Art Show To Be At Bank In Quitaque

Arvis L. Stewart of Amarillo will present a showing of arts at the First National Bank in Quitaque Monday, August 19. There will be displays of fine arts, including oil paintings, water colors, portraits, pencil, pottery, ceramics, etchings, original illustrations, etc.

Mr. Stewart was born in Turkey and grew up in Amarillo. He graduated in 1958 from AHS and from Texas Tech University in 1965. He moved to New York City and began a career in illustration of children's books. Over the years, he has won many awards and has worked most of the major publishing houses, including McMillan, Harper & Roe, Addison & Wesley, Readers Digest and others.

He moved back to Amarillo a few years ago and has his own studio next door to his home. He has displays of many noted artists included in the gallery.

He will have several children's books with him for sale, and a copy of his newest creation, a book of Greek mythology, for which he will take orders. He will have posters and limited editions for sale also.

There are many artists in our reader area who will find the display interesting and one might find just the painting for which he/she has been looking.

Quitaque Methodists To Have Vacation Bible School

The First United Methodist Church of Quitaque will be sponsoring a Vacation Bible School beginning August 19 from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. which will continue each afternoon through Friday, August 23. Classes will be offered for children ages three through the sixth grade and a parents' night program will be held on Friday night at 7:00 p.m.

Theme for this year's Vacation Bible School is "Discovering God's Love on Sunrise Island" and it is taken from the scriptural passage in I Corinthians 13. A treasure island theme of discovery will be interwoven in all of the many exciting and fun activities: Bible Story Times, crafts, recreation, music, Bible learning activities, plus the opportunity to hear inspiring devotionals, view puppet skits, have refreshments, and experience

God's love on "Sunrise Island."

Plan now to enroll your children in this exciting Vacation Bible School. There is no charge and no pre-registration, so come join the fun at the Methodist Church on Monday, August 19, at 1:00 p.m. A great discovery awaits—so don't miss out on the opportunity to visit Sunrise Island!

"We the Women" Have Monthly Luncheon Monday

"We the Women" met Monday, August 12, at the Quitaque Community Center. There were thirteen ladies present. Each lady present told of her most memorable vacation. Those present reported a good time.

The ladies of the Quitaque Senior Citizens prepared and served the noon meal and those present reported it was delicious.

The Quitaque Senior Citizens will serve the club, beginning in September, at the Senior Citizens Building.

The Yard of the Month award went to Jimmy and Faye Pointer for the month of August.

The next regularly scheduled meeting will be Monday, September 9. The cost of the luncheon is $4.00 per plate. A nursery is provided for the children.

Noon Meal To Be Served In Quitaque Sunday

The Senior Citizens of Quitaque plan to serve the noon meal Sunday, August 18, beginning at 11:30 a.m. and continuing until 1:30 p.m. The group plans to continue the noon meal as long as it can get help. The Senior Citizens who have paid their dues may eat for $2.00, so come out and enjoy the fellowship and get a good meal for less than you can prepare it at home.

The Senior Citizens have been using the money made from serving the meals to pay for the building, and to make some other improvements. One thing that has been done recently is to install an air conditioner, and if anyone has not noticed, the east side of the building has been redone—thanks to Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Stark, jr. for this improvement.

The Senior Citizens took the cleaning of the cemetery as a project this year and have kept it in excellent condition. They just completed the cleaning last week and report it was in a bad condition again when they started.

They have cleaned off the vacant lot east of the building, and the alley behind it this week. As you drive down the street, look how good the vacant lot looks, and above all, drive west and look at the side of the building on the east. The sign with Berryhill Meat Co., which has been an eyesore to the community and those driving through town for years, is gone.

The group has many other projects in mind, and more improvements in the near future. Everyone over the age of 55 is invited to join and take part in

Director of Texas Wagon Train Meets With Turkey Committee

Jan France, executive director of the Texas Wagon Train, was in Turkey on Wednesday, August 7, to meet with part of the Sesquicentennial Committee regarding the arrangements to be made for the Texas Wagon Train to camp in Turkey on May 24-25, 1986.

Mrs. France was very pleased with the arrangements that have been made in Turkey. She stated that the area around Turkey is some of the most beautiful that she has seen around the state.

Anyone interested in working with the Texas Wagon Train Committee in Turkey is urged to contact Marjorie Bell or Sybil Young. This is going to be quite an endeavor for Turkey to undertake as there will be approximately 1000 people in the Texas Wagon Train by the time it reaches Turkey.

In other items of interest regarding the Sesquicentennial, the committee plans to call a general meeting early in September to make further plans. It is anticipated that a game night and supper will be held about the middle of September to raise money and also a Christmas Bazaar will be held in the middle of November. Contributions and souvenirs have been going quite well. All profits will be going to place a solid fence around the Dreamland Cemetery.

Janice Guest Is Turkey Bike-A-Thon Chairman This Year

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is proud to announce the selection of Mrs. Janice Guest as chairman for this fall's Bike-A-Thon in Turkey. According to Clifford Damstrom, Southwest Regional Director, the cost of treatment, equipment, drugs and research programs is met primarily by contributions from private individuals through programs such as bike-a-thons.

The impact of St. Jude's research work is felt in every community where cancer and other killer diseases strike. Over 10,000 children will be stricken with cancer during this year alone. Next to accidents, cancer is the leading killer of children in the United States. St. Jude is the world's largest cancer research center in terms of treatment success and is the only institution of its kind dedicated solely to research and the care of children stricken with catastrophic illnesses.

Damstrom, who is regional director, stated, "It is gratifying that every year in towns all across the country, volunteer leaders organize bike-a-thons to benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. This would not be possible without the help and support of dedicated chairmen.

Danny Thomas, founder of St. Jude Children's Research Hospi-

"criminals" will be arrested, jailed and fined. Justice will be done at the jail on Allsup's parking lot. Come by and see "justice" handed down. Help make bail for the innocent.

All proceeds will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. "Please come and make bail early so we don't have to feed them bread and water," the "law" said.

Cheese To Be Given August 21-22

Cheese will be given away at the City Hall in Quitaque August 21-22 for those of you who qualify.

Please remember these dates.

Valley 4-H To Meet Monday Night

The Valley 4-H'ers are urged to be present Monday night, August 19, at 7:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church.

Officers for the new year will be elected.

Make plans to attend.

Seat Belt Compulsory Law Goes Into Effect September 1

It is indeed strange thinking about seat belts that permits so much death and suffering in the name of personal convenience and unwrinkled clothing, says a safety official.

Most of this "strange thinking" is based on a number of common myths about seat belts, says Dr. Gary Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System •Myth: Seat belts are unnecessary for short trips.

Fact: More than 70% of injury-causing traffic accidents occur within 25 miles of home, according to the National Safety Council. More than 80% of all collisions happen at speeds of under 40 mph. People who were not wearing seat belts have been killed in accidents that occurred at speeds as low as 12 mph—about the speed you would be driving in a parking lot.

•Myth: Seat belts trap people inside cars, and I'd rather be thrown clear.

Fact: "Thrown clear" is a misnomer. Being thrown from a vehicle usually means flying through the windshield or catapulting out a door. The force of a collision can fling you as much as 150 feet onto a roadside object, into the path of oncoming traffic or scraping along the pavement. For these reasons, if you are thrown from a vehicle in an accident, your chances of being killed are 25% greater. What's more, instead of being trapped, belted occupants are likely to be conscious and unhurt, and therefore better able to escape in the rare situation where fire or submersions are added dangers. •Myth: Seat belts cause injuries.

Fact: Study after study in the United States and abroad show a substantial decrease in the number of serious injuries in actual auto accidents among those who are belted versus those who aren't. In the rare instances where injuries due to belts have been reported, either the belt was inappropriately worn or the crash was so severe that the occupants would have been killed or seriously injured if they had been unbelted.

•Myth: I don't need belts since I'm a careful driver.

Fact: No matter how good a driver you are, you can't control the other car. There's no way to protect yourself against someone else's bad driving, poor judgments or mechanical failures. Even good drivers can be killed or injured in a crash.

•Myth: I don't need seat belts; I can brace myself.

Fact: The force of an impact at just 10 mph is equivalent to catching a 200-pound bag of cement thrown from a first-story window, according to the National Safety Council. At 35 mph, the force of an impact is even more brutal. There's no way your arms and legs can brace you against that kind of force—even if you could react in time.

The Tribune received a renewal from Clema Dell (Woods) Rand in which she states she and her mother, Mrs. Mae Dell Woods of El Paso, Texas, enjoy the Tribune, although they still call it "The Quitaque Post." She says her mother is confined to her bed most of the time and the arrival of the Tribune is like a conversation trying to decide who they know in the news. She reports she really enjoys the "Quitaque Yesterday." She says it must go back to the late '30's and '40's for her, however.

She says she hopes to get back to the "Valley" sometime, but for the Tribune to keep the memories stirring for them. (Ed. note: Will do!)

Another renewal and note from Liz Driver. She says her neighbors look forward to her getting the Valley Tribune. The Bob Sanders family lived just north of Quitaque in the period from 1930 to 1941. They have been her helpers since her husband, Lee Driver, died.

MILLIONS OF SPECIES OF INSECTS ON EARTH

There may be as many as 30 to 50 million species of insects on Earth—at least five times more than previously estimated, reports "National Wildlife" magazine. The census update is based on the results of the first survey of insects living high up in the trees of a tropical rain forest.

Exempt Hunting Licenses (persons under 17 years or over 65 years), $6.00; Resident Hunting Licenses, $10.00; Resident Combination Hunting and Fishing Licenses, $15.00; Archery Stamp, $6.00; Texas Waterfowl Stamp, $5.00; Resident Fishing License, $8.00; Resident Trapper's License, $10.75; General Non-Resident Hunting License, $200.00; Non-Resident Small Game License, $75.00.

HOUSEHOLD PLANTS FIGHT INDOOR POLLUTION

Want to fight indoor air pollution in your home? Try household plants. According to "National Wildlife" magazine, thousands of people may be poisoned in their homes each year by toxic substances such as carbon monoxide and nitrogen dioxide. Luckily, houseplants, particularly spider plants, are excellent air cleaners. So put some greenery in your home and breathe easier.

PUFFINS SWIM DIFFERENTLY

Puffins do it differently. Unlike other diving birds which propel themselves through the water by kicking their webbed feet, puffins use their wings to actually fly underwater. After converting from a "plane" to a "submarine," puffins can move rapidly enough to catch fast-moving fish, such as herring.

Former Texas Playboy Singer Heads For Reunion

The popular Bob Wills song "Take Me Back to Tulsa" has a whole new meaning for Judy Kaye, who once toured with the king of western swing.

Today, the former vocalist with the Texas Playboys will be heading back to Tulsa, where her own singing career began at age nine, to help cut a new record and video during the second annual Texas Playboys reunion at the Tulsa, Oklahoma convention center.

For three decades, singing was a way of life for Judy Kaye—a way including all the big country and western shows as well as the Lawrence Welk Show and tours with the Texas Troubador—Ernest Tubb—and the kind of western swing.

She figured all that was behind her when she settled into the regular business world in Lubbock and turned her vocal chords to lullabys for four grandchildren.

That was before Judy Kaye, now Mrs. Eddie Jackson, made her first appearance at the Texas Playboys reunion during Bob Wills Day at Turkey. It was like rediscovering her family for Mrs. Jackson, who came to think of Wills as a second father while singing with the Playboys.

Ever since, almost every day brings contacts from the past to spark new life in a career rapidly rolling full tilt back along entertainment paths.

From a Lubbock business office and the regular workday, she's back at the microphone by popular demand.

Today through Sunday, Mrs. Jackson will join about four dozen former Texas Playboys at the Tulsa reunion.

The reunion begins with a jam session for Playboys, which leads to the tribute to Bob Wills on Saturday. An autograph party holds forth from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday with old Bob Wills movies set for 2 p.m. and the concert kicking off at 7:30 p.m.

All the excitement began at Turkey's tribute to its most famous son, which happens the last weekend in April each year.

"They'd been looking for me, but they didn't know my married name," bubbled the vocalist while getting set for the trip back to Tulsa.

The excitement of singing with the band came back at the opening dance with Playboys from her Wills era on stage with her. It grew the next day when rain forced the outdoor performance inside and there wasn't even standing room in the Bob Wills Auditorium where the audience crowded right up to the stage.

As the new "Playboy" at the reunion, she got the spotlight, and Dave Stallings, president of Delta Records, came around to tell her how she "really sparked" the band.

From then on, the pressure grew to get her back at the microphone, a thing that happens regularly now in Lubbock at the Robin's Nest.

Judy Kaye, billed as "the little girl with the great big voice," launched her career at nine as a regular on the Big Red Jamboree in Tulsa. Guest spots on Red Foley's Jubilee USA came two to three times a month and she appeared on the Midwestern Hayride, National Barndance and Monitor Calling. A tape sent to Welk's Top Tunes and New Talent competition won her a number of appearances with Welk who wanted her as a regular on his show. When complications arose, he got her a recording contract.

When she started singing with Johnny Lee Wills in Tulsa, Judy Kaye had shared the stage with most of the top entertainers including Roy Rogers and Gentleman Jim Reeves. Bob Wills heard her in Tulsa and signed the 16-year-old singer for the Playboys.

The four different blood types were distinguished by an Austrian pathologist, Karl Landersteiner.

Exercise a little Self-Control to Help Keep Your Electric Bill from Stacking Up This Summer.

Sometimes we have to cut down on the things we like — that takes self-control. Self-control is important when it comes to overindulging in too many calories . . . or when it comes to overcooling your home. Your electric bill can stack up if you set your thermostat too low on hot summer days.

WTU recommends setting your thermostat at 78 degrees or higher. Also, clean or replace your air conditioner filter at least once a month so your unit will operate as efficiently as possible. Keep drapes closed during the heat of the day, and avoid opening outside doors frequently to help keep the cool air in and the heat out.

For more information on how you can help keep your electric bill from stacking up this summer, contact your local WTU office today.

MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN A. HAVENS

McElreath-Havens Wedding Vows Read In Quitaque Recently

Miss Misti LaDon McElreath of Quitaque and Stephen A. Havens of Wiggins, Colorado were united in marriage Saturday, July 13, 1985, at the First Baptist Church in Quitaque, Texas. Mr. J. E. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church and father of the groom, performed the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Stark of Quitaque and Don McElreath of Lubbock. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Havens of Sandia Park, New Hampshire.

Vows were read before an arch of candelabra covered with greenery holding ivory candles and flanked by baskets of pink and burgundy carnations with burgundy bows. The aisles were marked with burgundy bows where the families were seated.

Rings for the double-ring ceremony were carried on a satin pillow by Micah Stark, brother of the bride, at her request.

Given in marriage by her father, Don McElreath, the bride wore a formal length gown of candlelight organza styled with a Queen Anne neckline and trimmed with French Alencon lace. Her full sleeves of organza and Alencon lace were gathered at the cuffs with a band. Her fitted bodice was attached to a full skirt with a wide ruffle which swept into a chapel-length train. She wore a large wide-brimmed picture hat to which a veil of illusion was attached by tatted flowers with pearl centers and cluny lace roses, and she wore a facial veil.

She carried a cascade of pink and burgundy roses accented with stephanotis and gladioli surrounding her going-away corsage of Catagua orchid with streamers of burgundy and ivory.

For something old, the bride wore a gold wedding band belonging to her great-great-grandmother, the grandmother of Mrs. Lavonia Mullin, Misti's grandmother. Something new was her wedding gown and accessories. Something borrowed was a pearl necklace and earrings, worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Stark, in her own wedding. They had been a gift from her husband, O. R. Stark, jr.

Something blue was the handkerchief of Mrs. Ivan McElreath, her grandmother. The couple placed pennies minted in the years of their birth in their shoes for good luck.

Maid of honor was Donna Kay Maddox of Memphis. Her gown was designed in tea length of burgundy taffeta with a dropped bodice with butterfly wings accented with a large bow in the back. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladioli flowers, baby's breath and streamers of burgundy and ivory.

The flower girl was Shannon Havens of Wiggins, Colorado, a niece of the groom. She wore an ankle-length gown of pink taffeta with a pinafore of ivory chiffon. She carried a wicker basket of pink carnations and baby's breath showered with burgundy and ivory streamers.

Samantha Stark was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a tea-length gown of pink taffeta with dropped bodice with butterfly wings accented with a bow in back.

Micah Stark, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Don Cheek of Floydada was best man. Brandon Stark, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

Keith Owens of Aiken seated the guests.

Mrs. Paul A. Ramsey, pianist, accompanied soloist Ed Havens, brother of the groom of Wiggins, Colorado, as he sang, "There is Love" and "There's No Way" by Alabama.

Mrs. Stark chose a rose chiffon gown with sweeping back drape for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of the chosen colors of burgundy and ivory.

The groom's mother wore an off-white street-length dress with a matching corsage in the bride's colors.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the back yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Stark, Jr., grandparents of the bride.

The serving table was covered with an ivory cutwork cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of pink gladioli and burgundy carnations flanked by ivory tapers in candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the groom's mother. It was served by Keeli Hammer of Quitaque and Renee Shoemaker of Plainview with crystal and silver appointments. The cake featured pink roses and burgundy wedding bells topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Others assisting with the hostess duties were Janice Henson, Delene Tyler, both of Quitaque, Merlene Stephens of Silverton, Cindy Hartgraves of Duncannonville, Lila Ramsey, Lolla Belle Harmon and Zeola Taylor of Quitaque.

Kari Smith of Guymon, Oklahoma was in charge of the bride's book.

The couple is at home in Wiggins, Colorado.

The bride is a graduate of Valley High School and attended Clarendon College and Wayland Baptist University in Plainview.

The groom completed high school in Los Lunas, New Mexico. He attended Clarendon College and is affiliated with Morgan County Feeders in Fort Morgan, Colorado.

REHEARSAL PARTY

The rehearsal party was held at Caprock Canyons State Park with a barbecue prepared by James Brunson. It was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Havens.

The wedding party met in the back yard at the Stark home where the groom's table featured a watermelon sculpture surrounded by fresh fruit. A refreshment tray of mixed appetizers and fresh fruit was served.

BRIDAL COURTESIES

Among the courtesies given for the bride was a miscellaneous shower held in the First National Bank community room on June 22, hosted by friends. The same evening, a lingerie shower was hosted by Janice Henson at her home.

On July 12, following the rehearsal dinner, the couple opened gifts brought by the groom's parents from relatives and friends of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Adams and Joanna of Post visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Merrell, Sunday. He preached at the First Baptist Church in Quitaque Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barefield drove to Amarillo and spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Burnham. They attended the State Softball Tournament which was being held in Amarillo.

First to arrive was Neal Ewing and nephew, David. They also came the greatest distance, from Ontario, California. Following closely were Mabel Owens, Margaret Snowden and Dick Stephens of Memphis. Arriving a little later, but in time for the buffet-style dinner of country cooking, were Truett and Avis Stovall, Quail; D. B. and Jolene Barker, Jim Metcalf and daughter, Sue, all of Amarillo; bringing the number present to eighteen was the arrival of friends, Woodrow and Opal Bice, Tulia, and their daughter, Jeanette, of Dimmitt.

Cousins celebrating this reunion were Mabel Owens, the eldest, and Carl Baker, the youngest, Margaret Snowden, Jim Metcalf, D. B. Barker, Truett Stovall and Alice Hill of Wink.

Other than the usual banter of such occasions was the excitement caused by contestants in the games of "88" and Farkel brought to an end only when homemade ice cream was served.

Pinckley Reunion Held In Lubbock

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Patterson and grandchildren, Brenda and Jennifer Aubuchon, were in Lubbock to attend the Pinckley family reunion Saturday. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Castle. Eudy Reunion Held Recently In Lubbock

It was "Christmas in July" when the family of J. M. and Ethel Eudy gathered at LaQuinta Motor Inn, Civic Center, Lubbock. On Friday, July 26, at 7:00 p.m. they met at Maxey Park for a pot-luck picnic. The park is located on the south of the lake near St. Mary's Hospital, with a well-equipped playground for children of all ages. There were children present from age one through twenty-one years. The little ones enjoyed sharing their bread with the ducks on the lake. After the picnic, some enjoyed visiting in the family meeting room.

Saturday at 8:00 a.m. the family met for breakfast at Denny's Restaurant, then went to the Ranch and Heritage Center for a tour. After lunch there was swimming, viewing of pictures of past reunions, dominoes, making pictures and visiting. That night everyone went to Otto's Restaurant and Attic Store for a barbecue dinner, then back to the family room where the Bill Green family hosted a "Christmas in July" party. A white bearded Santa Claus was Randy Green. He had a huge pack on his back with candy, gum and balloons, and a gift for each one there. A cute game was played by the adults, each receiving a wrapped gift, but if desiring they could demand exchanging it with anyone else (no holds barred), which proved to be hilarious. Then the game ended and the gifts were opened.

Sunday at 8:00 a.m. the family met again for breakfast at Denny's. A business meeting followed with plans for next year's reunion. Then came good-byes and each family departed for home.

Those attending the reunion were Lewis and Mozelle Eudy, Turkey, Ronald and Kay Eudy, DeSota, Angela Eudy, Lubbock, Joni Kay Eudy, Lubbock, Bob and Lola Eudy, Joshua, Hugh and Juanita Eudy, Van Horn, Donald Eudy and Amy, Midland, Larry, Jeannie and Tracy Eudy, Midland, Ken, Sheila, Jon, James and Jana, Van Horn, Ricky, Ruthie, Randy and Seth, Kermit, Ricky Lynn and Billie Nunn, Rickey Lee and Daniel, Odessa, Dennis and Barry Hillmer, San Antonio, Jennifer Kay Jordan, West Palm Beach, Florida, Steve and Virginia Eudy and Bethany, Lubbock, Mike and Sherry Green, Chris, Kristie, Greg and Bradley, Slaton, Bill and Carol

Eddie Owens, son of the editor of the Valley Tribune, had an article printed in the July issue of the Baptist Standard, entitled, "Object of Missions, Now Doing Missions." The article is about a Brazilian student attending Wayland.

He has had an article printed in the Plainview Daily Herald about the resignation of Dr. Fred Meeks from the First Baptist Church pastorate. Dr. Meeks has joined the staff of Wayland Baptist University as Professor of Theology. Eddie remarked, "The church lost a great pastor, but Wayland gained a great teacher."

It's easy—when you know the answers

All of life is not far removed from the classroom. There are truths to be learned every day. And there are questions to be answered.

But some people don't have the answer when they need it. And some people do...

Any teacher will tell you it's a question of preparation. And any preacher will tell you the same.

The people who go to church on Sunday have no more problems than those who stay home. Nor do they expect as a result to have any fewer.

They believe simply in preparation—preparation of the mind, conscience, heart and soul... faith.

This is the preparation God offers men... for the questions that will confront us all tomorrow!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's Such a Big World

Some folks say that as we grow older the world grows smaller. Is that because of the wonders of modern communication and transportation? Or is it because when some folks grow older they become preoccupied with their own little orbit of life?

Junior certainly enters life completely preoccupied with himself. But once he begins to walk and talk—gosh how his world balloons!

That's why he needs the religious training our churches provide. His faith must keep pace with his burgeoning world.

And as grown-ups, in worship and Christian devotion, we need likewise the spiritual gifts our churches offer.

For it really is a big world. Full of challenges, opportunities, and promising tomorrows. It always looks that way to a growing soul.

Fun At Caprock Canyons State Park

The President of the First National Bank of Quitaque has written a monthly newsletter for years, which many of our readers receive each month, but some of you don't get the newsletter and the Tribune is including a copy of an article Mr. Stark wrote about the "fun" things of interest at Caprock Canyons State Park.

"First, there is the pure, unspoiled beauty of the Caprock Canyons. The drive down the canyons never ceases to inspire visitors who view it for the first time, and the vivid colors spell their own special magic. Many Quitaque residents make regular afternoon drives through the Park, and there's a certain tranquility at sundown in the deep canyons that is hard to match.

"For the more venturesome, there are over 14 miles of hiking trails in the Park, and all of these are wide and clearly marked. The trek into North Prong is especially interesting with its unusual rock structures and the anticipation of wildlife around each turn. The view at the crest of Haynes Ridge overlooking the Valley is also a scene not soon forgotten.

"Sportsmen usually have a heyday at Lake Theo. Although small in size, it is brimming with fish, and there are many good, safe places for youngsters to fish from the bank. There have been 9-pound bass, 19-pound catfish and 2-pound crappie caught there, and the lake never seems crowded, for boats operate at trolling speed and water wagons and tube fishermen are usually more prevalent than boats.

"There are few places more ideally suited for outdoor picnic and family gatherings than Caprock Canyons State Park. The group shelter overlooking Lake Theo is popular, but there are numerous campsites around the tree-bordered lake and down in the canyons that provide perfect places for an afternoon cookout. One of the neatest spots that's often overlooked, is down in the Lower Canyon Campground, for there you're picnicking under a comfortable shelter with a small stream below you and the towering caprocks surrounding you on three sides.

"If you are a photography buff, you'll shoot a lot of film at Caprock Canyons. A number of camera clubs have already 'discovered' the Park, and pictures are beginning to crop up everywhere as a result. The wildflowers this Spring were spectacular, and earlier this year, photographers gathered each afternoon to get pictures as herds of deer came up from the canyons to graze on the grass near the Park's entrance. The hills always make interesting photo subjects any time of the day, and the sunsets across the lake with the hills in the background have already turned out one prize-winning photograph.

"Horseback riders are beginning to use the Park, and the vast 14,000 acres has a number of scenic equestrian trails. One riding club from Lubbock has already been here twice and over thirty horses each time. They remarked these were by far the best outing they've had. The Marlboro cigarette filming crew, with its 33 horses, was impressed enough to schedule two week-long filming sessions in the Park during recent months.

"It is always easy to see some wildlife at Caprock Canyons, but one needs sharp eyes and patience to spot others. One can usually see the three buffalo somewhere near the entrance to the Park, for they are tame and won't spook easily. There is a bull buffalo and a cow with a small calf. There have been sighted over 190 species of birds at the Park, and there's a huge eagle's nest in South Prong that can be seen with a good set of binoculars. There are at least 35 Aoudad sheep somewhere on the Park, along with deer, golden eagles, hawks, quail, dove, raccoon, fox, coyotes, wild turkey, prairie dogs and many other wildlife species. Even a mountain lion has been sighted twice by Park visitors in recent months.

"Those who love Texas history can spend many hours at Caprock Canyons and still only scratch the surface. There's the historical marker on the west side of Lake Theo, designating the Folsom find a few years ago. This is the second largest Folsom find ever discovered in North America, and State Archeologist Curtis Tunnell called it one of the ten most important historical markers ever placed in Texas. History buffs can also spend several hours at the Interpretive Center tracing out the history of this scenic Caprock area, which many have labeled a 'miniature Grand Canyon.'

This editor and many others who have seen both parks, choose the beauty and the grandeur of Caprock Canyons over the expanse of the Palo Duro Canyons, and it is accessible to more local residents, as well as distant visitors.

This Ad Has Already Saved You Money

If you paid for this newspaper, we have something in common. We paid for it, too. In fact, every advertiser you see in these pages paid handsomely for the privilege of being here. And what we paid went toward the cost of producing the newspaper. Which made it a lot cheaper for you to buy. "How much cheaper? Well, if you took all the advertising away, the average newspaper would cost you about five times as much. And offer you about half as much."

Charity Steward of Fort Worth sent her renewal in late and she has a valid reason. She is a diabetic and almost lost a foot. She spent almost two months in the hospital and had six surgeries on it, but the doctors saved her foot. Hope you are improving well, Charity.

HOME FOOD SAFETY IMPORTANT

"We have a far greater chance of contracting a food-borne illness as a result of our own negligence than from unsafe food products," says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

The recent tragic food poisoning incidents involving cheese and milk have left many consumers concerned about the safety of foods they buy at the grocery store, says Marilyn Haggard. But these incidents are very small in number when compared to the Food and Drug Administration's estimate of 69 - 275 million cases of food-borne illness per year, most of which occur at home, she says.

"The bacteria that cause most food-borne illnesses occur naturally in raw foods, so it's up to the consumer to make sure these bacteria are destroyed through proper food handling and preparation," says the specialist.

SEN. SARPALIUS HAD ONE OF THE BEST ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Sen. Bill Sarpalius had one of the best attendance records among lawmakers during the recent regular session of the Texas Legislature, Senate records indicate.

According to a report released by the Secretary of the Senate's office, Sarpalius, D-Canyon, was at 78 of 80 Senate meetings for a 97.5% attendance rate. The same report also indicated Sarpalius participated in 97% of the Senate's 2,537 record votes.

"We're very proud of this attendance record," Sarpalius said when informed of the report. "We've always strived to be at every possible Senate meeting. But, attendance is really just part of the job. There's no way to be an effective Senator if you don't attend the meetings."

Sarpalius said his goal was to be at all 80 Senate sessions, but meetings in his district kept him from achieving a perfect attendance record. He was absent from the February 5 Senate session because he was in Dimmitt attending the annual meeting of the Texas Corn Growers Association, and he missed the February 11 session in order to attend a Department of Energy nuclear waste hearing in Hereford.

Both absences were officially sanctioned by the Senate because they related to business in Sarpalius' senatorial district.

In commending Sarpalius for his attendance, Secretary of the Senate Betty King said, "This is a unique and significant record and in my opinion demonstrates a faithfulness to your job of which the people in your district should be proud."

Sarpalius said he appreciated the compliment but indicated he would like his attendance next session to be even more impressive.

"Our goal always has been and always will be 100% attendance," he said. "This session, there were two meetings in the district that were important enough to keep me away from the Senate. Maybe next session we won't have to miss a single day."

GROUND NUTS ARE MOST NUTRITIOUS ROOT CROP

One of the world's most nutritious root crops is perhaps this country's best kept secret. "National Wildlife" magazine says groundnuts, about the size of golf balls, are as tasty as potatoes and have four times the protein.

They were not always unwanted and forgotten, however. The Pilgrims may not have survived their first winter without these nutritious nuts. And now, after some 300 years, scientists are trying to make this wild vine vegetable a household word, that may one day compete with potatoes.

The most popular dessert in American restaurants is apple pie.
