BANKS--"Distributors of Credit"

Banks are the heart of the community in the same sense hat Credit is the life-blood of industry.

Banks have been rightly called "Distributors of Credit" for the reason that they are the only logical medium through which financial accomodations, of any degree, is made possible for the community.

In this capacity, they extend tangible assistance when needed to worthy customers and enterprises that business may be stimulated and sound prosperity may prevail.

5000 Items in Our Stock

It may surprise you to know that the average drug store stock contains about 5.000 different items. We have never counted all the items in our stock, yet we imagine that it is as complete as you will find anywhere. It is necessary for us to keep this big stock to promptly supply your needs. There is hardly any article you expect to find in a drug store but you can find it here.

Why Physicians Favour Lubrication

Medical science has found at tast in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Thus, Nujol brings internal cleanliness.

Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water, it is harmless.

Ostracism Old Custom

Ostracism is from the Greek word, ostraken, a potsherd or shell. It meant mode of proscription introduced into Athens early in the Sixth century B. C. The people wrote the names of those whom they most suspected upon small shells. These they put in an urn or box and presented to the senate. Upon a scrutiny, he whose name was oftenest written was sentenced by the council to be banished. Six thousand votes were required. The custom was abolished about 300 B. C.

Comanche Votes Bond

Last week Comanche voted more water bonds. The bonds carried 5 to 1. Just recently a number of other neighboring towns went for additional water bonds by big majorities. Wonder whit Cross Plains will do on Jan. 27th. People are going to the polls here on the above stated date-and vote to go backward or forward. There is much at stake. It is a big issue, not that so much money is envolved, but it is dealing with the future growth and developnent of Cross Plains in a large measure. Let's go forward!

Burning Memory

As June had slipped by, so did July and August. On Blue Lake ranch life lowed smoothly. Men were too busy with each day's work to sit into the tights prophesying trouble ahead. And in truth it seemed that if Bayne Trevers had ever actively opposed the nuccess of the Sanford venture he had by nov accepted the role of inactivay forced upon him by circumstance He was with the Western Lumber company, as director and district so perintendent, seemingly giving all his lynamic force to the legitimate af-Cairs of the company.

But there were those who placed alth in the obvious. Bud Lee kept m touch with Rocky Bend and learned that Quinnion had not come back that no one knew where he had gone. Curson's man, Shorty, was sought by Emmet Snwyer and his disappearance was like that of a pricked bubble; it seemed that Shorty had no actual physical existence or that, if he had, he had taken it into some other corner of the world. Quinnion's friends had the gone from Rocky Bend, like Quinnion leaving behind them no sign to show where they had gone. Knowing Quinnian as he did.

having his own conception of the tharacter of Bayne Trevors, Bud Lee said to himself that too great a quiet portended strife to come. Only one re mark had she made to the cattle foreman, and that a little saide from the tasue occupying his mind:

"Keep your weather eye open for what's in the wind." she told him oriefly. "Behind Quinnion is Trevors, and the year isn't over yet."

The ranch was stocked to its utmost capacity. Carson had bought see ned ak another berd of cattle; Lee had added to his string of borses.
