Mrs. Raymond Jennings accompanied by her son-in-law, Elvin Hutchins were in Piedras Negras, Mexico last week where she underwent treatment for three days in a hospital. Mrs. Jennings has suffered the past several years from a rheumatoid arthritis condition. Mr.

Jennings has also been ill the past few years and his daughter, Mrs. Elvin Hutchins and children of Bangs, his mother, Mrs. Nora Jennings and his sister, Evelyn Williams, both of Coleman all stayed with him last week. With the very long period of illness of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, it has required help from others, especially their families and they extend their appreciation to all their family and friends who have had a part in making their lives more comfortable.

Cottonwood News Items

By Alice Champion

Wasn't Saturday night and Sunday morning nice and cool? By Sunday evening it was back in the heat wave with thunder-showers to the east of my place. I received only a mist. Oh well, it takes little showers with the sunshine to make the world go around, or so I have heard. God never promised us a bed of roses every day. If the heat bothers you, just stick around. Winter will soon be here.

Mrs. Jay Kirkham visited Nettie Clark last week. It is so nice when friends drop in for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Childers of Abilene attended the musical Friday night and visited his mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Childers, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ballinger and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Childers of Cisco and Billy Don Bennett of Haskell also visited Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Childers last week.

Mrs. Cornelia Sandifer has not been feeling well the past few days. Her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Micky Callivan, visited her one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Blanton and son, Eric, of Abilene and Bro. McCord and Jerry of Abilene visited the J. E. Blantons Sunday. The Blanton's grandson, Dallas Roy Sullivan, seems to be improving, last report indicated.

Visiting the Dayton McInnis the past week were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Truman McInnis, of California who were on their way to Washington, D. C., to pick up their daughter and family who were returning from Iran. Her husband will follow in the near future.

A sister, Mrs. Doris Greenburg, of California has moved her mobile home near the Dayton McInnis home. Welcome to our community.

Other visitors with the Dayton McInnises are Kathy Bristow of Jasper and Mrs. Virginia Burst and children, Mike, Kacy and Amy, of Mason.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson visited her son, Darwin Anderson, in Cross Plains Sunday. Saturday she visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Holcomb, and she took Daisy to attend the funeral of Mrs. Clarence Casey that afternoon.

Mrs. Nadine Nickerson and Mary Ella Weaver visited their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Byrd at Fort Worth last week. They returned on Tuesday and Mary Ella went to Houston to visit before returning to her home in Corpus Christi where she has been teaching for the last 12 years.

The musical Friday night was wonderful. A large crowd attended, and a fine group of musicians performed. Everyone seemed to enjoy it even if it was on the warm side, in spite of three air conditioners and three portable fans. The music was worth the small discomfort. If you haven't attended one of our musicals try it sometime. You might be surprised. Cottonwood is a small community with a big heart.

Visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Lovell, here the past week end was Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lovell of Lubbock. Mrs. Lovell is feeling some better these days. Isn't it wonderful when our grandchildren drop by?

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Barnett visited over the week end with her mother, Mrs. Gracie Rohus, in Decatur and her sisters, Mrs. Paul Day of Decatur, Mrs. Jewel Wallace of Oklahoma City, Cora and Laura Robertson of Abilene. It is so nice when families can get together.

Charles Waggoner of the Cottonwood Store reports he received .25 of an inch of rain Sunday evening. It was really needed as grazing and crops had begun to suffer.

Mrs. Emma Woody visited her daughter, Minnie Lois, and granddaughter, Cathy Gonzales, in Abilene last week. Oliver Davis of San Antonio, brother of Dixie Coffey, visited with her from Thursday until Monday. While here he took her to Irving to see the Dallas Cowboys vs. Houston Oilers football game at Texas Stadium. They really enjoyed the game. A nephew, Jimmie Glenn Coffey of Irving visited Dixie last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rodgers and family of Gaylord, Mich. visited his mother, Mrs. Jewe Rodgers, the past week, and did a lot of the necessary things that need doing on a farm.

Other visitors in the Rodgers home the past week were friend, Tricia Fry, of Dallas and Doris Rodgers of Midland.

Pioneer Area News

By Jean Fore

This is such a beautiful Monday morning after having .60 of an inch of rain yesterday afternoon, otherwise I would be real upset to have to write the news after forgetting it and not having my number in the paper for pepole to call as some are so good to do.

Bro. Dan Applin of Cross Plains filled the pulpit at the Pioneer Baptist Church Sunday morning and Sunday night, while the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Purvis, are on vacation.

Mrs. Gail Flippin, Tan, Tye and Tamara, returned home Thursday after a visit with her husband, Eddie, who is working in Alaska. Gail reports that it is very cold there. They enjoyed their trip, but were glad to be home.

Mrs. Bill Hester of Cisco and her daughter, Carla Hester, of Palestine visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Fore one afternoon last week.

Our sympathy is extended to the Casey family. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Casey were former residents of the Sabanno Community. Mrs. Casey, who died last Thursday, was well known in our community. She was buried at Sabanno by the side of her husband.

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Foster were their daughter, Golda Houston, of Austin, two of their grandsons and families of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foster. Ben Atwood visited Sunday afternoon with the Fosters.

Ethel Brown spent the day Friday in Rising Star with Marie Duggan and met two friends from Dallas, Mrs. Pearl Lee and Gail Flippin and family visited Ethel Brown Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Kathleen Hardesty of Star and her daughter, Sandy, and two children of California visited Mrs. Ethel Brown Sunday.

Week end and Sunday visitors with Mrs. Doss Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alexander and baby of Richardson, Dub Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pyeatt and the Turners, all of Clyde, Joe Clair Cutlers and daughter, Sue, of Breckenridge and Betty Browning of Cross Plains. Mae Jones of Corpus Christi returned to her home last week after a visit in the Alexanders' home. The James Alexanders returned to their home after a few days visit in Corpus Christi last week.

Mrs. Calvin Roady reports that Mr. Roady isn't feeling very good. He was in Abilene two days last week undergoing check-ups with his doctors. We hope he will be feeling better soon. The Roadys have two grandsons visiting them this week, Art and Calvin Roady of Clyde. Visitors during the week with the Roadys were Clyde Melton, Mrs. Jack Way, Mack McCarty, H. A. and Billie Freeman and Bob and Sally Roady.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Fore visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barr Friday afternoon. The Fores were Cisco visitors Saturday afternoon.

Week end visitors with the Donald Stovers were their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hinyard, and two children of San Saba and Mr. and Mrs. Reggy Stover and two children. They were Abilene visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stover visited the Pete Stovers Sunday night. Pete was to enter West Texas Medical Center in Abilene Monday morning for a check-up.

Week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy King were Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Anderson of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atwood of Cross Plains, Buddy King of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Shirley of Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fleming and family of Jal. N. M., spent their vacation last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fleming. Mr. and Mrs. George Flippin and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Thomas and sons of Granbury visited his mother, Lottie Sooter, Saturday.

Don't forget our Thursday night party August 24th at the Clubhouse. Gather for games and our last ice cream supper for the year.

Everyone don't forget to call our next writer, Nell Fleming. Telephone 643-4646. It surely does help.

Cleveland McDonald of this community took his grandson, Steven Quackenbush of Upper Marlboro, Maryland, to Abilene on Thursday of last week to visit his great-grandmother, Bonnie Brooks. Steven flew from Maryland to D-FW airport on Sunday, August 13, for a two weeks visit here with his grandfather.

By Mrs. N. V. Gibbs

Here we are three weeks into the summer month of August. Hot weather with drying south winds invaded the area last week. It was hard to pick a suitable wash day due to high winds, clothes pins struggled to keep sheets on the line on Friday at the Gibbs place.

Rain clouds began building up Monday afternoon and light showers fell over the community.

Fear trees on the Leila Gibbs place have gotten the season mixed up. They all have a nice sprinkling of fresh blooms along with a light crop of pears. These clusters of blooms also have new leaves to enhance their beauty.

Those from the community attending the funeral of Loyd Hughes in Baird Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mauldin, Mr. and Mrs. Blain Odom and Mr. and Mrs. Dorse Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer and Michael of Clyde visited in the Sterling Odom home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Watson, Cody and Wyatt were in Ranger visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Needham last Monday.

Those visiting in the Tony Steele home Sunday were Mrs. Opal Steele and Mrs. John Steele and daughters all of Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dye and Julie made a trip to Fort Worth Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harrell and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dye were in the waiting room at Hendrick hospital last Tuesday night with Eugene Bell as he anxiously awaited the birth of Eugene and Diane's first baby, Kristi Diane Bell, was born about midnight and proud parents they are. We also send congratulations on this special occasion.

Beverly Cason of Baird visited in the Gene Mauldin home Saturday.

Christine Bower of Abilene and Mrs. Bob Sanford of Pampa were visitors with Mrs. Ray Boen during the week.

The Don Harris family spent the week end at the Brownwood lake.

Collect Soil Samples Now For Fall Crops

Without a soil test, it is difficult to determine how profitable fertilization is. That's why soil samples should be collected now and tested so that a fertilization program can be planned for fall crops, says Greg Gerngross, Callahan County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, at Baird.

A profitable return from fertilization depends on the level of available nutrients in the soil before fertilization. Nutrients in the fertilizer must supplement those in the soil to insure an adequate supply of those nutrients needed. Since soils vary in nutrient levels, this means that each soil and each nutrient must be considered. Then fertilizer should be applied that contains those nutrients that are not available in the soil in quantities required by the crop.

Soil tests are used to determine which nutrients are deficient in the soil and needed in the fertilizer. No profit can be expected from a nutrient applied to a soil that contains a high level to support yields above that possible by the most limiting production factor.

Now is the time to collect soil samples for fall planted crops such as small grains and winter forages. Early sampling will insure time to obtain the fertilizer needed as well as to prepare to use the best application methods.

Soil sampling is really the key to a profitable fertilization program.

Paul Smith of Cedar Hill visited Friday and Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith.
