So, The British Pray

(Second of 6 parts)

Harsh! Take that up with those starving and dying in the darkness of worldly SECULAR THEOLOGY. Take that up with a Cambodian displaced by his 'neighbors'. Take that up with those who have perished in the power of satan. Yes, take it up with the crucified and mocked Redeemer. WHY did He die? For good men? For the 'cultured'? For those who do not want to forgo the pleasant things their fathers had or took? Let us briefly consider the present traditions and practices. Do not the professed British Saints still give their children to the state to 'educate' at their neighbors', others expense? Do they still not take and demand 'socialist' welfare, health and medical payments, care and legislation as do other thieves? Do they not still take and DESIRE state or state-subsidized 'jobs' and taxpaid pensions? Do they not still demand minimum wage laws, state credit and other legalized forms of criminal interferences with men, work, and business and education - even legislation that does punish good for their evil-gotten advantage (s)? And do they not still vote (or are they silent) for the legislators to take for property and property rights? Do they not DESIRE that the politicians accomplish their wants WITHOUT work; do they not demand that their neighbor's labor and money be redistributed to accomplish their dreams of 'charity'?

Thus, I ask, are the professed and 'concerned' British saints not parties to the force, coercion, theft, plunder and evils 'necessary' to the effective accomplishment of those ends? Even thase ends which our God abhors. Hence, shall one who sows cats and prays for beets expect 'consolation' when the harvest is oats-????? What kind of God have we? Is not His creation orderly? Yea, can professed saints be JOINT-HEIRS Jack Rector of the Sabanno Randy Walker and Marie and of politician-plundered goods and services and escape the plunders' harvest? And should they have the consolation of His saints because they call themselves by His Name as did the Pharisees of old? (Gal. 5:14-21 - Eph. 5:5-8)
