He is in favor of revamping the farm program. He states the present farm program bankrupts the family farmer and rancher, and at the same time bankrupts the taxpayer. He is in favor of eliminating fraud, waste and corruption, such as the $500 claw hammer and the $200 screw driver, etc.

Seale also stated that he would like to see the U. S. have an industrial policy similar to that of the Japanese, explaining that the Japanese discover an industry dying and throwing their people out of work and this prompts them to begin another industry and retrain the people for the new industry. They also shift their people to other industry

He stated that he did know the answer but thinks we need a committee to research and study the insurance problem. He closed by stating that we can't "borrow ourselves out of debt. ## Quitaque Baptists Celebrate 75th Anniversary Sunday

"A Glorious Church" was the theme of the 75th Anniversary celebration of the First Baptist Church of Quitaque on Sunday, October 12.

It was truly a glorious occasion as seven of the nine living pastors were present to preach during the day.

Bro. J. Lowell Ponder, a spry 84-year-old man who was pastor here in 1939-40, drove from Fayetteville, Arkansas to preach the sermon, "The Gospel We Preach." Mona Cantu presented a solo for the special music.

Mike Grebenik, who is now pastor of Black Forest Baptist Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado, read the scripture before Bob Beck, Associate Pastor of Gambrell Street Baptist Church in Fort Worth preached the sermon, "One Generation Speaks to Another." Reva Jean Beck gave a message in song, "Redeemed."

Cora Gragson and Patsy Herrington played a piano-organ duet, "The Holy City," and Ralph McCormick presented a solo, "The King is Coming," followed by Bill Curry, who has recently retired from Calvary Baptist Church in Andrews. His sermon topic was "The Rapture."

There was a dinner in the Fellowship Hall at noon, and the afternoon services began at 2:30 p.m.

The Adult Choir sang the Call to Worship, "O Magnify the Lord." Acknowledgements were made of a former pastor's wife, Mrs. R. E. Harrison, who was present for the occasion. Also acknowledged were the two former pastors who were unable to attend, Roy Davidson, who is now a missionary in Africa, and Milo Jurik, who was pastor of the First Baptist Church in the mid-seventies.

A telegram of congratulations from the Roy Davidsons was read, along with a letter from Mrs. Franklin E. Swanner.

Recognized at this time were the young men from Quitaque who have gone into the full-time ministry from this church over the past 25 years. They are Danny Curry, pastor at Coahoma, Texas; Bob Saul, pastor of City Church of New York; Salt Jones, missionary in Taiwan, and Ralph McCormick who will be licensed by the local church in the near future.

Present also and recognized was Joe Taylor, a retired minister who was saved and ordained under Bro. Ponder's ministry.

O. R. Stark gave a summation of the written history of the past 25 years. A history of the first 50 years was written and distributed in 1961.

Zelda Leeper presented the solo, "He Touched Me," and Freddie Martin, coming from Camden, Arkansas, preached the sermon, "Love One Another."

Patsy Herrington presented a special organ arrangement of "How Great Thou Art," followed by a duet by Ralph McCormick and Jan Ramsey, who sang "There's Room at the Cross for You."

Frank Roberson from Calvary Baptist Church in League City, Texas, closed the afternoon service with the message, "What Happens When We Repent."

In the evening service, a message was brought by the present pastor, Jess Little, entitled, "Faithful in Every Good Work."

A large crowd came from far and near to be on hand for this special occasion. It was a day to be remembered, and it will always stand out in the minds and hearts of those who attended.

Two Injured In Quitaque Creek Flood

Friday, October 3, Motley County Commissioner Bill Dean Washington was heading north across the Quitaque Creek bridge about four miles north of Flomot, surveying for rain damage, before he realized that the approach to the bridge was missing due to water erosion, leaving a gap in the bridge floor. Going at a great enough rate of speed to propel his vehicle across the gap, Washington's pickup crashed onto the opposite edge of the bridge with a force that injured Washington. Realizing he was injured, Washington was able to use his CB radio to call his wife for the ambulance.

Washington's daughter, Mrs. Sandra Barclay, rushed to the scene of the accident to try to help her father; however, she was unaware that the bridge was washed out and with her attention on her father, she skidded off the bridge edge, landing in the rolling river.

Washington and his daughter were conveyed to Lockney General Hospital with severe injuries. Washington suffered a compressed vertebra, a broken nose and a shoulder injury. Mrs. Barclay had chest, facial and leg injuries. Both have multiple contusions and lacerations.

Texas Highway and Transportation Maintenance Foreman Clay R. Jameson stated that the bridge was built about eight years ago. The great volume of water was flowing so fast that it got behind the rip-rap and washed out the dirt under the south end, causing the bridge approach to fall in.

A Stitch in Time Can Save a Bundle

Just as a tear in a favorite dress or suit needs a quick stitch, it will pay off in the long run if you maintain your home so that peeling and chipping paint does not end up as rotting wood.

Painting trim around windows can become a chore of the past.

Exterior trim, such as the roof overhang or window frames, take more of a beating than the main outer surfaces. Gutters, downspouts and other trim require constant vigilance and work ... unless they're aluminum.

A growing number of happy homeowners have discovered the low maintenance joys of aluminum building products that make frequent repainting and touching up chores of the past.

In fact, the only maintenance your aluminum siding, windows or trim may need is an occasional bath from the garden hose to remove grime and dirt. That means your investment can pay for itself in a few short years, thanks to the painting expenses and labor you'll avoid.

The trim around your house can be protected with aluminum in a number of styles and colors that blend with every sort of architecture. Aluminum building products are available in a wide range of colors that can match any housing exterior or add a refreshing accent.

Scientists have discovered that bathing or showering with herbal waters may calm nerves, soothe and help people relax.

In Roman times, the peptic benefits of bathing were first discovered. Public baths became popular spots for relaxing and socializing.

Today scientists have found that many folk remedies for bathing with natural fruits and flowers may be beneficial.

Water! Key To Calmer Nerves?

Scientists have discovered that bathing or showering with herbal waters may help calm nerves, soothe spirits and help people relax.

In Roman times, the therapeutic benefits of bathing were first discovered, and public baths became popular spots for relaxing while socializing.

Today scientists have found that many folk remedies for bathing with natural herbs, fruits and flowers may be beneficial.

There are a number of bath additives on the market today. While most are intended for use in a tub, one product, Jovan Shower Bath works well in the shower, America's favorite place to bathe, as well as in the bath.

Using age-old botanical knowledge, special combinations of herbs and fruit fragrances work with Shower Bath to create pleasant aromas while providing in-

Fragrances include Fresh Herbal, as well as Strawberry Blossom, Peach Blossom and Orange Blossom, and all help soothe away troubles of the day.

To relax nerves and calm the skin and spirit, it can be a good idea to take to the waters, as men and women have since ancient times.

THE SILENT EPIDEMIC

Alzheimer's Disease is a frightening word to most of us. Forty-five local residents attended a program on the subject last Tuesday night here in Silverton to learn more about the disease and its effect on families.

Becky McGee of the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association's Panhandle Chapter in Amarillo shared her family experiences and her work in educating people about the disease.

Even though the disease is a tragedy for the patient, it takes a terrible toll—physically, emotionally and financially—on the family members who are caregivers.

We have some Extension resources available to families. I have a video tape on loan through October 26, on "Managing with Alzheimer's Disease" made by Good Samaritan Hospital. Anyone may borrow this 30-minute tape at no cost.

Our Extension gerontology specialist has made a video tape on "Respite Care," the term used to provide relief to family members from the burden of 24-hour-a-day care. I will receive this tape later in the fall, and it also may be borrowed at no cost.

We have three related publications available upon request: Helping the Disoriented Elderly, Therapy for the Disoriented, and Caring for the Disoriented Person.

Call or come by my office for any of this information. For additional materials and assistance, contact Mrs. Becky McGee, Route 6, Box 760, Amarillo, Texas 79106 or phone 381-1010 or contact the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association, 1410-B West 8th, Amarillo, Texas 79104-1014, phone 372-8693.

CONSUMER CORNER

E.T. may have stolen your heart, but EFT is going to take your checkbook.

Bankers predict the day isn't far off when EFT—electronic funds transfer—will make your checkbooks all but obsolete, give you 24-hour access to your financial assets (even the equity in your home), and virtually eliminate conventional bank card fraud.

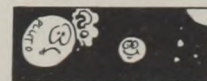

Bringing the efficiency of electronics to banking may make things easier and less costly for everyone.

EFT's best-known form is the automated teller. Some 40,000 automated tellers let U.S. consumers withdraw cash from savings or checking accounts, using an electronic "check" called a debit card.

Increasingly, debit cards will be accepted at retail stores in place of cash and checks. Stores will be electronically linked to banks so that debit cards can be used to transfer cash from the consumer's to the retailer's account.

While there may always be some need for checks, companies are trying to simplify and add greater safety to the way we transact business. Visa, for example, plans to introduce a talking terminal that reads electronic data on a card, dials a computer and informs the merchant—in English—whether to accept or reject a purchase. The company reports that it is also looking at a machine that would protect the legitimate cardholder by verifying signatures. The device's electronic eye would actually watch the way the customer writes and then decide whether the signature matches the one on file in a computer.

Beware of Mildew

No one ever waxes a dirty car. But many people refinish their houses without first giving them a good bath.

Over time, houses accumulate a layer of dirt, grime, and tree sap and even mildew which should be thoroughly removed before repainting or staining.

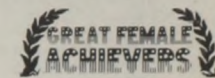

Mildew is a particularly serious culprit. A living organism, it grows on both interior and exterior surfaces where there is moisture and little direct sunlight. On natural wood surfaces, it mars the natural beauty of the grain and, if severe enough, can cause rot. Unsightly mildew stains should never be painted or stained over. Mildew will continue to grow and eat through layers of paint and other finishes right into the wood or wallboard underneath.

Whenever mildew appears it should be removed by scrubbing with coarse rags or a stiff brush and heavy-duty cleaner in solution with liquid laundry bleach. TSP (trisodium phosphate) by Savogran is a good detergent and used in solution with liquid bleach it will kill mildew causing organisms and remove mildew stains from both exterior and interior surfaces.

Be sure to wear rubber gloves with turn-up cuffs to keep the solution from running down your arms. After scrubbing, rinse thoroughly with water and let dry before repainting. If the problem persists, use mildew resistant paints and finishes.

She was called "Little Miss Poker Face" because of her coolness on and off the court. However, many sports experts agree that Helen Wills Moody was probably America's best woman tennis player. When she was just 17, Helen won the Forest Hills singles. From 1926 to 1938, she dominated women's international tennis. Her achievements during that time included winning the French Championship four times and Wimbledon singles eight times. She did not lose a single set in the United States from 1926 to 1932. Upon retirement from tennis, she became a feature writer for United Press and published four mystery novels.

Sales Tax Rebates Continue To Reflect Lagging Economy

Sales tax rebates continue to run behind those received in 1985 by 6 percent, according to Comptroller Bob Bullock's decrease in the checks continuing reflection of downturn in the Texas economy.

Bullock recently sent out totaling $55.4 million in sales tax to 1,033 cities that the one-percent city tax. The check was the largest—bringing total payment in 1986 to $116.7 million, five percent from last year. Dallas' payment was $6.6 million for a 1986 total of $86.5 million, a five percent decrease from 1985. San Antonio's payment of $10 million pushed payments for 1986 to $46.1 million, up one percent from 1985. Austin's check for $2.6 million brought total payments this year to $34.3 million, a four percent decrease from 1985.

Fort Worth received $2 million for a total of $28.3 million in 1986, up three percent. El Paso's payment of $1.7 million brought its total to $18.5 million, a percent increase from 1985. October checks represent 10 percent of total sales tax collected on sales made in August and reported to Comptroller in September.

Silverton's check this year was for $97.97, bringing 1986 payments to $14.8 million, down 4.94 percent from $15,584.49 that had been reported to date in 1985. The Texas Department of Transportation's tax rebate

FACTS & FIGURES

Safe at home? Fact is, five million American homes were burglarized in 1985. Residential robberies have jumped 10 percent in the last five years.

An estimated one million homeowners installed some sort of burglar-alarm system in 1985, and the number is rising. Thanks to advances in technology, it's possible to install a sophisticated home protection system yourself, at a fraction of the cost of professional systems. One of the best systems around, many safety experts agree, is the Keepsake Security System from Schlage Lock, a company with a 60 year reputation for quality home security protection.

This wireless system, featuring sensors installed at entry points, is affordably priced under $200. It's easy for do-it-yourselfers to install—all you need is a screwdriver. It includes break-ins and its emergency alarm mode and accessories for smoke detectors and medical emergencies provide a complete home security system.

The sun contains 99.86 percent of the total mass of the solar system.

Sales Tax Rebates Continue To Reflect Lagging Economy

Sales tax rebates continue to run behind those received to date in 1985 by .6 percent, and State Comptroller Bob Bullock says the decrease in the checks is a continuing reflection of the downturn in the Texas economy.

Bullock recently sent checks totaling $55.4 million in local sales tax to 1,033 cities that levy the one-percent city tax. Houston's check was the largest—$8.4 million—bringing total payments in 1986 to $116.7 million, down five percent from last year. Dallas' payment was $6.6 million for a 1986 total of $86.5 million, a five percent decrease from 1985.

San Antonio's payment of $3.4 million pushed payments for 1986 to $46.1 million, up one percent. Austin's check for $2.6 million brought total payments this year to $34.3 million, a four percent decrease from 1985.

Fort Worth received $2 million for a total of $28.3 million in 1986, up three percent. El Paso's payment of $1.7 million brought its total to $18.5 million, a nine percent increase from 1985.

October checks represent taxes collected on sales made in August and reported to the Comptroller in September.

Silverton's check this month was for $937.97, bringing the 1986 payments to $14,814.47, down 4.94 percent from the $15,584.49 that had been received to date in 1985. The amount that Silverton's tax rebate is down is a little less than the state average.

Quitaque's October check was for $538.31, making that city's total rebates $9,848.14, down 6.51 percent from the $10,533.50 that had been received at this time last year.

Other area cities, the amount of their October rebates and the percentage of their increase or decrease include Claude, $1,624.50, up 2.67 percent; Hart,

FACTS & FIGURES

Safe at home? Fact is, five million American homes were burglarized in 1985. Residential robberies have jumped 19 percent in the last five years.

An estimated one million homeowners installed some sort of burglar-alarm system in 1985, and the number is rising. Thanks to advancements in technology, it's possible to install a sophisticated home protection system yourself, at a fraction of the cost of professional systems. One of the best systems around, many safety experts agree, is the Keepaker Security System from Schlage Lock, a company with a 60 year reputation for quality home security protection.

This wireless system, featuring sensors installed at entry points, is affordably priced at under $200. It's easy for do-it-yourselfers to install—all you need is a screwdriver. It signals break-ins and its emergency alarm mode and accessories for smoke detection and medical emergencies provide a complete home sentry system.

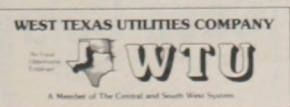

The sun contains 99.8 percent of the total mass of the solar system.

Packaging People

Know why we build skyscrapers? In order to have many more people working in a limited area. We package people vertically!

Among the skyscrapers our photographer has discovered a church. It too has a vertical element — a steeple pointing heavenward.

Church architecture with its traditional spires expresses our beliefs. People today are packaged too tightly. Pressure, custom, conformity crowd in upon our souls. Christ teaches that every person is important . . . each one of us is loved by our Lord.

As we worship God each week side by side, our beliefs point us heavenward.

The Name Of The Game

Many Americans today are switching from computer games to low-tech parlor games. In fact, one board game alone is expected to sell 22 million copies and hit $750 million in retail sales before the year is out. It's proven so popular that it's inspired over 30 imitations. And despite the fact that many game companies are still scrambling to get out their own versions of the game, people all over the country continue to line up at stores for Trivial Pursuit™ and its 6,000 witty, sometimes off-the-wall questions.

In classic board games, there must be a balance between skill and luck.

That, says Selchow & Righter, maker of the game, is because it has what it takes to be not just another board game but a classic. The game company, it seems, knows a lot about classics. It's been a leader in the family entertainment business for over 100 years with such favorites as Scrabble® Brand Crossword Game and Parcheesi®. To meet all the requirements for classic status, says the company, a game must be different every time you play it and be challenging without getting bogged down in too many rules. Most important of all, there must be a careful balance between skill and luck.

There is good news for those fans who are waiting patiently for their own copies of Trivial Pursuit™, the manufacturer is now turning out a record three million games each month.
