Hearing For Public Comments On Regional Water Management

Briscoe County residents are invited to offer comments about the content of the proposed Llano Estacado Regional Water Management Plan at a public hearing to be held June 18 at 7 p.m. in the Plains Cotton Cooperatiave Association (PCCA) office auditorium, 3301 E. 50th Street, in Lubbock.

As part of the provisions of Senate Bill 1 passed during the 75th Texas Legislature, the Texas Water Development Board in Austin (TWDB) divided the state into 16 regional water planning areas. In February 1998, the TWDB appointed an initial coordinating committee for each region to begin developing regional water plans that identify both short-term and long-term water supply needs and recommend water management strategies to address them.

The initial coordinating committee, now known as the Llano Estacado Regional Water Planning Group, is made up of area citizens representing the 11 water user groups as defined by the TWDB. These water user groups include the public sector, county governments, municipalities, industries, agriculture, environmental issues, small businesses, electric generating utilities, river authorities, water districts, and water utilities.

Deadline Nears For Tax Protests

The deadline is fast approaching for property owners in Hall County Appraisal District to formally protest appraised 1998 property taxes, according to Chauncey Hommel, chief appraiser for the Hall County Appraisal District.

Property owners have until July 6, 1998 to file protests with the Hall County Appraisal District. All personal property and real property tax notices were mailed by the district June 4, 1998.

Property owners have the right to protest their property tax appraisals based on concerns about:

- * the value placed on an owner's property;
- * exemptions that owners think may apply to them, such as homestead, disability, disabled veteran or senior citizen exemptions;
- * the cancellation of an agricultural appraisal;
- * the taxable status of an owner's property; or
- * any action taken by the appraisal district that adversely affected an owner.

Public review of the Hall County protests begins July 20, 1998, Turkey, Texas and July 21, Memphis, Texas. The Hall County Appraisal Review Board is an independent board of citizens that review problems with appraisals and other concerns, according to the district.

To obtain protest forms or for more information, contact the Appraisal District at 806/ 259-2393 or at its offices at 721 Robertson St., Memphis, Texas.

THEN & NOW!

by Eunice McFall

This past week we were treated to a very special event. The promoters of Texas invited the media, hotel, motel and restaurant personnel to come to their dress rehearsal for the play. It was a beautiful evening with the moon shining bright and the lights of the play shining even brighter. The amphitheatre was almost completely filled to capacity with their visitors. Many were returning year after year to enjoy the fictional account which is based on historical facts about the cattlemen and farmers who settled in the Texas Panhandle and the hardships involved with making a new life and founding a new town far from civilization.

The costumes worn by the actors and dancers were spectacular most fitting for the characters. The energy portrayed on the stage was astronomical. This was not my first time to get to enjoy Texas but each time I think is the best time. The many hours of preparation paid off well that evening. Everything went off like clockwork. If there was a problem with anything, the audience was unaware of it. The lighting was spectacular as was the sound effects and the grand finale of fireworks were just gorgeous, like so many jewels hanging in the sky just for our viewing.

This is the 33rd year that Texas has been performed in Palo Duro Canyon. Each year a new crew takes the reins and makes it happen. The actors and dancers feel honored to be chosen to participate in this spectacular play each year. The play is put on by 80 professional singers, actors and dancers.

On opening night, Texas will celebrate the gifts from generous contributors who have helped make evenings beneath the stars in the pioneer amphitheater a reality. A historical photograph will be taken of the donors whose names are engraved on the star or wall surrounding the Paul Green Patio, adjacent to the 1,724 seat amphitheater.

President Patty A. Bryant said that they want to have a photograph of all the donors standing on or near the spot where their family or business name is etched into the patio rock. It is because of these generous people that guests from around the world can experience a wonderfully entertaining evening and learn the 1800's history of the Texas Panhandle.

Over 85,000 people attended Texas last season from every state and 104 countries. If you have never seen Texas, do try to make it this season. It will be well worth the trip. If you have seen it then you know how much you would enjoy seeing the new features that are in place for this upcoming season. I, for one, appreciate the invitation to go once again to view a bit of history in a beautiful outdoor setting.

WIDE OPEN

Give me enough rope and I'll hang myself! That's just what I did last week in my column. No one bothered to tell me the "unwritten rule" about profanity in newsprint, not that my column is news, so uneducated as I am, I jumped off the chair with my foot in my mouth, or in my case my fingers on the keys. I never intended to offend anyone with my words, and to those who were offended I offer my apology. Although they are real words that are used everyday and to think that we can shelter ourselves from them is at best a daunting chore. I was informed that profanity is only a crutch for the uneducated and you can always find an alternative word to use. I guess they teach those in college, but I never went! We all make mistakes, me more than most. I'm still learning about the newspaper and I hope that was the last mistake I ever make, but I doubt it. So like daddy always says "When you get bucked off that horse, you just have to get right back up on it and ride again."

My mother is my censor, and I offer no one else that privilege. I will not be censored by threats. To do so could end up very unexpectedly to your disadvantage. Please, if you have a problem with what I write come tell me, don't go behind my back to complain.

This weekend is Fathers Day and I would like to take a moment to say THANKS DAD for all the things you've done for me over the last 41 years. I know at times we have not seen things eye to eye and for that I am sorry. Your still the smartest, strongest, best looking dad I know, and the things you taught me about hard work and honesty will never be forgotten. I love you, and wish you well on this Father's Day.

Our apologies for the poor quality of our photos in the paper the last few weeks. We have been trying out a new digital camera, which was supposed to make better photos at a less expensive rate. Yeah, right! We now have decided to go back to Polaroid or 35mm film until we can get the bugs worked out. Thanks for bearing with us.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Dear Dad,
This message will convey
My thanks for showing me the way,
Though anything that I might say
Is greatly overdue.
In times of trouble you were strong
And helped me tell the right from wrong.
You taught me how to get along,
In every way you knew;
And so my faith directed me
To praise you, Dad, wholeheartedly.
Whatever I've turned out to be,
I owe it all to you.

Some laws suggest we are not really free people

By Greg Sagan

Freedom is not our destiny, and the tyranny we invite will be the product of our own hand.

But it isn't the truth about us, and the first to fulminate against freedom are those who consider themselves to be the most moral.

Let's take a simple, instructive, highly charged issue like drug abuse. We begin with the premise that drug abuse is bad.

Alcohol is such a drug. It is addictive. It is responsible for enormous personal and social damage.

It's easy to get confused. We live under the influence of two institutions -- apolitical democracy and a free (there it is again) market economy.

But choices can be limited by government action, and in a democracy, government action can be initiated by the most well-intended ideals.

In the case of tobacco, we have heard a sickening abdication of accountability by those who should be the most accountable--smokers.

This would be farce if it were confined to smoking, but what pastime cannot be subjected to this same punitive logic?

The behaviors of vice are not eliminated by declaring war on them. They change only when individual underlying psychologies change, and this involves the free application of an assortment of remedies, not the state's whip.

Most Adults Buckling Up, Child Restraint Use Still Lagging

Safety belt use by Texas adults has increased steadily over the past decade, but usage rates for children lag far behind, according to recent studies.

A mandatory seat belt law was passed in 1985 requiring drivers and front seat passengers to use safety belts.

In spite of a steady increase in child restraint usage since the 1985 law, only 63 percent of children (infants to 4 year olds) in urban areas are being buckled up.

Even though Texas safety belt use ranked among the top ten in the nation in 1996, officials at TxDOT say the usage rate is not high enough.

Drivers and passengers in Texas are exposing themselves and their children to serious injury and even death, simply because they are not buckling up," Pence said.

There is a national goal to reduce child passenger fatalities 15 percent and to increase overall seat belt use to 85 percent by the year 2000.

The TTI study also showed that:

- Children are more likely to ride unrestrained in pickup trucks than cars.
• Restraint use is ten percent lower for pickup truck drivers than car drivers.
• Female driver safety belt use is ten percent higher than that of male drivers.
• Restraint usage increases as age increases.
• There is a strong association between driver and passenger restraint use.

TTI began collecting occupant restraint use data in a sample of several Texas cities for TxDOT in 1984.

TSCRA horse inspection Program Begins June 15

Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association's new Horse Identification (HIP) program will be up and running by June 15 says association President C. Coney Burgess.

"Our members identified this program as a priority during TSCRA's April convention, and we have focused all of our resources into getting it operational at the earliest possible date," says Burgess.

"The value of a rancher's horse is measured by dollars and sense," says Burgess. "A horse is an essential working partner who develops a lot of cow sense and responds intuitively to act as one with the rider."

Cornerstone of HIP will be the horse identification database at TSCRA's Fort Worth headquarters. A special form has been developed to describe the identifying characteristics of each horse.

Members will receive wallet-sized cards with information on how to report theft of a horse which has been entered into TSCRA's Horse Identification Program database.

If the horse is reported as stolen, this information will be faxed to slaughter facilities, listed in the TSCRA Theft Bulletin and made available to TSCRA's inspector force and other law enforcement agencies.

"Prompt reporting of a missing animal is crucial, declares Burgess, "to ensure that the descriptive information is in these inspector's hands before the thief gets the horse to market."

Members will receive wallet-sized cards with information on how to report theft of a horse which has been entered into TSCRA's Horse Identification Program database.

TSCRA membership number (this number is the reference number for horses entered into the database).

- Police report number from your local law enforcement agency.
• Date of theft.
• Location of theft.
• Details of theft.

- List of any physical evidence left at the scene.
• Possible suspects or suspect vehicles.
• Any available witnesses.
• Other items taken in addition to horses.

Burgess emphasized that TSCRA may investigate only if the horses--reported stolen meet the criteria of theft as defined in Section 31.03 of the Texas Penal Code or Title 21, Sec. O.S. 1716 of the Oklahoma Penal Code.

a question of ownership due to civil dispute or civil litigation will not be considered stolen by TSCRA and will be held only pursuant to a court order which must be in the possession of a TSCRA inspector or other law enforcement agency having jurisdiction.

A TSCRA horse industry membership will be the same as a minimum TSCRA membership, says Burgess. The membership includes scanning of one horse picture; pictures of additional horses may be scanned for $5 each.

Burgess says several horse safety and theft prevention clinics are being planned to provide opportunities for ranchers in Texas and Oklahoma to have digital pictures made of their horses, fill out descriptions for the HIP data base, have their horses freeze-branded and have the brands recorded.

Turkey Roost Museum Supper Said "Big Hit"

Everyone concerned reports that the Mexican Stack Supper benefit was a big success. The supper was well-attended and brought a little over $600 in profit to the museum fund.

There were a lot of nice compliments on the supper, and one lady said "you mean your whole community helps with things like this?"

Some of the best cooks in Texas donated cobblers and beans, Pat House cooked the meat donated by CC's and other ladies helped as well. Vera and Hattie helped with serving and cleaning up.

If you have been past the old clinic building, you can see that the City workers are moving the dirt and dead trees.

Russ Yates lowered the old windmill donated by the Bill Lane family to the museum. Hopefully it will soon be set up on the south open area of the museum.

The next fund-raiser will be Christmas in November benefit. If there are businesses or individuals who would like to donate a gift for the drawing, please contact Celia Johnson, Tootsie Mullin, or Margie Pinkerton.

Malone Reunion Held June 6, 1998

The Hotel Turkey was the site of the recent Malone reunion.

There were 33 members of the clan laughing, talking, cooking, eating, catching upon news, remembering old things and just enjoying their heritage. Kenneth and Horace Malone and Zona Crone are descendants of Will and Katie Johnson Malone; Katie Johnson's cousin being the original owner of the Turkey Hotel. Vernez Malone was the daughter of Claude Turner who is buried in the Turkey Cemetery. Her mother was a Gibson.

Vernez Turner Malone shared a few of her childhood memories of visiting with her grandparents here in Turkey. According to her, this was a magical place then, and still has magical memories today. Her grandfather was best known as "Uncle Ben" and was a farmer-rancher here. Her mother's people (Gibsons) lived on the old Gibson place. The creek down there was a wonderful place for kids to play and to imagine - cold spring water and caves where the old Buffalo Hunters used to camp out.

I had several relatives, Uncle Elmer and Ruby Turner, Aunt Davey and Curtis Tunnell, Labelle, Curtis Dale and Vera Fuston, Cousin Bill Fuston, Uncle Bruce and Gladys Mae Gibson, Peggy Logan and Bruce; Ruby and Elmer Turner and others. They provided so many memories of oldtime things such as weddings shiverrees, cowboys filling the cisterns with snow during the winter in order to have cool water in the summer, ice cream and cake socials, later memories of visiting the different churches, swimming in the coldest water at Roaring Springs, gathering eggs at my grandmother's, marvelling at the Tunnel's in-home rock museum and Uncle Bruce's collection of arrowheads, the Fuston's pea fowls, wonderful food and good times. She said she would never ever forget the interesting times she had in Turkey!

Attendants at the reunion were: Kenneth and Mary Nell Malone, Doris Sinnburn, Linda, Gary and Jeremy Langford, Carol Pettey, all of Dimmitt, Texas; Carla Pettey and Jason Wooten of Lubbock, Kristi and Brad Sadler, David, Pam, Matthew, Sarah and William Malone, all of Dallas; Horace Malone of Amarillo, Billie Foxhall of Memphis, Vernez Malone, Kay and Ken Chinn, Carla Taylor, Tracy and Greg Pollock, Alex and Erin, all of Durant, Oklahoma; Zona Crane of Tyler, Mary Ann and Bobby McClenney, Carolyn and Jimmie Philpot of Lindale, Texas; Doris and Richard Allen of Conroe, Texas.

Bill and Mary Lou Gipson, Ruth (Bill's Daughter) and Wayne Wallace spent two nights at the Hotel Turkey reliving old memories and making new ones. Norman Gipson of Lubbock met them there for a get-to-gather. They spent the time visiting with friends of years ago, the old high school building and other artifacts around town. The Senior Citizens were meeting on...

There are about 57 million children under the age of 15 in the U.S.

Tuesday night so Bill and Mary Lou were able to see many people there. John Gipson (Dad) was a carpenter and built the Cody Bell House on Main Street where they lived for a number of years.

Oleta Randell commented on how much she and Louis enjoyed it when Bill and Norman suggested: "Let's sing a few songs." So they sat at the Hotel Turkey singing their hearts out. Norman had written the gospel songs they were trying out. In addition to being uplifting, it was just like old times.

Norman treated the Turkey Church of Christ with a wonderful sermon. Bill's son-in-law, Wayne Wallace, shared information on the Berean Children's Home work.

Oleta and Louis Randell had an exciting excursion to Amarillo the other day. As Oleta said: "They hit Bambi but didn't kill him."

A doe and two little ones came out of nowhere and dashed across the road in front of their car. They were thankful that the little deer was able to go on.

Several young children were seen with some of their young mothers: Vivian Stewart, Jackie Jenkins, Laura Davidson, DeLane Brown, and Dana Hancock stopping at Foy Lane's house to cheer her up with food and song. She was quite touched with the beautiful singing and thoughtfulness. They also made a stop at Laverne Hamner's to cheer her up. Laverne recently lost a son. I'm sure she appreciated the visit.

What a wonderful thing for you young mothers to do. Those children will grow up with a role model, sensitivity and caring for others. Mozelle Eudy states that Ronnie Eudy of Austin is doing well after recent back surgery in Seton Hospital. He is able to move around and walk without too much pain.

Saturday, June 6th, Lake Raymond Gary State Park, Fort Lawson, Oklahoma was the site of the John D. and Mary Ida Smith Mangham reunion.

Dovie Mangham Wheeler is one of the nine children of John and Mary Ida Mangham.

Dovie was the oldest descendant there and also received the plaque for having the most of her descendants present. Her children, great and grandchildren attending were: Nimra Wheeler Stuckey, Ft. Smith, Arkansas; Harold and Frances Wheeler of Parnell; Billy and Janice; Bryan and Mona, Candy, Chelsea and Haley; Barry and Rebecca, Nathan, Natalie and Grant Wheeler of Turkey.

MORE TURKEY NEWS

Recent visitors in the home of Keith and Bettie Green were James and Zach Green of Holiday; Criss, Kaylene, Meagan, Crissta and Chase Morrison of Lubbock; W. L. Armstrong of Whitney and Terry and Rolando Green of Waco. Zach, Meagan and Crissta stayed for a few days visit with their grandparents.

Billy and Margie Pinkerton were in Big Springs and Loraine Sunday and Monday to attend the funeral of Margie's uncle J. W. Moore. Officiating the service was David Hutton, who lived in Turkey many years ago.

Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum First Day Admissions

The first day of admissions for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum was June 1, 1998. The first visitor to pay admission was Michael Phillips from Rockville, Indiana. Phillips teaches U.S. History in the high school there. The first family to pay the admission fee was Candy Scott from Amarillo, her three children William, David, and Michael Sisk, and her mother, Virginia Scott from Lipscomb.

"The new admission policy will ensure that the largest history museum in Texas continues to thrive in the Panhandle. The Museum's board and staff studied long and hard before concluding that good stewardship required some bold new steps if this priceless cultural asset was to be passed on to the next generation bigger and better than ever," stated Museum Director Walt Davis.

The Museum also began their Summer Sundays, which allows free admission to the Museum each Sunday through August 30, 1998. The admission charge Monday through Saturday is $4 for adults, $3 for adults 65 and over, $4 for children 13 years of age and over, $1 for children ages 4-12 and children age 3 and under will be admitted free. Groups of 20 or more are $3 per person.

Hank Presents Great Musical Concert In Turkey

Last Saturday evening was a very warm evening. No only in temperature but so was the music that fans of Hank Thompson came to hear at Turkey at the old gym. Even over the hum of cooling fans you could still enjoy the lively music of the Brazos Valley Boys who preceded Hank on the stage. They played and sang many old time favorites of the crowd as well as blending in some new songs for the crowd.

Fans showed much enthusiasm for both the old and the new that was presented by the group.

The band in their smart red, black, tan and white shirts set off by black trousers and boots were Billy McBay on the fiddle, Ray Jones on the fiddle, Curtis Brown, and Dana Hancock stopping at Foy Lane's house to cheer her up with food and song. She was quite touched with the beautiful singing and thoughtfulness. They also made a stop at Laverne Hamner's to cheer her up. Laverne recently lost a son. I'm sure she appreciated the visit.

Hank began his recording in 1946. He began playing guitar at the age of 10. The first song he wrote was Whoa Sailor, which he can still belt out quite well!

His engaging smile and great voice kept the fans cheering. His rendition of hits such as The Wild Side Of Life, Oklahoma Hills and One Six Pack To Go pointed out to the audience that the choice made in 1989 for him to be in the Country Music Hall of Fame was the correct choice to make!

Speaking of Turkey, the group said they had long wanted to play at Turkey. "It is a nice place to visit."

Turkey Lions Meet June 8

The Turkey Lions met on June 8, 1998 with 31 present.

Lion Keith Green led the pledge to the U. S. Flag. Lion Melvin Clinton gave the prayer.

Char-broiled hamburgers were served for the family night meeting. Boss Lion Don Turner presided at the meeting.

It was decided to put out the flags on Main Street for the Hank Thompson show on June 13.

Lion Keith Green made the motion that the Lions donate $200.00 to the Senior Citizens to help pay for the new air conditioners. Lion Buddy Colvin seconded the motion and the motion carried.

Mayor Susie Johnson commented on the accomplishments of the Turkey Lions, as well as other groups in Turkey. She wants everyone in Turkey to work together for the betterment of the community.

Boss Lion Don Turner presented a 25 year member pin to Lion Melvin Clinton and spoke of his contributions to Turkey.

Father's Day is Sunday, June 21st and a friend recalled this story about his father I'd like to share with you.
His dad and ten brothers and sisters were reared on a farm. Times were hard and even if they had money, they didn't go anywhere to spend it.
One day they saw a colorful poster announcing that a circus was coming to a nearby town. A son was 50¢ and his dad's parents could afford to send only one youngster. Straws were drawn and his father was the lucky winner!
When the day arrived, his dad and the mule set out for town long before dawn. As he neared the town, he noticed people lining both sides of the road.
He tied his mule to a tree and worked his way to see what was going on. Later, he said it was the greatest thing he had ever seen! There were elephants, horses, camels, clowns and all kinds of wagons with strange animals inside.
After everything had passed by, his wide-eyed father turned to the man standing next to him and asked, "Who do I give my money?"
The man said he'd take it, so his dad handed over the 50¢, untied his mule and rode most of the day back to the farm. He was eager to tell his family of the wondrous things he had seen.
It wasn't until years later that his dad realized he hadn't seen the circus...only the PARADE!
May today's child, young or old, keep focused on Papa, Dad, Father, whatever his endearing name, honor him in some way with love and devotion on Father's Day.

Casillas Completes Marine Training

Marine Pvt. Jimmy Casillas, son of Louis L. and Amanda Ortiz of Quitaque, Texas, recently completed basic training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Casillas successfully completed 12 weeks of training designed to challenge new Marine recruits both physically and mentally.

Casillas and fellow recruits began their training at 5 a.m., by running three miles and performing calisthenics. In addition to the physical condition program, Casillas spent numerous hours in classroom and field assignments which included learning first aid, uniform regulations, combat water survival, marksmanship, hand-to-hand combat and assorted weapons training. They performed close order drill and operated as a small infantry unit during field training.

Casillas and other recruits also received instruction on the Marine Corps' core values - honor, courage and commitment, and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Casillas and fellow recruits ended the training phase with the Crucible, a 54-hour team effort, problem solving evolution which culminated with an emotional ceremony in which the recruits were presented the Marine Corps emblem, and were addressed as "marines" for the first time since boot camp began.

Casillas joins 41,000 men and women who will enter the Marine Corps this year from all over the country.

He is a 1991 graduate of Tulia High School in Tulia, Texas.

Enjoy Visit With Relatives They'd Never Seen Before

Mrs. Celia Slayton, Allen True, Ira True and Mrs. Walter Cobb, sisters and brothers from Quitaque, went to Mountain View, Okla., last week and visited some kinfolk they had never seen before. They have an uncle, George Allen, their mother's brother, whom Mrs. Slayton says she last saw when she was two years old, and they have corresponded with him and his family these many years, always planning for a visit but never quite getting around to it. But last week after lots of letter-writing and changing of plans, arrangements were made for the reunion and the Quitaque family went to Mountain View where they were joined by another sister Mrs. Lettie Braly and family of Sterling, Okla., and their cousins from Dodd City, Kans., and others from Cordell, Okla. There were twenty-five in all present and a delightful visit was enjoyed.---

Wedding Announced

A wedding which we are late reporting took place May 19 at Plainview when Mrs. Lois Horton of Amarillo, became the bride of Lewis Kimbell of Quitaque. Judge Tibbets officiated at the service.

The couple are living in Quitaque with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Kimbell.---

Joe Graham was here this week from Amarillo to see about his wheat, which he said would be ready to cut in about one more week.---

Hall Motor Co. delivered a snazzy new Oldsmobile to Pete Rice Saturday, which sure takes a load off Pete's feet. He sold his jet-propelled Ford several weeks ago, and since has been thumbing his way. The new streamlined Olds 8 will soon get broken in to Pete's speed. In fact, it will start now as soon as the ignition is turned on and without stepping on the gas.---

To see if a fabric is colorfast, dampen a cotton ball and leave it on the fabric for five minutes. If the color comes off on the cotton ball, you know the fabric will bleed in the wash.

First Annual Jason Little Scholarship Presented at Graduation

Jeremy Taylor was the recipient of the first annual Jason Little Memorial Scholarship at Valley's graduation. The scholarship is given through the Ag department at Valley High School and the recipient is chosen by the Ag teachers. An award that is presented at the FFA Banquet for superior herdsmanship accompanies the scholarship.

Jason Little graduated from Valley High School in 1990. After his death in December of 1997 his parents, Jess and Linda Little, and his brother, Jess Craig Little started this scholarship fund in an attempt to help a Valley graduate advance his or her education on the college level each year.

Donations to this scholarship fund may be made at the First National Bank in Quitaque.

Old Roses Regain Position

provided by Calley Payne, CEA-FCS
Gardeners are stepping back in time to find roses with a better staying power. Roses are the best documented heirloom plant. Extension horticulturist Dr. Bill Welch says time has shown antique roses to be easy to care for, disease resistant and very fragrant.

You will find old roses in a wide range of colors and flower types from small, single flowers to large, fluffy cabbage flowers. Welch says modern hybrid tea roses make beautiful flowers, but the bush isn't much to look at. With old garden roses you get a nice shrub.

Antique roses should be planted in an area that gets at least six hours of sun a day. Add organic material to the soil, water the roses deeply every seven to ten days and mulch two to three times a year. Unlike modern roses, old roses should only receive a light pruning, cutting back no more than one-third.

CARD OF THANKS
Again the wonderful people of Turkey, Quitaque, Memphis, and Clarendon have shown their love to us in the loss of Leroy. No words seem enough for all the prayers, calls, words, food, flowers, memorials and just being here for us. The men he worked with who he loved like brothers spoke so highly of him it made us feel better. We can never say enough good words for all of you wonderful people.
May God Bless you,
Love, Leroy Hamm family

NOTICE

EXCESS NITRATE IN QUITAQUE WATER
The City of Quitaque has been notified by the Texas Department of Health that the water being supplied by our system exceeds the maximum constituent level of Nitrate (as Nitrogen) specified by the "State Drinking Water Act" (public law 93-523 U. E.).
The limit for Nitrate (as nitrogen) is set at 10 milligrams per liter of water. The amount of nitrate (as Nitrogen) in the water we supply was reported to be 13.10 milligrams per liter of water.
Adults and children over the age of 6 months need not be concerned about drinking from the tap. An excess of nitrate intake by an infant under the age of 6 months may reduce its available oxygen supply and possibly produce "blue baby" symptoms.
To obtain bottled water from the City of Quitaque, persons must come by the City Hall between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.
Caution
DO NOT BOIL YOUR WATER
Boiling water will increase the concentration of Nitrates. The City of Quitaque will provide, at no charge to our customers, bottled water of acceptable quality to pregnant women and to infants under 6 months of age for cooking and drinking purposes.
For more information contact Clyde Dudley, City Administrator or Maria Cruz, City Secretary at City Hall or call 455-1456. 38 1tc
