THEN and NOW!

by Eunice McFall

You are what you think you are! Do you believe this? Just what do you think you are? At different times in our lives we feel differently about ourselves. When we are very young we have no fear of the unknown. We just want to explore to the ends of the earth if our parents would only let us. As we get a bit older we do realize that there are limits to what we can realize at that age. But by then we feel that we are able to conquer the unknown all by ourselves.

Then we get over this exploring stage (at least most of us do!) and get to the time in life that we feel that we can lick anything that life has to throw at us! Well after a few bouts with old mother nature we begin to realize once again that we do have to make a few concessions to time, strength and ability. But shoot, we are still quite the conqueror!

By this time we are on our own trying out our new found wings and doing all those things we have been warned not to do or we would have to pay dire consequences. Surprise, all of our acts do have some consequences--some good and some bad. We will accomplish more in this old world with less effort and more strength left over if only we will try to avoid the bad consequences by not flying too close to the fire or the electric wire!

Then we begin to settle down and think that our lives are at an all time low--dull--nothing exciting ever happens to me--how many times have we heard this from someone close to us? How do we overcome dullsville--perhaps with looking at our lives with a new insight and doing what we all forget to do so often--Count Our Blessings.

As a friend told me this week--I have so much more in my life than I deserve--so true of all of us if we would only be honest and think of all that we could give in return and do not. If you think your life is dull it will be dull and continue to be duller as the days go by.

If you think your life has the makings of contentment--your thoughts will make you content--if you think your life is not any good to anyone--just look around you and think what you family and friends lives would be like if you had never been born--much emptier and much more lonely because only you can fill your place on this earth. You are irreplaceable so just perk up and get on with the wonderful act of living day by day. After all this very minute is the only one that we have any guarantee of.

Southern Living Reps Visit Area

Travel Editor, Joe Rada and J. Savage (Josh) Gibson of Southern Living Magazine arrived at the Quitauque Quail Lodge about three hours late last Friday. After renting a car in Amarillo to complete their journey to our area and taking the scenic drive by Claude to Silvertown, car trouble developed.

Good samartian, Finies Scoggins picked them up and took them to Silvertown. At the Malt Shop, they were greeted with relief-only short lived-Rada and Gibson were not the referees for Silvertown's homecoming football game the customers were expecting to walk through the door. A new rental car arrived for the men and they continued to Quitauque.

Saturday, they spent the day on the Caprock Canyons Trailway and in the Caprock Canyons Park gathering information, taking pictures and greatly admiring the local scenery. Dawn saw them at the site of the old railway tunnel. Local stable owner, Tomas Hinojosa, assisted them during the day. "You have a beautiful countryside and very congenial people in your area," stated Joe Rada.

October 3-9 National Fire Prevention Week

by Robert Patrick

The Quitauque Volunteer Fire Department would like to announce that October 3rd-9th is National Fire Prevention Week. Here are some tips if you find yourself in an emergency fire situation.

In a structure fire feel the door before entering a room with the back of your hand. If the door is hot it is too dangerous to open, use an alternate route instead. If you encounter smoke as you escape, try to use an alternate route if possible. If no alternate route is available crouch or crawl with your head in a safety zone about 12-24 inches off the floor.

Laney, Garner, Carrier To Address Judges

The Panhandle Judges and Commissioners Association will meet this Thursday and Friday, October 7 and 8, at the Fifth Season East Inn, in Amarillo.

On Thursday a school will be held on County business to provide school hours for those judges and commissioners who need the required hours that are necessary to hold an elected county office.

Friday morning the association will be called to order by President U. F. Coker of Turkey, Hall County. The association is composed of thirty two counties. The Hon. Arthur Ware, of Amarillo, will issue the welcome address.

The association was fortunate to acquire some well-known state officials to speak to the group. On the agenda is the Hon. Peggy Garner, head of the Texas Water Commission, the Hon. Pete Laney, Speaker of the House, from Hale Center and Hon. Senator Steven A. Carrier of Roby.

The meeting will adjourn at 3:30 Friday afternoon.

Tamales Available At Catholic Center

The Quitauque Catholic Center will be having their tamales for sale on Saturday, October 9, 1993. The tamales can be purchased either mild, regular or hot.

Before Saturday you may call during the day 455-1458 and after 5 you may call 455-1273 to place your orders. Saturday calls for the tamales may be placed at 455-1277 all day.

If you can, call your orders in early. Your help in this will be greatly appreciated.

Preparation Continues For Fall Foliage Tour

The foliage along the Caprock and across the Valley is beginning to show touches of fall, and in just two weeks, on October 23, people from far and near will gather in Quitauque for its first annual Fall Foliage Tour.

Quitauque merchants are busy getting their stores decorated and ready for the big day, and the Chamber is encouraging everyone to get their yards and businesses looking their best.

The Foliage Tour is already getting a lot of attention across the state. A few days ago the Chamber of Commerce was contacted by a correspondent from Texas Monthly concerning the foliage tour and trailway.

Never use an elevator in a fire. It could take you to the floor where the fire is and strand you there with no way out. Use a stairway instead.

If your clothing catches on fire, stop immediately and drop to the ground. Cover your face and mouth with your hands. Roll over and over to smother the flames. If you are in a wheelchair, you can smother the flames with a heavy blanket or rug.

These tips should help you if you find yourself in a fire. Remember to install smoke detectors outside every bedroom and hallway to give you an early warning in case of fire and have an escape route planned in case of emergency.

What Does No Cholesterol On The Label Really Mean?

by Ronda Alexander
 County Extension Agent

Don't be fooled by "no cholesterol" on the label. It does not necessarily mean low blood cholesterol for you! Cholesterol comes from animal foods: meat, fish, poultry, eggs and dairy foods. So doesn't it make sense that if a food contains no animal products, it will be "cholesterol free"? But it may still contain saturated fatty acids.

Since saturated fatty acids have been shown to increase blood cholesterol more than unsaturated fatty acids or dietary cholesterol, then it is important to look for sources of saturated fatty acids.

The best way to lower your blood cholesterol is to cut down on the amount of saturated fatty acids in your diet. When grocery shopping, read the label of everything that you intend to buy. Foods that are cholesterol-free may contain some of these sources of saturated fatty acids: cocoa butter, coconut, palm oil, palm kernel oil, hydrogenated vegetable oil, solid or vegetable shortening.

Always check the ingredients list on the label. The ingredient in the greatest amount is listed first, while the ingredient in the least amount is listed last. Limit your intake of those foods listing the sources of saturated fatty acids mentioned about, at or near the top of the list, and make sure that you read the label before you put it on the table from now on.

Things Seen or Heard

Visiting in the home of Shannon and Lisa Cruse last week-end was Lisa's uncle, Jay Jones from Visalia, California.

Jay was on his way to Oklahoma to visit his daughters and their families.

While watching the Country Music Association awards the other night, Johnny Cash was introduced. He was talking about when Bob Wills was inducted into the Western Music Hall of Fame. He also informed the audience that the Bob Wills stamp was presented for sale on September 25, 1993, at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville.

Mr. Cash failed to mention the stamp was also available at the Bob Wills Center in Turkey, Texas, that night. I guess he forgot.

It is always a pleasure to visit with Zona Lane. She has some wonderful stories to tell. The other day she was telling about one of Alva Johnson's sons and a friend who attended church services together. The preacher asked for each of the young people to recite a Bible verse. The young friend whispered to Johnson that he didn't know a Bible verse. Johnson informed him not to worry, he would tell him one-- "Jesus wept, Moses slept and Joshua fell off the doorstep". The friend proudly related his Bible verse and I imagine the congregation erupted in laughter. I know the people gathered around, Zona certainly did. The group also agreed it was probably Red Johnson who helped his young friend out. It was later confirmed that it was Red!

Janet House had surgery last week in Amarillo. Janet has been staying with her parents in Dimmitt before the surgery.

Betty Schneider of Amarillo was a recent visitor in her Mother's home, Virginia Degan. Betty came to wish her Mother a belated Happy Birthday.

Lavern and Charles Hamner were recent visitors in Lubbock. They visited in the home of LaVern's brother, the Glen Perkins family.

Bonnie Hill drove to Memphis last Saturday morning. After picking up her daughter, Carol Weatherly and grand-daughter, Lynn Davis, the three ladies drove to Claude where they visited in the home of Rod and Dianne Hill.

Following a short visit, Dianne Hill joined the ladies for a trip to Amarillo. In Amarillo, Carol Weatherly and Bonnie were fitted with new glasses. The group also visited with Lex and Jess Weatherly. They all returned to their homes Saturday evening except Mrs. Hill. She spent Saturday night with daughter Carol in Memphis, returning home Sunday morning.

I have heard that Earl Howard Gilmore will be a guest of the Carton Thomson's this week-end. Mr. Gilmore is the brother-in-law of Rev. Thomson. He is the son of Lee Gilmore.

Earl Gilmore is married to Earlene Thomson, a sister of Rev. Thomson. Earlene lived just across the hall from me when we were freshmen at W.T. in Canyon.

Duncan and Helen Chandler and son, Jerry, of Forney, Texas, are visiting in the Turkey-Quitaque area this week. They were house guests of Vernell Cotton, Helen's sister-in-law, in Turkey. They also visited with Duncan's sister in Quitaque, Lockwood McCracken.

James and Wilda Fuston have had quite an exciting vacation. A week ago Sunday, Wilda flew to Dallas where she was met by her sister, Johnnie Buchanan. Early Monday morning, the two sisters drove to Shreveport, Louisiana to be with another sister, Jean Vaughn, who underwent extensive surgery on Monday.

Wilda and Johnnie drove back to Dallas Monday night after receiving the news their sister was doing fine.

Wilda flew home on Tuesday morning. As soon as she arrived home, she and James left for Center, Colorado. They visited with their son and family, Leck and Lisa Fuston and children-- Jamie-13, Lacy-9 and Tye-5.

One day the group went to a private lake above Creed, Colorado, which was 10,000 feet above sea level for some fishing. I don't know how the fishing was but Wilda reported the scenery was breath-taking. She reported the aspens looked like liquid gold shimmering in the breeze and the red leaves of some of the trees were beautiful. Despite the late September date the array of hordes of flowers were beautiful.

James and Wilda returned home on Sunday night after a great trip.

David Paul Majors and family were week-end visitors in the home of his parents, Jim and Willie Majors. David Paul lives in Idalou.

Harve Williams of Canyon, spent last Sunday night in the home of his mother, Arlie Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gragson of Las Vegas, Nevada are the proud parents of a baby girl born September 26, 1993. She has been named Courtney Michelle. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Younger of Silverton and Lawana Cruse of Turkey. Mrs. A. E. Gragson of Quitaque is the great grandmother.

Janet House had surgery last Wednesday at North West Texas Hospital in Amarillo, to remove a brain tumor. At press time, she is reported to be recovering well.

Louis and Oleta Randell were in Amarillo Wednesday of last week. Louis kept an appointment with his Dr. for a check-up. The report was good.

Louis Randell was in Childress and Quitaque Friday.

Mary McMurry of Amarillo was in town visiting with her parents, Johnny and Claudine Perry. Mary also visited with her sister, Jon Etta Ziegler, in Silverton.

The Perry's son Pete Perry of Bowie spent last Sunday and Sunday night with his parents.

Mrs. Grady Hammock nee Vera Pinkerton

Vera Pinkerton Weds Grady Hammock

Miss Vera Ruth Pinkerton of Turkey became the bride of Grady Edward Hammock of Plainview in a formal double-ring ceremony performed by J Henderson of Plainview at four o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, October 2, 1993, at the Turkey Church of Christ.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Pinkerton of Turkey. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Melba Hammock of Kosse, Texas.

The couple exchanged vows amid arrangements of mauve and teal silk flowers and greenery. The unity candle stood on a gold table covered with a black crocheted dolly. Spiral candelabras and greenery flanked the sides with grapevine hearts and teal bows on the wall above the candles.

The groom escorted his mother to light their family candle. Tommy Pinkerton escorted the mother of the bride to her seat. The groom also seated special guest, Mrs. J Henderson.

The bride escorted and given in marriage by her father wore a white satin gown with a scalloped neckline which was hand embroidered with pearls and appliques of flowers. The skirt flowed into a semicathedral train and the hem was scalloped and etched with hand embroidered pearls and flowers. The back of the dress was adorned with satin bows from bodice to hem line. Her waist length veil was attached to a band of white satin rosettes.

For bridal tradition the bride wore new white satin shoes with a penny inside for good luck. For something blue she wore a blue slip that belonged to her great-aunt, the late Mrs. Vera Carpenter, for something borrowed she wore small diamond earrings belonging to her cousin Jule Daniel, and for something old she carried in her bridal bouquet a small black Bible and a wedding ring set. The Bible belonged to her uncle, Leland Pinkerton, and the ring set belonged to her grandmother, Ruth Moore.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was Emily Munger, a friend of Plainview. Bridesmaids were Brooke Cooper cousin of the bride of Lubbock, Melissa Bynum cousin of the bride of Junction and Kelly Byrnes step-niece of the bride of Sweetwater. Their dresses were black long sleeve, knee length with a off the shoulder draped collar of teal and they carried teal colored day lilies with black ribbons. Flower girls were Laranda and Marci Pinkerton nieces of the bride. They wore teal satin dresses with an over the shoulder cape collar adorned in front with a black rosette. They carried black baskets with teal bows and streamers. Serving as ring bearer was Jeremy Cooper of Lubbock.

Leslie Monk, Todd Reves Exchange Vows

MR. AND MRS. TODD REVES

Leslie Monk and Todd Reves were united in marriage on August 21, 1993, in an afternoon ceremony at the Farwell First Baptist Church, officiated by Rev. Rick Sullivan, pastor.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Monk of Farwell. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Reves of Balikpapan, Indonesia.

The Victorian ceremony took place before an arched candelabra with white tapers, decorated with tulle, greenery and accented with fresh baby's breath. White pillars were topped with large urns flanked by colossal bouquets of irises, purple gladiolus, hot pink love lilies, alstroemeria lilies, purple delphiniums, German statues, lavender fuji mums, magnolia leaves, finished with baby's breath and English ivy. Each window sill held brass candle sticks intertwined with English ivy. The pews were marked with "mock" bridal bouquets attached with pearl strands and purple ribbons.

Escorted and presented by her father, Jerry Monk, Leslie chose a fashionable gown by the designers of Lizette Creation. The gown created of white chantilly lace over white satin, featured an open neckline and full length leg-of-mutton sleeves and was embellished by delicate Venice lace and demi-pearl teardrops. A deep flounce of white silk chiffon billowed from a point at the knee to form a mermaid silhouette and was accented with a candy box bow of silk chiffon. To complete her ensemble, Leslie chose a romantic lace-covered picture hat which was accented with a tulle candy box bow.

The bride's arched bouquet was an arrangement of white roses, stephanotis, Holland frusia and bridal white enchantment lilies, accented with pearls and Victorian lace to match the bridal gown. Magnolia leaves and English ivy completed the bouquet. Tucked inside her bouquet was a handkerchief which had belonged to her paternal great-grandmother.

Maid of Honor was Angie White of Farwell. Her bridesmaids were Kendra Head, Misty Stewart and Ursula Hayes, all of Lubbock. Cousin of the bride, Rachel Monk of Ralls served as junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore teal length ballerina style dresses of moire, overlaid with purple tulle, accented with tulle candy box bows in the back. Each attendant carried a small round bouquet of bridal love lilies, fuji poms, Australian lilies, purple statues, and hot pink pixies, framed by purple tulle and matching satin ribbons.

Best Man was Bill Skora of Greenwood, Wisconsin. Groomsmen were Collin Bonner of Carson City, Nevada; Todd Christian of Farwell; and Cody Monk of Irving, Texas. They wore black Pierre Cardin tuxedos with matching bow ties and cummerbunds and white rose boutonnières framed with baby's breath.

Flower girls were cousin of the bride, Miss Hayley Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler and niece of the groom, Miss Shelby Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Todd Christian, all of Farwell. Fashioned with full ballerina skirts and puff sleeves, their dresses were purple moire overlaid with bridal tulle and accented in the back with a candy box bow. Purple ballerina slippers and tulle and satin bows for their hair completed their attire. Baskets of fresh rose petals were carried by each young lady.

Ring bearers were cousins of the bride, Brian and Benjamin Monk, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Monk of Ralls. They wore black Pierre Cardin tuxedos, with matching bow ties and cummerbunds and carried white satin lace pillows edged with matching streamers. Ushers were uncle of the bride, Kelly Patrick of Quitaque, cousins of the bride Chad and Craig Monk, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Monk of Odessa and brother of the bride, Kelsey Monk of Farwell. Candles were lighted by Chad Monk.

Wedding programs were handed out by Quinn Byrd, Marni Lunsford both of Farwell, Shanna Everhart of Lubbock and Connor Monk of Odessa.

Pre-nuptial piano music was presented by Karen Austin of Farwell. The processional and recessional were played by trumpeter Mike Marcades of Lubbock accompanied by organist LeAndra Byrd of Farwell. vocalists were Ronald Byrd, Chad Byrd and Clay Corn, all of Farwell.

We should all be concerned about the future because we will have to spend the rest of our lives there.
—Charles Franklin Kettering

Guests were registered by cousins of the bride, Shelly and Jamie Bethel. The registration table was covered with a white lace heirloom cloth belonging to Elizabeth Monk, the bride's paternal grandmother. Featured on the table was a Victorian-framed embroidered scripture verse from the Book of Ruth, especially stitched for the couple by Jo Patrick, the bride's maternal grandmother. a special exhibit of heirlooms belonging to members of the bride's family included an old Bible belonging to Leslie's mother, the wedding ring of Leslie's great-grandmother, Patrick, the bride's paternal grandmother's wedding dress, a Victorian lace tablecloth, an antique truck and a hat box.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. The bride's table was covered with Victorian lace, skirted with white satin, and accented with swags of white tulle, caught up by clusters of purple silk flowers at the corners. Behind the table was a wooden trellis decorated with silk ivy, purple tulle, and a double grapevine heart. The Victorian wedding cake was on pedestals above a fountain and the tiers were embellished with fresh flowers and pearl strands. Almond punch was served from silver appointments.

The groom's table was covered with a family heirloom chenille spread, drawn at the corners to form pleats and centered by bride and groom dolls, handcrafted by the bride's paternal grandmother. German chocolate cake, purple candy and a silver coffee service completed the groom's table.

The hors d'oeuvre table was covered in a white cloth, skirted in purple moire and featured a distinctive floating swam ice sculpture. An array of finger sandwiches, fruits and fresh vegetables were served.

Adjacent to the hors d'oeuvre table was a decorative collage of photographs of the bride and groom from infancy to the present. The special display was created by Robin and Roberta Howard, both of Farwell.

Ed Corn of Farwell served as Master of Ceremonies at the reception. Each person in the wedding party extended a special wish to Leslie and Todd, along with a fond memory that each of them had in common with the bride or groom. Background music for the reception was presented by Clay Corn of Farwell. Selected pieces were love songs of various artists, including Elvis.

The couple left from the church in a 1929 custom built Packard, owned and driven by Orie Jones of Farwell. After a honeymoon cruise to the Bahamas, Mr. and Mrs. Reves will be at home in Arlington where both are attending the University of Texas at Arlington.

Other wedding related festivities included a rehearsal dinner at the Cattle Baron in Portales, hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Reves. A bridal luncheon was given for Leslie by her aunt, Mary Jean Patrick, the day before the wedding. Earlier, Leslie was honored with a lingerie shower in the home of Andria Chadwick, friend of the bride. The couple was honored with a bridal shower in Farwell at the First Baptist Church and a patio shower was given in the home of Vick and Denise Christian of Farwell.

Among those attending from out of town were the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Monk, the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Patrick, all of Quitaque and the groom's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Johnson of Henrietta.

Bicycle Helmets Help Prevent Serious Injuries

Patricia B. Rosen, M.D.

Department of Emergency Medicine at Scott & White Hospital and Clinic and Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine, Texas A&M University Health Science Center College of Medicine

Q: My husband refuses to wear a helmet when he rides his bicycle. He says he doesn't need one and they are too hot to wear. Do bicycle helmets really protect the rider?

A: The answer is absolutely YES! Bicycle helmets reduce the risk of head injuries by 85 percent and studies have shown that helmet wearers experience fewer facial injuries.

More than 1,300 bicyclists are killed each year in the United States. Head injury is the most common cause of death and serious disability in bicycle crashes. If there had been universal use of helmets by all bicyclists in the U.S. between 1984 and 1988, possibly one death per day and one head injury every four minutes could have been prevented.

Most fatal accidents involve the cyclist coming into contact with a motor vehicle. Separate your bike from other forms of traffic by using bike lanes when available.

Cyclists are often responsible for accidents. In children ages four to twelve, 92 percent of the accidents are caused by the child cyclist. Understandably, children under 12 years of age should not ride on busy streets.

Ideally, education programs should be required for all bike riders, and helmets should be mandatory. A Canadian study showed that areas where helmet use was mandatory for cyclists, fewer severe head injuries occurred in both motorcyclists and pedal cyclists.

Your husband should wear a helmet approved by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI). He will be setting a good example for others, especially children. There are helmets designed with adequate ventilation and he should be able to find a comfortable fit. The benefits of wearing a helmet far outweigh any slight discomfort your husband might experience.

JEAN DAVENPORT

Post Art Guild Spotlights 3 Artists

The Post, Texas Art Guild spotlights three artists during their Rendezvous of the Arts on Oct. 8 thru 10th and Founders Day Artist on Oct. 11 through the 17th.

Mina Jean Davenport was born and raised in Turkey, Texas. She lived all over the United States before moving back to Texas where she hopes to stay.

"I like to do detailed paintings. People have always fascinated me and I like to have people in action; with or without animals. I rarely ever do a painting without people in it," the artist explained. Jean works primarily in oils, although she is accomplished in other media also.

"My husband, Johnny, has always been a big help to me and we enjoy pitching horseshoes," Davenport said. "Between painting, Kids 'N Art and pitching horseshoes, I stay really busy and am having a ball doing it."

Jean has paintings in many private collections throughout the United States. She spends most of her time painting commissioned works.

Jean is chairman of the board of the Post Art Guild and Assistant Director of Kid 'N Art which she helps teach 2 days a week at Post and one day at Southland.

Her paintings will be hanging at Post Art Guild. Jean has won many awards in a wide variety of categories.

- * the medical condition of someone who was previously denied disability benefits worsens.

Additionally, the SSI income and resources limits have increased over the years. This means people who were ineligible in the past because they had too much income or resources may now be eligible.

Too often, people who have these types of changes fail to reapply for SSI. They're losing out on important benefits because being eligible for SSI means more than just getting monthly checks. In most states, they would also be eligible for Medicaid which helps pay health care expenses. And SSI recipients often qualify for food stamps and other social services.

If you or someone you know was previously denied SSI benefits, look at the situation again. If there's been some kind of change, check with Social Security to see if the change means you now can get SSI. You could be doing yourself, or someone you know, a big favor.

Valley 52 McClean 4
by Coach Gilmore

The Valley Patriots improved their season record to 4-1 with a 52-4 win over the McClean Tigers. Danny House started out the scoring as he scored on a 34 yd run. The pass for the center point failed and Valley moved up 6-0. Josh Scoggins went in from the 16 yd line and Dewayne Davis added the 2 point conversion for a 12-0 lead to end the first quarter. McClean got on the score board with a 23 yd field goal, 14-4. It was all Valley after that, as Joe Valdez passed to Bubba Powell for a 4 yd touchdown. Davis' kick was good. Valley scored again when Davis went in from 17 yds out. Valdez got in on the scoring again as he hit Paul Britton on a 48 yd touch down to end the half 38-4.

4th Grade News

Hi its the fourth grade reporters again. Do you know what this month is? It is October and that means its time for Halloween. Our teachers Mrs. Proctor has already started decorating the room we think it looks great.

In social studies Monday we made clay models of missions. They were all great. In science we are studying the metric system of measurement. In Math we do a different thing nearly every day. In English we are starting persuasive paragraphs. In art we are making bats. Thanks for reading 4th grade news. The 4th grade reporters Magan, Emily & Missy.

Nothing is more dangerous than an idea, when it's the only one we have.

—Alain

5th Grade News

Last Thursday we had our states and capitals test. If we didn't study we would probably have to take it over again. Our class hopes we all made a passing grade. Mrs. Gilmore gave us a long time to study for it. So, what have all of ya'll been doing? All of the students are trying real hard to impress Mrs. Gilmore. In P.E. we have been working on sports. The girls have been working on soccer and the boys on football. We would like for all of ya'll to keep on reading the newspaper to find our article. Well, I guess it's time to go.

Your friends, Mary E. and Gaby

National 4-H Week
by Ronda Alexander
CEA-HE, Briscoe Co.

National 4-H Week, October 3-9th is here! This is the one week out of the year when 4-H'ers across Texas, the United States and the world celebrate 4-H. Yes, if you didn't realize it, 4-H is a world-wide organization.

Even though there are many differences between 4-H in Briscoe County, Texas and 4-H in Costa Rica, there are still many similarities. These include youth development, family involvement and plain ol' fun!

Have you heard that old saying, "4-H is cooking and cows," well that is not quite true any more. Although these are two of our traditional projects, there are still many more from which to choose. Projects range from photography, consumer education, recreation and even entomology. If there is something that you are interested in, then there is probably a project for you to participate in.

4-H helps youth to gain self-confidence, develop public-speaking skills, learn about community involvement and how to get along with others. Parents are also encouraged to become involved in the program. This in turn, helps to strengthen families and promote family involvement. Parents who are involved in the 4-H program learn about helping other youth achieve goals, as well as their own children.

So you see, 4-H is really for everyone, everywhere!

Great Grains

(NAPS)—Today's so-called foodies—and lots of other people, too—have been discovering a variety of interesting new high-fiber grains that are, in reality, very old. Rich in complex carbohydrates, with exotic names like kamoot (first grown in ancient Egypt), delicate quinoa, hearty cracked bulgur and kasha or buckwheat—a favorite with Russians and Middle Europeans, it's actually a fruit and can be enjoyed even if you're allergic to wheat.

To create easy, tempting, nutritionally balanced warm weather meals, with very little fat, cook grains quickly—until tender but still firm—chill and combine with healthful fruits or vegetables plus a reduced fat protein source such as versatile Jarlsberg or Jarlsberg Lite cheese. Both are all natural, luscious and mellow, deceptively "creamy" in consistency and popular with just about everybody. As a bonus, both are made using part-skim milk...newer Lite, which doesn't taste anything like a "diet" cheese, is extra low in calories, sodium and fat.

Shred, dice or cut cheese in thin strips. Drizzle salads with a classic vinaigrette or zippy yogurt-based dressing. Of course Jarlsberg also adds flavor and flair to familiar stand-bys like rice, potato or macaroni salad.

SOPHS NUTSHELL

Black curly hair, blue eyes, turned-up nose and freckles introduce you to Charles Johnson better known as Chatty. He has an outstanding personality and is a ladies man. His hobby is playing basketball. He is quite mean in English, and is a grand sports editor.

Long feet, blue eyes, a happy laugh and U. F. Coker steps into sight. He is quite popular with the girls and runs errands for the boys. His favorite song is "Once in a While." He likes to sing, box and laugh. Ah, yes he is fond of eating.

Tiny, red hair, blue eyes introduce Red Williams. He is quite cute, very mean and awfully sweet. His fault is not being tall. He wants to become a flat-footed detective.

Grey eyes, brown wavy hair, the sound of bicycle and up comes Billie Fuston. He is rather quiet but friendly. His favorite subject is English. His fault is not studying enough. He wants to become a retired business man. He is foot loose and fancy free.

Blond hair, grey eyes, a laugh, and blush introduce you to Perry Lacy. His favorite hobby is hunting. He likes music, and would like to spend a month in China. His fault is not studying Biology. He likes blue eyed girls.

Area Physicians Honor Laney

Texas House Speaker, James E "Pete" Laney, was honored Tuesday by the Hale-Floyd-Briscoe County Medical Society for his leadership in enacting substantial health care reforms during the recently completed regular session of the 1993 Texas Legislature.

Laney, 50, a Democrat from Hale Center, received a County Medical Society "Special Recognition Award" during a meeting of the Hale-Floyd-Briscoe County Medical Society.

On Washington, D.C., for an answer to health care problems," said Ruth Rector-Wright, D.O., President of the Hale-Floyd-Briscoe CMS. "Speaker Laney's leadership produced more meaningful, pro-consumer legislation this year than we've seen in the last three sessions of the Legislature and we're very proud of those accomplishments."

The 1993 Texas Legislature enacted a wide variety of health care reforms. Prominent among them are a statewide immunization program designed to provide all Texas children with access to immunizations for childhood diseases, reforms to make health insurance coverage more affordable for owners of small businesses and their employees, consumer access to expert poison control centers through the emergency 911 number, and a generous loan forgiveness program for physicians entering primary care.
