PAPER TWO CENTURIES OLD

Marian Moore returned last week from a trip to Austin, where he visited his brother-in-law, John H. Grist. Also while gone he visited relatives in Fisher and Nolan counties. While in Austin he was given a copy of "The Journal, the Advertiser," by Mr. Grist, a paper published in Baltimore in the eighteenth century. This particular copy was dated August 29, 1773. It is quite a unique relic of that age, its spelling and general appearance smacking of the by-gone times. The style of the ads, is anything but what we see to day. The typography of the sheet is much different from that of the common paper to day. It is worth your while to call on Mr. Moore and see this paper.

New Oil Territory Opens.

The report comes from Carbon to the effect that the Puett well, some three or four miles south of that place, on the Carbon and Rising Star road, came in a day or so ago and the most radical report reaching this office is to the effect that the well is making upward of 250 barrels of oil per hour.

The Puett is to the general direction of Rising Star from Carbon, and is probably within ten or twelve miles or less of the Hilburn pool, which is located six miles northwest of Rising Star.

Allowing that this report is true, a huge strip of territory will have been added to what is termed as semi-proven acreage.—Free Press.

Mrs. Tom Anderson has returned home from Rock Springs, where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Benskin.

GEORGE NOROYKE IS KILLED

Horrible Accident Occurs While Unloading Casing At Leeray.

George W. Noroyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Noroyke of Cottonwood, aged thirty, was killed at Leeray, about 2:40, on Thursday, August 5, while unloading oil well casing from a wagon. His remains were brought to Cottonwood where interment was made in the family cemetery on Friday afternoon, Elder J. M. Harlow conducting the services. A very large crowd of relatives and friends attended the funeral.

His tragic death at so young an age has elicited the sympathy and pity of the entire country, and everyone is doing what he can to help the family bear their awful burden.

George had been at Leeray about a month at work. He met his death while unloading a wagon load of casing at a rig near Leeray. He was working for John Noroyke, a cousin, a teaming contractor. From what we can learn he was between the wagon and the casing, which was being unloaded into a case rack, which was about on a level with the wagon. As he was lifting on casing a skid slipped, and the casing caught his head on a 2x6 scantling used in the casing rack. The hubs of the wheels caught the casing just after his head was crushed; if the hubs had been an inch higher, he would not have been hurt, it is thought. His hat remained in the grip of the casing and scantling. Death resulted in a few minutes. He was born July 2, 1890, and was thirty years, one month, and three days of age. He professed faith in Christ under the preaching of Elder Burnett, and was baptized twelve years ago. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Noroyke, and five brothers, and two sisters.

Hilburn Holding Up.

J. E. Madden, of the firm of Madden and Madden, called our attention this week to the fact, that Hilburn No 1 had been flowing just six months on July 24th, and that the way this well has been holding in its production makes it compare favorably with any flowing well in the United States. It came in with an initial production of 500 barrels, has never gotten down below 300 barrels, not many wells any where can show a record of three fifths initial production at the end of six months.—X-Ray.

E. L. Joy of Kansas City, Mo., and family have moved to Cross Plains, where Mr. Joy will do painting and paper hanging. He specializes in inside decoration work. He is officing at Joe Shackelford's Lumber and Paint Store. He formerly worked at Putnam, where Mr. Shackelford knew him.

In Error Last Week.

In last issue of the Review it was stated that Dr. Howard had left for New Orleans to take a post graduate course in medicine, in which statement it was in error. A few days prior to his leaving, the Doctor told the Review he was to leave soon for New Orleans, but it seems he changed his mind, and instead went to Dallas on a other mission and is now back at home.

Moves to South Texas.

J. P. Triplett of Cross Cut last week paid his subscription to the Review pretty well into the future, and ordered it changed to Weslyco, on the Rio Grande, where he is to move this week. Dick Stone of Cross Cut is moving to the same country. They have bought small tract of irrigated land and expect to live at home and get rich trucking and raising fruit.

A good piano for sale. Mr. McGowan.

BUSH YET CENTER OF INTEREST

Nothing New to Report in Oil Circles in This Issue of Review.

Interest for Cross Plains still centers in the P. J. Bush well, one-half mile southwest of original Hilburn which is still expected in daily. It is near the Hilburn sand but progress is being made slowly.

If it comes in a good producer the territory to the south and southwest is almost assured an oil producing county.

The Humble Co., who is doing a good deal of carpenter work in the Hilburn field, this week laid off its hands for a few days.

The original Vestal well is on the pump, with day night crew.

The Consolidated C. E. Barf drilling at about 2200.

The templeman, J. H. Lee, a boat 1700 feet, temporarily shut waiting on cable.

The Greenlee is temporarily shut down.

The L. P. Litzinger J. N. Gooch 4 mi east has resumed drilling after waiting on underreamer. This well, three and one-half miles southwest

Hilburn Field To Develop.

The Hilburn district in the southern part of Eastland county is going to be another Desdemona, according to County Judge C. R. Stearns of Eastland, who is in Fort Worth on business. Stearns reports that operators have come to the conclusion that they were handling the Hilburn situation in the wrong way and that they are now starting out to develop the territory along the lines followed in Stephens county.

Operators Report that the Hilburn Sand or the Producing Formation is Very Similar to that Found in Stephens County and that in Many Cases it will Have to be Shot in Order to get the Best Production.

The Hilburn Oil and Refining company is clean out its Ingram well east of the Hilburn discovery well, preparatory to placing a shot. It is the general impression that the Ingram can be shot into a good producer. Stearns reports that the road building program in Eastland county is progressing rapidly and that soon good highways will be running into every section of the county.

Rural Carrier Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for Callahan County Texas, to be held at Cross Plains & Abilene on Aug. 14 1920 to fill the position of rural carrier at Cross Plains, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in form No. 1970. Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form No. 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Red Cross Salvage Shop.

In brief it is proposed that the "Red Cross Shop" in each city or town shall become a salvage headquarters. Donations of clothing, furniture, books, papers, automobile tires, tin foil and waste of all kinds regularly will be received, reclaimed and sold for the benefit of the Red Cross cause. The money derived from such sales will accrue directly to each local Red Cross chapter and is to be spent as they direct.

One of the principal activities of the proposed salvage shops will be the remaking of donated clothing into serviceable garments for use of refugees in the war-torn districts of Europe. Baby clothes will be specialized in. It is planned to reestablish on a somewhat smaller scale the sewing days that were a feature of Red Cross headquarters throughout the country during the war.

Not all the clothing thus reclaimed will go to foreign fields. Some will be used by local Red Cross home service sections in outfitting needy families. Some will be sold and a certain percentage will be held in reserve for rehabilitating families who have lost all worldly goods in future disasters.

Discouraging Speculation

The Federal Reserve Bank restrictions on credit for non-essentials has, by discouraging all kinds of speculation, tended to lower prices in nearly all lines. There is money in abundance, according to Comptroller of the Currency Williams, to handle any size crops and essential business. There is absolutely no reason to fear a panic. He accuses the New York bankers of being extortionate in charging as high as 15 per cent. for money, when they were borrowing from the Reserve Banks at 6.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. _____ had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

PREPARE TO HELP HANDLE TEN MILLION BALES OF COTTON THIS YEAR

The Government estimates this year's cotton crop at ten million bales. Prepare to help handle this enormous crop. It requires from four to six weeks to quality. If you act quickly you can be ready. We have the largest and best equipped Sample Room in the state, with a solid glass wall on the north, to afford light. This room was constructed especially for teaching the cotton work. There being such a difference in the grades of cotton and with the ever increasing demand for help along this line, young men and women should prepare themselves immediately. When we say women, we say so based on the fact that there are several women taking our cotton classing, realizing what an opportunity is open to them and the State admits women to the Cotton Examination the same as men.

A special summer course is given for $40.00, including tuition, samples and material for Cotton Grading. In order to get in time to prepare for the coming cotton season, write, wire or phone for information and our free catalogue. TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, Tyler, Texas.

THE RACKET STORE

General Mdse. & Household Furnish'gs

It is our intention at all times to give our customers the very lowest prices possible. Everyone has been expecting a decline in the price of Merchandise, or at least, the wave started and spread all over the country. Merchants everywhere put on sales to reduce stocks, to find, when the fall buying season came, prices in most every line higher. We believe they should decline, and will, when forced to by more production than consumption, but this will be very gradual.

We will give our customers the advantage of these declines as fast as they come.

We give you a hearty welcome to our store and guarantee to make your money go farther, and the very best service possible for us to give.

Our line of Star Brand Shoes is complete. They are Leather. No cut off vamps in work shoes.

FRASER PASSES AWAY

Dr. Fraser, a resident practitioner of Baird and vicinity thirty-eight years, died at Cross Plains Wednesday at 1 p. m., of illness.

He arrived yesterday morning on the "Sunshine Special" and the services were held at 5 p. m. at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. M. Peebles, of Anson, pastor of this church.

The services at the church were well attended and his interment with the solemn order.

He was married twice and had five daughters. All but two daughters were the result of a second marriage.

He had a large attendance, not only from Cross Plains but from the surrounding country. The pall bearers were all from Cross Plains and most of them were his friends.

He was born in what was then South Carolina, in 1848, emigrated to the Confederacy at the age of 15; studied law and practiced his profession in Coleman, Brown, and Reagan Counties.

He was known to Dr. Fraser as a young man on the latter's farm near half a century ago.

MRS. R. A. HENSLEY DEAD

Mrs. R. A. Hensley, aged 82, died at the home of her grandson, Tom Bruce, three miles north of town, on Saturday afternoon, and was buried in the Cross Plains cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. R. D. Carter conducting the services, assisted by Rev. C. C. Tyler. Except that she had been accustomed to fainting spells, perhaps from heart trouble, she was supposed to be in good health for one of her age. She ate some green apples, so it is stated, that brought acute indigestion, and while suffering from this she accidentally fell and never recovered sufficiently to speak so she could be understood. She was born in Alabama in December, 1838, and was married to W. M. Hensley in 1853. She moved to Texas about sixty-two years ago. She was converted and joined the Baptist church at an early age, and has lived a good Christian life ever since. She leaves five children living and two dead. Her son, George Hensley, and his wife, of Houston and a daughter, Mrs. Lance, of W. Co. came in on the train on Sunday to attend the funeral. Mrs. W. J. Morgan is another daughter. One son has not been heard from in years, and it is feared that he is dead. She had lived to a ripe old age, and had spent her life well, God being good to her in letting her go beyond the allotted time. It is natural that she pass away, but that does not make her going easy for her relatives and friends.
