HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Ed Henderson says that he is already receiving mail addressed to him at 'Henderson Heights', Cross Plains, Texas. Power to the new suburb. Long may her banner wave.

From what we gather here and yon', one of Cross Plains most celebrated bachelors is enjoying the last weeks of his unattached freedom. His servitude is scheduled to begin early in April. Not until we hear wedding bells chime will we stamp the rumors as authentic however.

As the approach of Spring is already casting its shadow and the sun beams down radiantly, our mind gets lazy and drifts to politics.

The first Tuesday in April, Cross Plains voters will be called to go to the polls to name two city Aldermen, terms of Jesse McAdams and D. C. Pratt, who recently removed to Brownwood, will expire at that time.

Mr. McAdams has made no public statement yet as to whether his 'sombbrero' will be in the ring for reelection.

Clara Nell McDermitt got so excited at Brunk's Comedians Wednesday night that she chewed up her ticket for the second performance. Now that's what Davis Owens would call histrionic appreciation.

Stanley Carmichael is still wondering why the light of his life visits in Waco so often. I'll bite 'Stanley', why?

Virgil Graves is a very disillusioned young man. That attractive little school teacher stood him up Wednesday night for the handsome young A. P. grocery peddler.

The bad part about it, he says, "is the groceryman brought the girl to the show and sat right beside him."

According to technocracy, that's 'rubbin' it in'.

Virginia Anderson calls to our attention that she is not a married woman and that our recent news story to that effect was incorrect. She said however that the misconception was probably her own fault, due to the fact that she wrote a humorous letter home that she had been married. Nevertheless 'Virge' we apologize.

The joke of the week is on Tom Bruce.

About midnight Tuesday he was awakened by the sounding of an automobile horn near his house. With the hospitality of a true Southern gentleman Mr. Bruce arose from bed and went outside to accommodate his apparent visitor. But to his complete surprise, no visitors were in sight.

Deciding that his imagination had just gotten the best of him, Tom retired to bed. A few minutes later the horn began to sound again. He

C. A. LOTIEF WOULD LIMIT DRUG STORES TO MEDICINES ONLY

State Representative Cecil A. Lotief of Cross Plains, crashed page one again the past week when he introduced a bill Monday to prevent drug stores from selling merchandise other than drugs and medicines.

A check up with drug store owners here the past week revealed that none of the local proprietors were in sympathy with the Lotief measure. The Austin American, daily newspaper, said the following of Lotief's proposal.

"Cecil A. Lotief, a merchant serving his first term as legislator, would abolish drug stores with a little prescription counter, a big lunch stand and medicines. An emergency clause Monday he introduced a bill to limit pharmacies to the sale of drugs and medicines. An emergency clause declares that pharmacies have come into the cafe, creamery, jewelry, hardware, tobacco and many other businesses to the injury of other merchants."

GAS COMPANY WILL REPLY TO 50c RATE THIS WEEK

ANSWER PROMISED CITY COUNCILMEN SATURDAY NIGHT

'Yes' Or 'No' Will Be Status Of Southwest's View On 33 Percent Cut

Southwest Gas Company will reply with a 'yes' or 'no' to the Cross Plains city council Saturday in regard to a 50 cent rate here it was learned in a letter from company officials to the city the past week.

The proposition of 50 cent gas has been discussed between councilmen and officials of the company with a more or less general understanding that if the Southwest reduces the rate one third the city will not put in a municipal distributing system.

The present rate is 75 cents per thousand cubic feet. There are approximately 365 meters here.

LOCAL BOY FOILS ARP BANK ROBBERS

When three men entered the State Bank at Arp, Texas, shortly after three Saturday afternoon and commanded employees to 'lift their hands', Thurman Armstrong, of this place, who is employed in the bank, dashed outside and gave the alarm. As a result of the warning one of the bandits was mortally wounded and very little money was taken.

LOCAL RANCHER SELLS 6 CARLOADS OF CALVES

Davis Owen, manager of the Owen Ranch, 12 miles West of Cross Plains sold five carloads of calves to Oklahoma buyers Wednesday. The calves are to be delivered in April.

PIONEER P. T. A. GIVES BRIDGE TOURNEY FRIDAY

Members of the Pioneer Parent-Teachers Association will be hosts to a bridge and forty-two tournament to be given in the high school gymnasium there Friday night. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. The proceeds will go toward paying for trees recently planted on the campus of Pioneer school.

INFANT BOY IS LAID TO REST HERE MONDAY

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meador was laid to rest in the Cross Plains cemetery Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Meador are residents of the Deer Plains community.

'Great Lafayette' Displays Skill Here As Tight Wire Walker

The 'Great Lafayette', who has thrilled thousand with his tight wire antics, display his skill in Cross Plains Wednesday afternoon and night. By the people of Rising Star where he was reared, the master wire-walker is known as 'Bunny' Dryden.

To the amazement of Cross Plains 'Bunny' performed feats on a tight wire, 11 feet high, Wednesday afternoon and night in front of Brunk's tent show here, that appeared impossible. He gave local people two free demonstrations of his 'art on the wire' and then went inside the tent where he performed again between the acts.

Dryden has reached zenith of his profession, playing weeks in the Palace theater, New York, considered by show people as the top realm in vaudeville success. He is in this

TRICK JAW PREVENTS LOCAL MAN FROM THE PLEASURE OF YAWNING

Imagine being deprived of that restful pleasure of yawning. Such is the case of Arthur J. Towler, who lives on Nimrod route two.

Three times he has forgotten himself and yawned, throwing his jaw out of place. The last of the sad experiences happened last week and it was necessary for him to enter a Cisco hospital for adjustment.

Besides being abnormal in this respect Mr. Towler is a very unusual man. He is a musician and amateur poet and writer.

At Cisco last week, he was interviewed by a Fort Worth reporter who was seeking a 'story' in regard to Towler and his unusual jaw. The newsfound failed to get his 'yawn' however, as Towler would not allow him to print the facts until they had first been published in his home town paper.

COUNTY WILL SAVE $145,000 ON ROAD BOND INDEBTEDNESS

Callahan county taxpayers will save more than $145,000 on their outstanding road bonds through the refunding act of the Legislature last year, according to preliminary figures just compiled by the state highway department.

Gasoline tax revenues are providing the money for this saving, beginning this year. The law sets aside one cent of the four-cent gas tax, or more than $7,000,000 a year. Each month's portion of this income is to be divided in the proper ratio and paid against the maturities of each county for that month.

The ratio is to be set by the new Board of County and District Road Indebtedness. Gibb Gilchrist, its chairman, said that while payments already have been begun, the amounts thus far are too scattered to bear any real significance.

The highway department's records show that Callahan county has contributed $147,490.65 to the construction of designated state highways and bridges since the department was established in 1917. Judge J. H. Carpenter has given state officials an estimate which covers a longer period, totalling $309,000. The amount finally approved will be somewhere between the two.

The total expenditures of this type by all the counties of the state, since 1917, total $90,345,267 according to highway department records. Estimates of county officials are still larger but highway officials believe the ultimate total will be about $110,000,000.

BANK DEPOSITS JUMP $7,000 HERE IN FEW WEEKS, REPORT SAYS

Cashier Thankful For 'Splendid Cooperation' Being Shown Citizens State

A $7,000.00 increase of deposits in recent weeks was announced from the Citizens State Bank here yesterday by C. C. Neeb, Cashier. An increase in the number of depositors, has also been reported.

"We do not attribute our growth and progress that is being made to any personal service of ours but to the splendid whole-hearted cooperation that is being shown us by people of Cross Plains and the surrounding communities", Mr. Neeb said.

According to the bank's statement, deposits and the number of customers of the bank has increased steadily since January first.

FRIDAY IS BIG DAY FOR DRESSY SCHOOL

A patriotic program will be presented at Dressy school Friday afternoon at one o'clock. Patrons of the school will gather on the school campus at noon time where basket luncheon will be spread.

The program to be presented by the intermediate and primary departments follows. Opening address, Rev. Deane VanPelt, Washington's birthday reading, Noah Sealy Johnson, Little Flag Bearer, R. B. McGowen, Jr. Life of Washington—a short play—C. C. Jones, Arvin Penny, Howard McGowen, Earnest Warren and George Pethel.

'Washington's Boyhood' by Glenn Payne.

BRUNK'S COMEDIANS LEAVE FOR COLEMAN

Brunk's Comedian's left Wednesday for Coleman after playing to packed audiences here three days. The company will show in Coleman the remainder of the week, according to an announcement from Henry L. Brunk, manager, Wednesday night.

"Tell the folks we'll be back next year", Mr. Brunk said to the Review editor.

PHIL PE CO MEMBERS TO MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Members of the Phil Pe Co Country Club will hold their annual meeting at Rising Star Wednesday night March first, according to an announcement from Ted R. Smith, Secretary, yesterday.

"Officers and directors will be elected for the ensuing year at that time", Mr. Smith has informed the Review.

George R. Neel was a business visitor in Big Spring and other West Texas points the past week.

This Is Food For Thought Anyway

Cross Plains has 35 more people this week than last. 17 persons who have been in Andrews County removed to Cross Plains over the week end. Mrs. Tom Anderson and daughter Virginia, who have been living in California the past year, have returned to Cross Plains to make their home. 16 other people have taken residences in Cross Plains as a result of construction work being done by the Prairie Company on their oil properties in this locality.

Should this place maintain such growth each week for a period of one year, the town would be larger than the combined population of all other incorporated towns in this county.

SHERIFF ARRESTS 2 ABILENE MEN WITH 18 GALLONS LIQUOR

Jimmie Nowlin and Joe Preacher, both of Abilene, were arrested South of Baird Monday afternoon by Sheriff Robert L. Edwards and charged with possession of liquor. They made $1,000. bond each Tuesday. Trials are set for the next term of court.

Sheriff Edwards told the Review Wednesday that he made the arrests acting on a tip given Deputy Bob Tollett, at Cottonwood, Monday morning. He captured 18 gallons of liquor in the Abilene men's automobile.

AG. CLASS KEEPING EXPERIMENTAL PLOT

An experimental plot of ground—140 by 40—is being worked by students of the first year Vocational Agriculture class of Cross Plains high school. According to V. A. Underwood, instructor, the class will raise: cotton, corn, begari, kafir, mays, oats, wheat and legumes on the small tract.

The ground was broken by agriculture classes.

METHODIST CHURCH GETS A NEW ROOF PAST WEEK

A new roof was placed on the Methodist church building here the past week. Members of the church either furnished a laborer or did a day's work themselves.

Miss Enid Gwathmey was in Brownwood over the week end.

Mrs. Wilbur Wright was in Hico several days last week.

Want Ads Help Rent Rooms, Apartments

Do you have an apartment or house for rent? Practically every day the Review is asked for information concerning furnished apartments or living quarters of other nature.

A 25 cent advertisement in The Review's want ad columns may rent your rooms, apartment or house. Besides serving as a direct guide to prospective renters the ads are used in helping new residents to locate here.

The Review had five calls for apartments and rooms Monday. Get your ad in next week's paper and be ready for prospective renters.

LOCAL OPERATORS SEE BETTER DAYS IN INDUSTRY HERE

Cite Renewed Activity As Reason For Optimistic Contention

From a local standpoint outlook for the oil industry looks brighter, the Review was told by four well informed operators the past week. Although the expected hike in crude prices has not yet been forthcoming, oil men cite renewed operations as the reason for their optimistic contention.

In an interview with nine large landowners the Review learned the past week that major companies are paying rentals on thousands of unimproved oil leases throughout this area.

Plans are now going forward to drill a well approximately 2,000 feet Northeast of Cross Plains. The test is to be drilled by Ed Schaffner, C. D. Lane and E. D. Priest.

Another block of acreage is being prepared between Cross Plains and Cisco. It is understood that 1,000 acres will be included in the block and that a well will be drilled sometime in the near future.

Local operators told the Review Wednesday afternoon that they anticipated a hike in pipeline crude prices for high gravity oil throughout this section early in the Spring.

According to a local attorney, several more oil transactions are in the making which may result in further drilling.

AGRICULTURE CLASS IS TERRACING LAND AND PRUNING TREES

6,500 yards of terrace lines were run this week by boys of the Cross Plains Vocational Agriculture class under the supervision of V. A. Underwood, instructor. This work was done on the W. H. Carpenter and Happy Mason farms.

In the past two weeks more than 10,000 yards have been run according to a statement from Underwood to the Review yesterday.

"Terrace lines improve the value of farm property from one to two dollars per year", Mr. Underwood declares.

The past week the Vocational Agriculture class also pruned four small fruit orchards.

400 PEOPLE HERE ASK FOR SIMPLIFIED GOVERNMENT

A petition asking for simplified government and strict economy, signed by 400 residents of this locality was mailed Cecil A. Lotief, State Representative from this district the past week. The petition was compiled by Cleve Callaway, unsuccessful candidate for the legislature, last Summer.

MARION TATE TAKES OVER C. P. STATION

Management of the Cross Plains Service Station passed into hands of Marion Tate Wednesday. The place was formerly operated by John Miller. Mr. Tate told the Review that he would make a formal announcement to the public next week concerning the type of products that he will handle.

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN WEDS MAN AT HAMILTON

News has been received here of the recent marriage of Mrs. K. J. Preston, formerly of this place, to a man at Hamilton.

CO-OPERATION

The progress and prosperity of a community is a measure of the ability of its citizens to cooperate—to work together harmoniously.

Whenever you find a backward or impoverished section, you will almost invariably find that the people of that section do not cooperate with each other; that they are suspicious of each other's motives and envious of each other's success.

This bank is here to do its share, and we especially invite the cooperation, confidence and good will of every citizen.

PROGRESS AND POWER

Present-day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on ample and economical power facilities which deliver a practically unlimited power supply at once—when and where needed.

Small local plants, serving single communities, generally lack these facilities—lack the variety of volume and demand which is necessary if the road to industrial growth is not to be blocked.

The transmission system, which has resulted from a group of towns pooling their power requirements and resources, can deliver this power easily, economically, at any time or place.

Progress and Power go hand in hand in the small city—and the West Texas Utilities Company is aiding this desired progress in 125 alert cities and towns in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity."

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

A Few Sales Tax Thoughts

By Jack Scott

"Taxation without representation is tyranny", shouted our fore-bearers on the virgin shores of this nation 200 years ago. A matter of almost equal importance confronts Texas legislators today.

The two percent sales tax as proposed by Governor Ferguson and championed by at least three members of the state legislature would be the greatest injustice loaded on the backs of Texas citizenry in decades. It is a proposal that would shift even more of the tax responsibility from the shoulders of those who are able to pay to that of those who are not.

It is an issue that lobbyists and special interests are vitally concerned about. It would eventually cause the tax burden to be born completely by numbers instead of by earned profits and ability to pay.

The state sales tax would completely destroy 1,700 Texas jobbers who employ thousands of breadwinners and form a visible nucleus of our scheme of business.

Texas merchants would be forced to violate the law in order to survive with lawless competitors, who doubtlessly would order direct from factories and out of state jobbers. Supporters of the idea declare that the interstate commerce commission would prevent this unfairness. But I point you to gasoline and even cigarette evasions that are present today.

It is a recognized fact that certain companies are shipping gasoline to Oklahoma and other bordering states and then having the same gasoline billed back to Texas to evade four cents of the tax. They reason that freight is cheaper than taxes. Cigarettes can be bought in almost any Texas town without the three cent tax stamp. If the interstate commerce commission could prevent this lawlessness in the event that the sales tax were passed, why can't they condescend this irregularity on these few items which are taxed at present? Certainly it would be less difficult to check upon three or four commodities than hundreds.

The combined wealth of the East has strangled and throttled almost from existence the individual merchant. Chain stores have bankrupted individuals by the thousands. They can sell at a loss in one community while they make their profits in other communities. You pass this sales tax, pyramiding as it now provides, and you will give to these chain groups, who buy from out-of-state manufacturers, another 3% to 9% advantage over the home merchant. You do that and you destroy a group that has preserved this civilization. The great middle class must be protected.

Another point that I wish to raise in the sales tax would effect individuals only. How would it touch companies, which earn hundreds of times as much as their insignificant employees.

The Humble Pipe Line Company reported an earning of over 25,000,000 dollars in 1931.

MORE ABOUT ALCOHOL

No good physician is a "wet" in the accepted meaning of the term. Yet there are people so unreasonable that they hold other opinions than their own in outspoken contempt. I am as "dry" as the driest of them, but I am not against anything that I can use for the benefit of my patient.

I overheard a United States senator say in a radio speech that, alcohol is a narcotic; that it is in no sense a stimulant, that it should be treated by law as opium is treated. He claimed medical authority for his statements.

When people tell me that whiskey is not a stimulant to aged and debilitated patients, they do not speak truth. I know better. It is a stimulant to nerves, heart and digestion. It revives the waning body when exhausted from any cause. It was a valuable aid in treating diseases of the aged. One would as well say strychnia is not a narcotic!

We may be able to get along without alcoholic stimulants, or any other drugs, but we are vastly better off with them. We could get along—and let folks die—without physicians . . . but we don't. There are no more deadly things than fire-arms, but the policeman must carry them for protection. The good physicians should have everything at his hand for dealing with the enemies of life and health.

Because some people haven't sense enough to use alcohol for its proper purpose, is no reason it should be felonious to use it sanely as God intended. Narrow-minded, fanatical people are responsible for as many of our troubles as any drug on earth. And I have no use for saloons, or for alcohol as a beverage.

What portion of this vast profit would be affected by sales tax? I say little if any, its employees would bear the brunt for the company's prosperity.

Oil ought to go up; its going to take a lot of grease for all the revolving funds we've created.

If we don't get tax rates down we'll have to secure a martyrdom for our school teachers.

Farm relief is making a little progress. A city zoo is now offering a home for a barn faced owl.

The daddy daddy technocrat got thrown out, but landed squarely on the lecture platform. The public always is the goat. Guess he will discuss halitocracy for the toothpaste companies.

A CONCEPTION OF GOD

IN Jesus' great acts of courage he was the successor, and the surpasser, of all the prophets who had gone before. We have spoken of the prophets as deficient in humor; but what they lacked in the amenities of life they made up richly in vision. Each one of them brought to the world a revolutionary idea, and we can not understand truly the significance of the work of Jesus unless we remember that he began where they left off, building on the firm foundations they had laid.

Let us glance at them a moment, starting with Moses. What a miracle he wrought in the thinking of his race! The world was full of gods in his day—male gods, female gods, wooden and iron gods—it was a poverty stricken tribe which could not boast of a hundred at least. Along came Moses with one of the transcendent intellects of history. "There is one God," he cried. What an overwhelming idea and how magnificent its consequences.

Moses died and the nation carried on under the momentum which he had given it, until there arose Amos, a worthy successor.

That assertion is such an elementary part of our consciousness that we are almost shocked by the suggestion that it could ever have been new. But remember the gods that were current in Amos's day if you would have a true measure of the importance of his contribution. It was the high privilege of Amos to proclaim a God who could not be bought, whose ears were deaf to pleadings in judgment between the strong and weak, the rich and poor.

Years passed and Hosea spoke. His had not been a happy life. His wife deserted him; heartbroken and vengeful he was determined to cast her off forever. Yet his love would not let him do it. He went to her, forgave her, and took her back. Then in his hours of lonely brooding a great thought came to him! If he, a mere man could love so unselfishly one who had broken faith with him, must not God be capable of as great, or greater forgiveness, toward erring human beings?—A God so strong that he could destroy, yet so tender that he would not!

One God, A just God. A good God.

These were the three steps in the development of the greatest of all ideas. Hundreds of generations have died since the days of Moses, of Amos and Hosea. The thought of the world on almost every other subject has changed; but the conception of God which these three achieved has remained in control of men's thinking down to this very hour.

The Sixth avenue elevated structure has been given a coat of aluminum radiator paint where it passes Radio City. As soon as one gets past those three blocks it's the same black and dingy elevated. And although the silver paint is getting soiled and looking gray it brightens up Sixth avenue.

Get Rid of That SORE THROAT!

Any little soreness in the throat grows rapidly worse if neglected. Crush some tablets of genuine Bayer Aspirin in some water, and gargle at once. This gives you instant relief, and reduces danger from infection. One good gargle and you can feel safe. If all soreness is not gone promptly, repeat. There's usually a cold with the sore throat, so before gargling take two tablets to throw off your cold, headache, stiffness or other cold symptoms. Bayer Aspirin relieves neuralgia, neuritis, too. You may use it freely, it does not hurt the heart.

Members of the Wednesday Study Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Fred Cutbirth the past week for the semi-monthly meeting of the group. 14 members answered roll call. The theme of discussion was 'Progress Toward Peace'.

Those taking part on the program were: Mrs. T. S. Holden, 'Woman's Part In Peace Movement'; Miss Anna Mae McConathy, 'Settling Disputes Without War'; Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, 'Present Forces Making Peace'.

Plans were formulated at the meeting to present a play in the high school auditorium within the near future entitled, '12 Old Maids'.

TALES OUT OF SCHOOL

I sat at a medical dinner recently—a meeting of the county society of which I am secretary. The 77-year-old chairman sat next me—he at the head of the table. Parts of the general conversation I feel sure may interest my readers.

I asked the president, "Doctor, do you still cling to the idea that the breast of the fowl—the light meat—is easily digested, nutritious, and good for a sick man?"

The doctor, trying his best to tear the meat off a drumstick with a dull fork—"Naw, I don't.—never did."

The hot tea-biscuits came along; they were deliciously put up, brown-crust and flaky inside. An X-ray specialist at my left grew talkative: "Well—we used to condemn hot biscuits; I've never in a quarter of a century of practice found peptic ulcer in a man that was a hot biscuit-fiend."

The president: "I've eat 'em for seventy-five years; they've never hurt me—that I've noticed."

The essayist—a young man who was to speak on plastic surgery: "The only time hot biscuits ever hurt me was when I couldn't get 'em." (He was reaching for his fourth.)

There were thirty-nine at the table, doctors and their wives. It was remarkable how they all went after those hot biscuits and the dark meat of fried spring chicken—and nobody suffered from indigestion because of it.

For myself, if my patient can handle chicken at all, I give him soft cooked dark meat, not part of an old asbestos breast. And, if he can't eat a fine little hot biscuit with butter, he is too sick to tackle a slab of tough "light-bread." So there.

Mr. Dryden & Freshmen Entertain In Assembly

High and ward school students and faculty were entertained by Mr. Dryden and the freshman class Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Dryden gave several physical feats, announced that he would give a show back of the ward school building the following afternoon and told the admission charge. Mr. Williams explained that one half of the proceeds would go to Rising Star to help them install a lighting system in their gymnasium and that the other half would be added to the fund for the Cross Plains gymnasium.

- Then the freshman class, sponsored by Mr. G. W. Keyes gave the following program on "Manners":
1. Consideration for Others—C. C. Armstrong.
  2. Respect—Ruth Barr.
  3. Conduct at Home—Bobbie Nell Neil.
  4. Play—I. B. Loving.
- Conduct at School—Melvin Placke.
 Courage and Self control—Elevin Williams.
 Manners! Their Value and Meaning—Bevo Webb.

Members of F. F. A. Go On A Field Trip

Mr. V. A. Underwood took his Vocational Agriculture Class on a field trip. Much plowing and harrowing was done by the students.

The plot that was broke and harrowed shall be used as an experimental ground for the first year Vocational Agriculture Class.

Work was done especially by inexperienced farm hands, Athalie Adams, Clara Nell McDermott, and Opal Young. You should have seen Athalie pushing that plow and those mules jumping at her every 'whoa'.

How did the debaters happen to have a party? Really it did not happen. Miss Ethel Manning, the coach, believes that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, so after working diligently since the first of November, and debating Santa Anna Brownwood, Rising Star, and Cisco, the debaters and a few friends went to Miss Manning's home at 7 o'clock Friday evening to celebrate and—They were fully repaid for all their hard work, criticisms, and other things that those who "try-out for debating" experience—for Miss Manning is a wonderful hostess.

Guests: Misses Carah Collins (ex-Cross Plains Debaters and member of the Brownwood team), Ruth Rumph, Zelah Pittman, Alton Barr, Milton Bessire; and the debaters: Ida Nell Williams, Doris and Ovada Westerman, Harold Clark, Charles Frank Hemphill and W. N. Long and Miss Manning played several games of forty-two. Sarah Collins and Harold Clark were the best players.

Later refreshments consisting of a salad course, sandwiches, olives and hot chocolate were served. Afterwards all of them except Misses Ruth Rumph and Ida Nell Williams accompanied the Westerman girls to their home in the country.

Wise Cracks

 His Best Girl: "Honestly? what part did you play?"
 Freshman: "I did the aerial work."
 Girl: "Aerial work?? What's that?"
 Freshman: "Why, I blew up the footballs!"

Tommy Webb—That guy has a glass eye.
 Stancel—Did he tell you that?

Members of Debating Club Entertained At The Home of Coach

Miss Ethel Manning, coach of the Cross Plains High School debating team, entertained the members of the Debating Club at her home Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Forty-two gave diversion throughout the evening hours. Miss Sarah Collins and Harold Clark were the champion players, Sara winning 10 games and Harold 9.

Refreshments were served to the following members of the club and their guests: Sara Collins, Ruth Rumph, Zela Pittman, Alton Barr, Milton Bessire, Ida Nell Williams, Doris and Ovada Westerman, Charles Frank Hemphill, W. N. Long and Harold Clark.

Miss Opal Young Gives Dance For The Younger Set

On Saturday night, February 18, Opal Young gave a dance for the younger set. Everyone reported a very good time. The following guests were, Athalie Adams, Agnes White, Wanda Owen, Lorena Childs, Fanora Neeb, Helen Grace Gray, Phyllis Chandler, Rosalea Cutbirth, Tommie Kate Mayes, Ernestine Sipes, Roma Young, Boots Harlow, Clara Nell McDermott, Ernest Davis, H. H. McDermott, James Walker, Howard Bane, Floyd Halbert, Carl Childs, Tommie Holden, Leonard Davidson, Billie Mac Adams and Mac Bingham.

Personal

Miss Rosalea Cutbirth and Harlie Neel were in Cisco Sunday.

No wonder some of the high school girls have had colds they go 'wadin' in creek water on Sunday.

Eva Freeman, Joe Joseph and Vernon Bowers, were visitors in Cisco Sunday.

Goldie Klutts is back in school again after several days absence because of sickness.

Miss Sara Collins of Brownwood visited friends and relatives the past week end at Cross Plains.

Miss Phyllis Chandler was in Brownwood Saturday.

Faculty Faults

Coach—flat nose.
 Williams—2 eyes.
 Norman—2 ears.
 Gwathmey—big feet.
 Jennings—Cross eyed.
 Wheeler—Feminine charm.
 Underwood—Inferiorty complex.

Mr. Williams sometime forgets to wear a smile.

Mr. Norman forgets to tell jokes to the Freshman class.

Mr. Keyes uses 'In order to' and therefore, constantly.

Mr. Wheeler forgot to wear a school sweater the other day.

Mr. Underwood forget to tell Bruce and Athalie not to talk in class.

The Most Beautiful

Dorothy Wilcox had the beauty appeal which caught the attention of a noted group of artists who judged her the most beautiful maiden of the twenty selected for awarding of honors.

Sets New Record

Amelia Earhart set a new auto-giro record for women flyers in a flight above Philadelphia.

How to Preserve a Husband. Be careful in your selection. Do not chase too young. When once selected give domestic use. Some insist in keeping them in a pickle; others are constantly getting them into hot water. This may make them sour, hard and sometimes bitter. Even poor varieties may be made sweet, tender and good by garnishing them with patience, well-sweetened with love and seasoned with kisses, wrap them in a mantle of charity; keep warm with steady fire of domestic devotion and serve with peaches and cream. Thus prepared they will keep for years.

Miss Jennings has had some of her auburn locks cut off and she looks at least five years younger. Maybe if she had her head clipped she would look like an infant.

Ovada came to the library door, peeped in and said to Zelah—yeah, they're in here! We can't decide whether they were looking for books or some pet mice.

Dad—Whew, that licking I gave you tired me out.
 Bevo Webb—Yes dad, but you can sit down and rest.

Mr. Keyes is getting to be quite good on writing masterpieces on good manners. Maybe he will rank with Shakespeare yet.

Bobbie and 'Soc' always manage to sit at the same table in the study-hall. We wonder why?

There is a new style in school which is being led by Clarence Castore that denotes a bit of laziness of the part of the reformer. This style eliminate the trouble of lacing your shoes in other words, you have no shoe strings.

H. S. VOLLY BALL TEAM ORGANIZED MONDAY

The high school volly ball girls were organized Monday afternoon and Mr. Norman was chosen to coach the team this year. He is planning to keep a record of the points that each girl makes and the six making the highest points will go to Laird to the league meet. The captain has not yet been elected. We are all going to cooperate with our coach and have a good volly ball team this year. The following girls reported for practice Monday afternoon: Wilma Jones, Willie Gay Stacy, Leota Jones, Juanita Vestal, Phyllis Chandler, Melba Mitchell, Mary Billingsly, Ruth Barr, Bobbie Nell Neil, Mary McAdams, Daisy Kent, Zelah Pittman, Dora Belle Harris, Francis Farr, Jewel McMillion, and Erlene Freeman.

Two long, tall, lanky girls could have been seen wading in a Cross Cut creek if an observer had been close by. Their copanion, was a short sawed off person but, whereas the others were wading she was swimming.

Those who wish to serve on "Kangaroo Court" pleased sign your name on a slip of paper and hand it to Clyde Sims.

Mrs. Sam Long, Mrs. Olan Adams and Mrs. Chase Adams were in Coleman Thursday.

Mrs. George B. Scott spent the first three days of the week with her mother Mrs. J. B. Cutbirth in Baird.

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

awoke his wife and made a thorough search of both his automobiles and premises, but all to no avail. By that time, so Mrs. Bruce says: "Tom was about to believe in ghosts."

When the noise started again Tom grabbed his double barrel pop-gun and dashed outside, where he concluded that the disturbance was coming from his own garage. With the courage of a soldier going to battle, Tom crept up beside his antique Ford, where the trouble seemed to be coming from.

Looking inside he saw a small rat running about the floor of the car contacting the uninsulated wires of the horn. In utter disgust he laid the gun down and went inside vowing that no little house rat could keep him awake. So he matched his snores against the rat's intermittent horn disturbances.
