CITY AND SCHOOL ELECTIONS BOTH TO COME OFF SOON

The city election, set for April 1 will likely be a spirited one, as interest is becoming lively. A mayor and four aldermen are to be elected. Who are you going to vote for? The school election will be held Saturday April 5th, and four trustees are to be elected. Unusual interest will very likely develop in this election also, judging from street conversation.

It is hoped that every qualified voter will be sufficiently interested in the development and progress of both city and school affairs to express themselves at the ballot box on election days. Keep these elections in mind—and vote!

D. N. Robinson of Nimrod was buying implements here Saturday.

CROSS PLAINS SECTION GETS GROUND SOAKER

This part of the state has gone wet. The second rain for the week fell Tuesday night and Wednesday—a ground soaker. It appears that we have all the rain we need for the present, but West Texas people are slow to complain of too much rain—in fact they seldom have the opportunity. But there would be no objections made now if it should let up for a season—as farmers are anxious to plant corn and etc.

A large number of our people attended court at Baird this week as there were several cases to come up for trial in which a number of our citizens were interested in. Some went as witnesses some as jurymen and others as spectators.

C. OF C. MONTHLY BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT

The next regular monthly Chamber of Commerce banquet will be given Tuesday night at the usual place. A program of special interest is being outlined for the occasion. Interest increases each month and the attendance this month is expected to break all records. There will be something new—a change of program each month. If you are not there, you will miss something worth while. The band will be there and will be very attractively dressed in their new uniforms. They will render a special musical program which will be worth the price of admittance.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will prepare and serve the eats this time, and they have a habit of making a success of whatever they undertake, so we are assured of a splendid spread. The usual charge of 50 cents per plate will be made.

NEW METHODIST CHURCH WILL SOON BE UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Plans have been perfected for the new Methodist church, building which will be a magnificent structure, a credit to the church, the town and community. It will be a modern brick structure to be erected at an estimated cost of about $20,000. The property just east of the Review office has been purchased as building site for the new edifice. The residence now on the lot will be moved back to the south-making room for the church. The residence will be used as parsonage.

Bids are now being received for the basement, we are informed, and contract will be let soon and dirt will be broke for the finest church structure in this section. It is understood that a separate contract will be let for building from basement up. Before work on the new church begins however, the residence now on the lot will necessarily have to be moved, but that will be done in the very near future, and the work will proceed, we are informed.

Parent-Teachers Association

The Parent-Teachers Association will render the following program March 21.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our most heartfelt thanks to our many dear friends and neighbors, who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and death of our dear husband and father. And wish also to express our thanks for the many beautiful floral offerings.

May God's richest blessings ever be yours.

Mrs. T. J. Clark and Children

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pierce who live north of town were trading here Saturday. While here they paid the Review office a pleasant call and renewed subscription. Mr. Pierce is a prosperous farmer, and reads his home paper each week.

The executives of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church of Cross Plains, met in their regular business meeting, Friday evening, March 7, at seven o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Claud Starr. After attending to their business, they were entertained with interesting games and music. Everyone reported a nice time.

OIL OPERATIONS CONTINUE REGARDLESS INCLEMENT WEATHER

Oil operators are making progress, however the unfavorable weather hinders new activities partly in check.

The Pennant Oil & Gas Co are reported drilling at around 2,000 feet on their west Bryson No 2, east of town in Cross Plains-Pioneer field.

Schuttner Bros. are drilling at 1600 feet on their James No 2, also east of town, and C. O. Moore is moving in on his Acker No 5, and will start drilling soon.

In the Cross Cut section J. M. McMurry has completed rig on his J. W. Newton tract and will start drilling at once. Simms Oil Co have moved to a machine and will start drilling immediately on their Gaines tract. On account of bad weather work on the Gilman, Mahstedt & Mook well has been delayed. Crabb & McNeel and Tom Bryant are drilling at 750 feet on their McDonough No 2.

Wednesday night G. O. Moore was drilling at top of sand on his Faulkner No 2, in Cross Plains-Pioneer field.

Joe Shackelford has just completed rig at Byrds Store for George Lamb, the Review is informed.

The Eastern Star Chapter has purchased a piano for the order. It is now here and is being installed. The Masonic Lodge assisted in purchasing the instrument.

The Exception

A preacher, at the close of his sermon, said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now let every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, a care worn hungry looking individual, clothed in last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only one not able to meet his obligations?"

"I run a paper," he answered meekly, and the brethren here who stood up are my subscribers and advertisers."

"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.—Dumb Animals.

J. D. Barclay

J. D. Barclay, age 67 died at his home in the Burst Branch community Tuesday, and will be buried today (Thursday.) The body was prepared for burial by Ralph Odom undertaker for Higginbotham. Deceased was a Mason and the Cross Plains lodge will have charge of the services and bury him with all honors due a brother mason.

He leaves a wife, two sons and four daughters to mourn his loss, who have the deep sympathy of many sorrowing friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Dennis are the proud parents of a fine girl who arrived in their home Sunday. Ollie has already assumed that stern parental expression and steps about like a millionaire. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

The Dressy young folks took their school play to Cottonwood Saturday night and were given a warm reception by the Cottonwood people, they state. The play was staged before a packed house, and was enjoyed by all.

W. E. Butler went to Fort Worth Monday to attend grand lodge of I. O. O. F.

BAND SIGNS FOR LYCEUM COURSE, STARTS IN SEPT.

The White & Myers Lyceum Co. of Kansas City will put on a Lyceum Course here under the auspices of the Band, the first number to be given in September. There will be six numbers in the course, consisting of the latest and highest class entertainment, with performers of renown, and noted for their success in Lyceum work. These attractions will be highly appreciated by those those who enjoy this kind of entertainment.

Higginbotham's hardware department report sale of 17 implements Saturday. Other firms have not reported, but if they sold an equal number, at least 50 implements were sold here that day.

BIG CROWDS HERE ON SATURDAY AND MONDAY

Each of the neighboring towns and communities were all represented here Saturday and Monday. Big crowds were here each day, but Saturday was the best day. There were more people here last Saturday than on previous Saturdays since the holidays, and business was exceptionally good. Business was extra good Monday. Several customers came 20 and 30 miles to buy here last week.

Mrs. A. C. Dodson went to Mineral Wells Monday to see her husband who is under treatment there. She was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Frank Stone and Mrs. J. A. McGowan.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Read How Mrs. Walsh Was Helped by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mannington, West Virginia.—"I took the Vegetable Compound when having the turn of life. I had been sick for seven years. I would get a little better, then I broke down again. It would be hard for me to describe how I was, for I was a perfect wreck. I suffered with a pain in my left side, then I would have numb spells and I would think I couldn't live. I would have hot flashes, then would come weak spells. I was so weak I would think I couldn't ever get a meal ready. My work was a burden to me. I was not able to do my housework half of the time. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has given me strength and health. The hot flashes left me and I got better of the numb spells. That summer I could do my housework and worked in the garden a good bit. I tell all sick women what your wonderful medicine did for me, and will always recommend it. I was born in Marion County and still live in it. I am known to all my neighbors, and you can publish this statement because it is true."—Mrs. JOHN W. WALSH, R. Lesson for March 23 THE REIGN OF SOLOMON

LESSON TEXT—11 Chron. 1:7-12; 1 Kings 11:5-11. GOLDEN TEXT—The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge—Prov. 1:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Young King's Dream. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Solomon's Wisdom and Folly. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons From Solomon's Reign.

Here again we must go outside of the particular text assigned and make a survey of Solomon's reign.

I. Solomon Anointed King (1 Kings 1:3-6)

David had heretofore failed to show the people who should be king after him (v. 20). Through the combined appeals of Bathsheba and Nathan, he is now stirred to action. He immediately sent for the faithful three, Zadok, Nathan and Benaiah, and bids them to anoint Solomon king. They speedily executed their commission, and soon the people shouted, "God save King Solomon."

II. Solomon's Wise Choice (11 Chron. 1:7-12)

1. God's Gracious Offer (v. 7). This offer followed Solomon's lavish sacrifices to the Lord. God said, "Ask what I shall give thee," thus placing very wide possibilities before the king. God, as it were, slipped blank checks and thrust them over to Solomon to fill in any amount that his heart desired. This offer to Solomon was no exceptional one, for opportunities equally limitless are placed before us. God is saying to every one of His children, "Ask, and it shall be given you" (John 15:7).

2. The Lord's Gracious Offer brought the king face to face with the responsibility of making his choice. Solomon did not ask for wisdom for vain display, but for the good of others. He desired inward worth, not outward show. In this choice, he asked for two particular things:

(1) That God's promise to his father, David, might be established.

(2) That his own would be given to him to perform his duties.

3. God's Unasked Gift to Solomon (v. 11). Solomon's petition pleased the Lord. Because he put wisdom first God saw that he could be trusted with material goods also.

III. The Glory of Solomon's Reign.

1. His Extensive Kingdom (1 Kings 4:21-25). He ruled over the kingdom from the Euphrates river to the Mediterranean sea, except the Phoenicians, and they were in alliance with him.

2. His Great Wisdom (1 Kings 4:29-34). It excelled that of the Chaldeans, Persians and Egyptians. He had a singularly comprehensive mind. He was:

(1) A moral philosopher. He spoke three thousand proverbs.

(2) A poet. His songs were one thousand five.

(3) A botanist. He spoke of trees from the cedar tree, which was in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop.

(4) A zoologist. He spoke of beasts and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

3. The Temple (1 Kings 6-8). This was an exact reproduction of the tabernacle, double in size, executed in marble and gold. The amount of labor, skill and money expended on the building was exceedingly great (1 Chron. 22:14-16).

4. His Royal Palaces Adjoining the Temple (1 Kings 7). He was nearly twice as long in building the temple as in building the Lord's house.

5. His Commerce (1 Kings 9:26-28). Compare 11 Chron. 9 and 10:21). His trading ships went east as far as the Indian ocean, perhaps even to India; and west as far as Spain.

6. His Army and Navy (1 Kings 10:26-29). This was for more than display. He put his nation into a state of preparedness.

His greatness was associated with the name of the Lord. It was known that his fame was due to his relation with the living God.

IV. Solomon's Failure (1 Kings 11:6-12)

Because Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, the Lord was angry with him and assured him that the kingdom would be rent from him and given to his servant. However, for the sake of David, he would not bring his humiliation upon Solomon while he lived. Solomon's chief offenses were alliances with foreign powers through marrying king's daughters. This compromise weakened his moral stature and he soon followed his wives in the worship of false gods.

Scraps of Humor

LIKES IT STRONG

A judge of a certain circuit was accustomed to doze during the speeches of counsel. On one occasion counsel was addressing him on the subject of certain town commissioners' rights to obtain water from a river, water being scarce at the time.

During his speech he made use of the words, "But my lord, we must have water—we must have water."

Whereupon the judge woke up, exclaiming: "Well, just a little; I like it fairly strong."

Fruit Support. "How did you come to be lying there in the gutter?" demanded the policeman.

"Ish all right," replied the inebriated one, "I jush happen to walk between two lampshades and leant against the wrong one."—Pearson's Weekly (London).

Overheard by J. M. R. Clerk—This, madam, is the most correct writing paper for polite correspondence.

Customer—But I wish to write to my husband.

Queered. Lawyer—Well, what shall we ask for—trial by judge or jury?

Client—Take the judge, Doc. I've done plumbing for nearly everybody in this town.—Colonel.

BETTER CALLED A HOP

First Frog—Do you think we should advertise our club dance?

Second Frog—By all means, but hadn't we better call it a hop?

Boss—Can't tell till I see you run it. So far I haven't seen you push it beyond a slow walk.

A Conscientious Man. Contractor—Don't you see that sign, "No help wanted"?

Colored Applicant—Yes, sah. Ah promised mah of 'womey I'd ask f' a job today an' dese 'way Ah applied.

Going Down. "Oh, yes," said Mrs. Gadgett, proudly, "we can trace our ancestry back to—well, I don't know exactly who, but we've been descending for centuries."

HAD THE SKELETON IN MIND

Student—Professor, have you planned your new book on anatomy yet?

Professor—Well, I have the skeleton in mind.

Then He Flu. Where are you going, my pretty maid? I'm going to see—ah, good air, she said.

Who will you serve at, pretty maid? At—Chew! At—Chew! At—Chew! she said.

A Mean Insinuation. Alice—I don't think he knows enough to propose.

Edith—What if you should say that he and I are engaged?

Alice—Well, my opinion would still be the same.

Precaution. "Gimme just two quarts of gas," said Mr. Chuggins.

"Only two quarts?" exclaimed the man at the pump.

"Yes. My wife is learning to run the elevator, and I want to make sure that if it gets away from her I'll say pretty soon of his own accord."

Long Draw Out. Judge—Did you say, "This is no smitten" when Tom proposed?

Maud—I didn't have the nerve. You know how he starts.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

MARY GRAHAM BONNER

SPRINGTIME TALK

Mistress Springtime had been around for some time now. She had had quite a beautiful time.

"Told Me of a Little Girl." You know how it is! If you are having a good time you can't bear to leave and the time passes by so quickly.

"He told me of the beautiful evergreen trees and of the snow all about and of the lovely dark green and white pictures they made between them. He said it was so beautiful."

"And he told me of the patches of ice in a river which began to break up during the warm days—when they heard it'd soon be along so he said—and how the sea gulls sat upon these patches of ice and went for river sides."

"He told me too of the rust and the broad crumbs and bits of apple and grain which boys and girls had put around for the downy woodpeckers, nuthatches and chickadees who had stayed about all winter."

"He said it meant so much to the birds to be helped in this way."

"He told me it was just as though people went to a place where they could find hardly anything to eat but where the ones who had lived there for years had goodies stored away and shared these goodies with the new comers."

"Then he told me of a little girl who had picked some pussy willows just as I was about to arrive. She had put them in some water in the house, and they knew about blossoming out-of-doors and still wanted to do the same, and so the pussy willows became feathery and lovely and an army of the twigs she had picked little green leaves appeared."

"He chatted and he chatted and every once in a while there would be a little pause in the conversation and I would say,

"I really must be hurrying on."

"Then he would tell me more of his news.

"But at last I really said I had to be leaving and so along I came and so here I am!"

"As I came the little crocus flowers peeped up above the earth, and said,

"Hello, dear Mistress Springtime."

"And oh, Billie Brownie, you have no idea how wonderful it is to have that first greeting coming out of the earth where there is not another sign of anything green and where everything looks so dismal."

"The crocus family just made me feel I was so glad I had come after all, for at first I was thinking of Winter's interesting talk and almost wishing I hadn't hurried along."

"Some of them were picked and sent to some one who had no spring flowers but they had already greeted me and I was glad they were to greet some one else."

"They kept fresh, too, to greet others."

"Then the green buds all began to burst open to greet me and the yellow forsythia, and the dogwood and all of the other lovely blossoms."

"And now it She Had Put Them in Some Water."

"It was almost as though Summer had entered into the race, too, and though she were trying to catch up to me."

"She is pretty far behind just now but she's moving very quickly, and Billie Brownie, I wouldn't be surprised if before long she did catch up with me."

"She has a way of doing that, you know!"

Not Working for Fun

A small boy was scrubbing the front porch of his home when a visitor called.

"Is your mother in?" asked the visitor.

"Do you think I'd be scrubbing the porch if she wasn't?" replied the boy.

Diamond Dyes

Always ask for "Diamond Dyes" and if you don't see the name "Diamond Dyes" on the package—refuse it—hand it back!

Each 15-cent package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint skirts, dresses, waists, sweaters, stockings, kimonos, coats, draperies, coverings—everything new, even if she has never dyed before. Choose any color at drug store. Refuse substitutes!

Most of the "good times" are exaggerated in description.

WAS RAVING BEAUTY IN HER YOUTH

A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a downtown store when a middle aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying. "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine, that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."

So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, itches, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend on it. And it is more economical, too. The 50c size contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have it.—Advertisement.

Rejuvenated

Prominent retired merchant says he feels like new man since Tanlac relieved him of his troubles. Can now outwalk men 20 years younger.

R. E. Boyd, 5000 Fourteenth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., for forty-eight years prominent hardware merchant in the national capital, but now retired, lends his name to further the cause of Tanlac.

"Indigestion and stomach weakness of a very pronounced type had troubled me for several months prior to last October 25th," said Mr. Boyd, recently, "but since that date the Tanlac treatment has made a new man of me. Now I eat heartily, never have a sign of indigestion, sleep like a log and get up mornings feeling like an athlete. Today I can outwalk men twenty years younger. Tanlac alone put me in my present fine physical condition, enabling me to get more real pleasure than ever before out of meeting and mingling with friends. Tanlac has rejuvenated me completely, so to speak. It's the finest medicine I ever ran across."

MANY INQUIRIES DUE TO POLITICS

STARTED OR PROPOSED IN THE SENATE BECAUSE THIS IS A PRESIDENTIAL YEAR.

By EDWARD B. CLARK
Washington—A pleasantly ironical Washington writer, in commenting on the investigating fever of the senate, suggests that an inquiry should be started to fix the responsibility of the Panic war, and suggests also "that there are a good many uncovered circumstances concerning the mystery of who hit Billy Patterson."

There are so many committees of investigation at work in the senate that during some of the sessions of the greater body the only quorum present is that of the papers. Of course some of the greater investigations are absolutely necessary, but some of the minor ones probably have been started for political effect, for neither of the great parties has been at all backward in attempts to force a glaring issue which perhaps might injure the other party's presidential prospects.

If there were no presidential campaign on this year there probably would be less investigating activity in congress. Not all of the demands for investigation have been granted, but a favorite method of senators and representatives is to put in a resolution for an investigation because they think the mere calling of attention to something or other may arouse suspicion and perhaps produce votes for the party in which the resolution-introducer belongs.

Some Aspirants Hurt.
In a way the turmoil over oil and some other things seems to have crowded out the interest in the campaign for the presidential nominations. As a matter of fact the oil affair has injured the chances for the nomination of one or two gentlemen who formerly were well placed and running strong in the race. Just now, especially in the Democratic party, there seems to be a craving about for information concerning the present availability of some men whose availability in the past was not doubted.

Opinion here seemingly is that Calvin Coolidge will secure the Republican nomination without doubt. A few weeks ago there was some doubt about it, but now the leaders of the Republican party seem convinced not only that he will be nominated but that he will be elected.

The friends of Senator Johnson have in no wise given up hope that he will secure the prize, but seemingly they are pinning their hopes more upon possible new developments in legislation and in the investigating field to strengthen their cause enough to bring about the defeat of the President and the nomination of the senator.

Naturally enough Washington politicians, notably the Democrats, were intensely interested in the Chicago meeting of William R. McAdoo's friends to determine whether or not his connection as an attorney with the Tobney oil interests militated against his nomination ambitions sufficiently to make him unavailable as a candidate. It was rather expected that the Chicago meeting would declare that the former secretary of the treasury should remain in the field, and remain in the field he will.

Underwood's Chance Improved.
It will take some little time to determine whether his candidacy has been injured by the fact that he acted as an attorney for the Tobney interests although having nothing at all to do with the matters of the beams which have roused so much controversy. It can be taken for granted now that the McAdoo campaign will go on with vigor.

It seems to be unquestionably true that the prospects of Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, who is an aspirant for the Democratic nomination, have been brightened by the seeming setback which came to the McAdoo cause. There are politicians here, however, who seem to think that another that either Mr. McAdoo or Mr. Underwood will get the prize. Who this is to be no one cares to predict definitely, but the name of Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana frequently is mentioned.

The other day in the senate Senator Ralston made his maiden speech. Senatorial courtesy is not all that it is cracked up to be, for many of Mr. Ralston's political opponents did not remain in the chamber to hear his first effort. His party members, however, announced themselves as exceedingly pleased with the way the Indiana senator treated the subject in hand.

a cabinet officer known as the chief of the sanitary department, Santhelino in Cuba is a prime suspect. It was Major General Gorgas, better known in the service as Doctor Gorgas, who, while a lieutenant colonel and stationed in Havana years ago, put that city into a condition which made it immune from that plague of its life, yellow fever.

When he was formulating his great work in Cuba General Gorgas was accompanied by his wife. She ran all the risks of the plague which the most of the service men, and her courage endeared her to the Cubans. Of course, in greatest part, the high honor which has come to this American woman in the form of an invitation to be the guest of a government is in recognition of the services of her husband to the Cuban people, but the honor due to his widow also was a moving factor in the Cuban invitation to her to visit Havana as the honored guest of the Cuban people.

Gorgas' Great Work for Havana.
It was Dr. Walter Reed, acting with other physicians and with American Medical Corps volunteers, who proved that yellow fever was transmitted by the mosquito known as the Stegomyia fatigans, but it was Doctor Gorgas, who formulated and put into operation all the methods and the plans for ridding Havana of yellow fever at a time immediately following the mosquito transmission discovery. This whole work was that of Doctor Gorgas.

Just after Havana had been cleared of the plague through the skill and high understanding of Doctor Gorgas, he was ordered to Panama to make safe the Canal zone. He put into force the plans, regulations and methods which he had formulated and had used with such signal success in Havana, and added to them new methods as the work suggested them, that Panama might be made the safest place on earth so far as threats of disease were concerned.

Mrs. Marie Doughty Gorgas, the great physician's widow, is writing a life of her husband in connection with Burton J. Hendrick, who edited and connected the letters of Walter Hines Page, our war-time ambassador to Great Britain.

Romance of Yellow Fever.
The two met for the first time in a frontier post when Doctor Gorgas was a young lieutenant in the Medical corps. Yellow fever struck the partition. Mrs. Gorgas, then Miss Doughty, contracted the disease, and Doctor Gorgas was her physician. All hope that she might survive was abandoned and her grave was dug, and in the absence of a clergyman, Doctor Gorgas was to read the service. She recovered and then the doctor was taken ill; he narrowly escaped death, but came through, and later they were married.

It is not hard to understand why yellow fever and all the problems connected therewith became of intense interest to this American army surgeon. He was called upon after his Panama success to go to South Africa, and there instituted methods which reduced the pneumonia plague to a low percentage.

Doctor Gorgas was surgeon general of the American army when this country entered into the World war, fettering age came to him before the war was over. At the conclusion of the conflict the British government asked him to go to Africa to solve a plague problem which was affecting one of its great tracts of territory.

New Type of Motor Body
A new type of air suspension of motor car bodies is being used in England, wherein the body floats on a type of encased rubber tubing, in such a manner that it acts much the same as a pneumatic tire, permitting the car the same resilience afforded by the pneumatic tire, while at the same time the wheels themselves are shielded with less expensive hard rubber tires.

POULTRY

TRAP NEST TO TELL PROFITABLE FOWLS

One of the principal objections to the trap nest generally employed where individual records of hens are desired is that too much time is required to take the hens out of the nests and record their achievements, says Orange Todd Farmer. Many farmers and poultrymen who would like to know which hens are profitable and which not, in their flocks, will therefore welcome such a nest as pictured herewith.

As will be seen, the nest is an ordinary box. The front is provided with a very light door made of a shingle or other light wood, and swung on a pivot from the top. Near the middle of the right-hand side is shown a little bar, also pivoted where it touches the door. Toward the lower end of this little bar is a notch, which as the door is lifted engages on the latch on the side below.

When the hen enters to lay she lifts the door and disengages the latch.

Hen-Releasing Trap Nest.

As she passes through, the door drops again and closes the entrance. When she has laid she notices the opening at the back of the nest and passes into a different pen or alleyway. As soon as she does so she raises this back door, which is hung from the top on hinges, and a string which passes over two spools lifts the front door and resets the latch, so that another hen may then enter the nest.

The only objection to this method of trap nesting here is that it is not possible to know which egg is laid by any one hen, but it is possible to know which hens are and which are not laying in the flock; and the hens can be credited with the number of eggs they lay, so that the poultryman may know which are the most profitable birds and can select them for the following year's breeding flock.

Artificial Lights Will Encourage Fowls to Lay

A hen will lay a dozen eggs more per year if given lights in her house. This is shown in records kept on 100 poultry farms in New Jersey last winter, where lighted and unlighted flocks were compared.

W. H. Allen, poultry specialist at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, describes the three best methods of lighting as follows: "The evening lunch plan"—turn on the lights at 9 o'clock for one hour; "the morning lighting plan"—turn on the lights in the morning and at a time that will allow the birds twelve hours of daylight; "the combination plan"—turn the lights from 9 a. m. until daylight and from sunset until 9 p. m. Each of these methods has proved satisfactory. Electric lights are the easiest to regulate, but gasoline or oil lanterns may be used.

Good feeding practices must be followed when lights are used or the flock will get thin and sometimes molt. Fourteen pounds of scratch grain should be fed to 100 layers, feed 8 to 10 pounds in a deep, dry litter toward evening. This will insure against any possibility of the layers going to roost without a filled crop. The other four or six pounds should be fed about 8 a. m.

Must must be kept before the birds at all times. A good mash to feed in the New Jersey dry mash, which consists of equal parts by weight of wheat, corn, ground flint middlings, ground or rolled oats and meat scraps. There should be at least one linear foot of mesh hopper space for every eight birds.

Important Requirements in Winter Care of Hens

The important requirements in the care of the fowls in the winter are that they should take sufficient exercise, have adequate food, and be supplied with some form of protein, such as skim milk or beef scraps, to take the place of the insects which they consume in the spring.

Lice-Killing Powder Is Big Help to Turkey Hen

Always be sure that the turkey hen which is sitting on eggs has her plumage also full of lice-killing powder twice or three times during the hatching, the best time not less than three days before the chicks are due. If the hen is too wild to approach, perhaps she dreading will do, given two or three days before the hatch is expected. If the work is done at night, the hen is less likely to be frightened and leave the nest.

Will Your Family Be Happy This Spring?

If yours is one of the few remaining families lacking an automobile, no doubt you have finally decided to get one within the next four months.

A low-priced modern automobile like the Chevrolet has become indispensable to the family of ordinary income. A million other families can easily prove to you that the better way is with Chevrolet. The beauties of nature, the interesting and educational features of other places and ways of living, remain things to read about or seen dimly in cold photographs until you are free to get them at your convenience and pleasure.

But, suppose you have definitely decided to buy a Chevrolet this spring. This does not necessarily mean you are going to get it. Anyone posted on conditions in the automobile business will tell you that thousands of families are going to be unable to get cars this spring. This has been true almost every spring for the last ten years. There are just two ways of making sure of getting your Chevrolet for use when the flowers and balmy breezes of spring lure you to the country roads—buy it now or order it now.

If you do not want to pay for it in full at this time, any Chevrolet dealer will arrange terms to suit your convenience. You will be surprised to learn how easy it is to pay for a Chevrolet and use it while you are paying for it.

Please realize these statements are made by us in good faith and we mean just what we say about the possible difficulties of getting a car delivered to you this spring if you wait until then to order it. The only way to be sure of a Chevrolet this Spring is to order it NOW.

HANDLED LARGE SUMS

Means Says He Was "Money Carrier" in Deals Implying Corruption.

Washington.—More sensational—the most lurid of the lot yet developed—tumbled into the record of the Senate Committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty. As usual they were fired off with machine-gun velocity.

Gaston H. Means, former investigator for the Department of Justice and man of many adventures, who described his present business as "answering indictments," testified that he was the "money carrier" for Jess W. Smith in various deals implying corruption.

He told startling tales of collections of money for Smith in sums ranging from $5,000 to $100,000 and before he believed had brought Secretary Mellon's name into a story about permits for whiskey withdrawals, and said he had even once investigated Attorney General Daugherty himself for the late President Harding.

Means was careful to say that the charges against the Attorney General which he investigated then he found to be without any foundation in fact. He also disclaimed that in his testimony about Smith's alleged money collections, he had any knowledge of the Attorney General being involved, or receiving any of the money collected for Smith or one W. T. Underwood, whom he named in that connection.

At no time, in his story of money collections, did Means identify the people he said he got it from.

Specifically, Means testified that in February, 1922, at Smith's direction, at the old Bellevue Hotel in Washington, he collected $100,000 in thousand dollar bills from an unnamed Japanese, representing Mitsui & Co., the Japanese banking house, who brought it on behalf of the Standard Aircraft Corporation to halt Government action toward recovery of overpayments aggregating $4,000,000 on war contracts. The witness said that Smith came the same night and took the money from him.

Means further testified that at other times he collected from persons he did not name, sums running in the total up to about $50,000, which he said went for Smith and his associates, who, in turn, he said, were protecting the owners of the Carpenter-Dempsey fight films from prosecution when they transferred and exhibited them in interstate commerce. The owners of the fight films, Means testified, were Smith, Jap Mima, New York correspondent of the Clarion and Esquire; Will Orr, former private secretary to former Gov. Whitman of New York, and one Howard Mannington.

Other collections, Means said, were made by him for Smith on account of whiskey withdrawal permits, and turned over to Smith, but he had not named the amounts nor given specifications when the committee adjourned.

When he returns to the stand, Means is to be pressed for details, and Senator Wheeler, in charge of the testimony, said that the missing specifications would be supplied.

URGES THE IMPORTANCE OF WEEVIL CONTROL

South's Pre-Eminence in Cotton Growing Is at Stake, Says Ousley.

Auburn, Ala.—The South must control the boll weevil or else lose its monopoly in cotton growing to Brazil, Argentina, Australia and Africa, Clarence Ousley, director of the National Boll Weevil Control Association, declared here in an address before the Alabama banker-farmer conference.

"If I were a banker I would no more lend money for cotton production without the insurance of weevil control methods than I would lend money on cotton stored in a warehouse without fire insurance," Ousley declared. "The fire risk is much less than the weevil risk."

"The boll weevil can be controlled," he continued. "The methods of control are not easy, but every man with the sense to chop cotton can learn them. They are not cheap, but they are much cheaper than the cost of weevil damage. If we don't control the weevil other lands will drive us out of the cotton business."

Ten days' notice must be given to his mother, who is "committees of his person," and to the trustees of his estate before the case can proceed. Thaw is confined in the Pennsylvania Hospital for Mental and Nervous Diseases here. Walsh Charges Sending of Men to Reserve "Outrageous Use of Military Powers"

Washington.—Theodore Roosevelt, acting Secretary of the Navy, is under fire before the oil committee.

His order sending a detachment of marines to Teapot Dome to clear it of "trespassers" in the summer of 1922, four months after the reserve had been leased to Harry F. Sinclair, was characterized by Senator Walsh of Montana as an "outrageous use of the military powers."

Secretary Roosevelt also was asked about the circumstances under which he requested Sinclair to give employment to his brother, whose starting story to the oil committee led to the most sensational disclosures of the long investigation. He explained that when Archie returned from the war in 1918 he was seeking a place, and that he either saw or telephoned Sinclair asking that he employ Archie.

"What was his salary?" asked Senator Dill (Dem.), Washington. "Ten thousand dollars a year at the start," said Secretary Roosevelt. "I think that was increased to $15,000 later on."

Secretary Roosevelt told the committee that his order for the marines to clear Teapot Dome had been issued at the request of Albert B. Fall, then Secretary of the Interior, under what he understood was an agreement between Fall and President Harding.

This brought from Senator Walsh the charge that Fall and Sinclair wanted the marines used because if they resorted to civil action the validity of the Sinclair-Fall lease would come under review by a court, and they did not want that to happen.

"The thing is my mind then was the protection of naval property," Secretary Roosevelt said in explaining why he ordered the marine detachment under Captain George K. Shuler to Wyoming. He confirmed this by a reference to an entry in his diary made on the day the order was issued, July 29, 1922.

Senator Walsh in several statements "to the gentlemen of the committee" declared the property had passed out of the possession of the Navy Department to Sinclair, and that in any event resort should have been had to the courts, from which he said speedy relief could have been had.

Senator Burton (Rep.), New Mexico, sought to develop whether there had been a precedent for such use of the marines, but Secretary Roosevelt said officials of the department had been unable to find one in the navy records.

CLEMENCY MAY BE GRANTED PRISONERS

Army Board Impressed in Numerous Military Cases

Washington.—The special army board investigating cases of military prisoners have indicated in a preliminary report that it would recommend clemency for a considerable number.

The board reported that it was "impressed in numerous cases, especially those of first offenders, with the fact that the men had learned their lessons and further confinement would not improve their condition."

The report was signed by Majors James H. Stanfield and Frank K. Ross. Of the 535 cases investigated, 80 are confined at Atlanta, 445 at Leavenworth and 10 at Fort Jay, New York.

Another board of officers will be convened soon to investigate the cases at McNeil Island, Washington, and Alcatraz Island, California.

In many of the first offender cases, the report said, the men "are ready to be placed on parole," having responded in such a manner as to enable the officers to reach a different conclusion relative to clemency. No names are contained in the report.

Sinclair Oil Company Work Stopped. Tokyo.—Japanese military authorities have frustrated an attempt by J. P. McCullough and D. P. MacLaughlin, American surveyors representing Sinclair oil interests, to enter the northern section of the island of Sagashiro and have taken them to the port of Otaru in Hokkaido.

Fruit Buffers Damage. Palestine, Texas.—Fleeing weather, followed by rain and sleet, has brought farming operations practically to a standstill in this section. Opinions vary as to the damage to the fruit crop, but experienced observers say material loss has been obtained. Plum trees have been in bloom for two or three weeks, and many peach trees had begun to bloom out. Hope is entertained that the early fruit, which blooms later, has escaped injury.

COOLIDGE TAX CUT NOW IMPOSSIBLE

Senator Robinson Says Message of President Relative Tax Appeal Comes Too Late.

Washington.—House Republican leaders have definitely turned down the request of President Coolidge for a resolution making effective immediately the proposed 25 per cent reduction in income taxes payable this year.

Representative Longworth, Republican leader, told Mr. Coolidge the parliamentary situation would not permit action on such a resolution before March 15, when first installments on taxes must be paid.

At the same time, the revenue bill passed by the House and containing provision for the cut in 1922 taxes was assailed by Secretary Mellon before the Senate Finance Committee. The Treasury Secretary insisted it would bring about a Treasury deficit of at least $55,000,000 in the fiscal year 1923.

Preceding the death of the resolution proposal an attack on the President's request was made in the Senate after a suggestion from Senator Reed (Rep.) of Pennsylvania that action on the resolution be instituted there. Chairman Smoot replied that, although the constitution specifies only that revenue-raising measures must originate in the House, a resolution asking a reduction in revenue would undoubtedly be considered by the House as unconstitutional if action on it were first taken in the Senate.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leader, led the attack on the proposal, declaring the President's message "comes too late" and charging that the executive merely wanted a free hand to veto the revenue bill itself.

Mr. Longworth declared the proposal sent after a conference with Republican leaders, including advocates of the proposal who had started an eleven-hour move to put it in motion.

AUSTRIA REBUKED SEEKING FREEDOM

Oppose Country's Effort to Withdraw From League

Geneva.—Austria has been rebuked by the Council of the League of Nations. Having balanced their budget the Austrians want to free themselves from league control, but the council, after hearing Dr. Zimmermann's report, adopted a resolution that "the Austrian Government entered into a solemn undertaking and that league control can be withdrawn only when the permanent equilibrium of the budget is established and the financial stability of Austria assured."

Austria wants the use of public works without league supervision of 200,000,000 crowns remaining from the original loan. The council said that the request would be studied, but that bondholders must be protected and the Vienna Government should understand the loan could be used only for purposes approved by Dr. Zimmermann and under his direction.

Dr. Zimmermann in a statement to the correspondents said it would be a mistake to say that the success of Austrian reconstruction had already been achieved. Splendid progress had been made, but it was doubtful whether present high taxation could be maintained, he said.

He admitted that Austria had benefited industrially by the occupation of the Ruhr, which obliged the Germans to patronize Austrian factories.

Loan $100,000,000 to France. New York.—Establishment of a banking credit of not less than $100,000,000 in favor of the Bank of France has been arranged by an American banking group headed by J. P. Morgan & Co. It has been announced. The loan is fully secured by gold held in the vaults of the Bank of France, which is acting for the French Government, and will be used to stabilize French exchange and for such other purposes as the French Government may determine.

HOUSE APPROVES FORD OFFER FOR MUSCLE SHOALS

Opponents Fail in Amendment to Put Manufacturer Under Federal Water Power Act.

Washington.—Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals, pending before Congress for more than two years, has been approved by the House.

By a vote of 227 to 142, the McKeebill, which would authorize acceptance of Ford's bid, was passed and sent to the Senate, where there is uncertainty as to what action, if any, will be taken on it at this session.

Continuously before the House for a week, the McKeebill measure was approved virtually in the form in which it was reported by the Military Committee, which had been informed by Mr. Ford that he would take over the Government's nitrate and power project on the Tennessee River under the terms embodied in the bill.

To the last, advocates of the Ford offer resisted attempts to modify the proposed contract. Amendment after amendment, aimed at the heart of the bill, was thrown out by decisive vote.

Attached to the bill, however, was the Madden amendment, approved by the Military Committee, which obligates the Government to replace the Gorgas steam power plant, recently sold to the Alabama Power Company. Provision is made that this plant, which is not to cost, with a transmission line to nitrate plant No. 2, more than the $2,472,487 received for the Gorgas property, is to be sold to Mr. Ford, along with nitrate plants Nos. 1 and 2 and the Waco quarry, near Russellville, Ala.

Under terms of the bill, Ford will have the right to lease for 100 years dams Nos. 1 and 2 at Muscle Shoals and adjacent power stations.

Unnumbered, but fighting stubbornly to the last roll call, opponents of the offer made a futile last minute attempt to bring him under the terms of the Federal water-power act, thereby limiting his lease to fifty years, and to keep in the bill an amendment adopted recently, which would enable the Government to "recapture" the properties in the event the Detroit manufacturer failed to live up to his contract in any particular.

On the demand of Chairman Madden of the Appropriation Committee, one of the leading Ford offer advocates, a roll call was demanded just before the final vote on the amendment, and it went out of the bill by a vote of 191 to 176.

Party lines were disregarded to a large extent on the final vote, although Democrats as a rule supported the bill.

On the final vote, 57 Republicans and 170 Democrats supported the bill, while 122 Republicans, 19 Democrats and 1 Farmer-Laborite opposed it.

FINANCING MEXICAN REVOLUTION IS DENIED

Doherty, However, Admits $5,000,000 Loan to Obregon Regime.

New York.—Edward L. Doherty, denying the charge of Senator Wheeler that he, with Sinclair and other interests, had financed a revolution against the Mexican Government, declared that he had loaned $5,000,000 to the Obregon Government which enabled it to put down the rebellion. Doherty said Wheeler's statement was made with reckless disregard for the truth.

"I would have been a fool to finance gun runners into Mexico," he said.

"Senator Wheeler's statement, as reported in the press, that he expects to show that E. L. Doherty and others furthered a revolution against the Obregon Government in Mexico," said Mr. Doherty, "is absolutely false, just as false as his previous statement of Feb. 19, that Messrs. Sinclair, McLean and I had held meetings in the apartment of Attorney General Daugherty."

Make Survey of El Paso. El Paso, Texas.—Under the direction of G. N. Holton, member of the State Fire Insurance Commissioner, a complete four months' survey of El Paso was begun with a view of re-adjusting fire insurance rates. The survey is expected to result in a substantial reduction of charges.

Church Wants Cotton Land. Floydada, Texas.—The Methodist Church at McCoy has tented 72 acres of land in that community to plant in cotton, proceeds of which will go into a building fund for the erection of a suitable churchhouse.

Guarantee National Bank Deposits. Washington.—A bill to guarantee in national banks deposits of $5,000 or less and excluding all deposits if already secured, has been introduced in the House by Representative Thomas of Oklahoma. The plan is according to recommendations made in the annual reports of John Skelton Williams, while Comptroller of the Currency and would operate after the manner of the former State guaranty law of Oklahoma.

Learn Eyelid Talking

Detectives in Canada are being taught a code by means of which they can communicate with one another by drooping, raising or other movements of the eyes and also how to "talk" secretly by means of finger touches, by twisting of a cigar, fingering of a mustache and twiddling fingers behind the back. This is being done so that they can transfer their thoughts when in the presence of criminals or prisoners. It is declared that communication with the eyelids can be as rapid as the ordinary man typewriter—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Why Pay the Penalty of Lying Awake?

MANY people spend hours at night, restlessly tossing from side to side, waiting for sleep. All because they drink coffee with their evening meal.

If the caffeine in coffee irritates your nervous system and keeps you awake when you should be asleep, recuperating your energies, why not stop coffee and drink Postum?

Postum is a pure cereal beverage, absolutely free from caffeine or anything that can disturb health and comfort. Many prefer Postum for its delightful aroma and flavor.

If you want to know the truth, change to Postum for a month or so, and see how much better you will sleep and feel.

Inventions

Jim and Tom Cross, brothers, have invented and patented a buckle for tying out cotton, which will fill a long felt need, they declare. They were exhibiting the buckle in town this week and much favorable comment was heard concerning it. Several men who have done work about the gin press and are familiar with the trouble experienced with the buckles now in use, declare that the Cross invention will eliminate much trouble caused by the old buckle which this buckle will overcome.

It seems that Cross Plains has a number of inventive minds, as several others are working on various labor saving, money saving devices and contraptions of various kinds. Some will soon have their inventions perfected, patented and on market, it is thought. And we are told that several citizens of this community in the past few years have patented certain inventions and are either preparing to have them manufactured and placed on the market or have already done so. Sometimes an invention pays its creator big money. Here's hoping that our Cross Plains inventors reap a satisfactory harvest from their efforts.
