CROSS PLAINS MAY BE LIGHTED BY ELECTRICITY.

Parties Figuring on Putting in Good Plant at Star and Furnishing May and our Town Lights.

We have been informed by responsible parties that men with ample capital behind them are figuring on buying the light plant at the Star and making it into a plant of the first class. Before they do this they want to make arrangements to furnish our town and May with light or power, so it is said. We have not talked to many but those that we have talked to are very free to express themselves as being in favor with the proposition. We want lights, we need lights, and lights we will take if we can get them. All progressive men know that a town, even a small town, cannot hope to attract the attention of the world and live without electric lights. We believe that our entire citizenship will do anything reasonable to help light the town, for their own convenience as well as for the good of the town. We say, give us electric lights.

BOND-ODOM

Mr. Parker Bond and Miss Gussie Odom were married at Brownwood on the 29th, Rev. Boggs of the M. E. church of that place officiating. This came as a quiet surprise to their friends, none of whom were apprised of the approaching wedding. The contracting parties are well known here, being of the oldest and most respected families in the country. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bond, who have lived in this vicinity for a score or more of years and is at present employed as bookkeeper for the Cross Plains Mercantile Co. The bride is the daughter of Rev. R. P. Odom, also a pioneer citizen of this county, and is a young lady whose attractive graces have won her many friends.

The young couple are at home now after a honey moon trip to Galveston. Mr. Bond has bought of his brother Roy the house now occupied by C. E. Alvis, and they will occupy the same as soon as Mr. Alvis can find a place to move to.

The Review joins their many friends in wishing for them a prosperous and happy married life.

Takes Charge of Hotel

On the first of the month Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bennett moved to the hotel occupied by J. G. Newton, which they had bought some time ago, and are now running. They propose at an early date to tear away the office, and build one 18 by 24 feet on the north side of the building, and tear away the partition between the dining room and the office. They are good hotel people and with the preparations they are making they will be prepared to take care of a good trade. We bespeak for them a good patronage.

J. R. Willeford and family have returned to their Dressy home after an extended trip to Okla.

Gus Gafford and family and Mrs. Chas. Newton and children are visiting in San Angelo.

Miss Dorris Pyle of Brownwood is visiting her sister Mrs. Newsom.

Prof. Stafford formerly of Eastland has been employed to teach the Cross Cut school. He comes well recommended as a teacher.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ardledge on the 3rd a 11 lb. boy. Mother and baby doing well.

Mrs. Angelina Pentacost, two daughters and a grandson, of Rockwood have been visiting her son W. R. Pentacost.

Homer Henslee and a brother in law Wednesday passed through town Sunday en route to May town.

Paul Harrell, attorney of Brownwood, is the guest of his parents on the ranch. Paul was reared here and has many friends who are glad to know of his success in his profession, and always glad to welcome him back to his old stamping ground.

Hub Harrell has returned to the ranch after a several months stay at Plainview where he was employed in a drug store.

Edgar Prater and mother left Monday for a visit at Goldthwaite.

The Baptist protracted meeting conducted by Rev. Parker of Cross Plains came to a close Tuesday Night.

A Methodist meeting to be conducted by Rev. Wilkins of Pioneer is scheduled to begin here Friday night next.

A Sunday school picnic was scheduled to have been pulled off on Friday, but was put off on account of the approaching meeting.

Uncle Joe Pyle and sons Ernest and Earl of Brownwood are camped out on their place north of town.

Turkey Creek Locals

(Special correspondence)
We have had no rain as yet—and everything is dry.

Clinton Anderson is reported on the sick list at present.

A number of people from here attended the two days' picnic at Cross Plains last week. All report a nice time and a great picnic.

The Misses Bulls of Oeanville who have been visiting their grand parents Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bowen returned home Saturday.

Arthur Coffee and wife and a number of Turkey Creek people went fishing Thursday.

Miss Cordie Miller is visiting at Dressy this week.

Mrs. Tom Holley and children of Jayton and Mrs. B. E. Gibbs of Rowden are visiting Mrs. Anderson this week.

Miss Effie Arvin was the guest of Mrs. Francis Kelley Friday.

John McElroy and family have gone on a trip to south Texas.

Misses Zona and Mary Arvin have gone to El Paso to visit relatives.

Mrs. S. N. Lively took Mr. Lively to Cross Plains Saturday. He and two sisters Mesdames Porter and Davidson left Monday for Llano to visit their mother.

On account of there being so many protracted meetings in progress our last Sunday school was rather dull.

Miss Lola Lively attended the entertainment given by the W O W and circle at Admiral Saturday night. She reports a splendid program and plenty of refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazier and children of Merkel are visiting the former's brother John Frazier and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan spent several days away from home during the illness and death of the little infant of Mr. and Mrs. John Sawyer.

Misses Bill and Blanche Lively are visiting at Dressy and Cross Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Chatham of Admiral spent Sunday at the home of their son Will.

With all good wishes to the Rev. Sunshine.

BALL GAMES GOOD

The home ball team played the Cisco selects three straight games at the picnic and gave them as many wallpings, the games resulting 7-3, 7-1, and 11-1. Jeff Clark caught the three games, while Stewart, Benedict of Brownwood and Jim Strickland of Burkett pitched, all doing fine work. All three of the games were well attended.

Revival Meeting Notice

Revival Meeting at the Presbyterian church begins 2nd Sunday in August. A large Gospel tent will be used.

Rev. W. E. Harrison, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Abilene will do the preaching. A lot of new song books have just been procured. The hearty co-operation of everybody is earnestly solicited. Come, help us with your prayers, songs and earnest endeavor to help to bring the lost to Christ.

Very Cordially yours,
Geo. A. Crane,
Pastor.

If you are thinking of ordering a bill of furniture make out your order bring it in and buy here at the same price where you see what you buy. We are selling this way every day. Cross Plains Furniture Store.

Breaks Arm

C. S. Boyles Sunday fell to the misfortune of getting his right arm broken in attempting to crank his auto. He says he doesn't know how or why he got so much in the way of the machine or it in his way. He is doing very well.

Revival Meeting

The Baptist Revival is to begin the 4th Sunday in August. An announcement will be made later as to who will assist the pastor.

J. M. Parker, Pastor.

C. E. Alvis and wife left Sunday for Winsboro from which place Mr. Alvis will go to market to St. Louis. He will return in about three weeks.

Miss Sammie Dickey and brother Chauncey of Weatherford, and Miss Boydston sister to Eldon, of Baird visited Eldon Boydston and wife this week.

Sam Barr, DoId Price and A. G. Foster went Tuesday to Abilene to et Sam's car.

THE BIG PICNIC

The most widely attended and from every point of view the most successful picnic ever pulled off at Cross Plains was that held on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. People began coming in on Tuesday preceding and continued thereafter during the picnic. Entire families came to visit their relatives, children who had left their parental shelter for other fields returned as for a "home week" to mix and mingle with their relatives and friends. The young people and the more aged came in goodly numbers from the neighboring towns of Risin, Star, Putnam and Baird, while from the smaller nearby country towns almost the entire population turned out.

Then for your amusement and comfort and incidentally to gather in your shekels there was provided neatly every kind of attraction that's ever found at a picnic even in the larger towns. In fact, Cross Plains had attractions it was never her good fortune before to have. There were novelty stands, juice stands from which were vended Dr.—s? celebrated health drinks, general stands that kept speelers busy telling of the virtues of their pink lemonade, African dips, doll and cat racks, vaudeville and moving picture shows, a ferris wheel that carried one to the sky, an ocean wave that gave one the pleasure of being seasick without the expense of going to sea, and the ever popular carry-us-all, but this is the most elaborate, best finished machine on the market.

It was a good picnic and everybody seemed to enjoy it in good fashion. Plenty to eat, plenty to drink, and plenty to spend your money for. Not least among the factors that went to make this picnic a success, we will mention the park where it was held. This park beautiful probably had more to do in the making of the picnic pleasant than anything else. It was the admiration of all visitors. Numbers were free to remark that it was the most beautiful place they knew of to hold a picnic in.

If by any chance you were not there, we will say that you had better begin early to attend the next annual picnic.

Mark Strickland left for a few days visit to Rotan.

TURNIP SEED

Just received shipment of Pure Purple Top White Globe and Purple Top Strap Leaf Turnip Seed.

The Racket Store.

We are requested to announce that Rev. Parker will preach at the Baptist church Sunday at 11. There will be no services Sunday night on account of revival meetings.

Cy Davis is at work on the main line as express messenger being relieved here by Guy Higginbotham.

Misses Vivian and Ruby Rutherford of Scranton are visiting their brother Clint.

Joe Lindquist left for California the first of the week.

J. W. Furgeson and wife of Alpine and T. H. Armstrong of Okla. are the guests of their brother in law W. A. Albin. Mr. Arms says that crops in his parts are good.

Eastland, Texas, July 26, '13

Editor Review:

We think it justly due the readers of the Review to chronicle the events incident to our little trip to the Confederate Reunion at Eastland. Accompanied by our old friend J. R. Haley we reached Eastland Friday at 11 a. m. and immediately repaired to the residence of Dr. J. L. Johnson where we were cordially received by him and his noble lady and were heartily assured of our welcome and warmly admonished to make ourselves comfortable. And we will mention right here, that we were in the confederate army which obviates the necessity of a further explanation along this line.

There was a vast crowd on the grounds Friday and the exercises of the day consisted in war experiences, speeches from the veterans, and others. Also recitations from young ladies and girls of Eastland. We can not pass from this thought without making special mention of little Miss Verna Johnson daughter of Dr. J. L. Johnson who rendered a recitation (Fighting Joe Wheeler) in a very pleasant and appropriate manner. Saturday morning, ere old Sol had peeped above the eastern horizon every road coming into Eastland was thronged with vehicles of every variety heavily laden with people from every point of the compass en route to the reunion grounds and by noon the crowd was estimated at from five to seven thousand people, one mass of surging seething humanity.

Pink lemonade, water melons, shows, Ferris wheel, ocean wave, and merry-go-round were very much in evidence both days. The exercises of a free character were closed each day with a balloon ascension and a trapeze performance in mid air a thousand feet above the earth's surface. Good feeling, brotherly love, and plenty to eat and drink prevailed on every hand and a cordial welcome awaited every visitor there. We will close this article by saying that the citizenship of Eastland is composed of a great big hearted people who vie with each other in trying to entertain the old veterans who assemble within her gates each year to perpetuate their constancy to the lost cause. I would like to eulogize the good women of Eastland but our ability to do justice to the subject forbids, but will say they are a collection of beautiful, generous, soul cheering women.

Now grant us a little space to mention our much loved friend Levi Ladd, as brave a soldier as ever robbed a hen roost or stole a pig and as true a cow-puncher as ever wore spurs or shot up a town. We honestly hope he will live a thousand years to scatter sunshine and pleasure among his comrades and friends. Now were we to close this article and say nothing of the soul inspiring words of an elaborate address by Miss Mattie Gatewood Ennis, would be doing herself, the people and myself an injustice. Old veterans who had on numberless occasions faced death in every form, broke down and sobbed, and their tears were too much for her emotions and she too broke down and wept, and for a while it looked like a love feast was inevitable.

Queer Fellow.

Ambitious Sons and Daughters.

Let those who know advise you about attending the Tyler Commercial College, Men at the head of the affairs of our State and Nation.

Following are extracts from recent letters from some of America's greatest men on the value of business education. Hon. Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. says: "Since I have been elected Speaker I have had it more thoroughly impressed on me than ever before that a thorough business college training is of exceeding importance." O. M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War, Washington, D. C. "Contemporaneously with taking my general education, I took a course in a business college and found it of value to me, not only generally, but in the practice of law." R. B. Glenn, ex-Governor of North Carolina: "I cheerfully recommend to everyone a practical business education for their children." Oswald West, ex-Governor of Oregon: "The modern business school plays a large part in fitting young men and women for their entrance into the business world." T. C. Pickett, Representative from Iowa: "The value—even necessity of a practical education to young people today is obvious that no argument should be required in support of it." E. F. Nole, ex-Governor of Mississippi: "I take pleasure in testifying to the importance of a practical business education, to the efficiency of a properly conducted business school in imparting such knowledge."

B. N. Haskell, ex-Governor of Oklahoma: "I consider practical business education of the greatest importance." John W. Kern, United States Senator: "Everybody ought by this time to understand that business men and business women need business education on the same principle that a doctor must have a medical education." Joseph M. Carey, Governor of Wyoming: "Too much cannot be said in behalf of a good commercial education."

"I do not believe that such an education can be too highly commended." Shouldn't the above evidence settle the question with you as to what kind of an education is needed? Write for catalogue of America's largest commercial school, the one giving the most extensive course of study, the one placing every graduate of bookkeeping and shorthand or telegraphy in a good position promptly after their course is finished, the one that enrolls 1500 students annually from over half the states of the Union, the school with a National reputation, the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

Almost Epigrammatic.

This overheard conversation appeals to the weary one as nearly epigrammatic. The young people on the seat ahead of us in the homeward bound car the other night talked it out so loud that we couldn't help hearing it and jotting down a few notes on it. "So," said the girl, "he said he knew me when I was a little girl?" "He didn't say anything of the sort," contradicted the man. "You said he did." "I didn't." "Why, then what did you say?" "I said he said he knew you when he was a boy."

That put such a wet blanket on the conversation that we were able to read our sporting extra uninterrupted for the next several blocks.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Bits From Shakespeare.

Users of everyday catchwords are constantly quoting that ubiquitous person Shakespeare. "Dead as a door-nail," "long and short of it," "getting even," "tag-rag," "birds of a feather," "that's flat," "mum," "sneerow," "solid," "milkop," "loggerhead," "bag and baggage," "a mere song," "dancing attendance," "send him packing," "kill with kindness," "give and take," "an eyesore," "to boot" and "the man in the moon" are all his.

Impertinence.

"I was born on the 29th of February." "Remarkable!" "Yes. There are few men who have that distinction." "Very true. Have you ever done anything else unusual?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cynical.

The old fashioned woman who used to get up at 5 a. m. to celebrate wash day now has a daughter who has an awful time getting the stuff together in time to give it to the laundry driver when he calls at 2 p. m.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Didn't Know Horse Talk.

"Wanted, a man who can speak French and who understands horses," reads an advertisement. One of the applicants wrote, "Oh, yes, I can speak ze Francois, but I know not what 'langue' ze 'orses speak."—London Standard.

Talk of Money.

It is true that money talks, but its vocabulary is limited to "goodby" and one or two other phrases.—Philadelphia Ledger.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

By A. W. MACY.

THE FATHER OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

There was one man connected with the American Revolution whose memory does not receive the attention it deserves. His name is Samuel Adams. He did more to bring on the war than any other man. The thirteen colonies were widely separated. There was no concerted action, and they often worked at cross-purposes. Adams developed a system of correspondence among them, which resulted in uniting them in opposition to the tyrannies of the mother country. For twelve years, from 1764 to 1776, he kept up an unceasing agitation. He literally threw himself, body and soul, into the work of arousing the colonies. He was not a great man perhaps, but he did a great work nevertheless. He was not eloquent, but he was persistent. His mission was to put others to work, and in this he was wonderfully successful. He had a discerning eye for young men of ability, and many who became leaders in the Revolution were "discovered" and set to work by him. He has been called "the father of the Revolution," and why not? As one of his biographers says, Massachusetts led the colonies, Boston led Massachusetts, and Sam Adams led Boston. Bernard, the English governor of Massachusetts colony, used to say: "Damn that Adams. Every dip of his pen stings like a horned snake."

11,000 Demonstration Farms in 215 Counties In Texas Industrial Congress Contest

From 1,746 students of better farming in 161 counties of the State in 1911, the Texas Industrial Congress has steadily increased this number to 10,869 in 215 counties in 1912. Unique among associations for agricultural development, the Congress, by offering $10,000 in gold annually for the best yields of specific crops, cost of production considered, has in a little more than two years awakened among the farmers of Texas enthusiastic interest in scientific cultural methods, improved seed selection, better preparation of the soil and the conservation of its fertility through crop rotation and diversification.

Every dot on the above map represents a demonstration farm cultivated in corn, cotton, cowpeas, kafir or milo, in accordance with the advice and suggestions of the Congress. This information is furnished by bulletins at frequent intervals and also by personal letters. The stars indicate those counties in which prizes were won in the contests of 1911 and 1912. Among the 215 counties represented, Bexar County, which in 1911 had but seven contestants and in 1912 but nine, leads the State with 505 entries. Ellis County is second, having 381 contestants; Funt County, with 339, is third and Kaufman, Cooke, Navarro, Tarrant, Dallas, Rockwall, Hill and Rusk Counties rank next in the order named.

The counties represented in this year's contest and the number of entries in each are as follows: Anderson, 69; Andrews, 1; Angell, 17; Archer, 3; Armstrong, 7; Austin, 25; Bailey, 1; Bandera, 1; Bastrop, 19; Baylor, 33; Bee, 8; Bell, 23; Bexar, 505; Blanco, 2; Borden, 2; Bosque, 21; Bowie, 8; Brazoria, 51; Brazos, 24; Brisco, 2; Brown, 29; Burleson, 40; Caldwell, 37; Calhoun, 5; Callahan, 90; Cameron, 41; Camp, 19; Carson, 1; Cass, 73; Castro, 1; Chambers, 25; Cherokee, 80; Childress, 2; Clay, 50; Coke, 17; Coleman, 67; Collin, 172; Collingsworth, 6; Colorado, 37; Comal, 43; Comanche, 89; Concho, 5; Cooke, 318; Coryell, 15; Cottle, 2; Crosby, 10; Culberson, 1; Dallam, 7; Dallas, 252; Dawson, 6; Delta, 27; Denton, 164; DeWitt, 14; Dickens, 12; Dimmitt, 3; Donley, 23; Duval, 2; Eastland, 168; Estero, 12;

A Caddo Peak Eruption

Everybody went to the picnic and had a jolly good time and returned home happy regardless of four coats of Cross Plains real estate. Things are needing rain very much up in this part of the sap oaks. Everybody is visiting their wives' kinfolk. If I ever be so unfortunate as to let some subtle little Miss entice me into matrimony I hope it will be winter so I will escape all that visiting which accompanies such in summer.

Mrs. White and two sons, Tom and Perry of Jonesboro visited Curt Oglesby and family the first of the week. Mrs. White is the mother of Mrs. Oglesby.

S. G. Robinson and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Payne, at Baird the first of the week.

C. C. Hoover and family of Abilene visited relatives here last week leaving for their home Sunday. Hoover is the son of Mrs. S. R. Hoover, and his wife is the sister of C. C. McQueen.

H. L. Breeding and family are visiting relatives in Ellis County.

Mrs. Nora Brown and two children of Waldrip are visiting S. A. Moore and family.

W. T. Wilson and family of Dressy visited Lane Steele and wife Monday. I think the chief object of their visit was watermelon and black eye peas.

Mrs. Betty Sims and daughter of Whon visited her sister Mrs. S. R. Hoover last week.

Prof. Frank McGee visited his uncle C. B. McGee this week.

Mrs. Mary Holland of Llano county is visiting at the home of her sister M. G. Moore. Mrs. Holland is affected with asthma and she thinks the change of country for a while will help her.

I had the pleasure of meeting Rambler of Burkett and his Hon. colleague at the picnic. We arranged for a debate to be held at Cross Plains the fourth Friday night in this month. Watch the Review for particulars.

Rev. McCord of Cross Plains will preach at the school house next Sunday 11 a. m.

We notice that something has suddenly sprung up at Kid Peak and has taken upon him (or her) self the sobriquet of Wild West. Say, Hon. Wild West, you cannot make us believe that that place is wild enough to afford a wild west, 'cause there is nothing there to be wild, but nevertheless we are glad to welcome you with us as long as you don't take a name that sounds anything like Whistletrigger.

Slim Jim.

Might Trade: Two of the best located lots in town, South east shade trees. Would trade for horse cows, or money. Also four contiguous lots in east part of town. See L. P. Henslee

Rev. Parker has closed a protracted meeting at Cross Cut.

Buy your Coffins Caskets and Robes from the Cross Plains Furniture Store.

V. V. Hart and family, Eldon Boydston and wife and his guests Misses Myrtle Boydston and Sammie Dickie, on Tuesday went to the Bayou fishing. Wednesday Gray Powell, Joe Hill and Sam Carson also became Sir I. Waltons and hid themselves to the Bayou.

Victor Gilbert has returned to his home at Woodson after a few days visit with home folks.

Loe Jennings and Jno. Strickland of the Burkett country left last Thursday for Throckmorton county where they are to conduct a singing school.

We sell at Sears-Roebuck prices. Don't take our word for it but come and see for yourself.
Cross Plains Fur. Store.

Miss Lela Garvin of Rone's Prairie is the guest of her sister, Rev. Parker's wife. She will likely remain here a month.

LOST—A blue coat between Cross Plains and Pioneer. Branded Polk Bros. of Santa Anna. Return to Ben Branner, Santa Anna.

Misses Imogene Newsome and Luise and Helen Dibrell of Coleman were the guests of the Misses McDermitts during the picnic.

J. C. McDermitt and daughters, Misses Clara and Gladys returned last week from a trip to Hico.

We frame your picture to order while you wait.
Furniture Store.

Cottonwood Locals

Hot days with cool nights prevail now and a very fair prospect for rain this morning, a light sprinkle last night.

The Baptist protracted meeting is in progress now.

Mr. John Ramsey and Mrs. Tyson of Fort Worth who have been visiting their father, Seth Ramsey, who has been seriously ill at his home in Cottonwood have returned to their home in Fort Worth.

Mrs. James Reed formerly a citizen of this county but now a resident of Rochester, Texas, is the guest of J. Houston and Mrs. Freeland two and a half miles east of Cottonwood.

Mrs. E. M. Rusk of Merzel Texas is at the bedside of her father, Seth Ramsey.

One Mr. Handy of Rotan who has traded for the farm one mile north east of Cottonwood, known as the Jim Breeding place is visiting the place with his family and brother.

Dr. H. H. Ramsey of Baird has been a visitor to the bedside of his father this week, he has returned to Baird.

J. T. Respass and J. R. Haley attended the reunion at Eastland the 25 and 26 of July; they report a good time.

Miss Hazel Respass is spending a few days with the Misses Morrow at their home two miles south of Cross Plains.

Merrick Ramsey of Atwell a son of Uncle Seth Ramsey has been visiting the home of the latter at Cottonwood this week.

Dr. Ramsey of Cross Plains and Mrs. Mauldin two miles south of Cottonwood have been at the bedside of their father this week. Also Mrs. Ruda of Arlington and two of her sons were in attendance at Uncle Seth's home this week.

Mr. Burvil Ferguson has again gone to Clyde to spend a season. We are unable to say whether it is a financial attraction or the influence of some genial spirit that is wielding an influence over him.

O. C. Britton president of the Britton Training school at Cisco stopped in our town on his way from the picnic at Cross Plains and incidentally did a little school talk as usual while he was here.

Well, Mr. editor we did not show up at the picnic either day though the knowledge of the fact that a good dinner and plenty pink lemonade awaited us down there weighed heavily on our minds, but owing to the fact that we had only a few days before attended the reunion at Eastland and got "filled up" there, we were rather loath to "tackle" the sunshine and dust.

Queer Fellow.

Diff Jones and Carl Klutts have returned from a trip to Ford county, where they were on a land deal.

LOST—During the picnic at the Wagon Yard a Spalding buggy cushion. My cushion had about 6 or 8 inches of the leather on the rod in the apron ripped. The cushion left for me is too long. Party with wrong cushion will please leave same at McDonoughs wagon yard and get theirs.

F. B. Colvin.

County Judge Ely, T. B. Powell, Dr. Griggs, Dr. Shackelford, Misses Maude Conner and Nina Griggs, Sheriff Rains, C. H. Conner, Will Franklin and Bob Norrel all of Baird were here during the picnic.

Prof. Green, Superintendent of the Baird school was a visitor here the first day of the picnic.
