Hancock Rhoderick. His parents had four other children. J. C. Jr., Bungy and his sister, Lorene are deceased. His remaining brother, Billy Frank, lives in Lubbock, Texas. The elder Rhodericks owned farms in Briscoe County besides the City Grocery and the Los Lingos Hotel in Quitaque.

Lynn graduated from Quitaque High in 1951. In 1958 he graduated from Wayland Baptist University where he received the Timothy Award for being the ministerial student with the highest GPA. Although Mr. Rhoderick opted to become a public school teacher, he has continued his theological studies. He has had a variety of experiences with churches of differing doctrines.

In his studies Mr. Rhoderick claims to have found proof that the "White Stone Prophecy" of Revelations 2:17 has been fulfilled in his generation. He believes this signifies that churches should doctrinally unite in preparation for the return of Jesus Christ.

Persons of all faiths are encouraged to attend his seminar to be held at the Quitaque Community Center on Tuesday, the 15th, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. He suggests everyone bring Bibles.

Water Woes For Ranchers

City dwellers are being asked to conserve water, but they'll still have enough to drink. That may not be the case with livestock because ranchers rely on rain to replenish the water in their stock ponds.

This summer, stock tanks are exceptionally low. Even ranchers who can pump water for livestock are struggling.

Donny Robertson has 300 head of cattle in Normangee, Texas. He has four miles of water lines that keep breaking as the dry land cracks and shifts. He's having to check the lines twice a day to fix leaks and make sure his cattle have water.

If ponds and wells dry up, the only option is to have the water trucked in. Extension beef cattle specialist Dr. Larry Boleman says that's a huge expense in a year when cattle producers are already operating in the red because of increased feed costs.

He also says low levels in tanks can cause another problem. Cattle walk to the center for water and get stuck in the mud. Boleman says ranchers need to check their cattle daily or risk losing them because they can get bogged down in a shallow pond.

Tequila, indigenous to Mexico, is obtained from the heart-sap of the mescal cactus.

Boman Reunion

by j guest
 The descendants of David Hinton and Mary Elizabeth Price Boman gathered at the Lois Long Center in Frederick, Oklahoma on September 5, 1998.

Approximately 42 gathered to share a delicious meal of good home-cooking. The food must have been great because the young people there voted down the suggestion of catering the meal for the next reunion.

After dinner descendants shared a little about who they were, what was going on in their lives and a few memories of the past. Phil McMasters gathered information from each person for a family tree that he is compiling. Officers for the next year were elected before dismissing for the traditional music session.

The group then gathered around the piano and sang gospel songs for a couple of hours before returning to their respective homes.

Those attending from the Augusta Boman Law line were Lillian (daughter) and Hoss Mullin, Harvey Mullin and granddaughter Jamie Wilkey of Ft. Worth, Rick, Amanda, and Michael Mullin of Turkey, Dean and Jean Mullin of Quitaque, and Joyce Guest, Turkey.

ANOTHER GOOD KID

Brandy Ensminger, 15, Annie and Bly Shannon's granddaughter, has written a beautiful song entitled "I'm Going to A Place." An accompaniment has now been composed for the song.

Isn't it great that kids are doing worthwhile things such as this.

I'm going to a place

I'm going to a place where there is no night, where I'll walk among the angels robed in white, where all will sing, and praises ring, and the Glory of God is for all to be seen.

I'm going to a place where a mansion lies for me in my home beyond the skies, where the streets are gold, where you never grow old, and before your eyes lie secrets untold.

I'm going to a place where no tears fall, and glory will fill the hearts of all, where I'll see the saints and Jesus' face, Heaven is what the Lord named this place.

So when the trumpet sounds or my time is done, I'm going to a place-- a crown of life I have won.

NEW APARTMENT?
 Here's another necessity.

If you recently moved into an apartment or duplex, this may be the first opportunity you've had to experience the benefits of having natural gas in your home.

You'll find that for heating your home during cold weather, for hot water, or for cooking, nothing beats natural gas for convenience, economy, and efficiency.

Here are a few reminders from your friends at ENERGAS Company on the safe and responsible use of natural gas.

- YOUR FURNACE NEEDS AN ANNUAL CHECK-UP. Contact your landlord or apartment manager to arrange for an annual inspection by a qualified heating contractor.
- A CLOSET ISN'T ALWAYS A CLOSET. Your water heater or furnace is probably in a closet by itself. As tempting as it may be, don't use the space around a water heater or furnace for storage. This will assure adequate air circulation.
- IF YOU SMELL GAS. Day or night, exit your home then call toll free 1-888-363-7427. Do not flip light switches or use any other electrical equipment. Do not light a match or a candle. Do not try and find the leak yourself.

An amateur race car driver doesn't see his hobby as a particularly dangerous sport. He says they don't read a newspaper, put on makeup, drink coffee or talk on cellular phones when zooming around the tract!

August Rains Appreciated

After the lack of needed rain the past five months of 1998 in northwest Motley County, residents of Flomot and Whiteflat gave a thankful look upward when showers of rain fell in August.

The moisture varied from one location to another. Mrs. Tommie Jo Cruse, NWSV, 5 1/2 miles east, northeast of Flomot, officially reported a total of 1.60 inches of rain for August. Mary Ellen Barton, six miles due east of Flomot, registered 2.30 inches and Wilburn Martin, six miles due west of Flomot, reported a total of 2.03 inches of rain.

Whiteflat didn't fare as well when reporting August rainfall. Residents rain gauges registered 0.90 to 1.20 total.

Learn Children To Hit The Books Properly

Getting children into a good homework routine during their early years can lay the foundation for a lifetime of good study habits.

"Parents can teach their children good homework habits by example," said Dr. Florence Eddins, a child psychiatrist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Parents should sit near the child and do some work of their own. This will give the child an idea of how to do homework. Flexibility is important. Some children may like to do homework with music in the background or may need to play before sitting down to hit the books. It is good to experiment for a while and see what works best for the child.

Homework success also depends on good communication between parent and teacher. Learning what the teacher expects from the child will make it easier for the parents to help with homework.

Do Gooders' Bazaar Planned For October

The Do gooders' Club began the month Tuesday afternoon, September 1st with friends, refreshments and cheerful decorations at their meeting at the Community Center in Flomot.

Mrs. Mary Jo Calvert conducted the business session. The club will hold their annual Bazaar, October 10 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Community Center. Anyone wanting a booth may contact Tommie Jo Cruse (469-5262), Leona Degan (469-5352) or Mary Jo Calvert (469-5212). They can give you more information and the cost of the booths.

All members were given chances to sell for the quilt the club has completed. The winning name will be drawn at 3:30 p.m. the day of the Bazaar and the winning name does not have to be present to win.

Mrs. Tommie Jo Cruse and Mrs. Leona Degan presided at a crystal punch service. A beautiful multicolored bouquet of blooming flowers in a wicker basket centered the table laid with a white cloth. They served finger sandwiches, cake squares and cookies with fruit slush punch.

It was previously voted a member would bring an item of her choice to a designated club meeting for which chances would be sold to help defray expenses at the Center. The name of the club member drawn that day would win the gift.

Mrs. Degan and Mrs. Cruse brought a wire basket filled with fruit and vegetables. Mrs. Judy True was pleased her name was drawn.

Members attending in addition to those mentioned above were Mesdames Trula Martin, Barbara Payne, Alma Shorter, Sylvia Lee Martin, Waydette Clay, B. Rogers and Annie B. Cloyd. Guests were Mrs. Oma Lee George and daughter, Mrs. Mable Sue Barrett of Bovina, Mrs. Ernestine Payne of Quitaque and Mrs. Cruse's granddaughter, Teah Alane Patton of Silverton.

The Eyes Have It: Anti-Reflective Coating

(NAPS)—You can both see better and look better, thanks to a new idea in eye care.

Specifically, the idea is anti-reflective coating (known as AR coating), an extremely thin layer of film deposited on both lens surfaces. It works by reducing and nearly eliminating distracting reflections. The result is diminished eye strain and increased contrast and clarity.

War Against Terrorism will Require a Strong Defense and Even Stronger Resolve

A lot of folks thought that when the Soviet Union collapsed, we could relax our defense efforts a while and not worry as much about those who might want to hurt us. The events of the past few weeks remind us that we can't afford to relax at all - in fact, in some ways the world is more dangerous than ever.

One of the reasons we have to have a strong defense is terrorism. There are a number of groups around the world which have essentially declared war against the United States. They look for ways to attack us here at home and around the world. They want to cause the maximum amount of terror and damage. They don't distinguish between military and civilian targets. They just try to kill Americans and all that America stands for.

Many of these groups are willing to sacrifice their own lives to hurt us. They are actively seeking ever more dangerous weapons - including weapons of mass destructions, like chemical, biological, and nuclear weapons. If they continue to gain strength, many more Americans will die in the months and years to come. We must hit back, and we must hit back hard.

The war against terrorism will not be won in a month or a year. It will require a constant effort to gather information about terrorists, to prevent their attacks where possible, and to retaliate against them when necessary.

But the war against terrorism will be a fact of life for some time to come and is one of the reasons we must make sure that our military and intelligence capability is the best in the world.

Opening for Aggie Teacher
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rice made a round Sunday, driving down to Hermleigh and Rotan. Pete was scouting for an aggie teacher to take the place of Red Weatherly as instructor of the local veterans aggie class. Weatherly is planning to return to Panhandle and enter business with his father. Anyone who is qualified to teach agriculture, or knows of anyone who might be interested, is urged to contact Pete Rice.

LEADERS THIS WEEK IN GOLF TOURNEY MATCHES

The golf tournament in progress at the Quitaque links is progressing right along, with most of the contestants taking off a short period every day to tend to necessary business. Their minds, however, are on their shots.

In the championship flight, Hubert Gilbert defeated Earl Morrison and Gus Gibson defeated C. Alexander. Geo. Owens is leading Arnold Brown.

In the First Flight Marvin Tracy won over Murry Morrison; H. B. Settle won over Dee McWilliams and Gaston Owens won over Joe Bedwell in a close match that was decided on the final hole.

In other matches, Glen Gibson is leading Simpson, Garrett Morrison is leading Weathered, Roy Burgess is leading Bert Grundy and J. P. White is leading Dr. Shy.

Earl Patrick First Briscoe County Man To Register

Earl Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Patrick of Quitaque, was the first man in Briscoe County to register in the peacetime draft which began Monday morning.

Earl served in World War II, and was a casualty in a railroad accident soon after landing in France. Though he is a disabled veteran of the war, he was subject to registration.

O. R. Stark and Charlie Hutcheson of Pampa, a cousin of O. E. Hutcheson left Saturday for New York City where they will visit Lavern Roach.

THANK YOU

Thanks to everyone for their prayers, special thoughts, calls, visits, cards, and special deeds while Sid was hospitalized and since he has returned home. A special thank you goes to B.
