The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 22, 1992 at 8 a.m. in the Quitaque United Methodist Church.

THEN & NOW!

by Eunice McFall

Life--isn't it beautiful? There is so much variety to it, so much difference in outlooks at different ages, so much joy, some pain, as many different life styles as there are people. Do we really appreciate this wonderful gift given to us? Do we help others to hold on to the best of life?

We seem to have a few problems in our towns with people unknowingly causing a problem. Now, I know none of our good neighbors would ever knowingly do something to jeopardize someone else's life but when we tie up the emergency phone, the fire phone, the 911 number, we are in fact running a risk of doing just this.

Even though your call is made out of your concern for your neighbors, it is not in their best interest that you make the call. These numbers are for an emergency not a child's prank call, not to get information about a fire or who is ill and having to be transported to the hospital by ambulance. Those few seconds you take to dial and ask your questions may mean life or death to someone.

So before we dial the emergency numbers, let's stop, think, and be sure it is an EMERGENCY! The life you save could be one of your loved ones!

Not only is it inconvenient for the law officers, firemen and the EMT's but is against the law to misuse these numbers unless it is an emergency.

Yes, life is beautiful, very pleasant in our small towns--not such hustle, bustle, fumes, smog or trash as the big city. So let's all try to help keep the tragic problems at bay by obeying the "emergency" rules and "loving our neighbor as ourselves."

Caprock Canyons Trailway Now To Become A Reality

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has taken steps to create the Caprock Canyons State Park Trailway. On July 9, the commission authorized staff to accept a donation of about 65 miles of abandoned railroad corridor and develop it into the new trail in Floyd, Briscoe and Hall counties.

This will open new opportunities in hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding for trail enthusiasts from across Texas and the United States. People in Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview and numerous other Texas panhandle towns will benefit from easy access to the second longest trail in the state.

The 64.25 mile trail begins 28 miles east of Plainview in South Plains, moves through Quitaque and Turkey near the state park and ends in Estelline. Local officials believe it will be an important force for economic development.

"We've already seen Quitaque become a travel stop for almost 150,000 people a year going to Caprock Canyons State Park," said Elgin Conner, mayor of Quitaque.

Quitaque's population dropped from 696 people in 1980 down to 513 in 1990. The tiny town, like others nearby, was hit hard by a depressed farming economy in the 1980's, but sales tax revenue in the area has been up for the last two years.

"I think that's directly tied to tourism," said Mayor Conner. "And the rail-to-trail project will provide a big economic boost to Quitaque, simply by having more people come through town. We are extremely excited by the possibilities."

Class of '82 Plans Reunion

The Senior Class of 1982 will be having a ten year class reunion Saturday July 18, 1992 in the Caprock Canyons State Park from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

All teachers, families and friends are encouraged to attend this reunion.

The Rails-To Trails Conservancy, a national nonprofit group in Washington D. C., was instrumental in acquiring the abandoned rail corridor from railroad company Burlington Northern. Money to buy the land, tracks and structures was obtained from a salvage company which buys and sells salvaged rail materials. This win-win arrangement will allow TPWD to acquire the land at no cost.

"After being encouraged by community leaders to create the trail, we met with landowners in the area to discuss their concerns," said Rusty Sargent, park superintendent at Caprock Canyons State Park. "Based on their input, we believe this will be a good project for all concerned. We intend to be good neighbors."

"For the state park, I think it's going to be a tremendous drawing card. We'll now have almost 100 miles of trails in one location when you combine the rail-trail with our current park trails."

"It's going to provide outstanding weekend trail rides for horseback riders. Mountain bikers will get extensive mileage where they can get away from it all into some rugged country. And I've had numerous inquiries from Volksmarche walking groups."

In terms of its natural features, from west to east the trail moves through the cultivated fields of the Texas high plains, drops into the rugged canyons of the Caprock Escarpment, and winds down into the famous Red River Valley.

Juniper, shinnery oak, mesquite and plum trees abound on the Escarpment and cottonwood trees line small streams nearby. Pheasant, quail, dove, turkey and mule deer are also common in the area.

Arrow Hits Car

W.E. and Shirley Hawkins were surprised recently when an arrow crashed through their windshield as they drove down the highway.

W.E. was inspecting crop losses around the Raymondville area of south Texas and Shirley had accompanied him. The two were driving down a road near Rio Hondo when the arrow literally fell from the sky and through the windshield on Shirley's side of the car.

The steel arrow penetrated the glass just below the top rim of the windshield. Shattered glass came through to the inside of the car where Shirley was sitting but she and W.E. were not injured.

Shirley claims to know how the settlers in covered wagons must have felt!

A unique feature of the trail near the Escarpment is a 1,000-foot abandoned railroad tunnel, which is on the National Register of Historic Places as one of only a few such tunnels in Texas.

The trail also moves through the Valley of the Tears, where Comanche Indians once traded white hostages, and it crosses the Mighty F Ranch, one of the first great ranches on the Texas plains.

The rail-trail project was made possible under the 1983 federal railbanking law, which provides for the sale of abandoned rail corridors for public trails, with the understanding that the corridors may be repurchased for rail use later if need be.

The Rails-To-Trails Conservancy reports that as of May 1992, the program had produced 415 rail-trails in 42 states, a total of 45 square miles of trail nationwide.

TPWD planners will now begin work to develop the trail for public use. A date for opening the trail has not yet been set.

Volunteers from trail groups or other interested in helping develop the trail should contact Rusty Sargent at 806-455-1492. For more information on the trail or the park, write Caprock Canyons State Park, P.O. Box 204, Quitaque, Texas 79255.

Peanut Growers Comments Needed By July 20, 1992

by Earlyne Hutsell, Briscoe County Executive Director.

Peanut producers should be aware of Interim Rules being put into place, as published in the Federal Register dated June 18, 1992, and of their right to comment on these rules. The following general comments are to help point out the amended regulations:

Actual Undermarketing--The definition of actual undermarketing is essentially the same as the one that has been in effect for several years.

Quota Reduction for Non-production--This was amended to remove the reference to the 1991-crop. This supports the poundage method of reduction for 1992 and will be the same through the 1995-crop year unless comments support going back to the factor method for Texas. The method of quota reductions for nonproduction by the poundage method or factor method is subject to change based on comments received during the comment period ending July 20, 1992.

Transfer of Quota by Sale, Lease, Owner or Operator--The change provides that the amount of temporary transfer is based on effective quota on the farm instead of the basic quotas it has been for several years. It further provides that to qualify for fall transfer, the County Committee must determine that producers on the farm made a good faith effort to produce a normal crop of peanuts on the acreage devoted to peanuts.

'Country Six' Band of Month

The COUNTRY SIX BAND from Olton was selected by the audience as the "Band of the Month" for the Caprock Jamboree. They received the $50.00 prize which was donated by Tulia Wheat Growers.

A large, enthusiastic crowd was in attendance for the 4th of July show. Visitors from Indiana, California, Missouri, and Oklahoma, along with our loyal supporters from around the area, helped make the show the "success" it was. As usual, the music was outstanding!

The August 1st show has already been scheduled and the show promises to be another one you won't want to miss. So make your plans to invite your friends and relatives to be sure to be here for THE CAPROCK JAMBOREE.

Disaster Transfers of Segregation 2 or Segregation 3

Seen and Heard in Turkey
 by Ann Coker

Enjoyed hearing Jay Eudy on the radio the other day. Jay is a former Ag teacher at Turkey and Valley. He is at present the state director of the Texas FFA organization. Barbara (Blume) and Jay reside in Austin.

KGNC interviewed Jay on the KGNC Forum program last Monday from 2 to 3 p.m. Jay and other state members of the FFA were in Amarillo for the State Convention. Mr. Eudy was quite excited about the convention and the future of the FFA Program in Texas. There were several call-ins to ask Jay about the FFA.

Received word last week that Dorothy Maxwell Nickle's husband, Walt Nickle, passed away while they were in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Nickles travel to the Mayo Clinic every year for Walt's check-up. While there Walt had some minor surgery and died as a result of a blood clot.

Memorial services for Walt Nickle were held in his hometown of Bella Vista, Ark. last Saturday, July 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fuston and Mr. and Mrs. Redell Irby left a week ago Sunday for Gunnison Colorado for a few weeks of fishing and relaxing.

Upon arriving at their destination Redell was feeling under the weather. He paid a visit to a local doctor's office and was informed he had pneumonia.

The doctor hospitalized him and started treatment. By last Friday, he was well enough to be released from the hospital.

Ida Farley talked to Dollie Mae Irby last Sunday night and she reported that Redell was back to riding his bike and looking forward to "catching the big one." They will be gone from 4 to 6 weeks.

Mrs. Solon Owens has some welcome guests in her home. Juanita's daughter, August and her husband, Ed Smith, from Houston are here for an extended visit with August's mother.

Understand Otho Stubbs has recently completed writing a book. The book is about his paintings and the story behind them and why he did each painting.

There will be an autograph party in the near future when his book becomes available to the public.

We are all looking forward to having the opportunity to see and read this book.

Received some bad news the other day. Agatha Eudy (Mrs. Jim Matthew Eudy) wanted to place an ad in the Valley Tribune to sell her household furniture.

Mrs. Eudy has decided to move to Chico, Texas, near Decatur, to live with her sister, Retta Wright, who is a widow.

Agatha told us she had lived in the Turkey area for 63 years. She has lived in town for better than 30 years.

We hate to lose this friendly and congenial citizen, but we do wish her the best at her new home.

It's good to see Bonnie Hill out and about again. Bonnie is doing her own physical therapy at home. She was back in the bank last Monday helping do statements.

U. F. Coker had cataract surgery in Amarillo last Thursday morning. The Cokers spent the night in an Amarillo motel and Coker returned to the doctor early Friday morning. After his doctor removed the protective shield, the Cokers returned home. U. F. drove home because he could see better than he could in months!

Frank Lane returned to his home last Saturday after having a double by-pass surgery on Tuesday at High Plains Baptist Hospital. He walked to the Turkey Drive-In last Monday for coffee and visiting with friends.

After receiving 10 treatments, Sybil Young returned to her home. Her husband, Byron, reported Monday morning she was still quite nauseous but, hopefully, getting better.

We heard an old but familiar sound Monday night. It sounded like a train. Finally we drove down to the railroad tracts and it was a train engine pulling some unusual cars behind.

Morrison Hospitalized

Bobo Morris on has been in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock after having heart surgery. He is reported to be improving.
