Among the retired persons who play golf most every day at Lakewood are Marvin Porter and W. B. (Slim) Harmon.

Most 70 - year - oldsters would be supremely pleased to shoot a sub-par round. But not Porter. He recently toured Lakewood's nine holes with 35 strokes — one less than par — only to lose to Harmon, whose card read 33.

Most polite person in Cross Plains is the local lady who habitually thanks the telephone recording, which tells her when all circuits are busy and that she should hang up and dial again later.

Fire Company Gets 7 Calls In 2 Days

Seven calls for help came to Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department last week end.

Saturday the rural division began with a call at 11:35 A.M. from east of Nimrod, but the fire could not be located. Shortly after returning the unit fought a grass fire near Putnam for almost an hour.

In between those blazes, burning trash blew onto grass at the home of Mrs. W. B. Williams on Ave. D. here. At 2:40 P.M. rural fighters went to a huge brush and pasture fire two miles west of Denton Valley, returning at 6 p.m. During this time Rising Star called for help at a grass fire, but local personnel were not available to send a truck. Sunday at 11:55 a.m. rural crew doused a grass fire in 30 minutes six miles west of Cross Plains near the N. L. Dillard place. Firemen fought a grass fire for an hour at the city dump Sunday afternoon although the siren was not sounded.

Locally-Bred Lamb Sells For $5,850

Grand champion lamb of the recent Houston Fat Stock Show and Livestock Exhibition was one born and bred on a Cross Plains farm. The animal, tops of 903 entered, sold at auction for $5,850. It was a purebred Hampshire from the Deel Edington flock and was exhibited by Jim Dixon, Marfa FFA youth.

The Edington lambs are in much demand and all bucks born on the place are sought by Future Farmers and 4-H organizations over the state. This y tr Edington supplied Marfa, Mipine, Coleman, Menard and Santa Anna exhibitors.

Lambs from the Edington flock are winning wide poularity because of high placings at major shows throughout the Southwest. Grand champion of the big San Antonio show last year was from the local flock.
