"Want To Change Your Life?"

By VANDA KING
Editor

Right now is a great time to make a change in your entire life, if drinking is a problem. If you have reached the point where it worries you, you may be interested in knowing about Alcoholics Anonymous. The A.A. is a program of recovery from alcoholism.

The A.A. group is men and women who have discovered, and admitted, that they cannot control alcohol. They have learned that they must live without it if they are to avoid disaster for themselves and those close to them.

The primary goal is stay sober and help others who may turn to A.A. for help in achieving sobriety. It is not a reformer, and is not allied with any group, cause, or religious denomination.

The consequences of alcoholic drinking is varied. Some have become delinquents, many lost family, possessions, and self-respect. Some have been hospitalized or jailed. Some have committed grave offenses—against society, our families, employers, and themselves.

Others have never been jailed or hospitalized. Jobs and families have not been lost through drinking, but they finally came to a realization that alcohol was interfering with normal living.

Alcoholism is one of the oldest problems in man's history, according to A.A.'s learnings. Today it is accepted that alcoholism is an illness, a progressive one, which can never be "cured," but which can be arrested.

There is nothing shameful about having the illness, provided a person can face the problem honestly and try to do something about it. A.A. describes it as being allergic to alcohol and having the common sense to stay away from the source.

The most difficult thing to accept must be the "Once an alcoholic, always an alcoholic" theory. It is a simple fact that A.A. teaches each to live with.

Many have felt that alcohol was the only thing that made life bearable and couldn't dream a life without drinking. With the A.A. program you will not have to feel deprived of anything, but rather freed. A new dimension can be sought adding new friends, new horizons, and new attitudes.

Alcoholism is one of the major American health problems. It has been estimated that millions of men and women continue to suffer.

The newly organized group of Alcoholics Anonymous would like to encourage you to join them Tuesday and Thursday of each week at 8 p.m. at 1044 Avenue E (behind the Cross Plains First Baptist Church.)

If you are suffering from alcoholism, seek a way out of the darkness and into the light.

7-Year Old Boy Due Corrective Surgery

By HARRIETTE GRAVES

While other children were busy hunting Easter eggs Sunday, a 7 year old Early boy was on his way to the Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas.

David Bechtold, 7, a first grade student at Early, left Easter Sunday to undergo corrective back surgery. The prospect of a hospital stay and the operation pose no worry to him as he has been an outpatient at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital since he was eight months old.

According to his mother, Patricia Bechtold, her son was born with scoliosis—actually a curvature of the spine.

It was on a routine checkup when the child was eight months old that Dr. Mark Martin, a Brownwood physician, discovered the deformity.

Despite the heavy brace on his back, David usually wears a pleasant smile.

He had plenty of reason to smile last Thursday when a surprise going away party was given for him at Early Elementary School by his teacher, Karen Winn, and the students of his class.

Among his gifts were a t-shirt large enough to go over his cast, and several other gifts featuring the dinosaur—a favorite for this child.

Surprisingly, as he unwrapped each gift bearing a prehistoric animal, David called out the type of dinosaur he received.

David has been in a brace since he was eight months old. "He doesn't mind and long ago got used to wearing it," Mrs. Bechtold said. She explains the brace is there to keep the curvature from getting worse. The child wears the device 23 hours a day, from his neck to his hips.

"At first it was difficult for him to adjust but as the months went on, he became more and more adept in his brace. Now he can even play soccer, rollerskate and climb trees," she said.

"Up to last year we did well and the brace seemed to be helping him, but suddenly the curvature jumped from 45 to 72 degrees. That's when physicians began considering surgery," she said.

The operation, if successful, will keep the curve from getting worse. However, when David returns to Early he will be in a body cast for six months.

"We don't know yet if he will be able to attend school. But if he can't we'll have a homebound teacher," Mrs. Bechtold said.

"We have told him about his operation and he isn't afraid or worried. He looks forward to seeing his 'girlfriend' there. By 'girlfriend' David is referring to nurses at the Scottish Rite Hospital where he has been going as an outpatient.

BRAVE BOY FACES SURGERY—David Bechtold will undergo corrective surgery for curvature of the spine.

there. By "girlfriend" David is referring to nurses at the Scottish Rite Hospital where he has been going as an outpatient.

"We'd like to let the Shriners here know how much we appreciate what they are doing for us. We've been going to the Scottish Rite Hospital for years and I don't think there's any better way to help a child," she said.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bechtold, the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark of Clyde and the great grandson of Daisy Holcomb and the late Wes Holcomb.

Those who wish to send David cards may do so by mailing them to David Bechtold, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children, 2222 Welborn Street, Dallas, Tx. 75219.

Bankrupt Firms Can Get Their Money Back

By DON TABOR
Publisher

I think I've heard of everything now. For years I've been receiving various and sundry documents concerning firms and individuals who have declared bankruptcy and listed my newspapers as one of their creditors.

I got one Monday from some lawyers in North Carolina that takes the cake.

To make a long story short, what their letter said was that they represent a mobile home firm which has declared bankruptcy and that being as how the firm paid me $18 two weeks before declaring said bankruptcy they are "demanding" that I pay the money back.

According to these lawyers, as our esteemed Bankruptcy Code now reads, a business can declare Chapter 11 bankruptcy and then DEMAND repayment of any debts it paid within 90 days of the declaration.

What they go on to say is that I received a "preference" in the payment of the $18. In other words, I got something when most of their other creditors apparently didn't.

And, according to them, I am legally bound to pay that "preference" back. Never mind it has been almost two years since the payment was made, they say I must immediately pay it back. It's a wonder they don't try to charge me interest on it. I'd better knock on wood, they still may.

Heaven help us! We're not safe even after we finally cajole these deadbeats into paying their just debts.

Something has got to be done to tighten the Bankruptcy Code. The way it is now, it's far too easy a "way out".

And the ones who suffer are the small business people who struggle from day to day in this puny economy to pay their just debts.

Many of them could declare bankruptcy, too, but they don't. They're honest folks who were brought up to believe that when you have a debt, you pay it.

I've talked several times about the bankruptcy problem with Peoples State President Doug Ford.

You can feel the frustration in his voice as he says, "If they would just come in and talk with us, we can always work something out."

But many don't. They take the "easy way" out instead.

History Book Sales Aid County's Cemeteries

The citizens of Callahan County continue to reap the benefits from the sale of the County history book "I REMEMBER CALLAHAN", published by the Callahan County Historical Commission. The latest project is the restoration of the Pleasant Valley/Eagle Cove Cemetery, located between Clyde and Denton Valley.

This cemetery, used in the late 1800's and early 1900's, is the third in the Commission's cemetery restoration program, and by far the largest to date. There are several individuals and firms that have been a huge benefit to the program and deserve a thank-you from the people of Callahan County who care about the preservation of our heritage. Chronologically they are: Four Seasons Landscape Company, Steve Goldsmith, West Texas Utilities Company, Rick Gilmore and the Clyde Fire Department, County Commissioners Roy LaRoy and Lowell Johnson, and Texas Monument Company.

Your County Historical Commission is involved in a wide variety of historical programs, and because of projects such as the book, is able to undertake them without using additional tax money. Citizens of the County are invited and encouraged to participate in these programs so that the proud heritage of the County can be protected and preserved for this, and future generations. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

After spending millions of dollars to find a cure for lung cancer and losing thousands of lives to this dreadful disease, the Surgeon General tells us the best prevention is to refrain from smoking.

The homosexual community is now raising millions of dollars to find a cure for AIDS and launching a comprehensive educational campaign to promote "safe sex". How many people have to die before it becomes obvious that the best solution to the AIDS epidemic is to refrain from homosexual activity and the use of intravenous drugs?

With the evidence furnished by the Texas Aids Task Force that 90% of those diagnosed with AIDS are homosexual or bi-sexual men, how can the Legislature even consider passing SB 23 which would repeal the Texas Sodomy Law? Citizens who care about the health of all Texans need to urge their Senators and Representatives to preserve the Texas Sodomy Law which presently states that "A person commits an offense if he engages in deviate sexual intercourse with another individual of the same sex."

Sincerely,
Maurine White(S)

Weekly Health Tip

DIVERTICULOSIS

Only 1 in 10 Americans develop diverticulosis by age 40, however 2 out of 3 do so by age 60. It consists of little pouches or hernias in the wall of the colon caused by repeated straining to expel hard stools. Problems arise when the contents of the intestines move sluggishly and some is forced into the pouches to become plugged and infected. Plenty of fluid (8 glasses a day) plus adequate fiber diet usually prevents complications. Laxatives irritate the colon and are not advised for diverticulosis.

Host An Exchange Student Next Year

American Scandinavian Student Exchange (ASSE International) would like to introduce you to some very special people.

Exceptional high school students from Scandinavia, France, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Holland, Great Britain, and Spain are looking forward to spending the upcoming academic year in America as exchange students. Local families are needed to host students in all areas of Texas.

"Potential host families come from a wide variety of backgrounds and lifestyles," says Toby Hall, spokesperson for the Texas region. "Ideal host families are open-minded, have an interest in people, especially those from another culture, and have a sense of humor."

The students are between 15-18 years old, are fluent in English, fully insured and have their own spending money. They expect to share household responsibilities and be included in family activities.

The qualified students have a great variety of talents and interests. Among the available students are: Niels, from Denmark, wants to learn American customs and ways of life. His interests include basketball, soccer, and riding horses. Karin, from Sweden, wants to speak a second "native language" and meet many new friends. She loves to dance, especially ballet and jazz-dancing. Among her other interests are reading and swimming. Marc, of Germany, enjoys computers, politics, and nearly all kinds of sports and reading. He is very curious about the USA and is very much looking forward to meeting his new American family.

For more information on hosting a student, please call Carroll Draper, Rt. 2, Box 216-CC, Early, TX 76801 at (915) 646-4239 or Nina Frank, 807 E. Reynosa, DeLeon, TX 76444 at (817) 893-6279 or call toll-free to 1-800-333-3802.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

These "musings" are going to be different, to say the least. I'm writing them early this time. I'm going to spend Friday to Monday in Cleburne with my daughter and her family. I'm hoping my son's family will be there from Longview—we don't know for sure.

I've been amused—and amazed by a flock of huge grackles in my front yard—they are beautiful, and very energetic. I counted at least twenty—then gave up—there were so many, and they are so feisty.

From my front windows, I can see Jimmie Payne's cows south of my place—at least two, maybe more, cute little white-faced calves out there.

Rex Beggs and children, Nikki, Ashley and Tony of Cross Plains visited Betty and J.T. this week. On Thursday, Shana Hutton came by. On Saturday, Kim Beggs and David were with the family for lunch and a nice visit. Tommy Ames and Donna Erwin visited on Wednesday.

Jean Fore was so hoarse she could hardly talk. She had had a lot of company, and I hope she finds time to report to the Review.

Dolores Stover reported that they were having a wonderful revival at the Pioneer Baptist Church—good attendance and splendid messages. It was so good to talk to her.

My good neighbor, Ms. Jewel Foster, spent the weekend with the Don Huston's at Lake Sam Rayburn. I'm so glad she had the opportunity to have that outing. Norma didn't have any special news.

Thomas and Wanda Flippen visited Nell Fleming one day recently. Nell is really concerned about her son, Jerry, who is in an Amarillo hospital. He underwent a brain surgery recently. He is reported to be recovering nicely. A grandson, Jason Fleming, was visiting Nell on Friday when I called.

I called Helen Tillotson early and her line was busy. Later when I called, no one answered. I'm sorry I missed talking to her.

Tuesday, Billie Freeman took Miss Nettie to the quilting and enjoyed the day. Wednesday was Sally Roady's brother, Gene Hicks', birthday. Sally visited with him and on Thursday she visited with Mack Childers. Thursday was also Charlie's 9th birthday. Sally made him a cake and a family party was held at his house.

Miss Nettie and Sally went to Abilene on Friday. Sunday the family visited N.A. and Gitti Roady at Anson for Easter. George Roady was in and attended the gathering with his parents. A great time was reported.

OWNER WORKING FOR CORPORATION IS AN EMPLOYEE!

Dear Commissioner Nabers: I am the owner of a small business and have recently incorporated. Do I have to pay unemployment taxes on myself, and, if so, why is this? I certainly do not plan on filing a claim for unemployment benefits.

—S.N.
Post, Tx.

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott
Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

ing, it is against the law! Under the provisions of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, an individual cannot waive his or her right to unemployment benefits and there are both civil and criminal penalties for an employer who attempts to secure such a waiver or otherwise interfere with this right. The payment of severance will not have any effect upon the individual's right to benefits.

Ms. Nabers represents all Texas employers. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 Texas Employment Commission Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Texas 78778.

Dear S.N.: Yes, you do have to pay taxes on yourself because you no longer work for yourself. You work for the corporation. A corporation is a distinct legal entity and even if you own it lock, stock, and barrel, you are still an employee of the corporation. As far as benefits are concerned, unless you sell the corporation, a claim from you would be adjudicated under the same provisions of the law as any claim for benefits.

Dear Commissioner Nabers: I need to hire someone to do about three weeks worth of work, and I want to clearly stipulate that the work is temporary and I will not be responsible for the person's unemployment. Can I get them to sign a contract agreeing not to file a claim? What if I pay them severance in exchange for their not filing a claim?

Bangs, Tx.

Dear A.D.: The kind of agreement you are talking about is not only NOT bind-

Rowden News

By N.V. Gibbs

The Easter Season is upon us and is a very special time of year. In Cross Plains last Sunday night at the First Baptist Church, four church groups combined and rendered a cantata of the risen Lord. It was excellent. Christ was put to death by His enemies, but as He had said, He would arise on the third day. His tomb remains empty, as He is with the Father in Heaven interceding for His creation to know Him. Easter Sunday is a very good time to worship.

Weather has gone astray again this past week with two days of below freezing temperatures. In spite of that fruit trees are blooming just as if nothing would interfere with their routine. It's like they are saying, "I do this every year regardless of warm or cold."

School children have enjoyed this week of spring break, but now it's back to school for the rest of this term. Tonya Steele entered track events in Albany Friday. She came in with a close second place on the two mile race.

Brad and Kile Watson will be returning back to classes at Texas Tech Monday. Cody and Wyatt enjoyed spring break this week.

Brian and Julie Patterson and little son, Justin Cory of Coperas Cove are spending the weekend with Bob and Kathy Dye at their house in Baird.

Webb R. Johnson of Cobads, New Mexico, has visited his mother, Emma Johnson and his aunt, Lizzie Burks this week. He was returning home by way of Midland and El Paso. B.J. Anderson of Rising Star also visited in the home and brought a bag of apples for an Easter treat.

This writer was in Abilene Thursday and visited in the home of Truitt and Lillian Hollingshead.

Last Sunday visitors of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin were two of their grandchildren, Gary Mauldin and his wife Jona of Odessa and his sister, Becky Smith and daughter, Candice of Still Water, Oklahoma. Also Roland and Faye Mauldin of Denton Valley Community. On Monday, Kenneth Mauldin and friend, Johnie Hamelton of Abilene. On Friday, M.L. Hughs and Roy Tarrence of Baird visited in the home.

Emma Johnson has just called to report an Easter gift from her daughter, Pansy Johnson of San Antonio, Tim Dillard, florist at Cross Plains delivered a beautiful container of Hydiangeas with lovely pink blooms. Emma was elated.

Lee and Jean Jernigan of Lake Proctor visited in the Tony Steele home Friday afternoon. Rony and Judy were busy Saturday morning planting garden seeds in containers in their hot house for early planting. Very little gardening has been done in the community due to the cold and dry conditions.

Edna Dye spent two days in Breckenridge with Ed and Betty Sayre. Charles, Nancy and Michael Palmer of Clyde visited in the Sterling Odom home Saturday afternoon.

On Easter Sunday Kate Watson was invited to partake of a delectable lunch after church with Sam and Eva Fleming and their son, Fred Marcus here. Fred is from Snyder.

Clent and Imogene Kniffen visited her aunt Kate Watson here Saturday on their way to Rising Star to attend the funeral of his cousin J.D. Selmon.

NEW VACCINE FOR LEUKEMIA

There has been a major breakthrough in the area of viral vaccine technology concerning animal health and disease prevention. Years of research and development have yielded the Feline Leukemia Vaccine. The new vaccine is the first available for leukemia (blood cell cancer) producing virus. The importance of this breakthrough to the animal and human population is yet to be seen.

The Feline Leukemia Virus is a major cause of Lymposarcoma (tumor production in tissue and organs), Leukemia (blood cell cancer), and associated diseases that result when the virus impairs the cat's immune system. Cats infected with the virus have limited ability to resist other infections by even the most common bacteria, viruses and fungus. They may undergo reproductive failures, such as abortions, they may sustain frequent colds, stomach problems, skin and mouth sores and anemia.

The virus is present primarily in the saliva, but also in the urine and feces of infected cats. Typically it is passed from cat to cat by licking, biting, and sneezing. The virus enters the body through membranes of the eyes, nose and mouth. From there it goes into the bloodstream, eventually lodging in the various tissues and organs, where it multiplies. Because Feline Leukemia Virus is bloodborne even fleas which have sucked infected blood might transport the virus to other cats. The virus can survive only two to three minutes in air and only two to three days in the moist environment, such as food bowls and litter pans. Ordinary household detergents easily kill the virus.

For several years animal researchers have known that leukemia in cattle and cats is caused from a virus. With the knowledge gained from researching these cancer producing viruses, human researchers are now starting a more serious investigation concerning the possibility of a virus causing various forms of cancer in man. The similarity between the Feline Leukemia Virus and the AIDS virus is such that a vaccine might be possible in the near future.

There are unlimited uses for the new technology available since the development of the Feline Leukemia Vaccine. Kittens need to be nine weeks of age to begin the vaccination series. Older cats can begin the series at any time. A second booster is recommended in three weeks and the third and last booster three months after the second. A yearly booster is all that is necessary to maintain protection.
