'How One Man Learned The Bible'

EDITOR'S NOTE: Jack Scott, former editor/publisher of the Review, is a guest columnist this week. Vanda King, Editor.

John Lee, who was a prisoner of the Japanese for four years during World War II, sometimes astounds his golfing buddies at Lakewood Recreation Center between Cross Plains and Rising Star. He often quotes the Bible, reciting lengthy verses as though reading from the Holy Writ. John is known to be a moral man but not outwardly religious. It is, therefore, surprising to hear him utter lengthy verses with no difficulty of recall. If they didn't know that he is a retired soil conservationist, they might believe him to be a preacher or a theologian.

A friend said to him recently, "John, you know the Bible well. Do

Bro. Hale noted that Edington's sincere dedication to the Kiwanis Club was the prominent qualification in his selection. The demonstration of his best efforts in every project was noted and praised.

Edington stated that he joined the Kiwanis Club because he admired the fact that their work benefitted the local community. "If I was going to be a part of the Kiwanis Club, I wanted to participate and make it worthwhile and grow," he remarked.

An example of their deeds include the recent purchase of new glasses for a needy elementary student at no cost to the child's parents.

Henry is employed by West Texas Utilities and his wife, Linda, is the activity director at Colonial Oaks Nursing Home. He has two sons, Donald Ray, who is serving in the U.S. Air Force and stationed in England, and James, who is working on the Staci Dam and lives in Coleman. He has one daughter, Brandi, a fourth grader at Cross Plains Elementary.

NUMBER 48

The Cross Plains Kiwanians want to recognize an outstanding Christian "Layman of the Year" - a representative from one of the area churches. This will be done by presenting this layman with a plaque.

Kiwanians want this to be open to everyone, and if you have a layman in your church that you feel represents Christianity in his life and leadership in your church, please submit their name with a short statement determining why they should be honored.

Nominations may be sent to Michael Hale, Box 130, Cross Plains, Texas 76443 or deliver it to any member of the Kiwanis Club.

you read it often?"

"No," he replied, "I don't read the Bible much. What I know about it comes from my wartime experiences."

He elaborated, explaining that prisoners of war had no cigarettes and he was cursed with an insatiable desire to smoke. A crude type of tobacco (called wog) was available to POW's, but there was no paper with which to roll a cigarette. John still possessed the New Testament, given to him at the Reception Center when he was inducted into the army. Its pages were thin and about the right size to make a cigarette. One by one, he tore the sheets from that little book and smoked many times.

"I felt remorse about what I was doing," he says, "and as each page was removed I tried to memorize the words on both sides of the sheet before rolling a cigarette."

Mini Car Winner Announced At Buy Rite Superette

Buy-Rite Superette determined the winner of the "Mini Car" sponsored by CITGO, distributor Gerald Winnett of Cisco, Tuesday afternoon. Don Engle drew the ticket naming Erwin Clark as the winner of the miniature gasoline powered car.

The mini car is modeled after a race car and has Kyle Petty's name enscribed.

Customers at Buy-Rite have been registering for the drawing for the past three weeks. Eligibility requirement was the submission of an application for a CITGO credit card.

Bill Lewis, owner, expressed his appreciation for the great participation in the drawing.

C.P. Leads County In Percentage Increase Of Sales

The City of Cross Plains leads all Callahan County towns in the percentage of increase in sales over last year. The town is reported to have sales tax collections running 9.45 percent higher this year than in 1988. The town has received $9,067.39 so far in 1989, while the 1988 tax rebate amounts to $8,284.21.

Cross Plains payment for the month of February was 4.34 percent higher than the same month last year. The February 1989 payment to the town was $6,460.63, while the February 1988 check amounted to $6,191.63. Retail sales in the City of Clyde for 1989 remain about the same as last year, according to city sales tax payments reported by State Comptroller Bob Bullock on Monday, February 13.

Bullock said that sales tax payments to the city in 1989 are 3.14 percent ahead of last year. The City of Clyde has received $16,826.74 so far in 1989, while $16,314.73 was reported in 1988.

The one-percent tax payment to the city for the month of February was $11,660.33, which is 3.63 percent lower than the February 1988 payment of $12,099.52.

1989 sales tax collections 12.12 percent lower than 1988 tax payments. The town has received payments of $1,734.98 so far in 1989. Payments to the county town in 1988 were reported at $1,974.33.

Statewide, collections of the onepercent city sales tax are running 14.25 percent ahead of last year. The one-percent collections in 1989 in all of Callahan County are 2.28 percent ahead of 1988 tax totals.

Comptroller Bullock on Monday sent a late Christmas present to Texas cities, counties, and Mass Transit Authorities by way of checks totaling nearly $225 million in local sales tax allocations.

"The cities alone got a 12 percent increase over last year's checks, and 8 percent - more than half - is due to higher sales during the holidays," Bullock said.

Bullock added that about $670 million was deposited in the state's coffers because of the strong returns, and state lawmakers could put the unexpected extra $150 million towards planning the 1990-91 state budget.

"The growth in collections from the broadened tax base has evened out now. That means these increases are a direct result of a strong economy and greater consumer confidence," Bullock said.

CITGO WINNER - Erwin Clark (right) was the lucky winner of the mini car given by CITGO at the Buy-

Rite drawing. Bill Lewis, store owner, presents the mini car to Clark.

Helen Walker; Randy and Vicky Walker; Wayne's Deer Processing; Weakly Watson; Weatherby Ford; Edwin and Betty Weiss; West Texas Grain Elevators; West Texas Utilities; Western Auto; Western Sheet Metal; Wichita Falls PCA; Williams Tire Store; Mike Winfrey & Curtis Cooper; Tony and Paula Winfrey; Wise Club Lambs; Leonard and Cindy Wood; and Tony and Terry Wyatt.

The City of Baird is showing collection of the 1989 one-percent city sales tax 4.36 percent behind the 1988 sales tax payments. The town has received a total of $6,490.43 so far in 1989, while sales tax figures were $6,786.59 in 1988.

The town's monthly sales tax payment for February 1989 was 10.84 percent lower than the same month in 1988. The February 1989 payment was $5,081.60, while the February 1988 check amounted to $5,699.52. The City of Putnam is reporting

Checks totaling $145.1 million were sent Monday to 1,048 cities that collect local sales tax at either one or one and one-half percent.

February's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in December and reported to the Comptroller's office by January 20. Also included in this month's allocation are sales tax collections reported by quarterly and yearly filers

Telethon Slated For Clayton Family

Thursday, March 2, is the date set for a telethon to raise funds to pay for further search efforts to locate Cortney Lyn Clayton.

Cortney, a second-grader from Stamford, disappeared September 2 after walking to the M-System grocery store less than one block from her home.

The Calvary Baptist Church and friends of Stan and Candice Clayton are sponsoring the telethon. Volunteers will be calling on Jones County residents, but pledges may be made prior to the telethon by calling the church at (915) 773-5267 or the Russell Newman Manufacturing Co., where Stan Clayton is employed, at (915) 773-5272.

You may send donations to the Cortney Clayton Fund at First National Bank, Box 471, Stamford, Texas 79553.

Searches since the time of her disappearance have been futile, but hope for some clue to her whereabouts encourages further investigations.

'Christ In The Passover' Presented Locally

By MICHAEL HALE

What do the Jewish Passover and Jesus' Last Supper have in common? Alan Tannenbaum; staff evangelist with Jews for Jesus, will answer that question as he presents "Christ in the Passover" at the Cross Plains Senior Citizens building on March 8 at 7 p.m.

The purpose of the "Christ in the Passover'' presentation will enhance the Christian understanding of the New Testament by showing the Jewish background for the Communion celebration.

A table is set with the traditional Jewish Passover items, including foods which will be explained but not eaten. This presentation was originally written in 1956 by Moishe Rosen, the founder of Jews for Jesus.

Dr. Rosen contends that some of the most important elements of Christian doctrine, such as the Trinity, the principle of substitutionary atonement, and salvation through a personal relationship with the Messiah, are implied in the Sedar (Passover feast) as observed by Orthodox Jews today.

You will hear Alan Tannenbaum share how he came to trust Jesus Christ as his savior. Then time will be given for questions that you might have concerning Passover, Jewism, or any other questions that Alan can answer.

This program is open to the general public. It is being brought to Cross Plains through the efforts of First Baptist Church, the United Methodist Church, Gospel Mission, Believer's Fellowship, and Pioneer Pentecostal.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilting Circle finished a nine patch, alternated with designed plain squares, this Tuesday. Our visitors were Lillian Parsons and Maizie Smoot.

The Pioneer Baptist Church had a fellowship Sunday night, a belated Valentine party; James and Frances Wolfe were presented a corsage and a buttoniere and crowned Valentine King and Queen by the young people. They had a good crowd.

We neglected to mention in the last Patchwork that a topic of conversation Tuesday, February 14, led by Rufus Wilson, was that women were created to be kind to their husbands - just ordinary, everyday kindness was meant. We thought this was a worthy topic, especially for Valentine's, but also for any time of the year, just as a reminder to all our busy women who have husbands to care for.

Mrs. Jewel Foster said the Pioneer Game Night was Thursday, Februar, 23, so you all can keep up with it if you missed any of these community meetings.

Sunday, Mary Mathews of Stephenville and a grandson of Nell and Joe Fleming, Kurt Brown, also of Stephenville, were over to visit them on the weekend. Mary and JoVeda Watson prepared a surprise birthday dinner for Nell and Charlene. Sam Fleming of Cross Plains visited Nell and Joe on Thursday morning.

Lottie Sooter's visitors one afternoon last week were Idell Bagwell of Minden, Louisiana and Ilene Brooks of Texarkana.

INJOYING THE FELLOWSHIP - Bill (from left) and Barbara Young, Sandra Jones, and Betty and Harold Baxter converse following the feast. The Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper is a

The weddin' of the year was held in Cottonwood on Saturday night, February 25. You won't read about it in the national news or find it in local society coverage, but it is the top news story in Cottonwood column this week.

The bride wore a floral printed mumu, her headdress was an antique lace cap with flowing lace veil, her bridal bouquet was an orange feather duster, and she carried a cigar in her mouth. All objections and interruptions opposing the hitchin' went unheeded as the weddin' took place.

Members of the cast in the "woman-less weddin' " were: Glenn Champion, Don Draper, Walter Thomasson, Bill Smith, Edwin Edwards, X.L. Stroud, Jesse Bigbee, Eddy Albrecht, Carlile Albrecht, Cliff Van Der Linden, and Calvin Champion. Their performance rates a 10 on the entertainment for a comedy. Thanks to the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control group for an evening to be remembered and the best medicine one can offer...laughter. The ladies did an outstanding job in their decorating the building and serving of the vittles.

To verify a cancellation of a monthly musical during inclement weather, please contact Mrs. Glenn Champion 725-6536 for information. Visitors in the home of Lillie and Blanton Childers last week were: Dorothy and Burl Brown, Cecil and Delilah Goble of Cross Plains; Eugene Wilcoxen, and E.L. Hawks of Abilene. On Saturday, Todd Childers came by from Cisco to see his grandparents. On Sunday, Aubrey of Potosi and Arnold and son, Kane of Brownwood, were here to check on the folks.

Card Of Thanks I would like to thank the EMS crew who responded to my call; to Bill Reed for making that call for us; and to Mike McClure for staying with me until the ambulance arrived. Also, thanks to everyone for their calls, visits, prayers, and flowers during my hospitalization, and a special thanks to those who donated blood. It really means a lot to know there are so many who care and were there in our time of need.

Card Of Thanks

We want to thank Bro. Michael for his visits to the hospital and his prayers while I was in the hospital and home.

Thanks to my family and friends for the visits, food, phone calls, gifts, and flowers, and most of all your prayers. With love,

August and Irene Garlitz

Last Thursday at noon, I went to the Senior Citizens Service Center for lunch. My Sunday School Class helped to celebrate the birthday of our leader, Ms. Minnie Swann. There was a good attendance and a wonderful fellowship. I enjoyed meeting Faye Chambers there. My good friend, Lorena Settle of Archer City, called me during the weekend. I think she was a bit blue and lonely - she said she just wanted to hear my voice. Bless her heart! I lost another brother-in-law last week. We lost Edward Allen in January, and Leonard passed away in Fort Worth last week. Now we have only Robert, the youngest child, and their sister, Q'Zella, just older than Robert. I have many fond memories of that big family. Sally Roady went to the doctor on Tuesday and had some more tests made. On Thursday, they visited Mr. MackChilders in Cross Plains. Her brother, Gene Hicks of Rising Star, visited them one day. On Friday, Art and Bertie picked up Ms. Nettie for the weekend. On Saturday, Bobby and Sally helped in remodeling their home, and on Sunday they brought Ms. Nettie home with them. When I called the Beggs' home, Betty answered, and I heard a lamb "crying". Betty had it in the house - its mother had died. Betty, J.T., and Rex visited the Kim Beggs family in Stephenville last Saturday. They enjoyed a Mexican dinner while there; they also visited a Flea Market in Stephenville.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank all my friends and neighbors and especially the Church of Christ ladies for all the food that was brought to my home, also for the beautiful flowers and cards.

Your kindness will always be remembered. Mamie Whiteside

Card Of Thanks

A big thank you for all the calls from concerned friends and neighbors and the many food dishes brought to my home since I have returned from the hospital. I am recovering fine, but seems awful slow.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

Mrs. Bill Nickerson Sr. stayed at her daughter's, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Franke in Clyde with Amie, Kellie, and Jeremy, while the parents were on a skiing trip in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Haston of North Highland Park were here on Saturday to attend the C.F.V.C. benefit at the Cottonwood Community Center and visited with her parents and family, the Eddy Albrechts.

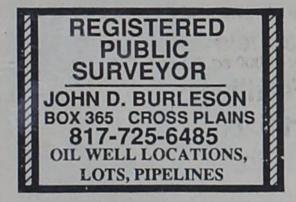

Mrs. Ethel Anderson visited with Mrs. Daisy Holcomb and Rufus Renfro in Cross Plains during last week. A gold pierced earring was lost Saturday at the Community Center. If found, please contact Barbara Albrecht at 725-6587.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Nona Waggoner in Baird.

Mr. Donny Anderson of Corpus Christi and children, Heath, Heather, and Lacey of Abilene attended the Baptist Cottonwood Church morning services and spent the day with his grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Moore. Donny sang a special music song he had written during the service.

PERSONALS

Visiting Mrs. Suma Dill were Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Walker, Chester Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Breeding, John Eakin, Donna Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson, Blanche Moore, Mr. and Mrs. S.E. Paige, and Mrs. Ogalee Witt of Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole Tillotson went with John Burleson and family to Odessa to visit the Ronnie Hutchins family. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burleson of De Leon were there also. They celebrated all the February and March birthdays.

All three of Ms. Jewel Foster's sons visited her on Sunday. Ms. Jewel has a white German Shepherd dog - last week she gave birth to seven (7) male puppies.

Nell Fleming was on her way out to go feed the cows when I called. Her friend, Mrs. Gary Overman of Andrews, visited her last Saturday morning.

The Mack Taffs had about six inches of rain recently. They visited Vanessa in Brownwood - went to the library and did some research. They went to Abilene on business one day. They went to Mason for a load of hay, took their grandsons, Andrew and George.

I talked to my son one day this week. They have been very busy. He had to work on Saturday and couldn't attend his uncle's funeral.

Family Aflame Spring Revival Begins Thursday Night

Rev. Klel Quesenberry, pastor of First Methodist Church here in Cross Plains, announces a special three-day preaching mission, beginning tomorrow night and running through Saturday. Services begin at 7 p.m. each evening.

The speaker is to be Dr. John James Fourie, pastor of the Central United Methodist Church in Brownwood.

Pastor John, and his wife, Susan, were born and reared in South Africa. They received their theological training there and in England and the U.S. He has degrees from Trinity College, TCU and Bethany, earning his doctorate from the latter.

As a couple, they served as missionaries to the Hindu in the land of their birth. They have also served congregations in Utah, New Mexico, and Texas before joining the Central Texas Conference in 1979. Within this conference, he has ministered in Aledo, Hurst, and Copperas Cove, as well as Brownwood.

Dr. and Mrs. Fourie are the proud parents of two adopted children, a son and a daughter. Both are grown and on their own.

Rev. Quesenberry warmly invites the public to attend any and all evenings of this revival. Each evening will offer something special for the entire family.

Please feel free to call the church, 725-7377, for additional information.

Bowden News

By MRS. N.V. Gibbs

There has been a mixture of weather this week, some days cloudy and cool and some warm sunshiny days. The rain has gone to other places.

Janet and son, Drew Flippin of Midlothian, spent Saturday with her parents, James and Dorothy Reynolds.

This writer was in Abilene last Monday and visited Blan and Jessie Odom in Humana Hospital. Blan is doing fine and hopes to be at home sometime next week.

Kyle Watson, a student at Texas Tech, was home for the weekend. During the week, Robert and Dorothy Watson visited friends in Haskell and Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bailey.

The Watsons attended the county stock show near Cross Plains Saturday. Cody entered a lamb. Misty Davis also was showing lambs at the show.

Visitors in the Gene Mauldin home during the week were Dorse and Lee Harris of Baird and Rev. Daniel Moore, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Baird, also Joy and Chief Horner, their neighbor, and Roland and Faye Mauldin of Denton Valley.

Company in the Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks home this week were B.J. Anderson and Rev. O'Brian of Rising Star. Emma reported her brother, Robert Burks, was still a patient in Hendricks Medical Center. He is a resident of the Cross Plains rest home.

This writer received a long, newsy letter from a friend, Wilma Nell (Sikes) Pierce of Hereford. She was a cousin of N.V. Gibbs and is the daughter of the late Norban and Emma Sikes of Portales, New Mexico. The Sikes family resided in the community long ago and operated the Rowden Store and post office for many years. The interesting thing, her brothers and sisters and families have compiled a family cookbook with all their favorite recipes. Their mother and father's recipes were in the original writing. Many happy activities of this family were also recorded in the book. Joyce Odom and this writer are happy to own a copy from this thoughtful family. Some families could not be reached by telephone this week for news. When people suddenly come up with car trouble, there are some that stop and give help. This writer was coming into Cross Plains from the W.R. Erwin farm and had radiator heating problems. The man that stopped was Raymond Hartley of Cross Plains. After the heating radiator cooled off, and driving slowly, was able to get into town. Helpful strangers are more than appreciated. Sam Odom also shared the use of his phone for calling my family. Tony Steele, son-in-law, put in new parts which brought the car home. Thank you all for your kindness.

TUESDAY - Cheese nachos, pinto beans, salad, corn bread, pineapple, milk.

WEDNESDAY - Hot dogs w/chili, baked beans, spinach, cobbler, milk.

day evening, February 23. The new members that were inducted are Sherry Williams (sophomore), Brenda Franke (sophomore), and Becky McKeehan (junior). The ceremony began at 7 p.m. in the library with the invocation by Scott Crockett, and a welcome from high school principal, Leonard Wood.

The program continued as the current NHS members explained the four basic principles of the society: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. After warm congratulations from Mr. Wood, the crowd welcomed the new members.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for members, sponsors, and guests. Refreshments were served by the members. NHS members from the 1987-88 school year include: Seniors Glenn Webb, Jeannie Barclay, Michael Franke, Scott Crockett, and Alicia Kirkham; Juniors Dana Dukes, Tina Evans, Pam Helms, and Stephanie Walker.

Cindy Engle, Senior member, was unable to attend due to illness. Everyone wishes her a speedy recovery.

The NHS members would like to thank everyone who took part in the program, either in preparation or attendance. A special thanks also goes to the NHS sponsors, Tom Barclay, Charlene Fleming, Dora Smith, and Julia Wheeler, for all their help and support. The Society would also like to extend additional thanks to Tim Dillard for the flower arrangement that was used and Bonnie Hedrick for her "secret" help with the preparations.

BROWNWOOD - Seniors graduating this spring from public or private high schools in Texas have until Wednesday, March 15, to apply for a $1,500 college scholarship available under the Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program administered by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

The Coordinating Board will authorize 341 scholarship awards for 1989-90 totalling $511,500.

Students who obtain a GED certificate to a high school diploma, before March 15 are also eligible to apply.

The Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program recognizes students who show promise of outstanding academic achievement in college. Selection is made on the basis of high school grade point average, college entrance examination scores and graduating class rank. The $1,500 scholarships are applied toward the first year of college study and are not renewable.

"Students who apply for a Byrd scholarship will be considered automatically for the Governor's Recognition Award Program. Although no funds have been set aside for that program, selected students will receive a certificate of recognition signed by the governor," Adams said.

Students interested in these programs should contact their school counselors of local GED centers. Each school or GED center can submit no more than three applications for a Byrd scholarship or Governor's Recognition Award.

Applications for these programs must be post-marked by 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 15, and sent to the following address: Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program, Division of Student Services, Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, P.O. Box 12788, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Howard Payne University, the GED center for Brownwood and the surrounding area, will offer the next GED test on Saturday, March 11. More information may be obtained from the registrar's office at HPU, (915) 646-2502.

Slated March 4

The Senior Class of Cisco High School, in coordination with Senior Class parents, is sponsoring an Eastland County and Area High School Dance, on Saturday, March 4. The dance will be held at the Corral Room, downtown Cisco from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. Jason Phillips, D.J., will provide the music for the dance. Admission will be $3. Soft drinks will be available.

For further information, please call 442-3113, 442-4627, or 442-2537.

March 5, at 2 p.m. in the CJC auditorium. Any students interested in auditioning for the dance/drill team need to call the college for additional details (817) 442-2567. Students accepted into the performing team are recipients of an activity scholarship. Girls who are unable to attend the open auditions can make arrangements with the Wrangler Belle director for an individual audition. The girls accepted through auditions are required to attend the final tryout session in July for selection of the 1989-90 Wrangler Belles.
