Fashions And Fabrics Have Gone To War

That's exactly what's happening -- and it's wonderful! Because by simplifying fashion you're giving Uncle Sam 100,000,000 yards of fabric for our fighting me n- yet you don't have to sacrifice one whit of your charm, your style or your slender good looks. Because this simplification of fashion means better design, finer workmanship, beautiful detailing - it means clothes that are lastingly lovely. And if some fabrics and colors have gone to war - the substitutes are simply marvelous! Take our word for it, you'll be better dressed than ever this Winter and Spring. You will find no shortage on good taste or quality here.

Here's How You Help Save Fabrics To Win Win The War And Hasten Victory
