What's after "Once-upon-a-time"?

• There'll come a time when fairy tales aren't real. Her doll won't be her playmate any more...
 Her first day of school, first date, first prom—they'll live only in her memory book.
 Before you know it, she'll grow up—daughter still in your home, but mistress in her own.

Will she have found the faith to meet the grown-up problems of her life? The courage and the inner strength to match the trials maturity will bring? Will she have serenity of spirit to convey to children of her own?
 Faith is the heritage it is your privilege to bestow.

Show them the way... this week

Do You Remember?...

Taken From The Files of The Review, 15 and 25 Years Ago

JANUARY 28, 1938

Rev. S. P. Collins, thrice mayor of Cross Plains, told the Review emphatically yesterday that he would not stand for re-election in the municipal elections set for April fourth.

Despite the fact that only 1,520 poll tax receipts had been issued up to noon yesterday, Tax Assessor-Collector Olaf Hollingshead predicted the number would reach the usual 2,700 by Monday night, when the deadline is passed.

Melvin Placke will be made assistant postmaster of the Cross Plains office, succeeding G. S. Hill who moved to Rising Star the first of the week, the Review was told yesterday by acting postmaster W. J. Brown.

In the last regular meeting of the FFA Chapter, 10 girls were selected as Future Farmer Agettes by Chapter members. They are: Mozelle Atwood, Winnie Beth Baird, Annette Erwin, Louise Erwin, Lois Gage, Geraldine Howard, Marie Long, Leo McDermott, Toody McDermott and Virginia Neeb.

Announcement has been received here that Orlian Williams, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Williams of Cross Plains, has been appointed by the Federal Communication Commission as a radio-telephone operator first class. Orlian has been attending a television school in Kansas City the past four months.

With the date for the fifth annual Cross Plains FFA Fat Stock Show tentatively set for February 26, chapter members are rounding the entrants into shape for hard competition.

Troy East and Charlie McCowen have opened a garage and used car lot in the Newton building on South Main Street.

Regular meeting of the Wednesday Study Club was held last week at the home of Mrs. E. C. Neeb.

Mrs. John Lewis Bonner of Anson was complimented with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. Henry McGowen Thursday night of last week, with Mrs. Edwin Baum, Jr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and Mrs. McGowen as hostesses.

On January 12, all the children of Uncle Jim Riggs, excepting one son, Will of Tullia, gathered at his home to be with him on his 83rd birthday.—Burnt Branch News.

Mrs. Gus Black and daughter, Mrs. Jim Hughes of Atwell, were visitors in the W. N. Black home Friday afternoon.—Scranton News.

The Good-will Quilting Club met at the home of Mrs. H. S. Varner and quilted for Mrs. Weaver Thurston day of last week. We quilted six quilts. There were 27 ladies present. We will quilt for Mrs. Fred Kelly this week at the home of Mrs. Sudderth.—Cottonwood News.

Billy Gray, student in McMurry College at Abilene, spent the week end with his mother and sisters in Cross Plains.

JANUARY 27, 1928

A farewell dinner party was given at the Kemper Hotel last Friday night, in honor of F. M. Gwin, retiring mayor and secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who left Sunday for Pampa where he becomes city manager.

D. Nelson Sellers, 19-year-old youth of Scranton, was shot and instantly killed last Saturday in that community.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kagle passed away Tuesday morning. The deceased is survived by her husband, Grady Kagle, mother, Mrs. E. J. Hill, and five sisters and two brothers.—Pioneer News.

In entertaining the Wednesday Club, Miss Ann Epps provided an afternoon of pleasure for members and a few additional friends in

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this means to thank each and every one for the acts of kindness during the illness and death of our husband and father, and for the beautiful floral offering and the nice food the church ladies and neighbors prepared.

May the richest blessings of God rest upon each and every one of you.

Mrs. J. C. Watson
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Watson
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watson
Mr. and Mrs. George Watson
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Spravls

Neal Dillard and son made a business trip to Dallas Monday.

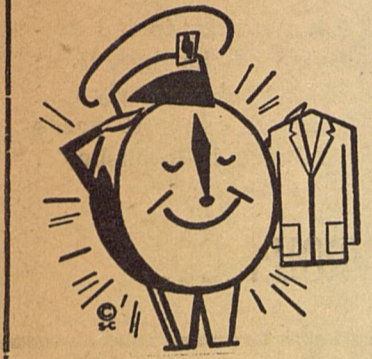

Out-of-town relatives here to attend funeral services for J. C. Watson Thursday afternoon of last week were: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis and son, Gerald, and daughter, Ynonia, Mrs. Myrtle Carlisle, Mrs. Roxie Hibbet, Edwin Carlisle, all of Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carlisle, Lamesa; Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Carlisle, O'Donnell; Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Buske, Longview; Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence, Roundup; and Delbert Lawrence of Abilene.

The diversion of bridge. The first school semester ended with the mid-term exams which were held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the past week. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Barnes and little son spent Sunday in San Angelo. The high school Buffaloes and Cottonwood engaged in the first basketball game of the season here Wednesday and the Buffaloes won 24 to 11. Joe B. Poe and Aubrey Derrington have purchased the Derrington Garage on South Main Street, from D. L. Derrington. Mmes. Pat Murphy, Renrick Clark and the Misses Lucile McElhannon, Ann Epps and Mary Parker attended a bridge luncheon in the home of Mrs. Lee Seward of Brownwood, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Elic Baum, of Plainview, were here during the week end at the bedside of Mrs. Howard Baum, who has been critically ill, but is much improved now. Elmer Thomas, who has been in the Dallas sanitarium for the past week, underwent an operation Monday at noon. He stood the operation fine, but will have to have another operation soon.—Cottonwood News. W. A. McGowen and family returned the last of the week from a visit and hunt in South Texas, and Mr. McGowen states that he killed all the big Canadian goose that he wanted, and left seven of them dressed and on ice at the Gulf with his daughter, Mrs. C. V. Boman and family. The Self Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. Murman McGowen Wednesday, January 18.

Pioneer H. D. Club Meeting In Home Of Mrs. J. E. Woods

The Pioneer Home Demonstration Club met January 21 at 3:00 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. E. Woods. Mrs. Henry McCoy served as co-hostess. Ten members and two visitors, Mrs. Cleo Barton and Mrs. B. Young, and Miss Mildred Daniel, agent, attended.

Council report was given by the president, Mrs. Joe Fleming, in which she announced plans for the Tri-County Home Demonstration Camp at Brownwood Lake in July and also, that club women of the county will compile a cook book of "favorite recipes" which will be sold to raise funds for the Council.

Mrs. J. E. Woods resigned as secretary and Mrs. Bart Brown was elected to fill the vacancy.

Topic for Miss Daniel's demonstration was "Let's Plan Gardens for Kinds of Vegetables We Need". In it she stressed the importance of vegetables in a balanced diet, according to the Texas Food Standard, and showed how to plan a garden for the correct amount, per person, of the different types of vegetables. Other needed information in planning and starting a garden was given. The bulletins "Gardening" and "Improving Garden Soil", from the Agricultural Extension Service, were distributed.

Program for the next meeting will be "Seed Treatment and Seed Boxes".

A WORD OF THANKS

We take this method of thanking you, one and all, who gave blood, sent cards, or visited us during our time of illness and sorrow. May God's richest blessing rest upon you, and may you be spared any and every ordeal of affliction is our sincere and earnest prayer. You have been wonderful to us.

Competition begins with the search for oil.

Competition

gives you the best petroleum products in the world at the lowest prices

The U. S. oil business is one of the most highly competitive industries in this country and, for that matter, in the world. Every time you buy a gallon of gasoline or a quart of motor oil, there are at least 100 companies that would like you to buy from them.

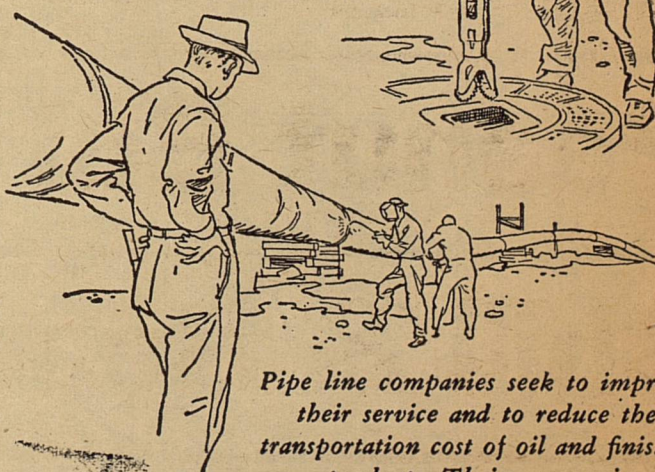

Your purchase stimulates competition far beyond the service station driveway where you make it. It stirs scientists to find more oil for your use. It urges production men to produce oil more efficiently and economically and with less waste. It extends through low-cost transportation pipe lines to refineries that seek better ways to make more and better petroleum products to compete for your business.

Is this competition a good thing?

It certainly is. It's a good thing for you because you get the best petroleum products in the world at the lowest prices. It's a good thing for the country because it stimulates the continuous development and conservation of a vital natural resource. And it's a good thing for the oil business: competition keeps the industry strong, vigorous, progressive.

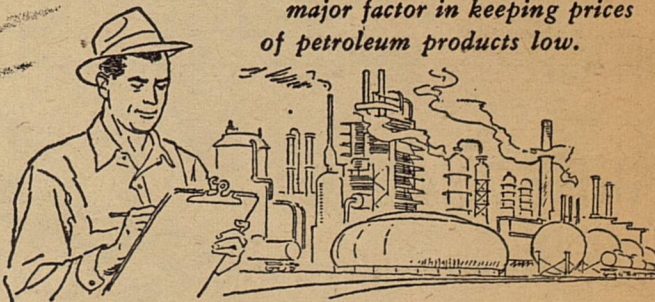

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.
HUMBLE PIPE LINE CO.

Improved drilling and producing methods increase supplies of oil at reasonable prices.

Pipe line companies seek to improve their service and to reduce the transportation cost of oil and finished products. Their success is a major factor in keeping prices of petroleum products low.

Competitive refineries never let a day pass without trying to find a better way to make more and better petroleum products for your use.

Your service station dealer competes in product quality and service with all the other dealers in your neighborhood.

BURKETT NEWS

By Mrs. T. C. Strickland

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday with 12 present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Jack DeBusk. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Rev. R. V. Lindsey. A business session was conducted during which the offering was taken and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Roger Watson. A duet "Wonderful Words of Life" was sung by Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Lindsey, followed by a short play by Mrs. S. D. DeBusk and Mrs. Watson. At the close of the play a duet, composed of Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Tom Strickland, sang "My Mother's Bible". The first chapter from the book "A Preface to Bible Study" was given by Mrs. Lindsey. The second and third chapters were given by Rev. Lindsey. The benediction was repeated by all.

This community was saddened on hearing of the death of Terrel Jackson of Cisco, a former resident of Burkett and the husband of the former Miss Henrietta Burkett. His death came after a long illness.

A large number of folks over the community have been ill with the flu and a few cases of pneumonia have been reported.

Mrs. Merrel Burkett is home after spending a few days in the Coleman hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Otto Brink and son, Arthur, of Coleman visited in the J. C. Boyle home during the week end.

Mrs. Pete O'Brien and children of Eastland have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Boyle, who have been ill with the flu.

A brotherhood revival is in progress at the Burkett Baptist Church. Services at 7:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Delbert Boyle is recuperating from injuries he received several days ago while working on a well near Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Fort Worth have moved to the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson and family. Mr. Brown is the new minister of the Church of Christ at Burkett.

Mrs. Ben Wooten is in a Brownwood hospital with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Verner and son, Gay, of San Angelo have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Adams and son, David, of Fort Worth visited their parents here over the week end.

Clarence Burkett of Wichita Falls visited homefolks part of last week and attended the funeral of Terrel

BILLIE HELEN McMILLAN HONORED WITH PARTY FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Ekal McMillan honored her daughter, Billie Helen, with a party Friday evening, celebrating her fourteenth birthday.

Valentine decorations were used throughout the house.

Refreshments of heart shaped open-face tuna and pimento cheese sandwiches, potato chips, olives, birthday cake and hot chocolate were served to the 12 guests present. Plate favors were candy hearts.

Mrs. Judd Barnett assisted Mrs. McMillan in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Ivey of Odessa visited here Sunday with Mrs. Ruby Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gist of Midland spent Tuesday and Tuesday night here with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Strickland and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Morgan and Mrs. Bill Copeland and son of LaMarque and Mrs. Ruby Tynes of Lone Grove, Oklahoma attended funeral services at Oplin Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Anna Atwood and returned to Pioneer with Mrs. John Fore to spend the night. Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Tynes are sisters of Mrs. Atwood.

PIONEER NEWS

By A. O. (Slim) Harris

Last week Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Griffith received news of the death of their son-in-law, Buel Bowman of Archer City, who was found dead in his truck near Wichita Falls. Mr. Bowman was in his truck awaiting his turn to load out and was slumped over the steering wheel. Another man, thinking he was asleep, opened the door and he fell out of the cab into his arms. Funeral services and burial were at Seymour on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Winnie Rachels returned home last Thursday from a visit with her son, H. J. Brewer, who lives in San Antonio.

Mrs. Anna Atwood, widow of the late Fayette Atwood who was well known here, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Gwinn, in Abilene last Saturday following a long illness. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Gwinn and Mrs. John Roberts, both of Abilene; three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Morgan of LaMarque, Mrs. Ruby Tynes of Lone Grove, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Beckie Baldrige of Compton, California; one brother, William Fore of Cross Plains. Those from here attending funeral services for Mrs. Atwood were: Mrs. Eula Fore, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fore. Funeral services and burial were at Oplin.

Mrs. C. B. Hester spent the day last Thursday with relatives in Abilene.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lige Tate Sunday were Rev. Quint Farley and family of Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gray visited with their daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Tonne and family, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pancake visited her mother, Mrs. Ricker, in Ranger last week.

Mrs. Belle Lusted visited her sister in Cisco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gibsons' sons, Eugene and Buck, were home for the week end.

The flu has had a tight grip on this community. Some have been hospitalized, but most are home again. T. Milner is still very poorly, H. A. Chaney is staying close to home since returning from the hospital. Mrs. W. I. Shoemaker has returned to duty in the class room and Ed Duncan is gaining some but is still very weak. There are others who have been ill whom I have not mentioned here. Even 'your honor' was too bad to spot the news last week.

Look out peach blossoms and other fruit if this warm weather continues. We won't have a fruit crop this year rain or no rain. I have lived here, there and everywhere but I've never seen it like this.

Jackson, a brother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Adams, Mrs. C. C. Burkett and children, Ann and Jo, and Mrs. Hulda Wesley went to Fort Worth Tuesday of last week to see the inauguration of the president on television. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Archie Adams.

There is a good showing of oil in the well on Mrs. Mary Adams' place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Webb and son of Come and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Webb of Abilene have been here several days at the bedside of B. W. Webb, who is still very ill at the Coleman hospital.

Herman (Slim) Gray and Marvin Burton of Aransas Pass visited their parents here Monday and Monday night, returning home Tuesday.

The Burkett Womens Club met Tuesday night with Mrs. Rex Holland as hostess. Twelve were present.

Mrs. Effie Ayers is back with her mother, Mrs. Mary Adams, after visiting her children in Arizona and California for the past six weeks.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Omar Bursleson

The excitement of the President's Inauguration has subsided, and it is hoped that the Congress can now get down to business. Committees are organized and all Committee assignments of Members of Congress have been completed.

Fortunately for me, I have retained membership on two Committees on which I've been serving. It would have been entirely reasonable that I would have been dropped from one or the other of the Committees when the Republicans took over.

The Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives, of which I am a member, is composed of 29 members—16 Republicans and 13 Democrats. The Committee on House Administration, on which I have served since 1947, is composed of 25 Members, and it is my fortune to stand at the top in seniority on the Democratic side. This is made possible by the resignation from Congress of Thomas B. Stanley, of Virginia, who is a candidate for Governor of that State. Virginia elects their Governor in an "off" political year.

The new Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, has just testified before my Committee, outlining the policies of the new Administration and giving his view on the world situation. Mr. Dulles leaves for Europe the latter part of this month where he will study the entire foreign aid and military program. He will return and give his views and impressions. What he says will doubtless be the basis of future cooperation with Western Europe in defending itself and this country against Russian Communism.

Mr. Dulles believes as does President Eisenhower, that the time is long overdue for the United States to reduce its foreign policy to positive and understanding terms. He warns that there is a rough road ahead but that it cannot be made smoother by any type of appeasement of Russia. He also restates General Eisenhower's previous declaration that our assistance to foreign nations should be based largely on each nation's willingness to help themselves and that dollars alone are not going to do the job. I share these views and certainly intend to lend support to their accomplishment.

Hand in hand with this policy is an indication of growing weakness in Russia. There is no doubt that Russia is having some internal difficulties. The present purges are proof that all is not well. If Stalin's position becomes insecure, it will probably mean he will be more reasonable in his dealings with the United States. The purges reveal the basic weaknesses of a nation held together by fear. Equally important in the world picture is the questioning of Moscow's authority outside Russia. All this is encouraging on our standpoint.

On the home scene, Mr. Truman's attempt to dedicate Tidelands oil to the Navy by Executive Order has drawn the most interest. It was one of his last official acts.

There are mixed opinions as to the effect of Mr. Truman's action. It was an attempt to bolster the Federal Government's position and my belief is that it was intended to prejudice the issue by calling it an act in behalf of National Defense. Personally, I think his order will have little effect, and in fact it could conceivably be an advantage in one respect. It could hasten Congressional action on Tidelands legislation, which several of us have introduced in Congress. We hope of course this will be the case. We feel we have an excellent opportunity to pass the same measure passed in the last Congress and that it will not be vetoed by President Eisenhower.

Visitors from back home this week have been Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Addington, from Abilene; Mrs. Bernard Hanks, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Woodlock, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. James N. Howell, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bryant, of Stamford; and Mr. O. D. Harrison of Shreveport, owner of the Winsor Hotel in Abilene.
