BIG WRESTLING BOUT HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Tonight (Thursday) Kala Pasha, "The Terrible Turk" of Abilene, will meet Yaqui Joe, the sensational Indian wrestler, of Sonora, Old Mexico, in what is predicted to be one of the best mat bouts ever staged in this city. Kala Pasha is well known and is recognized as one of the best mat artists in his weight. He has wrestled here several times, and the grappler who beats him must be a good one. Yaqui Joe has not visited these parts before, but they say he is "fast and furious" and that is covering lots of ground, speaking of wrestling. So those who attend may expect to be well entertained. Some fast wrestling and boxing preliminaries are also on program. The bouts will be staged at the big open air stadium.

Billy Dixon and Gus Anderson, both well known here, engaged in a fast bout here last Thursday night, and Anderson won, taking the last two falls while Dixon won the first. Dixon has left the city it is stated and did not announce his intended destination. He has been wrestling here for several months. He will be remembered here by many who will try to keep in touch with him. Dick Yarbrough of this city and Pete Cordell of San Angelo, fistic artists, boxed six rounds to a draw, both showing much speed and aggressiveness. It was an interesting bout.

EASTLAND MAVERICKS WILL MEET THE TIGERS HERE SUNDAY

The Eastland Mavericks—one of the best base ball clubs in Central West Texas, will meet the Cross Plains Tigers here again next Sunday. These two teams recently played two games here, and both games were good ones. A large crowd will be out Sunday to see this third round, which promises to be a good one.

John Elkins of Echo was here Tuesday buying fruit from Cross Plains growers.

OPERATORS CONTINUE DRILLING OPERATIONS

Mook Texas and Wakefield have completed their T. E. Baum No. 2 for 175 barrels. Hill & West are drilling at 1663 and in expect to drill in this week on their Waller No. 1. P. O. & G. are spudding on their T. E. Baum No. 2 are drilling at 470 on No. 3 and digging slush pit for No. 4. They are also digging slush pit for well on Swafford lease. L. G. Bradstreet is moving machine to new location on Swafford. The Navarro Oil Co. is drilling at 540 on Bennett-Booth No. 4.

A late report on Hill & West's well states that they have touched the pay, and have showing for good well. A wildcat is being drilled five miles north of town, on Mrs. J. E. Pate's farm, which is causing much interest.

WAGNER WINS FREE TRIP TO PARIS

In the American Legion contest here for a free trip to the American Legion Convention in Paris France, Ross Wagner won. He leaves Galveston with thousands of other world war veterans for Paris on Sept. 2. He is all smiles today. The final count in the voting contest was as follows, Wednesday at 6 p. m.:

CAPT ERWIN STARTS ON HONG KONG TRIP

Capt. William Erwin, Texas Ace, who is a nephew of our fellow townsman, Geo. Erwin and is well known here, hopped off from Love Field, Dallas, Tuesday in the "Spirit of Dallas" on the Dallas to Hong Kong, China flight. He was accompanied by his wife. The "Spirit of Dallas" was christened by Governor Moody Monday. Captain Erwin expects to fly to Honolulu, on to Guam thence to Hong Kong—W. E. Easterwood of Dallas, promoter of the flight, is offering a prize of $25,000.00 for successful termination of the flight. Capt. Erwin is a favorite and his friends here and across the waters are banking on him. He became an ace during the world war, bringing down a number of enemy planes. His home is in Dallas. He formerly lived here and his many friends will watch the progress of the flight with much interest.

BANQUET

County Commissioner Carpenter of Oplin, and Commissioner Geo. Clifton, Ed Horn of the Hall Ranch, George Baum W. P. Brightwell and W. O. Spencer, west of town, attended a meeting of the road committee of the C. of C. Saturday afternoon and were guests of the local organization at a noon luncheon at the Kemper Hotel. Matters pertaining to the local road situation west of town were discussed at the meeting and some extensive improvements are being contemplated in the near future. Hearty co-operation for better roads was promised by the commissioner and the public is indeed fortunate in having wide awake men at the helm in county road building in Callahan County.

COTTON ADVANCE

With a government forecast Monday that the cotton production would be short, with an estimate of 13,492,000 the price jumped up $15 advance. Last year's crop was 17,977,374 bales. As a result of the improved market cotton growers are smiling. And why shouldn't they?

FIRST BALE

Just as we go to press, we see the first bale of cotton on the streets. A complete report will be given next week.

SCHOOL TO START IN NEW BUILDINGS SOON

The new school buildings for the Cross Plains public schools are nearing completion and will be read for school opening September fifth.

On Monday, September fifth the teachers of the entire system will assemble in the High School building for a three day session of Institute, plan making, and organization work. Thursday and Friday, September, 8 and 9th will be devoted to registration, enrollment and the issuance of books to the pupils of the school. All pupils who failed to make a passing grade in any of all of the work last year will be given an opportunity to make this work. All pupils coming to this school will be required to take entrance examinations or furnish proper certificates of preparation for the work they wish to take. These examinations will be given September eighth and ninth in the high school building. Regular class room work will begin Monday, September, 12th.

All pupils presenting themselves for registration MUST have book cards showing that they have returned all books issued them last year, before they will be issued free text books. ALL PUPILS ARE REQUESTED TO REGISTER ON THE DAYS DESIGNATED FOR THAT PURPOSE AS REGULAR CLASSES BEGIN THE FOLLOWING MONDAY AND REGISTRATION AND THE ISSUANCE OF BOOKS THEN WILL NOT BE DELAYED AND AN INCONVENIENCE TO BOTH PUPIL AND SCHOOL.

A child to be classified as a scholar and entitled to free school must be seven years of age before September first of that year, and must reside in the district or else transfer from another district. The child transferred from another district will be given free school in so far as the state apportionment for the total enrollment for the school will maintain the school (approximately four and half months). After that time a minimum tuition charge of three dollars for the first three grades, three and one half dollars for the next three grades, and four dollars for the seventh grade and the high school will be made per month.

The school will also enroll children under the age of 7 if they are six before September the first and will enroll at the time of registration. The tuition charge for these pupils will be three dollars per month paid in advance. The school will also enroll students over 21 years of age and students from other districts over 18 years of age with a minimum tuition charge of four dollars per month, paid in advance.

Cross Plains will have a modern school plant consisting of two buildings containing twenty class rooms, a study hall, offices, toilets an auditorium, and two rooms for music and expression. The faculty will consist of twenty members including the music and expression teachers.

Other announcements regarding the school will be made in next week's paper. Read them because the interest you manifest in the school is of paramount importance to both school and your child.

COYOTES FAILED TO COME

From some cause (which the Tigers explain to their own satisfaction) the Baird Coyotes did not show up for a game Sunday, as scheduled and advertised. And the bad feature about was that they said nothing about it until an hour before he game was supposed to start—then they phoned that they would not be here. Well, you can imagine what the Tigers had to say, and their feelings were in full accord with several hundred other enthusiastic baseball fans, who were expecting to see one of the best games of the season. It is supposed that the Coyotes realized that the Tigers were too much for them and lost their nerve at the last moment, and backed off. But it would have been well and good if they had let it be known sooner so another game could have been arranged, yet they waited. Well, we don't blame the Coyotes from not coming, but these eleventh hour decisions cause dissatisfaction some times—and this happened to be one of the times, judging from what we hear.

Ira Huddler of Fry was doing business here Tuesday.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEETING

A meeting of all trustees of Callahan County will be held at Baird in the District Courtroom on the 18th day of this month. Mr. Eilers, Rural school supervisor of the Department of Education at Austin will explain all phases of the new laws enacted by the 40th legislature bearing upon school matters. It is especially important that trustees of all schools in the county be present. Under the new law it is the duty of the county school board to classify all schools of the county at the August meeting which will be held on the 15th of August.

Hereafter the county board will meet monthly on the second Monday in each month. The county board is composed of the following members: W. B. Boyd-stun, Chairman; W. H. Bryant, County at large; Chas. Allen, Precinct No. 2; R. D. Williams, Precinct No. 3; J. A. Moore, Precinct No. 4.

L. O. Payne had his toe removed Monday, which was crushed in an engine some time ago.

PROSPERITY vs MISFORTUNE

Prosperity is always a welcome visitor—but we sometimes have an unwelcome visitor—misfortune, and we are unprepared for the latter unless we take advantage of the former. A good bank account is often a "life saver" when the waves of misfortune are raging on the sea of life.

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of St. Joseph, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 29 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends."

These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from lack of strength and from weakness, their own life and that of their family is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their household work easily, happy homes are the result.

Medicine Sent by Raft

To give medical relief to the tiny West Indian island of St. Vincent, the liner Andes, on its way from South America to Lisbon recently, went 170 miles off its regular course. It had received a wireless S. O. S. that influenza was raging among the islanders and remedies were scarce. The liner approached within a mile of shore, and to prevent the disease spreading to the ship, the needed supplies were placed on a raft built for the purpose, the natives rowing out to it.

"Say It With Slogans!"

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
Drawing by Ray Walters.

'E'IGHT Years of Wall Street—Give Main Street a Chance.

Will that slogan help bring victory to the Democratic party in the Presidential campaign next year? The members of the Woman's National Democratic club hope that it will. Realizing the value of a good, snappy campaign slogan as a vote-getter, several months ago the club announced a prize contest as the means of securing a rallying cry for the Democratic party in 1928. Hundreds of catchy phrases were offered in the contest, but the one submitted by Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard of Chestertown, Md., was selected as the one most likely to offset the vote-getting powers of "Coolidge prosperity," which the Republicans are expected to emphasize.

Whether or not they have guessed right remains to be seen. There is no denying the power of a good slogan in a nation which thinks in terms of catchy phrases and one of whose popular deities is the great god, Advertising, who utters his Jovian wisdom in slogans. But to get a good slogan—ay, there's the rub!

Slogans have won elections even before the American public became "slogan conscious." Perhaps the earliest example of this was the political campaign of 1840. For 40 years (since 1800 when Jefferson was elected) the Democrats had been in power and the Whigs, the successors and heirs of the Federalists, had longed for the fleshpots of government power. They nominated Gen. William Henry Harrison, a veteran of the War of 1812, famous for his victory over the Indians at the Battle of Tippecanoe, but at the time of his election living on a frontier farm in Ohio. His running mate was John Tyler of Virginia and early in the campaign the battle cry of the Whigs became the "three T's"—"Tippecanoe and Tyler, too." The alliteration was pleasing to the ear of the voter, but even more effective was the symbolism of the Whig party. Harrison was known as "the Log Cabin candidate," because of his pioneer career in Indiana and in all of the campaign parades there appeared floats bearing a log cabin with a coon-skin nailed on the walls and a barrel of hard cider standing beside the door. Both the symbolism and the slogan of Harrison's "log cabin and hard cider" campaign were such as would appeal most to political power with the election of "Old Hickory" Jackson, and Harrison was swept into the White House by an immense majority over Martin Van Buren of New York.

Radio's Great Service

Most of us think of the radio as a source of recreation or pleasure or information for ourselves. How many of us think what it may mean to some one less fortunate? An old lady in New York—and lady is the right word—who was formerly well-to-do but is now poor and a "shut-in," received a set as a present just before Christmas. An employee of the donor installed it for her. The first sound she heard was the notes of a violin solo, with an accompaniment. "It is the first music I have heard in years," she said, when it was ended. She had neither been physically able to go to a concert nor financially able to pay for a ticket. Marconi's greatest rewards are not in money.—Youth's Companion.

Distance's Lure

I have heard it said of a great painting, "Don't go too close to it." In order to get the best out of a picture, view it in the proper light, and from a distance. If you get too close a look you will realize the rough way in which it is made.

I prefer (now) to also view women from a distance; never closer than four or five feet.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Revenue From Rabbits Lighting Makes for Safety

Rabbits are changing in Australia from the country's worst pest to a profitable asset. They are now providing by means of their fur a considerable export trade. A large sum of money is spent yearly in an effort to stamp out the rabbits, which do great damage to crops, but now an army of trappers is at work trying to meet the demand for skins, particularly from the United States. In some cases, it is said, they earn as much as $150 a week.

Good lighting increases safety. Four persons are accidentally injured every minute of the working day due to faulty lighting and two are accidentally killed every hour due to the same primary cause. An average of 100,000 workmen are out of work continually due to accidents traceable to inadequate lighting. At $1,000 per person this is a loss to the country of $100,000,000 annually.

Too much money can shorten life.

DRIED-OUT BOWELS HOLD MALARIA IN YOUR SYSTEM

If malaria is in your system, the only way to get it out without torturing and upsetting yourself is to take Dodson's Liver Tonic to clean out the hardened, dried-out accumulation of bile in the liver and bowels, and carry the germs out with it.

Never take calomel. That's wrong. Calomel is mercury—a dangerous drug. It jars the liver and cleans constipated bowels, that's true. But it salivates you—makes you sick and you lose a day from your work. It stifles the muscles of the bowels, deadens them so they can't act at all.

Dodson's Liver Tonic cleans you out good so the liver is free to get the malarial germs out of your blood, and the bowels can carry them off. Before you realize it the chills and fever stop. Malaria is gone.

Get the big bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic from your nearest store. They all have it. Keep it in the house so you will have it handy to take nights before you go to bed.

Lesson for August 14
DAVID BRINGS THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—II Sam. 6:1-19; Ps. 24.
GOLDEN TEXT—We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.
PRIMARY TOPIC—David Worships God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—David Worships God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Worship God.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Exalting God in Individual and National Life.

I. David Made King.
1. Over Judah (II Sam. 2:1-14).
Upon the death of Saul and Jonathan, David knew that the time had come for the fulfillment of God's purpose, but he carefully inquired of the Lord as to the proper movement to make. God directed him to Hebron, whereupon the children of Judah anointed him to be their king.

2. Over Israel (II Sam. 5:1-5).
After the death of Ishbosheth, the children of Israel came and formed a league with David, anointing him as their king. They assigned as their reasons:

- (1) He was their brother (v. 1). This is true of Jesus Christ, who has become our kinsman through the incarnation.
- (2) He was their leader in war, even in Saul's time (v. 2).
- (3) He was the Lord's choice (v. 2).

II. David's Unsuccessful Attempt to Bring Up the Ark (vv. 15-17).
This is an example of a wrong way of doing a right thing. That the Ark of the Lord of Hosts, the symbol of God's presence, should be brought to the center of the nation's life was a decision worthy of all praise. David gathered together the representative men of the nation in order that the movement might be a national one. That David was sincere in this measure cannot be doubted, but he was hasty and inconsiderate, for the procedure was an express violation of God's statutes. The dictum that it matters little what you do, just so you are honest and sincere is one of the devil's blackest lies.

III. God Vindicates His Law and Holiness (vv. 6-9).
The people were very joyful as they moved on toward Jerusalem with the ark, but suddenly there was a stop to the jubilant voices and music. At some rough place in the road the oxen stumbled and Uzzah, anxious for the precious freight on his cart, reached forth his hand to steady it. This resulted in his being stricken to death, as a man who touches a live electric wire. Ignorance does not make a man immune from the death which is in the touch of the heavily charged electric wire; neither does it in the case of the violation of God's laws. Since the ark was God's dwelling place among men, they needed to know that He was holy.

IV. The Ark of God in the House of Obed-Edom (vv. 10-12).
The homes where God is welcomed are always blessed. Obed-Edom was not better personally than Uzzah and David, but he openly received the Lord and properly related himself to Him. What had been death and dread to others was life and blessing to him. This was all because of his attitude toward it.

V. The Ark Brought to Jerusalem With Great Joy (vv. 13-19).
1. Sacrifices were offered after going six paces (v. 13).
David made the start and when convinced of God's approval, he made offerings. These were both burnt and peace offerings, typifying the self-dedication of the offerers and their thanksgiving (I Chron. 16:1).

2. David's great joy (vv. 14, 15).
The people joined him with great shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

3. Michal's criticism (v. 16).
Even though David went to excess in his expression of joy, it was wrong in her to criticize, for God seems to have sanctioned David's rebuke of her (v. 23).

4. The grand celebration (vv. 17-19).
As a token of his gratitude to God, David generously treated the people.

5. The King of Glory, the Lord Jesus Christ, coming (Ps. 24:7-10).
This was not the psalm composed by David for the occasion of bringing up the ark; that was Psalm 105. (See I Chron. 16). It is strange that such a suggestion should have been made. This 24th psalm pictures Christ as the coming and triumphant King. At that time the gates shall open to Him and the King of Glory shall come in.

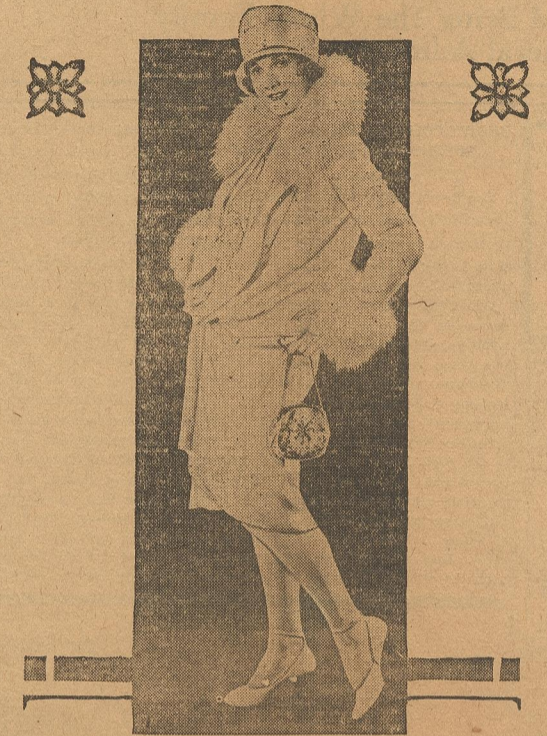

God Gives Us Power
God gives us power to bear all the sorrows of His making; but He does not give the power to bear the sorrows of our own making, which the anticipation of sorrow most assuredly is.—Ian MacLaren.

Asking
Asking "of me" is the one appeal of the most high. It is not enough that we should be able to vindicate a promise signed by the divine hand; we must plead it.—F. B. Meyer.

FASHION'S FAVORITE ENSEMBLE; MILLINERY TAKES UP FLOWERS

WOMEN of fashion are indulging in the luxury of all-white this summer. One has only to count up the cleaner's bills at the end of a "white season" to agree that it is no misnomer to refer to the all-white costume as a luxury.
Somehow both madam and made-moiselle appear at their most charming, clad in pure white. Not only is the allurement of all-white due to its becomingness, but its immaculate daintiness ever bears the appeal of the exquisite. So it is that the vogue for white is with us, particularly so these late midsummer days.
White coats posed over white frocks, topped with chic white felt hats, such is fashion's favorite ensemble. Coats range from the simplest tailored types of white flannel, also the knitted kind, to most elegant has only to view the latest models from Paris to appreciate the fact that flowers are decidedly in the millinery picture, but in ways most unique and distinctive.

The tendency is marked toward flat flowers for they lend themselves so successfully to the idea of being built into the structure of the hat without interfering with its original contour. The method of applying trimming so as to maintain an undisturbed silhouette must be observed, in order to secure a proper styling, according to the modern conception of good designing.
A flat flower treatment is carried out adroitly by forming a semi-crown of roses for the black straw hat shown at the top to the right in this picture. The little bonnets in this collection are quaintly flower-trimmed. The one modes, the latter frequently cuffed and collared with white fox.

Meet, if you please, in the picture, Gertrude Olmstead, the youthful film actress, who is of the newer generation of stars, wearing an adorable all-white costume just such as is the envy and admiration of all who behold. White falls is the chosen medium for this ravishing model with a wealth of snowy fox fur. A bright red heel on a white kid pump and a smart net-point embroidered bag are the chic accessories which enhance this lovely costume.
The return to favor of the separate white fox neckpiece is registered this season in the smart set's book of style. Even if one should perchance neglect to wear one's white coat—one's white fox boa, never! White fox, women have learned, is too flatteringly becoming to be omitted from the picture. And the way to wear it is to trail it across the back of one's shoulders, fastening it, oh! so daintily at the front, so that it does not encumber the throat. With the colorful sheer summery frocks, there's nothing more entrancing in the way of an accessory, than a snow-white fur neck-piece.

There is, on the large hat to the left, the usual chiffon flange, which so gracefully serves to make this wide brim look wider. Flat flowers elaborate the crown with a summery transparent rose resting on the brim. The vogue of huge brims has revived the fashion of posing a single large flower underneath next the face, as evidenced in the concluding hat in this group.

Here's Speedy Relief for Tender, Aching, Swollen Feet

Your Druggist Says Emerald Oil Must Give Complete Satisfaction or Money Cheerfully Refunded.

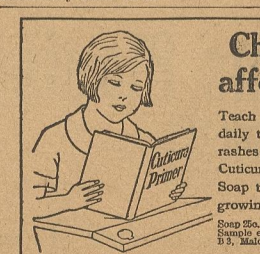

Your feet may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?
Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.
And as for Soft Corns and Callouses a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with powders, footbaths or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn.
It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose or swollen veins.
Every good druggist guarantees the first bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil. It must end your foot troubles or money back.

Oil for Human Machine
This was overheard in a little drug store in Newcastle recently. A little girl about five years old entered and timidly asked to buy a "bottle of oil." The clerk, wishing to be specific, asked: "What kind of oil do you want, oil that you put in sewing machines?" The little girl replied: "No sir, the kind you put in babies." The clerk wrapped up a small bottle of castor oil.—Indianapolis News.

A man who had bought a very valuable building site was surveying his newly acquired property in a mood of reverie when a stranger, in a similar mood, accosted him.

"Yes," said the new owner, with a smile, "I bought it."
The stranger was obviously hurt. "But what I'm telling you," he said, "is the truth!"

BROWN COUNTY FAIR
OPENS AUGUST SIXTEENTH

The Brown County Fair to be held in Brownwood, Texas, August 16 to 19th, promises to be, from all indications one of the largest and best County Fair ever attempted by any county in Texas.

One of the big events of the Fair this season, is the horse races which is being staged by some of the best known race horse owners in the entire south. These races will be held each afternoon in front of the Main grand stand starting promptly at 2 p. m. There will be at total of five races daily. In addition to the horse races there will also be several mule races, which will finish the comic end of that attraction. There will be approximately seventy five head of horses to take part in the various races. Just after the races each afternoon the colored ball team will cross bats with Abilene team. This attraction will be well worth the admission charged as the Brownwood team has made quite a reputation this year by defeating practically ever team of any importance in all Texas.

On the afternoon of the third day, starting in the heart of the downtown district there will be a monster dog parade in which all forms and shapes of dogs will participate. The parade will start shortly after noon and will lead to the fair grounds where prizes will be given to the winning mongrels. All boys with dogs are invited to take part in this parade and they will be admitted that afternoon to the fair grounds free of charge.

In addition to the above attractions there will be various other amusements such as fancy high diving, rodeo each afternoon and night by Bud Snell and his rodeo boys, carnival band concerts and a gala display of various community exhibits.

It will be well worth the time spent to take a day off and attend the Brown County Fair, and there receive the old Southern Hospitality for which Brownwood is noted throughout the United States.

H. B. Harris and family visited J. H. Lilley of Hart last week and visited other west Texas towns including Plainview and Kress, also stopping over at Sweetwater one night with friends there, returning home Sunday, reporting a splendid time and that crops were looking good in most of that section.

THAT BRICK HOTEL

Again there comes talk about a modern brick hotel to cost about 200,000 dollars. Some times we have lots of talk and no results of value, but at the some times most all worthwhile improvements and accomplishments are talked about before they are achieved—so here's hoping this talk about the big fine hotel materializes, and let's all boost for it and contribute in every way we can to the success of such a movement.

"SAY IT WITH SLOGANS" AND WIN AN ELECTION—MAYBE!

A Maryland woman has written a slogan for the Presidential campaign of 1928. Will it help the Democrats win?

Maybe! You never can tell, for past history shows that a good slogan has put more than one president into the White House, and today, Americans are more "slogan sensitive" than ever before.

If you don't remember what the winning slogans of past campaigns were and what this newest candidate for campaign winning honors is, there's an article in this issue that will tell you. It's headed "Say it with Slogans" and it's written by Elmo Scott Watson, whose articles are regular features of this paper. Be sure to read it!

Atwater Kent RADIO

LITTLE TOWN OR BIG TOWN

The Story is the Same

With no object except getting the FACTS the American Press Association made a survey this year among the newspapers of 6,000 towns under 25,000 population.

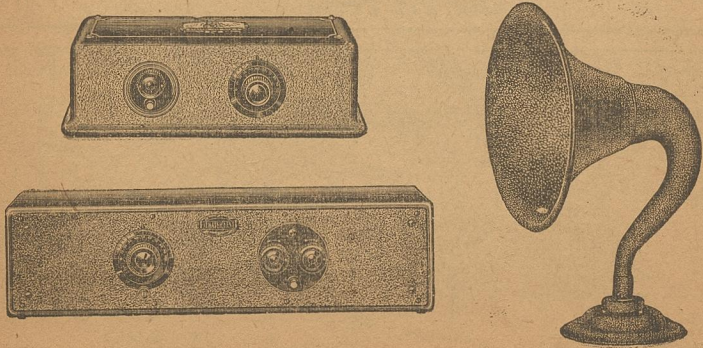

The newspapers, in turn, had the radio dealers of their towns answer the questions.

Result of the most important question:

Q "What radio set is the best seller?"

A Atwater Kent FIRST—by more than 2 to 1.

In small towns, as well as big towns, merchants who concentrate on Atwater Kent Radio concentrate upon the radio people really want and buy. Figures as well as common knowledge prove it.
