'Taylor-Made Band' Earns I Rating In Abilene

EDITOR'S NOTE: Harold Strahan of Cottonwood has submitted an original parable concerning life and death. He presents some unique ideas, while alerting you to the fact that life is unpredictable and should be used wisely. Vanda King, Editor.

"The Hyphen (—)"

Have you ever let your mind wonder for just a moment about the beginning and end of all things? Of course you

How often we would like to know exactly when it's going to rain and when it's going to dry up and when we are a-going to become a saint and when we ain't?

In between the beginning and the end of all things is a little hyphen. For instance: my dad's hyphen was 1882-1976 and my mother's was 1890-1981.

If you knew from the beginning the right-hand side of your hyphen, would you be a kinder, wiser person? More than likely you would be!

You know what? If all our birth certificates also had the exact time and place of our death written on it, I suspect, perhaps, that there would be less divorces, less wars, and less hate! And all of God's houses would be filled with all His children come His day. for there would be no time to waste.

Let's pretend that tomorrow is the starboard side of our hyphen, and I'll bet that you and everyone around you has a nicer day — today!

If you were not at the UIL Marching Contest in Shotwell Stadium last Saturday, you were in the minority. A great crowd of local supporters made the trip to watch our band earn a Division I rating from all three judges.

Naturally, we all felt our band had a superior performance with great choreography, spectacular solo and sectional features, and a crisp, balanced sound.

Their score, although a perfect I, didn't quite earn them a trip to the Regional competition. Two other bands from the Wichita Falls competition site will be advancing. The same three judges worked both places Saturday; judging Class A in Wichita Falls in the morning and driving to Abilene for the afternoon session. Had points been figured beyond 1st and 2nd place, we would have been ranked 3rd or 4th over-all out of all the bands competing at both sites.

Our group put in a long, long day Saturday, having returned from Evant after midnight. Nine-thirty found them stumbling into the Band Hall for breakfast so graciously provided by Jean McWilliams and Connie Kirkham. Two brief practice sessions and they were off to Abilene; looking calm on the outside, but churning on the inside.

After the results were announced, they went out to Wylie High School, where Mr. Taylor's brother teaches, and changed from uniforms to dress clothes. The Band Boosters treated them to supper at the Embassy Suites. Their lengthy day ended around 10 p.m. when they unloaded the buses at the Band Hall for the second time in one day.

There's a lot more to a "Taylor-Made Band" than just notes and a sharp marching routine. From the day he first stepped foot in the C.P. Band Hall, Randy Taylor has had the total student foremost in his mind During his tenure, the students have grown in discipline, self-respect, respect for others, and teamwork. Everybody is expected to help each other and to do a fair share of loading and unloading equipment. Everybody is expected to maintain a high standard of behavior at all times and because they know what Mr. Taylor expects of them - they do not let him down. Some students might never have the opportunity to eat at places like the Embassy Suites or stay in nice motels were it not for the band trips. Mr. Taylor feels that the development of social graces is just as important as the development of musical skills.

An 18-year-old American, Tim Devon, goes to Amsterdam in search of the father he has never known. His mother relunctantly admits he was born illegitimately out of a college romance between her and a Dutch exchange student.

In this city, far from his home, he slips into the self-destructive drug culture, but is encountered by a single, caring person - a person of deep faith. The person, Rajam Prasad, found a way to share Christ's message of love, hope and forgiveness in a way that Tim could not ignore.

When the Buffaloes hit the field at Evant Friday night, October 27, everyone knew they weren't leaving the field without a win. Cross Plains started their new season last Friday in the second half against Gorman. It seems they haven't slowed down yet.

Evant scored first on a trick play and went up 6-0 at half time. They were already starting to think they had won. That all changed when the Buffs took an Evant fumble and scored. Carrying the ball over the goal line for the Buffs was Jody Brown. Jody ran for 186 yards against a tough Evant defense.

That score with the two point conversion put the Buffs up 8-6. Later in the game, senior Deron Duffey ran the ball in for the Buffs' second score of the night. Deron scored on a 9-yard run. With that score, the Buffaloes went up for good.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Evant Elks attempted to score. They had the ball on the Buffalo 40-yard line. Evant threw the ball deep, all the way to the end zone. The ball was intercepted by Duffey on the 1-yard line. After that the Buffaloes ran the clock out for the Injured in the game was Billy Brown who suffered a concussion, but he will be all right.

Next week the Buffs travel to Lometa for another District game. It will be Friday, November 3, at 7:30 p.m. The Buffs need support to try to get another win for Cross Plains. District Football Results

After 36 Years, State Fair Official Plans To Leave Livestock Behind

By ORVILLE HANCOCK Fort Worth Star-Telegram

DALLAS — The tall, skinny young man sweeping the aisles and removing straw and cow chips between cattle stalls at the State Fair of Texas may not have looked imposing in 1952 in his jeans, denim jacket, boots and slouch cowboy hat.

But he was Don Clark, holder of a college degree from Texas Tech University, World War II veteran, vocational agriculture teacher at Mullin High School and a man who solved problems for young students.

Maybe it was because Clark didn't put on airs that the smartly dressed man who was eyeing him took a second look.

"Young man, I need you to work for me tonight," said the man. "Can you do that?"

"I said, 'Why sure,' " Clark said recently, recalling the incident.

"Well, change your clothes and look nice and come up to the office." said Ray Wilson, the livestock director of the State Fair of Texas at the time, snorting as he walked away.

With that encounter, Clark' - a West Texas farm boy from Cross Plains who had escaped the rigors of farm life for academia - was back in the livestock business. This week he finishes a 36-year career with the State Fair livestock division that began in that barn.

Clark said Wilson was always an abrupt man who blurted out what he wanted. The two got acquainted over the ensuing weeks, and the next year Wilson asked him whether he would come to Dallas and be his assistant in the fair's livestock department.

Clark accepted. He left his job at Mullin and eventually succeeded

Deeply moved by the warmth of the film with its many moments of humor, Billy Graham, said "CAUGHT is certainly the most outstanding film yet produced by World Wide Pictures."

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Walter Laminack, have noticed in the papers that I had resigned my position as President of Sabanno Cemetery Association, but this is false information because I have not resigned and do not intend to.

LETTER TO

THE EDITOR

Walter Laminack

Dear Editor:

I know you will be surprised to receive a letter coming from an invalid leper from this isolated island of unfortunate human beings. But praying for your kindness and understanding, I took the courage to write to request your assistance in forwarding this letter to any newspaper, magazines, publications in your city because I need help desperately.

I am a widow with five malnourished children, three girls ages 15, 9, 5 and two boys ages 12 and 1-year-old. It breaks my heart to see my children cry because they are always hungry. Their few old garments are worn and already I cannot provide for my children anymore because this malady has deformed me severely and I am already bedridden. What keeps us alive is the food ration our government gives for patients like me. But this food ration is hardly enough to feed us two times a day.

If you will be so kind to help in publishing my helplessness and call for help. I just hope to find someone who may want to share us some of his or her graces and send us some foods and old clothes he or she doesn't like to wear anymore, and I will be very, very thankful. I know this is a shameful thing to ask, but my children are sickly and starving so I've got to try to find help somehow. I am begging you with all my heart. Please help me with my request. God bless you all. Hoping to hear from you soon.

> Very gratefully yours, Mrs. Vicky Coronel Cuhon, Island Cuhon, Palawan 5315 Philippines

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) is a physiological disorder caused by a neurochemical deficiency in the attention center of the brain. ADHD, usually diagnosed in young children during the first years of school, is not caused by social conditions, poor parenting, ineffective discipline, and is not related to intelligence.

When the attention center of the brain is underactive, a number of symptoms of ADHD may be present: difficulty following directions, short attention span, shifting from one uncompleted activity to another, talking excessively, interrupting or intruding on others, not listening to what is being said, often losing things necessary for tasks or activities at school or home, impulsiveness, impatience, low frustration tolerance, erratic memory, extreme emotions, poor social skills, difficulty expressing feelings with words, and often engaging in physically dangerous activities without fear of possible consequences.

Though the list of symptoms of ADHD may seem overwhelming, there is much that can be done to help ADHD children and their families. It is essential that a proper diagnosis be determined before an appropriate treatment plan can be formulated. Since there is no single test available to diagnose ADHD, a child must be evaluated psychologically, physically, academically, and socially to determine a diagnosis of ADHD.

The successful treatment of the ADHD child requires the cooperation of family, school, and health care professionals. Because these children are often frustrating, difficult to parent, and do not respond to traditional forms of discipline, teaching parents new skills to help their children at home is essential. Educators also need to learn about ADHD, for a child's difficulties in school are often the first clue that an evaluation for ADHD may be indicated. With modifications in the classroom, ADHD children, who do not need special education services, can be successful in the regular classroom.

Medication therapy for ADHD children can be safe and effective when used appropriately with the guidance of a knowledgeable physician. Medications such as Ritalin, Cylert, and Dexedrine stimulate the attention center of the brain thereby enabling the ADHD child to behave more normally. These medications are not addictive in children; they are given in low dosage and are only effective for the time they are in the blood stream.

Psychotherapy, social skill therapy groups, and support groups are also an integral part of the treatment of the ADHD child. Children and families need emotional support to cope with the stresses related to ADHD, and children need an opportunity to learn social skills and to understand their feelings and the feelings of others.

ADHD children are special because they are different and they, like all children, have so much to contribute. Early diagnosis and treatment are crucial if the ADHD child is going to realize his/her potential and grow to be a healthy adult.

Cross Plains Junior High Football players showed real determination and - character by forcing fumbles and coming from behind in the 4th quarter to tie Evant 14-14.

Score at end of 1st quarter was Evant 14, Cross Plains 0. Mites scored late in the 2nd quarter on a 1-yard TD by Billy Walker. The TD was set up by Jason Fleming on a swing around the right end to the 1-yard line. Score at half time was Evant 14, Cross Plains 6, and the 3rd quarter was scoreless.

The fourth quarter went scoreless until 38 seconds was left in the game and Mites recovered a fumble. Billy Walker stripped the ball from Evant's ball carrier.

Chad Coker hit Kelly Barclay for an 8-yard gain on a pass, and with time running out Coker found Rodney Rudloff in the end zone for 6 points. This brought the score to Evant 14, Cross Plains 12.

On the 2-point conversion, Jason Fleming did some outstanding running and spinning to find the end zone and score the 2 points that tied up the game 14-14.

It was a very big tie for the team, and most felt like it was a victory instead of a tie.

Boys playing outstanding defense and offense were Kevin Switzer, Jimmy Lee, Chad Coker, Justin Terrell, Jason Fleming, Willie Nickerson, Billy Walker, Tim Yates, Scott Cheshier, Josh Harrell, Rusty Duke, Matt Reed, Coby Childers, Robert Lee, Rigoberto Rodriguez, Rodney Rudloff, and Kelly Barclay.

In 1954 Willie Mosconi, a Philadelphian, set a world record in pocket billiards by running off 526 balls

Tonya Steele And Regin Stover Win District

By KRISTY GIBBS

The Cross Plains High School Cross Country teams competed in their District meet on Monday, October 23, at Coleman. Although they were running against various schools from other districts, they were only competing against their own district.

The girls team, which consists of Brenda Franke (Jr.), Janet Hartman (Fresh.), Pam Helms (Sr.), Tonya Steele (Jr.), and Stephanie Walker (Sr.), ran a 2-mile course.

Tonya Steele placed 1st in District with a time of 12:54. She will be one of the favorites to win medals at both Regional and State. She went to State last year where she finished 13th out of 105 competing.

Other places include Janet Hartman (4th) and Brenda Franke (6th). The Zephyr girls team placed 1st in District Overall, while Cross Plains took 2nd. These were the only two girls teams from the District.

The Cross Country boys ran a 3-mile course. The boys team consists of Carlisle Albrecht (Fresh.), Michael Cowan (Fresh.), Regin Stover (Jr.), Chris Key (Soph.), and Johnny Pointer (Fresh.).

Cross Plains was the only boys team in the District competing, so naturally they took 1st place. Individual places were: Regin Stover (1st), Carlisle Albrecht (2nd), Chris Key (3rd), Johnny Pointer (4th), and Michael Cowan (5th).

Both the Cross Plains boys and girls teams will now advance to Regional competition. The Regional meet will be November 4 at Arlington. "The girls team has an excellent shot at qualifying for the State meet, as they finished 4th at Regional last year, just missing State by 8 points," Coach Taylor remarked. Congratulations and good luck to these dedicated, hardworking individuals!

This year, the price of the annual will be $20. For the past 4 years, the annual was sold for $17. The FFA group that sponsors the clinic each year received $80 from the clinic. Dr. Ray Martin from Coleman gave shots to a total of 74 animals during the afternoon.

Helping with the clinic were FFA members Jamie Jones, Julie Smith, Nicki Barron, Pam Glover, and Billy Lee.

Did You Wear Your Red Ribbon?

By KAYLA CUPIT

The week of October 23-27, throughout the State of Texas, it was promoted as Drug Free Week. In schools all around our area, people were wearing red ribbons as a symbol of their stand for a drug-free school and community.

With the help of Mrs. Charlene Fleming, high school teacher at Cross Plains, students, teachers, and administrators wore red ribbons. Mrs. Fleming brought 20 yards of the red ribbon to school and gladly cut a piece for anyone interested in promoting the importance in being drug-free.

Mrs. Golson's Fifth Grade Class at Cross Plains Elementary had a great turn out with their latest projects. Their projects were all about the different Indian cultures. The students were required to have the shelters, clothing and a report all pertaining to the type of Indian culture they were studying.

Of all the well done and very interesting projects that were on display in the elementary building this past week, there was one in particular that caught a lot of attention. The fifth grader who completed it was Lee Wayne Wheeler.

When asked the subject of his project he said it had to do with the Cliff Dwellers. The project was made of paper mache. He said it took him two after school days to complete, with a little help from his mom. He plans on taking his project home with him to decorate his room. Lee Wayne also said he really enjoys doing these types of projects.

A Stroke Of Bad Luck

By CODY ODOM

If you're superstitious about Friday the 13th, just think how Billy Lee felt after the Friday the 13th Hico football

After injuring his left knee in the game, which had been originally injured in a motorcycle accident at the age of 12, Billy was transported to Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene to await surgery. Having had surgery before, Billy's parents felt he was in high spirits considering the situation.

The surgery consisted of stapling together the torn ligament and also cutting other ligaments in order to release the pressure that was causing his knee to be pulled out.

Even after his first surgery, Billy has had somewhat of a bad time with his knee. His freshman year he was unable to play due to doctor's advice. His sophomore year went well, he played the entire year without injury. During his junior year, he was not as fortunate, his knee was injured during the third game (against Baird) and he was sidelined the rest of the year. Then, the injury in his senior year.

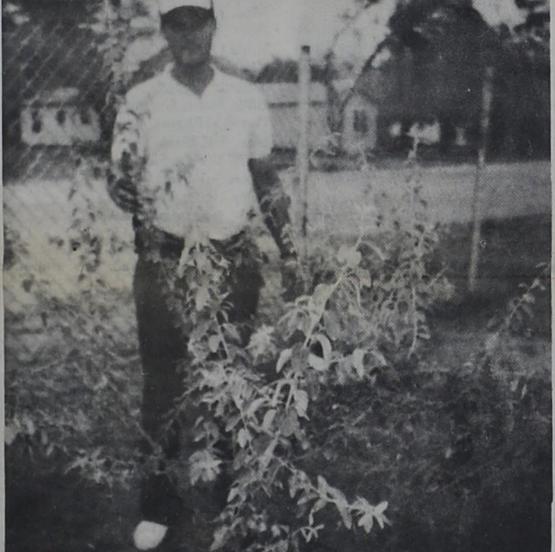

Billy has been in a full-length leg cast and will be for approximately six weeks. When asked if he thought there would be a chance he'd be active in any other sports this year, Billy replied, "No, I don't think so. I think it's too much of a risk." Billy also ad-

It took Randy Shedd almost 2 months to hand dig the holes necessary to plant the 130 trees around the Cross Plains football field. The trees were purchased through the Callahan Soil and Water Conservation District last Beginning in the southeast corner of the football field near the outer fence (behind the gym), there is a tree about every 10 feet. They extend along the entire east and north side and part of the west and south sides of the field. It will take several years for them to gain much height, but they will someday be a beautiful asset to the school grounds.

This project began when Cross Plains Superintendent, Mr. Lee Thompson, saw an ad in the Cross Plains Review last spring in which the Callahan SWCD was offering young trees for sale. Through the program, the school purchased 130 trees ranging in price from 50 cents each to $1.50. The total spent for the trees was $73.

There are six varieties of trees that were selected. They include Afghanastan Pine, Desert Willow, Russian Olive, Ash, Wax Leaf Ligustrum, and Norfolk Pine. In order to keep the trees watered, Mr. Shedd, who works in the maintenance department at Cross Plains, laid an aboveground watering system using 1/2-inch hose with drip emitters to each individual tree. This hose is being held down by rebars that he bent and used established in their first year. School Calendar By BECKY McKEEHAN Tuesday, October 31

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Even though Daylight Savings Time ended on Sunday morning, October 29th, I hit the floor early enough to see (and hear) Dr. Ruckman's "Drawing All Men" program at 7 o'clock. I thoroughly enjoy his program.

Then — we had beautiful services at First Baptist Church. Our Sunday School attendance was 330, seventy more than the Sunday before. Our Music and Youth Director, Marvin Saunders, (and Berdessa) are doing great things with our Youth groups. Our young pastor is a wonderful influence to all ages.

I appreciate a friendly couple, Janelle and Richard Purvis, who sat just behind me at church. She expressed her pleasure in reading this column each week - that made me very hap-

This October morning must think it is March all over again - the wind is so strong, and from the north at that. I dread getting out. And before you receive this week's paper, I will have had my 82nd birthday — but I'm not complaining - I'm just so grateful to the good Lord for excellent health and happiness! I talked to my two sisters last week - one is a little older, the other a little younger - and we all are grateful to the good Lord for our good health.

Early this morning, I found my Abilene paper in a puddle of water down on the highway - now I have it spread all over the house to dry out, before I can read it or work my crossword puzzles. Disgusting!

I caught Betty Beggs up to her ears in jobs - doing the laundry, paying bills and 'making soup'. Mr. David Beggs, J.T.'s father of Morton Valley, visited them on Saturday. J.T. and Betty, and son, Rex and his family, visited with Rusty and Reba Beggs near Temple on Sunday. They enjoyed a 'fish fry' and seeing their new home there. When Betty went to the beauty parlor at Rising Star last week, she saw a longtime friend, Lillian Howard.

Sally Roady made business trips to Brownwood and to Abilene last week. Their grandson, Charlie, spent a few days with them. They were all in church Sunday morning. They all visited Bob and Sue McNeil at Baird on Sunday. They visit Ms. Nettie at the nursing home nearly every day.

I had a lovely chat with Nell Fleming. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flippin and his mother, Ms. Winnie Flippin, visited Nell last Thursday afternoon.

Ms. Jewel Foster didn't answer her 'phone this morning, but I'm sure she is okay. She was in Sunday School on Sunday, looking great.

The Tillotson's did not answer their phone this morning. I trust they are well, wherever they are. Several other 'phones were not answered this morning - this is just not my day!

Cross Plains Review Thursday, November 2, 1989

the fair after 36 years in the livestock division, the last 16 as its director. He's the man who, for many years, has choreographed getting the livestock to the right place at the right time for showing and judging.

He has seen a lot of changes. The number of breeds of beef cattle exhibited has grown from four to 16, the latest being the American red brangus shown for the first time this year.

"We had 1,000 cattle stalls when I came here in 1953," Clark said. "We held the cattle for nine days and the winners on the first day got pretty upset that they had to stick around for the whole fair."

Now, he said, the fair has 1,400 cattle stalls and there are four changeovers of cattle during the exhibition.

That makes about 5,600 head of cattle, plus sheep, goats, swine and horses. In all, Clark said, the fair shows about 10,000 domestic animals. During his tenure, Clark has entertained many foreign visitors who come each year to study livestock breeding and to buy prize cattle to ship home. Eighteen foreign countries are represented this year alone.

He's played host at the fair to such luminaries as President Lyndon B. Johnson and Gerald Ford, not to mention movie stars.

When he was teaching at Mullin, Clark brought many a judging team to the Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show in Fort Worth.

"The Fort Worth Fat Stock Show was always the big show to us and everywhere else in West Texas," Clark said. "I didn't know anything about the State Fair until I went to work here."

After graduating from high school in Cross Plains, Clark farmed for two years before entering the Army in 1944. He served in campaigns in France and Belgium, the best known being the Battle of the Bulge. He was never wounded, but both feet were frostbitten, eventually leading to a medical discharge in 1946.

He went back to school, attending Tarleton State College in Stephenville and receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Agricultural Education from Texas Tech in Lubbock.

When he joined the fair, Clark was assistant manager of the livestock department and later became manager of the State Fair Coliseum upon its completion in 1959. He was staff liaison for the first National Finals Rodeo and then sales manager for Dallas All-Star Rodeo through 1967. He is past president of the Texas

Association of Fairs & Expositions. Clark is the father of four children, and his wife, Imo Jean, became his secretary in 1964

When he retires at the end of the 1989 Fair on Sunday, he will continue as a consultant if needed, he said. But he plans to head back to his hometown of Cross Plains with his wife to retire.

"We will live in the town as close to the city limits as possible," he said. "But we won't have any livestock. I've had my fill of livestock and I've enjoyed it. But we won't have any horses, cattle or other livestock. Not even a dog."

Donnel C. Clark Endowment Scholarship Fund Established

LUBBOCK - President of the State Fair of Texas Errol McKoy recently announced the establishment of a new scholarship fund for students in the College of Agricultural Sciences at Texas Tech University.

The Donnel C. Clark Endowment Scholarship Fund is in honor of Donnel C. Clark, director of livestock at the State Fair. Clark, who has served at his post since 1953, officially retires at the conclusion of this year's fair. The Cross Plains native graduated from Texas Tech in 1949 with a bachelor's degree in agricultural education.

The scholarship fund, now in excess of $15,000, was initiated by Clark's co-workers and friends at the State Fair in recognition of his dedication and support of agricultural youth activities at the fair. Additional contributions may be sent to the College of Agricultural Sciences, Texas Tech University, P.O. Box 4169, Lubbock, Texas 79409-2123.

Fall Fruit Trees Care

Sometimes fruit tree care is forgotten or neglected in the fall, but it's a critical time for controlling many peach and plum tree diseases to insure a good crop next year, said Greg Gerngross, County Extension Agent.

Gerngross said that applying a copper fungicide now can stop or help reduce three of the major diseases that attack peach and plum trees in Texas. These are peach leaf curl, bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker.

The puckered and distorted peach tree leaves that were either bright red or light green in diseased areas last spring were the result of peach leaf curl fungus. The time to control this disease effectively is in the fall by use of a copper-containing fungicide.

Gerngross said timing of the fall spray is critical for effective control and for avoiding tree damage. Unless applied correctly, copper, a medal, may cause severe defoliation.

Spraying should be done when 70 percent of the leaves have fallen. Spraying too early will cause leaf shed or cause the spray to be ineffective
