HINTS FOR ADVERTISERS

When you next call The Review, 725-6111, to place a classified ad, remember that words are your business. Words properly put together in an ad mean more phone calls and more sales for you. Follow the rules below and get more and faster results.

1. Put in the address

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. Put in the phone number

Many readers will call you but will not find it convenient to come to your home or business.

- 3. Avoid use of blind boxes Avoid them if possible. They are difficult to answer and people prefer to deal directly.
- 4. Put in the price, by all means Surveys show that many people will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. Keep the readers from guessing

On important details it is better to include them if they are relevant to a sale.

6. Be available

If you advertise your phone and address, be sure you are not absent when the ad appears so as to accommodate the reader.

Lord, I finally made it home. I heard you call, I came alone. It was a dark, rough rocky way, But worth it all to hear you say, "Well done my good and fait,hful son, I'm glad you are home, life just begun." Within His arms He said to me, "From all your sins, you are set free." With nail scared hands He dried my tears That I had shed down through the years, And with a touch He healed my pain, And I will never hurt again.

Then He took me by the hand. And showed me through this promsed land; All the things I did behold As we walked on streets of solid gold. All the mansions we did see, And one of them belongs to me. The tree of life, so tall and green, By crystal waters pure and clear Are at the foot of God's white throne Where He told me I was His own. Now you can rest, all is complete On the grass here at my feet.

In 1803, America found herself up the river. The Mississippi, that is. Valuable goods were being produced in the Midwest, and the mighty Mississippi was our only link to the sea. But the oudet in New Orleans belonged to France. So President Jefferson sent agents to Paris to negotiate for the addition of New Orleans. Surprisingly, Napoleon offered to sell the entire Louisiana Territory for only $15,000,000. And that included what is today
