Our Perfect Protection Policy____

Our Perfect Protection Policy with the Double Indemnity draws a complete circle of protection around the man who owns one.

There is no angle whereby he can lose one cent he puts into it. If anything out of the ordinary happens to him, in life or in death, we are on the job to protect him and his home,

If sickness or accident comes to him, causing temporary disability we are on the job from the first day paying ONE DOL-LAR A DAY for every Thousand he carries. That keeps the pot boiling at home until he can resume his duties.

If totally disabled for life from any cause, we are on the job again with a monthly life income as long as he lives and no more premiums to pay.

If financial difficulties comes anywhere on the route, we are on the job again with an Automatic Loan Clause—keeping the policy in full force until he is over the hard spot.

If death comes we are on the job promptly, paying the beneficiary the full face of the policy,

If accidental death comes, any time, any place, we are doubly on the job promptly, paying Twice the Face of the Policy to the beneficiary.

Young Carlton, son Irene grieved for her father Mrs. Harhad not spoken of Dave Elden, and the mother had grown to hope that the old attachment bad died down and The fact is that Irene at that time would have been quite incapable of its influence upon her attitude to life. She was by no means sure that she loved that sunburnt boy of romantic memory; she was by no means sure that she should ever marry him, let his development in life be what it would; but she felt that her heart was locked, at least for the present, to all other suitors. She had given her promise, and that settled the matter.

Notwithstanding her indifference the girl found herself encouraging Carlton's advances, or at least not meeting them with the rebuffs which had been her habit toward all other suitors, and Mrs. Hardy's hopes grew as the attachment apparently developed. But they were soon to be shat-

Why Should Every Baptist Sign a Five Year Pledge?

Because

- 1 These pledges will be held by the local church where we are members, and where adjustments can be made if necessary. We will not be dunned by some far-a-way agency.
- 2 Because it's for Christ and his cause. We can afford to tie up with our Saviour with our property for five years. He has tied up with us with all he has through eternity.
- 4. Because it's the exercise in religion and for Christ of the same sort of business policy we buy homes, lands, autos, bank stock, government bonds, even the necessities of life, on time, and bind ourselves to pay. We build our business houses, our churches and school buildings on time. It's faith, it's for ourselves. Let's do it for God.
