SOME TURNIP

What the Review had to say in its last issue but one in regard to this country's immense turnip crop would not have told the entire story by any means if all of the size of one brought to this office by A. G. Pierce of north of town. Not seeing Mr. Pierce at the time he delivered the said edible, we are not prepared to say whether it is typical of his entire crop, or below or above an average. If he has a very large acreage in turnips he will be immune from the high cost of eatables. One would almost swear this one would weigh a half dozen pounds, but really it tipped the scales at three pounds.

RAIN, SNOW, SLEET, ETC.

On Sunday night snow began falling here and has continued intermittently up to this writing, in all about five inches having fallen. And what time snow has not been making its gentle descent from the heavens, sleet or rain has been falling. The drought has been so abundantly broken that the most of us have about forgotten that it could be dry here. Peanut farmers are hard hit on account of so much damp weather, but the prairie land, of which there is more than other kinds in our territory, promises unusual yields for another year. Grain winter pasturage now is so plentiful that there may not be enough stock in the country to keep it sufficiently grazed.

NEW WELL REVIVES FAITH IN COLEMAN

Coleman, Texas.

Morris well No. 5 of the Mexia Petroleum Company, David Breeding survey, Coleman County, ten miles north of Coleman, struck the sand on Friday at 3,430 feet. The well is making about 3,000,000 cubic feet of gas and flowed ninety barrel of oil during the thirteen-hour test. The well has not been completed and oil men believe it will prove the best producer so far in Coleman County.

The bringing in of this well throws a brighter light on Coleman and the southwestern extension to the Ranger pool, according to oil men. This peculiar territory had not been looking very promising to some of the companies and the Morris well will serve to strengthen their faith in the counties to the west and southwest of the Ranger territory.

Paul V. Harrell left Monday night for Camp Zachary Taylor, at Louisville, Kentucky, where he will enter the officers training school for artillery service. Mr. Harrell is to be commended for his patriotism. He organized here, by diligent effort and use of his own funds, a company of volunteer calvarymen for the Texas National guard. He failed of an officership in the company because of a ruling by the military department requiring that cavalry officers shall have special training for the service. Nothing daunted by his experience with the National Guard, Mr. Harrell volunteered for the artillery service in the regular army and will train for a lieutenancy. Whether the war or circumstances permit his army service being short or long, his home friends predict for him entire success, as in him the army is obtaining a man not only deeply imbued with patriotic spirit, but a man intelligently capable in every respect.—Brownwood News.

TOM PEEVY DIES IN SCOTLAND

Dear Mr. Peevy:
I trust it may bring a ray of comfort to you in your sorrow, that that everything possible was done for Private W. A. J. Peevy. The funeral services were complete in every detail, flowers kind thoughts surrounded it. Moore played the Hymn "lover of my soul". The lesson was from Psalms 23. An American Clergyman was in attendance the pall-bearers were good friends invited from Aviation here.

I assure you kind friends surrounded the burial.

With sympathy,
Yours sincerely,
Lily McC...
Central Hotel, G...
8th October, 1918.

My Dear Mr. Peevy,
Doubtless you have received official intimation of death of private W. A. J. Peevy but the American Red Cross wants to express to you personally through the Undersigned, its deepest sympathy.

Private W. Peevy arrived England suffering from pneumonia and was hurried to one of the hospitals, where he received attention and assistance that no ing service & science could give. He was unconscious, so that we could not obtain the name of his next-of-kin so I am having this added at top of this letter from the register in London. His end was without pain, but being unconscious he was unable to send any message here. We of the American Red Cross were in constant attendance so that he lacked no personal attention that we could give.

A military funeral was held, the coffin was draped with the flag that he came overseas so bravely to serve. He was buried in Craigton Cemetery, Glasgow, and beautiful wreath of Chrysanthemums was made by the American ladies of Glasgow placed on the coffin. Later on, we shall have a photograph taken of the grave and send it to you. You will always be cared for by the American military authorities.

It is with heartfelt sympathy and reverence to yet another Hero of the cause of Liberty that I address myself to you.

Sincerely yours,
H. I. B. Rice,
Captain, American Red Cross.

Booster your community.

This community should be cleaned up and kept in that much desired condition. There is no more reason for letting the town be dirty than there is for one to be dirty personally, only it is a bigger job to negotiate. The chamber of commerce means to address itself to the task of cleaning the town as one of its first duties. As a matter of civic attractiveness alone, it will be worth many times the work and the cost. Also it will be worth much in added security from disease attacks. It has been established that good sanitary conditions have materially helped hold the influenza epidemic in check in many places. Beyond a doubt they will and do safeguard to a marked degree a community against a siege of typhoid. So on ad finitum as to other diseases.

How much has the world to be thankful for at this time? Some alas! are mourning for sons who have sacrificed all for humanity, but they are comforted by reason of the realized cause for which the sacrifice was made. The many-headed monster of Germany, has been conquered, and we hope extinguished, and now a person can travel the highways of the sea without fear of dastardly attack by undersea assassins; no longer need the good girls and women of France and Belgium dread the approach of the lecherous Hun. The world has been drawn together in much closer ties thru sacrificing for a common cause. Christianity has proven its worth by blessing countless millions, which is according to prophecy, and the Holy Land is sure to be repatriated by the Jews, also a fulfillment of prophecy. Surely the world is a better place to live in than it was, tho the cost was much travail.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Do That Cheering When You Have Bought W. S. S.

The boys have kept their pledge. They have won the war.

Have you kept your War Savings Stamp Pledge? Have you won the right to call yourself an American and meet these boys when they come home?

Don't spend your time in cheering. Build up the number of War Savings Stamps you have.

Don't wear the flag, or just wave it. Serve it by paying off that War Savings Stamp Pledge of yours.

Don't take out your gratitude for victory in talking. Show it by hitting the line hard with your dollars and making it possible for the Government to pay the $50,000,000 it will cost every day for months to come to take care of these soldier boys and sailor laddies.

If you are an American of the right sort, now is the time to prove it by the right sort of Americanism. Help your Government take care of its fighters by lending your money in War Savings Stamps.

MUST CONTINUE TO BUY W. S. S. TO TAKE CARE OF FIGHTERS

If the public has an idea that the coming of peace has eliminated expenses of the Government and that there no longer exists the necessity to save and economize and lend money to the Government by investing in War Savings Stamps, then the public is mistaken. It is pointed out by the Government in an official statement.

Whether or not another gun is fired, the Government will be at an expense of about $50,000,000 every day, or $1,500,000,000 every month, to take care of its 3,764,000 men in France, Russia, Italy and in training camps. This expense will last for many months.

It will take a year at the least to demobilize the army. Secretary of War Baker points out, and United States soldiers and sailors will probably remain for months on necessary police duty in Europe.

The following figures are given by the Government to show just a tiny part of the expense it must bear in just taking care of American soldiers:

The cost of bread alone for the army for one month amounts to $5,646,000.

Subsistence for the army for just five days costs $7,528,000.

Riceon alone for one month amounts to $8,410,000.

Clothing, including blankets, added $712,540,910 to the list. This does not include the cost of shoes, which comes to $127,140,250.

These are just a few of the items, all of them absolutely necessary for the soldiers, which have to come out of that $50,000,000 a day.

The Government must have the money to take care of these men. They gave up everything to go to France to fight and risk their lives to gain peace. They have won peace. Are the people of Texas going to let these soldiers go hungry, cold and without clothing now?

That War Savings Stamp Pledge is a binding obligation. Every unpaid War Savings Pledge, bearing the signed agreement of the pledger, is held for collection by a designated agent of the United States Treasury Department.

All necessary steps to bring about the liquidation of these pledges will be taken, but in addition to paying out that it requires the assistance of all to meet the heavy expenses that are upon it and everyone is urged to buy War Savings Stamps regularly and as often as possible, and in addition to those already pledged.

War Savings Stamps now mean food and clothing for United States soldiers. They must have these things.

Stop! Look! Loosen! Buy those U. S. Government War Savings Stamps you pledged yourself to get.

PEACE DOES NOT STOP EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT

ALL MUST CONTINUE TO BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS AS WELL AS PAY W. S. S. PLEDGES ALREADY MADE.

The Government has made public the following facts which will be of timely interest to persons who are pledged to the Treasury Department to invest in War Savings Stamps:

1. The signing of the armistice and resultant peace does not mean that the Government's war expenses have stopped. Every day for months to come, the Government will have to spend an average of $50,000,000 a day, or $1,500,000,000 a month, to take care of its soldiers and sailors and meet other expenses entailed by the war. It will probably be necessary to take care of soldiers and sailors for another year at least, as a year is the least time in which demobilization can be made.

2. Every person must be provident of expenditure and as economical as he was during the period of actual war, because every one must, still continue to lend all the money he can to the Government.

3. Every person must be provident must be met punctually and before maturity, if possible. All War Savings Stamp Pledges are binding personal obligations and the payment of every one is expected by the Government, which will take all necessary steps toward collection.

4. So great will expenses be for the next year that the Government points out the necessity and duty of every person investing in more War Savings Stamps than he pledged.

5. All reports that the ending of the war has done away with the necessity of lending all available savings to the Government are false. All must continue to lend the Government money, and the cashing of War Savings Stamps already bought, save in cases of dire necessity, will be considered as withdrawal of faith and lack of support of the Government.

AMMUNITION BILL IS CUT BY PEACE, OTHER EXPENSES GOING ON

So far as costs incident to the war are concerned, the only expense that peace will save the Government is that of ammunition. All other costs, the feeding and taking care of soldiers and sailors, the completion of army and navy contracts already let, will continue to go on for months and the Government looks to every loyal American to help pay these necessary expenses by saving his money and investing regularly in War Savings Stamps.

The expense that peace has cut out of that of ammunition—powder and lead, is small compared to the other costs. The United States Government will have to spend in the neighborhood of $50,000,000 every twenty-four hours in taking care of its fighters and meeting the expenses of the war.

The Government calls upon everyone to continue steadfastly in the practice of personal economy and to purchase War Savings Stamps to the limit of his ability that these expenses and costs may be met.

"American soldiers and sailors have kept their pledge," it is pointed out. "Every civilian must keep his pledge to invest in War Savings Stamps. Such pledges are binding personal obligations and all necessary steps to assure their liquidation will be taken."

EXPRESS YOUR THANKS IN W. S. S.

Peace has come. The war is over. You say you are thankful. How, then, are you going to show your thankfulness and appreciation?

Are you content to express your gratification in a few shouts, a lot of patriotic talking? If you are really thankful, if you appreciate victory, if you are really worth the big fight that the boys from home have put up for you, then show it like an American should.

Go down to the postoffice or the bank and buy those War Savings Stamps you pledged. The boys have kept their pledge. Be sure you don't delay in keeping yours.

Express your appreciation in War Savings Stamps.

The Government has to spend about $5,000,000 daily to take care of those fighting boys of ours and if you appreciate victory and the work those fighters have done you will have to show it by lending to your Government which is now calling upon you. Get those War Savings Stamps.

PEACE DOES NOT STOP EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT

ALL MUST CONTINUE TO BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS AS WELL AS PAY W.S.S. PLEDGES ALREADY MADE.

The Government has made public the following facts which will be of timely interest to persons who are pledged to the Treasury Department to invest in War Savings Stamps:

1. The signing of the armistice and resultant peace does not mean that the Government's war expenses have stopped. Every day for months to come, the Government will have to spend an average of $50,000,000 a day, or $1,500,000,000 a month, to take care of its soldiers and sailors and meet other expenses entailed by the war. It will probably be necessary to take care of soldiers and sailors for another year at least, as a year is the least time in which demobilization can be made.

2. Every person must be provident of expenditure and as economical as he was during the period of actual war, because every one must still continue to lend all the money he can to the Government.

3. Every person must be provident must be met punctually and before maturity, if possible. All War Savings Stamp Pledges are binding personal obligations and the payment of every one is expected by the Government, which will take all necessary steps toward collection.

4. So great will expenses be for the next year that the Government points out the necessity and duty of every person investing in more War Savings Stamps than he pledged.

5. All reports that the ending of the war has done away with the necessity of sending all available savings to the Government are false. All must continue to lend the Government money, and the cashing of War Savings Stamps already bought, save in cases of dire necessity, will be considered as withdrawal of faith and lack of support of the Government.

AMMUNITION BILL IS CUT BY PEACE, OTHER EXPENSES GOING ON

So far as costs incident to the war are concerned, the only expense that peace will save the Government is that of ammunition. All other costs, the feeding and taking care of soldiers and sailors, the completion of army and navy contracts already let, will continue to go on for months and the Government looks to every loyal American to help pay these necessary expenses by saving his money and investing regularly in War Savings Stamps.

The expense that peace has cut out of that of ammunition—powder and lead, is small compared to the other costs. The United States Government will have to spend in the neighborhood of $50,000,000 every twenty-four hours in taking care of its fighters and meeting the expenses of the war.

The Government calls upon everyone to continue steadfastly in the practice of personal economy and to purchase War Savings Stamps to the limit of his ability that these expenses and costs may be met.

"American soldiers and sailors have kept their pledge," it is pointed out. "Every civilian must keep his pledge to invest in War Savings Stamps. Such pledges are binding personal obligations and all necessary steps to assure their liquidation will be taken."

EXPRESS YOUR THANKS IN W.S.S.

Peace has come. The war is over. You say you are thankful. How, then, are you going to show your thankfulness and appreciation?

Are you content to express your gratification in a few shouts, a lot of patriotic talking?

If you are really thankful, if you appreciate victory, if you are really worth the big fight that the boys from home have put up for you, then show it like an American should.

Go down to the postoffice or the bank and buy those War Savings Stamps you pledged. The boys have kept their pledge. Be sure you don't delay in keeping yours.

Express your appreciation in War Savings Stamps.

The Government has to spend about $5,000,000 daily to take care of those fighting boys of ours and if you appreciate victory and the work those fighters have done you will have to show it by lending to your Government which is now calling upon you. Get those War Savings Stamps.

WILLIAM P. ERWIN HONORED BY PERSHING

General Pershing has marked William P. Erwin, American Ace, for special honors on account of heroism in the Air Service. Mr. Erwin, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Erwin, formerly living in the Sabanno country, is well known in Cross Plains. His is the greatest record yet made in the Air Service by any boy from this section of the country. The following is taken from the Department War Bulletin.

First Lieut. William P. Erwin, Air Service, 1st Squadron, For extraordinary heroism in action in Chateau Thierry and St Mihiel salients, France. Lieut. Erwin with second Lieut. Byrge E. Baucon, observer, by a long period of faithful and heroic operation set an inspiring example of courage and devotion to duty to his squadron. Throughout Chateau Thierry action in June and July, 1918, he flew under the all weather conditions and successfully carried out his mission in the face of heavy odds. In the St. Mihiel sector, September 12-15, 1918, he repeated his previous courageous work. He flew as low as 50 feet from the ground behind the enemy's line harassing German troops with machine gun fire and subjecting himself to attack from ground batteries, machine guns and rifles. He twice drove off enemy planes which were attempting to destroy an American observation balloon. On September 12-13 he flew at extremely low altitude and carried out infantry contact patrol successfully. Again on September 12 he attacked a German battery forced the crew to abandon it, shot off his horse a German officer who was trying to escape, drove the cannoners to their dugouts, kept them there until the Infantry could come up capture them.

W.S.S. FUND FOR EVERY FIGHTER

Every soldier, sailor and marine who returns home from the service should find a "fighting fund" waiting for him. Every home should commence building up this fund now by investing in United States War Savings Stamps and laying them aside to be given to the fighter upon his return.

If relatives and friends of the men who have achieved victory want to show their appreciation they will now commence putting aside War Savings Stamps to be presented to them on their return.

By doing this, it is pointed out by the Government, not only will there be a number of first-class Treasury securities paying good interest, to assist every fighter when he returns to civilian life, but the money invested in these War Savings Stamps will enable the Government to feed and clothe the soldier, sailor or marine until he is discharged. To properly care for its men until demobilization is made, the Government must spend in the neighborhood of $50,000,000 every day and, it is further pointed out, it will be approximately a year before the army can be demobilized and the fighters returned home.

Start that fund for that fighter now by investing in War Savings Stamps for him.

Show him that you appreciate what he has done.

GOVERNMENT IS CALLING FOR W.S.S. PLEDGE PAYMENTS

The official call for the payment of War Savings Stamp Pledges due on or before November 30 has been issued by the Government. All persons who have pledged themselves to buy War Savings Stamps are advised that the November portion of their pledge is payable at once, and that the Government desires the December portion paid now if possible. Wherever possible a reminder card calling attention to this fact will be sent to pledged persons at the direction of the Government, but the non-receipt of a reminder card does not indicate that the pledge is not due and that the Government is not expecting prompt payment.

The signing of the armistice does not affect the validity of War Savings Stamp Pledges. These pledges, it is pointed out, are binding obligations made by the individual, they bear his name and are held for payment by authorized agents of the United States Treasury Department.

Nor does peace relieve the Government of its expenses or all loyal Americans of the duty of being economical and investing as heavily as possible in War Savings Stamps in addition to the amount already pledged and recorded by the Government. For the next year the Government's expenses will average approximately $50,000,000 every twenty-four hours. This represents taking care of United States soldiers in Europe and camp and meeting obligations incurred during the period of hostilities. Every person will be required by patriotic duty and the needs of the time to observe the same rules of personal economy and saving that were practiced during the period of actual fighting.

EXPRESS THANKS IN W.S.S. THANKSGIVING

If every person in Texas shows his appreciation of victory and the way the American soldiers have kept their fighting pledge by investing in War Savings Stamp Thanksgiving Day, the Government will be lent $22,500,000, or nearly half the amount the Government is required to spend every day to take care of the boys in France and meet current expenses.

The investment in a Thrift Stamp Thanksgiving Day by every person in the State will pay the Government's expenses for a little over four hours.

How are you going to express your appreciation of peace on Thanksgiving? The purchase of a War Savings Stamp is the best way.

The coming of peace does not relieve one from meeting his War Savings Stamp Pledge. All necessary steps to assure their payment will be taken.

BATTLEFIELDS OF EUROPE COMING FOR TEXANS VIEW

All Texas cannot go to France and walk over the battlefields, all plans have been laid for a battlefield to Texas, at Franco, November 2 to 17, and set down the door of Texas for two weeks that everyone may visit it.

Through the Committee on Public Information, the Texas Cotton Pledge Association and the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Canada and the United States have joined forces to present this grand display. Already nine caravans of these will be fourteen in all of captured war material and implements of war used by us and our Allies have arrived in Waco.

The 1918 Cotton Palace has been turned over to the exhibit. A part of the vast grounds will be changed into a battlefield with the horror of war left out.

There from November 2 to 17, inclusive, one may walk through a replica of front line trenches, through dugouts where the men live, where they are not actually fighting, through first-aid stations where the wounded are taken when hit, through the desolate No Man's Land among twisted barbed wire entanglements, shattered cannon, broken rifles, abandoned trench mortars, bomb throwers and wrecks of airplanes and all the debris of ground over which men fought fiercely and died bravely.

NO CITY IN SOUTH WILL SEE SUCH A PORTRAYAL

It will be an exhibition such as no city south of the Mason-Dixon line has seen or ever will see, as Waco is one of but three cities in the United States in which this exhibition is to be shown.

It is hoped that some of the very cannon which Waco's own 32nd division took from the Kaiser's crack guards in the great Marne drive will be here. Some of the relics already arrived have those historic words "Marne River" chafed upon them.

Do you want to know just how our boys live over there? Just what the trenches, the dugouts and shell holes are like? Just what kind of weapons they use and what kind the enemy uses against them. It will all be shown. The trenches will be laid out by a returned officer who laid them out at the front, and they will be exact copies of the ones over which a fierce battle was waged. No Man's land will be built with the same accuracy and faithfulness to detail.

And then the American exhibit! The showing by America alone includes 425 pieces—not to mention the long-for trophies from the field of the Marne. There are big eight-inch howitzers taken from the Germans by our boys in khaki; little trench howitzers; "whizz bangs," as the Americans call the German 77-millimeter guns.

These are imitations of the world-famous French 75's, but are slightly larger and not nearly as effective. There is a big 170-millimeter field gun captured from Fritz by the American marines. There is a German machinegunner or grenade thrower, machine guns, anti-aircraft guns and an immense list of captured weapons.

The British exhibit is made up of more than 750 articles, from 175 guns to petty little articles, such as fret saws, rubber bands, a package of wire, and tallow candles which the Germans tried to sneak through the mails.

One interesting piece is the naval gun captured on the raider Huden. There is also a piece of gliding from the gallant British warship Lcp, which made such a famous fight.

TANK WILL BE AMONG RELICS FROM EUROPE

Not the least interesting are the rare and valuable British war medals and decorations, to win one of which many a Briton has gladly laid down his life.

There will be a tank which has sent terror to the souls and built its into the bodies of the Boches who she trundled across the flats of Belgium, crawling through trenches and smashing down wire entanglements.

The Canadians show cannon taken at the famous Vimy Ridge, pieces of a German Zeppelin, some of the shells which the Boches fired at the cathedral at Rheims and a lot of 600 articles in all.

The French and Italian exhibits and the Belgian part of the show are made up of trophies taken from scores of battlefields, from big cannon and submarine torpedoes for 20 bullets and penknives.

But why the showing of all these war trophies—5,000 of them in all? Because the American people need to realize that there is war ahead if us are only half awake to the fact. We read every day in the newspapers that battles have been fought and won; that ships have braved treacherous submarines and have landed tens of thousands of our boys in France; that such and such sums have been spent for war materials; that so many more men

I am afraid you will have to content yourself with only a letter and very little news from this locality for this week. Most everyone has been staying at home and I have been away.

There has been some sickness around for the past three weeks, "flu"

Miss Edna Golson has been very sick; but is now recovering fast. Mrs. Hester, a trained nurse from Brownwood, has been with her the last few days, so we feel real hopeful of her regaining her health.

Mr. Rich and family have also had a siege of the flu, are up again and I must not fail to mention that Mr. A. Hanke's family have all suffered from this new malady but are now past the danger point so dreaded by patients with this disease.

Grain crops are looking well now especially that planted earlier in the fall, and close observation will show that it has put the stock all on the mend. The old cows are expressing their gratefulness by giving rich pails of milk and large bowls of butter. I don't think it will be amiss to mention the old hen who cackles each day over the fresh laid egg. So you see these grain crops are valuable to the farmer in many different ways.

School has been suspended a couple of weeks on account of sickness but we are of the opinion that it will open up again on Monday morning. The building has been equipped with new maps, globes, charts and blackboards, etc. and a library and a few other fixtures will be added within a few weeks. You may look for a more newsy letter next time.

Phone Review about Telegram

NO BARGAIN TELEGRAM DAYS

The Star Telegram has announced that it will not have its regular Bargain Days this year on account of a ruling by the Government forbidding it. The price for a year daily and Sunday for a time will be $7.50; daily without Sunday will be $5.50. Add to either $1.00 for the Review. That is $8.50 for Telegram and Review one year with Sunday papers; $6.50 for Telegram and no Sunday papers and the Review Telegram by the month 75c.

FROM COUNTY AGENT

To the people of Callahan County: It is and has always been my aim to give you the most efficient service possible, if you contemplate building a new home, working over your barn shed or any outhouses, or fencing a hog pasture, bringing in better stock of any kind, establishing a dairy, planting a new orchard, or working over an old one, or terracing that washed up field of gullies and stop those washes. Be sure and call on me if you have to buy feed of any kind and I can tell you how to get at less than it costs your merchants. I shall be glad to come to any community and explain the problem and help you over your difficulties.

Yours truly,
I. B. Cupp,
County Agent, Baird, Texas.

W. A. McGowen heard indirectly Monday that Murman was safe on the front in France on the 23rd of October. He likely has heard directly from him by this time. He and his family have been quite uneasy about Murman, as they had not heard from him at all since the 36th Division had got into the thick of the fight. Many other parents have been very uneasy as to the safety of their boys.
