HER BIT

We doubt if any civilian has done more to help win the war, according to his or her ability than has Aunt Jane Henderson, who lives alone near Uncle Jim Cottman's in the old town. She owns but little property, and has invested the most of her money in the war. She has bought $400 worth of Liberty Bonds and $500 worth of War Saving Stamps. Also she done a pretty good thing for the Red Cross. She quilted four quilts, pieced nine, and furnished the material for two. Hers is a good record and if anybody can beat it we would like to be able to publish it.

ALBIN WELL TO SPUD IN

The long-delayed tools for Litzinger well on the Albin farm arrived on Tuesday, after being looked for for a month. Mr. Yost, manager of the well, has had his men here for several days waiting for the tools. The derrick has been up some time and the well will be spudded in next week as soon as they can get rigged up. This is our nearest well to be started and its development will be watched with great interest.

The Odum well on the Brown survey west of town is again shut down waiting for repairs.

The Childs well on the J. Sayers is drilling at about 700.

The Cordwell well is still waiting for casing.

The following men are now located with us and are interested in oil development:

R. W. Judkins, Pittsburg; E. E. Kelly, W. K. Hays, T. C. Hackett, H. E. Osborne, of Butler, Pa. All of them say the prospects for oil here are very flattering.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLS SELF

The Burkett country has been shocked by death of Homer Burton, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burton of that place, on Wednesday, who lost his life on account of accidentally shooting himself with a shotgun on Monday afternoon while duck hunting.

It is supposed that he held both hands over the muzzle of the gun which was discharged, the load passing thru both hands into his chest. Everything was done to save his life to no avail. We offer our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives.

LEONARD WORLEY DIES

Mrs. Carrie J. Cross received a letter on last Friday from England announcing the death from pneumonia of her son, Pvt. Leonard F. Worley, on Oct. 12, in a British field hospital. The letter was written by the chaplain who attended him in his last hours, and was dated October 14. Leonard wrote a letter to his mother on Oct. 6, both of the letters reaching here at the same time. On or just before the 6th he had been sent to the rest camp from the front. At that time he was suffering with a slight cold.

He was called to service from Denton County in March, and was trained for a short time at Camp Travis and later in Georgia. He sailed for France from New Port News about June 6.

He was 22 years of age. He spent his boyhood days in the Burkett country where he is kindly remembered by the old timers. He gave his life to a great cause. The whole country offers its sincerest sympathy to the grief-stricken mother and other relatives.

BIG NEW HOME COMPANY

There is an announcement elsewhere in this issue of the Sabano Oil Company a joint stock Association which has recently been organized with the home office at DeLeon, Texas. The Sabano Oil Company, with B. J. Pittman Cashier of the First National Bank at DeLeon, Texas, as Treasurer. Trustees have recently purchased the property and the well now drilling known as the Downing Well. This company is offering only ten thousand shares of stock for sale at its par value of $1.00 per share. This is on the ground floor basis. This stock in the Sabano Oil Company is being rapidly taken. Subscriptions, coming in from all over the country.

The company's well is now drilling at 1,300 feet. The Downing Well is over a structure that geologists say it is as good as any in the West Texas fields.

The officer of the Sabano Oil Company are Mr. B. J. Pittman Cashier of First National Bank, DeLeon, Texas, C. L. Butler, President Security Bank, Healdton Okla. Frank Carter, resident of DeLeon Texas for thirty five years, Chas. L. Harless DeLeon, and M. T. Smith, Field Supt. Kewanee Oil and Gas Company. Adv.

XMAS. THOUGHTS

CLARENCE BARCLAY DEAD

The beautiful soul of Clarence Barclay was called away to home of eternal rest, Nov. 1, 1918. Sad are the friends that mourn his death. Still peaceful are their minds knowing he is safe in the arms of Jesus. Always kind were the words of the noble Christian. He was a member of the Baptist Church and proved to be true to his God. Among his friends, his life was like the pure lily of the valley. Upon his brow was stamped purity; while out of his eyes shone nobility, and his words rang truth. Never was he known to cause a heart to ache by cross unkind words but to those who were sad and in trouble, he was ready and willing to cheer.

May the young stop and think: may they take his life as a model and live the pure and noble life of our dear one. To those who were blessed in knowing him, his life shall be as a bright guiding star, to them to greet him on high.

Weep not dear mother, sister and friends, for the love one has gone to rest.

MORE HOMES NEEDED

One of the biggest needs of Cross Plains is more houses for rent. Every winter since the new town built there has been scarcity of homes for families that wanted to move here. Just now likely a dozen families would be living in the same place. Money can get good dividends out of such an investment and besides doing a good thing for the community.

Building Paper, Window Glass and Floor Paints in stock. J. H. Shackelford, Lumber.

Winter is the great saw and hammer time on the farm. It might be called the "catching up time." A hundred little repairs, put off in the rush of the growing and harvest seasons, are to be done. The new barn for the cattle and horses, the hen house that is needed so much, or the implement shed which is bound to pay for itself by saving expensive farm tools from the weather, and other structures are to be built.

Saw and hammer time has an usual importance this year. The price of farm products are high and we must save every pound of grain and feed. Only true conversation will permit us to send the Allies food and still have enough for our own people. Therefore the farmer must have the proper buildings to care for his crop.

We have plenty of good, strong Southern Pine lumber in our sheds the kind of lumber our Government is using in cantonments and ship building. Come in and look over some of our modern farm building plans.

FROM FLORIDA

Jacksonville, Florida. Dec. 1, 1918. Miss Dora Cavanaugh,

Dear Friend; I will try and write you a few lines as I have got stationed again.

I will tell you about my trip from Camp Travis to Jacksonville Florida. I enjoyed my trip very much but would have enjoyed it much more if I had not been guard on the train. I got relief at 12 o'clock that night and was glad indeed for there was some gambling going on between the whites and blacks and they got mad. One of the negroes broke across the guard line just above me and a M. P. shot him and missed the rest. They have been giving lots of trouble but since the M. P. killed one they have been quiet. Believe me I was glad when my time was off.

We came thru Louisiana on our trip. It sure is a pretty country, I believe I like it better than I do Florida. We saw large fields of ribbon cane, also peanuts and sweet potatoes, all kind of vegetables. The timber there sure is beautiful especially the pine trees. All of the pine trees are notched and at the bottom of the tree is a cup which is to catch the sap and they manufacture it and make turpentine.

I sure did enjoy my ride across the Mississippi River. It was up and the water sure was muddy but the steamer sure did ride smooth. We were not no time crossing it as it was just one mile wide.

I saw a sea plane on Pensacola Bay. It sure was pretty. It was floating along on the water and all at once it left the water and was flying in the air. It would dip down and then rise again.

I saw five large steamships on Pensacola Bay and the men were fishing with nets.

Florida is a pretty country. There are lots of orange orchards here and they sure do look good to a hungry soldier boy, for they are always hungry for fruit.

I saw lots of rice fields on my trip. They were mostly covered with water. I saw a rice binder but was just about two feet of it out of water. It rained about 18 inch rain in Louisiana a few days before we came thru there.

Well, I will describe my dining room. It is made of eight poles and the roof is covered with palmfan leaves. The sides are not covered at all. This is a very good dining room. Our tables are made 4 feet wide and 80 feet long. There are three tables to one room. Our dining chairs are the latest style made of boxing plank. This is the only kind of a chair we have in camp or the only kind I have seen.

I have got my woolen suit and a pair of hobnail shoes. When I get dressed up I am some guy. My shoes rattle on the rocks like a tin can tied to a horse's tail.

Well, I will close and write more next time. Tell all my friends hello. Success to you. Yours truly, Fred Gould, F. R. S. 356. Camp Joe E Johnston, Jacksonville, Florida.

Grant Hill, who has just been mustered out of service from Camp Travis, has been visiting his brother, Raleigh Hill of this place. He states that the War department are discharging five hundred boys daily.

FURNISHING BOOKS TO SOLDIERS

The American Library Association and the Army Y. M. C. A. co-operate in their plan to encourage good reading among soldiers. This is a corner of a Y. M. C. A. building in the Southern Department utilized as a library for the soldiers. "Foxy Grandpa" behind the counter is popular with the men, and each of the five hundred books in the little library are passed out on an average of twice each month. "Foxy Grandpa" has another responsibility. He presents a new khaki-covered new Testament to every soldier who asks for it, and a surprisingly large number of the men request the little book. In fact, most of the soldiers have made it a part of their equipment. They are furnished free by the Army Y. M. C. A.

MEAT PRODUCERS DID FULL DUTY

Increase in American Hogs Will Help to Meet World Fat Shortage.

FARMERS SAVE SITUATION.

Government Justified in Stimulation of Pork Production—Sevenfold Increase Over Pre-War Exports.

Through increased production and conservation we will be able this year to export seven times our pre-war average exports of pork products. With the heavy demands added in caring for the millions who have been freed from German oppression, the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration are justified today in our every action of stimulation of hog production. In the coming year the greatest world shortage will be in fats, and pork will help to save this situation. The efficacy of the policy of stimulated production has built up in this country supplies which will enable us to supply a very large part of the fat deficiency of the world. In beef there must be a shortage in Europe, due largely to limited refrigerator ship capacity. All freezer ships available, however, will be filled by America, Argentina and Australia.

The contribution made by the producers of this country to the war program as applying particularly to animal food products is illustrated by the following:

Reports compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate an increase in cattle of 10,238,000 head and 12,411,000 hogs. These figures were compiled to January 1 last.

In this period there was a decrease in sheep of $10,000 head. The indications are that this decrease will show an increase, according to recent reports.

Since January 1 unofficial information indicates an increase in hogs of not less than 8 per cent, and not more than 15 per cent, as compared with one year ago, with an increase in the average weight.

Following the request of the U. S. Food Administration for an increase in hog production for marketing in the fall of 1918 and the spring of 1919 the increase may yield not less than 1,000,000,000 pounds more of pork products than were available last year. Without this increase the shipping program arranged by Mr. Hoover regarding animal food products would have been impossible.

The dressed hog products during the three months ending September 30, 1917, amounted to 903,172,000 pounds, while for the corresponding months of 1918 the dressed hog products totaled 1,277,280,000, an increase of over 374,000,000 pounds for the quarter.

During the same period for 1917 the records of inspected slaughter of dressed beef showed 1,263,000,000 pounds as against 1,454,000,000 pounds for the three month period ending September 1, this year.

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies In Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the interallied food council. And because the American food army had hitherto made good they took heart and went forward.

Farm enterprise and much soft corn. Increased pork supplies, food conservation increased exports—total shipments doubled.

FAITH JUSTIFIED BY EVENTS.

I do not believe that drastic force need be applied to maintain economic distribution and sane use of supplies by the great majority of American people, and I have learned a deep and abiding faith in the intelligence of the average American business man, whose aid we anticipate and depend on to remedy the evils developed by the war.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Shows Heart of America Beat True for Freedom

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people attributed the continued strength and morale of the Allies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in months to come. In the past we have carried out an export program the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with new demands that have come the liberation of nations from German oppression, our exports are almost doubled. Instead of 1,000 tons, we must ship twenty million tons of food to Europe in the year—as much as can be carried through our ports.

If the Allies had not been in America, it would have been impossible for them to maintain their defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a voluntary basis, the Americans have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that it need not rise to its own defense.

If there were no other accomplishment to its credit the very fact has shown the strength of democracy in itself more than justify the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet the food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his conviction that awakened democracy would be irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously the four months in the fear that a cratic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. Germany has been confident that it could be done. Contrary proof is furnished at our door, and our people have readily demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and voluntarily and efficiently in their reactions and upon the mere suggestion aside from the rear assembly of our Army and Navy."

The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the faith of those who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced.

The Sabano Oil DOWNING WELL.

This proposition gone over by two reputable geologists

The Trustees of this Association are men of unquestionable business ability and integrity. The affairs of this Association will be handled along conservative lines and to the best interests of this Association's stockholders.

We are promising you we will make a location soon. We don't promise that we will drill in three or four months or as soon as casing can be purchased, and derrick bought and built and a contractor secured and drilling tools shipped here. Those necessary materials are hard, yes next to impossible to get.

But we do promise you that stock in this Company is good in the Downing Well now drilling at 1,300 feet. We have our casing, we have our contractor we have our derricks and our tools and we are drilling now with all the speed that precaution will allow.

The Downing well is over a structure that Geologists say is as good as any in this country. This well would be drilled by DeLeon, Proctor, Gussone, Comanche, and other surrounding towns more than any other well. DeLeon would be a bigger oil center, Comanche would thrive with oil operators. Then your opportunity to make this possible is yours to day. We invite your cooperation and to become a stockholder. We invite your inspection of the Company's affairs and its methods of handling its business, Because We Know It Will Stand Inspection And Meet Your Approval.

The trustee of the Sabano Oil Company have authorized the sale of only 10,000 shares of its stock at par, $1.00 per share. Can you afford to miss this opportunity?

Reports compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate an increase in cattle of 10,238,000 head and 12,411,000 hogs. These figures were compiled to January 1 last. In this period there was a decrease in sheep of $10,000 head. The indications are that this decrease will show an increase, according to recent reports.

Since January 1 unofficial information indicates an increase in hogs of not less than 8 per cent, and not more than 15 per cent, as compared with one year ago, with an increase in the average weight.

Following the request of the U. S. Food Administration for an increase in hog production for marketing in the fall of 1918 and the spring of 1919, the increase may yield not less than 1,000,000,000 pounds more of pork products than were available last year. Without this increase the shipping program arranged by Mr. Hoover regarding animal food products would have been impossible.

The dressed hog products during the three months ending September 30, 1917, amounted to 903,172,000 pounds, while for the corresponding months of 1918 the dressed hog products totaled 1,277,580,000, an increase of over 374,000,000 pounds for the quarter.

During the same period for 1917 the records of inspected slaughter of dressed beef showed 1,263,000,000 pounds as against 1,454,000,000 pounds for the three month period ending September 1, this year.

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies In Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the intermilled food council. And because the American food army has hitherto made good they took heart and went forward.

Farm enterprise and much soft corn increased pork supplies, food conservation increased exports—total shipments doubled.

FAITH JUSTIFIED BY EVENTS.

I do not believe that drastic force need be applied to maintain economic distribution and sane use of supplies by the great majority of American people, and I have learned a deep and abiding faith in the intelligence of the average American business man, whose aid we anticipate and depend on to remedy the evils developed by the war.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

Voluntary Basis of Food Shows Heart of America Beat True for Freedom

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people attributed the continued strength and morale of the Allies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in months to come. In the past we have carried out an export program the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with new demands that have come from the liberation of nations from German oppression, our exports have almost doubled. Instead of 1,000 tons, we must ship twenty-two tons of food to Europe in the year—as much as can be shipped through our ports.

If the Allies had not been able for them to maintain a defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a voluntary basis, the American people have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that it need not rise to its own defense. If there were no other accountment to its credit the very fact has shown the strength of democracy in itself more than the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the United States Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet the food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his belief that awakened democracy would be irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously in four months in the face of a chaotic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. One has been confident that it could be done. Contrary proof is furnished at our door, and our people have readily demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and act voluntarily and efficiently in all directions and upon the mere inspiration aside from the remembrance of our Army and Navy. The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the thousands who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's "Starb" Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's "Starb" Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

IMPORTANT DON'T WAIT TILL AFTER CHRISTMAS.

Our students are with us from many different states and the majority of them do not go home for the holidays owing to the great distance, therefore we teach right through the holidays. The sooner you enter, the sooner you will be holding a good position. Our school is like a big bank or mercantile establishment. It runs through the year, we are always well organized and receiving new business every day. Every student gets individual instruction; he is not held back by slow students, or crowded to fast by bright ones; he goes just as his ability will permit. Should he happen to be slow or backward in his work, he is not embarrassed by others knowing how he is getting along. With our method of individual instruction, and our own copyrighted systems, we are demonstrating that it is useless to attend a commercial school teaching other systems and requiring from seven to ten months to finish the course, when they can finish with us in half that time at half the cost, be more efficient and get a better position, because of their thorough and extensive training. It is our practical methods, our personal attention and our modern systems that enables us to accomplish as much in so short a time.

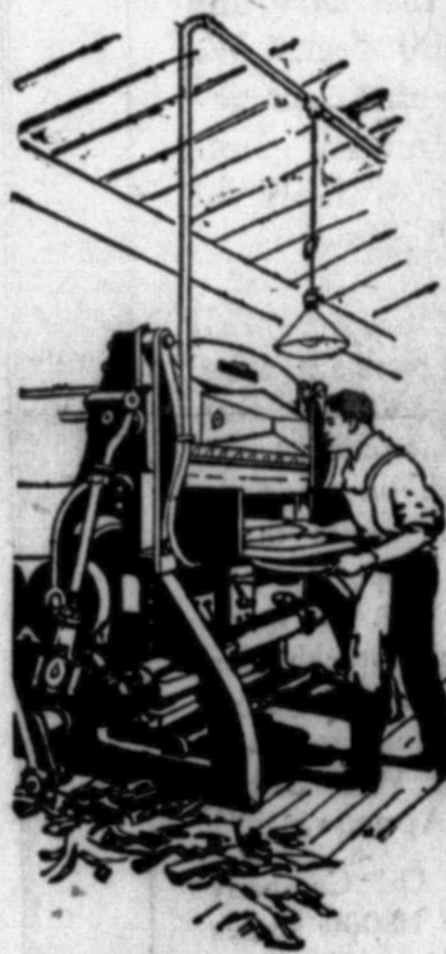

Our literary subjects, which are given free with our courses, are woven into the main courses in such a practical way that they are mastered in half the time required by the old methods and are thoroughly understood from practical application. We guarantee a better course in less time, at less expense, and a better position than any other school, and it is evident that we have been securing these results or we could not have built up an annual enrollment of more than 3000, and drawn patronage from 39 states and seven foreign countries, and received the approval of the Government to train the returning soldiers and sailors.

KEPT PLEDGE TO SEND BREAD

American Nation Maintained Al- lied Loaf Through Self-Denial at Home Table.

AVERTED EUROPEAN DESPAIR.

With Military Demands Upon Ocean Shipping Relieved, World is Able to Return to Normal White Wheat Bread.

Since the advent of the latest wheat crop the only limitation upon American exports to Europe has been the shortage of shipping. Between July 1 and October 10 we shipped 65,980,305 bushels. If this rate should continue until the end of the fiscal year we will have furnished the Allies with more than 237,500,000 bushels of wheat and flour in terms of wheat.

The result of increased production and conservation efforts in the United States has been that with the cessation of hostilities we are able to return to a normal wheat diet. Supplies that have accumulated in Australia, Argentina and other hitherto inaccessible markets may be tapped by ships released from transport service, and European demand for American wheat probably will not exceed our normal surplus. There is wheat enough available to have a white loaf at the common table.

But last year the tale was different. Only by the greatest possible saving and sacrifice were we able to keep a steady stream of wheat and flour moving across the sea. We found ourselves at the beginning of the harvest year with an unusually short crop. Even the most optimistic statisticians figured that we had a bare surplus of 20,000,000 bushels. And yet Europe was facing the probability of a bread famine—and in Europe bread is by far the most important article in the diet.

All of this surplus had left the country early in the fall. By the first of the year we had managed to ship a little more than 50,000,000 bushels by practicing the utmost economy at home—by wheatless days, wheatless meals, heavy substitution of other cereals and by sacrifice at almost every meal throughout the country.

In January the late Lord Rhonda, then British Food Controller, called that only if we sent an additional 75,000,000 bushels before July 1 could he take the responsibility of assuring his people that they would be fed.

The response of the American people was 55,000,000 bushels safely delivered overseas between January 1 and July 1. Out of a harvest which gave us only 20,000,000 bushels surplus we actually shipped 141,000,000 bushels.

Thus did America fulfill her pledge that the Allied bread rations could be maintained, and already the American people are demonstrating that, with an awakened war conscience, last year's figures will be bettered.

Our exports since the country entered the war have justified a statement made by the Food Administration shortly after its conception, outlining the principles and policies that would govern the solution of this country's food problems.

"The whole foundation of democracy," declared the Food Administration, "lies in the individual initiative of its people and their willingness to serve the interests of the nation with complete self-effacement in the time of emergency. Democracy can yield to discipline, and we can solve this food problem for our own people and for the Allies in this way. To have done so will have been a greater service than our immediate objective, for we have demonstrated the righteousness of our faith and our ability to defend ourselves without being Prussianized."

of democratic efficiency.

SUGAR SHOWED OUR BACKBONE

American Willingness to Give Up Luxury Demonstrated Nation's War Conscience.

STAND WITH THE ALLIES.

By Reducing Consumption People of the United States Averted a Famine at Home in Spite of Low Supplies.

The fact that the people of the United States were able to reduce by more than one-half million tons their July, August, September and October consumption of sugar proves conclusively that their war conscience was thoroughly awakened and that the country as a whole stood ready to follow the injunctions of the Government.
Our normal consumption of sugar in the four-month period beginning with July has been 400,000 tons per month,
a total of 1,600,000 for the quarter
year.

In July, when our sugar stringency began to reach its height, consumption was reduced to 200,000 tons. In August only 325,000 tons went into distribution and in September only 270, 000 tons. In October the distribution fell to 250,000 tons.

If the general public had failed to observe the injunctions of the Food Administration, this country would have been in the throes of a sugar famine before the end of August. Our visible supplies were so low as to bring great anxiety to those familiar with the sugar situation. They feared that it would be absolutely impossible to reduce consumption to a point where sugar would no longer be a mere luxury in the American diet.

Few accomplishments of the Food Administration will stand forth so predominantly as this reduced consumption of sugar. By it we have been able to bridge over the period of stringency until the new beet and Louisiana cane sugar crops were in sight.

Now the nation is in a position so that if we choose we may return to our normal home use of sugar, and Europe, with the release of ships to go far afield, can maintain its recent restricted rations. If, however, those nations are to increase their use of sugar very considerably it must be by our continued sharing with them through limiting our own consumption.

AMERICAN SPIRIT RELIED ON TO WIN.

In the light of succeeding events it is interesting to recall the confidence with which the United States Food Administrator viewed the gloomy outlook in July of 1917, when this country had been in the war for less than four months and the Germans were steadily sending the western front nearer and nearer to Paris.

"Even though the situation in Europe may be gloomy today," he declared in a public statement, "no American who has knowledge of the results already obtained in every direction need have one atom of fear that democracy will not defend itself in these United States."

LOYALTY IN LITTLE THINGS LAST PROOF OF PATRIOTISM

Americans without murmuring cut their sugar allowance from four pounds a month to three and then as long as need be to two pounds for loyalty's sake.

Food Will Win the World.

America earned the gratitude of afflicted nations during war by sharing food. America under peace may win the world's good will by saving to share.

DEMOCRACY VS. AUTOCRACY.
"There is no royal road to food conservation. We can only accomplish this by the voluntary action of our whole people, each element in proportion to its needs. It is a matter of equality of burden."

The truth of this statement, made by the United States Food Administrator soon after we entered the war, has been borne out by the history of our exports. Autocratic food control in the lands of our enemies has broken down, while democratic food sharing has maintained the health and strength of this country and of the Allies.

COMAL ITEMS

ally, morally and religiously. It is glorious to die for such a cause.
It is one of the greatest honors to give our sons for the good of the world.

I am as ever your friend in true
sympathy,
R. D. Carter.

FROM ROY C. MITCHELL

Miss Mertie Atwood,
My Dear Cousin;
Received your letter of the 1st of October and how much cheer and comfort that was wrapped up in every word I cannot begin to tell, for it caught me where one is in great need of cheering words and that is when he is at the front where many a mother son dies fighting for the flag that he loves.

Yet my God and father has it his will to let me come thru it all thus far safe and how much am I indebted to him for his kindness and love.

I have written several poems on some of the incidents I have witnessed but have not the time to write you some of them to night but will send you some later.

Yes our glorious flag is grand and we are making it more recognized each day among all being the grandest in all the world.

I hope you will soon be well and I wish I could find you well
when I come home.

Tell Ruby hello for me and many are the thoughts of you both each day.

Yes the prayers of those at home can and will help us all to come thru safe if each one will pray with faith acceptable to him.

Give Bro. Strickland my best regards, and tell him I am as strong in Christ as ever.

Yes Tommie Aikens was our friend and we hated to see him go but it was Gods will.

Give his mother my best regards and sympathy.

CHAS. J. WILSON DEAD

A phone message from Abilene
to the editor this morning said Chas. J. Wilson, formerly of Cottonwood, Baird and Clude, had died at Abilene this morning and the funeral would be held at Abilene at 2 P. M.
Saturday, Nov. 23rd.

Charlie Wilson was well known in Callahan county, having published the Cottonwood Producer for several years, moved to Baird, later went to Clyde where he published a paper for some time. He moved to Abilene. It is with sorrow that we chronicle the death of Mr. Wilson.

The Flu Bad Again

Just when we thought we were fortunate to have got by the flu epidemic with so little suffering, this disease is now more prevalent among us than before, but not we are glad to say, any more violent. A number of families are badly besieged with it, but none are serious. Every precaution should be taken to prevent its spread.
