FAST TEXAS & PACIFIC TRAIN WENT OFF DUMP NEAR PUTNAM

The west bound Texas & Pacific Sunshine Special went off a ten-foot embankment three miles West of Putnam, just before seven o'clock Saturday evening, dangerously injuring several persons and causing injury to scores.

The observation car, two Pullmans, diner, day coach and mail coach left the embankment and turned on their sides to the right of the track. The cars were literally splintered, all glass being broken and the iron twisted into all sorts of shapes. The engine, tender and baggage car stayed on the roadbed and were not wrecked.

Passengers aboard the train said that it was going at a lively clip down grade, probably thirty or thirty-five miles per hour, when the tender wheels dropped between the rails. The exact cause of the derailment has not yet been determined, but passengers said it was spreading rails.

The wreck occurred at the foot of a grade and where a small creek or ravine crosses the track. The first wheels got off at the trestle, which was splintered and demolished, and every car of the train was dragged across the creek. The last car, an observation Pullman, turned on its side, one end resting on the side of the creek and the other on the other side, forming a perfect bridge. One woman who was on the observation car dropped into the water but got safely out.

The six cars lay in a string at the foot of the embankment. They were for the most part completely demolished.—Abilene Reporter

GRAFT

Commencing Saturday night, July 1 we will show Graft every Saturday night. Each episode complete within itself. Said by many to be one of the best plays ever produced. P.S. Don't forget the Goddess, "The Serial Beautiful", every Thursday night—The Air dome.

HORSE GOODS

Let us save you money on horse collars, pads, hames, bridles, check lines, and all kinds of strap goods. THE RACKET STORE.

SWATT THAT ROOSTER

For some weeks you should have had that rooster, that Chanticleer, that "Old Democrat," as he is variously called, away from his kind of the opposite sex. By all means, if you have failed to kill, or sell or segregate him, dispose of him at once. Your eggs will save twice as long, and if you will demand it you can get a better price for your fertile than for the fertile eggs. It is probably too late to organize egg clubs, now, but you can get better prices for your good eggs, anyway. The U. S. Department of Agriculture urges you in the strongest way it can command to see that your hens lay only fertile eggs during the hot months. They give some simple rules for caring for your eggs: Keep the nests clean. Gather the eggs twice daily. Keep the eggs protected from the sun in delivering to market. Keep the eggs in a cool, dry room or cellar. Market at least twice a week, and oftener in hot months. Sell, kill, or confine all male birds as soon as the hatching season is over.

TRADES DAY

Our last trades day, which was Monday, was the poorest in point of attendance that we have ever noted, when the weather was pretty. Everybody must have been at work, Candidates and horse traders (no comparison intended) composed the largest part of the crowd. Perhaps we will have a big one the next time.

CROP DAMAGE BY HAIL

The rain that fell last Wednesday night was, in some localities accompanied by a good deal of hail. The cotton crop of W. B. Duncan, Joe Eldridge, and Nolan Duncan were hailed out on this date. Joe Eldridge's oats, which were not ready for cutting, were ruined. Mose Baum's and Noah Johnson's cotton crops were damaged, but not to the extent of the crops of those just mentioned.

To Turn the Hooks. When putting brass hooks in hardwood use a clothespin to turn them. This will save your fingers from aching.

PLEASED WITH THE TOWN

Joe Crutchfield of Admiral was in town Monday. He says that this is his first time to visit the town since the building of the new town in 1911. He is well pleased, so he states, both with the town's nice brick buildings and the up-to-date stocks of goods. Everybody that visits our town is surprised and pleased upon first seeing our stores and their stocks of goods.

SILOS

The leading agricultural subject of the day is "the Silo," and its coming is of great importance to the man of limited acreage.

No subject is receiving so much attention from the Experimental Stations, Farm Papers, and Farmers' Institutes. All the great industries depending on live stock, such as the Stock Yards, Creameries, Packing Houses, and Transportation Companies are advocating its use. The Coon's "All-Cypress" Silo is the silo with the "care and repair" eliminated. Sold on consistent terms.

FIGHT THE WEEVIL

If you think you will have any weevils this season, you might do what reason and experience have taught farmers in the weevil-infested districts in other parts of the State and other States to do in the way of cultural methods in combating this pest. The State Department of Agriculture says that, besides the work it urged in the fall, which was the burning of all stalks or the turning of them under the soil, where labor is cheap enough all weevils, punctured squares and blooms, as soon as they appear, should be picked and burned. A weevil killed now means thousands will not be born in the next few weeks. As soon as the stalk is too large to hand-pick profitably, shallow and continuous plowing until the cotton has opened should be practiced. Warm, dry weather is the only thing that enables us to make cotton in spite of the weevil, but if we can take the place of the sun in the picking and burning of the weevil we can keep the land in better condition for maturing a crop and at the same time keep the weevils reduced to a minimum. The letter from the A. & M. on this subject states that without doubt we have the heaviest infestation of the weevil this year that we have had for a number of years.

T. C. YANTIS TO LECTURE

T. C. Yantis of Brownwood, Past Grand Master of the Masons of Texas, will deliver a lecture Sunday at 11, a. m., at the Presbyterian church. His lecture will be of especial interest to young people, his subject being "The Average Young Man's Aim in Life." Mr. Yantis has been very successful as a banker, and has given largely of his time to altruistic work. He will have a message well worthy of the hearing of every young man and woman in the country.

PICNIC JULY 20 AT COTTONWOOD

The citizens of the Cottonwood country have decided to have a picnic on July 20, which date immediately precedes the primary. They expect all the candidates and a big crowd, and promise plenty to eat.

LAND FOR SALE

The Review is in receipt of a letter from the General Land Office stating that a list of about 4,300.00 acres of land for sale on easy terms by the state will be ready for distribution by about July 1. All interested will write the General Land Office, Austin, for free list.

BUYS CROP

E. G. Pretz of Rowden was in town Wednesday. He states that he has bought Cal Beeler's crop at the Peak, and that Cal will work for him for a while. Mr. Pretz besides working his farm at Rowden is tending another of his farms near Mr. Beeler's place, thus giving him three crops for the season.

BURKETT PICNIC DATE CHANGED

The date of the picnic to be held in Frank Brown's pasture south of Burkett has been changed to July 20th instead of the 13th. The change in date was necessitated because of conflict with the Cross Plains picnic. Burkett is to have another picnic on the 4th. We are not informed as to the nature of any of these celebrations.

Always Use High Class STATIONERY to Create a Good Impression

The Very Latest Styles

It's an old, old saying that the people you write to often judge you by your stationery. And there is a great deal of truth in the fact that stationery can be so chosen as to reflect the best of judgment and taste. Stationery suitable for one occasion may be entirely out of place for another. Then, too, the styles in stationery change the same as styles in clothing. To be sure that your stationery is right for all purposes, always buy it here.

Three or four actually cut some weeds on clean-up day. We saw them at work. We used a hoe twenty minutes ourselves. The biggest clean-up feature of the day was to be found in the exodus of the would-be Waltons to the Bayou.

With the fine rains that we have had Old Callahan and adjacent counties should put on their gala clothes this year. This county is in as good condition as those counties to the east. Probably to the west the drought has been too long drawn out. Stay in this, the middle, section of the west.

In an official inspection of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, after a year or two's fly eradication campaign, only two flies were found: Wonder if Cross Plains could do that well? There are not many here—but more than that number, we fear, could be found in The Review shop, and that after clean-up day.

What the local political situation in warth is made up in the district congressional situation. With four contesting for the district judgeship and two for the attorneyship, with an inkling of what is taking place in the senatorial race, those that love the political wrangle the broil of politics can find some satisfaction.

In Texas doesn't get the senator she wants it will not be because she doesn't have enough material to select from. Almost as many as congressmen at large take a vote on it isn't fair. It is too hard to make a choice as it is in some cases, we would vote without worry, and then "mess" because we had to so vote.

The producer is to-day a fortunate man. He has to pay high for the finished product but he had less reason for complaining than any other person. He gets unusually high prices for every kind of grain, stock, poultry, grain, cotton, corn, etc. Wool is high. Nothing is cheap. The man who is producing these is the man who should prosper, and if he doesn't he is losing a good opportunity. Of course, if he fails to produce his living on the farm, and buys loosely he may come out behind, by making a poor job or through other calamity.

YOUNG FOLKS! IT'S COMING AND YOU CAN'T HOLD IT BY THE TAIL

Prepare to grasp opportunity by the horns, you can't hold it by the tail. Opportunity is knocking at your door. You probably do not fully realize what this means; how much it means to you. What preparation have you made for the reception of your opportunity when it comes? Are you prepared? It will not take you long to make the preparation if you adopt the following motto "DIG... DETERMINE", "DELIVER". To dig means to strive earnestly, conscientiously, diligently day after day, securing a practical training for which the business world pays cash, and then when you have secured this training, keep on digging--Dig, Determine, without determination you cannot make a success of your future. It takes determination to do anything, and with it you can revolutionize the world, you can accomplish everything. Deliver--that is the natural result after putting into operation the other two mottos-- Dig and Determine. Can you not embody these three words in your life to an advantage? Begin today to dig by entering Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, for a course of Book-keeping and Shorthand, Business Administration and finance, handling and classing of cotton or Telegraphy. Secure a training that will help you deliver the goods. When we fail to make a success we have no one to censure but self, for we are the architects of our own future. It is far easier to than to succeed.

Do your best to begin on your practical cash producing education this month, and finish your course before the beginning of the busy fall season, and then when the many demands for well qualified bookkeepers, stenographers and secretaries or operators are made, you will be ready; not getting ready but ready. A whole lot of energy and a little cash will greatly increase your earning capacity. Write us for free catalogue; we have helped thousands and can help you. Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

J. F. Cartwright of Blanket was in town Friday and perhaps one or two others days of last week. Mr. Cartwright is a candidate for the legislature from the 110 district comprising this and Brown county. He represents the prohibition side of the question in the race. He made the race two years ago but was induced to enter the contest so late that his name was not put on the ballot. Mr. Cartwright has a good following at his home town, and according to our information is a well-read and well informed man, honest, anxious to serve his fellowmen. You might do well to consider his candidacy before casting your ballot for representative for this office.

INVESTIGATE ACME MACHINERY

Why not buy the farm machinery with the most conveniences while you are at it. The Acme line is far ahead of anything on the market.

ACME sulky RAKE
I have always found that any "Acme" machine would do the work it was intended for, and do it well; that is why I handle the "Acme" line. In no machine of this make are the qualities of efficiency and durability more pronounced than in their Sulky Rake. Whatever the ground conditions may be, an "Acme" rake will fill the bill.

ACME mower
The best of "Acme" care and thoroughness is well shown in their Mower. It is built particularly strong to stand the strain put on this machine.

HAYING TIME
is the one season of the year when you want to be sure that your tools and machines are in good working order. You can depend on an "Acme" Mower to be in order all the time.

COME IN AND SEE THEM
You will be surprised at the strong, sturdy construction and the free, easy working of the parts.

Before buying, come in and take a look at this mower and rake—they will please you.

Have You Eggs For Sale

There was recently organized in the city of Dallas, under the supervision of the Extension Department of the A. & M. marketing committee, the purpose of which is to see that so far as possible the people who are producing good eggs get a fair price for them. The third day we went out we sold more eggs than we could secure, in fact, cannot supply the demand at the present time. If such readers of this paper who are producing eggs, will take the males away from the hens, gather their eggs twice a day and keep in a cool place, we believe we can get their five cents above their home market. If those interested will write me, stating how many eggs they can ship and what their local price is, I will advise them whether we can get more.

EAST AND WEST TEXAS

The Review man and wife returned Sunday from a ten-days' trip to northeast Texas Fannin county being the objective of their visit. They have to report, first, that no where were crops especially any better than in this section, and in many instances, not so good, if they are to be the judges. In Fannin and nearby counties no rain of consequence had fallen since the first of May, and the cotton and corn, the main crops, were showing the effects of the drouth. However, the rains that so generously blessed this vicinity last week did not overlook northeast Texas, and as a result the staple crops are now very promising. The grain crop is light everywhere, oats and wheat here comparing well with the same crops in any section between this place and extreme northeast Texas. Cotton is no where more than 8 to 10 inches high.

THE COUNTRY THEN AND NOW

The black land belt is adapted only to such crops as cotton, corn, even oats and wheat not being grown successfully. Peanuts are yet looked upon as fit only for confections; only one or two hogs are found in the lots; scarcely ever more than one Jersey can be found, and her in the lot; two horses or mules that know not the pleasure of grazing, lazing around the barn. No fruit, few vegetables, no cream for the market, no chicken cranks with 300 or 400 biddies on the premises, and the worst roads, when it rains, in the world. On the road question more will appear later. There are no pastures, with the exception of a few woodlands that have been left.

To be continued next week

75 years ago everyone wore homespun

and, likewise, everyone used hand-mixed paint. To-day, when machine-spun cloth is so much better and cheaper, no one would think of wearing homespun. Many people are still using hand-mixed paint, however, because they do not know that will save them money and labor. Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint is simply made of the same ingredients the old-time painter used: Pure White Lead, Pure White Zinc, and Pure Linseed Oil. The only difference is that Devoe is mixed by machinery, 500 gallons at a time. Therefore, it is always absolutely uniform in strength, color and covering capacity.

We guarantee Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint to be pure. We know it contains no whitening, silica or other worthless materials. Stop in and ask for Color Card.

POULTORY BUSINESS IN COTTONWOOD

We desire to give some figures relative to our cream and poultry business last Saturday and it was a short day along that line: Prof. H. S. Varner the proprietor of the business furnished us the following figures: On Saturday last Prof. Varner paid out in actual cash for cream $72.67, for eggs $50.00 and for chickens $40.00. Prof. Varner buys on Wednesdays and Saturdays, of course Saturdays are better days than Wednesdays, but to say the least of it Prof. Varner is turning loose some money in our midst twice a week which is proving to be quite a source of revenue to the people and is quite a convenience to them but we fear will work a harkship on the preacher on account of the scarcity of fried chicken during brotracted meeting time.

Now we notice in the Cross Plains Review some of our own "dope" quoted from the Star for which the Review gave the Star credit. We are perfectly willing that the Review should embellish its columns with our sayings copied from the Star, but we think the Review should have said: "from Uncle Jimmie in the Star," see. We do not claim any credit for our writings but if its of such interest as to render it worthy of copying why it is worth claiming credit for.—U. J. in Baird Star.

CALLED TO ANOTHER CHURCH

Rev. G. W. Thomas, who has recently made a trip to Goodnight where he preached, informs us that he has been called to the church at that place, and that he now has the acceptance of the call under consideration. If he should go to Goodnight his work would include one hour's teaching of Bible in the Goodnight Academy.

De Laval CREAM SEPARATORS

Separator Truths

More DE LAVALS are being sold than all other makes combined—nearly two million are now in use. Year by year an ever increasing proportion of farm separator buyers reach the conclusion that the De Laval is the only cream separator they can afford to buy or use. In fact, about the only excuse ever offered for buying any other separator nowadays is that its first cost is a little less than the De Laval's.

But they soon find out that the last cost of a cream separator is what really counts, and when they realize that the De Laval gives the most and best service for the money they buy a De Laval.

Over 40,000 users of Inferior Machines discarded them for DE LAVALS during the past year in the United States and Canada alone.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL. WHY NOT NOW?
