Thanksgiving Proclamation TO THE PEOPLE OF CROSS PLAINS:

In keeping with the well-established and hallowed custom, sacred in its inception and cultured in its character, begun more than three hundred years ago by the Christian fathers who planted upon this continent the seed of religious liberty, and laid the foundation for our present-day civilization, it is befitting and proper that one day each year be set aside as a day of Thanksgiving.

The people of Cross Plains have abundant cause for returning thanks for the material blessings which this year have been given to them. Peace and plenty have been ours. The people have been blessed with good health generally. We are not distracted by domestic discord. Every citizen is guaranteed the unabridged right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

THEREFORE, as a people grateful for the heritage of the past, the opportunities of the present and the promises of the future, and in conformity with the long-standing and honored custom, let us observe November 21st as—throughout Cross Plains and its territory. Let every citizen residing within Cross Plains, and this territory, if they will, join on this day, consecrated by observance, in thanks to God for life, bounteous gifts, materials and spiritual blessings, that have fallen from His hand.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, C. S. Martin, Mayor of the City of Cross Plains, Texas, have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the City of Cross Plains, Texas, to be affixed hereon, at Cross Plains, Texas, this 21st day of November, A.D., 1940.

Funeral services were to be held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock in the Dressy Methodist church, with Rev. J. D. Farmer officiating. The Rev. Mr. Farmer was pastor of the Dressy church until last week when he was transferred to Evant and because of the Stacy family's devoted service to the church had come to be very close friend of the deceased and her husband. Interment was to be made in the Dressy cemetery.

News of Mrs. Stacy's passing cast a pall over the entire community Wednesday morning, for she was beloved by all who knew her. Survivors include the bereaved husband, one daughter, Mrs. Vernon Baird of Coleman, both parents, Mr. and Mrs. Green Jeans of Cross Plains, as well as a number of relatives and a great host of friends.

Due to the fact that this week's Review went to press earlier than usual, because of Thanksgiving, complete details of the funeral and an obituary were not available at "press time," however, this will be published in detail next week.

Game To Be Played Here This Afternoon Beginning 2:30 On High School Gridiron

Cross Plains high school Buffaloes and Rising Star Wildcats will tangle on the gridiron here Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in their traditional "Turkey Day" grudge game. Largest crowd of the season is expected to be present, due to the fact that the game will be homecoming for all former students of Cross Plains schools, and in addition several hundred Rising Star fans are expected to follow their team here.

Neither coach would say yesterday just what his starting line-up would be, however, the names, weights and positions of every player on both squads is listed below, and it is expected that the 11 first named will receive starting assignments for Rising Star. Cross Plains will likely open with the same combination as took the field against Baird here last Friday night.

Home Town Gossip

First on the pumpkin time again, and of course means Thanksgiving, and in Plains Thanksgiving means football game between the rising herd of this city and blithered foes the Rising Wildcats.

Thursday afternoon on school grid spectacle will underway. This column's opinion is that coach "Soc" and his athletes will overwhelm the athletes to the tune of about 12-0.

There will be the last on the grid this year and will be a song "before local audience" 12 members of this year's completing their eligibility. They are: Mac Smith, Norman Hoyt Byrd, Pat Moore, Ebb R. C. Warren, "Foxy" Donald Smith, Mike Moore, Fortune and O'Dell.

It is pleasant to imagine how Plains will get along in a way next year without the loss of these boys. Some of the boys worn the colors for three years, others very valiantly only one and two. These gridriders will be out to their careers before the big game in a blaze of glory and for that reason it looks as if the Buffaloes will be on the grid.

BUSINESS PICKING UP SAYS COUNTY'S ONLY FORD DEALER

The Earl Johnson Motor Company of Baird, Callahan county's only Ford dealership, announces that it can now deliver new 1941 model Lincoln Zephyrs, Mercurys and Fords without delay. The organization, headed by Earl Johnson, regularly employs six people. Bernice Andrews is head of the sales department and Miss Dorothy Barnhill is office manager. The firm is located on the East side of North Main Street in Baird, less than a half block South of the courthouse.

"Business in Callahan county has taken a decided turn for the better in recent months and indications are now that 1940 will go down in the books as one of the best business years in the past 12", Mr. Johnson declared.

LOCAL EASTERN STARS TO HAVE BAKE SALE SAT.

Cross Plains chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a bake sale Saturday at Piggly Wiggly, the organization announced Tuesday.

Cakes and pies will be the chief merchandise.

Highway plans as have been mapped by the Cross Plains Chamber of Commerce and are being cooperated with by county officials, Chambers of Commerce at a number of near-by cities, and have in a measure been approved by the state highway department, may cause this little city to eventually become an important hub in a great highway "wheel."

Allocation of Camp Bowie at Brownwood may play an important part in the scheme and cause a state highway maintenance office to be located permanently in Cross Plains in addition to the completion of a number of roads as have already been planned by local civic leaders.

It is pointed out that under the defense program the federal government is stressing the building of roads which might be used for military purposes in the event of national emergency.

That portion of highway 36 from Cross Plains to Abilene is expected to be completed early in 1941, believe local backers of the road who have been pushing its ultimate culmination for more than five years. At present a project underway in commissioners precinct four of Callahan county, which when completed will leave only a 5.4 mile gap between Cross Plains and the intersection of the Baird-Coleman highway. In commissioners precinct two there is also underway another project which when completed will leave only 4.5 miles unfinished from Abilene to the Coleman-Baird highway. This 10 miles has been placed on the highway program for next year, according to a recent letter from the state engineer, and due to the allocation of Camp Bowie at Brownwood the highway is expected to be opened as soon as possible due to the fact that it may become of military importance.

It is pointed out that Camp Bowie at Brownwood is the approximate hub for Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio, Fort Bliss at El Paso, the military concentration point at Mineral Wells and camps Fort Sill and Fort Crockett in Oklahoma. While no such commitment had yet been made by military authorities it is pointed out that the Brownwood camp, due to its geographical advantage, may become more and more important as time passes, and it is believed that this would tend to encourage road building throughout this entire section of Texas.

As soon as the Abilene-Cross Plains gap on highway 36 has been completed, local civic leaders will begin plugging for state designation and topping of the road from here to Brownwood. At present about 14 miles of this is already paved—that section from the city of Brownwood to the lake. The remaining distance is a little more than 32 miles. Of this, the right-of-way is already fenced and drainage structures built to the county line. From the Brown county line the right-of-way has been secured and fenced into the town of Cross Plains, with possibly the exception of about one mile and a half. Due to the fact that so much has already been done on the Brownwood-Cross Plains road by the two counties and also because the expenditure to complete the paving from Brownwood to Cross Plains would necessitate a small expenditure for the number of miles covered—there are no expensive bridges to be built—the state highway commission is expected to smile upon the proposition. In fact, a delegation of Brownwood and Cross Plains citizens was told by highway commission chairman Brady Gentry recently, that as soon as the Callahan county gaps in highway 36 were completed he would certainly approve the designation of the Brownwood-Cross Plains strip to tie-in with highway 36 at Cross Plains. Commissioner Robert Lee Bobbit also expressed himself as being in favor of building the road.

Still another arguing point in favor of the completion of the (Continued on page 8, sec 1)

OFF-HAND OBSERVATIONS

As this column is being written we have just emerged from the coldest weather this writer has ever experienced for this time of year and according to a weather report we heard over the radio it was the coldest weather, taking the whole country into consideration, that has been experienced for the time of the year in a century. Severe storms at many places over the nation were reported and many lives have been lost during the past week.

Across the ocean in Rumania a series of disastrous earth-quakes have been reported and the toll of lives was heavy, according to one report more destruction from the quake occurred in five minutes than would have resulted in many months of war.

Speaking of the weather, many parts of the country, and especially Texas, have recently been visited with rains varying in amounts from a fraction of an inch to several inches. From the Eagle Lake Headlight comes the following: "Since Monday this community has had six inches of rain. Entirely too much. Every one is hoping for a stiff dry norther. The east wind of Thursday was penetrating and very disagreeable."

In looking over our exchanges this week we came across the following, which we believe to be the best definitions of this kind that has come to our attention:—"A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman, of the next generation." In thinking over these two statements one must conclude there are very few statesmen to be found in our public life at the present time. Probably this is the reason for the condition of the country as it is today.

Mrs. Ferguson, a widely known columnist, says it is the reason. She says our country has fallen into the clutches of the politicians and will never prosper until we pry ourselves loose from them and we are very much inclined to believe she is exactly right about it.

We have all heard of the Irish wit and now comes the story of a rise by an Irishman during the World War to get his garden dug up. He was stationed in France and received there wasn't an able-bodied man left at home and she was going to dig the garden herself.

Pat thought the matter over and wrote as follows in the beginning of his next letter:—"Bridget, please don't dig the garden, that's where the guns are." The letter, of course, was duly censored and in a short time a load of men in uniform arrived at Pat's home and proceeded to thoroughly dig the garden from end to end. According Bridget she did not understand and wrote Pat she did not know what to do about it. His answer was short and very much to the point:—"Go ahead and plant the potatoes."

According to a recent survey the world at large may have to depend more and more upon the 200,000,000 acre forest of our southern gulf coast for its pulp supply if the war in Europe continues very long. Consumers, for and near, are already depending upon this vast forest area for its supply of paper and pulp in this country and the British are reported as now buying considerable tonnage of pulp here and in Canada.

The beloved Ignace Jan Paderewski, celebrated pianist the world over, and once president of the little country of Poland, has again arrived in this country. Mr. Paderewski is now 80 years old but declares his hands are as good as ever and he still plays the piano with zest.

We remember several years ago, after one of his musical tours of America, he bade this country farewell and said he was going home to spend the remainder of his life in his native land and would never have the pleasure of visiting this country again. Now, after war has devastated his home land he has returned to the United States, accompanied by an aged sister, to find a peaceful refuge and this country has received them with open arms, so to speak. He is reported to have said, "when millions are fighting or ready to fight for their lives or death, I simply could not remain an indifferent bystander."

Arabesque in style—the rose painted in center, gives it an English feeling. Combined with the rich, creamy color of the ware, the whole is a pattern of rare beauty.

FIRE DEATHS SHOW DECLINE PAST MONTHS

AUSTIN, November 22—A sharp decline in the number of fire deaths during the months of September and October was reported this week by Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner.

The monthly average through August had been approximately 32 deaths, but only 47 Texans were burned to death during September and October. "This report reflects a great deal of improvement, but the record is far from perfect," he said. "Our most dangerous fire death months are upon us, and I want to impress upon every person the importance of exercising caution, particularly in the homes."

The number of fire deaths for the first ten months of the year totalled 337. The leading causes of fatal burns were standing too close to open fires, improper use of gasoline, lack of proper exits, explosions.

TEXAS STATE TEACHERS CONVENTION THURSDAY

T. E. Robertson, rodeo pro who ran away from home who parents wanted him to become school teacher, will help Cow welcome more than 10,000 school teachers here Thursday.

Teachers from throughout state will converge on Fort V that day for the Texas State Teachers Assn. convention which runs through Sunday.

Mr. Robertson says that the tankark arena appealed to more in his youth, he still has a kindred feeling for the schooling profession. He announced one of the main events of the convention—the girls' mounted basketball game—will be dedicated to the retiring teachers.

The game is fast-moving, and kept the crowds screaming the time referee tosses his ball into the air until the last minute every night since show started. Played on hard court, the ball and heads for a goal the other team starts heading for the ball carrier off.

A blackboard revue will be held with the Top Hat and 8 Revue at Pioneer Palace for the rodeo each night during convention in honor of the well-known Ida Mae Heffington, well-known dance instructor, is directing the revue where cuties in slick up their heels on the above the long bar in Pioneer Palace.

A band plays for dancing and after the revue. Miss Cornell of Amarillo, who was all American Girl of the South on the opening day, will be presented at the rodeo and Pioneer Palace alone.

Some test were passed a few songs sung.

We are very happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Lawson and children into our community.

Burkett lost a 12 to 18 game to Talpa last Friday afternoon. There is only one more game to play and that will be at Buffalo Friday.

TEXAS STATE TEACHERS CONVENTION THURSDAY

T. E. Robertson, rodeo producer who ran away from home when his parents wanted him to become a school teacher, will help Cowtown welcome more than 10,000 visiting school teachers here Thursday.

Mr. Robertson says that though the tankard arena appealed to him more in his youth, he still has a kindred feeling for the school teaching profession. He announced that one of the main events of the rodeo—the girls' mounted basketball game—will be dedicated to the visiting teachers.

The game is fast-moving, and has kept the crowds screaming from the time referee tosses his ball into the air until the last goal is made here every night since the show started. Played on horseback it gets rough when one team gets the ball and heads for a goal and the other team starts heading the ball carrier off.

A blackboard revue will be staged with the Top Hat and Stetson Revue at Pioneer Palace following the rodeo each night during the convention in honor of the visitors. Ida Mae Heffington, well-known dance instructor, is director of the revue where cuties in scanties kick up their heels on the stage above the long bar in Pioneer Palace.

A band plays for dancing before and after the revue. Miss Ruth Cornell of Amarillo, who was titled all American Girl of the Southwest on the opening day, Will Rogers Day, will be presented at both the rodeo and Pioneer Palace along with sent. Some test were passed and a few songs sung.

We are very happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Lawhorn and children into our community.

MATTRESS MAKING PROGRAM WILL BE HELD AGAIN IN '41

Applications for Mattresses to Be Taken in 12 Communities Of County Saturday the 23

A 1940-41 Cotton Mattress Demonstration Program was inaugurated by the Land Use Planning Committee, County Home, Demonstration Council, Extension Service, and AAA, Saturday in a county-wide meeting Saturday, attended by representatives from Atwell, Admiral, Clyde, Cottonwood, Cross Plains, Denton, Eula, Enterprise, Midway, Oplin, Union, Putnam, and Zion Hill.

In general, the 1941 program will operate in the same manner as the 1940 program under which, 191,500 mattresses are being made in Texas according to Mildred Horton, vice-director and state home demonstration agent for the Extension Service. The scope of the program is limited to groups financially unable to purchase mattresses from commercial concerns and will interfere in no way with the sale of mattresses through commercial channels, she explained.

Families are eligible if they live in the country and had a total income of not more than $500 for the previous calendar year. For each member of the family in excess of four, this figure may be raised $50.

Families are eligible if they live in a village, town or city and receive at least one-half of their total income during the previous calendar year from agricultural occupations, providing of course, the total income was not more than $500.

Each eligible family may receive one mattress for each two persons in the family, not to exceed a total of three mattresses.

In interpreting the regulations of the program, R. T. Price, state administrative assistant of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and AAA supervisor for the project, explains that "total income" means the cash income received from all sources earned and collectible, plus the local market value of unsold farm products raised for sale or received as payment for services or rent and held for sale, minimum farm rent paid or to be paid in cash. As in the 1940 program, eligibility of rural families will be determined by county agricultural conservation committees.

Applications for mattresses under the 1941 program will be taken in Callahan County Saturday, November 23, at the following places: Admiral, Eubank's store, 2 and 5 pm; Atwell, Foster's store, 8am to 5 pm; Clyde, Pyatt's grocery store 8 am to 5 pm.

Cottonwood, Mrs. Floyd Coffey's home, 9am to 5 pm; Denton, Padon's store, 9 am to 5 pm; Eula, Eula store, 2 pm to 5 pm; Midway, Mrs. George Jones' home 9 am to 12 pm; Oplin, Morse store, 9 am to 5 pm; Union, Mrs. H. G. White's home, 9

School Rebuilt Where Tornado Struck

Pictured above is the reconstructed building of the Clyde school. A cyclone practically demolished the structure two years ago, tearing away the top story and badly damaging the first floor. The beautiful school plant above has arisen on the site of the ruins.

As long as there remains anywhere a love of oratory, men will read Mark Anthony's speech and the "Cross of Gold" address of Williams Jennings Bryan — (we were talking about him a few weeks ago—remember?) There is a thrill, even in cold type, to such declarations as these:

"We say to you that you have made the definition of a business man too limited in its application. The man who is employed for wages is as much a business man as his employer; the attorney in a country town is as much a business man as the corporation counsel in a great metropolis; the merchant at the cross-roads store is as much a business man as the merchant of New York; the farmer who goes forth in the morning and tills all day, who begins in spring and toils all summer, and who by the application of brain and muscle to the natural resources of the country creates wealth, is as much a business man as the man who goes upon the Board of Trade and bets upon the price of grain; the miners who go down a thousand feet into the earth of climb two thousand feet upon their cliffs and bring forth from their hiding places the precious metals to be poured into the channels of trade are as much business men as the few financial magnates who, in a back room, corner the money of the world.

"There are two ideas of government. There are those who believe that, if you will only legislate to make the well-to-do prosperous, their prosperity will leak through on those below. The Democratic idea, however, has been that if you legislate to make the masses prosperous, their prosperity will find its way up through every class which rests upon them.

"Burn down your cities will spring up again as if by magic; but destroy our farms and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in the country.

"Having behind us the producing masses of this nation and the world, supported by the commercial interests, the laboring interests and the toilers everywhere, we will answer their demand for a gold standard by saying to them: You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns; you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold."

No man—until the advent of the radio—was ever heard by as many people as was Bryan in the campaign of '06. He made as high as

30 speeches in a single day, including brief addresses from the back platform of his train; and millions came under the spell of his magnificent voice. Few candidates have stirred a greater enthusiasm and those whose hearts were broken when his colors trailed in the dust can understand these lines:

"Election night at midnight:
Boy Bryan's defeat.
Defeat of western silver.
Defeat of the wheat—
Defeat of the aspen groves of Colorado valleys.
The blue bells of the Rockies,
And blue bonnets of old Texas—
Defeat of alfalfa and the Mariposa Lily,
Defeat of the Pacific and the long Mississippi—
Defeat of my boyhood, defeat of my dream."

(Quoted by permission of Macmillan Company from Vachel Lindsay's "Selected Poems")

Though thrice failing to reach the goal of the Presidency, Bryan saw many of his reforms made into law and, even greater than these tangible results, was the influence of his grand character.

JOKE-OF-THE-MOMENT:
An American, planning to visit Germany and knowing the rigid censorship, told a friend that if conditions were bad, he would write a letter in red ink and then, regardless of the words, the friend would understand. In due course, a letter arrived. It read: "Conditions are great in Germany. Everything is wonderful. All these stories you hear are the bunk. We have plenty of food, plenty of clothes, plenty of fuel, plenty of everything. The only thing I have been unable to get is red ink."

A variant of that is the story about the American, writing from Germany to a friend in the United States, who declared, "Everything over here is grand. I wish you would tell this to my father and my brother; in fact, tell it to everybody and, above all, tell it to the marines."

DEFENDANTS FREED IN SKELETON CASE

Echoes of the notorious "hanging skeleton" case of several years ago were heard in district court at Eastland Monday morning when cases against Della Henry, Raymond Henry and Lynn Smith, defendants in trials growing out of that incident were dismissed on motion of the district attorney.

The "skeleton" trials grew out of the finding on Saturday, December 22, 1934, by two rabbit hunters of the skeleton of a man dangling from a wire in a little thicket about 300 yards north of the Rising Star cemetery.

It was charged that McLee had been killed on May 2, 1933, his body taken by car to the wooded scene and hanged from a limb to simulate suicide.

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF COTTON GINNING

COLLEGE STATION. — The month of October, 1940, marks the 150th anniversary of the invention of the cotton gin by Eli Whitney.

Prior to 1790, seed and lint were laboriously separated by hand. No other event can claim equal economic importance in Texas and the South, F. E. Lichte, ginning specialist of the Texas A. & M. Extension Service, has pointed out. It paved the way for greater development in agriculture, industry and world trade.

While the first cotton was ginned on Whitney's gin at Mulberry Grove, Georgia, the first complete bale was turned out in Wilkes County in the same state, where Whitney established a gin house in 1793. He made many improvements on his gin in Wilkes County. One of those was removal of the lint from the saws by means of a brush.

When Whitney's patent was granted March 14, 1794 by President George Washington and signed by Thomas Jefferson, it was for a period of 14 years. At the end of that time he faced competition from a number of gins that had been developed in the interim.

When his application for renewal of the patent was refused, Whitney became discouraged with the whole cotton business and moved to New Haven, Conn., where he was successful in the manufacture of fire arms.

Although many improvements have been made in gin machinery, the actual principal of ginning as worked out by Whitney remains unchanged.

If you are not entirely sold on the defense program, says Mack Cretcher in the Newton Journal, it might be well to remember that preparations will not take any more money than reparations—Kansas City Star.

HARDIN-SIMMONS U HOME COMING WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

Hardin-Simmons University will hold its annual homecoming on Friday and Saturday, with all indications that the event will be an outstanding one for recent years on the campus of the pioneer Abilene school.

Feature attraction for Saturday will be the annual homecoming football game, with the undefeated and undefeated LSU Cowboys entering the University of San Francisco, at 2. The Cowboys, coached by Frank Kimbrough, a Haskell boy, are riding high, and are getting notices along with Stanford, Minnesota, Texas A. and M., Boston College and a handful of others, as the only teams in the country still unbeaten and untied at this advanced stage of the football season.

After the San Francisco hurdle, the Cowboys have only their arch foe through the years, Howard Payne at Brownwood, between them and an all victorious season.

Hardin-Simmons alumni and ex-students are rallying, too, to honor Dr. W. R. White, university president, on the first homecoming season in his administration.

Between halves at the football game, the famous Cowboy Band and Cowgirls will present a colorful and spectacular show. The Dads of 13 Cowboy seniors will sit on the bench as honor guests.

The day's calendar adds up as an attractive one, and a delegation from here is making plans to attend the game and celebration.
