State Agency Offers Interest-Free Home Improvement Loans

The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA) announced today that $1 million is available statewide for home improvement loans. Eligible low income homeowners may borrow up to $15,000 and pay no interest.

The purpose of the program is to assist homeowners in making permanent structural improvements to their home. Eligible improvements must enhance the livability of a home or correct a health or safety problem.

"The Home Improvement Loan Program will help Texans who have always wanted to improve their home, but have never had the opportunity. The monthly payment on a home improvement loan is very affordable because the borrower has a greater period of time to pay back the loan and is not charged interest," said Paul R. Rodriguez, chairman of the board, Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs.

The term of the loans varies and depends on the amount of money borrowed. Loans between $1,500 and $5,000 have a maximum term of 10 years; loans more than $5,000 and less than $10,000 have a maximum term of 15 years; and loans more than $10,000 have a maximum term of 20 years. The minimum monthly payment for a loan is $25.

In order to be eligible, the borrower must meet qualifying guidelines, have a sufficient income to afford monthly payments and make no more than 80 percent of the area median income.

The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs is dedicated to helping Texans achieve an improved quality of life through the development of better communities.

Persons who are interested in the Home Improvement Loan Program may call the department's toll-free number, 1-800-792-1119.

Steps to more Confidence Part II

This is the second article of two regarding ways you can build your confidence. I hope you didn't miss last week's first seven steps.

Eighth, do not tolerate people, jobs or situations that make you feel inadequate. If you can't change yourself or the situation enough to help you feel more worthwhile, do something else. Life is too long to waste time on continual downers.

Ninth, give yourself time to relax, meditate, to listen to yourself. Enjoy hobbies and activities you can do. Focus on enjoyment, not accomplishment.

Tenth, find someone to help. Be aware of other's special needs. You have more to share than you think.

Eleventh, develop an internal locus of control. External people feel things happen to them and they have no control. Internal people feel they can change the direction of their life. Obstacles become challenges and challenges turn into accomplishments.

Having a low self-confidence usually comes from experiences we have had in the past. These experiences have been where others did not treat us very good or we interpreted what they said or did in a way that put us down. Don't let the past be a ball and chain to you now. Cut that ball and chain off and get on with who and what you are now!

years past as it would allow them to better meet the holiday shopping needs of customers.

These decorations can be mounted on poles or in a free standing mount. Clubs and individuals are invited to sponsor some of the very affordable ornaments to adorn the Queen City. ## Single Family Bond Program Announced By Ann Richards

Governor Ann Richards recently announced that the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA) has established a new Single Family Bond Program to help low and moderate income Texans buy a home.

The program offers mortgage financing at a 7.41 percent interest rate, one of the lowest in the nation.

"Home ownership has long been regarded as the equivalent of the American dream," Richards said. "For Texans that dream has become increasingly difficult to attain.

"That is why I am pleased to see TDHCA establish this new Single Family Bond Program aimed at making home ownership more affordable for low and moderate income Texans," Richards said.

Under the program, participating lenders must reserve 25 percent of their funds for low income persons during the first six months of the program. In addition, the department is also incorporating an extensive marketing campaign to reach these potential homebuyers.

The new program will begin about July 8.

The department identified areas of the state which traditionally have not participated in the Single Family Bond Program and campaigned to get representation in those areas. As a result, lenders are participating in 17 counties that have not had past participation.

The department is also offering down payment assistance covering two-thirds of the downpayment for low and very low income persons. Through this program, the department hopes to assist Texans who are unable to make a down payment. The loans are available at zero percent interest and do not have to be paid back until the borrower sells the home.

The 72nd Texas Legislature created TDHCA by merging the former Texas Housing Agency and the former Texas Department of Community Affairs. The Community Development Block Grant was also transferred from the Texas Department of Commerce to TDHCA.

The TDHCA is dedicated to helping achieve an improved quality of life through the development of better Texas communities.

For more information on TDHCA programs, please call the agency's toll-free hotline number, 1-800-792-1119.

TDA Requires Pesticide Dealer Licenses And User Training

Ensuring that pesticide mishaps do not occur involves proper training in their use. In Texas, dealers and users of pesticides that are restricted under state and federal laws must be licensed by the Texas Department of Agriculture on a regular basis. To sell one of the 451 pesticides designated as restricted under federal law or state limited under Texas law, requires as dealer license that must be renewed annually. Dealer licenses cost $100 each.

In addition, dealers are required to sell these pesticides only to licensed or certified pesticide applicators. Texas pesticide laws and regulations require that each sale of a federally restricted or state-limited pesticide or herbicide be documented and kept on file for two years. Regulated herbicide sales

School Bells To Ring

Valley School year will begin on Monday, August 17, 1992. Teachers will have a work day on August 12, 1992.

Students who will be enrolling for kindergarten will need to have their social security number, birth certificate and their shot records with them on the day of enrollment.

records also must be submitted to TDA every month.

To be licensed to use these products, private pesticide applicators, such as farmers and ranchers, must undergo training by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and pass a written test administered by TDA. A private five-year license costs $50. Private applicators must also earn 15 hours of continuing education during the five years before their licenses are renewed. Private applicators who hold a certificate issued prior to Jan. 10, 1989, do not have to pay the $50 renewal fee, but are required to have the 15 continuing education credits.

Commercial agricultural pesticide users, such as cropdusters, and non-commercial users, such as county extension agents or chemical company representatives, are required to pass category tests for the different types of pesticide applications that they make. Costs are $20 per category test, $150 for commercial licenses and $100 for non-commercial licenses. Commercial and non-commercial applicators are required to obtain five continuing education credits each year and 20 credits in a three-year period in order to renew their licenses.

In Texas, 175,000 people are either certified or licensed to use federally restricted or state-limited pesticides for private use, and more than 7,600 are licensed for commercial and non-commercial pesticide use.

For more information about dealer licenses or pesticide use training, contact TDA's Pesticide Programs Division at (512) 475-1657.

OVERHEARD: Remember that you are in charge of your own attitude you can control is yourself.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Martin and daughter, Marilee Pilcher of Fritch returned home recently from a tour of the New England states, the most unified in its geography, history and culture of all the regions in the USA.

They flew by plane from Amarillo to Hartford, Connecticut and rented a car. The highlight in Connecticut was the Mystic Seaport and Marine Museum. This seaport has been rebuilt to renew a whaling village of the 1800's. New England's last wooden whaling ship and the Australia, the oldest American schooner are still afloat here. In Stonington, they watched lobster boats unloading their catch and selling to individuals along the docks. In Barre, they were impressed by a floating bridge originally built in 1789.

They visited the Tennis Hall of Fame and viewed mansions built in the 1800's in Newport, Rhode Island. En route to Cap Cod, they saw Cranberry bogs being flooded and signs advertising berries of every kind. They were given a tour of the Coastguard Station and Lighthouse in Hyannis.

They continued to Massachusetts and among the historical attractions in Boston were Bunker Hill Monument, "Old Ironsides" (USS Constitution), Old North Church and The Freedom Trail which included the site of the Boston Massacre, State House and King's Chapel, Beacon Hill and Symphony Hall. They crossed Charles River to Cambridge to Harvard University and the home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. They took a Trolley Tour in the city of Salem and saw the home of Nathaniel Hawthorne. In the historical city of Deerfield, they saw sites of the Indian Wars, the era of which James Finmore Cooper wrote.

They were appreciative of the pleasant temperatures, the beautiful shore along the Atlantic Ocean, the orchid seashells and friendly people in Kennebunkport and Portland, Maine.

In North Conway, New Hampshire, located in a valley between the White Mountains, the women were elated when they saw the 100 outlet stores! This brings millions of tourists, including Canadians that give the state a major source of income. They took pictures of Mount Washington Hotel at Bretton Woods where Roosevelt, Churchill and DeGaulle met July 1944 to shape world financial and trade policies.

They toured the capital at Montpelier, Vermont, the smallest capital building in the USA. Along the countryside and rural routes, they visited Sugar House where maple syrup and fudge are made and the scenic attractions of beautiful flower and vegetable gardens, dairy cattle grazing, seeing hay secured in large white plastic bags and several covered bridges converted into Gift Shops.

They returned to their respective homes wishing everyone could have the opportunity of enjoying the beauty and history of the New England states.

CIGARETTES AND OTHER CANCERS

Although it is now common knowledge that smoking may cause lung cancer, the American Cancer Society reveals that smoking may also be a risk factor in bladder cancer. Warning signs for this form of cancer include blood in the urine and increased frequency of urination.

Permanent teeth usually begin to come in when a child is between six and eight years old.

A bird called the Florida Gallinule can be found as far north as Ontario, Canada.

Recyclable Plastics: An Advance in Packaging

PET (polyethylene terephthalate) is a plastic — a form of polyester — that is used in soft drink and liquor bottles, mouthwash bottles, and containers for a variety of other food products. More and more food manufacturers today are switching over to PET containers, because they are not only lighter and virtually unbreakable, but are also "environmentally-friendly."

PET containers can also be distinguished by a small raised dot called a "gate" in the center of the base of the bottle or container. All PET containers are transparent, even if they are colored green or amber.

To find out where to recycle PET plastics in your community or how you can help initiate a local program, call your city sanitation department. Helpful information about plastics recycling is also available from NAPCOR, the National Association for Plastic Container Recovery at 1-800-7-NAPCOR, and the Society of the Plastics Industry (SPI), 1275 K Street, N.W., Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20005.

PET is an energy-efficient form of packaging for several reasons. It requires less energy to make, and it reduces the weight of the finished product, thus saving gasoline and distribution costs.

Another measure of the efficiency of plastics in food packaging is preserving food itself. Since PET is shatterproof, products are not wasted due to breakage or spills during filling, transport or use. Also, because they maintain freshness of the product and protect against contamination, plastic containers ultimately reduce garbage by reducing food waste.

PET is a valuable resource that can be recycled. In fact, the market for recycled PET is one of the fastest growing of all recyclable materials. It is used in a wide variety of consumer and industrial products, from sports equipment to building insulation to paint brushes.

You can tell if the food package you are buying is made of PET by looking on the bottom for a symbol imprinted as a code by the plastics industry: "1" inside a triangle. This code was adopted to help consumers identify the different types of plastic, because proper sorting is important for effective recycling.
