RETURNS FROM OFFICERS' CAMP

P. V. Harrell arrived in Cross Plains on Wednesday night of last week from Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky., where he had been for about a month in the officers' training camp. He volunteered for this work and was accepted and sent to the camp just a few days before the armistice was signed. After the war was over the training camp held no charm for many of the candidates according to Mr. Harrell. Most of the men in training were professional men, lawyers predominating, and of course they were anxious to get back into life work. Several State representatives and senators and a few congressmen were in Camp Taylor. They all had to commence and work up, congressmen as well as all others, taking their turn in "K P" service, which being interpreted, means "kitchen police," and this, being interpreted, means washing dishes and the like. Mr. Harrell will resume his practice of law, all the war record he will likely ever have being made, so he states.

L. P. LITZINGER HERE

L. P. Litzinger, of Butler, Pa., for whom the well on the Albin farm is named, has been here since last Friday in the interest of this well and other leases. He was present at the commencement of the drilling on Tuesday. He returned home the last of the week. He thinks a good deal of the oil prospects on his country's property.

DEAD

Francis Lucile Carpenter, aged 5 years, six months and ten days, youngest child of Frank Carpenter and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones of this place, died at the home of her father in Temple on Dec. 4, and was buried in the Cross Plains cemetery on the 6th. C. C. Tyler conducting the services. She was a victim of pneumonia, following the flu. Mr. Carpenter was sick at the time and was unable to attend the funeral. Mrs. S. F. Bond, an aunt of the deceased, was at her bedside at her death, and accompanied the remains to Cross Plains. The child's mother died a few years ago. Mrs. Carpenter being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones. The Review offers sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

To Kirkland

Rev. T. H. Davis has been sent to Kirkland, Texas, to take charge of the Methodist work there, he and his family leaving last week. He has been out of the work for a few years, but says he is now rested and is anxious to get back in the harness. He has ordered the Review to follow him.

USEFUL GIFT

What about making the Review an Xmas. gift for your friends away from here? We will insert card with first issue naming donor. A useful gift. One that will remind the recipient 52 times of your thoughtfulness. If the party knows the people here nothing could please him or her better. Also it would help to tell the world the good things about this country.

I. W. SEAMANS HERE

I. W. Seamans, veteran oil man of Union Town, Pa., has been here since the latter part of last week seeing after his oil interests here. Mr. Seamans and son own considerable acreage in this part of Callahan and Eastland Counties. They furnished the funds for the buying of the first leases in this country, the late Geo. H. Boileau representing them. Mr. Boileau bought some of the leases in their names and some in other names. Mr. Seamans shows his faith in this country as a coming oil country by reason of his investing before there was any oil excitement.

CLARK GRAHAM DEAD

Clark Graham, aged 37 old-timer in this country, died at his home on Wednesday night of influenza, and was buried in the local cemetery on Friday, Rev. R. H. Williams of Abilene, old friend of the family, conducting the services. He was a strong man, in the prime of life, one we all thought promised many years of useful life. He was a successful school teacher in this county for several years. He leaves a wife and several children. We offer our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

GET READY

Xmas. is nearly here, this is an invitation for you to have your clothes got in holiday condition. Phone us and we will call for and deliver your clothes. Satisfaction always guaranteed.

T. W. Tarrt, the Tailor.

ALBIN WELL SPUDDED IN

The Albin well was spudded in on Wednesday and work is now progressing nicely. This is our nearest well and it is being drilled by what some say is the finest rig in the State. More will be said next week.

Child's well is drilling without hitch, the depth being about 900 feet.

Odom's is tied up with broken bit.

NO METHODIST SERVICES

The Methodists here decided not to have any services on Sunday on account of the flu.

READ THE ADVERTISING

The Review is full of advertising this week. Read it and patronizing our progressive stores. Our reading matter is cut short on account of extra work. Several letters and other items have been left out of necessity. Next issue will be our last for this year.

TELEGRAM PRICE CHANGED

The Telegram, on account of news print restrictions by the Government being removed, has made the following price on daily and Sunday Dec. 1, 1919: ...$6.50. Daily without Sunday $5.50.

This is nearly a two dollar reduction from the price by the month. This price holds good to Jan. 5. The quicker you get your order in the more paper you will get for the same money. This is only about 85c higher than the price last year. See or phone

L. P. HENSLEE, Authorized Agt

Winter is the great saw and hammer time on the farm. It might be called the "catching up time." A hundred little repairs, put off in the rush of the growing and harvest seasons, are to be done. The new barn for the cattle and horses, the hen house that is needed so much, or the implement shed which is bound to pay for itself by saving expensive farm tools from the weather, and other structures are to be built.

Saw and hammer time has an usual importance this year. The price of farm products are high and we must save every pound of grain and feed. Only true conversation will permit us to send the Allies food and still have enough for our own people. Therefore the farmer must have the proper buildings to care for his crop.

We have plenty of good, strong Southern Pine lumber in our sheds the kind of lumber our Government is using in cantonments and ship building. Come in and look over some of our modern farm building plans.

Bill Rone, son of J. H. Rone of Dressy, came home last Friday from Camp Travis, being mustered out of service. He was in the 165th Depot Brigade. He states that they are discharging about one thousand a day there now. He was the first boy we know of to be returned home from service. He was inducted into ser-

PEOPLE WHO ARE LEFT OUT OF THE ROLL CALL

Population of the United States Asked to Stand Up and Be Counted.

By GERALD STANLEY LEE.

I had a friend once named Old Bill Spear, who was the curator and founder of the John Quincy Adams Memorial in Quincy, Mass. He conceived the idea of making the house into a memorial and, with his genius as a collector of old furniture, filled it with things to see.

People came from everywhere, and as twenty-five cents apiece they went about to see the things Bill had collected and hear Bill talk.

Bill felt very superior to most collectors. "Just collectors," Bill said, "collect anything."

Bill mostly counted the people up when they came in the door, but when he went outside some of the people and some of the things he had to take them up to the attic to also count the things. He would show them a basket full of things and they wouldn't quite see, and then I would see his hand with a pencil who got to an impressive tone as they stopped to look closer. "This is the only collection of things I have ever had," Bill said, and just looked a week. "That's all," he said, "I know, that he didn't bother to count how many things."

Some of the people who are proposing to go on into the streets Red Cross Christmas food, and gather up everybody to join the Red Cross, seem to think that the only thing there is to do is to go out and get the things that they don't belong to belong to the people who have paid one dollar in the year.

I felt a little superior to this at first and began thinking how I wouldn't do it. But when I began thinking what the best Christmas of people had, I would do it by just being the biggest and best was the same thing with a dollar and a dollar, it became impressive.

It would be impressive if forty million people in America all wanted the same thing with the same dollar. I wanted the same thing would be a nation praying—all the grown-up people of a nation with their little half-conscious children round them—prayer.

The dollar a man joined with would not be a mere one dollar. The dollar would be a reward to every man in America that 25,000,000 other men or women belonged to him, and that he belonged to them in getting what he wanted for three million soldier boys and for their children at home.

Forty million people—all the grown-up people in this country pick out three million men and say to the three million men they have picked out, "You go and die for us, you go and be saviors of the world and die on our crosses for us!"

When what do the forty million do? It would be something if we would all line up—the whole forty million of us to a man, with our little pulled insipid speechless dollar bills in our hands from Maine to California Christmas Week, and use our two dollar bills a year as ballots, stand up in line and be counted and vote for the man we want to see that we vote one carfare once in two weeks and bodies of the children of the men who have made a standing offer to die on our crosses for us!

Who wants to be left out of this line by Christmas Eve? Who man who let himself be left out would feel safe in his own house with his own children climbing up into his lap believing in him—safe with his own baby pulling on his face, jabbing his small trustful fists in his eyes—if he let himself be left out?

Of course, it seems a little like a mockery to cable over to France Christmas Eve that we give one carfare once in two weeks to the children of the men we picked out to die for us, but it would be a start.

Nobody needs to think it would be a big thing just to belong to the Red Cross, but it is going to be a big thing to be left out.

The Square Deal

There is no greater satisfaction than to do what you believe is RIGHT and then to have your actions be of profit to you.

We are decent enough to give the Square Deal to our customers—but we are also human enough to be mightily pleased when we find our attitude appreciated to the extent that we Hold Our Business and even increase it in times like the present.

CHARITY FLIPPIN DEAD

Mrs. Charity E. Flippin, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of this place, died Dec. 8, 4.30 P. M., at the home of her father-in-law E. L. Flippin, near Pioneer, and was buried in Cross Plains cemetery on Dec. 9, the Rev. R. D. Carter conducting the services. She was afflicted with influenza. She was married about 8 months ago to Tom Flippin of Pioneer. She leaves her husband, her parents, a brother, J. G. Miller, and one sister Mrs. Tarver, and many other relatives and friends to mourn her death. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

COTTONWOOD NEWS

Miss Lavada Houston and brother Shofal are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Frank Champion is very low. Her son H. W. was taken to Abilene yesterday to be operated on.

Mable Wilson spent Monday night with Viola Ellis.

Miss Zora Arvin who has been attending school at Albany has returned home. She has the flu but it is doing nicely now.

Mae Everett and cousin Irene visited their cousin, Angie Everett at Baird Saturday night and Sunday.

P. G. Freeland made a business trip to Baird Saturday.

Mrs. Will Bennett has been real sick the last few days but is reported better at present.

Mrs. J. M. Griffin was buried on Thursday Dec. 5.

Grandma Griffin as she was lovingly called by all who knew her, was known and loved by everybody. She and her husband, Rev. J. M. Griffin were early settlers in Callahan County. One by one these pioneers are being called home to glory. Grandma Griffith was a member of the Primitive Baptist church. Her life was at all times consistent with her profession. She was known for miles around for her kindness and hospitality. She raised a family of six children, three boys and three girls, all of whom reflect the teachings of their parents in the recitude of their own lives.

Funeral services were held by Rev. J. C. Foster of the Primitive Baptist Church at this place.

Ida Coats, small daughter of Mr. John Coats, has been sick but is some better now.

Mrs. Will Everett from Baird attended the funeral of Mrs. J. M. Griffin at this place Thursday.

Minnie Belle, the small daughter of Mr. Manning of this place has been real sick with scarlatina but is improving.

Lonnie Childers of the Hall ranch was in town Tuesday.

Miss Clara Gould of Burkett is visiting her sister Mrs. Oscar McDermott this week.
