'Fiesta del Concho'

By VANDA KING
Editor

A sunrise breakfast at Fort Concho in San Angelo started out a full day of activities surrounding the Fiesta del Concho, which is held annually. Pancakes were served to approximately 6,000 people on the parade grounds of the fort by the Lions Club. Everyone was extremely friendly, as strangers shared tables for the delicious meal.

A flag ceremony performed by the calvary, complete with original uniforms or reproductions of the ones worn during that time era, brought everyone to their feet.

A sheep shearing contest was in progress as part of the Fiesta del Concho Frontier Day 1990. If you have never seen one, it is amazing how the shearers remove the wool in one large piece, which is closely examined by the judge to determine the winner. The sheep didn't put up much of a battle and very little bleating was heard.

Next, there were the sheep dog trials. Trainers and their dogs, complete with whistles and stiffs, carefully herded a half dozen sheep into the designated pen. The one with the best time won the competition.

Various displays were exhibited at the rock barracks and officer's quarters, which have been refurbished. You could watch butter being churned, lye soap processing, wool being spun into yarn, and one lady was sewing on a peddle sewing machine. A blacksmith was actually making horseshoes, and corn was being milled with a machine dating to the 1800's.

The infirmary at Fort Concho had been restored with iron bedsteads and mosquito nets. Medical equipment, including an iron lung were on display. Looking at the antiques really makes you appreciate modern technology.

The fact that they had no air-conditioning was another inconvenience. The ladies wore long dresses with a pinafore or apron over them with all the can cans, plus high-top, lace-up shoes. The soldiers' suits were made of wool. How did they tolerate the heat? We decided they didn't know anything else and they were more accustomed to it.

A quilt exhibition was beautiful, as they garnished walls of the San Angelo Museum of Fine Arts. Every pattern was represented and the colors and skill spoke for itself.

These were just some of the highlights of the morning activities. Then we drove to the downtown section and browsed through several antique stores. The stores are actually old buildings which have been restored. The fronts look like something you would see in a movie, while the interior was filled with glassware and articles from the past. Miss Hattie's was the most memorable, as it was once a saloon and the lady of the evenings' rooms upstairs can still be toured by groups with reservations.

During the afternoon we walked the river walk beside Concho River and visited the booths set up in the park. There were all types of food, drink, arts and crafts, and children's games available for everyone's entertainment. Boat rides were available on the river and armadillo races were being held.

After a refreshing swim in the pool, we rested briefly and headed back to the river walk for the parade at 8 p.m. People brought their lawn chairs and quilts and sat on both sides of the road awaiting the start of the procession.

It was really beautiful with all the decorated floats. These floats looked like the ones you see on television, but they were not decorated with flowers. Crepe paper or some type of plastic was used and they were very colorful. The music provided by the

West Point Reflections

Mrs. Ruby McCowen, 89-year-old local resident, returned from West Point, New York on Saturday, June 2, after attending her grandson's graduation from the United States Military Academy. Her grandson, James C. Horton Jr., was awarded a Bachelor of Science Degree and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army on May 31. Mrs. McCowen attended his graduation parade, the graduation banquet, and the graduation exercises in addition to other activities while at West Point. She accompanied her daughter, Bonita Horton, and her granddaughter, Cathy Horton, both of Lubbock.

Mrs. McCowen attended the church services in the Cadet Chapel on Sunday morning, May 27, enjoyed a tour of the academy, and rounded out her day as Cadet Horton's guest at a Navigators banquet. The Navigators is a Christian organization that her grandson had participated in over the past four years. Mrs. McCowen was recognized at that banquet by the guest speaker as a minister and commended for the spiritual heritage that she had provided for her family.

On Monday, Memorial Day, Mrs. McCowen took a train ride along the beautiful Hudson River from Garrison, N.Y. into New York City. Doug Jenkins and Tyson Hufstetler, two high school friends of Cadet Horton, along with Tyson's parents and sister, attended graduation activities and assisted Bonita, Cathy, and James in escorting Mrs. McCowen into the city. Mrs. McCowen got to see firsthand, Grand Central Station, to which her home had often been compared by family members. In addition, she rode the subway, dined at Jackson Hole, a restaurant off of Madison Avenue which served the biggest hamburgers she'd ever seen, and enjoyed an evening stroll through Central Park.

On Wednesday, the family attended the Graduation Parade, in which her grandson James marched. During the parade, the graduating seniors, also called "firsties," were recognized and separated from the other cadets. The "firsties" then reviewed the regiments as they passed in review. Later, the first-classmen "recognized" the fourth-classmen, or "plebes," as upperclassmen. "Recognition" occurs when the upperclassmen shakes the plebe's hand and call the plebe by his first name. That night, Mrs. McCowen attended the Graduation Banquet which was held in the enormous mess hall. She received a red rose and a souvenir wine glass commemorating the event.

Graduation exercises were held on Thursday, May 31, in Michie Stadium at West Point. The keynote speaker for the ceremony was General Colin L. Powell, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. During the ceremony, James received his diploma, took an oath of office, and was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Corp of Engineers. The traditional hat toss took place after the graduation ceremony in which the 895 former cadets, now 2nd Lieutenants, tossed their hats into the air in unison. The number graduating was one of the smaller in recent years.

A bar-pinning ceremony was held by James' Company, E-1, in the

First Baptist Church Presents Special Film Production

"Cry From The Mountain," a World Wide Pictures production, is an adventure film set in the majestic wilderness of Alaska by screenwriter Daniel L. Quick. Scene after scene portrays the beauty and wildlife of this "last frontier" state.

The story centers around the Sanders family. Larry Sanders takes his 10-year-old son Cal on a camping trip where he is to break the news that he and his wife Carolyn are getting a divorce. Meanwhile Carolyn, filled with bitterness and unable to forgive her husband for an affair he has had with a woman in his office, considers the option of having an abortion. Through a life-threatening accident and an old hermit living in a deserted mining camp, the course of events is changed for the Sanders.

The principal roles in "Cry From The Mountain" are played by four outstanding performers.

City Council Minutes

This was a regular meeting of the Cross Plains City Council. Members present were Mayor Ross Gerking, Ted McKeehan, Donald Beeler, Betty Lewis, Edwin Weiss, and Leon Nixon. Also present were Gene Dillard and Delilah Goble, Billy Jacobs and Dayton Robertson.

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. The minutes of the last meeting were approved as read.

First on the agenda was Dayton Robertson. Dayton informed the council of the developments on the new city hall. He informed the council of the findings of the contamination on the city hall property and that all testing had been completed and all necessary papers had been sent to the state. Billy informed the council that hopefully when the new sewer treatment plant was built we would be able to use the contaminated dirt as fill dirt. Billy also informed the council that they were working on the sewer treatment plant and that bids would probably be let in July or August. Billy asked the council to consider getting a discharge permit from the state to have just in case we may need it if something should happen and we need to discharge into Turkey Creek during the rainy season. He also told the council that we need to sign an agreement between the city and Bobby Dillard that he is willing to use the water off of the sewer farm according to state standards. Billy will draw up this agreement as soon as possible and as simple as possible. Ted McKeehan moved to pursue the discharge permit. Donald Beeler seconded and motion carried.

Discussion was held on the water cooler at the community center. The cooler has had a leak for several months and the coils have a leak located in the cooling unit. Ted McKeehan made the motion to take the water cooler out of the community center. Betty Lewis seconded and motion carried.

Delilah Goble met with the council to discuss getting some caliche hauled on the lane past her home leading to Reba Lane's. The secretary informed her that this street was on the list of streets that were to be hauled and that in the near future this would be done.

Donald Beeler made the motion to pay the bills. Edwin Weiss seconded and motion carried.

The secretary informed the council that she had received complaints on 2 separate pieces of property on main street that needs mowing. She informed the council that she had written these property owners a letter asking that they mow the lots. No response on these matters had been received as of council time. Ted McKeehan made the motion to follow up on this matter with the certified letters. Leon Nixon seconded and motion carried.

Betty Lewis made the motion to apply for a new grant. Donald Beeler seconded and motion carried.

Ted McKeehan made the motion to pass a resolution providing for the publication and notice that the city has a fair housing ordinance.

Ted McKeehan made the motion not to release the 62 acres at the landfill. Donald Beeler seconded and motion carried with four voting aye and Edwin Weiss voting nay.

mariachi band, country and western singers, and the religious groups were great.

A float sponsored by the Disabled Vietnam Veterans was one of the crowd's favorite, as they received a standing ovation. It was as though everyone was showing these men their respect, since they have never been honored as the soldiers of other wars were.

This was only one day of a week's activities connected with Fiesta del Concho. If you have an opportunity to attend next year, it would be well worth your time.

I would like to thank my relatives, Alfred and Dorothy Anderson and their son and family, Roland, Joyce, and Sheldon, for being such gracious hosts. Everything was planned for our entertainment and we had a wonderful time. This will be a trip that my children and parents will long remember. It was nice to get better acquainted, and I know Leah and Kye will always feel close to their cousin Sheldon.

Stealing electricity is against the law!

Stealing electricity is a felony.

Some people tamper with their electric meters to avoid paying for the energy they use. Stealing electricity is a felony offense in the state of Texas and violators will be prosecuted. West Texas Utilities' Current Diversion Department is working hard to help combat the growing problem of energy theft.

Energy theft is dangerous.

Not only is service theft a crime, but it is also very dangerous. Serious injuries can result from meter tampering.

A crime against you!

When someone steals electricity, they are not only stealing from WTU — they are also stealing from you, as a rate-payer. Just as shoplifting increases the cost of items you buy in the store, power theft increases the cost of your electric service.

WTU will prosecute.

Because we are concerned about the dangers and costs resulting from meter tampering, West Texas Utilities will prosecute energy thieves.

Our AARP Chapter met on June 4 with 40 members and guests enjoying Mr. Carl Whitely and his band, The Cisco Country Express with 3-10 year-old boys, Ben Cozart, Zach Thomas, and Jason Harrell, singing and playing great music.

We had 4 new members join. They are Glen and Lois Vaughn, Mrs. Gibbs, and Mr. Sherrill. We had some of the Senior Citizens visit to hear the boys play.

Everyone enjoyed a great meal and fellowship.

We always welcome visitors and encourage new membership.

To keep the happy notes of summer from turning sour, the Taylor County Chapter of American Red Cross urges you to participate in the annual Red Cross "Learn to Swim" program.

Red Cross has offered the "Learn to Swim" program for 33 years in Taylor County. Many children who took the classes have gone on to become instructors themselves, providing a never ending cycle for the Red Cross Water Safety Program.

Registration will be at the Chapter House, 1610 N. 2nd, Abilene, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 26 and 27 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. The cost of swimming lessons will be $5. Weekly sessions of classes will run from July 9 through August 3, 8 to 9 and 9 to 10 a.m. daily.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN FOSTER
...descendants noted family reunion

Fosters Reune

Descendants of John and Idella Foster met Saturday and Sunday, June 9 and 10, at the Multi-Purpose Center.

John was the son of Wild Wood (Wiley) and Clarsie Foster. Wiley fought in the Civil War and was captured by the Yankees and placed in a stockade. It was told that he walked to keep from freezing to death. There is a gun in the Fort Stockton Museum with the initials W.W.F. and it is believed to belong to Wiley. Tales of his trip back to the south included him walking and riding a river raft returning to his home.

He lived to be 101 years old and was the father of five sons. John Foster was the youngest of the children.

John pastored the Lebanon Baptist Church in Atwell for 39 years. John and Idella had 5 girls and 7 boys, 2 boys died as infants. Three of their children are still living, including Viola Hutchins, Bernice Foster, and Lavern Scott. Eight of the 10 children celebrated their 50th wedding anniversaries.

About 200 people gathered for this occasion from all parts of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona.

Saturday afternoon some played bingo and dominoes while some of the grandsons took two trailer-loads on a hayride around Atwell to see the Lebanon Baptist Church, which still stands. The old Foster homeplace and a restored log cabin where some of the Fosters were born were also viewed.

Following hot dogs, the Hutchins children sang some gospel songs and some sang quartets, with a granddaughter playing the piano. The congregation sang "Amazing Grace." A great-grandson and two great-great-grandsons played country and western music. Grandsons cooked clods Saturday evening for the Sunday meal.

Sunday morning everyone met bright and early for coffee and donuts. Before the Sunday meal the pledge of allegiance to the flag was recited. All held hands for the blessing. Sunday evening a "White Elephant Auction" was held. Grandsons served as the auctioneers. Elvin Hutchins won the drawing for a family king size quilt made by a granddaughter, Bobbie Purvis.

SWIMMER'S EAR

When water is trapped in the ear, how can you avoid the common summer ailment called "swimmer's ear"? Carefully squeeze a medicine dropperful of rubbing alcohol into the ear canal to dry out the ear and kill bacteria and fungus. Some physicians recommend adding an equal portion of white vinegar to the alcohol ear-drops.

Don't Top Trees!

WRONG: A topped tree is an ugly remnant of a once-lovely tree. Weakly attached, unsafe sprouts quickly grow from the mutilated stubs. In a few years, the topped tree can be taller — and far more dangerous — than it was to begin with.

RIGHT: This is how a typical shade tree should look when properly pruned.

PERSONALS

Over the past weekend Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watson and Aunt Pearl enjoyed a wonderful and profitable visit from Billy and Carol Ann Watson and sons, Kelly and Alan from Richmond.

Granddad arrived home from Humana Friday morning after a fourteen-day stay for emergency surgery. Grandmama Watson was relieved of many nursing duties while they were here, as Kelly slept by his granddad's bed to amend to any needs Roger may have had, letting Ernestine sleep the entire night.

Alan, who had spent the week on campus of Lubbock Christian University with a select Church of Christ group of youths from the Houston area, stopped here to visit as the group returned to Houston. All the youths came in for a visit and "refreshing" before continuing their hot trip home.

Much lawn care was done for the Watsons while Billy and Kelly were here, to say nothing of all the work Carol Ann did for her mother-in-law!

Mrs. Syble Worthy of San Angelo, a longtime former resident, and her daughter, Mrs. Mac Coppinger Miles, visited last Thursday in the home of her sister, Mrs. Zelda Long.

Other relatives and friends stopped by to visit with Syble and Emma Dee while they were here.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Walker, Blanche Moore, and Leo Thompson of Cross Plains visited with Mrs. Suma Dill. Mr. Thompson took her to the 100th Birthday Celebration for the First Baptist Church. She was recognized as the eldest member at age 90.

Howard Shanks of Big Spring and Claude Mae Gardner of Rising Star also stopped by.

Mrs. Skip (Paula) Nichols and daughters, Michelle and Jennifer of Walla Walla, Washington were visiting relatives and friends of Texas last week.

The trio talked with Vera Pearl Bunnell and met several classmates of Skip's. They stopped by the Cross Plains Review and visited with Vanda King briefly.

Their oldest daughter, Michelle, just graduated from high school and is planning to enter college, and Jennifer is twelve years old. Skip was unable to come with his family this trip, but Paula said he was planning to attend the next Homecoming.

The National Arbor Day Foundation urges an end to tree topping in towns, cities and rural areas throughout America.

The Foundation has prepared a Bulletin called "Don't Top Trees!" which explains the reasons not to top trees and the proper pruning principles which should be followed as alternatives to topping. The Bulletin is available free of charge.

The Arbor Day Foundation is a non-profit education organization dedicated to tree planting and conservation. The Foundation has more than 900,000 members and supporters.

The Foundation sponsors the Tree City USA community forestry programs and wants to improve the quality of tree care in towns and cities throughout the nation.

"We need to end the senseless brutalizing of trees by topping," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "Nationally, all too few individuals and communities are properly caring for trees. It makes no sense to use the money that is being spent on a practice that is as detrimental as topping."

In its "Don't Top Trees!" Bulletin, the Foundation graphically describes the adverse consequences of irresponsible topping versus the positive results that come from competent pruning.

The Bulletin describes how correct pruning techniques can be utilized to reduce the height of a large tree without topping. It also shows how utility companies can carry out line clearance pruning in a way that avoids topping and maintains the natural form of the tree at decreased costs.

The Bulletin also describes how to properly remove tree branches to maintain trees' health, appearance and safety.

"Sometimes pseudo experts use different terms for the malpractice of topping. These include stubbing, heading, heading-back, stubbing-off, hatracking, topping-off, dehorning, and lopping," Rosenow said. "No matter what you call it, tree topping is mutilation. It should be stopped."

Rowden News

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

These hot days continue on in June with rain out of the forecast. Most farmers are finishing the combine season. They have had excellent weather for that chore.

Bill Steele who turned 15 this month has been driving the combine for his dad this year. They have been busy the past two weeks.

This writer was in the Steele home Saturday morning and helped with a little weed pulling and hoeing before it got hot outside. We wondered how many careless weed seeds came up in their garden. They had the bean vines almost covered up.

Leigh Harrell started tennis lessons in Abilene this week. She and her mother, Maryana, were in Austin last weekend visiting her sister, Melissa Andrews and family.

Anna Dendy of Mason spent the week with Bob and Kathy Dye. Also, Bryan and Julie Patterson and son, Justin of Copperas Cove, were there for the weekend. Edna Dye enjoyed supper with them Friday night.

Connie Steele attended the Woodman of the World Children's Camp at Lake Brownwood this week and reported a good time.

Visitors of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin during the week were Bill and Marie Young of Abilene. Marie is the daughter of the late Ernest and Girdle Hill, former residents of the community. She has a brother and two sisters.

Anderson of Rising Star also called, wishing Lizzie a happy birthday. Leona Gary was also listed as a visitor in the Burks and Johnson home, and brought some of her lemon cake. Another birthday caller was Chester Novak of Rising Star. Emma reported that her son, W.R. was on his way to a new job in Missouri. Mr. Golson of Cross Plains delivered propane and came in to visit.

Joyce Odom, Dorothy Reynolds, and this writer attended the 100th Anniversary program and supper at the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains, starting Saturday night and continuing through Sunday. It was a very uplifting service with former pastors, song leaders, and a room of pictures of happenings over the 100 year span.

Rowden Baptist Church united with this church in 1962. The building also was given to First Baptist Church in Cross Plains. It is now property of the Cross Plains Garden Club. The program included songs which were beautiful. The church building has been redone for this special occasion.

This will be a time to remember and cherish for years to come for every member.
