Put part of it Away

As you receive money as a reward for your services, whether you get it daily, weekly or monthly, make it a habit to put part of it in the bank. There will come a day in your life, sooner or later, when the possession of money may mean your success or failure. Be ready.

MUCH GRAIN NOW BEING SHIPPED OUT, RECEIPTS SHOW

Approximately $10,000.00 worth of small grain was shipped from this place Saturday and this week's receipts show shipping continues to be heavy. Some are holding, but many are selling. The yield over this section was exceptionally heavy.

ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS IN YOUR HOME PAPER

That advertising pays is not doubted by successful business men these days. It has been thoroughly tested and demonstrated. Consistent, honest advertising gets the desired results. Several local firms will testify to these facts. For instance, last week the Higginbotham firm advertised a sale on new shipment of "Home Dresses" for Saturday and Monday. There were 72 dresses in the shipment—only six were left Monday night. There are many similar instances which is only added proof that it pays to advertise in the home paper. Read all the ads in your home paper each week. It will pay.

POSTMASTER BARR HAS SOLDIER COMPENSATION BLANKS

Postmaster Barr states that he has been supplied by the government with blanks, instructions, and all the necessary information, for the World War veterans who wish to make application for compensation under the World War adjusted Compensation Act. This service is furnished without charge, and Mr. Barr will be glad to furnish you with the blanks and information he has, if you wish to make application.

PARENT-TEACHERS WILL SELL LEMONADE AT BIG PICNIC

The Parent-Teachers Association have secured a lemonade stand right for the picnic next week, and will have booth and serve lemonade themselves. The proceeds will go for the interest of the school. The Parent-Teachers Association are alive, and will always be found working for the interest of the school.

Dr. W. M. Kenedy of Franklin, Pa., is a new reader of the Review.

John W. Davis was nominated by the Democratic Convention in New York, Wednesday, for president, on the 101st ballot, after Smith and McAdoo had withdrawn as contenders for the nomination. Davis is from West Virginia. At this writing the nomination for vice-president has not been made but likely will be by the time you read this.

F. W. Stone & Co. are moving in National machine to the new field near Dudley in the west part of the county, where they will do some drilling.

Mrs. S. L. Teague

Mrs. S. L. Teague, age 47, died Wednesday, July 9th, in this city. She had been critically ill for week or more. Funeral services will be conducted today (Thursday) at Baptist church, by Rev. B. G. Richbourg, and the burial will be at the Nimrod cemetery at 4 o'clock.

Deceased is survived by husband, father, four children, one sister and three brothers. The children are: Archie and Clyde, Mrs. M. F. Carey and Mrs. Bill Boyd, all of whom are present. Her father, T. W. Plummer, of Cisco; sister, Mrs. Bob Ferguson, of Post City; brother, T. T. Plummer, of Wichita Falls, and other family connection have been at her bedside.

Mrs. Teague was a devoted Christian mother, a consistent church worker, loved by all who knew her. More will be said of her life next week. The entire community is saddened by her death.

Miss Edwena Anderson of Rising Star is visiting her brothers, Tom, Phil and De Anderson.

Mrs. Shelby of Breckenridge visited with Mrs. Guy Hester the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tige Gilbert of Putnam, visited in the home of R. P. Odom, Sunday.

Hard Test Required to Win Helicopter Prize

London.—World-wide entries have been received for the contest for a $250,000 prize offered by the British air ministry for a helicopter that will solve the problem of vertical and hovering flight. Fifteen to twenty entries have been received from some of the greatest American and continental authorities on this form of flight, including, it is reported, one from Henry Berliner, famous helicopter expert, who has produced some very remarkable machines of this type.

118,000 British Cattle Slain in Mouth Disease

London.—The recent outbreak of cattle plague in England cost the country $16,000,000 and was responsible for the destruction of 118,000 head of cattle, according to Noel Buxton, labor minister of agriculture. Buxton announces that he is seeking powers to prevent further outbreaks by scientific research as to the root cause of the outbreaks and their origin.

Good Carp Bait

Marysville, Mo.—Friends of George Liston told him a carp had never been caught with a hook and line. Liston decided that it could be. He baited his hook with an egg yolk and caught a 20-pound carp with only one eye.

BIG ANNUAL PICNIC WILL BE BIGGEST AND BEST IN HISTORY

The big Cross Plains Annual Picnic, July 16th and 17th will be bigger and better than ever before, according to those doing the preparatory work and arranging the program.

The various attractions which are to be featured, include Big Round-up, Free for all Prize contest, Merry-Go-Round, Big Ferris Wheel, the Whip, general assortment of amusements by the famous H. B. Poole Shows, candidate speaking which will include a number of prominent state men and good music by the best band in Texas its age—The Cross Plains C of C Band.

Don't miss these two big days—Wednesday and Thursday, July 16th & 17th. The picnic will be at the park where there is plenty of shade, and parking room. Immense crowds always attend the big annual picnic here—they come for miles on horses, in wagons, in cars, by train—and it they can't get here any other way, they walk. Any way to get here. Friends, neighbors and relatives all meet here on these notable occasions. If you don't believe that Cross Plains has a real picnic—ask those who have been attending for many years past. They will convince you. The attractions this year exceed those featured last year—you can't afford to miss this mammoth affair. Make your plans now—and be on the ground. You will meet friends you haven't seen for years. You will have a great time. Remember the days—and be here!

WHAT BOB TAYLOR THOUGHT OF INFIDEL

The following is the pen of Robert L. (Bob) Taylor, following a visit to a theater where he heard a famous infidel berate Christianity, is one of the greatest sermons ever preached in few words: "I sat in a great theatre in the National Capital. It was thronged with youth and beauty, old age and wisdom. I saw the man, the image of God, stand up on the stage, and I heard him speak.

"His great gestures were perfection of grace, his voice was music, and his language was more beautiful than anything I had ever heard from mortal lips. "He painted picture after picture of the pleasures and joys and sympathies of the home. He enthroned love and preached the gospel of humanity like an angel. Then I saw him dip his brush in the ink of mortal blackness and blot out the beautiful picture he had painted. I saw him stab love dead at his feet and blot out the stars and sun and leave the universe of eternal darkness and eternal death.

"I saw him like a lawless, erratic waste, with only the new-made graves, a meteor without an orbit, sweep across the intellectual sky, brilliant only in self-consuming fire, generated by friction with the indestructible and eternal truths of God."

"That man was the archangel of modern infidelity, and I said: "How true is holy writ which declared that the fool hath said in his own heart there is no God!"

"Tell me not, O Infidel, there is no God, no heaven, no hell! Tell me not, O Infidel, there is no risen Christ.

"What intelligence less than God's could fashion the human body? What motive power is it, if not God's, that drives the throbbing engine of the human heart with ceaseless, tireless stroke, sending the stream of life, bounding and circulating through every vein and artery.

"Whence and what, if not God, is this mystery we call mind? What is it that thinks and feels and knows and acts? O, can you deny the divinity that stirs within us?"

"God is everywhere and in everything. His mystery is in every bud and blossom and leaf and tree; in every rock and vale, and hill and mountain; in every spring and rivulet and river. The rustle of his wings is in every zephyr; its might is in every tempest; He dwells in the dark pavilions of every dark cloud. The lightning is His messenger and thunder his voice. His awful tread is in every earthquake and in every angry ocean. The heavens above teem with His myriads of shining witnesses. The universe of solar systems, whose wheeling orbits course the chrysal paths of spade, proclaim through dread halls the domination of an all wise, omnipotent and eternal God."—Exchange.

Civic pride is improving in Cross Plains; just look down the alleys and you will see that most of them are clean. Several homes have been made more like home by tidying up and in several instances, real money has been spent to level up yards preparatory to permanent beauty. Most folks like to be clean and neat and civic pride is catching.

It is easy to judge a town by its appearance and just think a minute, you are being judged by the appearance of your premises. Lets keep clean—company might come any day—A Subscriber

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hemphill Entertain

The Christian Endeavor was delightfully entertained, Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill.

The reception rooms were uniquely decorated in patriotic draperies and flags, while the lawn was lighted with electric lights for the young folks to enjoy their games and supervised play, until the rain called them in doors.

The refreshments were unusually enjoyed, being C. E. Punch and Angel Food cake, even then, it seemed as though we couldn't leave, and not, until they promised another real soon.

McGowen-Scott

Miss Anna-Myrl Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Scott was married last Sunday night, at the home of the bride's parents, to Russell B. McGowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGowen, Rev. Tom Brabham officiating.

The house was beautifully decorated in ferns and cut flowers; the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations.

Mrs. Tom Bryant accompanied by Mrs. Tom Brabham sang, "Not Because Your Heart is mine", as a pre-nuptial song.

To the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Miss Francis Gilbert, cousin of the groom, little Miss Billie Dee McGowen entered carrying the ring on a white satin pillow; she wore a white georgette dress and pearl headband.

Next to enter was Miss Christine McGowen, sister of the groom, with Mr. Cloy Mitchell. Miss McGowen was gowned in a jade green crepe and gold lace and wore white kid slippers. Her arm bouquet was of shasta daisies and ferns.

Then entered the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Vernie Crabb, were joined by the groom and best man beneath an improvised arch entwined with vines, shasta daisies, summer flowers & ferns. The impressive ring ceremony was read.

The maid of honor wore a charming creation of silver lace incrusting in rhinestones over coral chiffon. She wore silver slippers and her arm bouquet was of shasta daisies and ferns.

The bride was lovely in tulle over orchid crepe satin heavily beaded in rhinestones and sequins, silver slippers completed her costume. Her bouquet was sweetheart buds and ferns with a shower of lilies of the valley.

Miss Christine McGowen caught the bride's bouquet.

After the ceremony the guests were served with delicious ice cream in the form of a wedding slipper and cake.

The out of town guests were: C. V. Bomar and children, of Gulf; Miss Eliza Gilliland, Mrs. John Estes, Mrs. O. C. Hawk, Mrs. J. R. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Farmer, of Baird; Miss Francis Gilbert, of Woodson.
