Why Teen-Agers Don't Leave Home!

Summer vacation days are action days for youngsters. They need more energy than ever, but hate to stop for lunch. There's no better way to recharge young bodies than with fruit—especially bananas. The United Fruit Company reminds us that they're plentiful, reasonable and quickly digested, too. Good Housekeeping magazine recommends this simple recipe for delicious Banana Milk Shakes: Slice four bananas into large bowl and beat with rotary beater. Stir in 1 qt. milk, and 2 teasp. vanilla. Top with several scoops of chocolate ice cream. Garnish each glass with an unpeeled slice, and remove the back door—before the kids knock it down!

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

USE LEGUMES TO BOOST COTTON YIELD

Use of legumes over all the vast cotton growing acreages of Texas would mean an increase of at least 1,000,000 bales a year, agronomists of Texas A. & M. College System and the Soil Conservation Service agree.

It's like this: Texas' cotton output last year averaged about 211 pounds per acre. Using legumes in rotation with cotton boosts cotton yields about 20 per cent on the average, or 40 pounds (and this is a conservative estimate, they say) to the acre. Therefore, Texas' 13,000,000-odd acres in cotton, each acre producing an average of 40 pounds more would mean 520,000,000 more pounds of cotton at ginning time.

A legume crop on cotton land is worth money just for the nitrogen alone that goes into the soil. Take vetch, one of the leading legume crops in Texas, for instance. Green vetch contains from .5 to

.6 of one per cent nitrogen—equal to 60 to 70 pounds of nitrate of soda -- when a ton of green vetch is plowed into the soil. Vetch (dry weight) contains two and one-half to 3 per cent nitrogen. That means that about 60 pounds of nitrogen, or about 400 pounds of nitrate of soda, are supplied when a ton of dry vetch is cut into the soil.

Other legumes add nitrogen about like vetch.

Legumes add organic matter to the soil, but one of their main functions is to hold rather than add to the organic matter there. Fresh, easily decomposed crop residues must be worked into the soil to furnish food for soil bacteria. The bacteria need this food to do their work. Fertilized legumes such as hairy vetch, Austrian Winter peas, crimson clover, singletary peas, Hubam and annual yellow sweet clover also provide a protective soil cover, improve the soil structure so that it will absorb water readily and reduce soil losses and loss of plant nutrients through leaching.

In some parts of Texas where climatic conditions may make the use of legumes impractical, small grains such as rye, barley, oats and wheat, can be used with good results. These crops, like legumes provide an effective cover and reduce erosion damage by wind and water. They help to maintain the productive capacity of the soil when not harvested.

In addition to the higher yields made possible by legumes, there is the grazing value of the legume crop to be considered. Legumes provide excellent grazing for livestock.

A goodly supply of legume seed is in sight, the agronomists say. But they add that farmers should lay in their seed and fertilizer early in order to avoid shortages that will be the result of a sudden demand.

The agronomists point out that Secretary Brannan of the Department of Agriculture in his recent appeal for higher production declared that "higher production must come largely from increased yields per acre if we are to avoid permanent injury to our land resources."

The agronomists point out that the use of legumes is one of the surest ways to increase yields without running the risk of further damage to the soil.

COST OF LIVING DROPS - A LITTLE

For the first time since February, 1950, the cost of living has shown a decrease rather than an increase. That isn't as good news as it seems, however, because the decrease was only one-tenth of one per cent. But any decrease is better than another increase.

The decrease occurred in June when the cost of living index stood at 185.2, an increase of 85.2 points over the 1935-1939 average. The June figure is 8.8 per cent above the cost of living in June, 1950.

Million Dollar Traffic Control Project For FW&D

A million dollar centralized traffic control project to facilitate the movement of traffic over the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway between Wichita Falls and Estelle was disclosed recently by R. Wright Armstrong, Vice President.

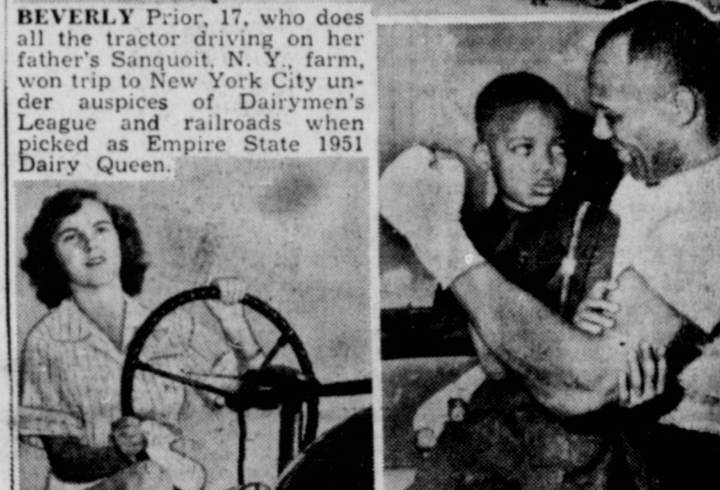

Under centralized traffic control, a dispatcher located at Wichita Falls will have control over signals and switches over the 123-mile section of the railroad. The location of all trains on the section will be shown on an illuminated panel in the dispatcher's office and, by manipulating levers and buttons on the panel, he will be able to handle signals and switches by remote control and thus direct train operation by signal indication, permitting trains to meet and pass with minimum of delay.

The project includes not only the installation of signal equip-

Gabie Betts Burton Library Notes
By May L. Prewitt

Books received in the library this week are assorted. "The Great Plains" is a memorial book given in the memory of Mrs. Tom Bugbee's father, Mr. Carver of the VT Ranch, near Childress. It is a complete, authentic history of the great plains and is presented in a very interesting style as are all of Walter Prescott Webb's books, including his "Texas Rangers" which is also in our library.

A work in fiction, "From Here to Eternity" authored by James Jones, has been among the five best sellers since its publication. It is definitely not for the "conservative" library but is a work for which there have been calls and I appreciate getting it. "Fair Wind to Java", another fiction work by the author of "The Wahe of the Red Witch" makes its ini-ial appearance in our library. "The Child Who Never Grew" by Pearl S. Buck gives an insight into the life and thoughts of the mother of a child that stopped growing mentally in about its fifth year. In her presentation Pearl Buck carries you with her through all the years of heart-break and mental anguish till she finally convinced herself that the thing to do, considering both herself and her child, was to place the child in an institution. Her work has been hailed by many parents of mentally retarded children as a prevailing factor in their own decisions and should become a must on your reading list. It was a recent Readers Digest condensation.

For the girls shelf, we received "Behind the White Veil" by Julie Fathron, another in the Vicki Bar Flight Stewardess series.

The hot weather has failed to dampen the ardor of our young readers and we are still making about fifty issuances each day.

FAMILY FARM POLICY DISCUSSED TODAY AT CALLED MEETING

Chairmen of the community committees met in the office of the county agent this morning at 9 a. m. to discuss the Family Farm Policy. The program was outlined to the chairmen of the communities and they in turn will be assisted by the other community committeemen to contact the farm people in the community and discuss phases of agriculture and farm programs and types of programs that will be of most benefit to them in the operation of their farms. Questionnaires were filled out and farmers made suggestions on the type of programs and assistance that will be of most benefit to them in their farming and ranching operations. This information will be submitted to the mobilization committee of Donley County and then be compiled into one report for the county to be sent to the state office. Breedlove says that the idea of this survey is to give the officials at the State and National offices an idea of the types of assistance that will be of most benefit to the farmers and ranchers in their operations. The county report will be sent to the state office by the first of September. This gives ideas for the heads of the agriculture department right from the people who are directly affected by all types of programs and other types of assistance in farming and ranching.

It's the same way in the natural gas business. Hundreds of wells in many gas fields are required to assure dependable natural gas service for the military installations, homes, stores and industries obtaining their natural gas from the lines of our company.

New fields are being added to the United Gas system all the time—through exploration and drilling, or through the purchase of gas from the owners of known reserves.

Especially if you live in the direction of Donley county, don't forget the big chicken barbecue at Lelia Lake come this Friday afternoon. Mr. Shaller said that everyone should bring a half chicken for each member of their family and another half for me; also a neck or a gizzard for Mama as she needs to be on a diet anyway; don't tell her. If anyone brings an extra half chicken for me it ought to be just right for the way I feel. Please, please, Mr. Breedlove, bring along a copy of that good sauce recipe and give it to Mama. It won't make her fat just to read it. We'll be seeing you all and thanks a million, for the invite.

Speakin' of eatin' we spent the last week-end with one of the brother-in-laws. This is the one without the appendix. Anyway, did they try to cover up for a multitude of past sins in the way that they had fed me in the past, and the sister-in-law insisted that I tell you, the readers about it. Cut after cut of what the OPS calls choice beef; with hot biscuits and gravy thrown in. The hot biscuits may have been canned but all of it was scrumptious and I apologize humbly and fully. Kinda reminds me of one time after a revival meeting we were having folks testify and a mother and her little Johnnie stood up. The preacher asked the mother first what she had to say. Said the sister, "I'm just so full I can't talk"... Then he called on little Johnnie; "I'm just like Ma", he said "I've got a belly-ful of it too. Anyway, if you folks think, as my sister-in-law does that I have been to hard on my brother-in-laws I will apologize publicly and openly and fully.

Speaking of being full; Senator Connally finally blew up over the administration request for 8 billion for foreign aid. "You fellows spend all your time thinking up ways to spend money while we the congress squeeze the taxpayer for more and more money". It is about time that he got full, what with election just around the corner and Anyway, it was the truth, even if the president did apologize for his outburst.

According to Wes Izzards column of about last Friday; about one person out of four has his snout in the public feed trough. Every month means thousands and thousands more added to the taxpayers burdens.

Speaking of saving your money; which some of our grandparents used to do, try to figure this one out. If you put $1,000.00 away in 1939 at the savings account rate of interest compounded semi-annually, and today you took that money, interest and all and bought something with it. It would be worth about $650 compared to what it would buy when you put it away, counting interest and all... Makes us kinda wonder.

We had the only country in the world with the courage to let the people rule themselves back in 1776. We had just about the only country in the world with the brains to make it work for almost two hundred years. Surely we won't let the dole-slingin' politicians steal it away from us while we dream of a false security taxed on the incomes of "We The People". We can't live off of each other.

I didn't intend for anyone to know about my birthdays anymore; there comes a time when it is well to forget such things. But the Editors put it in the Claude News and their one reader is a talkative sort of fellow and now just about everyone knows it. Anyway, they got my age all mixed up as well as who give me what etc. Instead of being my hundredth birthday I am only 39, and it was my god friend Tom Henry Miller who gave me the billfold with my name on it, and he also made the beautiful belt that Mama gave me. Thanks to everyone for all the nice things; the B O medicine, I know I need that, and the brick all wrapped up so cute; anyone can always use a brick; what with cold weather coming on and all. It's real nice to have folks think about you once in awhile.

One of my friends is in need again. He is Jack Patton of box 838 in Portales, N. M. He is the fellow with the large collection of mechanical pencils. Anyhow, he has just finished building his dream home, and in the living room he has a real fire place. He has the walls done in knotty pine and the rafters show through the ceiling. Sounds homey and pretty. Anyway, he needs some novel ties to decorate it up. He would like to buy an old-fashioned dutch oven; the real old kind; also an iron pot with a bail to hang in the fire place and an old-time dinner bell to put on a pole just outside the kitchen door. If you have any of these things and would part with them kinda reasonably write to Jack and describe them and give the price. He says he couldn't pay a high price but would pay a reasonable price for these things. I guess these things are kinda scarce these days.

Methodist Pastors And Lay Leaders Attend Conference In Sioux City, Iowa

Among the 1,500 Methodist pastors and lay leaders who participated in the "National Methodist Town and Country Conference," Sioux City, Iowa, July 21 to 24, was the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Story, pastor of the Methodist Church of Hedley; Rev. Darris L. Egger, pastor of the Methodist Church at Wheeler; John T. Forbis, Wellington, Clarendon District Lay Leader; Rev. W. E. Hamilton, Clarendon District Superintendent and Mrs. W. E. Hamilton. The Conference, called by the Council of Bishops and by the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Church, was planned to discuss the importance and place of the church in the rural and smaller communities of America, and to help the smaller churches better the service they render to men, women and children in their communities. Bishop Chas. W. Brashares, of Des Moines, was general chairman and keynote speaker of the Conference.

They participated in a unique feature of the Conference when on Sunday the delegates visited some 196 churches in 39 counties of four states within a radius of 80 miles of Sioux City. The delegates conducted the worship and preaching services, taught church school classes, and discussed with the churches their problems of leadership, of religious education, etc. It is estimated that 20,788 people were reached in the preaching services, and 17,000 in the church school sessions.

While much of the Conference was in the nature of study groups on specific problems—with findings that will later be transmitted to local churches and pastors for their study and use—there were also on the program a number of nationally-known speakers on problems related to the rural church and the small community. "Whole nations are threatened with revolution today because they have not helped the land to meet the needs of their people," said Bishop Brashares in his opening address. "Russia's program of land reforms may not be to our liking but the Christian church can scarcely win to Christianity one billion country people if the church has no program of land reform at all. We do talk about the advantages of the family-sized farm and we point with pride to five million American farms. But statistics show that family farms in America are giving way before vast concentrations of land, with tenant farmers and migrant workers. The farmer who does not own the land is not apt to feel a sense of stewardship for it. Today, when other countries are practicing land reform (as in Japan and South Korea), our government is giving them encouragement. In America, where fifty percent of the farmlands are now operated by tenants, we must encourage the family ownership of small farms."

Dr. Raper, agricultural sociologist, pointed out that in recent years American farms are becoming fewer in number, but on the average larger in size than a few decades ago. Today farms average nearly 200 acres per family. He compared this with the two and a half acres per family in Japan, and suggested that something between these two extremes might gradually become the recognized size of a "family farm". With the proper use of machinery, of fertilizer, of modern techniques, Dr. Raper said, the large farms will be unnecessary, and men will talk not of "acreage owned" but of "bushels harvested." The modern young farmer in America, he said, is not now investing his capital in acreage, but in good stock and equipment.

STATE OR RURAL FIRE PROTECTION?—THAT IS THE QUESTION

ABILENE — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is trying to determine whether adequate, rural fire protection can be secured on a voluntary basis without resorting to creation of a new taxing agency.

James F. Melton, manager of the taxation and legislation department of the WTCC, has asked managers of local chambers of commerce of the 132-county region to report creation of any voluntary protective association, how they were created, and their ability to solve rural fire problems.

One of five constitutional amendments to be submitted to Texans in November, 1951, would open the way for creation of rural fire prevention districts and authorize maximum tax levy of 50 cents per $100 valuation to finance them.

"Our fleet of cars are driven 25,000 to 30,000 miles a month. We find that motors lubricated with Conoco Super outwear the bodies of our cars."

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence: in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

"I make daily trips of 250 miles and more, delivering newspapers into Nebraska," reports Paul M. Foss, Cheyenne, Wyo. "After 70,000 miles exclusively on Conoco Super, I don't even have to add oil between 1,000-mile drains."

May we suggest a Sitting?

NO doubt about it—you'll make a mighty handsome picture in a strapping new '51 Buick. But it isn't the way you look, but the way you feel that's really important. We'd like you to discover a Buick's ease and comfort, a Buick's power and performance, a Buick's steadiness and control—just to see if maybe you have been missing a travel treat. We'd like you to discover what a valve-in-head engine, as Buick builds it—gingered with Fireball combustion—can mean in pulse-pounding thrill and in big miles-per-gallon figures. We'd like you to learn what coil springs on all four wheels—not just in front—can do in the matter of smoothing a rough road and keeping you on an ever-level keel. We'd like you to see what generous roadweight and a rigid torque-tube mean in solid steadiness of ride—what Dynaflo Drive* does for you in downright comfort and convenience—what a breeze it is to handle so big and roomy and impressive a car. Most of all, we'd like you to note the easy-to-take price tags our cars wear—what a whale of a lot more automobile you get for your money in today's Buicks than you'll get elsewhere. So—come in for a sitting soon, won't you? Whether you try a SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER, you'll find it the top buy in its field—and a beauty from any angle.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2
 proposing an amendment to Section 49-b, Article III, Constitution of Texas, so that the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board is increased to One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds and certain conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III, Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:
 "Section 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veterans' Land Board, which shall be composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office. The Veterans' Land Board may issue not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Such bonds shall be executed by said Board as an obligation of the State of Texas, in such form, denominations, and upon the terms as are now prescribed by Senate Bill No. 29, Chapter 218 of the Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature (provided, that when the limitation of Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) is used in said Senate Bill No. 29, the same shall hereafter be construed as One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000), or as said Act may be hereafter amended, or by other laws that the Legislature may hereafter enact; provided, however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum, and that the same shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest.

"In the sale of any such bonds, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various teachers' retirement funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds; such bonds to be issued as needed, in the opinion of the Veterans' Land

Board.
 "The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in this State, (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Prison System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm, or corporation.
 "All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veterans' Land Fund.
 "The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas Veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative act, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now provided by law, or as may hereafter be provided by law.
 "All moneys received and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of lands and for interest on deferred payments, shall be credited to the Veterans' Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative act, in like manner as provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, provided for herein, for a period ending December 1, 1959; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary during the period ending December 1, 1959, to pay principal of and interest on the bonds heretofore issued and on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 1, 1959, all moneys received by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of said bonds and to pay interest thereon, and any of such moneys not so needed shall not later than the maturity date of the last maturing bond or bonds be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute obligations of the State under the Constitution of Texas. Of the total One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) of bonds herein authorized, the sum of Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) has heretofore been issued; said bonds are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be obligations of the State of Texas. This amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the second Tuesday in November, 1951, at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:
FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b, Constitution of Texas, for increasing Veterans' Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945.
 Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:
"AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b, Constitution of Texas, for increasing Veterans' Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945."

LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax not to exceed Fifty (50c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the creation and establishment of rural fire prevention districts."

 "Section 11a. In addition to the bonds now enumerated in Section 11 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, the Permanent University Fund may be invested in such other securities, including bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks, as the Board of Regents of the University of Texas may deem to be proper investment for said fund; provided, however, that not more than fifty per cent (50%) of the said fund shall be invested at any given time in stocks, nor shall more than one per cent (1%) of the said fund be invested in securities issued by any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors. This amendment shall be self-enacting."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the second Tuesday in November, 1951, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The expense of publication and election for such Amendment shall be paid out of the proper appropriation made by law.

Soil Conservation District News

Charlie Bairfield, secretary of the Board of Supervisors of the Donley County Soil Conservation District and rancher southwest of Clarendon, believes that the development of necessary pasture watering facilities aids in the establishment of beneficial soil water conservation practices on the ranch. Adequate water supplies in pastures, according to Bairfield, will encourage more uniform grazing, facilitate pasture improvement practices, retard erosion damage, and increase livestock gains. As proof that Bairfield practices what he preaches, he had engineers of the Soil Conservation Service out last week to locate and stake four new stock dams, two on his land and two on land he leases from his brother, Clarence Bairfield. In spite of the fact that the Bairfield Brothers have one of the most dependable spring-fed creeks running thru their ranch, they felt the need of these additional watering places for proper distribution of grazing. The above is just one example of the type of assistance available on request to farmers and ranchers. The District is anxious to assist all land owners and operators plan, apply and maintain conservation use and treatment of their lands. Each of the local Agriculture Agencies has a part in promoting this work. The Soil Conservation Service gives on-site technical assistance in applying soil and water conservation practices that will lead to the final development of a complete conservation plan including proper use and treatment of each acre of land.

The Agricultural Conservation Program of the PMA furnishes financial assistance to farmers in establishing good conservation measures.

The County Agent conducts educational programs to bring the latest scientific developments from the experiment stations, Department of Agriculture, and A & M College to the attention of the farmers.

The Farmers Home Administration also aids in soil conservation by making loans for conservation practices, helping tenants to become farm owners, and promoting conservation and improvement of soil resources among all borrowers.

Health Notes

AUSTIN—"Now that summer has come to Texas it is time for people who expect to enjoy camping and swimming during the warm weather to be sure that they are adequately protected against typhoid fever," according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "Although the public health strides of recent decades have practically eliminated typhoid fever as a threat to persons living in communities with improved water supplies and good sanitation, the disease remains a real danger to those who swim camp or picnic in remote rural areas.

"Typhoid fever is transmitted from one person to another by means of water, food or milk that has been contaminated by discharge from a patient suffering with the disease or from an apparently well typhoid carrier.

"Spectacular reductions in typhoid fever cases and deaths as compared with those of a generation ago should not give the public a false sense of security. There has been 95 cases of typhoid and paratyphoid fever in Texas in 1951—in spite of community efforts to improve sanitation, isolate patients and supervise known carriers. This indicates that it is still highly desirable for individuals who may be exposed to unfavorable conditions to safeguard themselves by seeking protection at the beginning of the vacation season.

"Immunization is a simple and safe procedure. Since this immunity lasts for only three years, anyone who has not been inoculated since 1948 should receive new protection this year. In addition, persons who have never in the past availed themselves of this preventive measure should by all means do so now if they plan to participate in outdoor pleasures. All persons who are due for immunization against typhoid fever in 1951 should go to their physicians without delay if they have not already received the recommended inoculations."

In Siam, houses are constructed with odd numbers of floors and steps to insure good luck.

The church pennant is the only flag that may be flown above the Stars and Stripes.

No mutinies have occurred on United States Naval vessels.
