

Kate's Korner

By Katie Burleson

We received a short note this week from Mrs. Max W. Levi and I would like to share it with our readers.

"Enclosed you will find a check to cover the cost of renewing my subscription to the Baird Star. Thank you for taking care of this for me. May I wish for the staff and their families a very Happy New Year and may God's blessings be yours always. Sincerely, Mrs. Max W. Levi.

Other places we hear, in newspapers we read, "Brothers Win Top Honors at Show." Well us Bairdites can really brag this week! We have three brothers that did well in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show this past week-end. They are Vestals. The brothers three are Ricky, Andy and Danny, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Vestal, faculty members at the Baird School.

Rickey won first in his class with his Charolais steer named "Honcho." He also took third spot with another Charolais carrying the name of "Tacson," meaning big in Japanese.

Andy's Brahman steer, "Silencio" took first, and Danny's Charolais, named "Shoshee" placed 7th.

Congratulations to these boys, who like so many, work hard in these projects. They never know just how these contests will turn out, but the thrill of winning and the heartbreak of losing is just part of the many phases we learn to accept as we grow up to be men and women of tomorrow.

--KK--

I would like to apologize to Jim Hatchett for omitting his name in the article last week announcing the Showmanship Awards. Jim won the Showmanship Trophy in the poultry division. These trophies are awarded in each division to the boy or girl for their outstanding work in which they conduct themselves at all times.

Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Roy Hatchett of Star Rt. 2, Baird.

Sgt. Newton Receives Commendation Medal

OKLAHOMA CITY — Senior Master Sergeant Maurice E. Newton, son of Mrs. B. Newton, of Moran, Tex., has received the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Tinker AFB, Okla.

Sergeant Newton, a communications wiring superintendent, was decorated for meritorious service at Clark AB Philippines. He was cited for his outstanding professional skill, knowledge and leadership.

Mother's March Collects $326.10, MOD Total Reaches $628.12

The Monday night Mother's March totaled $326.10 for the March of Dimes and Birth Defects Drive. The mothers and helpers knocked on doors thru out the town from 5:30 p.m. until 8 p.m., and would like to express their thanks to all citizens for their welcome and cooperation in the drive.

Harlem Stars Here Feb. 2

The Harlem Stars are once again scheduled to appear at the Baird Gym. Their first appearance was postponed due to the weather conditions. The comedy basketball game will be held Friday, Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. The Stars will play an outsider team from Baird.

Three of the Harlem Stars are 6'4" Big Daddy Bastiste; 6'2" Raymond Reed and 6'3" Henry "Handa" Johnson. Handa will entertain you with his constantly changing from hambone pomposity to outraged innocence. He is forever snatching things from the spectators in the first and second row, hats for his head, glasses for the referee, and other things to make the "Harlem Stars" the most unique, different, and entertaining show in basketball.

Tickets may be purchased from one of the basketball girls or at the door Friday night. If you purchased a ticket for the January 9 game, it can still be used. The ticket proceeds will be used for equipment for the Baird girls basketball team.

Mrs. Velma Frazier, Randy and Jeffie of Abilene visited Mrs. Irene Hansen last week.

JOLENE ROWE - STANLEY MCGOWEN MARRIED IN CHURCH RITES SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McGowen are living in Stephenville following their marriage Saturday, January 27, at the First Baptist Church of Baird.

The bride is the former Irma Jolene Rowe daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rowe. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McGowen are parents of the bridegroom.

The double ring wedding was officiated by Rev. Carol Green. Music was by Mrs. James Asbury, organist, and Nancy Deal, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie. The bodice and long sleeves were of chantilly lace. Mock pearls accented the neckline, bodice and garlands of lace applied on front of the peau de soie skirt, with a chapel train. Pearl motifs centered lace petals of lilies of valley to which her butterfly veil was caught. She carried white roses and rose buds on a Bible.

Dana Corn of Baird was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Joyce Atwood of Midland, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of blue velveteen, designed with scooped neckline, long sleeves and A-line skirt. Tailored bows at shoulder and bows served as headresses. They carried single white roses.

The bridegroom's cousins, Carl and Doyle Settle of Big Lake, were candlelighters.

Tommy Barton of Baird was best man. The bride's brother, Donny Rowe also of Baird, was groomsmen.

Ushering were Lance Kitchen of Stanton and John Scott of Abilene.

The bride was graduated from Baird High School and was employed by United States Time Corp. of Abilene.

McGowen was graduated at Baird High School and is attending Tarleton State College at Stephenville. He is a member of the Silver Keys, Wainwright Rifles and was Superior Cadet of his sophomore class in ROTC.

Rehearsal dinner at Thunderbird Lodge was hosted by Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. David Self and children visited in San Angelo Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Doretha Fish and his brother, Richard Self and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Callaway and Brian of Dennison visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Callaway this weekend.

TECUMSEH TOPICS

By Lillian Crawford

This is January 29, 1968 so mark it down in your diary as being the wettest January in many many years.

As I was going to church last evening it was good to see the sunshine out after an inch of rain had fallen in the afternoon.

After being soaked with rain for the last few weeks, it still looks good to see water running beside the road and across, and the streams are full and running over.

Lynda Crawford has been on tour with Howard Payne College Choir. They have been traveling and singing at Odessa, Hobbs, Carlsbad, Artesia, Alamogorda, Santa Fe, N. M. and from there to Colorado Springs, Colo. At present they are homeward bound stopping at Clayton, N. M. and Quanah Texas. They are due back in Brownwood Saturday evening. I suppose she will have interesting sightseeing subjects to talk about when she comes home again.

A word of sympathy goes out to those around about us who have lost loved ones the past week. Mrs. Roy Armor and family and Mrs. Lucien Pierce and family in the passing of their mother, Mrs. Holloway, who lived near Brady.

Again we offer sympathy to the survivors of Mrs. W. E. Connel of Denton Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roundtree of Snyder spent the weekend here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lane.

Oplin Observations

By Daphne Floyd

A small area of Oplin received a flash flood Sunday afternoon for an inch or more of rain fell in a period of ten or fifteen minutes. Something tells me that may cause the moisture to meet now. One has that thought, alright, for we had already received from eight to ten inches during our recent rainy spell.

Speaking our recent rains, the Oplin Cemetery showed evidence for our cemetery secretary Freida Starley reported immediately that there were about 25 graves in bad shape. But thanks to several interested parties such as Oran, Orin and Sonny Bains, Clarence Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. Sebe Monroe and probably some others I haven't heard of got busy last Friday and put in the much needed work at the cemetery.

Friends were happy to know that Mrs. Lucien Pierce and Mrs. Roy Armor were at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. L. Holloway of Brady when she passed away at 10 a.m. last Friday. Grandma Holloway was 91 years old in November. Friends at Oplin who were fortunate to know Grandma Holloway realize that heaven is richer now. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson, Mrs. Mollie Johnson and Mrs. B. G. Poindexter attended the funeral at Brady Saturday afternoon.

Miss Freida Straley underwent minor surgery Monday morning to have two cysts removed from under her arm. She planned to remain in Abilene with relatives for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Landers and sons, Mike, Gary and Kevin of Mineral Wells were weekend visitors with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Breeding. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Haskew were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd.

Attending the Fort Worth Pat Stock Show were: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Odum, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Elliott, Mrs. Den McLaughlin, Mrs. Marie Windham, Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Pat McKennon.
