Valley FHA Beau Named At Banquet

An 'Evening of Elegance' was the only description needed for the Valley FHA Sweetheart Banquet, which was held Friday night, February 10, 1989, at Valley High School.

The cafeteria was transformed into an elaborate setting of bold black and white that glittered in the candlelight, but in no way outshined the glitter and sparkle of the lovely evening wear worn by the FHA members and their escorts.

President Michelle House opened the festivities with the welcome. Twila Lemons gave the invocation. Amy Maupin's introduction of the special guests was followed by the ever popular slide presentation Review of the Year.

Lance Fulbright, escorted by Hattie Williams, was named the 1989 FHA Beau. Other nominees were Scott Garner, escorted by Traci Harmon and Jesse Chavira, escorted by Silva Ortiz. The presentation was made by Andrea Hinojosa and Vera Pinkerton.

Mrs. Kathy Taylor presented the awards program. Missy Audrain made the announcements and Twila Lemons presented the Senior Surprise.

A menu of Chicken Kiev, baked potato, salad, hot rolls and dessert was prepared and served by mothers of the FHA class.

As I See It!

By Thelma Gafford

Being an elected official does not always have the scent of roses and honeysuckle, and believe it or not, it's not always a pleasure to be an elected public servant. If there's any doubt in your minds, just ask any city council member, mayor, judge, commissioner or other school board trustee. You know how the saying goes.....It's a dirty, thankless job, but!!!!

But, there are so paybacks that kinda out-weigh the dirty looks we get sometimes. Take for instance getting an invitation to the Sweetheart Banquet. That makes up for a lot, believe me.

The honor of being a guest at such an event, to be a part of something those students have worked up all by themselves means more to me than going to the inauguration bash. (No, I didn't get invited to that, I'm not that 'official'!).

You cannot imagine the amount of magic those young people, under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Taylor, use to turn an ordinary cafeteria into an elaborate, candle-lit setting. Every girl looked like Cinderella with a Prince Charming on her arm. It was absolutely beautiful, and a beautiful night for it.

I'm sure there were a bunch of moms and dads that felt somewhat lonely when their daughters (and sons) left the house that night. Seeing them out of jeans and into evening wear has a way of jolting us into the reality of the short number of years we actually have our children at home.

I've said it before, I'm very proud of our young people, but better yet, they are proud of themselves. And that is something to be proud of!

Nuevo Study Club

The Nuevo Study Club met February 9 in the home of Mrs. R. C. Green for their first meeting for the month.

Mrs. Virginia Degan, club president opened the program by calling on Kathleen Green to read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. Mrs. Paul Robertson gave the treasurers report. Mrs. Degan called on each member present to answer roll call with miscellaneous items of interest. Mrs. Degan, as program leader, presented an interesting and hilarious sketch of a book review from "Papa Was a Preacher" by Alyene Porter. The story was a lively tale of parsonage family children who create incredible incidents around their home and for the congregation of their father's church.

Mrs. Colvin reported about the planting of wildflower seeds in the Turkey City limits around utility poles on highway 70 from the swimming pool to the Highway barn, also around the entrance to the old Vardy Football area used each year for Bob Wills Day.

This project was completed before our first rain so perhaps there will be some wildflowers in the area to greet the crowd for Bob Wills Day.

Mrs. Green served a delicious refreshment plate of homemade pie, apple cider and coffee to Mmes. Majorie Bain, Nadine Baisden, Ella Colvin, Virginia Degan, Paul Meacham, Paul Robertson, Gilbert Wedge, Sabra Setliff and Lurline Walker.
