

THE EVENING NEWS.

20 QUARTER
NO. 27

Amarillo, Texas, Thursday, October 12, 1899.

10c PER WEEK

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

It is authentically reported that Rev. J. R. Henson was arrested yesterday, at Clarendon, on a charge of criminal libel, probably resulting from the publication against Father Lenert, of the Catholic church.

Conductor Richards, P. V. is over here today.

The Sanatorium question will be discussed in Saturday's daily.

The very latest in jackets and capes, at Smith, Walker & Co.,

Sheriff Neely, of Channing, and Mr. Doak, of Armstrong are here.

Fairly good business reported yesterday. Mostly cowboy trade.

"The Town of Babyville," poetry, today, will soothe your ruffled temper.

D. T. Beal and Jo Sherman, leading cattlemen of Lubbock are in town to-day.

Our plush capes are beauties, call and see them. Smith, Walker & Co.,

Mr. Norsworthy, L. C. Connally's father-in-law, will be on a visit next week from Paris.

Charley Evler and wife are in the city, closing up the sale of their residence to H. Joe Isaacs. Price $900.

Black, blue and the latest shades, in ladies jackets. Smith, Walker & Co.,

Tomorrow's WEEKLY NEWS will be an interesting number, made up mostly of the cream of dailies. Send in your ads and order extra copies by 10 o'clock.

You can hear a pin fall, or find it either, in the orderly dry good side of Smith, Walker & Co. establishment, presided over by the trained and courteous Marcus Jacobsgaard.

Smith, Walker & Co., has the most desirable line of dress goods novelties and notions in the panhandle.

Geo. W. Denton returned last night from a two-week's federal jury service at Fort Worth. He is considerably skened up, with sufficient cash to jingle.

At Popham, a regular cattle dealer, of Amarillo doesn't think that scarcity of cattle is cutting such a big figure in the present high prices of beef as some of the papers assert.

Dr. Cunningham:

"Considerable inquiry for ranch property, but few sales being made near Amarillo on account of high prices being asked for ranches."

Will A. Miller, Jr. arrived in Amarillo this morning with a car load office fixtures. He will open an office over the First National Bank under the name of Will A. Miller Land Title Office.

Congressman John H. Stephens, up a few days to see his father and other kin, has returned to Vernon. He did not seek to address the sovereigns, but will mix with them freely when the campaign opens.

THE TOWN OF BABYVILLE.

Its the dearest town, the fairest town, the prettiest town to me,

Of all the towns in all the lands, this side or 'cross the sea;

It's sunshine there, and moonshine, and starlight all the time,

And it never gets cold and none get old, in it's lovely summer clime;

There's never a ghost or goblin there, and sin was never known,

And no one ever had a pain, or heard a neighbor groan.

And the birds sing always, night and day, in fact they're never still.

In this airy, fairy, darling place, the Town of Babyville.

The stores are full of sweetmeats, and they're sold just for a song,

The hobby-horses in the streets are free the whole day long;

The band plays every afternoon; there's fireworks every night,

And all the babies hobble out to see the glorious sight,

You kiss them as you meet them, and they kiss you when you go,

And clap their hands, and laugh with glee, to see you at their show?

The doctor died last summer, and is resting o'er the hill,

For none get sick' they hav'ent time, in the Town of Babyville.

The houses are of gingerbread, the fences are of cake

The river's full of lemonade, and a big panada lake;

You eat whenever you're hungry, and you drink whenever you're dry,

And pay your board in kisses—surely that isn't high

But if you want to live there, you have to pay a toll;

Some pay it very readily, some can't, to save their soul

Its not in gold or silver, nor yet a paper bill.

It's just to bring a baby to the Town of Babyville.

Our women readers would like the single tax if they only knew that their loved Ella Wheeler Wilcox was one—body and soul. Well, dear ladies, she is just all of that. Moreover she is the Single Taxer's poet-laureate. Now come in, you mothers, and help the "EVENING NEWS" to get free homes for your now disinherited offspring. Why not?

If you will put into the hands of your reporter the "cash" that you are willing to pay to "set 'em up", he will set you up the paper—otherwise he cannot. See? The boys around the corner want setting up and nothing short of money will do that. See?

"With truth for our motto
With Love for a song,
And Justice our watch word,
We'll conquer the wrong."

The world for our country,
Mankind for our kin,
And God for our leader,
We cannot but win."

Say! the reporter thanks you kindly for your invitation to "set 'em up" but then he wants the cash you pay or the "set up", instead of the "set up", itself. Newspapers can be run only on the right kind of "set ups." See? Don't forget that boys. He is willing to help you, but he ought to be helped, materially. See?

J. L. CALDWELL, Editor.

THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1899

Washington, D. C. Oct. 10.—Cloudy and colder tomorrow

Temperature at Amarillo 7 o'clock this morning, 52.

J. L. Peary, an everybody's-man is overrun with call, in his law and land agency business, and is now putting in every hour to catch up.

The latest in Hand-me-down suits, at Smith, Walker & Co.

A quartette of drummers, of Jewish extraction, and McHanna doodledoo, surrounded the reporter yesterday at McGee's Livery Stable. The boys were bright and sharp enough to do their say and not hated. A few questions of how McKinleyism has brought prosperity, induced one of the co. to invite the reporter to a dollar and a half dinner. Well he gets enough of those kinds of kindnesses—but he wants some cash to pay his boys around the corner. See?

"The purport of the hour is vast
The world wants justice. It demands
United hearts, united hands—
The day of charity is past."

The report going the rounds that in the sentence of the death of Morrison, the wife murderer, in the year 1899, was omitted, is denied by the Vernon Globe, and is all right. So Morrison will not escape the gallows on the 27th inst on that account

A petition however, is being circulated by his sister to have the penalty committed to life imprisonment.

Bro. P. N. Adkinson our local methodist preacher is a humpster in whatever he undertakes. He is one of the best farmers in Potter county. He is now delivering his forage into town; bending to his work—ten hours in the day; but all the same he knows under the single-tax method he would make more in four hours than he now does in the ten.

Reader if you are not in favor of every man, woman and child in this world having a free earth to work upon, you ought to borrow paste board enough to make ears for a jackass.

Novelties in up-to-date men's suits just received, Smith, Walker & Co.

Arthur Jones is no better.

Geo. Stapleton manages the Laundry while Mr. Jones is sick.

The McGee rock building is getting in some prettier chiseled pieces than has the bank building, still the latter building develops increasing beauty every day

A poor deluded drummer was met in Amarillo who thought the special privileges given to the few under the McKinley administration, enrich the many, of which he was one. He should go to the lunatic asylum to find reasoners, of his cut.

Charley Eyer brags of Clarendon sidewalks, but he overlooked the virtue of those of Amarillo, where a man has to keep sober to walk them.

The city bonds were turned over to Can. Swain, of Austin, recently visiting here, temporarily to see to what advantage he could place them.

Ira Webster, Dist. Att'y is back from Hereford court.

The case of the state against Frank James, cattle thief, set on change of venue to Randall, and set for the 18th inst; the one against W. P. Wright, for same offence, bonds forfeited.

Mcgee's Night Hack.

TOM JENKINS, Driver.

Regular in the service, and citizens and strangers may hold him responsible for delinquency. Trains met and baggage looked after. Leave orders at his livery stable or with driver, and sleep soundly with assurance of best attention. N. S. McGEE.

Notice.

Oct. 9th 1899.

DIRECT LEGISLATION MOVE.

ACTION TAKEN FOR PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION.

This organization shall consist:

"1. Of neighborhood direct legislative clubs to be organized in every public district school house and in every town and city, where even two or three can be gathered together.

"2. Of one central county club to be composed of one member from each of the neighborhood clubs, which central club shall be in the nature of a county executive committee and all actions of this central club shall be subject to the approval or disapproval of the local clubs.

"3. From time to time there shall be mass meetings, to which all voters shall be invited to participate who favor, that the people be given a chance to ultimate their will into law by giving the people some simple and easily accessible way of expressing their will at the ballot box, such as will be insured by direct legislation.

"4. That the only test for membership that shall ever be required in these clubs is that those seeking membership believe that the people should in some greater degree than at present be intrusted into the direct use of their 'all political power,' and that as members they will investigate and reason together about some orderly and constitutional way of wresting power from a few middlemen, kings and czar and jeffries, and restoring this power to the people to whom all the magna chartas of liberty declare it belongs.

"And that no circumstances shall there ever be required and brass collar test of membership and that the use of all party branding irons which would put party boss be utterly discontinued. And that all members be left in absolute freedom to act in all matters as their judgment and conscience shall dictate."

The object of these clubs shall be:

1. To educate ourselves and our neighbors as to the beneficence of a government of, by and for the people, and the best ways and means of attaining and preserving such government, and to this end there shall be regular club meetings at least once each month in every public school house where two or more can be gathered together.

2. These clubs shall circulate direct legislation literature, endeavor to get a column in their local press for advocacy of direct legislation and at proper time shall circulate in their neighborhoods petitions to the legislative body for the submission of direct legislation constitutional amendments to a direct vote of the people, and where these amendments are submitted to see that a full and intelligent vote is polled in favor of same.

4. And in order to break down as far as possible a government of party, by partisans of party pie-eaters and encourage a government of patriots for the people, we suggest that these clubs take into consideration the wisdom of applying the principles of proportional representation in the selection of all public officers.

In the meeting were found democrats, republicans and populist. One speaker thought that this move would be favored by at least 3200 out of the 5200 voters in Erath county.

Another speaker pointed out that there was a direct legislative plank in over sixty different state platforms, including twelve democratic state platforms, and that nearly all of the leading great dailies and magazines who belonged to the independent press, as are distinguished from the party organ press, favored direct legislation.

Amarillo,

THE COMING CITY.

This thriving little city of about 2,000 inhabitants is the county seat of Potter county, Texas and is to-day the railroad center of the Panhandle. The headquarters and entire general offices of the Pecos & Northern Texas railway, one of the most important lines of the Pecos System, are located there. It is the southwestern terminus of the Southern Kansas Railway, of Texas, a very important line of the great Santa Fe system. It is practically midway between Fort Worth and Denver on the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway, the popular and very important "Denver Road." Thus it can be seen that Amarillo has direct railroad outlets in every direction to all of the markets, and is destined to be to the commercial world of the Panhandle what it was to the cattle shipping industry; for before the conveniences that are now afforded by the Pecos system to the stockmen of the great southwest were provided, it was by far the greatest shipping point direct from the range, in the world. Every "cowman" knows where Amarillo is. It is well supplied with good hotels, schools, churches, livery stables, banks and business houses, but all of these are being constantly increased as the demands of progress call for them. As a quiet, healthful summer resort, it is yearly growing in favor.—From folder, issued by Don D. Donahue Gen. Freight and Passenger Agent of the Pecos Valley and Northern R'y.
