VATCH YOUR STEP! THE CAR TO BUY

the car that DOES NOT change models, dens or styles every few months. WHY? Because purchaser is the loser. You then want a new and yours is an old model. Therefore you get gusted and take a loss, in order to keep up th your neighbor. The car to buy is the one it is already a success, the one you could find a yer for in case of sickness or misfortune and t lose all you have paid on it.

Most cars are bought on a credit basis, so buy car that will be worth something when it is d out. The Ford is a success already and is a big jority of the peoples' car. More Fords made and d in one day than most cars cars in thirty days.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the currect letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is Indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the pursie. Thus Yo, I under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obselete forms are indicated in the definitions.

— the reward of internal cleanliness.

TF YOU do not keep clean internally your looks and health are undermined together. A clogged intestine breeds poisons that reach every part of the body. These poisons ruin the complexion and undermine health. Constipation brings on such ailments as headaches, bilious attacks and insomnia, each of which saps your health and vitality.

Avoid Laxatives-say Doctors

Laxatives and cathartics do not overcome constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition.

Medical science has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water, it is harmless.

Take Nujol regularly and adopt this habit of internal cleanliness. For sale by all druggists.

Get back that lost weight!

WHEN you start to waste away to a shadow, when the color leaves your cheeks and your poor, tired legs will hardly hold up your weakened body it's high time you started taking a fine tonic and builder like Tanlac.

Tanlac will build you up and make you feel that life's worth living. Made from roots, herbs and bark gathered from the four corners of the Earth and compounded under the exclusive Tanlac formula, Tanlac is just what the poor, starved body needs.

First of all it cleanses the blood stream and puts the digestive organs in order. You find, after a few days' treatment, that you want to eat. Pretty soon the welcome color steals back into your cheeks and the scales tell you that you're gaining weight. From then on it's only a short time until you're feeling fit as a fiddle.

The horrible thing was that her same had already been bandled about from a ruffian's lips. Lee winced at that even as he had winced at the remembrance of having been brutally rough with her himself. But what was past was past; Quinnion had talked and must talk no more.

"He'll start something the minute he sees you," cautioned Carson, his own revolver loose in the belt under his coat, his hard fingers like talons gripped about the butt. "Keep your eye peeled, Bud. Better cool off i speck before you tie into him. You're too mad, I tell you, for straight, quick shooting."

Lee made no answer. Side by side the two men went on. They had left the sidewalk and walked down the middle of the rusty, rut-gouged street. Every man they met, every figure standing in the shadows, received their quick, measuring looks.

"Most likely," suggested the cattle foreman, "by now he's got drunk an gote to sleep it off."

But Lee knew better than that Quinnion wasn't the sort that got drunk. He'd drink until the alcohol stirred up all of the evil in his ugly heart; then he'd stop, always sure of his eye and his hand. It was far more likely that with a crowd of his own sort he was gambling in the card room of the Last Chance saloon, the Jailbird saloon as "white" men called it For there was an ill-famed hang-out at the far end of the straggling town. just at the edge of the Italian settlement, that of late had come to be frequented by such as Quinnion; men who were none too well loved by the greater part of the community men who, like Quinnion, had served time in jail or penitentiary. Black Steve, who was both proprietor and bartender, and who looked like a low-class Italian, though he spoke the vernacular of the country, was the god of the "dago" quarter, the friend of those who had gotten entangled with his gun, dropping to the law. Banks are the heart of the community in the same sense that Credit is the life-blood of industry.

Banks have been rightly called "Distributors of Credit" for the reason that they are the only logical medium through which financial accomodations, of any degree, is made possible for the community.

In this capacity, they extend tangible assistance when needed to worthy customers and enterprises that business may be stimulated and sound prosperity may prevail.

5000 Items in Our Sto

It may surprise you to know that the average drug store stock contains about 5.000 different items. We have never counted all the items in our stock, yet we imagine that it is as complete as you will find anywhere. It is necessary for us to keep this big stock to promptly supply your needs. There is hardly any article you expect to find in a drug store but you can find it here.
