Sorority Members Note Unique Program

Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mary Dunn.

Mrs. Sterling Odom presented a very interesting program on "Recycling." She had a display of numerous items she had made from recycled materials. Some of the materials were hay baling wire, pieces of old chain, pieces of metal from old cars and stoves, all kinds and sizes of tin cans and the list goes on and on. Also, her skirt and vest was made from her husband's discarded blue jeans. She read a poem she wrote many years ago about making things from tin.

A short business meeting followed. Refreshments were served by hostess, Mary Dunn.

Those attending the meeting were: Mary Dunn, Sarah Brashear, Pauniece Oglesby, Pat Stephens, Vernelle Bishop, Brenda Conner, Pam Harris, Bobbie Johnston, Joyce McCoy, Margaret McNeel, Dorothy Petty, Janice Phillips, Sandy Yates, and special guest, Mrs. Sterling Odom.

'Coach Of The Year'

Last weekend, Saturday, December 3, Cross Plains High School's Coach Mack McConal was honored at the Newts Tennis Camp. Coach McConal was recognized as the "Texas Tennis Coach of the Year" for 2-A schools for 1988. The award was for last year when Cross Plains was rated 2-A.

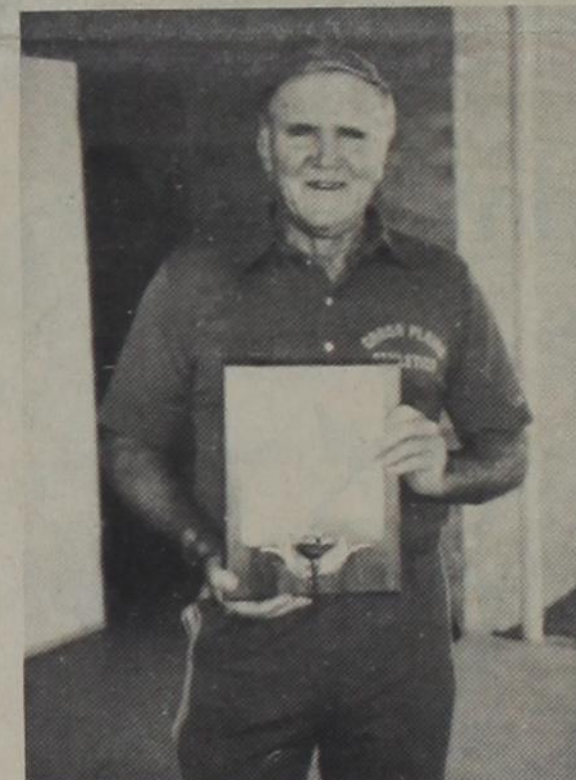

The Awards Ceremony was held in New Braunfels. Attending the awards dinner with Coach McConal were his wife, Shirley, and daughter and son-in-law, Luann and Scott Sandahl of Austin.

He has qualified numerous people for regional. One of his singles girls went to state. Twin girls he coached received scholarships to Midwestern, and their senior year went to the National Finals in singles and doubles. One of his singles boys played for McMurry two years. Coach McConal has won numerous district championships with both girls and boys. The only year he did not send anyone to regional was their first year in 2-A, but the following year his girls doubles team qualified for regional in 2-A.

Coach McConal well deserves this award. He has coached tennis at Cross Plains for 10 years. He has devoted many hours of his time to working with these students, and has earned and kept the respect of his students over the years.

Only 5 coaches receive this award each year. A plaque was awarded to Coach McConal saying, "Texas Tennis Coach of the Year." Congratulations, Coach McConal.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Already December is passing by on the calendar, with only 22 days until Christmas. We ask ourselves again, where does the time go? It is said that time goes faster as you get older — so when you bypass seventy and get closer to eighty, time is really flying.

We have to mention the fact that it is still dry in this area with no promise of rain. While driving toward Highway 36, a dust trail could be seen ahead. On reaching the highway, a vehicle had turned off on a country road, leaving a trail of dust. Then driving on 36 was another sighting of dust inside a pasture. This turned out to be from cattle walking down a trail to the tank nearby. It doesn't take much to start a dust cloud whether it be by vehicles or cattle.

Joyce Odom visited Gretna Payne last Monday afternoon. Gretna had arrived home the week before, after undergoing surgery in San Antonio several weeks ago.

Connie Steele, along with other Cross Plains Junior High School basketball team players, entered a tournament at Jim Ned Saturday.

Little Colby Reynolds of Midland spent part of last week with his grandparents, James and Dorothy Reynolds. Dorothy was in Cross Plains Tuesday to sing at the nursing home and also visited Sue Stone.

There will be a meeting with supper at the Rowden Community Center building December 10 at 6 p.m. It is hoped that all in the area will be there for games and visiting the neighbors. Visitors are always welcome.

Robert and Dorothy Watson and son, Cody, were in Winters last Monday night for the Winter-Baird Junior High Basketball games that Wyatt played in. Thursday night the tournament games were in Leuders where Wyatt was a player on the team.

Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks are doing well, but have to count on someone to feed their livestock. Ricky Kelly comes out from Cross Plains with his mother, Arlene Laney, to feed for them.

Joyce Odom was a guest of the Beta Sigma Phi Club meeting Monday night in the home of Mary Dunn in Cross Plains. Joyce gave a program that she titled, "Recycling" — making a second use of what had been something else.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin had Thanksgiving dinner in the home of Roland and Faye Mauldin near Denton Valley. Also, there were sons, Kenneth Mauldin of Abilene and Douglas Mauldin of Irving, Carolyn Burns and children, Mark and Bridgette of Potosi, and two of Faye's brothers and their wives of Eastland, and Faye's mother, Mrs. Versie Simmons of Abilene.

This writer visited Penny Neal, a patient at Humana Hospital last Tuesday. Penny fell and sustained a broken hip in her home in Cross Plains on November 27.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin drove to Bangs last Sunday to visit his uncle, Jess Mauldin and family. They attended church with them in Bangs. A former Baird pastor, Rev. Dan Wooldridge, was preaching that day. When they returned home, their daughter, Irene Masters, and her daughter, Charlotte Clifton, and her young son, Bryan, came for a visit. Roland and Faye Mauldin and son, Douglas, came over to visit also. M.L. Hughes of Baird was a visitor in the home this week.

K-Trina Meador of Cross Cut spent Friday night with Tonya Steele.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

This column just might be shorter than usual — I'm supposed to be at a meeting of the A.A.R.P. We are supposed to have a special speaker this morning, and I do not want to miss hearing him.

Nothing exciting has happened at my house this week — my big trees are losing their leaves, almost constantly, but I'm sure it will take a while — I'll have a "jolly ole time" raking them, once they are all on the grass. Also, there is a 'ton' of acorns out there!

I've seen two of my neighbors in town lately — that pretty Sally Roady in front of the bank, and John Burleson at the post office. I had not seen him with his beard — he and Richard Purvis could almost pass for twins!

Sally took her father, Howard Hicks, to the doctor on Thursday, and he has to go back on the 13th. Joe Roady of Brownwood came on Friday for a visit. Sue McNeil of Baird came on Friday and took Ms. Nettie home with them. Sue and Bob came back on Sunday evening — they played "42" for awhile.

Nell and Joe Fleming had several visitors the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bennett and Mrs. Mable West of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Overman of Andrews; also Lynn Fleming of Abilene; JoVeda and Bill Watson of Byrd's Store; and also Jim and Charlene's family over the weekend.

I saw Mr. and Mrs. Sam Townson at the post office recently. I always enjoy talking to them. Their daughter married one of my cousins, which always gives us something to chat about.

I haven't talked to my next door neighbors, the Gobles, this week. They work so many hours through the week, and work steadily at home on weekends. I seldom have a time to visit with them.

Gregg Williams of Cross Plains visited the J.T. Beggs' one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Mitchell visited them on Wednesday. Betty and Mrs. C.T. Barton (neighbor) did some shopping, and attended to some business at a cattle auction in Comanche on Saturday.

My son, C.V. Jr., called me one day this week. They are very busy. Karen went back to her teaching today (5th). I wish someone would make a bid on that little house down on Avenue F. They do so need to get rid of that place.

I hope any neighbor who has anything to report will call me anytime through the week.

Make All Your Holiday Memories Lasting Ones

... by following these safety tips from West Texas Utilities.

- Use a wooden ladder or a metal one with rubber-tipped legs when installing outdoor lights. Be sure to stand on a dry surface.
- Use heat-resistant cords with grounding plugs, and be careful not to overload too many lights or appliances on one circuit.
- Use a water-filled stand for live trees and check the water level daily.

- Be sure to discard strands of lights with frayed wiring and replace burned out bulbs BEFORE you decorate!
- Never leave your Christmas tree lights unattended. Unplug them when you go to bed or leave the house.

CARD OF THANKS

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone who had a part in making our Golden Wedding Anniversary a great success. Those who baked the cake, decorated, and served during the reception were so helpful.

The thoughtfulness expressed by those who came by, presented gifts, and called will long be remembered. It was all deeply appreciated.

Thanksgiving Weekend Enjoyed By Scott Families In Ruidoso

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Scott hosted Thanksgiving dinner for all of their children and grandchildren at Lookout Estates Condominium in Ruidoso, New Mexico, overlooking the heart of Ruidoso.

Adding to the festive and enjoyable occasion was the four-inch snow that fell Thursday night. This made for a lot of fun building snowmen, playing and sliding in the snow on Friday and Saturday. Cameras were in action so that everyone would have pictures to recall the fun-filled weekend.

Those attending were Granvel, Alice and Gordon Scott of Lubbock; Gregory Lynn Scott of Waco; Grady and Carylton Scott of Grand Prairie; Deborah and Terrie Scott of Huntville; Kelly Scott of Cisco; and Don and Linda Scott and children, Wesley and Starr of San Angelo.

PERSONALS

Suma Dill's visitors were Esther Kerr, Phyllis Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Breeding, Alton McCowen, Wanda Walker, Danny Ratliff, Gary Hargrove, Ellen Simpson, and Eunice Starr all of the community.

Other guests were Howard Shanks of Big Spring; Flora Thornton of Victoria; and Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Dill of Irving. Mrs. Dill's son, Fred, and his wife and son took her to Riverdale, Georgia to visit her granddaughter and husband, Sam and Lois Holcomb. They went to Stone Mountain in Atlanta, Georgia while they were there and Mrs. Dill reported a wonderful time.
