As I See It!

By Thelma Gafford

The following article was submitted by a reader. Although any one of us could have written it, it is taken from The Readers Digest, condensed from "All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten" by Robert Fulghum. To my children I say Happy Valentine's Day, and thank you for the treasures as mentioned below.

"It sits on a shelf at the top of my closet. Once it was a shoe box, decorated for Valentine's Day and given to me by my oldest child. Its components are standard: Three colors of construction paper-pink and red and white-faded now. Aluminum foil, several paper doilies, three kinds of macaroni, gumdrops, jellybeans, some little white hearts with words on them (the kind that taste like Tums), and the whole thing held together with a lot of white library paste.

This shoe-box valentine is shiveled and moldy where the jellybeans and gumdrops have run together. It's sticky in places. But it's a repository of childhood relics given to me by my children.

If you lift the lid, you'll know what makes me keep it. On folded and faded and fragile pieces of large-lined school paper are the words: "Hi daddi" and "Hopp valimtime" and "I lov you." Glue to the bottom of the box are 23 Xs and O's made of macaroni. Scrawled in several places are the names of three children. It's the product of love in its most uncomplicated and trustworthy state.

The children are grown now. They still love me, though it's harder sometimes to get direct evidence. And it's love that's complicated by age and knowledge. Love, to be sure, but not simple. Not something you can put in a shoe box.

No one else knows the sticky old valentine is there. Once in a while I take it down and open it. It is something I can touch and hold and believe in, now that there are no small arms around my neck.

It is my treasure chest. And it stands for love. Bury it with me. I want to take it along as far as I go."

That just about says it all, doesn't it!

The matter of allowing Dale Ramsey to connect a sewer line from Lot 2 & 3, Block 2 of the Jago Addition to the City's sewer line in Block 3 of the said addition died for lack of a motion.

In other business matters, Mayor Conner was appointed to present the joint landfill grant application to the Regional Review Committee. Mayor Conner, City Secretary David Brunson and Jamie Johnson P.E., were appointed to evaluate and purchase, with funds from the FY 87 TDOC grant, a gas chlorinator from

Love Fund For Carnes Infant

A Love Fund for Jennifer Carnes, 9 month old daughter of Travis and Serina Carnes, of Turkey has been established at the Turkey Branch of Memphis State Bank in Turkey.

Jennifer suffers from a disease of the intestines that prevented their development at birth.

At the age of three months, doctors had to surgically perform a colostomy on the infant. In March, she is scheduled to re-enter Lubbock General Hospital for repair work.

According to family members, if the repair work is successful in March, six weeks later she will again be hospitalized to have the stoma removed.

The family has no insurance, and the funds will be used for daily medical supplies, travel expenses, etc.

Donations can be made at the bank in Turkey.

Patriots Surprise Lakeview Eagles

The Patriots again seemed to have trouble getting their momentum early in the game, only scoring 4 points in the first quarter. But the 2nd and consecutive quarters the Eagles were unable to stop the Patriots inside game, and the Patriots led at half by one point, 23-22.

Tough defense in the 3rd kept the Patriots' momentum going as they pulled ahead by 6 and went on to a 51-46 victory.

Leading scorers were Jon Pigg-19 and Stephen Silva-9.

The Lakeview Eaglettes had to cancel their game with the Lady Patriots due to illness.

Lady Patriots were seeking their 5th win in district when they met the Samnorwood Eaglettes on Tuesday, January 24, 1989. The Lady Patriot defense was unable to stop the Eaglettes as they went in at half with the Eaglettes leading 40-26.

The Ladies trying hard in the third quarter to make up the deficit pulled within 9, but defense lapses gave the Eaglettes the edge they needed as they went on to a convincing 71-47 victory over the Lady Patriots.

Now standing at 4-3 in district the Ladies' leading scorers were Paula Scoggins-13 and Gina Conner-9.

Samnorwood Eagles had to cancel their boys game due to illness.

Briscoe County Extension News Update

Texas wheat producers will vote in late February and early March to elect five board members. Producers will also decide in a proposal to change the wheat check-off assessment limit to one-cent per bushel for research, market development and service.

To learn more about the upcoming election and assessment vote, producers in Briscoe and surrounding counties will want to attend an informational meeting sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service on February 1, 1989 at Tulia, says Curtis Preston, County Extension Agent. The meeting will be at the Swisher County Extension Service meeting room and will start at 1:30 p.m.

Producers will hear from an Extension economist regarding the current wheat situation, outlook and changing wheat trends in the state, says Preston. Also, the mechanics and timing of the voting process will be presented.

Following these discussions, Texas Wheat Producers Board representatives will report on the current use of assessment funds and plans for the future, says Preston. There will be ample time for questions and input from producers regarding the program.

For additional information, please contact the County Extension Office, says Curtis Preston.
