

GORMAN AGAIN SWEEPED BY BAD FIRE

LOSS OF $50,000 RESULT BLAZE TUESDAY NIGHT

Second Disastrous Fire to Visit Business Section Within Month—Seven Building Destroyed or Damaged—Origin of Blaze Is Unknown.

The business district of Gorman was visited by a disastrous fire, for the second time within the space of a month, when a fire which started at eight o'clock last night and raged until 9.30 o'clock, finished the work of the previous catastrophe and added a loss of upward of $50,000 to the $200,000 damage the town had so recently suffered.

So far as can be learned, no one was injured. The blaze was of uncertain and mysterious origin, and speculation is rife as to whether or not it was incendiary. Seven buildings were either destroyed or badly damaged. An incomplete list of property included in the devastation is as follows: HILL BLACKSMITH SHOP, PITMAN BLACKSMITH SHOP, VACANT BUILDING, BUTLER SIGN SHOP, DODGE MOTOR COMPANY, WILLARD SERVICE STATION, OFFICE OF THE GORMAN PROGRESS. The Hill smithy was totally destroyed; likewise the Pitman smithy.

The vacant building was formerly occupied by Rahn & Phagard, who conducted a feed store. It was completely destroyed, the loss being definitely fixed at $15,000. It was insured, however. The Butler sign shop was a complete loss. The roof of the Dodge Motor company was burned off and one of the side walls crashed in. The building is owned by Townsend and Dodson. More than a thousand dollars worth of tires were lost, in addition to the damage to the building and other stock by fire and water. The loss of the Willard service station amounted to about $500, chiefly due to moving stock from the building.

Y. M. B. L. TAKES UP QUESTION OF SIDEWALKS

OPPOSES COMMISSION ACTION ORDERING CONTINUATION SIDEWALKS TO NEW CURB LINE.

The weekly meeting of the Young Men's Business League, held last night, adopted a resolution vigorously opposing the action of the city commission in ordering that sidewalks on Avenue D be continued to the new curb line, and that the present walks be allowed to remain.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the City Commission on Monday evening, May 21, 1920, it was ordered that all sidewalks on Ave. D be continued to the new curb line, and that the present walks be allowed to remain, and

RESOLVED, that we approve of the stand taken by Commissioner Wiggan against this order.

A letter from a Catholic order in San Antonio was read, stating that they would be interested in taking charge of a hospital in Cisco, but for a shortage of personnel.

The League discussed the sanitary problems confronting the city commission, and pledged its efforts in assisting the city government in formulating public opinion to the end of a 100 per cent observance of sanitary regulations.

HELD ON CHARGE VIOLATING WRIT OF SEQUESTRATION

Charged with theft in having disobeyed a writ of sequestration, George Boek, local painter, is in custody here. According to the complaint, Boek had an empty trunk which he is alleged to have offered to give A. Lotief as remuneration for work.

DARING THEFTS OF CASING FROM CISCO COMPANY

Rivals Stories of Jesse James Bank Robberies of the Long Ago—Reward of $750 Is Offered for the Capture of Man Alleged to Be Responsible.

One of the most daring thefts of casing, rivaling in its romantic details the story of Jesse James bank robberies, except that it was more deliberate, is charged by the Sims Oil company of this city, against Tom Tate, whose whereabouts at this time is unknown.

A reward of $500 is on the head of Tate, who, it is alleged, rode up on horseback to the abandoned lease of the Sims Oil company on the Youcum lease, about eight miles northwest of Ranger, on the night of May 7th, and found there approximately $15,000 worth of casing which had been pulled from an abandoned hole, and which the Sims concern was about to have hauled to another lease.

Officials of the Sims company then swore out a warrant for Tate, charging him with the theft of material, and offered a reward of $500 for his capture, they say.

Part of the material, alleged to have been stolen, had already been loaded aboard cars of the Fort Worth, Wichita Falls Railway to be shipped to Tulsa, it is reported. The Sims officer advised the purchasing company that the material had been stolen from his concern, stopped the loading of the ten-inch casing and set a deputy sheriff guard on the cars containing the eight-inch casing.

CISCO CHAMBER COMMERCE HAD A BUSY SESSION

GOOD ROADS AND INTERURBAN PROPOSITION AMONG SUBJECTS DISCUSSED.

Eastland county roads, the interurban proposition, conditions around the union passenger station, ice and phone service, were among the subjects discussed by the Chamber of Commerce at its weekly meeting Tuesday night.

The telephone management contemplates in their new home in the Eddleman building in 60 to 90 days, they told the C. of C. and with new equipment and a flash-light system, they expect to give Cisco service equal to that in any city.

The interurban question came up and J. O. Sue was instructed to attend the meeting at Stephenville, Friday, June 4, when representatives from the various interested towns will confer, and perhaps form a plan of action.

Standards of wheat will be maintained. Conditions around the passenger depot, held as an eye-sore by Ciscoans and the traveling public, were considered.

THE TOWN KNOCKER.

The mission of a knocker is to wield his little hammer to the discredit of his home town, and that all with whom he comes in contact may become skeptical and discontent. Yes, this kind of a "bird" also infests Cisco. You may not suspect them, but one comes to the surface occasionally. It is only recently that a prominent citizen came here from Albany with the idea of making this his home, where he could school his children. Fate jostled him against one of these knockers, who, perhaps, could think of nothing else, and told the would-be citizen that Cisco schools were no good. This home hunter, not suspecting the motive of his newly-formed acquaintance, just went to another city in this area and built him a handsome home. This is cited just to remind Ciscoans that knockers are here.

Application and determination are the elements that make a man a success in the business world; education merely makes the attainments smoother and easier. In city building, it likewise requires pluck and lavish expenditure of both energy and money; natural advantages and location only make the builders' task the less difficult. It is well that Mayor Williamson is endeavoring to harness all forces in Cisco for a concerted and determined direction of energies in the utilization of opportunities. Such marshaling will build a city, or put over anything.

Friday is a day that may hold much for Cisco, if Cisco will go after it strong. It is the project in formation to build an interurban from Cleburne to Cisco—thereby connecting this oil belt with the interurban web and the principal cities of North and Central Texas. Representatives of interested cities along the route will meet in Stephenville, Friday, June 4, to plan on this proposition. This is the place for some of Cisco's team work.

There are many critics of the local newspaper who could spend more valuable moments by standing behind some corner and watch themselves go by. This kind of an x-ray might convince them that they had not missed their calling when they chose some other profession than journalism.

One tractor pulling two road drags is said to have solved the road problem to a great extent in some counties of the state. It would be an inexpensive proposition and would doubtless improve Eastland county roads—while waiting for the surfaced roads to be built.

The man with the "hammer" can't phase big business concerns; and factory builders have their eyes on Cisco's great water reservoir. Water, gas and coal is a combination that is winning for this city.

PROPOSE ERECTING $150,000 COLISEUM AT SAN ANGELO

Interest in Sheep and Goat Industry Prompts Movement for Permanent Building.

Special to The News.

SAN ANGELO, Texas, June 2.—Indications are that at least 1,500 registered sheep and goats, believed to be the largest number ever penned for exhibition in Texas, will be shown here June 22, 23 and 24 when the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas conducts its livestock show and auction sale in conjunction with its fifth annual convention.

Committees in charge reported recently to the executive committee in quarterly session here that already 65 registered sheep and goats have been entered, while more than 1,000 registered rams and buck goats have been listed for the auction sale.

Since the preliminary premium list was printed six weeks ago, special prizes amounting to more than $1,000 have been offered, breeders' associations taking the lead. That considerable importance is attached to the Texas show is evidenced by the fact that entries have been received from Idaho, Utah and California.

Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The condition of the cotton crop on May 25, 62.4 per cent normal, the department of agriculture announced today. The department made no forecast for this year's crop. The revised figures of the last crop are as follows: Planted last year, 35,132,000 acres; area picked, 33,558,000 acres; yield per acre, 181 pounds.

The condition of Texas cotton on May 25 was 69 per cent normal. The department's report said: "Cotton reported as poor to bad in all cotton states in almost every county cotton belt. The recurring statement, 'worst ever known,' confirmed by reported condition of the figures of 62.4 per cent normal, the next lowest at this date in the bureau's entire record of years being 69.5 per cent in 1917. Last year's report was 75.6 per cent."

BANK EXAMINER ON REGULAR VISIT TO THIS SECTION

Bank Examiner J. J. Jordan, for the Brownwood district, is in Cisco, making his regular calls on the banks. He will make headquarters here for a week, while he visits the banks in this vicinity.

Mr. Jordan says that the banks of this section are in very healthy condition. He cited an instance of where a bank in the crop area near San Angelo, with a capital of $10,000 and deposits amounting to more than $300,000, whereas, in the droughty period of two years ago, the deposits were only about $30,000. The great crops did it, he says.

Some banks, says Mr. Jordan, are like some housekeepers—always ready, primed for any company that may drop in. It is always a pleasure to visit such banks, he says; and he added that there are some good housekeepers in Cisco.

CISCO SCENES IN PAMPHLET FORM TO BE DISTRIBUTED

The Walton Studio here has taken some excellent pictures of the Cisco dam site and also some of the prominent business houses, residences and streets of the downtown section, which will be put into pamphlet form and sent out broadcast to advertise this city if plans carry.

Mayor Williamson is the sponsor of the move toward taking photographic inventory of the various parts of Cisco, and also the semi-panoramic views of the reservoir basin.

"There are fifteen photographs of the city and nine of the dam site. I expect to get these pictures together into a folder," says Mayor Williamson, "and from them formulate some sort of an inclusive prospectus of the city. I shall ask the help of the Chamber of Commerce and the Young Men's Business League in the work and am sure that it will be a great benefit to this community."

BE YOUR PASTOR'S UNDERTAKER, SAY MEMBERS B. Y. P. U.

The Baptist young people two weeks ago organized a B. Y. P. U., and as is characteristic of these people, they have determined to carry out to the letter the purpose of that organization which means, "Be Your Pastor's Undertaker."

Accordingly, on Tuesday afternoon at 6:30, there began to arrive on the Baptist church lawn B. Y. P. U.'s with hoes, rakes, lawn mowers, and such other tools as was necessary, and they undertook to beautify the lawn. All fell to work, and for two hours there was such a scene of activity as has not before been witnessed in Cisco during all the oil boom.

In order to fully appreciate the meaning of all this, one must view the church lot and see the wonderful change. While the gentlemen worked, the ladies prepared to serve sandwiches and cream. After partaking of the refreshments, all expressed themselves as feeling that they had spent the time profitably, as well as very pleasantly. Each went away resolving in his heart that this should be only a beginning and that activity should never lag until this lot should contain a magnificent church building that will be suitable for all church activities and an honor to Cisco, to the Baptist cause, and to God.

not be permitted to participate in the rehearing. The sub-committee headed by Charles B. Warren of Michigan advising the further hearing for the regular and Anderson factions reported that there appeared to be no legal republican organization in Florida, through failure of the regular—the group headed by George W. Bean of Tampa, and also failure of the Anderson faction to elect a state executive committee in 1918 under law. Mr. Warren reported that there was doubt whether the Anderson faction could be recognized as a de facto organization as the undisputed evidence showed that in the primary only nineteen state committee members had been elected from fifty-four counties. The Bean faction, Mr. Warren stated, could not be regarded as a de facto organization.

FINAL GAME WITH ABILENE WON BY CISCO; SCORE 6-4

BILLINGS PITCHED DEFENDABLE BALL WHILE TEAMMATES POUNDED OUT VICTORY.

Dependable Daddy Billings had the Eagles on his hip yesterday after he got warmed up and the Scouts come back at the Eagles strong by trimming the feteche 6 to 4.

The Cisco Scouts started off with a vengeance, and in the very first inning, Flagg walked, promptly stole second, and went to third when Milton Kotselnick's sky ball. Griesbeck rapped one to Allison, that the Eagle shortstop juggled long enough to let Flagg score, and allow Tim to reach first safely. Tim scampered down to second, and both he and Kotselnick scored on the next play, when King batted a liner off White's knee.

The Eagles tried hard in their half of the second to even up things, but the best they could do was to get across by King, although Kinnar, White, Segrist and Thornton singled in succession.

In the sixth, the Scouts added three more when Kotselnick doubled to left, and Flagg when Griesbeck drove out a long ball run to centerfield. The blow was on a line, and crossed up Thornton when he began running in for it. Instead of dropping, the pellet kept on sailing upward, and cleared Thornton's head by several feet. A few moments later Johnson tripped to right, and came in for the sixth run when York sent a blistering single through third.

The Eagles attempted a rally in the eighth, and on two walks and two hits sent two runs across the rubber. They went out in the ninth on two weak pop flies to the catcher, and a feeble grounder to Billings.

The box score:

GIL'S GLEANINGS

Bugs Young made a whole of a stop of Flagg's liner in the second inning yesterday. He speared the swiftly moving ball with his bare mitt, and retired the side after a hard run in which he barely beat the speedy Scout shortstop to the bag.

Ross Johnson continued to play a bang-up game at third yesterday. He handled everything that came his way, and incidentally connected for a couple of clean hits, one of which was a triple. He always gets in front of a ball and should go fine around the hot corner when his ankle is entirely well.

Tim Griesbeck came back into his own again. He drove out three hits for a total of six bases, bagged a stolen base, and chalked up two runs. Tim plays consistent ball every day, and is a hard worker.

Old Josh Billings is just beginning to get the kinks out of his muscles. It takes a little more time for him to get in shape than it does for the other kids, but when old dependable Josh comes around, all the boys in the league better put on their thinking caps, for the old general will turn loose a few tricks and stand the youngsters on their heads, if they don't watch out.

Doc Johnson, Cleveland's first sacker, is surely setting some pace for his American league rivals. The Indian is fielding at a clip of .997, and is leading the league in hitting with an average of .300. Looks as though his training under Tris Speaker is doing lots of good.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC BY C. E. SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Last night the young people of the Christian Endeavor society, taking advantage of the bright moonlight, gathered on the lawn of the First Christian church and left about 5 o'clock for a moonlight picnic to Lake Dothan.

In addition to the cars, a large truck, cushioned with hay, was comfortably filled with jolly boys and girls, and the laughter and singing was reminiscent of old-time hayrack rides.

Arriving at the lake, rowboats and bathing suits were pressed into service and the moonlit surface of the lake soon presented a bright and joyous scene. The appetizing lunch served by the girls was heartily enjoyed.

A feature of the evening, which was the occasion of much interest and merriment, was a candle drawing. Small slips of paper were distributed. On these everyone wrote their name and date of birth and inserted them in large capsules. Those containing the names of the boys were drawn by the girls and vice versa. The conditions of the drawing are that each person is to do all they can to make life happy for the one whose name they drew, for a period of one month, beginning from the date written on the slip of paper. The names drawn are to be kept in strict secrecy and everyone is to be mystified as to who is talking such an interest in them.

The coming state convention of Texas Christian Educators, at Dallas, on June 9-11 was discussed and 8 ladies number have received their registration cards and expressed their intention of going.

The ride home was enlivened by songs and jokes and everyone expressed their appreciation of the enjoyable and happy evening.

Chinese Ships Had Eyes; Late America's Equipped With Ears

Hydroplane on Destroyer Breckinridge Promises Relief From Dangers of Sea Voyage.

NEW YORK, June 1.—In olden times when Chinese ship builders designed and constructed their lateen sailed craft for war or commercial purposes, prominent and oftentimes ferocious "eyes" were located on either side of the bow.

Today, modern America, now leading in ship construction, is proposing to equip her merchant vessels with "ears," the location of which like the eyes on the Chinese junk, are on the ship's bows, but under instead of over the water.

While superstition induced the Chinaman to equip his ship so that he could "see" its enemies and work its way into a safe port through shoal water, hidden rocks and through crowded waterways, science has designed the "ears" for the same purpose.

The destroyer Breckinridge equipped as a demonstrating ship, 40 or more representatives of leading steamship lines have just had an opportunity to see and test the efficacy of the listening device. It is now a government controlled invention used on fighting ships during the war as a protection against submarines and officially designated by the navy as "the M. V. type hydrophone." Its object is to disclose in surrounding waters the presence of other craft, to foretell the approach of shoal waters, apprise the navigator of the vicinity of light-ships equipped with submarine bell signaling devices. It is expected also to disclose with a remarkable degree of accuracy, the depth of water wherein the ship so equipped is floating.

The apparatus includes 48 hydrophone receivers located in a tank of water in the bow of the vessel so that an equal number is on either side. In the test the sound of the propellers of a steamer five miles distant was heard. The depth of water is ascertained by listening to the noise made by the propellers of the vessel carrying the hydrophone as it is echoed back from the bottom of the sea. In depth beyond 100 fathoms, however, the hydrophone refuses to record, it was explained, but as a majority of collisions occur near a coast line and at congested harbor entrances, the inventors and officers of the navy predict that its adoption will remove many of the hazards of navigation now induced by fog.

Dr. H. C. Hayes, formerly of Swarthmore college, said the device had been installed on the transport Von Steuben and on one occasion probably saved the ship from running aground on the Long Island shore during a heavy fog. Dr. Hayes also claims that the invention will enable a mariner to locate icebergs, through the reflecting back to the operator from the submerged portion of a dangerous berg on the sound of the operating ships' own propellers.

Italy harvests more than 2,000 acres of tomatoes yearly, and the waste amounts to practically nothing. The skins and seeds, formerly discarded, are now utilized, the former as cattle food and the latter as a source of oil suitable for soap-making and for lamps.

Birds, in the construction of their nests, almost without exception avoid bright-colored materials, which might possibly lead to the discovery of their place of abode by an enemy.

Newspaper Students of Texas University Secure Summer Jobs

Special to The News.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 2.—Theta Sigma Phi, honorary professional journalistic fraternity for women, at the University of Texas, announces the pledging of Misses Louise Gladney of Bonham, Mamie Drummond of Mission, Frances Rowe of San Angelo, and Keith Coppage of Fort Worth.

Miss Gladney, in her connection with the editorial and business staffs of the Daily Texan and with the San Antonio Express as a reporter in the summer of 1919, and with the Bonham papers and other state papers as a special correspondent, has become thoroughly experienced in newspaper work. She is now an assistant issue editor of the Daily Texan. For the summer she will be connected with the advertising department of the Dallas News.

Miss Drummond, who is taking a course in the history of the development of journalism this year, is planning more active journalistic writing for next year. She is a reporter on the Daily Texan, and conducts several columns as a special correspondent to the Rio Grande valley. Miss Drummond is developing an early ambition for the journalistic profession.

Miss Rowe, who has done excellent work as a student in the school of journalism, is planning to do feature story writing. She is now a reporter on the Texas, and does correspondence work for San Angelo papers and feature story writing for several large dailies.

Miss Coppage, as a student of journalism, is particularly adaptable to interview writing, although her newspaper work has confined itself to no narrow phase of the profession. She is an assistant issue editor of the Texas. After a summer of feature story writing, Miss Coppage expects to return to the university as a special correspondent. Initiation services were held on Tuesday night for Genevieve Groce of Dallas, Dorothy Reardon of El Paso, Mary Bledsoe of Goldthwaite and Alice Ballard of Beville, who were pledged in April, and Corinne Flood of Hico, and Mrs. Daisie Baylett Turner of Austin, who were pledged last week.

Miss Flood is doing extensive work in feature story writing. After receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree in June, she expects to enter newspaper work in Dallas.

Mrs. Tanner expects to enter the field of short story writing, which she has been studying in the school of journalism. In the fall of 1920 she will go to Cambridge, Mass., to study short story writing at Radcliffe College.

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYS BILL AT THE NATIONAL

Bob Greer and his company of Pioneer Girls and Boys, who have been at the National Open Air theater the past week and a half, pleased a large audience last night with a light farce comedy entitled "Too Much Married."

The plot involved a young man who was dependent on an uncle living in Ireland for his income. The nephew had come to America to become an artist. In order to secure a larger allowance he wrote his uncle that he had married and was the proud father of a baby boy. Uncle decides to visit his nephew. Earl Stanley, as Gillespie, the nephew, and his two chums, Sam Mitchell and Cal West, were instrumental in getting things in general mixed up.

Sam Mitchell as the baby, Dorothy Bates as the servant girl and Hazel Greer as Gillespie's landlady, together with Bob Greer as the uncle, furnished much amusement. Specialties introduced throughout the evening were enjoyed by the audience.

This same company will be seen at the National this evening in another farce comedy, "The Runaway Match." Local aspirants to the stage will be given an opportunity to show what talent they possess.

As several of the smaller islands of New Zealand are without telegraphic communication with the mainland, a substitute has been found in carrier pigeons.

Ciscoans Leave For California.

A party of local people left on the Sunshine Special Tuesday evening for Los Angeles to spend the summer. They were Mrs. Mark Stamps and her two children, Mrs. J. A. Williams and her little son, Mrs. C. A. Mangum, and the Misses Lela Stamps and Lorene Williams.

Crabs measuring two feet in length have been found in India.

LACK OF HARMONY WITH MAJORITY IS REASON ASSIGNED

Action Comes as Result Lengthy Executive Session Held Wednesday Night.

Two city commissioners have tendered their resignations.

The members resigning are Claude C. Wild and J. O. Sue.

This is the culmination of the lengthy executive session held Wednesday night.

Lack of harmony with the majority of the members, and opposition to procrastinating methods in affairs which vitally affect the city's welfare and progress, are the reasons given by these members.

Mr. Wild said: "I cannot passively represent the people, and I am out of place in this body. In this minority I cannot accomplish that which I deem to be for the best interests of the city. I can only advocate a progressive program, but cannot get progressive action. And I do not care to sit here and acquiesce in inactivities or slow methods."

Following are the letters to the mayor and commission, tendering the resignations:

To the Mayor and City Commission of Cisco, Texas: I herewith tender you my resignation as Commissioner of the City of Cisco, Texas, to take effect at once. This, the 3rd day of June, 1920.

To the Honorable City Commission of the City of Cisco: I take this method of tendering you my resignation as City Commissioner of the City of Cisco, to take effect at once. This, the 3rd day of June, 1920.

Yours very truly, J. O. SUE.

Letter From Claude Wild.

To the Citizens of Cisco: I am taking this opportunity of explaining to you, the citizens of Cisco, the reason for the above resignation.

The people of Cisco want service and are appealing to the new members of the Commission to try to give relief. Even already much adverse criticism is being poured upon us, because the same old routine is in vogue. This letter is to inform those who do not understand that I am powerless to help them. When I try to make any improvement, I get no support, but meet what seems to be the decree of the old administration, or its leader, that things shall not change. Personally, I do not believe in and cannot work under a system of lethargy and procrastination. So long as such a system exists in force, it is useless for me to remain. I will not be held responsible by my friends for the conditions existing in the city government. The price is too great to pay. If things are not changed, then I cannot be connected therewith. I am powerless to change them against the present machine. Consequently, I am taking the other alternative.

I have been given the department of police and fire. I have never seen any organization as badly disorganized as the present police department. In good faith I have spent an endless amount of thought and time as to how to remedy the conditions and give Cisco a live, respectable, up-to-date police department with a machine-like efficiency. I came to the conclusion that the first step was to find a police chief who could stay on the ground and organize such a department. The present chief is drawing his salary from the City of Cisco and is spending his time as candidate

POLICE CATCH TWELVE MEN IN GAMBLING RAID

SWOOP DOWN ON TWO DIFFERENT GAMES IN CITY LAST NIGHT.

TOTAL $404.40 IN FINES

City Coffers Swelled As Result of Night's Activity on Part of Police.

Twelve men were arrested and a total of $404.40 in fines was garnered into the coffers of the city early this morning when a posse of local police under Assistant Chief J. T. Stamps swooped down upon a gambling game in a local hotel, capturing eight, and Policeman O. B. Pitts raided a second hotel on the east side a short time later, leading four more into the fold.

Passing the hotel on the west side shortly after midnight, Police Officer Norman C. Lee saw a light burning in an upstairs window on the east side of the building and the shades up. At the same time he heard a cry for help.

It was a fervent masculine voice pleading with somebody to "Be something" with a chorus of other masculine voices attempting to dissuade the object of the appeal from that lofty ambition.

Lee listened for a while, and finally convinced that a father was not urging his son on to nobler aspirations, reported the circumstances to the assistant chief on the night desk.

Stamps formed a raiding knot with Patrolmen William Grimsinger, Lee and Pitts and proceeded to investigate the mystery of the upper room on the east side of the west side hotel.

Planting two officers at the front door of the hostelry, he took the third with him, climbed the stairs to the second floor and turned the knob of the door whence the sound of voices proceeded. The door was not locked.

Entering the room the officers say they found eight men seated in a circle on the floor with their legs crossed, who were addressing sundry remarks to a pair of white mice with black polka dots scampering hither and yon on the carpet.

According to Assistant Chief Stamps the floor was speckled with small change. The octette was taken to the city hall where Major James Williamson was called on the telephone and, after hearing the evidence in the case, fined each player $33.70.

Four Players Get $33.70 in the Hole. Meanwhile Patrolman Pitts raided the east side hotel alone and raised the city treasury pot $134.80 by bringing in a quartette alleged to have been indulging in a friendly game of cards. Like procedure was taken in their case.

GOV. HOBBY RECOMMENDS SCHOOL FUNDS

Urges $5,000,000 Be Made Available for Public Schools of Texas.

Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 3.—In a special message to the legislature today, Governor Hobby recommended "five million dollars be made available for the public schools of Texas to be distributed in the same manner as available school funds." An emergency appropriation of $558,850 for higher educational institutions also was recommended.

"The program," said Governor Hobby, "I urge upon you does not include the making of an appropriation for buildings of improvements of a permanent nature, which in my judgment may be attended to without material loss or efficiency by the thirty-seventh legislature. However, to insure teachers for the next scholastic term to maintain the schools system and to provide education for all children of the people of Texas, it is necessary to meet the responsibility of the hour."

"Continuing, the governor said: "The treasury of Texas is in a condition so fortunate that it is possible for the state to give the needed relief to the schools of Texas without imposing increased tax burdens upon the people."

Supporting the recommendation, the Governor quoted from the reports from about three hundred Texas towns, saying that 40 per cent of the schools were kept open by private subscriptions, 21 per cent of these raised the property valuations, and 31 per cent not making private subscriptions, raised the valuation 16 per cent, which cut the school terms very short. He added that very few of these schools went into debt illegally.

Mobilizing National Guard.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 3.—The State National Guard is being mobilized in several cities today for possible guard duty at Galveston in connection with the strike of longshoremen at that place. Hobby Takes Hand In Galveston Strike; Assembles Troops

Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 3.—Twenty-nine troops of dismounted cavalry and three machine gun companies will be ready to entrain for Galveston at noon Friday, the adjutant general's department announced today. Adjutant General Cope is preparing to leave for Galveston tonight for a preliminary survey of the situation.

This action comes as a culmination of the long continued prolonged strike at Galveston and continued unsuccessful attempts to move the freight from the docks. A resolution passed by the board of directors of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, sets forth that "all efforts to relieve the situation on the part of Galveston people has been futile," that "repeated assaults have been made upon workers on the docks," and that "city authorities are said upon good authority to be giving utterly inadequate protection."

Governor Issues Instructions.

The governor directed General Cope to proceed at once to Galveston with a sufficient number of officers and men to fully look into heretofore and now existing conditions, and you are directed to take such action as will be necessary to enforce laws of the state without partiality and keep open those arteries of trade which are essential to prosperity and the uninterrupted conduct of business in Texas, and to avoid entanglements, the slightest alignment with any faction, element, or organization, between whom issues and controversies have arisen with respect to the situation at hand."

The governor said, "I deem it my duty as chief executive of the state to use all lawful means at my command to carry out the constitution and laws of Texas."

COMMISSIONERS FIX CITY BUDGET TOTAL $175,000

MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT; EXPENSES FOR YEAR OUTLINED.

TAX RATE DISCUSSED

Assessment Valuations Expected to Reach $15,000,000; Present Rate, 75 Cents, Indicated.

A city budget was tentatively formulated by the city commissioners at their meeting held Wednesday night. The total is approximately $15,000, which covers both city maintenance and schools.

Several hours were spent in making estimates for the various departments. In pointing over the figures, and in discussing property valuations and the tax rate. It was thought that the city assessment valuations would reach $15,000,000, which would mean that the present low tax rate of 75 cents could be maintained, except that the school tax is separate, and could perhaps be held at 50c.

In the discussions much stress was placed on the importance of the equitable adjustment of property values in the assessments. The opinion was held that it made no difference to the payer whether he paid a low rate on a high valuation or a high rate on a low valuation; but high property valuation with a low tax rate would speak more for the city, with outsiders and investors.

Department Estimates Raised.

Their estimates on the needs for the different city departments were raised nearly fifty per cent over the former budget. These estimates, which have not yet been fixed by resolution of the commission, are as follows for maintenance purposes:

- Water department $20,000
- Sanitation and Public Health 15,000
- Police Department 15,000
- Street repairs and temporary streets 25,000
- Chamber department 35,000
- General expenditure 5,000
- Parks, cemeteries and public buildings 15,000
- Park Protection 6,000
- School, approximately 20,000

Those estimates are to be held as guide for the commission and for the equalization board until the status shall be more definitely ascertained and fixed.

Park Settlement Strong.

The scope of discussion at this meeting included parks and sentiment favored the acceptance of the Harrell park site offer and its improvement; also the securing the $9-year lease on the triangular block between the Mobley hotel and the depot, and converting it into a business block and making a "T" block and parking spaces. In fact, sentiment was for a number of small parks so distributed as to best serve the people of every section of the city. However, no park action was taken at this time.

The Harrell park site consists of about three acres just west of the cemetery.

Mr. McConnell, of the Cisco Grain Co. was before the commission, asking permission to install a modern scale in the alley adjoining them. After discussion this matter was referred to city engineer and street commissioner, to see whether it could be so arranged as to not obstruct traffic in the street at that point, and report to the commission next Monday night. It was thought that this might be made a public weighing scale for the city, which was claimed to be badly needed.

The Cisco Grain company wish the scales for their own weighing, but are willing to make it a public scale. Their facilities for handling grain are now bringing farmers with their harvests who never marketed here before, Mr. McConnell took the commission.

Review Reservoir Rids.

Before adjournment, the reservoir dam and the bids on its construction were briefly reviewed, and there was a strong sentiment revealed for the hollow concrete type. Next Monday night will see the time to take up this matter for action, and T. E. Elrod, consulting engineer from Dallas, will be present to counsel with them.

After adjournment, an executive session of near two hours was held, for the consideration of individual matters, it was understood.

ACCEPT OFFER OF U. S. TO HELP FIGHT BUBONIC PLAGUE

BIG BATTLESHIP TENNESSEE INTO COMMISSION TODAY

NEW YORK, June 3.—The super-dreadnaught Tennessee, largest and most formidable battleship afloat, goes into commission today at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The Tennessee cost $20,000,000, is 425 feet long with 93-foot beam and 32,500-ton displacement.

The special feature of the Tennessee is the "fighting brain," enclosed in steel fort near the top forward mast. Concentrated here are devices for observing enemy ships.

Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, June 3.—State authorities at Vera Cruz have accepted the offer of the United States government to send sanitary detachments and supplies to that city to aid in combating the bubonic plague, according to a dispatch to the newspaper Universal. One suspect case was found yesterday.

Farmers' Convention Considering Repeal of Two Federal Laws

CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—Taking of a referendum among the farmers of the country on the compulsory arbitration of strikes will be considered at a meeting of the executive committee of the American farm bureau federation opening here today.

Referendums on the repeal of the Adamson law and on the Townsend federal road law have also been recommended.

Results of the first farmer referendum in which 359,426 farmers voted, were reported to the committee today. It resulted in an overwhelming majority against the bill of Congressman Nolan for a tax of one per cent on the ownership of land in excess of $10,000.

Greater recognition of women in the national farm bureau movement will be taken up for consideration at the instance of farmers of the New England states.

A request that the American Farm Bureau federation take over the work of the livestock producers committee of 15 is slated to come up. This committee represented an effort to take up producers' problems with the packers.

The request is being made by Henry C. Wallace of Des Moines, Iowa, the chairman of the committee.

The creation of a bureau of agricultural economics to study world conditions and their probable effect on the prices of American agricultural products will be considered. The recommendation of such a bureau with an appropriation of $75,000 was recently made by the Mid-West farm bureau federations.

Another recommendation from the same source is that a census of the car supply both for stock and grain be taken immediately and the information supplied at once to each state federation.

A request from the New York state farm bureau federation that the national organization employ a field man to devote his time to dairy and truck interests will be considered. Correlation of the effects of the various marketing organizations that are handling canned crops, milk and wool in the eastern states will also come up.

The meeting will continue from June 2 to 4. J. R. Howard of Clemens, Iowa, is president; S. L. Strivings, Castle, N. Y., vice-president; J. W. Coverdale, of Ames, Iowa, secretary.

The executive committee consists of E. B. Cornwall, Middlebury, Vt.; E. F. Richardson, Mills, Mass.; H. E. Taylor, Freehold, N. J.; O. E. Bradford, Xenia, Ohio; H. J. Science, Sidel, Ill.; C. H. Gray, Nevada, Mo.; Gray Silver, Martinsburg, W. Va.; J. W. Morgan, Athens, Ga.; George Bishop, Cordell, Okla.; W. H. Walker, Willows, Cal.; F. J. Jamieson, LaVeta, Colo.; and E. F. Burton, Garland, Utah.

The meeting will continue from June 2 to 4. J. R. Howard of Clemens, Iowa, is president; S. L. Strivings, Castle, N. Y., vice-president; J. W. Coverdale, of Ames, Iowa, secretary.

Custom Officials to Stop Smuggling Whiskey Into U. S.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 3.—Whiskey smuggling from Canada via Lake Erie will be watched this summer by prohibition and customs officials, so Fred Counts, prohibition agent in Cleveland, announces.

Both these federal departments will join in surveillance of Lake Erie ports from Conneaut to Toledo.

"We may board any and all lake craft at unexpected times and places, and will make a thorough search," said Counts. "Any boat found with liquor aboard will be confiscated."

FARMERS TO FIGHT REPEAL TICK ERADICATION LAW

BROWNWOOD, Tex., June 3.—At a meeting of stock raisers and farmers held at the city hall here it was decided to send a committee to Austin to protest against the passage of a law repealing the tick eradication law of Texas.

It was stated that this law has been the means of saving the stockmen of Brown county thousands of dollars and that by August 1, at least 90 per cent of the cattle in this county will be ready to be excused from further dipping.

The further committee was appointed: J. B. Turner, Ben Stone and Frank Macy. The committee left for Austin tonight.

UNIVERSITY TO BE MECCA ALL FORMER STUDENTS JUNE 7

Indications Point to Large Crowd of Texas Alumni at Commencement Exercises Next Week.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 3.—That the University of Texas will be the Mecca for former students of that institution from all parts of the state on June 7, is suggested by letters now being received at the office of John A. Lomax, secretary of the ex-students' association.

Indications are that many of the Texas alumni are to attend the commencement exercises of the 1920 class. Reunions of all classes whose numerals end in 5 or 0 are to be held, in accordance with the plan for reunion of each class once every five years.

Members of the law class of 1885, 1890 and 1895 will be special guests of the university during the week and are to occupy seats on the speakers' platform at the commencement sermon and final address.

Dr. S. C. Reid of Houston, who was awarded the first academic degree from the university in 1885, is to take part in the academic parade. A letter being sent out by A. W. See-Igson, W. A. Wurzbach and C. A. Goeth of San Antonio, members of the 1888 and 1890 law classes, states:

"We have been practicing law about 30 years, and are getting to be old men, and this is the thirtieth anniversary of our graduation. It is our duty to answer a call to meet in Austin on Monday, June 7, Alumni Day of our Alma Mater, and get together and talk over old times and now times, if we want to. You must come and meet with us on that occasion."

The law class of 1885 is invited to be present at the commencement exercises by Judge W. B. Garrett of Austin.

J. T. Tallchist of Houston has invited the class of 1900 to attend a reunion. The law class of 1915 is invited back by E. L. Bobbitt of Laredo.

A meeting of the ex-students association will be held Monday, June 7, at 10 a. m. in the university Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Miss Annie W. Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction, will deliver the annual address to the alumni.

Officers of the ex-students association who are expected to attend the commencement exercises are as follows: Will C. Hogg of Dallas, president; Dr. S. B. Jones of Dallas, first vice-president; V. L. Brooks of Austin, second vice president; Judge D. C. Bland of Orange, third vice president; C. L. Widen of Austin, treasurer; John A. Lomax of Austin, secretary.

DECLARES PLUMB PLAN LEAGUE IS NOT CONTRIBUTOR

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Edward Keath, senior congressman and now the manager of the Plumb Plan League, told the campaign expenditures investigating committee today that the league has not contributed a cent of money to any campaign.

"The league is taking no part whatever in the present political campaign," Keath testified this morning before the expenditures investigating committee.

He then added, however, this statement: "Except that the league is distributing such information as it desires to through its weekly paper, 'Labor'."

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD RANGE SOON TO BE ENLARGED

AUSTIN, Texas, June 3.—The enlargement of the Texas national guard range at Camp Mabry to have 24 additional rifle ranges, 32 pistols, and 14 machine gun ranges, was authorized by the federal war department today.

This additional allotment carries with it $33,000 for equipment clearing.

ROOMING PLACES FOR SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS OPEN JUNE 8

AUSTIN, Tex., June 3.—For the information of young women who may attend the summer school at the University of Texas, the announcement is made by Mrs. Neil Carothers, director of the Woman's Building and annexes that these rooming and boarding places will not be open to such students until the morning of June 8.

From the fact that she has received a number of letters from students to whom she had assigned rooms for the first summer session, stating that they would be here the latter part of this week, it is evident that it is not generally understood that these dormitories will not be available to them until Monday, June 8.

BROWNWOOD HEADQUARTERS OF TEXAS PECAN GROWERS

BROWNWOOD, Tex., June 3.—J. W. Dunn, secretary of the chamber of commerce and W. B. McCulley, member of the board of directors of the Texas pecan growers association, have returned from Austin, where they had been attending the first meeting of the board of directors.

Brownwood was selected as the temporary headquarters of the association and J. W. Dunn was elected temporary secretary. J. W. White was elected a president.

A movement is on foot to have permanent headquarters established at Brownwood.

Woman President of U. S. In 1944, Maybe, Says This Delegate

NEW YORK, June 3.—The millions of American women who expect their political status to be changed by federal amendment, to citizenship next November, are going to become a power for good in the nation, according to Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby, a delegate to the democratic national convention in San Francisco.

A woman president of the United States, she says, is remote but not impossible, say in 1944.

"The only two things worth while at present," said Mrs. Crosby, "are politics and religion. We all should study both; how to improve our government and make better men and women. When I speak of religion I don't mean any particular creed, but the religion of the gospels, the ten commandments and the sermon on the mount. The world is money mad. Religion alone will free it from its selfishness and unrest."

Mrs. Crosby, who has been called "the mother of New York women democrats," a white-haired, dignified matron of more than three score years—she is the widow of a judge—declared the 300 or more women delegates would go to the convention with the determination to nominate a strong man and put through a "constructive" program.

"It will be the greatest convention ever held," she said, "because women for the first time will have a voice in it. I expect to see a bitter fight, particularly over the question of majority or unit rule. I can, of course, only speak for myself, and what the woman may do when they enter the convention will depend largely upon the action they take in the preliminary caucuses. I believe an effort will be made to put a plank in the platform calling for a modification of the Volstead enforcement act and permitting the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer. I believe, however, that everyone should be obedient to law. I oppose anarchy and socialism."

"All American women," she continued, "are sufferers from the profiteers. We must fight them and I am sure we have ingenuity enough to devise a way to defeat them and in other ways, to bring down the cost of living. Inequitable taxation undoubtedly will come in for its share of attention at the San Francisco caucuses and the idea of Henry George of stopping speculation in land and relieving both workers and industry from some of their burdens, undoubtedly will be advocated by women. The worst profiteer of all is the profiteer in houses and land. The 'unearned increment' of land, the rental value, must be taken for public revenue or the people will stagger under their taxes until they drop."

The woman leader declared that "with the change in the political status of women next fall" there would come, however, no violent change in governmental affairs. It would take women a long time to become practical politicians, she said, but they would become such eventually. She said the time would come when women would fill the most important offices within the gift of the people, even to a women president of the United States, Supreme Court Justices and members of congress.

Brazil to Enforce New Tariff Rates On U. S. Imports

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 3.—The Brazilian customs officials have been instructed to observe the presidential decree of March 10, which concedes preferential tariff rates during the current year on certain imports of the United States origin as follows:

On wheat flour, 30 per cent; on condensed milk, manufactured rubber articles, watches, certain ink, varnishes, typewriter machines, ice-chests, balances, wind mills, cement, corsets and school furniture, 20 per cent.

CHINA OUTLINES PROGRAM AERONAUTIC DEVELOPMENT

SHANGHAI, June 3.—Gen. Ting Kinn, director of the department of aeronautics of the Chinese government has outlined a big program of development in aeronautics for China.

"Within the next year" he asserted, "air mail routes will be established between Shanghai and Peking and between Peking and Nrga and the machines that will supply this service will carry both freight and passengers."

The government of China last year contracted for the purchase of 100 air planes from a British concern and 40 of these have been received. Others will be delivered through the summer.

Gen. Ting said that a large number of Chinese fliers are being trained at Peking and other Chinese airmen who have received training abroad will enter the service.

LICENSE PLAN TO BANISH DISREPUTABLE HOUSES

SHANGHAI, June 3.—Under a systematized plan of licensing by which the number of permits issued will be decreased yearly, it is intended within five years to banish disreputable houses from the international settlement of Shanghai.

This recommendation was suggested by a vice commission which conducted an investigation through last year and has been adopted by the tax payers.

ITALY DREDGING GENOA HARBOR FOR COAL

GENOA, June 3.—Italy is so short of coal that a company has been dredging out of the harbor the precious mineral that has fallen overboard during the years of coaling operations in Genoa harbor.

This reclaimed coal is selling for the equivalent of $129 a ton.

American Maids Will Adorn Home Sands Again Despite Europe's Call

Europe's conditions are still so unattractive that tourists prefer the sure fun of a vacation at home and so American girls will adorn the sands of the American beaches this summer, dressed in that most alluring of all costumes, the American bathing suit.

Here are two pretty suits which will be worn by the American girls who will patronize home resorts instead of European watering places. They are rather conservative it is true but they are simple of line and permit freedom of movement. The one at the left is of henna wool jersey. The blouse is edged in sand color at the waist, sleeves and neck. Purple set in fashions the suit at the right. It is made in one piece and worn over jersey tights. Orchid satin folds trim the suit and fashions the cap. In the center are two wool jersey models for the junior misses. The one at the right is a one-piece suit of rose trimmed in white. This little miss is the only one who can wear a "one-piece" with modesty and decorum. The other suit is also in one piece but it is made to resemble a two-piece suit. It is the best type for the younger girls who really swim. This one is made of purple and white jersey.

VIENNA, June 3.—Recruiting for the new army that is to replace the Volkwehr under the terms of the treaty of St. Germain has ceased, the allowed 30,000 men having been enlisted. It is said that 70 per cent of the force are social democrats in spite of the attempt made by the opposition to prevent it. This is due to the failure of the peasants to enter service in the provinces, where the conservatives looked for a heavy enrollment to offset the industrial centers. Many of the provinces failing to raise their quota, natives of the defaulting provinces residing in the cities were enlisted and sent to their home states. Five is the great sacred Chinese number.

Farmer Likes City Streets, So He Pays Omaha Wheel Tax

OMAHA, Neb., June 3.—R. L. Reynolds, South side livestock commission merchant, who lives outside the city limits, has sent City Clerk Hunter a letter enclosing check for payment of a wheel tax.

"I do not live in the city" Mr. Reynolds' letter reads, "but figure that I use the streets a good deal and the money is going to a good cause."

UE AND WILD RESIGN AS CITY COMMISSIONERS

sheriff. I do not believe that a man can serve two masters. He refused to sign until after the election, for fear it would hurt his candidacy, unless it was required to. I recommended to the Commission that he be asked to resign, so that we could employ a chief who would stay on the ground and fill up a good department. The vote stood two against two—Mr. Sue voting with me. The mayor cast the decisive vote that defeated my recommendation, and approved the spialis system just described.

I won't be head of any department and be forced to sacrifice the good of the service to the community in order to foster the candidacy of any individual. I believe that efficiency should be ahead of politics and personal favorites, and I will be connected with no organization that does not so stand. I do not know what the attitude of the Commission will be concerning my resignation. I suppose they are glad to get rid of me. But I want to express to the people of Cisco my appreciation of the confidence placed in my hands in the recent election. It is with deep regret that I cannot serve you in the capacity chosen. Could I get any support, I would not tender this resignation. But, as above stated, I am not a harmony with the methods used by the majority, and they are certainly not in line with my idea of an efficient government.

Some of the good citizens of Cisco have requested me not to make this move, but desire me to stay and hammer all I can. I do not believe that would be fair. The people would hold me responsible for what happened. They would not know how all the votes were recorded! And further, I do not feel that I should waste my time unless I could do some good.

Trusting that I have stated clearly my reasons for resigning, and again thanking you for your confidence, I am, Respectfully, CLAUDE C. WILD.

Letter From J. O. Sue.

To the Citizens of Cisco. That the public may more clearly understand the above resignation, I am making the following brief statement: I have lots of friends who are looking to me for some improvement in the city government. They are wondering why something more is not done, and I am being subjected to much criticism. While I am not afraid of criticism, I am unable to render the people and community any real service, yet I do not think that I can afford to continue as commissioner, unless I could get some support.

It seems to be understood at the city hall that there will be no change, either in methods or personnel. I believe that personal or political friends should not interfere with the efficiency of the people's business. Unless some radical changes are made, I do not feel that I would be doing myself, or the public, justice were I to remain. The good that I could accomplish would be too small to offset the humility of being the under dog in all votes when the vital interests of the community are at stake.

I have had this in mind for some time, but tried to do the best I could until the police department came up for investigation. When the incident spoken of in the letter published in this paper by Mr. Wild happened, I saw that it was no use for me to remain further. I wish to thank the people for the confidence shown in me, and were I able to accomplish anything for you, I would remain.

I have written this letter in good faith, and its only intention and purpose is to set my position clear before you. Respectfully, J. O. SUE.

CITY BRIEFS

Eid Lambert, assistant service supervisor for the T. & P. was a Cisco caller this morning.

Bricklaying has started on the Spencer building on Broadway, after a wait of several weeks for material.

The exterior construction work on the Gude hotel on Broadway has been completed, and within sixty days, says Mr. Gude, this big seventy-room fire-proof hostelry will be finished and furnished, ready for the public.

According to J. O. Sue, who has just visited Leary, that new town has doubled in population in the last two weeks.

Judge B. F. Morris, of Santa Barbara, and H. E. Hial, of Los Angeles, Cal., are spending the week in Cisco and looking over the oil fields here. Both these gentlemen are stockholders in several local oil companies, and are well pleased with what they have seen and with their investments. They are both very complimentary of Cisco, and view it as the dominating city of this field.

T. J. O'Donnell, president of the O'Donnell-Wogan Oil Co., has gone to Wichita Falls, where he will let contract for four wells on acreage owned by his company, in the K-M-A field. They now have one producing well on this lease.

John W. Ward, now of Houston, but an old-time resident of Cisco, is here spending a few days in looking after his business interests in this vicinity. Mr. Ward has several farms in Eastland and Stephens counties, which are planted to grain. It is reported to him that this crop is very short this season.

A bill is before the Louisiana legislature making women eligible for appointment as public in that State.

THE VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL AT VICTORY FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—WONDER PICTURE

Announcement was made today by the Victory Theatre management today that the year's most stupendous photoplay production, "The Virgin of Stamboul," the Universal-Jewel $500,000 production de luxe, had been secured for Friday and Saturday, both afternoon and night. Starring in this wonderful picture is Priscilla Dean, called the "Wonder Girl," and who created the "Wildcat of Paris." The scenes of the play are laid in the Far East, and sweep from the streets of the sacred Stamboul across the blazing sandy wastes of the great Arabian desert.

This is considered to be one of the most wonderful pictures ever screened, and should be seen by every one in Cisco.

THREE HURT, ONE SERIOUSLY, WHEN SCAFFOLD FALLS

WERE WORKING ON NEW RESERVOIR STANDPIPE—FELL DIS-TANCE FORTY FEET.

One man was seriously hurt and two others suffered minor injuries here Wednesday afternoon when the scaffolding upon which all three were working inside the new reservoir standpipe on the south side of town gave way and they fell to a bed of rock 40 feet below.

They were: J. W. STEINKUHLER, who sustained an ugly gash in his forehead; whose right leg was fractured in three places and who suffered severe bruises and abrasions about the head and body. C. F. JOHNSON, both of whose ankles were severely sprained.

EDWARD CALHOUN, who suffered a four-inch laceration of the forehead. The accident occurred, it is said, when one of the workmen changed his position on the scaffold, overbalancing it.

The men had entered the water tower through a small manhole at its base and were finishing the inner wall of the reservoir at the time of the painful accident.

It was several minutes after the fall before any of the workmen had recovered sufficiently from the first shock of pain to shout for help. People living in the vicinity of the tower were finally attracted to the scene and removed the men through the small aperture only with the greatest difficulty.

Doctors D. W. Gregory, D. Ball and F. E. Clark were summoned by telephone and responded quickly. They had the injured men removed to the home of Mrs. J. Hart on the corner of 19th street and Avenue A, where they were given every attention by the residents of that section, who flocked to the house.

Johnson and Calhoun were finally able to leave.

Steinkuhler is still at the Hart home. His wife is on her way to this city from Yokum, Texas.

Calhoun, also married, lives at 14th street and Avenue A. Johnson is single and was rooming with Steinkuhler at 509 West Ninth street.

BACK UP OUR LEADERS.

There should be no drafting, but every citizen of Cisco should enlist in the drive for a "Greater City." Sentiment has been created by the individual activities and appeals of the commercial and civic bodies of the city which is now "standing at attention," awaiting the call of marshaled leaders for any welfare move for Cisco.

The call of the mayor and city commissioners to all these other organizations of the city to join them in planning and executing things that will promote and build Cisco is a commendable movement, and one that should be speedily and energetically responded to by these bodies. No matter what may be their differences of opinion, or how they as individuals may regard some others individually, they are all leaders and should heartily cooperate.

And every citizen of Cisco whatever may be their personal opinions, their likes or dislikes, should get in behind these leaders with a zeal that means courage and confidence to them. They are all leaders in the city, doing things, or endeavoring to do things which are for the welfare of the city as a whole, and they should be supported unstintingly by every individual citizen. This movement means a "Greater Cisco," if the citizens but join in putting into action the sentiment which has been created and is now sought to be directed by the city commission, with the cooperation of all the organizations of the city.

The individual spirit should bring up the reserve support for these leaders, who are directing the city's progress.

If it be a park proposition, a street extension and residential paving project, the building of a hospital, improvements in sanitation, civic building and cemetery beautification; or, if it be the securing of industrial plants and business enterprises as assets to the city's wealth and prosperity, that the leaders are striving for, they should be heartily backed by the citizenship.

This loyalty and this unselfish force should, too, be felt behind every present institution of the city that is now actively indorsing the city's welfare and progress.

It is the hour of opportunity, and this movement means much for the present and more for the future of this city.

FIRM FOUNDATION.

In all the oil fields of Texas, or of Oklahoma, there stands out no one town or city which has built more firmly and more permanently than has Cisco. It is one that has withstood the ebbs and flows of the oil industry without being materially affected. It is in a class to itself in the Central West Texas fields. It is now the mecca of home builders and of big business.

Economist Says Prices Will Fall and Foresees Better Times Ahead

NEW HAVEN, June 3.—Prices on the whole have reached their peak and soon may be expected to recede, according to Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale, the distinguished political economist, whose plan for stabilizing the dollar has won world wide interest. The disturbance which must of necessity accompany the turn from the upward trend will not necessarily result in a panic. Indeed, indications are that it will not, acutely at least but the situation will be controlled, the federal reserve board proving one agency of vital resource and strength in preventing it.

Some bankruptcies are to be expected but prices will again probably mount, after the disturbance. Japan and England probably have passed the upward trend, at least temporarily, and have met the situation. The trend of prices has been upward since 1916, especially rapidly since the world war began, and it has not ceased since the armistice," said Professor Fisher. "At the time of the armistice, prices were double those of 1913. They are now two and one-half times what they were in 1913. Between the armisdition: Cisco is not built on the sands, nor on an oil bubble, but on permanent foundation. Credit for this may justly be given to the city builders of Cisco. The officials have wisely planned and executed. They have gotten dollar for dollar on public expenditures. And in doing this they have maintained a low tax rate on a moderately low property valuation. The tax rate in Cisco is only 75 cents, while in some other oil cities it is as high as $2 to $3, and that based on inflated valuations.

This stands now as an inducement to homeseekers and to investors, while the city itself possesses conveniences and attractions for refined home-builders.

the and the present time then, they have increased 50 per cent. "We have been expecting the price level to drop since the armistice. I think I was the first person to say that prices would rise instead of fall after that time. I think, though, that soon there will be a definite drop. "There has been a wide advertisement of the department store drops which followed the drop in some of the wholesale prices, but the public has an exaggerated idea of the drop, which has so far been confined to a few commodities. "Dunn's Index Number for May was slightly higher than for the first of April, and Gibson's Weekly Number, which is confined to foods, is slightly higher, May 3, than it was May 1. "The Index Number of the United States bureau of labor statistics on retail prices of foods was for April 75 per cent higher than for March, the advance being largely due to the great increase in the price of potatoes. "The statistics have not, therefore, shown any general fall, but the few cases of lower prices which have shown themselves are the beginnings of a more general movement, due principally to the tightening of money rates, which tend to the contracting of credit, curbing the inflated buying power which has been the chief reason for the advancing prices and the secret of the mystery of the high cost of living. "This price recession which is beginning may be said to mark a crisis, although it does not seem likely that it will imply a panic.

"Nor does it seem to me that there is cause for any grave alarm. It is true that the statistics are such as to indicate a big crisis—the statistics of the price level and the stock market—but in interpreting these statistics two things must be borne in mind first, that the federal reserve system affords a buffer to soften the shock, a buffer which we have never before had under similar circumstances, and, second, that big business men very generally are alive to the situation and have taken precautions."

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

I care not how The hindus sing Nor how the roosters crow. I know it isn't Summer when I still see Flakes of snow. The various sounds That nature makes Her cheerful Happy din, Cannot drown out The sound of coal They're dumping In my bin. My friend went out In summer still They brought him back At dark. All still and cold. And much dejected. They'd found him in The park. So stick, my friends, Unto the shirt That is plain red. To be a leech is Better than To be a Bean Hummel—Dent.

We are of a trusting disposition, but we will never have any great confidence in any open-face pie in a quick-torch room.

Open-work stockings—Shocking, always. That reformer should be forced to observe them upon our public streets is a crime. They shall be legislated out of existence—the stockings, not the reformers.

Tomato Catsup—The habit of eating tomato catsup is a national curse. It ferments in the stomach and causes esotropia, which is rapidly devolving us.

The Dickey—The dicky, or false shirt front, has long been a delusion and a snare. The number of people who have been deluded into the idea that waiters, actors and others have been fully dressed when they have not, been waster of the imagination.

"It is snappy," as Chic Sale would say—"clean but snappy" and clever to the nth degree. Perhaps the piece of verse that we fell for the hardest, because it struck home, was the following: "Although I hate A profreer With snabat- ed loathing; Though I detest The price they smear On pants and vests And clothing,

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in a frightful mess. About three months ago I met the prettiest girl I have ever seen and fell in love with her the first time I was with her. We saw each other often then. One evening we were invited out to dinner and during the dinner our hostess asked about her mother. She said the most unkind things I have ever heard a girl say of her own mother. She called her unreasonable and set as a rule. Perhaps she told the truth, but even so, I did not like her so much after saying that. My own mother has always been so wonderful to me that it hurt me more than I let the girl know. After that I wasn't quite so interested and I became more critical. I noticed that she lacked sympathy entirely and was selfish and hard in her judgments. Before she said that about her mother we had become engaged. We are still engaged, but I feel I cannot marry her under the circumstances. Do you think it would be fair to break the engagement? ORRIN. It is my belief that it is better to break an engagement than to enter into a loveless marriage. I think you should ask the girl to release you.

when he intends to stay away, but he does not. He always promises that he will the next time, but then he forgets. Do you think I am unreasonable to object to this. YOUNG WIFE. No, you are not unreasonable to object. Any woman would be annoyed and disappointed to have her husband come home late when she has prepared a good meal for him. Your husband would probably remember to telephone if he had to get his own dinner when he returned home late. His thoughtlessness is inexcusable. Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am thirty-three years old and have been married twelve years. My husband is good to me and we care as much for each other as can be expected after twelve years. We have two dear little girls and he would do anything for them. There is one thing about my husband I do not like. He won't smoke a cigar the way other men do, but instead he smokes a pipe. He looks and acts like an old fogy with it. I think. One thing makes me especially angry. He goes to bed before I do and takes his pipe and newspaper and he smokes in bed. I have said he must not do it, but he keeps it up, anyway. What can I do? TILLIE. Why do you object to your husband smoking in bed? If the smell of the tobacco keeps you from sleeping or if he burns holes in the bedding you have every reason to object. If you are not annoyed by the smell of the tobacco and if he does not burn holes in the bedding, let him have the comfort of doing as he pleases. That time in bed with his paper and pipe probably contributes a great deal to his contentment. Let him enjoy himself unless you have some very good reason for objecting. Mexico has had 60 revolutions in 61 years.

LETTER FROM CONGRESSMAN BLANTON'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER

To Voters of 17th District:

Determined enemies in his absence through false accusations are attacking your Representative. Don't condemn him without a hearing. He is faithfully performing his duties, attending to your business. Campaigns tempted many Members home. He sticks to his post, stays on the job and puts duty before personal interests. When Congress adjourns, he will answer his accusers to your complete satisfaction. No time and no where has he ever opposed honest labor or lawful unions. His uncompromising fight has been against the deadly enemies of honest labor, anarchy, disloyalty, brigandage, inefficiency and the attempt of destructive radicals to throttle Congress and overthrow our Government. Statistics show that during 1919 unlawful strikes caused a loss of $725,000,000 in wages, and $1,250,000,000 in our production, and that railroad employees alone paid to their Unions last year the enormous sum of $27,000,000, maintaining their leaders and agitators here in luxury. And the farmers and unorganized masses bear the burden. Congressman Blanton is known from Seattle to Florida. His efforts to protect this Government, and save it from domestic enemies, to stop graft, waste and extravagance, to abolish useless Departments and clean them up, has given him a National reputation. His work is admired and appreciated by every posted, unbiased citizen in the United States.

There are seven Congressmen who belong to labor unions. When Congressman Blanton has refused to wear a yoke, and obey orders from Mr. Gompers; when he has forced Members to stay in Washington and attend to business; when he has prevented them from passing scores of private bills involving more than a hundred million dollars; when he has tried to reduce their mileage to actual expenses; when he has tried to abolish the practice of giving to every Member each year a Cedar chest, a pine chest and an oak chest at Government expense, when he has blocked all efforts to raise the Members' salary from $7,500 to $10,000; when he has denounced the frequent and expensive junketing trips and tried to abolish them; when he has blocked at every turn the annual $300,000 garden seed graft; when he tried to pass his measure forbidding Members and Senators from appointing their relatives to office; and when by points of order, sustained by the Chairman, he has knocked out of appropriation bills over $100,000,000 saved for the people, is it any wonder that some side-jobs and under-cuts have been made at him from the floor? But radical leaders have sworn to defeat him. Samuel Gompers, the American Federation of Labor, the 168 Locals of Federal Employees, the I. W. O., the Communists, the Socialists, and the pernicious Plumb Plan League, concertedly put Blanton at the head of their "black-list," and have sworn to defeat him regardless of cost. They publish in New York and San Francisco that they will go to any extreme to put him out of Congress. This is general knowledge over the United States. They have launched three new campaign publications here in Washington to deal out weekly attacks. They boast here they will spend $100,000 to defeat him. The editor of the TIMES in Abilene asserted editorially that he was told by a Union member that they would spend $200,000 or defeat Blanton. Unions paid for a whole page attack against him in the ABILENE REPORTER, owned by non-residents, publishes vicious articles and editorials, has printed circulars and in its envelopes has paid postage and necessary clerical hire to mail same over the district. Since its initial issue a few months ago, the so-called OLDEN ADVANCE, edited by Don H. Biggers from Eastland, but neither published in the town of Olden, or even in Eastland County, but elsewhere, has filled its columns each week with vicious attacks. May 15, 1920, it devoted its entire front page of 6 full columns, and practically all of its 2nd, 3rd and 6th pages to misrepresentation and abuse. On May 6, Biggers wrote certain editors for rates, asserting that before the Primary he was going to cover the district either with political supplements, 6-columns, 2 or 4 pages, inserted in all the newspapers, or else by printed circles. Who is paying for it? Is Mr. Biggers able and willing thus to spend his own money? Possibly so, but the following letter would not so indicate: CLYDE GROWERS' ASSOCIATION. Chiles, Tex., May 7, 1920. Hon. Thomas L. Blanton, D. C. Dear Friends: I wish to advise you that Mr. Don H. Biggers, previously of Lubbock, Tex., has been owing the Clyde Growers' Association $62.75 since 1917. The present manager, Mr. O. S. Maggart, and the previous manager, Mr. Carl C. Grubb, have repeatedly asked him by letter to settle, and he ignores their requests. The farmers who compose the association have shared in the loss. We still consider "our Congressman" honorable. Yours, R. O. CARNES.

Is Mr. Grisham paying for this advertising? If so, he should explain why in the case of Jantill vs. Grisham, now pending in the Appellate Court at Fort Worth, Mr. W. A. Tunstall claims that Candidate Grisham and his partner owe him $80,000 which by contract they agreed to pay him out of $240,000 he caused them to make on some oil business. Ask Judge Harry Tom King, of Abilene, what he knows about this case. How else are Unions spending their boasted $100,000 slush fund, if they are not paying for this Biggers and Sweetwater advertising? Illustrating how ridiculous some of Biggers' charges are, he asserted that Uncle Joe Cannon was to restrain Blanton to prevent his attacking Congressman Knutson whom he asserted was a small man about 50 years old. Mr. Knutson is a young, unmarried man, fully as large as Blanton, who has a letter from Uncle Joe Cannon stating that said newspaper concocted had no foundation whatever, as he never held, or restrained, or even spoke to Blanton relative to any disagreement with Mr. Knutson.

The American Federation of Labor recently sent to every daily paper in the U. S. a carefully prepared attack, falsely charging that New England was furnishing Blanton's campaign expenses. Herebefore in every campaign Congressman Blanton has refused to accept proffered contributions and has paid all of his campaign expenses himself. Various admirers who have daily read the Congressional Record and become familiar with his work here, have written deploring the fact that radical organizations are sending money to Blanton's district in an effort to defeat him, requesting that his campaign manager notify them when commencing his campaign, as they would deem it a privilege to contribute, in recognition of his efforts of national benefit.

To answer the false accusations of his enemies, and to let his people see his actual record here, I propose having reprints made of the permanent Record for distribution. When I advised that this would cost $1,054.36 merely to print same, he said he could not afford it. Ten years ago he was worth $25,000. Today if he sold everything he possesses he couldn't raise $3,000 in cash. Since war began he has used most of his salary in his private investigations to clean up Departments, in fighting anarchy, and in donating to the needs of others. Under the circumstances, I insisted upon writing to his friends who had asked that such be done and who wanted to contribute, and as campaign manager wrote them. They were men in every walk of life, one a member of a union for 30 years, and lived in El Paso, Houston, Galveston, Lufkin, Beaumont, Ft. Worth and San Antonio, Texas; Lebanon, Tenn.; Opelousa, La.; Tampa, Florida; Memphis, Tenn.; Macon, Ga.; Charleston, S. Car.; Richmond, Va.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Louisville, Ky.; Lynchburg, Va.; St. Louis, Mo.; Carrollton, Ky.; Chicago, Ill.; Portland, Oregon; Boston, Mass.; Kettle Island, Ky.; Talloma, Tenn.; Waterloo, Iowa, etc. Congressman Blanton absolutely required that I accept no contribution from a corporation, and I did not. His entire campaign will not cost over $2,000. I will gladly exhibit to anyone interested the campaign ledger showing all campaign receipts, the amount, name and address of each person contributing, and all disbursements.

Someone burglarized Congressman Blanton's office one night, rifled his desk and files, extracted certain copies including the letter to Boston, which the American Federation of Labor later published, falsely stating that New England was furnishing the campaign expenses. The Superintendent of the Building found that an elevator operator possessed a master key to my office, and discharged him.

The Dallas News, August 23, 1919, page 1, reports the successful fight made by Congressman Blanton in preventing cotton from being placed in the Food Control Act, his point of order being sustained, thus saving every cotton farmer from ruin, as otherwise the price of cotton would have been fixed at a low price. For months he has been working on a plan to bring the New England and Foreign Spinners and the Southern Cotton Farmers together, so that they may no longer be fleeced by Wall Street gamblers, thus stopping all speculative profits. Then Spinners would pay to the producing farmers for their cotton its real worth, putting gamblers out of business. In accepting invitations to address the business men of Boston, Providence, Fall River and New York, he has been moved by this motive in furthering his plan. In trying to embarrass Congress Blanton and prejudice his Collier against him, Biggers has mailed his paper each week to certain Members, and has written personal letters to our Democratic leaders, Champ Clark, Claude Kitchin, Crisp, of Ga., and to big Republican leaders like Jim Good, Joe Walsh, John Tilson and Uncle Joe Cannon, endeavoring to get them to say that Blanton's work has not been valuable to the country, and Biggers can not produce a single line from a single one of them against Blanton. On May 3, Mr. Crisp wrote Biggers as follows:

"While Mr. Blanton and I have differed many times on questions of legislation, I consider him honest, able, industrious and conscientious Representative. His fight for economy in public expenditures, in my judgment, has been of real and substantial benefit to the country. Biggers received a similar reply from another one of the above. The following resolution was unanimously adopted May 4, 1920, by the Democratic Convention of Mills County, Texas, to-wit:

"WHEREAS, an unjust and unwarranted attack has been made on Hon. Thomas L. Blanton, our Representative in Congress, by a certain citizen of Eastland County, Texas, and

"WHEREAS, the said Hon. Thomas L. Blanton is making our district a competent, brave and efficient Representative;

"THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the conduct of the said Eastland County citizen be and is hereby condemned as unwarranted and surprising at just how much our Representative has accomplished. His labors and efforts of our Representative, Hon. Thomas L.

Gompers has just forced the term "National Emergency" to be stricken out of the armory bill, because it permitted the National Guard to be called out when strikes menace the safety of a State. Congressman Blanton has fought for all of the people. Shall the United States or Mr. Gompers' Union be paramount? I am now having reprints of the Record made, which I hope to distribute by the latter part of June. The envelope will be entitled "LET THE RECORD SPEAK." Look for it, read it carefully, see that your neighbor reads it and preserve it. I hope that every man and woman in the district will read it. You will be surprised at just how much your Representative has accomplished. His people will never realize just how much work night and day he has done to better conditions. Should Congress recess or adjourn, he will report to you personally, and answer all criticisms to your entire satisfaction.

Sincerely yours, WILLIAM W. BLANTON, Campaign Manager. (Advertisement.)

AS A WOMAN THINKS

By Edith E. Moriarty. The Very Particular Woman went shopping the other day. She wanted a pair of shoes like the ones she had on. They were not beautiful shoes, but their broad toes, low heels and soft leather all hinted strongly of comfort and service. At each store she was greeted with these words: "Sorry, madam, we haven't that style in just now. You see, they are not wearing them any more." She was beginning to lose hope when she arrived at the last shoe store on her list. It was a fashionable, exclusive shop and the clerk who approached her was so conscious of the expensive and costly surroundings that she was patronizing. Yes, she thought they had shoes like that, but she had something else she was sure the madam would like much better. These new French shoes, for instance, had a very comfortable round toe and then "they" were wearing more high heels this season. Of course, she would show the others, but she was sure she would not care for them and "they" were not wearing them at all this season. The Very Particular Woman was at the end of her patience and in a most austere and haughty voice, she said to the clerk: "Young woman, I am 'they.' If you have a pair of shoes I want which will fit me, I shall take them." The astonished clerk brought forth the shoes and the woman departed with her unfashionable purchase. It is so foolish to let what the mysterious "they" are buying, wearing, or doing, keep you from buying or wearing or doing what you please. What a lot of time and money and worry could be saved if we all remembered the words of the Very Particular Woman, "I am 'they.'" Try it the next time you want to make a lamp shade out of a pretty piece of cheap silk and the clerk tells you "they" are using three-dollar georgette for lamp shades this year.

10,000 to 50,000 OUT of State Men Needed to Harvest Kansas Wheat

Associated Press. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 3.—Kansas City is the clearing house through which tens of thousands of farm laborers will pass during the next two months on their way to harvest the wheat of Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa.

Estimates are now being prepared on replies to questionnaires sent to wheat growers by the United States employment bureau here. This is part of the federal department of labor, working in conjunction with the employment bureau maintained by the states in the wheat growing belt.

The United States employment service sends out frequent bulletins to its bureaus in all parts of the United States carrying news of how many men are needed to harvest wheat, in what localities they are needed and the approximate dates when wheat cutting may be expected to begin in each of those localities. In addition it replies to thousands of letters of inquiry each month.

Knowledge of the number of men needed in each locality at a given time is obtained from county farm agents. The county agents send in their reports either by telegraph or telephone and the employment bureau, state and federal, endeavor to supply the requisite number of men for the wheat cutting, at the time they are needed.

Kansas will require 30,000 to 50,000 men from outside the state to help harvest its winter wheat crop this season, according to the most recent estimates made by J. M. Gilman, superintendent of the state's free employment service.

The minimum wage of 70c an hour, with board and lodging, Mr. Gilman says, applies only to that portion of the Kansas wheat belt west of the western boundary of Sumner county, Kansas, the western two-thirds of the state. In Kansas, east of that line, there is a larger population and a third less heavy production of wheat in proportion to the population. Wages east on the line he says will be around $5 a day with board and lodging.

The Kansas state service has established offices at Kansas City, Kan., Topeka, Parsons, Hutchinson, Wichita, Salina, Dodge City, Liberal and Goodland.

FAMOUS EATING HOUSE QUITS: FOOD PRICES ARE TOO HIGH

Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—"Maylies," the famous men's eating house known to tourists, gourmands and bon vivants almost all over the world, has closed. Food prices became so high the management said there was little or no profit in the meals. The cocktails and cigars became unprofitable and "Maylies" reluctantly closed its shutters.

Shut away in an obscure part of Perdreaux street "Maylies" catered for 42 years to late breakfasters and early dinner guests. Only two meals were served and no one was admitted five minutes after a meal had started. Reservations were necessary in advance. Famous personages from nearly every country in Europe as well as North and South America have dined there.

The restaurant was strictly for men. Only one woman was successful in reaching the inner shrine. Ruth Law, the aviator, in uniform was able to secure a seat at the table but after the meal was well started she was recognized. Diners begged that she be allowed to remain and the rules were set aside for once.

PILOT HOUSE OF STEAMER TIOGA HAS BEEN SALVAGED

Associated Press. CALUMET, Mich., June 3.—The pilot house of the steamer Tioga, wrecked on Smooth reef near Eagle River last fall, has been salvaged and converted into a candy shop at Eagle River, county seat of Keweenaw county.

Vic Hakamies, the proprietor, found the house adrift, pulled it ashore and utilized its possibilities as a land structure. No attempt has yet been made to salvage the cargo of wheat in the Tioga. It is claimed by many that the wheat is still sound and good, so preserved by the icy cold water of Lake Superior, and that it could be taken out and dried.

EVERYONE WANTS TO MAKE SUITCASE OF ALLIGATOR

Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—Because everyone seems to want to make a suitcase of him, the alligator is becoming comparatively scarce in Louisiana and protective measures are being framed by the conservation commission.

Statistics compiled by port authorities here show that practically all of alligator skins exported from the United States go through this port. The concern alone is exporting an average of 10,000 hides each month all through the year.

Mrs. Frederick V. Stott.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 3.—Sometimes it happens in real life.

Four years ago Frederick V. Stott, New Yorker, who had cast his lot with the Royal Flying corps of the British army, was sent to a sanatorium at Battle Creek, Mich., to recuperate from wounds received overseas.

To the sanatorium came Miss Arline Buckley, Memphis, Tenn., just arrived at the dignity of 16 years and with all the romantic notions of her age in her pretty head.

The convalescent soldier, with his pathetic need for companionship, embodied all Arline's ideas of romance. If she began to be interested, then she kept her secret to herself, for she knew her soldier thought of her merely as a "nice little girl."

The separation came soon, and Stott went west to recover his health, while Arline returned to Memphis, where under the guardianship of her mother, Mrs. Joseph A. Buckley, prominent society woman of that city, she entered on the gayeties of her first season.

Yet even amid the debutante's whirl of parties and excitement, she thought occasionally of her aviator and he, too, wondered sometimes what had become of his little companion.

The marriage of Arline Buckley to Will Smiddy, wealthy—and elderly—brewer of Milwaukee and a power in politics was the sensation of the south for weeks.

The death of Smiddy in a duel following on a political argument three months later again put Arline in the limelight. Smiddy is said to have been killed at the same moment that the bullet from his revolver took the life of United States Marshal O. R. Webster.

Stott meanwhile had been married in Nebraska and in June of 1918 divorced.

Widowed at 19 and possessor of a fortune said to be near $500,000, Arline withdrew from society and spent her time in travel.

A few weeks ago she came to Milwaukee to visit her sister and downtown one day she met the aviator. She was so glad to see him that she wondered if that episode at Battle Creek had not something more than a girlish "crush."

As for Stott, it took him about 10 days to propose to the grownup version of the "nice little girl."

On the afternoon of April 27 he called Arline up. The hurried conversation was about "license," "five minutes" and "special dispensation."

To make a long story short, the beautiful Arline is no longer a widow, and Mr. and Mrs. Stott have just returned to Milwaukee from their honeymoon.

O'Neill assigning him to command of the student officers for their six weeks course starting June 17.

WASHOUT THAT POSTPONED LEGISLATURE NOT RESTORED.

Associated Press. PIERRE, S. D., June 3.—Railroad transportation is only now being generally restored in the washout that caused postponement of the South Dakota legislature last month. The special session had been set for May 24 and when a big section of the state was cut off from the capital had to be moved up to June 21.

Fifteen miles of one railroad near the capital was washed away, but the worst conditions were reported from the Black Hills along the Cheyenne river. Many ranches along this stream are said to have been carried away.

WISCONSIN BAPTISTS TO MEET IN TOWN OF LESS THAN 200

Associated Press. MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 3.—The Wisconsin Bankers Association will hold its annual convention this month in a town of less than 200 inhabitants. This is in keeping its "back to the soil policy." The place is the village of North Lake.

FIRST DIVINE SERVICE WITH MOVING PICTURES

Associated Press. BERLIN, June 3.—The first divine service with moving pictures in a German church has just taken place at the Zwingli church here. Pictures of the "Passion" were shown on the screen and music by Bach was rendered by the church choir.

The Baroness Orczy, author of "The Scarlet Pimpernel" and other popular novels, was a successful painter and an exhibitor at the Royal Academy before she took up the writing of fiction.

Rich, Exiled, Sick, Ex-Turkish Minister Has No Place to Go

Associated Press. GENEVA, Switzerland.—In one of the most luxurious hotels in Lausanne is now living the Turkish multi-millionaire, named General Ahmed Djemal Pasha, former Turkish minister under the Young Turk regime at Constantinople, and former commander of the fourth Turkish army in Syria.

He is the first upon the black list of the Arabian government for extradition and punishment, being accused, says the Tribune De Geneve, of the deaths of 7000 Arabian, Syrian and Armenian families, whom he is alleged to have ordered to be massacred or deported into the desert, where they died of hunger and thirst, in the war. He has been sentenced to death after a hearing in Turkey.

Djemal Pasha, who called himself the "Hero of Islam," admits, according to the newspaper, that he was "only indirectly responsible for about 200 deaths of heretics."

By tyranny, it is charged, he obtained his vast wealth in Turkish gold, always refusing bank notes. Once a week his wife or one of the members of his family traveled to Constantinople from Djemal's headquarters in Syria under military escort with small boxes of gold, which were forwarded subsequently to Switzerland and Holland.

It was Djemal and Djavid Pasha who were in Paris in July, 1914, and, foreseeing the war, bought the German warships, Goeben and Breslau, for their government by orders from Constantinople.

Djemal, who has only a temporary permission to sojourn in Switzerland, was recently requested by the Swiss government to leave the country, but he managed to procure a medical certificate providing that traveling would be prejudicial to his health and remains at Lausanne.

The Tribune demands his expulsion from Switzerland with several of his satellites. Djemal, however, cannot return to Turkey as the death sentence awaits him there.

This Djemal Pasha should not be mistaken for another Turkish leader of similar name and title who recently was appointed a minister of the new Turkish cabinet.

POISON HAVING VAILED, PINK BOLL WORM WILL BE STEWED

Associated Press. NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—The pink boll worm, more destructive to cotton than the "boll weevil" is to be stewed.

Poisoning has failed to kill the pest but it is expected that steaming will do the job and make it possible for oil mills to handle seed from infected territory.

The decision was the outcome of a conference here between superintendents of cotton seed mills in Louisiana and other places where seed has been purchased from areas known to be infected with the worm.

FAMOUS COLLAR PRESENTED SCANDINAVIAN GOVERNMENT

Associated Press. VIENNA, June 3.—The general's collar worn by Gustavus Adolphus, King of Sweden, when he was killed at the battle of Lutzen in 1632, has been presented to the Scandinavian government by the state in recognition of charity to Austria.

The insignia was taken from his body by soldiers of the Austrian guard and has been in the military museum here.

WAVE OF SPIRITUALISTIC SEANCES SWEEPING RUMANIA

Associated Press. BUCHAREST, June 3.—A wave of spiritualistic seances is sweeping over Rumania and some of the mediums claim to have received extraordinary "messages."

One reported that an attempt to communicate with the spirit of Julius Caesar had failed because he was "commanding and governing in Mars and therefore out of reach."

Motor spirits from the flowers of the Indian mowra tree is the latest proposed expedient to meet the shortage of gasoline. That the spirit can be produced on a scale sufficiently big to encourage its manufacture is said to have been proved by experiment, one ton of dried leaves yielding 90 gallons of 95 per cent alcohol.

The British government has awarded more than a quarter of a million honors for services rendered during the war.

SMALL GROUP OF WOMEN TO CONTROL DESTINIES OF 2,000,000 OF THEIR SEX ENROLLED IN NATIONAL LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

A small group of women under the eye of one general manager, not yet chosen, will control the destinies of the two million or more members of their sex who have joined the National League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization. Among those who have been appointed are Mrs. F. Louis Slade, of New York and Mrs. George Gellhorn, of Missouri. Mrs. Maud Wood Park is at the head of the central government of the league, with headquarters in Washington. Mrs. Patty Jacobs, of Alabama is secretary of the organization and Mrs. Richard Edwards, of Indiana is treasurer.

IDENTIFIED WITH G. O. P. POLITICS IN SIX CAMPAIGNS

Associated Press. CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—Samuel A. Perkins, of Tacoma, republican national committeeman from Washington, who was re-elected committeeman, and has served ever since.

Mr. Perkins is withdrawing from politics to devote all his time to his business interests, which include five daily newspapers at Everett, Bellingham and Olympia, Wash. He formerly owned two other papers at Tacoma.

During the performance in a London motion picture house recently a man in the audience attempted suicide by shooting himself. At once the film was stopped and a request thrown upon the screen for a physician. The answer was immediate, the wounded man was given medical attention and eventually he recovered.

SCOUTS GOING GOOD, WIN FROM EASTLAND, 5 TO 3

F. Johnson Pitched Gilt-Edge Ball, Holding Opponents to Five Hits.

The Scouts just simply played good ball yesterday afternoon, and with F. Johnson going good in the box, trimmed the Eastland team on the Judges' first visit to Harrel park, 5 to 3.

Eastland drew the first blood, when Lewis reached first safely, after Harding fouled one on short. The back catch tore off towards the keystones sack and stole the bag. Ross Johnson threw Payne out at first, and Lewis advanced to third on the play. Hahr delivered a hit and sent Lewis across the pan for a goal.

Cisco was going strong, and evened up the count, when Harding opened the third with a double to left, pitcher Johnson hit past third, and Harding came romping home on a nifty single to right by Neely.

The Scouts made two more in the fifth on a pair of errors, a single by F. Johnson, and a double to left by Jack York. The sailing was getting easier for our club, and Eastland's hits were ending far apart.

Standifer walked in the sixth, and scored when Bratcher drove out a long double to right that got past Kestel's tank.

King scored two more for Cisco: one in the sixth and one in the eighth. He stole second on both occasions.

SIGH OF RELIEF FOR L. W. HENLEY WHEN G. O. P. CONVENES

Has Charge of All Arrangements For Big Meeting—His First and Last Experience.

Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—When Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, calls the 13,000 delegates and visitors at the republican national convention to order Tuesday, June 8, L. W. Henley will breathe a sigh of relief.

Mr. Henley, as secretary of the committee on arrangements, has had charge of all the arrangements for the big meeting. He has been on the scene since last February letting contracts for alterations in the coliseum, decorations, printing and the thousand and one other details that go to pave the way for the smooth functioning of the national gathering.

This is Mr. Henley's first experience as organizer of the convention, and he is perfectly willing, he admits, that it be his last.

Mr. Henley, a newspaper man by profession, entered active politics six years ago when he was elected secretary of the Indiana republican convention. The chairman was Will H. Hays, whose home is in a county adjoining that where Henley was managing editor of the Terre Haute "Star."

Mr. Henley served three terms as secretary, and last December was called to Washington by Mr. Hays, now chairman of the national committee. When the convention arrangements committee was organized, with A. T. Hart of Kentucky as chairman, Henley was chosen for secretary and given charge of the committee's headquarters here.

Among Mr. Henley's newspaper exploits was the exposure of the Don Roberson ring at Terre Haute. As a result of the exposure, Roberson, then Mayor of the city, and a large number of his henchmen were sent to Leavenworth penitentiary for vote frauds.

'ART OF LOVE MAKING NOT ON WANE,' SAYS BILLIE, DISPUTING GERALDINE

Billie Burke.

"The art of love making is not on the wane," says Billie Burke, the actress, thereby emphatically disagreeing with Geraldine Farrar. "Love is not a whirling succession of mad 'I-love-yous,' nor of passionate kisses, as Miss Farrar says. It is a gentle tolerance, kindness and deep consideration; a burial of the eternal ego."

BRAZIL IN APPEAL FOR RELIEF FORMER CENTRAL POWERS

Associated Press.
RIO DE JANEIRO, June 3.—The minister of agriculture has sent to the governors of the various states a circular letter requesting that they respond to the appeal of the people of the former "central powers" to the Brazilian people for food supplies. A commission for the relief of Germany and Austria has been organized in this city with representatives in all the states of Brazil.

The Correio Da Manha calls attention to what it terms the humanitarian attitude of the United States in assisting the German and Austrian people without thought of race or politics and adds:

"The philanthropic spirit of the North Americans has opened the way for the rest of free and general America, and Brazil will take a leading part in this humanitarian work."

World War Helps to End Kentucky Feud Many Years' Standing

Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 3.—The war has been instrumental in settling a minor but long continued Kentucky feud.

Many years ago a number of young men from Stanford, Lincoln county, clashed at a dance with a party of young men from Lancaster, Gerard county. A fight ensued and it grew into a feud. It was handed down to successive generations. Lines were so tightly drawn that a young man caught outside the confines of his own county usually was set upon and mauled by the young men from the other county.

Finally came the World War. Young men from both counties entered the training camps and some saw service in the trenches of France. Eventually, the war won, they joined posts of the American Legion, ancient grudges were buried and members of both posts agreed to observe Memorial Day with joint ceremonies.

A judge in one of the suffrage states has decided that a woman cannot serve on the same jury with her husband, for the reason that husband and wife are one and the jury therefore would be composed of but 11 persons.

Economic Students Learning How to Get Meal at Lowest Cost

Associated Press.
AUSTIN, Tex., June 3.—Young women students in the home economics departments of the University of Texas are learning how to cut the cost of feeding a family. At the beginning the prime thing is to get a meal but toward the finish of the course the young woman has also to turn out the finished product cheap.

The university expects its young experts to cut about half off the cost of a lunch by switching deserts and leaving off biscuits. Here is a sample of its before and after college menus:

For 45c a plate for four persons: salmon croquettes, mashed potatoes, iced tea, tomato salad, biscuit, strawberries and ice cream.

For 24c a plate for four persons (toward the end of the course): creamed tuna fish on toast, French fried potatoes, ample and celery salad, hot tea, lemon pie.

GERMAN THEATRES FORCED TO CLOSE ON ACCOUNT TAX

Associated Press.
BERLIN, June 3.—Taxation amounting to something like 55 per cent of gross revenue and heavy running expenses are responsible for the recent closing down of 60 first-class theaters in Germany. Many theatrical and operating companies are said to be in sore financial straits. Few of them can afford to pay for the higher priced seats at the present increased rates, and the moving picture houses, with their popular prices, are reaping the benefit.

The manager of the Reinhardt concern which controls the three most important Berlin theatres states that the latest "luxury" tax alone takes more than 20 per cent of the box office receipts. Boxes and stalls are now rarely booked. The Kapp revolution week, he said, caused the concern a loss of 750,000 marks.

Director Barnowsky of the Lessing theater, the home of the drama in Berlin, told a Tageblatt representative that the German stage is passing through a most critical period. Theatrical budgets, he said, can no longer be balanced. The greatest menace, he said, was "Americanism," by which, he explained, he meant "art for amusement's sake, not for art's sake."

"Bailey's Friend" on Vacation.
"Joe Bailey's friend" has gone on his vacation.

—Yesterday H. P. Winston, expressman with headquarters down by the railroad station, loading his wardrobe and bed aboard his wagon and proceeded to the Harrell Addition, where he will camp out for several weeks.

After the "rush of city life" a man needs a vacation," said Winston as he left orders for a change of address on his newspapers through which he follows the Bailey campaign.

Probably the most remarkable wood worker in the world is a Japanese residing in Tokyo, who has carved a figure in wood so like himself that when the two are placed side by side, it is said to be almost impossible to tell which lives and breathes and which does not. Every line, vein and wrinkle in the features of the living model has been faithfully reproduced. The figure is composed of 2000 pieces of wood dovetailed and jointed with such skill that no seams can be detected.

Students Who Fail Must Pay Tax $5 for Each Shortcoming

BOSTON, June 3.—Massachusetts institute of technology has placed a tax on scholastic failures.

Hereafter students who fail or show a deficiency in a study must pay $5 for each shortcoming. The rule has aroused protest from the undergraduates, and they are supported by some of the faculty.

Leonard M. Passano, professor of mathematics, taking the side of the students, wrote a formal communication to the executive committee in which he argued that professor and student are jointly involved in each failure in their classes, if the rule is to hold.

The imperial war museum to be opened by King George at the Crystal Palace June 7 will contain more than 100,000 exhibits.

GALVESTON GIRL ONE OF FEATURES SHOW AT AIRDOME

The specialty number of Miss Margaret Aubrey was one of the principal features of the Pioneer Girls and Boys performance here last night, a farce comedy "The Runaway Match."

Miss Aubrey, who is a Galveston girl and who has been with the Boh Grove show for six months, is rapidly coming forward and with her sparkling individuality and attractive features, should soon be playing leads.

Coming to the main, the Airdome, where the company has been playing, was abandoned last night and the performance staged at the city hall auditorium under many handicaps. The show was good, clean and clever.

Changes at Judia Will Make It One of Best Theatres In the State

The Judia Theatre will close Monday, June 7, and remain closed for one week, reopening again Sunday, June 13, according to an announcement made by E. J. Lewis, new manager of this popular playhouse. Several changes are to be made to the interior and exterior of the theatre building, including the installation of new seats, a new organ, lighting effects, etc. When reopened, Mr. Lewis states it will be one of the finest theatres in this section of the state.

The program now will be changed and only high-class, first-run pictures will be shown, the opening bill for Monday and Tuesday, June 12 and 13, being "The Yellow Ticket," the latest release of the First National company, and reported to be one of the biggest and best pictures of this season. For the laughs, a Chaplin comedy will be shown. A feature of tonight's show at the Judia will be the orchestra.

PRAYER MEETINGS IN POLICE STATION

Capt. Robert D. Bennett.

Capt. Bennett of the Louisville, Ky., police force has turned his station into a place of worship every Thursday night. He presides over these mid-week prayer meetings himself and gets a different minister to speak each week. "Money used to prevent crime is better invested than money spent to punish lawbreakers," says Captain Bennett.

OFFER FREE BREAD INDICATES BUT FEW POOR PEOPLE HERE

If the result of a recent offer of the Connor Bakery here may be taken as a criterion, Cisco has few, if any, poor people.

Some time ago George Connor, proprietor of the big plant, announced that he would give free bread to the poor and needy of this city. Up to this time Connor says less than a dozen people have taken him up on the proposition. Moreover, few of these asked for free bread and the majority simply wanted him to reduce the price within reach of their purses so that they might have fresh bread instead of the stale loaves they had been accustomed to buying.
