Valley Takes 34-15 Win Over Knox City There Friday Night

by Coach Ted Giddens

Valley fell behind Knox City 15-0 in the first quarter of play last Friday night, then exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, and 14 more in the third quarter to win the district contest 34-15.

After allowing 15 first-quarter points, Valley's defense tightened up, shutting out last year's Class A State Champs in the final three quarters. The defense recovered four fumbles and intercepted Knox City twice.

While the defense began to play, the offense was not idle.

Trailing 15-0 in the second quarter, Valley responded with three quick scores. The first was on a 24-yard pass from tailback Tim Clardy to wide receiver Matt Barrett. The two-point conversion play started like the touchdown play, with Kirk Saul pitching to Clardy on what looked like a sweep, then Clardy pulled up to pass, and the Knox City secondary scrambled to find Barrett, but Clardy fooled them and threw back to Kirk Saul who was uncovered and raced in for the points.

The second touchdown in the second period came with less than three minutes to play in the half. Kirk Saul hit Matt Barrett on a timing pass, which resulted in a masterpiece of open field running and a 41-yard touchdown. The point-after failed.

The third touchdown came on a 19-yard touchdown run by Will Williams with less than two minutes remaining in the half. Williams went on to have a great offensive effort of 13 carries for 144 yards. The half ended with Valley leading 21-15, thanks to Silva's extra point kick.

Valley's defense again proved to be stubborn in the second half, and the offense scored two more times on a 41-yard run by Williams and on an 8-yard run by Tim Clardy. Rosendo Silva added another extra point kick, which closed the game at Valley 34, Knox City 15.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Will Williams, Matt Barrett, Rosendo Silva, Thomas Rodriguez and Shon Phelps.

Valley plays Spur here Friday night with game time at 7:30.

Contestants from the Matador area were [Four Roses] Frank McCollum, [Sweet Comfort] Don Warren, [Adolph] Alvin Martin and [Budweiser] B. J. Dempsey.

Mrs. Tyler Featured On Television At Cancer Seminar

Mrs. Grady (Delene) Tyler was invited to an interview on the Annual Harrington Cancer Center program in Amarillo Friday, October 19. Mrs. Tyler was interviewed in question and answer briefing. The meeting was held in a regular worship service at the center and Dr. Robert Pierce, minister of Pastoral Care at the Baptist Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana, delivered the message. The music was furnished by the First Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Dr. Robert Gibbs, minister of Pastoral Care at the Harrington Center, was responsible for all the planning for the seminar. He served as master of ceremonies. Theme of the meeting was "We Are Winning" the fight against cancer. All those attending were patients who are no longer under treatment for cancer.

The eldest patient present was recognized as being in her 70's, and the youngest was seven years old. The patient who had been off medication the longest was recognized, and all these were presented corsages. The one who had traveled the farthest to attend, 140 miles, was recognized.

Following the worship service, Mrs. Tyler was interviewed. Pictures were taken of her and of her with her husband. The questions were asked by Mrs. Robbie Smith Lange before a large crowd, and television channels four and ten presented Mrs. Tyler being interviewed on the 6:00 and 10:00 o'clock news.

Mrs. Tyler reports this was to get before the public that the fight is being won against cancer by many patients now.

Farm Credit Initiatives Set To Go Into Operation

Final regulations for the operation of President Reagan's farm credit initiatives have been completed and published and will be distributed to Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) field offices during the next few days, Charles W. Shuman said recently.

Regulations governing the one-time debt set-aside program for FmHA borrowers and loan guarantees for non-FmHA borrowers were published in the Federal Register on Friday, October 19. Those rule instructions covering contracts for special farm management and financing counseling at the county level will be in the hands of FmHA loan specialists this week, Shuman said.

"With field office training underway this week, we will have everything in place for the successful launching of this program," Shuman said.

Under the plan announced recently by the President for farmers experiencing serious financial difficulty, FmHA can set aside up to 25 percent, to a maximum of $200,000, of an FmHA's debt for five years without interest.

For non-FmHA borrowers, the agency can guarantee up to 90 percent of a loan if the lender is willing to write off a minimum of 10 percent of the debt.

In both cases, the goal is to restore the farmer to a positive cash flow position.

The contract assistance offered at the county level will be available to both FmHA and non-FmHA borrowers in an effort to help find viable alternatives so they can continue their operations.

Turkey Senior Citizens Have Salad Supper

The Turkey Senior Citizens met Tuesday night, October 16, for their regular salad supper and game night. Rev. Roy Patterson gave thanks for the meal. President Buster Hanna conducted the meeting.

An offering was taken to defray regular expenses. It was announced that the next meeting would begin at 6:00 because the time will change back to standard time before then.

Table games were enjoyed by the 30 persons present. Others, who have not been attending, are invited to come to these meetings.

Sesquicentennial Planning Meeting

There will be a general meeting for all persons interested in the Sesquicentennial Planning at Turkey. The meeting will be in the Bob Wills Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, October 25, it was announced this week.

Everyone is invited.

The Flomot Cash Grocery was discovered to be burglarized at 7:00 a.m. Wednesday, October 3, when opening the store for business. Mrs. Kendall reported that the meat supply, coffee, cigarettes and snuff, as well as other merchandise, was stolen. Entrance was gained by breaking a glass pane in the door.

The Flomot, Matador and Quitaque Volunteer Fire Departments responded to a fire at the store about 3:00 a.m. Thursday, October 4. Before the fire was brought under control, the business was completely destroyed.

The strong south wind was endangering adjacent homes and buildings so the back wall of the store was torn down so the firemen could extinguish flames in the attic of the structure.

Elizabeth and Jeanie Phillips of Los Angeles, California have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Blakney. Also visiting a couple of days were Mr. and Mrs. Noble Allphin of Bryan, Texas. On Sunday the Blakneys took the Phillips to Amarillo to emplane for home.

The Superintendent's Corner

by Wilburn Leeper

Monday, October 15, the school received a rather ominous letter from the Texas Education Agency stating, "On Thursday following the date of this letter, you will receive a phone call from the Division of Accreditation notifying you of a scheduled visit to your district." This sounds ominous to the school because, even though it is not intended as a threat, we look upon the scheduled visit as an impending menace that we would prefer to do without. To the school it is similarly comparable to a taxpayer receiving notice of an IRS audit, the bank a major audit, or a soldier a general inspection. We all know it is coming sooner or later but when the time finally arrives, a great deal of anxiety accompanies its arrival. There is always the fear of the unknown even though preparation has been made. Yes, this means that our school will receive a thorough examination by the state agency.

The Texas Education Agency has plans to conduct accreditation monitoring visits to each school district in the state at least once every three years. It has been five years since Valley has been monitored but recent legislation calls for more frequent visits.

Even though school personnel face the visit with dread and anxiety, the real attempt by the state is to make the examination constructive and helpful. A major purpose of the visit is to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the total instructional system of the school. The three-member monitoring team will visit in classrooms with teachers and students to determine if a proper instructional plan is being carried out. They will offer suggestions for strengthening the curriculum, programs and services to assist the school in meeting accreditation standards.

Public schools in Texas cannot function or receive state funds for operation if they do not carry the accredited status.

The accreditation team will examine many aspects of the school other than academics. Board policies will come under close scrutiny as will the minutes of board meetings covering the past two years. Personnel files will be examined to insure that teachers are teaching in subject areas for which they are certified. Building maintenance will be looked at to see if proper safety conditions exist. Additionally, attention will be paid to in-service plans, teacher schedules, test data, civil rights needs, and any other areas of school which pertain to the total school operation.

We would prefer not to undergo an accreditation examination but the trial will strengthen each member of the staff and make Valley a better school.

The Valley fifth graders are studying about the Indians of North America and have displayed an exhibit outside the classroom door depicting the life-style of Indians. The display is very colorful and informative and should be viewed by everyone. Several students should be commended for their individual effort. One very interesting project, built by Chad Calvert, was an authentic-looking warrior's lance. Chad said he was going to sharpen the steel point when he took it home.

A large number of proposals have been submitted to the UIL Legislative Committee for consideration. One of the proposals, which would adversely affect Valley School, proposes to divide conference A basketball into two conferences. A change in classification would place all schools with below 90 enrollment into one conference and those schools from 90 to 134 into yet another conference. Currently all schools below 134 enrollment are placed in the same division. Should such a rule pass, the nearest schools which might fall into Valley's district would be Nazareth, McLean or Spur. Traditional nearby opponents such as Silvertown, Motley County or Lakeview would no longer be eligible to compete in our district because of size differences. Under such a rule, Valley's nearest competition may be no closer than 70 miles away and other games much farther. We hope this proposal is defeated by the Legislative Council.

Girls basketball practice is now underway and Coach Durham and his 13 girls are looking forward to the season. Things will become serious November 6 and 13 when we will be matched in scrimmages with New Deal and Roosevelt respectively. Although this promising team of girls is talented, its trademark will be hard work and dedication. The first scheduled game is November 20 at Clarendon.

Chuck Wagon Finds New Life After Owner's Death

Dick Shepherd died in April at the age of 80, but his sturdy old chuck wagon has found new life.

It's now being used by Kenneth Cunningham and his wife, Sue, as a traveling exhibit. Mrs. Cunningham is Shepherd's daughter.

The Channing couple is hoping to revive the rustic Matador Ranch "cowboy kitchen" for use during special occasions.

Shepherd was a Matador cowboy who later became chuck wagon master for ranches throughout the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico. Mr. Shepherd, who lived in the Turkey area until about 1940, was a brother of Annie Parker of Turkey.

The Cunninghams are using the same pots and pans Shepherd used as he traveled from ranch to ranch, whipping up not only barbecue beef, macaroni, potatoes, brown beans and coffee for cowhands on such ranches as Fulton's Quien Sabe, L.S. Master-son, Bell, Culbertson, Shoe Nail, Conchas, Spade and Chaparral. Mr. Shepherd is remembered by old-timers of this area as one of the real old-time cowboys.

Trail hands knew they could judge a man by the horse he rode and a cattle outfit by the grub it served, according to the Shepherd legend. The boss might make the key decisions on a roundup, but the rule of the cowboy cook was never questioned.

And when his meals didn't turn out right, the smart cowboy never said anything about it because a cook with talent was hard to find.

Complaints also might cause the cowhand to wake up on chilly mornings to watered-down coffee, too weak to drink. Gravel could wind up in the beans. The sourdough biscuits might become scorched or yellowed from too much soda. The pie could be forgotten or salt might be missing from fried steaks.

Worst of all, the complaining cowpoke might have to take over the grub chores himself for a week or so.

The cook pitched camp with as much protection from the wind as possible, Shepherd often said. He made sure dry wood or cow chips were wrapped tightly inside a cowhide swing beneath the chuck wagon.

The opposite sides of a dice cube always add up to seven.

"We Care" Mission Held In Quitaque

First United Methodist Church in Quitaque held a Minister's "We Care" Mission last week on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Rev. Dennis Flaugh-er, pastor, explained the purpose of the mission "to encourage people of our congregation in spiritual growth and develop-ment by uplifting and affirming faith in Jesus Christ."

The spiritual renewal began with a pot luck supper on Tuesday night followed by small group discussions and worship. The small group discussions held each night were led by Rev. Richard Edwards of the Olton

United Methodist Church, Rev. Lanny Wheeler of the Silverton United Methodist Church, and Rev. W. L. Armstrong of the Turkey United Methodist Church.

The small group discussions gave individuals the opportunity to discuss their faith, build on the discipleship of their faith, and discover new opportunities to deepen their faith in God. In the worship services which followed, each visiting minister shared his spiritual experiences and ways in which God moved through his life to deepen his faith.

The Quitaque Methodist Church expresses its heartfelt thanks to all of the pastors who shared with us in the "We Care" Mission and to the many members and friends who attended. The "We Care" Mission affirmed to us all that God cares and we care, too!

COOPERATION KEEPS AMERICA STRONG AND FREE

"The Capitol is the cornerstone of our government. It has been my pleasure to serve with three presidents there during the time I have been your congressman. Two were Republicans, one a Democrat. I have helped each of them when I could, consistent with my own responsibility to represent the people of this district, not hesitating to be a part of the loyal opposition when I thought they were wrong. Regardless of who is president in the future, I will continue to serve with, and help him, whatever his name or his party, in order that America may remain strong and free."

Carl Grays Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gray celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday at their home in Turkey with a family dinner. Their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thrasher of Lubbock, six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren helped them celebrate the occasion. Mrs. Therna Farley came over in the afternoon for cake and coffee.

Wednesday, the 24th, is the actual date, but the family could not get together then.

Carl Gray and Verna Shannon were married in a buggy by Jess Parker, a Baptist preacher, in Turkey on October 24, 1924. Mrs. Gray said they were supposed to meet the preacher at 2:00, but were a little late getting started. He decided they were not coming and started home, she said, so they were married on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Corky Morris of Dimmitt spent from Saturday noon until Sunday morning visiting his mother, Mrs. Buddy Morris, in Quitaque. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fulkerson of Odessa spent Saturday afternoon and night with her sister, Mrs. Morris.

"Lloyd Doggett is the best thing to hit rural Texas since twist-off caps."

Jim Hightower

LLOYD DOGGETT knows that when our agricultural producers are paid a fair price for their products, it brings prosperity not only to our small town merchants but to our entire state and the U.S. economy in general. And he says, "The mismanagement of the farm program is a national scandal. We don't ask any other segment of our economy to sell their products for less than what it costs to produce them, but current farm policies have done that for three years running and still cost U.S. taxpayers six times more last year than the average farm program costs throughout the entire decade of the '70s. When our farmers are paid a fair price, the rural economy will boom and it will cost taxpayers much less."

Lloyd will fight for a 1985 Farm Bill that will get a handle on overproduction and assure our family farmers of at least recovering their production costs and give them a chance to make a fair profit.

He supports reasonable debt restructuring and a moratorium on farm foreclosures by FmHA until fair price and production policies can be put into place.

In the Texas Legislature, he fought to grant property tax relief to family farmers and ranchers and to deny the relief to giant corporations and land speculators. In the U.S. Senate, he will continue fighting to eliminate tax breaks that give agribusiness conglomerates, "pinstripe farmers" and land speculators a competitive advantage over our farmers and ranchers who aren't in a position to "farm the tax code."

Lloyd authored the Resolution of the Texas Senate to veto a nuclear waste dump in the farmland of the Panhandle.

Lloyd Doggett is the only candidate in this race who has ever had a vote against gun control and he will continue in the U.S. Senate to oppose gun control.

PHIL GRAMM and two big-city Republicans were the only Texas Congressmen this year to support the Dannemeyer amendment designed to gut agriculture. In voting for the Dannemeyer amendment, Gramm in one stroke voted to:

- Slash agricultural price supports and eliminate deficiency payments.
- Reduce federal price support payments and loans to farmers by $16 billion (60%) over three years.
- Phase out farm ownership and operating loans by the Farmers Home Administration and replace them with loan guarantees.
- Eliminate the wool and mohair payment program.

Gramm and a Dallas Republican were the only two members of the Texas delegation to oppose, on March 15 of this year, the Small Business Authorization bill which gave the S.B.A. the authority to make disaster loans to Texas farmers and ranchers being wiped out by the disastrous, ongoing drought.

On Sept. 9, 1982, when he was still calling himself a "Democrat," Gramm voted against allowing farmers to defer their FmHA loan payment if they could prove they were in trouble due to circumstances beyond their control. Gramm was one of only 39 who opposed the bill; 372 voted for it!

On June 6 of this year, Gramm voted for an amendment to slash the Agricultural Research Service, the Extension Service and a variety of other vital federal/state research programs.

Gramm, who has received more money from the nuclear power industry than any other Congressman, even voted to weaken Texas' right to veto a nuclear waste dump in the farmland of the Panhandle.

COMES TO TEXAS

Halloween is not complete without a scary face carved on a pumpkin. In fact, eighty percent of the fresh market pumpkins harvested in the United States are sold at Halloween for use as jack-o-lanterns.

Although Texas is not noted for pumpkin production, the state holds its own among producing states. Harvest of pumpkins begins in the High Plains in late September and runs into October. The majority of pumpkins are grown in Bailey, Floyd, Deaf Smith, Parmer and Lamb counties. Most of the pumpkins produced in West Texas are sold to produce and canning companies, the rest are sold in supermarkets and roadside stands. Prices paid to farmers for pumpkins vary, depending on the supply; however, pumpkins usually average around five cents a pound plus freight.

Pumpkins vary in size from four to 100 pounds. Good quality pumpkins will keep at least a month and if stored out of the sunlight they may be stored two to three months without spoiling.

Technically, pumpkins are members of the squash family. The East Indians and East Africans eat pumpkin as a vegetable. Americans still prefer their pumpkins as pie. Pumpkins have long been a tradition in America. One of the few sweets in the Colonist diet was pumpkin, which was harvested by Pilgrims in New England, then baked and filled with maple syrup. As food staples became more available and the quality of life improved, these baked pumpkins evolved into pumpkin pie.

Smaller pumpkins have a sweeter flavor and a finer texture than larger ones, although any size is edible. When selecting pumpkins, select well matured pumpkins which are not broken or cracked and are free from soft rot and excessive scarring. They should also have a rich orange color. In addition to their use for jack-o-lanterns, pumpkins provide the basis for spicy pumpkin pies, pumpkin bread or muffins, various puddings and custards and small pumpkins may be used for stuffing with meats and vegetables or meats and seafood for an interesting change.

Although most of us cook with canned pumpkin in order to save time and labor, you may want to take the extra effort to prepare the fresh product. If pumpkins are to be carved, their meat can be removed and set aside for cooking. Place the meat in a large saucepan and cook it in a small amount of water for 25-30 minutes or until it is very tender. Drain the pumpkin, and mash it well or puree it in an electric blender. Pumpkins bought strictly for food can be baked in the oven. Wash the rind well and cut it in half. Place the cut sides down on a 15 x 10 x 1-inch jellyroll pan and bake for 45 minutes or until the meat is fork tender. Cool for 10 minutes, peel, discard the seeds or reserve the seeds for roasting, and puree the pulp. Three pounds of fresh pumpkin will yield about three cups of cooked, mashed pulp.

Pumpkins are an excellent source of Vitamin A and other vitamins and minerals and they are low in calories - one cup of canned pumpkin has 75 calories. If substituting canned pumpkin for fresh in a recipe, remember this formula - use one 16-ounce can for every two cups of fresh pumpkins.

Enjoy these recipes from the Texas Department of Agriculture and satisfy your taste for pumpkin throughout the fall and holiday season!

The editor stopped at Two J's to get a classified ad and Eudy asked if we would like see their "back shop."
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eudy "start from scratch" with all their fragile merchandise. He gets the clay and talc in large bags, mixes it in a commercial mixer, then it is poured into a vat. He has all kinds, shapes and sizes of molds into which he pours the mixture from a large hose. He lets this set in the mold until the mixture hardens enough to turn loose from the sides, then it is set aside until it hardens enough to be taken from the mold. The article is in its first stage of production.
After it hardens, it has to be trimmed with a knife, buffed until it is smooth, then it is put into a kiln to bake. Mr. Eudy has four kilns, a small one for jewelry, and three larger ones in graduated sizes. Some of the pottery has to be baked gradually until the temperature reaches 1840 degrees. It is started in one mold that has the lid opened a few inches to let out the moisture and the gasses the pottery produces. Sometimes it takes pottery nine hours to get "done."
The product is now called "greenware."
There is another process in glazing the product and painting designs and putting decals on before the product is glazed and finished. Mr. and Mrs. Eudy finish their merchandise much better than one finds in a regular store. Most lids and bottom of articles are not glazed. This not only detracts from the appearance, but the articles don't last as long.

Mrs. Armstrong Is Speaker For Retired Teachers

Faye Armstrong of Turkey was guest speaker for the Hall County Retired Teachers' Association held at the Memphis Public Library on Thursday, October 18, at 7:00 p.m. Mrs. Marjorie Bain, president, called the meeting to order and Marcela Patterson introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Armstrong told many things about the 12 years she and her husband, Rev. W. L. Armstrong, and their three children spent in Indonesia as missionaries. She said they spent 40 days on a freighter going over and on the way back for a furlough they came by way of the Holy Land and points in Europe. Her main topic was "Education in Third World Countries."

She said Indonesia was very primitive and for a long time they only taught the children to survive, teaching girls how to keep house, take care of children, sew and cook, and the boys were taught to farm. Many of the girls did not get to attend school at all and if they did only to the sixth grade. Some education was started by Methodist and later Lutheran missionaries in 1905.

In 1964 when the Armstrongs went over, there was Communism everywhere and there were signs saying, "U.S.A. Get Out." They taught hate. The country was ruled by eight generals, which the Communists tried to get rid of and in 1965 did kill all but one. They threw their bodies into a well after mutilating them and when the people found them, they were so mad they hunted down all the Communists and killed them. Things changed then and the country went from 95% illiterate to 90% literate in 20 years.

Refreshments of sandwiches, olives, cake and candy were served with coffee.

The group adjourned to meet again the third Thursday night in March.

Armstrongs Attend Mission Conference

ARMSTRONGS AT MISSION CONFERENCE

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Armstrong were at San Jacinto United Methodist Church in Amarillo over the weekend where they spoke several times at a Mission Conference.

Mrs. Gene Fuston, certified lay speaker, brought the morning message at First United Methodist Church in Turkey, and Mike Hinkson, charge lay leader, was worship leader for the Laity service.

Nylon was first introduced to the public in 1938. Research chemists of the DuPont Laboratories made this material by combining water, air and a by-product of coal.

Turkey UMW Meets For Session Of Bible Study

The Turkey United Methodist Women met in the church chapel Monday, October 15, for the fourth session of the Bible Study on Ephesians, taught by Mrs. Fredia Fuston.

The leader used the fourth chapter of Ephesians and said, "As Christians, we are all 'called,' set apart, and prepared for our calling, one body, one spirit. Each person present listed some gifts, or talents, that they have and these were discussed. Fredia gave the closing prayer.

During the business session the trip to Quitaque for the UMW luncheon at First United Methodist Church was discussed, along with the coming Bazaar and bake sale.

The next meeting will be held on October 29 with Mrs. Roy Patterson bringing the closing session of the Bible Study.

Appraisal District Reviews Tax Collections

The board of directors of the Briscoe County Appraisal District met October 11, with L. B. Garvin, jr., Joe Mercer, Ray Teeple and Robert McPherson present, and Paul A. Ramsey absent. Also attending was Chief Appraiser Carlye Hill.

After the meeting was called to order by Chairman Garvin, the 1984 tax collections through September were reviewed. The percentages collected are Briscoe County, 96.8%; Silvertown ISD, 96.3%; City of Silvertown, 97.5%; and Mackenzie Water Authority, 97.3%.

Mrs. Hill reported that the firm of Perdue, Brandon, Blair & Fielder, attorneys at law, has taken judgments on five delinquent tax accounts. They also filed four new tax suits in district court and thirteen in justice court.

The 1984 valuation and tax levies for all jurisdictions were examined. They are as follows:

Total Gross Appraised Value (before exemptions and productivity valuation reductions) Briscoe County, $126,511,183; Silvertown ISD, $91,373,460; City of Silvertown, $16,480,599; City of Quitaque, $9,532,686; Mackenzie Water Authority, $16,480,599.

Total Net Appraised Value (after exemptions and productivity valuation reductions) Briscoe County, $90,707,197; Silvertown ISD, $61,655,593; City of Silvertown, $16,461,207; City of Quitaque, $9,510,446; Mackenzie Water Authority, $16,461,207.

1984 Tax Rate Briscoe County, .360; Silvertown ISD, .740; City of Silvertown, .203; City of Quitaque, .174; Mackenzie Water Authority, .250.

1984 Tax Levy Briscoe County, $326,439.57; Silvertown ISD, $449,463.03; City of Silvertown, $33,395.35; City of Quitaque, $15,683.07; Mackenzie Water Authority, $41,128.63.

The current month's bills were examined by members and those present voted to pay those presented.
