Jarret Pigg Receives Don Burson Memorial Herdsman Award

The prestigious Don Burson Memorial Herdsman Award was awarded January 25, 1997 at the awards ceremony prior to the Briscoe County Jr. Livestock Show Premium Sale.

The award is given each year to an outstanding member of Valley FFA, Briscoe Co. 4-H or Silvertown FFA. The candidates are voted upon by the show Superintendents.

Stock show for the past ten years. Jarret's projects have included Swine, Steers, Beef Heifers, Dairy Heifers, and Poultry.

Jarret has successfully exhibited his livestock at the Houston Livestock Show, and at the Ft. Worth Livestock Show making the sale at both shows several times. Jarret has been involved in many organizations and activities while being a student at Valley Schools. Jarret has played football, basketball and ran track. Jarret has served as a Student Council officer and member. He has also been a member of the Valley High

Gem Theatre Plans

By Lawana Cruse
 The Gem Theatre is a wonderful, historical old building that holds many good memories for a lot of people and the Turkey Heritage Foundation plans to renovate and restore it and once again put it to good use.

Right now they are in the process of getting it in the National Register of Historical Buildings. They need a picture of the front of the theatre taken back in the '40's, '50's, or '60's before it closed. If anyone has one and would let them use it to get a copy made they would really appreciate it and would get the original picture back to you.

Plans are to have live entertainment such as jamborees, plays, cowboy poets, storytellers, and all kinds of good entertainment and fun things. They would also like to occasionally have a big name star. They hope to eventually have a Saturday matinee of old movies once a month.

The theatre can be used by different groups, churches, and organizations and they want it to be enjoyed by people of all ages. It could be used for weddings, recitals, and they would like to have a community wide gospel singing occasionally.

They want their friends and neighbors of Quitaque, Silvertown, Flomot, etc. to join them and enjoy the theatre once it is restored. They will be planning fund raisers and hope that anyone who is interested will help the foundation. Neil Hess is very interested in what they are trying to do and has told them that he will bring his group to perform for them at times.

The Turkey Heritage Foundation hopes you will decide to join their organization. They plan to keep everyone updated on this venture.

Special Hours At Briscoe County Medical Clinic, Set

In a January meeting at the Silvertown City Hall, members of the Baptist St. Anthony's Health System and the Briscoe County Medical Board met to review services of the Briscoe County Medical Clinic. Due to the departure of Ken Chamblin, Physician Assistant, both entities met to review available options for the clinic.

Due to the difficulty of recruiting and retaining physician assistants to the area, Baptist St. Anthony's Health System sought support for the continuance of the clinic on a daily basis, but with reduced hours. Due to the time necessary to recruit physician assistants and the fact that three have let the community, the Baptist St. Anthony's System felt time would be a restraining factor in locating another provider. The contributing issues in the relocation of the past physician assistants didn't seem to rest with the physician assistant, but family dynamic issues.

As a result of the meeting, the temporary clinic hours are 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday-Friday or until the last patient is seen. The clinic will open on several mornings with special children's clinics, women's services and so forth. These special clinics will be noted in the paper.

The bottom line to the community is as follows: Baptist St. Anthony's remains committed to the community. No jobs were lost in the reduced hours. Efforts are being made to recruit and restore the clinic morning hours.

Specialty clinics will be held. Support to the school and sideline sports support will continue.

In fact, a major emphasis with the Baptist St. Anthony's Health System is to increase utilization services. We are providing you a clipping from the Armstrong paper that notes how their community is supporting this effort.

The best way to minimize fears of a clinic closure, is simply to utilize your local health resources. Don't leave town when that care is being made available locally, safely and with quality personnel.

Clipping from Armstrong County Newspaper

We at Baptist St. Anthony's appreciate the willingness of the Armstrong County Medical Center Board to help out the people of Briscoe County during the absence of their physician assistant. The clinic in Silvertown is presently without a P.A. We'll need to do what we've done before and reduce hours in Claude, for awhile, to allow us to have a provider in both clinics each day.

The new (temporary) hours at the Claude Medical Clinic will be 8 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday-Friday.

Baptist St. Anthony's Health System and the Armstrong County Community are a strong partnership in support of rural primary health care. We want to assure the community of our commitment to our healthcare partnership with you. We ask for your continued commitment to support our healthcare partnership by using the Claude Clinic and keeping primary care at home in the Armstrong County Community. When we support each other, we support the Armstrong County community. We look forward to a strong, growing healthcare partnership with your community.

THEN & NOW!

by Eunice McFall

As I sit here this afternoon setting type for this weeks paper just one door off Main Street, I shudder as I hear a large truck as its driver revs up the truck's motor as it leaves the west edge of town. Probably by the time he reached the eastern end of town he was traveling at least 60 miles an hour. This is at an hour that school children are getting off the bus here in town. What if an elderly person had started to cross the street about the post office? There would be no way that the truck driver could avoid hitting them. We all tend to think of our own time schedule and not what our hurry and rush could cause. Is those few minutes that you are trying to make up worth the horror of having to live the reminder of one's life with the thought that one's carelessness took someone's life or maimed them forever.

When we really stop and think and put ourselves in the place of the injured party, we would have to decide that the few minutes gained was not worth the chance taken. I see people speeding in school zones, following too close to the school buses, not stopping for the school bus, hurrying to catch the fire truck or the ambulance to see what the problem is. Can we really be of help when we do catch the fire truck or the ambulance? If we can't we should just stay away and let the professionals do their job. This is the best assurance we have that if we are the injured party we, too, will have the help that we need and not have a lot of curious onlookers standing around in the way of the emergency crews as they try to do their job.

Probably all of us have been guilty of speeding at one time or another. We rationalize it by saying that we live in a country of fairly straight roads, we know the road, the road condition is OK and after all I need to be someplace by a certain time and while I am out here in the middle of nowhere I will make up some time! Yep, that is when there will probably be a surprise down the road for you (and not a good one)--a big black bull steps out into your lane, a child chases his dog into the road, a deer decides to go to the oppsite side of the road, or a tire blows out. Can you really justify your breaking the law for that few extra minutes you gain? Think of the possible cost before you speed, especially through our small towns!!!!

A Cure For Cold Sores?

(NAPS)—Cold sores, those ugly blisters that crop up around the mouth, are a lot like an unpleasant relative—they show up when you least expect them, and nothing can keep them away forever.

Eight in ten Americans will get a cold sore at some point in their lives. Unfortunately, once you've had a cold sore, it will keep coming back.

According to Dr. Pol Vandembroucke, director of medical affairs for Bayer Corporation, the makers of Campho-Phenique® Cold Sore Gel, there is no cure for cold sores.

"Medical evidence has shown that so-called cures based on diet or vitamin therapies simply do not work," he said. "The only thing cold sore sufferers can do is try to avoid things that cause a recurrence and, if the blisters do reappear, apply a treatment to speed them on their way."

Cold sores are caused by a type of herpes virus. Colds and flu, excessive exposure to sun and wind, menstruation, stomach problems and stress can all cause a recurrence.

Dr. Vandembroucke advises the use of a skin protectant to reduce cracking, plus a local anesthetic or counter-irritant to control discomfort. Cracked cold sore blisters are subject to infection, which can slow down the healing process. Antibiotics have no effect.

Whipping cream is about 30 to 35 percent butterfat. Sour cream is about 20 percent butterfat, coffee cream about 20 percent butterfat and half and half, ten to 12 percent butterfat.

On The QT To The Citizens of Briscoe County

By Sheriff Jerry Beck

I must apologize. I have not been very informative concerning any changes in the sheriff department. To answer a few questions that are of the most concern:

First, our deputy, Max Whitworth has moved to Silverton from Tulia where he worked as an officer for Tulia Police Department for four years. Max has been in law enforcement for over eight years. Max's wife, Val, works at Texas Department of Corrections in Tulia. Max and Val have three sons, Max Jr. and Gary who live in the home and attend Silverton High School. Dusty, his wife Carrie and son Ryan live in Tulia.

Also of concern is contacting the department personnel. All emergency calls should be directed to 911. All other calls concerning sheriff department business should be made to 823-2135 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Any non-emergency calls can be made to 847-7068 for sheriff and 847-7069 for deputy after 5 p.m. It is very important to use 911 for emergency because valuable time is wasted if there is no answer or in trying to locate one of us. 911 dispatches directly via radio and we are either with the radio or have made someone aware of where we can be contacted.

The third most commonly asked question is what changes we will make in how we enforce the law. Most changes will be in procedure. These changes should be minimal and are designed to be consistent and uniform in dealing with violators. Offenses against persons or property are our main concern. Assaults, theft, or endangering another are zero tolerance and every attempt to prosecute will be made.

Estelle Davidson drove to Tulia Saturday to spend the weekend with her daughter and son-in-law, Lavada and Stewart McCracken. She returned home Sunday evening. Ralph and Hattie Lois Carter went to Lubbock last Thursday to visit with their son and family, the Mel Carters. While there they got to see their granddaughter who is in the ninth grade play in her basketball tournament on Thursday, Friday and Saturday which by the way, they won. Joining them to see the Saturday game was Mozelle and Larry Hedrick of Canyon, their daughter and son-in-law.

Kay Myers and her mother, Jane Hamilton were in Lockney Sunday and had lunch with Robin and Rayann Race.

Temperature extremes for the week were 79 for the high and 22 for the low. Total moisture for the week was 0 inches. Total moisture for the year to date has been 19.24in. Brought To You By:

(NAPS)—The popularity of pancakes has certainly stood the test of time. Known in some form in almost every culture, pancakes were believed to have been enjoyed back in ancient Egypt. Some historians consider pancakes to be one of the oldest prepared foods. And why not? These tasty, round cakes of grain are not only easy to make and delicious to eat but are adaptable to various additions, too.

The test kitchens for Bisquick baking mix have been coming up with new pancake ideas for more than 65 years. These easy Sausage Pancakes make traditional pancake batter heartier. Topped with maple syrup, they're a great idea for a tasty breakfast or an easy-to-prepare dinner everyone in the family will love. Try it to celebrate National Pancake Week, February 9-17.

Sausage Pancakes
 Prep time: 10 minutes Cook time: 12 minutes

- 1 package (8 ounces) brown-and-serve sausage links
- 2 cups Bisquick Original baking mix
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 egg

CUT sausage links into 1/8-inch slices. Cook slices until brown; drain and set aside.

BEAT remaining ingredients with wire whisk or hand beater until well blended. For each pancake, place about 10 sausage slices randomly within a 3-inch circle on hot griddle (grease if necessary). Pour batter by scant 1/4 cupful over sausage slices.

COOK until dry around edges. Turn and cook other sides until golden brown. About 18 pancakes.

High Altitude (3500-6500 ft): No changes needed.

Spread the Word On Air Bags!

provided by Calley Payne, CEA-FCS

The air bag in your car that is there to save your life could kill a young child. Air bags have saved hundreds of lives and prevented thousands of serious injuries in motor vehicle crashes. Yet they can also be deadly if the front seat occupants are not restrained correctly.

An average size adult who is correctly belted is not likely to come in contact with the air bag until it is fully inflated. A fully inflated air bag spreads the force of the crash across a wide area of the body. For greatest protection with driver side and passenger side air bags, both the driver and front passengers should be correctly belted and the seats moved back as far as practical to allow ample space for the air bag to expand.

Janie Harris, Extension Specialist in passenger safety recommends that all vehicle occupants wear the shoulder belt snugly across the chest and the lap belt tight and low over the pelvic area. All too often people wear the shoulder belt too loose or under their arm. The shoulder belt must be snug and across the chest/shoulder area to restrain the upper torso when it is being thrust forward in the frontal crash. The lap belt holds the lower torso in position in the seat.

Unbelted or improperly belted children can easily slide off the seat during pre-crash braking, throwing them against the dashboard where the air bag can strike them on the head or neck with tremendous force before it is fully inflated. This force can be deadly. Therefore, for safety's sake, the back seat is the best seat for young children.

The correct way for young children to ride is in the back seat. Children under age one should ride in a rear-facing child safety seat in the back seat. Children over age one and 20 pounds, should ride in a convertible child safety seat, forward facing/upright, in the back seat. Children over 40 pounds should ride in a lap/shoulder belt positioning booster, in the back seat. Children should begin wearing lap/shoulder belt only when the shoulder belt fits correctly across the chest and does not hit across the child's neck or face.

Spread the word about air bags. They can save lives. Yet they can kill folks who are riding incorrectly restrained. Know how to protect those you love. Help them buckle up correctly.

Greeting Cards Are Needed By St. Jude's

For more than twenty years, the abandoned, abused and troubled children of St. Jude's ranch have been earning extra money by recycling old greeting cards into new ones. By cutting off the front of a used card and pasting it to a pre-printed card back made from recycled paper, the children create a whole new card. Some of the money earned from this project enables cottages to take fun trips or other excursions, and some of it goes into the children's savings accounts. Although the children are free to spend the rest of their money as they wish, they are also encouraged to donate some of their earnings to a charity of their choice, so they may learn the joy of giving to those less fortunate than themselves.

speciality vegetables, Pepperidge farm products, Prego sauces, Swanson products, V8 juices and Vlasic olives and pickles are among the labels needed.
St. Jude's Ranch for Children is a nonprofit, nonsectarian home for abandoned, abused and troubled children. As always, may God bless you for your great and continued generosity on behalf of His children.

Home From England
 Truman Young came home last week from England where he had been helping win the war for the past 14 months. He arrived in New York Monday week and reached home last Sunday by way of Kelly Field at San Antonio.

Truman said he was a victim of pneumonia all the way home, was very sick and confined to his bed all the way and didn't even see the ocean—but he could really "feel" it. Truman definitely doesn't like Auld England, says it is a century or more behind Modern America and that the London fogs are all that is claimed for them. Though he was not based in London, he had the opportunity to visit the city while on the Isles. He also was in Ireland and Wales and his opinion of the latter is sub-zero.

He took advantage of the opportunity while in England to visit many of the historic places, Westminster Abbey, numerous old castles, the Thames river, the Houses of parliament, etc.

Truman says that "the hardest thing for him to get used to" was the folks carrying their "little teapots" around with them and their national custom of "tea at 4 p.m.—come hell or high water." He says the natives look at the American boys like the latter were lunatics when they ask for a drink of water. The English don't drink water—they drink tea—and beer.

He says the weather there rarely gets cold enough to freeze and that it rains sometime during the day, every day.

Small Business Stats In Texas

provided by Calley Payne, CEA-FCS

Small businesses make a significant contribution to local economies across Texas, according to Calley Payne, CEA-FCS, Extension agent, in Briscoe County. But how small is small and what kinds of small businesses are the major contributors?

The State Comptroller's Office revealed in September that from 1991 to 1995, small businesses (less than 100 employees) created over 277,400 jobs. That was 40 percent of all jobs created in the state during those four years.

Small businesses can be defined by number of employees, revenue generated, type of business, and the relationship of the business to other businesses that may or may not dominate the business. The small business is also defined in terms of eligibility for loans or special benefits by organizations and agencies, such as the Small Business Administration or the Texas Department of Commerce.

An example of one such benefit is the Smart Jobs Program. This program provides grants to pay for customized job training to small businesses with fewer than 100 employees or less than $1 million in gross receipts. Small Business Development Centers in 56 locations across Texas can assist small business owners in applying for these funds.

The very smallest of businesses, called micro businesses, employ fewer than 20 employees, yet account for 80.3 percent of the 379,200 small businesses in the state. According to Calley, micro businesses employ over 1.3 million workers. The average micro business employs 4 people. Employees in this size business earn about 15% less than employees in larger companies. The heaviest concentration of micro businesses is found in the service sector, particularly food service.

Yet, states Calley, even holding and investment offices and law firms are micro businesses, employing fewer than 20 employees. Business services contributed the largest growth in job creation.

Every community is made of a variety of business. The Extension Agent encourages community leaders to consider the valuable contribution that small business makes to the quality of life as well as the economy. Businesses that fail can affect the community. Most frequently business failure can be related to failure to plan resulting in poor positioning within an industry. Insufficient profits and excessive operating expenses. Poor management can ruin a small business. Risks may be greater for the very small business owner who has invested personal savings in the venture.

For more information on small business contact the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Briscoe County or your nearest Small Business Development Center.
