SAY CHEESE, PLEASE!

June is national dairy month according to the American Dairy Association. Milk and dairy products are one of the four food groups which are used as a basis of good nutrition and diet. Food items in the dairy group are rich in calcium, phosphorus, Vitamins A and D. In fact sunshine and milk are our main sources for Vitamin D.

Our bodies cannot produce calcium, so we must supply them with the calcium they need by eating calcium rich foods. Calcium is the mineral which is responsible for building healthy teeth and a strong skeletal system. Although various amounts of calcium can be obtained from items in the meat, fruit-vegetable, and grain group, seventy-two percent of our calcium comes from the milk group. If an adult does not consume foods from the milk group, then it is usually impossible for him to obtain his daily 800 milligram requirement for calcium.

The mineral calcium has several functions in the body. Ninety-nine percent of the calcium in our bodies is found in the bone and teeth. Calcium functions in the body to make our bones and skeleton dense and hard. From birth up to the age of 40 we can build up the density of our bones, but after age 40 we cannot. However, people 40 and over can slow down the rate at which their bones lose calcium by exercising and eating a variety of foods including calcium-rich foods. Weak, soft, brittle bones break easier than strong, hard bones.

The other one percent of calcium in our body is used for our hearts to beat, for our muscles to contract and relax, for our blood to clot, and for our nerves to transmit messages. A diet inadequate in calcium rich foods can lead to serious health problems such as osteoporosis—a painful crippling disease where bones become thin, brittle and break easily. This disease is common in women over 40 and elderly men. Currently it is estimated, according to the National Dairy Council, that 15 million Americans have some degree of osteoporosis. Loss of bones which support teeth is another problem associated with low calcium diets.

The one sure way of receiving calcium in the diet is to consume foods in the milk group. These foods include milk (whole, lowfat, skim, chocolate and buttermilk), milkshakes, cheese, ice cream, ice milk, yogurts, puddings and custards. Be wary of calcium supplements since they usually contain other chemicals which could be poisonous if taken in large amounts. Also, these supplements often lack the nutrients necessary for the calcium to be absorbed and utilized by the body. It is best to receive calcium from the foods we eat. Recommended daily servings from the milk group are as follows: Children—3 servings; Teenagers—4 servings; Adults—2 servings; Pregnant and Nursing Women—4 servings. A serving is usually considered one-half cup. If dieting, substitute skim milk for whole milk and ice milk for ice cream. By doing this a person can keep the fat content from dairy products at a low intake and still keep a balanced diet rich in calcium. To help insure a diet adequate in calcium follow these tips recommended by the National Dairy Council: (1) Drink milk with meals or as snacks; (2) Add cheese to sandwiches; (3) Prepare canned soups with milk instead of water; (4) Make your desserts calcium-rich. Select ice cream, frozen yogurt, cheese with fruit, custards, and puddings made with milk.

Dairying is the only form of agriculture found in all 50 states. Texas has about 2,600 dairymen. These dairy farmers marketed some 11 million pounds of milk from an estimated 335,000 cows in 1983. During that same year Northwest Texas led in sales of milk products and milk cows with total cash receipts of more than $157 million while Central Texas came in second with sales of almost $124 million.

A penny and health wise consumer will take advantage of grocery store specials on dairy products during the month of June. Be kind to your wallet and your bones and include items from the milk group in your diet during the month of June and all year long!

Edge of America

A barren beach — some plunging waves — and then for thousands of miles, the sea. Poets might think that way. But millions share the thought . . . this is the edge of America!

But the edge of our nation has been closing in. Within our restless society we have confronted a new edge of America — a shoreline of freedom, of justice, of mutual respect of men for one another and for their institutions. When you leave that shore behind, there is nothing . . .

Look rather at the heart of America. Look at the spiritual treasure which inspired patriots to crown religious liberty as the supreme freedom.

Each week our churches pursue their sacred mission. More and more they've been welcoming families like your own . . . folks who have seen the edge of America — and are seeking the heart!

Brown-Sherill Wedding Vows Solemnized Recently

The First Baptist Church in Quitaque was the scene of the recent marriage of Miss Cherri Nan Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie D. Brown, and Mr. Terry Jay Sherill of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill, jr. of Bovina.

Rev. Freddie M. Martin of Camden, Arkansas and former pastor, read the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with a brass archway entwined with greenery and accented with pink satin bows. Brass spiral candelabra, brass plant stands holding trailing Jew, and giant schiffers tied with pink bows completed the altar scene. The pews were marked with pink satin bows.

Mrs. Ross Herrington played the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

Alton and Donna Hurley sang "Just You and I." Alton also sang "The Wedding Song" and "Let It Be Me." They were accompanied by Mrs. Herrington at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a tea-length gown of candlelight lace featuring a high neckline, sheer yoke and long tapered sleeves. The tea-length skirt was accented with a lace ruffle at the hemline. She wore a halo hat of matching lace. The bride's bouquet was an orchid surrounded by pink roses atop a white Bible. A handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother was tucked inside the Bible.

Donna Hurley, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Kim Ham Eudy was bridesmatron. They wore identical lavender tea-length dresses of bridal taffeta. Each carried a long-stemmed pink rose tied with pink satin bow.

Stephen Sherrill of Bovina served his brother as best man. Groomsman was Rick Brazile of Canyon.

The candles were lighted by Brent Brown, brother of the bride, and John Carmen of Amarillo. They also served as ushers.

Guests were registered by Miss Patti Sherrill and Miss Wendy Sherrill of Bovina.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown chose a mauve lace dress with a matching lace jacket. Mrs. Sherrill wore a mauve dress accented by a ruffled neckline.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with an ivory satin cloth. The centerpiece was in shades of purple and pink, including snapdragons, carnations and lilies. Crystal and gold table appointments completed the decor.

The wedding cake was made in three tiers, separated by columns and was decorated with pink and lavender flowers and topped with wedding bells. Susan Cook and Shirley Riley, both of Amarillo, served at the bride's table.

Guests were served from the groom's table by DeLane Proctor of Turkey and Kathy Gist of Panhandle.

Mrs. Glen Ramsey, Mrs. Doyle Tiffin, Mrs. Ann Jones and Mrs. L. B. Monk were included in the houseparty.

New Zealand Visitors In Tunnell Home

Curtis Tunnell of Turkey has had visitors for the past week from New Zealand. Actually, the visitors are not native New Zealanders, but are Texans living in New Zealand. Gary Tunnell, his wife, Jonnie, and their sons, Gary, 16, and Judson, 11, are visiting with their father and grandfather on their way to Africa and will be in Turkey until June 20. Gary graduated from Turkey High School in 1960.

The Gary Tunnells are on their way to Africa where Dr. Tunnell will be carrying out a research project in Kenya. The project involves trying to reconstruct the techniques of hunting and gathering of wild food plants used by the Ol Dorobo, Hadza and Sandawe tribes of the Serengeti region of southwestern Kenya.

These tribes were the last people to live in the Serengeti by hunting. It is the richest

Dr. Tunnell hopes to transport some of the old men of the tribe back there and let them show him how they hunted and what kind of food plants they used. After the older generation dies, this information will be lost forever if not recorded now.

The idea has been around that hunting people lived short, unhealthy lives. This turns out to be untrue. The quality of their lives seems to have been very high. They lived almost as long as people in modern industrial societies. Heart disease, cancer and many other diseases of our society were almost non-existent. Dr. Tunnell will attempt to understand why this was true of these last hunters of East Africa.

The Gary Tunnell family will be camping in the wild, isolated Serengeti until February to carry out the research. The project is affiliated with the Kenyan National Museum which is directed by Mr. Richard Leakey, who has recently had a ten-part series on TV called "The Making of Mankind."

After the project, Dr. Tunnell and family will return to Auckland, New Zealand, where they make their home. Dr. Tunnell teaches at the University of Auckland. His wife, Jonnie, works as a psychiatric nurse. They plan yearly two-month visits to Kenya for the next several years to complete the research there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith of Miami, Florida and Mrs. Solon Owens of Turkey attended the wedding of Mrs. Owens' grandson, Jed Owens of Tulla, held at Whiteface Saturday, May 26.

Study Provides Data About Briscoe County

Texans are a fast growing lot with a far superior increase in buying power, individual investors and insurance coverage than has the entire nation as a whole.

Supporting these facts was a massive two-part market study by the Texas newspaper industry. This study reveals that, among other things:

"There are now 15,400,000 Texans comprising 5,450,000 households with spendable incomes totaling more than $147 billion."

These multiple-digit figures highlight an impartial study commissioned by the Texas Press Association (TPA). Conducting the study was Communications Management, Inc. (CMI) of Winnipeg, Canada.

Their massive research revealed that Texans annually spend:

- *$28 billion for food
- *$24 billion for motor vehicles
- *$31 billion for clothing, furniture and other department store items.

Briscoe County's population and economics played a significant role in the statewide study.

This was revealed in statistics showing that Briscoe County during 1983 was segmented into 1000 households comprising a total population of 2600.

Personal disposable income in this county was $21.5 million during 1983, with a healthy increase obvious for 1984.

Lyndel Williams, Executive Vice-President of the state association comprising 542 Texas newspapers and more than 200 corporate associate members, termed the study results "an accurate and thorough barometer of the size and scope of the state's booming economy and growth."

"This important study also provides local business and industry with the data necessary to make intelligent decisions involving vast expenditures and investments of capital."

The Texas boom is reflected in this study's report showing a 55.4 percent increase in retail sales over the recent four-year period. Retail sales throughout the U. S. during the same four-year period rose only 33.2 percent—22.2 percent less than the Texas growth.

John Taylor, director of the Texas Newspaper Advertising Bureau (TNAB), said the study dramatized with accuracy the unlimited potential for still further growth within this state.

"Investors and the business community in general are reaching tomorrow's potential—today. They're not sitting back waiting for growth to come—they're becoming a part of it right now."

He emphasized this by pointing out that Texans who bought shares of publicly-traded stock during the past two years increased 37.4 percent, as compared with a national increase of only 31.3 percent. Individual stockholders in Houston and Austin provided the biggest increases in number with 38.4 percent and 35.1 percent during that two-year period.

Taylor, whose Ad Bureau represents Texas newspapers in dealing with the major regional and national advertisers, also cited the "multi-billion-dollar buying power" of this state's 5,450,000 individual households.

"Texans spend more than $6 billion for clothing and shoes, another $1.35 billion for furniture and over $1 billion for major appliances," he continued.

Women 16 years of age and older spend the most money for clothing and shoes, at over $2.7 billion per year.

Second highest spenders to be clothed and shod are men in that same age bracket, 16 years of age and older. This group spends close to $2 billion annually.

More money is spent on shoes for boys in the two to 15-year-age bracket than for girls. But less is spent on boys' clothing.

Over $500 million annually is spent on clothing and shoes for infants under two years of age.

These expenditures were being reflected by buying in Briscoe County, meanwhile, where 949,000 was spent for clothing and shoes, and $200,000 for furniture and $164,000 for major appliances.

Williams, who commissioned the current study along with a massive survey still to be completed about Texans' reading, shopping and living habits, stressed the importance of individual ownerships and investments in Texas.

"We sought total accuracy in this study to determine the economic levels of not only businesses and industry within this state, but also those of its individual citizens. We feel that the study just completed by Communications Management has achieved that goal."

"It should also be noted that retail potentials listed won't necessarily correspond with retail sales figures for an area. That's because a goodly amount of shopping by many local area consumers was done in other counties."

Williams pointed out that this "retail drift" of local income dollars being spent in other areas should provide community-located business firms with incentives for increasing their business promotions and advertising.

"The dollars are there in the vast majority of cases, and this study has revealed that an alarming amount is being spent outside of the local community's trade area.

The study also pictured Texas agriculture as a $10-billion-a-year industry, and farmers of this state as major purchasers of farm machinery and supplies.

Briscoe County's economy is also strongly supported by its agricultural community. The study revealed that 287 farms were operating in this county in 1978, and that its farm population had increased to 443 by 1980, figures initially reported by the U. S. Census reports.

Farmers of Briscoe County also received $14.1 million in 1982 for their products. Estimated value of machinery and equipment on farms in 1978 was $16.8 million, as compared with $8.8 million in 1974.

Statewide, the number of farms operating in Texas during 1978 totaled 194,253. The farm population stood at 268,893 in 1980.

Texas farmers in 1982 sold their products for $9.67 billion. They also received an additional $643 million in government payments.

The estimated market value of farm machinery and equipment in Texas in 1974 was over $2.75 billion, but had risen more than 65 percent by 1978.

Principal expenditures for Texas farmers included the purchase of livestock and poultry, which increased from $1.34 billion in 1974 to an additional billion in 1978.

Other high cost items for Texas farmers for 1978 (the last available figure) were $334,700,000 for commercial fertilizer, $169,100,000 for other agricultural chemicals and $524,700 for commercially mixed formula feeds.

Petroleum products, of course, was also one of the top expense items for Texas farmers in the 1970s. Farmers paid over $4 million for these products in 1978.

A second study to be released by the Texas Press Association will include a total statewide report on consumer shopping tendencies, media usage by Texans, readership by content and a wide variety of other demographics.

The estimated incidence of new cervical cancer cases in 1984 is 16,000 and the estimated incidence of cancer of the endometrium is 39,000.

If you would, then you are like most people. Everyone needs a retreat, at moments. And everyone has one! It isn't a mountain cabin or a seaside cottage — but it is a place far better suited to prayer and contemplation, a place to sort out old errors and make new resolutions. BUFFALO SPRINGS TO SPONSOR FOURTH OF JULY FIREWORKS DISPLAY

The Buffalo Springs Lake Board of Directors recently announced the Lake will stage a July 4th Jubilee fireworks display similar to the Lake's much publicized shows of several years ago.

"This display will be the largest such show known to date for West Texas this year," said Rod Krebbs, general manager of the Lake.

Plains Wholesale Fireworks will present the 30 to 40 minute show with over 200 various types of fireworks, according to Lee Gilder of the company.

"I know the people in the business and at this point in time, this will be the biggest (fireworks display) this side of Dallas," said Gilder.

In years past the Lake's fireworks display has drawn over 35,000 people. The Lake management expects a similar turnout with the build up of Lubbock's 75th Jubilee activities.

"Buffalo Springs Lake had developed a reputation for quite a fireworks show several years ago, and we plan to provide the same quality show again," said Krebbs.

Plains Wholesale Fireworks is a factory distributor of fireworks for Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma. The display will include fireworks with very imaginative names such as blue tip comets, electric streamers, red, green and gold twinklers, glittering silver chrysanthemums, big willow with silver rain and thunder and color changing fancy stars to name a few, according to Gilder.

Joe McGowen, a Buffalo Springs Lake ranger since 1958, recalls people coming to the Buffalo Springs Lake fireworks display from as far away as Odessa, Clovis, Farwell and Bovina. During the early 1960's over 35,000 people attended yearly, according to McGowen.

"It always seems people like things that are in the least bit dangerous. In the past the salute bombs shooting 400 feet into the air jarred the whole canyon, so I'm really looking forward to it this year," said McGowen.

"We hope the lake will be full of boats, and we're reserving our own Buffalo Gal Excursion Boat for onlookers also," said Krebbs.

Because of the expected large crowd attendance, Krebbs said a traffic plan is being devised to facilitate the traffic flow during the festivities. Two entrance gates will be open for the traffic flow in and afterward all access roads to exit will be open, plus special traffic arrangements within the Lake will be made.

"The Lake also has its own fire department for any emergencies and ambulances and patrol boats will also be on hand as needed," said Krebbs.

For more information about the show and other activities scheduled for July 4 at the Lake, call 747-3353.

With dry weather already plaguing Texas, homeowners need to get the most from irrigation water to keep yards and gardens lush and growing.

Price In Hospital After Falling While On Job

Keith Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edd Price of Amarillo, formerly of Quitaque, had an accident about 4:30 p.m. Friday while at work. He was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital with two broken wrists and was very badly bruised and received cuts on his face, head and mouth.

Keith was installing a sign on top of a building and as he was about to finish the job, he was distracted by his boss, who was talking to him from the ground. Keith turned to step aside, not realizing he was so close to the edge. He lost his footing and fell about 12 or 13 feet head and hands first.

It has been determined that his left wrist may be well enough in six to seven weeks to remove the cast, but the right wrist has such a bad break that it may require surgery, as the nerves are in bad shape. It may be three or four months before he will have the cast off on that one. It was reported that the doctor said he was lucky to be alive.

Virginia Dudley, his grandmother from Turkey, visited him on Saturday and said he was in a lot of pain but was doing as good as could be expected. Keith attended Valley School before moving to Amarillo.

Stacy and Lacy Price of Turkey visited him on Saturday and Bulah Landry of Amarillo was also a visitor.

Keith is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Price of Quitaque. reported by Virginia Dudley

The estimated incidence of new cases of colon-rectum cancer in 1984 is 130,000.

GRILL POT-ROAST FOR ECONOMICAL COOKOUT

This summer include a hearty, satisfying and budget stretching beef pot-roast in your cookout repertoire. It's easy to achieve tender, delicious results following these special grilling techniques.

First, place a beef chuck arm, blade or 7-bone pot-roast in a cooking bag; tie bag, leaving an opening for venting at closure. Then wrap securely in heavy duty aluminum foil, folding edges to seal. Place on grill and cook at low to moderate heat until done, turning occasionally. If desired, when the meat is done, remove from bag and briefly broil over the coals to pick up that special charcoal flavor.

An estimated 59,400 individuals will die of colon-rectum cancer in 1984. Second only to lung cancer.

CARDS OF THANKS

Once again, I would like to thank everyone for all the visits, cards, flowers and telephone calls while I was in the hospital; also, for the food since I have been home, and, most of all, for your prayers in my behalf. The people of Turkey and Quitaque are great. May God bless each of you.

Cathryn Setliff and family

We want to take this means to thank the Fire Boys, the Ambulance workers, Dr. Crandall, Rev. and Mrs. Clinton and any others who have helped us so much while I was in the hospital and after I returned home. The visits and the cards were also appreciated very much. We thank everyone so much for your prayers.
May God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hawkins
Homer and Claudia Hawkins

We want to send a big "thank you" to all of our friends and relatives for making our anniversary such a happy one.

We appreciate the friends who helped Jean with all of the tasks at the reception and before.

The flowers added so much beauty, and we will always treasure the gifts of love that you sent. We appreciated the beautiful cards so much and will treasure them over the years.

We must say a special thank you to our children, Jarrell, Jean, Mike, Nadine and Walt for giving us this perfect celebration that will always be a happy memory.

To all our friends:
We want to thank you for the going-away party and your love and prayers.

We want to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, food, phone calls and all the other acts of kindness shown to us.

EVALUATING TELEPHONE LONG-DISTANCE SERVICES

Selecting a long-distance telephone service may not be the biggest consumer decision you have to make this year, but it could be the most confusing.

More than 17 long-distance companies provide service in Texas and that number is growing, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist Nancy Granovsky.

Some Texas communities are served by several long-distance companies and others by their regular telephone carrier only.

"Even where long-distance services are available, not everyone needs to subscribe," she said.
If your present long-distance bills don't exceed $5-10 each month, you probably will not benefit by a special service.
"Consumers should weigh the pros and cons of alternate long-distance service and compare options to select the one that best meets their needs," advises Ms. Granovsky.
