A NEW SCHOOL

A petition is being circulated this week, which requests the school board Star have leased the building formerly to call an election, to vote on issue for occupied by Mrs. Bob's Cafe on north new and adequate school buildings here, and it is thought that the people will soon have an opportunity to express themselves at the ballot box, as the demand for school facilities that will meet the requirements seems to be general. It is realized that the present building is inadequate, and it is impossible to perfect the school system that Cross Plains should have and must have, if it has the educational advantages necessary to its intellectual developement.

Tenative Plans have been figured on, and definite action is taking form, and it is expected to ripen soon.

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL A NOTABLE SUCCESS

The big Hallowe'en Carnival staged n Main Street here last Friday night Parent-Teachers Association. was an event long to be remembered. The many and varied costumes worn by both sexes were just simply "stunning" -and one couldn't tell who was who nor why, but some of the ugliest men in town, dressed in most fashionable ladies costumes, were transformed into most charming flappers. and with a show of grace and style that appealed to many of the boys-and older men too, they would smile and draw a wicked eye on their victims. Then there were a number of good looking young men, who turned out to be the opposite

There were many forms of entertainment that kept the crowd in an uproar of laughter almost continuously. The entire street was a mass of people—the largest crowd ever recorded here for any similiar event. The program was carried out in a most satisfactory manner. The proceeds of the carnival and jubilee goes to school library fund—a worthy cause.

There was so much to see and enjoy it is impossible to describe in detail but those who were not there (most of them were) certainly missed a good

Twenty-eight years ago the family of Bill Orrell lived at Waco. App Orrell of this city was a little boy at that time, and one night his elder brother, John, took him to a circus, and after the show he took him back to the yard gate, and told him to go on in the house, he was going back to town. That was the last time he was seen or heard of by the family until Sunday. Recently the picture of Iva Lee Orrell, appeared in the Star-Telegram. She is the daughter of App Orrell, our fellow townsman. John Orrell, living at Nocona, saw the pictue, and wrote Mr. Orrell here, to see if he was his brother and an answer was forwarded at once informing him that he was, and telling him where the other members of the family reside. Since that night 28 years'ago, his father has passed away, but his mother and children still live and reside in Texas.

Mr. Orrell will go to Nocona in few days to see his brother, and they will talk over what has happened since that night of the circus.

Soon after John Orrell left home the family moved from Waco, and it is thought that when John decided to go back and visit his people, he found them not, and probably lost trace of them. We can only imagine the joy that will fill the heart of his mother when she sees her boy again-after 28

I DISARMED HIM SEVERAL TIMES

Harry Ormerod, long proscribed traitor to King George as a Stu-art partisan, returning from France to London rescues Alder-man Robert Juggins from a band of assassins. Juggins proves to be the grandson of a former steward of Ormerod's father, to whom Juggins feels himself in-debted. Ormerod tells Juggins he has abandoned the Stuart cause. Juggins informs Ormerod of a Jacobite plot in the American colonies to weaken England by forwarding French interests. At its head is Andrew Murray, a Scotsman, and a Frenchman, De Veulle, deadly enemy of Ormerod. The two are in London further-ing their schemes. Anticipating the plotters' early return to America, Juggins arranges for Ormerod to go there with letters to Governor Burnet, friend of Juggins, and work to foil Mur-

"'Tis Juggins," interposed my master. "The lad is a cousin once removed. He goes to seek employment in the New world. To tell the truth though strong and willing, he is not overburdened with wits. But he can swing an ax as well as anyone, and his muscles should bring him good hire on some wilderness farm."

'Aye," agreed Master Jenkins tonelessly.

In the street Juggins turned upon me indignantly.

"Would you ruin us, Master Harry?" he demanded. "Zooks, you were like to plunge yourself into trouble by your forward manner! I'll wager Jenkins is wondering now whether you are a criminal or only a half-wit. Why did you flare up over this De Veulle?"

"Because I know, him and I hate him," I answered doggedly.

"Why? What hath he done?" "He is one of the gallants of the court in Paris. He came out of Canada some three years ago, and made a reputation for gambling, fickleness and daredeviltry of all kinds, but once in the Toison d'Or I heard him stur the poor young man I then served." "James?"

"I called him King James in those days," I answered. "Yes, De Veulle was mocking the petty motley of our exiled court. 'What is this king but a puppet figure for us to dandle in England's face?' he said. 'And what are his courtiers but other puppets to dress the show?'

"His toadies all laughed.

"'And the most comical thing of all,' ended De Veulle, 'is to think of this puppet king, with a puppet co ruling over a puppet Englar France pulls the strings-as v

"And how could I be disheartened," demanded, as I set her down, "with two friends such as I may boast of?" There was a mist before my eyes, and I was not sorry when Juggins broke in upon our farewells.

"Aye, John Waterman will be waiting us at the Temple stairs, and we have little time to spare if we are to get aboard before the other passengers. This De Veulle would recognize you, I fear, even in this disguise." I could not forbear a grimace at the reference to my get-up, a linsey-woolsey shirt, with homespun jacket and breec es and a bobbed scratch-wig, the whole designed to give me a rustic appearance, which there can be no doubt that it did.

"Never mind, Master Harry," admonished Juggins as he clapped an ugly beaver of ancient style upon my head. "In New York you will rig yourself in forest-runner's garb, and forget that you ever played the bumpkin. Give granny a last kiss, and-"

She flew at me, light as a bird; her arms clasped momentarily about my neck: I felt her kiss on my cheek: and then she was gone from the room. I may as well say here that I never saw her again, although many a night as I lay under the stars I was to remember her quaint ways, her sweet, shrill voice and loving smile.

But I had no opportunity for such thoughts as Juggins and I hurried through the streets toward the river, where a wherry was awaiting us. All the way he kept up a running fire of last-minute advice and instructions.

"Guard well the letters I have given you, the one to Corlaer no less than those to Governor Burnet and Master Colden. Corlaer, though he be only a rude, unlettered woodsman, is none the less of importance in the wilderness country. He hath the confidence of the Indians of the Six Nations, a mighty tribe, or rather confederacy of tribes, Master Harry. I have writ as strongly as a man may to Governor Burnet, but I would have you say to him all that you can think of to urge him to a vigorous course. 'Tis no hour for half-way measures. We must crush Murray once and for all."

We came presently to Greenwich each, and steered a passage through Venture. Venture. Master Abbot, her captain, Inet us at the rail.

"The young man is not sure of himself affoat, and would seek his berth," said Master Juggins, after the preliminaries had been passed.

"As he pleases," agreed Captain Ababoard, lad, and may choose your quarters. You may bunk with the second mate or one of the other passengers. But no," he corrected himself; "I should have said with one of two of The lady hath Jericho was the key to the land of Caanan. A signal victory here would put the Israelites in control of the land. Failure here would mean irretrievable ruin.

1. Jericho Shut Up (vv. 1-5).

The Caananites felt secure because Jericho was strongly fortified from the south. Approach to the city from the east was not thought of as the Jordan river was a barrier. The miraculous crossing of the Jordan by the Israelites and their surrounding the city of Jericho greatly alarmed the people-"Therefore none went out and none came in."

1. God's promise to Joshua (v. 2). "I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour." Because of this promise from the Lord their faith had a firm basis.

2. God's instructions (vv. 3-5).

They were to encompass the city with seven priests bearing trumpets of rams' horns. The ark, a symbol of the Divine Presence, went before the people. They encompassed the city once a day for six days and on the seventh day they encompassed it seven times. When the last circuit was made the priests were to give a long blast of the trumpets and the people were to shout with a great shout and the walls of Jericho were to fall down. II. The Obedience of the People

They advanced according to the directions of their leader, for they were going forth according to the command of the Lord. To the natural eye the means employed were very inadequate, even foolish. If they had looked at the inadequacy of the means in themselves, they no doubt would have faltered, but they believed that He who had given the orders would geht for them. Joshua and his people

Free American Women From Wash-Board Slavery

Fifty Two "Blue Mondays" Every Year. Make Them Sunny!

The American public is paying millions of dollars every year for clothes, fabrics and laces which wear out on the wash-board.

The zinc ridges on a wash-board wear thru usually in less than one hundred washings. If the wash-board wears out in such a short time, how many clothes are worn out wearing out the wash-board?

This loss is stopped by scientific washing with The FEDERAL EIECTRIC WASHER which passes soap and water back and forth thru the weave mesh of fabrics without injury.

The woman who does not use an Electric Washer is really paying more than its cost every two years in ruined clothes, as well as loss of time, labor and health.

THE METHODIST PEOPLE

other Conference year's work for the Methodist people in Cross Plains, Texas. Monday morning Rev. Tom W Brabham, the pastor will leave for annual Conference which convenes at Childress, Texas. This year closes the third years work for Rev. Brabham, as pastor of the Methodist church. During these three years some remarkable changes have taken place. Upon his arrival in Cross Plains, three years ago, he was greeted with about twenty-five people in the old Church Building. The Sunday School at that time was about thirty members. Some coming early. some late, and a great per cent not reaching the place of worship at all. But Rev. Brabham was of that spirit that could not be discouraged. In his first message he paid a (great tribute) to the wonderful building in which the Methodist people were worshiping. Few knew what was running through his mind. As quickly as he got on the ground and took active charge, plans building that would do credit to the town and Honor to God. It was said that it couldn't be done; but it was done. During the three years work there has been raised for all purposes, something around $23,000.00. A remarkable record for a membership of two hundred and twenty-five people to make. Last year the membership of the Methodist Chuch walked away with honors in the Northwest Texas Conference, for raising more money per capita than any other church in the Confer-We are informed that such will be the case again this year.

Not only has the work moved forward in material things but otherwise. There have been received into the church during the three years something near one hundred and fifty members. The Sunday School is about four times as large now as it was three years ago. Prayer meeting evenings is crowding the fifty mark in number. Young people's work has taken on life. All in all it has been a great three years. This year seemingly the greatest. Once more the pastor will be able to rise to his feet when Cross Plains is Called, and

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your hidneys may then act fine. Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.

Read About This Generous Money Back Guarantee

When you have any trouble with your stomach such as gas, heaviness and distention, why fool with things which at best can only give relief.

Why not get a medicine that will build up your upset, disordered stomach and make it so strong and vigorous that it will do its work without any help. Such a medicine is Dare's Mentha Pepsin, a delightful elixir that is sold by your local dealer and druggists everywhere with the distinct under-standing that if it doesn't greatly help you your money will be gladly returned.

It has helped thousands—it will no doubt help you.

Brule!

Husband-I am ruined. Wife-How could you! And before got my fall clothes.

Forgetting a grouch will make it leave home.
