

"AS I SEE IT"

By Jack McCarty

While the nights and mornings are still too cold for comfort there is much evidence of Spring in the air in these parts.

There are still a few misguided souls in this area predicting the weather. H. V. Falkner, butcher at the Piggly Wiggly grocery, stated last week that this area would be soaking wet by March 31 and S. F. Bond is still trying valiantly to maintain his reputation as a weather prognosticator.

In last week's edition, we published an advertisement for Higginbotham Bros. & Co., and have been accused of playing guessing games with our reader(s) since we failed to include the store's signature in the ad.

Our friend, Fred Cook, genial manager of Higginbotham Motor Co., in Rising Star, was in town Tuesday of this week and placed a display advertisement in the Review regarding a big stage show his firm is sponsoring there on Thursday night, February 26.

Property owners are urged to contact Representative Omar Burkett and Senator Wayne Wagoner at their offices in Austin, in regard to Gov. Shivers proposed legislation to raise school teachers pay in the state.

This department extends congratulations to Representative Omar Burkett for his efforts to cut expenses in state government and we heartily agree with his House Bill No. 269, calling for the consolidation of the 91st District Court in Eastland with the 90th District Court in Stephens County.

Heard on the street Saturday: Dub McClure was standing on the sidewalk in front of Wilson's Cafe when a friend walked by and asked him what he knew.

Thought for the week: "In every attainment you make in life, one law is unquestionably true: if it does nothing for somebody else, then it has done nothing for you."

E. J. BARR ON FURLOUGH

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barr arrived in Cross Plains Saturday from Orlando, Florida for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Barr, and other relatives.

E. J. will report to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey on March 17 where he will be assigned to overseas duty with the Northeastern Air Command.

Miss Ann Baum of Brownwood spent the week end here with home folks.

Mr. Cox extends his thanks to the citizens of this trade territory for their fine patronage through the years and pledges his best efforts to maintaining a modern and well stocked store where food buyers may get quality merchandise at reasonable prices in the future.

Special prices are being made on merchandise at the store this week end and on Saturday, he stated that music would be furnished throughout the day for visitors.

CORRECTION:

In a display advertisement for Piggly Wiggly Grocery, appearing in last week's edition of the Review, regular five cent candy bars were advertised "six bars for 5c". This was a typographical error and should have read six bars for 25c. We are sorry.

Probably the largest group of relatives and friends ever gathered here for a funeral were present at the Baptist church last Thursday afternoon to pay final tribute to Dickie and Laverne Huntington and their two children, Sharron and Terry, who were killed in a car-truck crash near Waco Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Services were in charge of Rev. C. E. Poe, of Waco, a former pastor of the local church, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Chapman, and Rev. C. Y. Butler, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

The Masonic Lodge was in charge of the bodies of Dickie and son, Terry, and the local American Legion post had charge of the bodies of Laverne and daughter, Sharron.

In a letter received from Lowery the past week he states that he is at a place that has just been taken over by the U. S. and that his squadron is working to make it the best base in Korea.

THE BAYOU PHILOSOPHER HAS IMPOSSIBLE IDEA ON HOW THE GOVERNMENT CAN SAVE MONEY

Editor's note: The Bayou Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on the Bayou has an impossible idea this week, as you'll readily agree when you read his letter.

Dear editor:

There was sort of a touch of spring in the air out here the other afternoon, a bright sun was shining, the air was still and peaceful, heard a few birds cuttin loose, calves were racin each other over the pasture, my bonny cows were warmin their hides in the sun, and I was out wanderin aimlessly around speculatin on whether eight bales of hay would get my cows through the rest of the cold spells this year, when I stumbled on a copy of a newspaper and since a man can speculate as well sittin down as walkin around I sat down and looked it over.

The first article I noticed raised my blood pressure. Accordin to it, the government is buildin a complete city out in the Nevada desert. It's gonna be complete from paved streets to tall buildings, houses, stores, water system, electricity, gas, etc. When they get it finished, they're gonna drop an atom bomb on it and study the results, see what type buildings stand up, which ones melt down, etc.

Now I don't like to criticize the government, but it seems to me this is another example of government waste and extravagance. Certainly it would be interestin to study first hand the effects of an atom bomb on a city, but what I want to know is why go to the trouble and expense to buildin a new city when we got plenty of good ones already available?

Why build an expensive city in the Nevada desert when we got plenty of cities that would do just as well to blow up? What's the matter with Fort Worth? Or Dallas? Or Houston? Or San Antonio? Or if there is too much professional jealousy between these cities, how about say Eagle Pass? Or Texarkana? Or there must be hundreds of cities in the rest of the United States most of us never have heard of and if we tried hard enough could live without.

Of course, if there developed too much competition among cities for this honor, why couldn't the matter be settled by pickin out a city say in North Korea, or in China, or if the experts wracked their brains and couldn't think of one there, maybe there might be one somewhere in Russia.

I don't like to stand in the way of scientific progress, but I do like to see the government save money when it can.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Vocational School Now Approved For Korean Veterans

The Callahan County Vocational School has been officially approved for the training of Korean veterans under Public Law 550 and is now enrolling trainees in the schools of the county.

At the present time, class in Agriculture, Automobile Mechanics and Distributive Education are maintained in the county, and Korean veterans who are interested in entering training in any of the above phases should make inquiry at the County Coordinator's office in the courthouse for more detailed information.

It is to the interest of the Korean veteran who expects to enter training to enroll as soon as possible, as the veterans who have been in training under P. L. 346 and P. L. 16 are completing their courses or period of training eligibility and it has been necessary to consolidate or close some of the classes.

Each Korean veteran should multiply his period of enlistment by one and one-half to determine the amount of schooling to which he is entitled.

Russell-Surles Abstract Co., Baird, Moves To New Downtown Office

The Russell-Surles Abstract Co., which has officed in the Callahan County courthouse since 1929, moved to their new location, 337 Market Street, Baird, February 10.

This abstract company was established by the late Judge B. L. Russell and A. G. Webb in 1900. Judge Russell purchased Mr. Webb's interest in 1915, and also purchased the abstract business of L. L. Blackburn.

Roscoe Surles became the partner of Judge Russell and the firm became known as Russell-Surles Abstract Co., and has been in continuous operation under the same name. Judge Russell purchased the interest of Roscoe Surles in 1918.

Mrs. Farris Bennett, the former Vada White, began working for Judge Russell-Surles, the sole owner of Russell-Surles Abstract Co., on March 15, 1922 and has been continuously with the firm since that date.

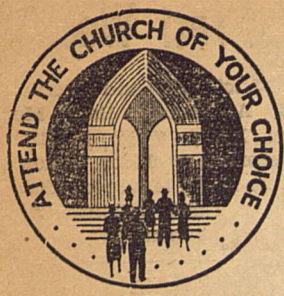

Because of falling health, Judge Russell sold the business to A. C. Foster of Rule on April 1, 1947. On January 1, 1949, Mr. Foster in turn sold to Vada White Bennett, the present owner.

MRS. O. M. SMITH REPORTED TO BE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

As the Review goes to press the condition of Mrs. O. M. Smith is reported to be grave. Mrs. Smith has been in falling health for some time and her condition grew worse Friday.

Mrs. B. E. Stator of Lewisville was a visitor in the Earl Pyle home on Friday of last week.

Q—I'm planning to take a co-operative course in college under the Korean GI Bill. Part of the course consists of classroom studies, and part consists of working at a job in my chosen field. Will I get my monthly GI allowances for the periods when I'm working, or only for the time I spend in class?

A—The monthly education and training allowances will be paid both for your classroom time and the time you spend on the job. Your work also is considered part of your over-all training program.

She says that you should vacuum clean your carpets each day and have them cleaned at least once a year by a professional rug cleaner. The National Institute of Rug Cleaning has officially endorsed the Lewyt Vacuum Cleaner for daily vacuuming.

Over Half Children In Country Have Cavities Before Entering School

More than half the children in this country have as many as six cavities in their teeth before they begin school.

That's the estimate of Texas dental authorities and state health officials as they announced February 2 as the date for the fifth annual observance of Children's Dental Health Day.

The day has been set aside in an attempt to call public attention to these startling facts:

Ninety-eight percent of all 15-old boys have one or more teeth missing, decayed or filled.

Over 284 million cavities are afflicting the teeth of American children, with teeth decaying six times faster than they are being filled.

One-half of the children between the ages of three and nine have never in their lives had dental treatment.

"One of the biggest hurdles to be overcome," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox says, "is the seemingly widespread attitude that baby teeth are insignificant."

He believes the attitude stems from the fact that baby teeth are only temporary, with most people thinking there is no need for concern until the child gets his permanent set.

But dental scientists say that the Jim Settle of this city was married to Mrs. Lorena Wilson of Archer City on Tuesday night of last week. Ceremonies were performed in Coleman by Rev. Cooper, pastor of the Coleman Presbyterian Church.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Balkum during the week end were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Balkum and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Seals and family of San Angelo.

Care given baby teeth has a direct and vital bearing on the condition of permanent teeth, Dr. Cox points out.

The Texas State Department of Health and the State Dental Society are sponsoring the state observance of the day.

They are appealing to all parents to pay attention to the plight of youngsters' teeth. And they make this prediction:

"The children will be grateful... especially when they are no longer children."

New Highway Maps Are Available Free of Charge

Austin.-Texas chalked up another "first" recently when the 1953 Texas Official Highway Map was released. D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, announced.

The new map, featuring "A Look at Texas" theme, is a 100 per cent Texas product. Wood pulp for the paper was grown in East Texas. The paper was made near Houston and the plates and printing were done in Austin.

An encyclopedia of Texas information in itself, the map side provides current and accurate highway information, while the back side has pictures and information on points of interest.

Locations of roadside parks, national and state parks, national forests, mountainous areas, lakes and streams, along with other information that will add to the safety, comfort, and pleasure of the traveling public are shown. There are 1,304 cities and towns listed with a cross section of altitudes given. Thirteen enlarged city insets are provided for the convenience of motorists traveling through these major metropolitan areas. Distances are indicated between all points and a special mileage index chart reflects the accumulated official mileage between principal points.

For "A Look at Texas," the back side offers in color some of the outstanding vacation spots. Fishing, horseback riding, picnicking, sailing, and cattle branding scenes suggest places to "go."

Greer announced that the new map is available to the general public for the asking. For the convenience of the public, a special addressed card is available in the County Tax Collector's office upon the registration of your automobile. These map cards will expedite the handling and mailing of the maps, Greer added. The maps are also available free of charge at any Texas Highway Department District office, Travel Information Bureau, or by writing direct to the Texas Highway Department, Austin 14, Texas, Greer concluded.

Among Cross Plains residents attending the Callahan County Singing Convention at Cottonwood Sunday afternoon were Fred Stacy, S. F. Bond and W. M. Tatom and Mmes. Mamie Swafford, A. J. Mathis, W. A. Strickland, Exal McMillan and Kate Strahan.

Let's Talk Sweet Potatoes

Some of you may be wondering about the prospects for sweet potatoes next season. Here is what the USDA says about possibilities. "Continued strong demand for fresh and processed vegetables is forecast for 1953. Sweet potato production is likely to increase moderately in 1953, but probably not enough to reduce prices to farmers much below the high level of recent years."

Swapping fertilizer for sweet potatoes will probably be good business. A planting where no fertilizer was put in the ground produced 71 bushels of sweet potatoes per acre. With 300 pounds of 4-12-8 the yield jumped to 111 bushels, and when 600 pounds were added the yield climbed on up to 143 bushels. Your county agent can suggest amounts and kinds to use.

Senator Wagonseller of 22nd District Appointed To 7 Senate Committees

Austin — Senator Wayne W. Wagonseller of Bowie was appointed to the top committees of the State Senate as the regular session of the 53rd Legislature got underway.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey appointed the Senator, who represents Clay, Montague, Jack, Wise, Denton, Parker, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Eastland and Callahan counties, to seven standing Committees, all of which are considered "most desirable" committees in the Senate.

Wagonseller's assignments are to the Committees on State Affairs, Agriculture, Oil and Gas, Insurance, Education, and Highways and Motor Traffic. In addition, Wagonseller was named chairman of the Labor committee.

As a member of the agriculture committee, the Senator from Montague will be in a position to work closely on all bills concerning the agricultural and livestock interest so important in this district.

State affairs committee is considered one of the two most important committees in the State, the other being finance. All tax bills to be considered in the Senate go to the state affairs committee for handling. With a tax bill almost a certainty this session, the committee is more important than ever.

As a member of the oil, gas and conservation committee, Wagonseller will work on all legislation dealing with the important oil and gas industry of Texas, including the proposed minimum price for natural gas bill and the unitization bill.

As a member of the Education Committee, Wagonseller will be in a position to handle legislation favorable to the school teachers, schools and colleges of the 22nd understand the problems involved. On the front of the Archives Building here in Washington where official Government papers are preserved, is this inscription: "What is past is prologue." This inscription suggests to us that the past points the way to the future and that only a beginning has been made in the development of this country. A visitor to Washington asked a taxi driver the meaning of "What is past is prologue," and his reply was in my opinion about the best that could be said about it. He said that "It's just some high falutin' Government language that means, 'You ain't seen nothin' yet.'"

Fort Worth—After a couple of weeks of lighter supplies of cattle around the major market circle, followed by strengthening prices, the gates flew open again this week and over 111,000 cattle were reported at 12 markets on Monday. Prices sagged from 50 cents to $1.50 per hundred at Northern points.

At Fort Worth, despite the fact that a big percentage of the run was fed yearlings and steers, the market was less drastically lower. Sales of fed steers and yearlings opened steady, and closed 25 to 50 cents lower. Other kinds of cattle were fully steady, with cows and bulls in good demand. Fat calves drew firm prices, and stocker cattle and calves moved at firm prices, some high quality calves and yearlings stronger.

Fat and feeder lambs were around steady to 50 cents higher. Old sheep and yearlings were steady. Butcher hogs were 25 to 50 cents higher, topping at $20.75 and $21 on Monday. Sows drew $16 to $19, or 50 cents higher.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings drew $19 to $23.50, plain and medium kinds $13 to $19. Stocker steer yearlings sold at $22.50 down. Fat cows sold from $14 to $16.50, with canners and cutters from $10 to $14. Fed cattle came from a wide area to Fort Worth Monday. E. H. Slator, Adgen, Arkansas, had 102 steers at 1,026 pounds at $20 and from across the full length of Texas at Tornillo (El Paso County) the Allison Farms shipped 31 heifers at 842 pounds at $22.50, and 22 steers at 898 pounds at $22.

From South Texas, Bentsen Bros. Mission, had 74 yearlings at 434 pounds at $20.50 and Simmons & Perry, Corpus Christi, had 40 steers at 1,135 pounds at $23. Other South Texas shippers were Connally-Hicks Cattle Company, Floresville, two loads of $22 calves. Mule-shoe Cattle Co., of Northwest Texas (Wilbarger County) had a load of 571 pound yearlings at $22. Amherst in the Texas Plains was represented by Halsell Cattle Co., with a load of heavy 940 pound heifers at $20.

Good and choice fat calves $19-23.50; cull, common and medium kinds drew $11-19.00. Stocker steer calves $24 down. Stocker cows $12-18. Bulls $12 to $18.

Wooled fat lambs $18-21.50, shorn kinds, No. 2 and No. 3 pelts and good and choice drew $18-19.50. Stocker and feeder lambs drew $14-19.50. Fat yearlings and two's, shorn, drew $16.00-17.00. Slaughter ewes sold for $7.50-9.50.

Senatorial District. As a member of the Insurance committee, Wagonseller is in a strategic position to pass the four insurance bills that he has already introduced in the Senate.

Burleson In Line For To Top Ranking Demo Position In Congress

A slight shift in Congressional organization is soon likely to elevate Representative Omar Burleson (D-Tex.) to the top-ranking Democratic position in the House Committee on Administration.

The Seventeenth District Congressman is slated to step into the top spot on the Democratic side of the Committee table by February 3rd, when Representative Thomas E. Stanley (D-Va.) vacates his seat in the House to become a candidate for Governor of Virginia. Stanley was Chairman of the important standing committee of the House in the recent Eighty-second Congress, but lost his chairmanship when the Republicans gained control of the House in last November's election.

Should the Democrats regain control of the House, Burleson is in line to become Chairman of the Administration Committee. He is also eighth ranking Democrat on the Foreign Affairs Committee.

Second only to the Virginian as ranking majority member of the Committee in the last Congress, Burleson was Chairman of the active House Subcommittee on Elections. Comprised almost entirely of former judges and attorneys, this body controls Federal elections laws and regulations and serves as a court of last resort in deciding contested Congressional elections.

The Administration Committee is one of the 19 standing committees of the House established under the Reorganization Act of 1946. Combining the functions of 10 pre-reorganization committees, it has cognizance over a broader variety of legislative matters than any other House committee.

In addition to its control over election matters, it administers all the myriad Congressional house-keeping affairs, including the multi-million dollar contingent fund of the House. All Congressional investigations are subject to the Committee's action in that the Administrative Committee controls investigative funds.

It administers the affairs of the Library of Congress, the Government Printing Office, the Smithsonian Institute, the Botanic Gardens, and all Federal memorials. As ranking minority member of the Committee, Burleson will probably also serve on several Joint Senate-House Committees.

Attending a banquet the other evening given by the radio and television newscasters, I sat at a table with Lowell Thomas, H. R. Baukhage, H. V. At the affair were Gabriel Heatter, Fulton Lewis, Jr., Cedric Poster, and about everyone else in the business. The subject of Tiedlands arose and being the only Texan at the table, I found myself in the minority favoring State ownership. Mr. Baukhage turned to me and said that although we disagreed on this subject, he thought we could discuss the development of Santa Gertrudis cattle without any argument. Mr. Baukhage told me he had pur-
