$88 Not Cheap For A Lesson

By DON TABOR
Publisher

I made a big mistake not long ago, and I paid for it.

My wife and I went to the annual trade show and convention of the Texas Press Assn. at the Sheraton Park Central hotel in Dallas to see all the gee-whiz new stuff they've come out with for the newspaper business.

The first night we had to find someplace to eat because I was too cheap to pay the $20 a head they were charging for the convention banquet meal.

I didn't want to leave the hotel and fight the traffic again like we had coming in so we opted for the restaurant on top of the hotel.

I started to get an inkling I was in the wrong place when a guy in a tux met us at the door and cast a disapproving look at me, who had a sport coat on but no tie.

We didn't have a reservation so we had to wait over 30 minutes to be seated (why, I don't know because there were plenty of empty tables).

It was a pretty view of the Dallas skyline from the 20th floor though and we could see an unbroken band of headlights on the LBJ Freeway. Those headlights weren't moving, which reinforced my decision not to leave the hotel for supper.

But my inkling of doubt about the place was also reinforced by the fact that it took three men to take our order—the guy in the tux who took us to the table, a guy in a semi-tux who seated us and plopped the napkins in our laps and the actual waiter.

That inkling turned to cold fear, though, then I read the menu. The cheapest entree (main meal) on there was 20 bucks, I'm not lying, and that didn't include anything else, salad, soup, dessert, anything.

A plain old tossed salad was 5 bucks, a tiny bowl of soup was 4 bucks, appetizers (and I couldn't even find any onion rings listed) were all in the $15 range, and the cheapest dessert was $10.

I'm a survivalist, so my first thought was to escape, but the guy in the tux, the guy in the semi-tux and the waiter were all standing between us and the door. They had us out-numbered.

We surrendered and ordered the cheapest stuff we could find. (My wife's menu didn't even have prices on it so I had to read them off to her from mine which caused several near-by heads to turn.)

We were both hungry, and I figured at those prices, whatever we ordered, we'd get a big batch of it. It didn't work out that way. My $20 lamb something-or-other turned out to be seven little slivers of mutton in some brown sauce, some rice, three undercooked baby carrots, and 10 skinny undercooked green beans.

When the guy in the semi-tux presented our check, it was face-down on the table. I didn't even turn it over, I was afraid to. I just signed it to be tacked onto our hotel bill and we got out of there.

By the time we checked out the next morning, I had gathered enough courage to see how much that restaurant bill had been. Tip included, it had come to $88 and some change.

The girl who checked us out noticed we'd eaten in the top-floor place and commented: "Isn't a pretty view up there."

"Yea, it's sure high," I answered.

If anybody from Dallas reads this, they'll probably think "what a hick".

And they're probably right. I probably am a hick, a broke hick.

County Getting Near To Its Own SWCD

Callahan County passed another hurdle in getting its own soil and water conservation district, when documents were signed and assets given to the Callahan Divide Soil and Water Conservation District #552.

The new soil and water district is entirely in the boundaries of Callahan County.

The southern part of Callahan County had been in the Central Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District, while the northern portion of the county was in the Lower Clear Fork of the Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District.

Approximately 15 people attended the ceremonies last Friday morning at the county courthouse to witness the signing.

New board members of the new conservation district, Kenneth George and Charley Tom Straley represented Callahan County.

The new conservation district received one-third of the assets of the Central Colorado district which amounted to $569.09; and received one-fifth of the assets of the Lower Clear Fork of the Brazos district which

Kathy Engle Gets Scholarship Fund

Kathy Engle, a student at the Stenograph Institute of Texas in Abilene, has been chosen the recipient of the Julie Ann Ward Memorial Scholarship Fund.

This scholarship was created in memory of Julie Ann Ward, a 1982 graduate of the Stenograph Institute and a freelance reporter in Grand Junction, who was killed in a tragic accident.

The scholarship program will provide $250.00 toward the tuition cost of each quarter-term up to a total of $2,500 in tuition assistance in a course leading to a diploma or associate degree in court reporting.

Miss Engle was selected out of 75 applicants. Only one student per year receives the award on the recommendations of the administration and instructors.

The purpose and objective of the selection process was based on 1) the demonstrated ability of the student; 2) attendance and work habits; 3) cooperative attitude and willingness to follow instruction; 4) outward display of pleasing personality, characteristics and demeanor; and 5) financial need.

Miss Engle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Engle of Cross Plains.

Sign-Up Extended For Crop Programs

WASHINGTON—Sign-up for the 1986 wheat, feed grain, cotton and rice programs will be extended for two weeks through April 25, Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng announced today.

The original cutoff date was April 11, but Lyng said the extension was being made to give producers more time to consider recent program changes.

was $2,513.54. The new SWCD also paid for the two audits performed in the other two districts.

Documents were signed releasing all conservation plans to the new district and accepting the assets from the two districts.

The new district members also signed a request asking the Secretary of State to accept the new district.

Papers were mailed to the state board of soil and water conservation districts located in Temple, and their approval should come within days.

Straley will be the board member representing Oplin, while George will be representing Putnam.

Three more new board members for the new district will be named in about two weeks.

The three board members will be named from the Cross Plains, Baird and Clyde areas.

In a related ceremony, John Doyle Isehower, board member representing Callahan County in the Lower Clear Fork of the Brazos SWCD, was presented a certificate for his service in the soil and water conservation district there.

F-M 1864 Travelers To Get 'Direct Connection'

The farmers and ranchers, oil field workers and other Eastland County residents who use Farm-to-Market Road 1864 will soon have a direct connection with Texas 206, through a project of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

A caliche road east of Scanton, near the Callahan County line, will be upgraded as an extension of FM 1864, said Jean Sparks, public affairs officer for the highway department's Brownwood district. When the extension is finished, motorists will no longer have to take a winding, 6.2-mile ride on FM 569 to make the connection with Texas 206. Instead, FM 1864 will extend 1.6 miles from FM 569 directly to the state highway.

In addition, an extension of FM 8 will be built along the county road that was the old Texas 6, spanning 1.8 miles, from 3.2 miles west of Gorman southeastward to near the Comanche County line, Ms. Sparks said.

Construction of these roads will include widening, installing culverts, providing a flexible base and surfacing. A $470,090.55 contract for the projects was awarded to T. M. Brown & Sons, Inc. of Abilene. R. P. Haun, Jr., of Eastland is the highway department's resident engineer in charge of the project.

The work, expected to begin in May, will take 120 working days, or until about December, to complete. Traffic should not be disrupted during construction.

The projects are among 64 statewide, with a total price tag of $141,839,172, awarded by the highway commission in March. Funds for this work are available from increased motor fuel taxes and vehicle registration fees, approved by a special session of the Legislature in 1984.

Local AARP Chapter Makes National Highlights

The January-February issue of the AARP Highlights, a national publication, featured an article on the AARP Chapter 3092, Cross Plains. Only one story from each state is published.

This is the article as it appeared in its entirety.

When the members of Cross Plains Chapter 3092, TX, decided to assume the task of completing a log cabin planned for local scout troops, they knew it wasn't going to be easy. "Cross Plains has about 1,200 people. Many of them live on small farms or ranches outside town," explains Irma Miller, Legislative Chairman. "Labor and money are scarce here."

To build community support for the project, the chapter set up the AARP Special Scout Cabin Fund at a local bank. Businesses and individuals donated items for an auction which earned $1,130. The chapter gave $350, and other cash donations were collected. The Cross Plains newspaper extensively publicized the project, including an article asking businesses to supply building materials needed to complete the hut.

"Carpenters, electricians, plumbers, masons, even the auctioneer, volunteered their services," notes Miller. "Chapter members spent months clearing ground and assisting with the labor inside the cabin."

Cross Plains Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Cub Scouts now have their own meeting place due to a community effort spurred by AARP members. Says Texas Assistant State Director Roy Cartee, "It just goes to show what can happen when leadership steps out and says 'Let's get the job done.'"

Migration into Texas slows for first time in more than a decade

COLLEGE STATION — For the first time in more than 10 years the rate of in-migration into Texas from other states has declined, says a Texas A&M University demographer.

"The state's population is continuing to grow from births and in-migration, but the rate of growth in most places is substantially lower than before," he

W-2 Form Information

Even if an employee is unable to get a W-2 before the tax filing deadline, the return must be filed by April 15.

Taxpayers must have a W-2 from every employer they worked for during the year. If it is impossible to obtain a W-2 from an employer, the employee should either obtain a Form 4852, Substitute Wage and Withholding Statement, from the IRS or attach a signed and dated statement showing the tax withholding information and attach it to the tax return, according to the IRS.

Rising Star Sesquicentennial Celebration

The Rising Star High School Cheerleaders are sponsoring a program to celebrate Texas' 150th Birthday. Any class, organization, club, or group may enter.

The act must have something to do with Texas and its heritage. A skit, song, dance, poem, etc., may be entered in the program. A time limit of five to ten minutes will be held.

No entry fee is required, but there will be an admission fee of $1.00 for adults and $.50 for students.

Divisions will be divided up into three groups: children, high school, and adult. Prizes will be awarded for the best act. Entries must be in by April 15.

April 30 Deadline To File Form 941

April 30 is the deadline to file Form 941 for employers who must report on Social Security and withheld federal income taxes for the first quarter of 1986. If the quarterly tax due (less any deposit made during the quarter) is $500 or more, the unpaid tax must be deposited by April 15, 1986.

New County History Books

One new county history book, "I Remember Callahan: A History of Callahan County", will be ready for distribution by the Historical Commission at the Courthouse in Baird on San Jacinto Day. If you did not pay the additional charge to have your book mailed, you can pick it up between 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. at the courthouse on Monday, April 21st. For those of you who had made arrangements to have your book mailed directly to you, delivery should be made by early May.

If you're unable to be in Baird on the 21st, we will designate "pick up stations" throughout the county that you can get your book from. We'll let you know about these locations through this newspaper after April 21st.

The long wait is nearly over — you all come to Baird on San Jacinto Day, April 21st, and help us celebrate.

This deadline does not apply to employers who make timely deposits of the full amount of tax due in Federal Reserve or approved commercial banks. They are allowed until May 12 to file Form 941, "Employer Quarterly Federal Tax Return."

If employers have not received Form 941 by mail, they can order one through the Tax Form or Information number listed in the phone book under U. S. Government. IRS Publication 15, "Circular E-Employer's Tax Guide," is also available through this number.

WEEKLY HEALTH TIP

NEARSIGHTEDNESS (Cont'd)

To focus on nearby objects, eye muscles must elongate the eyeball to increase lens curvature. In nearsightedness, this increased convexity becomes permanent because of increased fluid pressure in the eye. Dr. Lane theorizes that if this fluid pressure could be regulated by eliminating sugar in the diet and easing visual and muscular eye strain, then nearsightedness might be halted and hopefully corrected. Dr. Lane suggests, "Give up sugar - boost your intake of calcium and chromium foods such as dairy products, ocean fish, dark green leafy vegetables, and whole grains."

Filing Deadline April 15

The Internal Revenue Service says you may receive an automatic 4-month extension of time to file your 1985 federal tax return. The application for the extension, Form 4868, must be filed by April 15.

The IRS stresses that this is an extension of time to file your return — not an extension of time for payment of taxes due.

When filing for the extension, the taxpayer must estimate their tax owed for 1985 and send that amount with the Form 4868 to avoid interest and late payment penalties.

The IRS notes that a deduction for an IRA contribution can be claimed on a 1985 tax return only if the contribution is made on or before April 15, even for those electing an extension to file.

Any items such as household goods or clothing would be greatly appreciated. Please make sure all donations are in usable condition.

Estimated Taxes

Some wage earners and other individuals who have income other than wages may be required to file estimated tax payments, the Internal Revenue Service says. The due date for the first quarterly estimated tax payment for 1986 is April 15.

Just like withholding by employers, the IRS says, estimated taxes are paid in advance of the actual tax return, Form 1040, due for the year. Estimated taxes are normally paid in four installments, and there is a substantial penalty for underpayment of estimated taxes.

For 1986 returns, the three other estimated tax installment dates are: June 16, 1986; September 15, 1986; and January 15, 1987.

Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," gives details and can be obtained free from the local IRS or by calling 1-800-424-1040.

CONSUMER ALERT

Jim Mattox
Attorney General

SWIMMING POOL RIP-OFFS

Summer is coming and it's the season when most people who want swimming pools will get them installed. You can have a lot more headaches than you ever imagined.

the Consumer Protection Handbook. The Attorney General's Office is the people's law firm. We're here to help you.

TYPES OF POOLS

There are at least three different types of large pools. The oldest type is the custom-built, concrete-poured pool. This is generally the most expensive kind. Fiberglass pools, which are made of molded fiberglass and installed in much the same way as the concrete pools, have become popular recently.

Also requiring excavation is the metal pool with a vinyl liner inside steel or aluminum walls. And, of course, there are less expensive above-ground pools.

FLIM-FLAM SALES

According to a study by the Federal Trade Commission, the swimming pool business has had more than its share of bad operators, with many using the old "bait and switch" routine.

● The first rule to remember in choosing a swimming pool is to pick a reputable local business. Don't be taken in by a salesman who tries to talk you into purchasing a larger and more expensive model than you had originally wanted. My Consumer Protection Division recommends that you shop elsewhere if you suspect you are being lured into a more expensive purchase than you had planned.

● One inducement that the seller may offer you to switch to a more expensive model is a longer guarantee. Your best guarantee, however, is a business that will stay around long enough to answer your complaints if you have them. Too often, consumers find that their guarantees cover only specific (and unlikely) problems, such as a defective liner seam.

● Ask your swimming pool dealer for the names of some satisfied customers and talk to them. Try to find someone who bought the pool a year or more ago. That way, you can judge whether your pool will make you happy in the long run.

SAFETY

If you are planning on having a pool, of course, you will have to make some provision for safety of children. Many communities require that swimming pools be surrounded by fences. You should also plan to use non-slip materials around the pool and on diving boards and ladders. Finally, shop carefully and read a little bit about pool ownership before signing your contract.

Savings Bond Sales Up 40% In Texas

Sales of U. S. Savings Bonds during January, 1986 in Texas amounted to $28,095,341, an increase of $5,163,035 for 39.9% over the January a year ago, T. J. Morrow, District Director for U. S. Savings Bonds Division in Dallas, Texas, announced today. These sales represent 7.6% of the state's 1986 assigned dollar goal of $370,000,000.

Sales of Series EE Bonds amounted to $7,310 during January, 1986 in Callahan County, District 16, Volunteer County Chairman, said. These sales represent 9.9% of the County's 1986 assigned dollar goal.

Nationally, January 1986 sales of Series EE Bonds totaled $575 million, an increase of 39% over 1985 sales, highest January total since 1979. Savings Bonds held by the public topped $40 billion in January, increasing $50 billion in the month to $80.25 billion.

Much of the growth in sales is due to Savings Bonds' new market-based rate which was effective November 1, 1982. This rate is adjusted on May 1 and November 1 each year. Bonds held at least five years earn 85 percent of the average rate on 5-year Treasury securities or 7.5 percent, whichever is higher. The current rate for the six month period ending April 30, 1986 is 8.36 percent. The average rate for the period November 1, 1982 through April 30, 1986 is 9.69 percent. Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale. The latest information on Bonds can be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-US BONDS.

J. T. Myers New Officer At Bank

The First State Bank announced this week the election of J. T. Myers as the Bank's Executive Vice President. Myers replaces Mike Mauldin who vacated the position this past fall to assume the presidency of the Idalou State Bank.

Myers and his wife, Donna, are currently living in San Angelo, where he is vice president and director of the Tom Green National Bank. The Myers will be moving to Tulia before April 7th when he will begin work.

Myers has over twenty-five years of banking experience ranging from bookkeeper to agriculture loan officer. He began his career in 1959 in Cross Plains, Texas and since then he has been associated with banks in Coleman, Sterling City, and San Angelo.

He brings to First State a wealth of experience not only in agricultural lending but in all areas of lending and banking operations. J. T. is a 1972 graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at SMU.

He was born and reared on a farm near Snyder where he still has farming interests, and his wife, Donna, was reared in Cross Plains. The Myers have one son who is in Graduate School at Texas Tech University.

They are Baptists and have been actively involved in civic and community activities. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Garlitz of Cross Plains.

Senior Citizens to Elect Silver Haired Legislature

Paul S. Dulaney of Clyde has announced his candidacy for the first Texas Silver Haired Legislature, District 3, which covers 12 counties, including Callahan County.

Registered voters age 60 or over are eligible to vote. Balloting will be held in the local senior citizens center on May 30. Absentee ballots will also be made available, according to the West Central Texas Council of Governments, which is handling ballot details in 19 counties.

The Silver Haired Legislature was authorized by the 69th Texas Legislature last January. It is an elected, non-partisan body of seniors who will meet at the Texas Capitol in September to draft legislation of concern to the growing number of older Texans.

Their recommendations will then be presented to the 70th Texas Legislature for consideration when it convenes in January, 1987.

According to the American Association of Retired Persons, SHL's have been active in 22 other states. Their recommendations have resulted in passage of legislation of benefit to the elderly, according to AARP.

Dulaney, a Clyde native, worked as reporter and editor on Texas newspapers from 1949-56, and then in international advertising and public relations until he retired in 1984.

it can only be invested to benefit local school districts.

—Comptroller Bob Bullock, who can put the money in state accounts no matter the wishes of other state officials, says he agrees with Mauro and "the school kids."

AG's Opinion Sought

A few months ago, Bullock asked Attorney General Jim Mattox for a legal opinion on where to legally deposit the money. But last week he surprised everyone by withdrawing the request after listening to Mauro's explanation.

"Garry made a convincing argument to us. It's clearcut that it belongs to the school-children. Me and the school-kids are going to stand firm," Bullock said.

Mattox wasn't out of the action for long. Speaker Lewis quickly renewed the request for a legal opinion.

Law, Not Politics

Hobby and Lewis are basing their points of view supported by a memorandum by the Texas Legislative Council, the legal arm of the Legislature.

That memo argues that since the state had no valid claim to the OCS oil, the money was not dedicated to any particular fund and should go into general revenue.

But Mauro says the oil was drained from offshore land once claimed by Texas for the Permanent School Fund. That claim meant dedication of revenue to the fund for all time.

Mauro believes in his position strong enough to go to the courthouse and defend it, if necessary.

"I consider this a legal, not a political, issue," Mauro said.

Republican Hopefuls

In the governor's race, two polls showed former Gov. Bill

Clements leading his two GOP opponents for that party's nomination.

The Associated Republicans of Texas poll had Clements leading 48 percent, Congressman Tom Loeffler with 31 percent and party-switcher Kent Hance with 21 percent.

A Houston Chronicle-KTRK-TV poll resulted in the same order, with Clements leading 53 percent to Loeffler's 19 percent and Hance's 16 percent. The poll predicted little cross-over voting.

Democrats Closing

Several private polls are floating rumors around Democratic circles, but they're still awaiting the publication of an objective poll.

White was slated to attend a governor's meeting in Panchule on the oil patch price crunch.

His primary challenger, A. Don Crowder, moved to establish momentum by releasing the names of 31 teachers, coaches, and educators representing local professional groups statewide.

Crowder, in a surprising coup, was endorsed by former State Rep. Dan Kubiak, now a political consultant, who will coordinate some 60 East Texas counties for Crowder.

Special Session?

Texas House Republicans, all 51 of them, banded together last week to pressure Gov. White to call a special session this summer to cut the state budget and vowed they will recognize "no sacred cows" in wielding the knife.

White said there was no need yet for a special session and Hobby accused the Republicans of playing partisan politics with the state's budget problems. Lewis also opposed a special session at this time.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas' top officials disagreed last week on how to spend a deparately needed $415 million windfall, providing a rare glimpse into the differences of their economic philosophies.

The money is due to arrive here on April 15, the state's share of oil and gas revenues from the long-disputed offshore leases on the Outer Continental Shelf.

How to spend it is a question that has brought four different answers from top state officials.

—Gov. Mark White wants to put it in a trust fund dedicated to research and development for education.

—Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby would deposit it in the state general revenue fund and let the Legislature use it to ease the $1.3 billion deficit and build the 1988-89 budget.

—House Speaker Gib Lewis proposes a permanent fund for commercial research and development to diversify the state's economy.

—Land Commissioner Garry Mauro says state law directs most of the money into the Permanent School Fund, where

"Kreative Kids" Fridays April 4, 11, 18

We at Christian Ministries believe the children of this community are in need of an activity program independent of school and home. It is our feeling that a program designed for children from the ages of six through thirteen or for first through sixth grade level would be most beneficial. "Kreative Kids" is such a program.

The purpose of "Kreative Kids" is to both entertain and educate the community's children. This time is spent learning and doing fun things that there isn't time enough for at school.

The children of "Kreative Kids" play games, watch films, (from the public library), videos (strictly screened), participate in group activities and projects, do "crafts, go on outing, do community service, and just learn and grow together in all areas."

"Kreative Kids" will hopefully grow bigger, better, and more complete as we receive more adult volunteers. It is our dream to recruit volunteers from all walks of life who are interested in the emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being of "our" children. We, at Christian Ministries, believe our adult community can share much knowledge, many talents, and a great many productive quality hours with the children of this area.

Garmond and Lou Parrish invite you to the Good News America Revival, First Baptist Church, Cross Plains, April 6-11, at 7 p.m.

"Kreative Kids", formerly the "Brunch Bunch", have always met on Saturdays. However, due to Fridays off from school, we are meeting Fridays for April 4 - 11 - 18. The time is, as usual, 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Lunch will be served, as always, if a child plans on lunching with us, they must be in attendance by 11:00 a.m.

On Friday, April 11, the "Kreative Kids" are going to the city park to play volleyball and enjoy the playground equipment. They will lunch at the park this time.

In the afternoon they are going to the public library where Miss Loving will present them with a program.

We hope you and/or your child will join us for activities this week.

Remember, there are no fees or charges.

For more information, please call 725-7187 or 725-7727.

PIONEER NEWS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

A mouse, almost devastated my typewriter this weekend. This machine is the "gay nineties" variety and cannot survive such treatment.

On the 3rd day of last January, I was driving into town when I saw my friend, Mrs. Dale Gary, in her front yard picking up pecans. I stopped, got out and chatted with her a few minutes. Then I went on to the Post Office, got my Social Security check and went to the bank.

While in the bank, I missed my little gold watch (a Longine). I just supposed that I had not put it on that morning. But when I returned to my house, I could not find it.

I called the Post Office, the bank, and then Mrs. Gary. She went out and looked all around the pecan trees, but didn't find the watch.

Sometime later they raked up all the leaves under their trees and spread them on their garden. Mr. Gary plowed, harrowed and raked the garden several times.

On March 31st, he was setting out their tomato plants, by hand. As he turned the soil for one plant, there was my watch!

Holy Moly! Isn't that a miracle? She called me and I dashed down to pick it up. I wound that little "booger" and it just ticked away, regardless of that three-month experience! I'm so grateful. Of course, I can't wear it until I get a new band. That was the reason I lost it because of a badly-worn band.

The revival at First Baptist Church got off to a good start. As you read this item, on Wednesday, you will still have five more evenings to attend. You will be glad you were there! There is also a noontime service — a meal at 11:30, and the service about 12:20.

J. T. and Betty Boggs have been in the services, and she said that's all the news she will have this week.

Joe Watson was quite ill on Sunday, but was feeling a little better on Monday. Bill Watson and Alton of Pampa visited them during the weekend. Mr. "Speck" Conner spent two or three hours with Joe on Sunday. T. C. and Edyth Carr of Aspermont visited them on Sunday evening. Jim and Charlene and children had dinner with them on Sunday.

The Hiram Foster's are doing quite well. Their children have been by regularly to check on them. Jewel had to be in the A.A.R.P. meeting on Monday morning. I'm going to skip that one this time.

For those neighbors I've missed this time — I just didn't have time. Call me next week, please.

Gospel Singing March 23

The Gospel Singing which was started March 23 at the Pentecostal Church in Pioneer will be held again next Sunday, April 13.

We hope to have it once a month on every second Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. Be sure and notice that the date has been changed from last month.

If any one has a number of songbooks alike, bring them along so the audience can sing along some, too.

Everybody is invited and welcomed to come. Bring instruments, singers, and friends. Thank you. — Ruby McCowen.

What If You Had To Pay For Your Electricity WHEN You Used It?

You'd Realize All That Goes Into Your Monthly Bill.

What if you had to pay for the electricity it takes to run a television set every time you wanted to watch T.V.? Or if you had to pay before you could flip on a light switch? Or before you could use a coffee maker or electric can opener?

Because you pay for your electricity MONTHLY, it's easy to forget all that goes into your electric bill. That is, easy to forget UNTIL a bill comes around to remind you. Even then, if you will divide the amount billed for electricity by the number of days in that billing period, you will see how little it costs to supply your home with electric energy for one day.

The amount you pay per day for electricity enables you to heat and cool your home, cook meals, run stereos, clocks, door bells, hair dryers, mixers, toasters, ceiling fans, and much more! All without having to pay WHEN you flip a switch.

When you consider all the things that go into your monthly electric bill, you'll see what a good bargain your electricity really is!

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy— but only YOU can use it wisely!

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N. V. GIBBS

The weeks are speeding by too fast for all of us. One thing didn't happen that should have happened, according to old sayings. It did thunder on February 2nd, but failed to freeze on that date in April. We're glad of that!

Speaking of April 2nd, it was a pleasant day for Joyce Odom, it being her birthday. She received calls on her special day. One from our sister, Nell Gunderson in Minnesota. They were announcing the birth of a new grandson. She received other calls from other members of the family.

It was an enjoyable time for supper and visiting at the Community Center Saturday night. Those not there were missed. The Carl Bray family of Cisco were guests of the Robert Watson family and they also donated $7 toward the fund for electrical bills each month. Thank you.

Carrol and Nelda Teague who live in the community in the Gibson ranch house attended the meeting. Their weekend guests were his mother, Mrs. H. B. Teague, his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stanley all of Mt. Vernon, also another sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Howell and children, Erin and Whitney of Fritch, Texas. The family attended the morning service with Carrol and Nelda at the Cross Plains First Baptist Church.

Dorothy Reynolds, Lora Fay Harris and Evelyn Harris attended a bridal shower honoring Jackie Rowan in the home of Mrs. R. W. Spencer in Cross Plains Saturday afternoon. Jackie is the daughter of Mrs. Rowan of Houston and the granddaughter of Rosa Lee Bonner.

Thursday morning's light shower looked promising for awhile, but soon moved out of the area.

Edna Dye attended the Big Country Porcelain Art Club Meeting in Abilene Saturday morning. She was in Breckenridge earlier in the week where some of her china painting is on display at their Fine Arts Center in preparation for a seminar she will conduct in May. Edna will have her pastor, Dr. Richard Wood and his wife, Violet, in her home Sunday for the noon meal. He is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Baird. They maintain a home at Lake Hubbard.

Cody Watson along with other members of the Baird Jr. High Band performed in Abilene Friday, winning first place in their division. On Saturday, Kyle and Cody Watson were in Eastland for UIL Competition.

Visitors in the Gene Mauldin home Sunday were Faye Mauldin of Denton Valley, her mother, Mrs. Versie Simmons of Abilene and her sister, Veda Williams of Lubbock and her daughter and husband, Sherry and James Peel of Dallas. Mrs. Mauldin visited Ima Gibbs in Baird Wednesday night while Gene was in choir practice at the church.

Easter Sunday visitors in the Tommie Harris home were, Don and Pam Harris, their children, Terrel of Snyder College, and Troy and Paul of the home. Terry and Vickie Harris of Eastland and his daughter, Blandye of Cross Plains. Also Jimmy and Pam Harris and children, Jared and Janna, and Nicky and Evelyn Harris and children, T. J. and Chris, Mrs. Ivon Odom of Cross Plains and Mrs. Cliff Harper, mother of Mrs. Jimmy Harris, of Coleman. Lora Faye reported an Easter Egg hunt was a must with all the children, the grown-up ones to hide the eggs and smaller ones hunting.

Bob and Kathy Dye and daughter, Julie, were in Mason over the weekend to visit her mother, Mrs. Douglas Dendy. Kathy participated in the fund raising bake sale in Baird Friday. The proceeds will be for repair work in their city park.

We noticed the write-up in both the Clyde and Baird paper that the long waited for County History Books will be ready for pick up at the Baird Courthouse on Monday, April 21. There will be a program and Bar-B-Que lunch on the grounds. Be there to get your book and enjoy all the history of nearly 500 families. It may take a while to read them all.

Tony and Jody Steele and children, Bill and Connie drove to lake Proctor, Friday afternoon. They did not find his Uncle and Aunt, Lee and Jean Jernigan, home, so they camped out overnight. Tonya spent the night in the N. V. Gibbs home and on Saturday was in Cisco where the Cross Plains Jr. High Band was in competition at Cisco Jr. College.

Two couples of the community were in Abilene Friday for a check-up with their doctors. N. V. Gibbs got a good report as did Sterling Odom, but they both are still taking medication.

James and Dorothy Reynolds were in Stephenville on Easter Sunday to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Janet and Tan Flippin. They attended church services with them to hear the choir's Easter Cantata. Janet rendered a special during the program.

Sterling and Joyce Odom had supper Friday night to celebrate Joyce's birthday in the home of Ivon Odom and family.

Daughter Born To Mr. And Mrs. Steve Baugh

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Baugh are happy to announce the arrival of a daughter, Stephanie Dale, born March 19 in Coleman.

She was welcomed home by two older sisters, Theresa, age 9 and Heather, age 21 months.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kay C. Robinson of Bronte and Paternal grandmother, Virgie Baugh, of Coleman.
