DOES THE BIBLE UPHOLD DRINKING?

We take the following answer to this oft quoted scripture from the "Pick and Pan News," that is making a noble fight to keep the saloons out of Hubbard City.

"Paul uses the following language: 'Drink no longer water but a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.'" But notice that he advises the use of wine, and not the malt and distilled liquors of modern use. It is very questionable if the wine he referred to was even fermented. Notice also that he advises Timothy to use but "little." Notice again that it was only for medicine and in a case of necessity. Now to try and make this scripture justify the saloon business with its corrupting influence, its system of drunkard making, its murder production, its pauper creating and its asylum filling methods is to do violence to common sense and scripture. There is not a prohibitionist in Hill county that would object to giving the advice that Paul gave. But to saddle on that scripture all the iniquities of this body-killing, soul destroying, home-wrecking, heart-breaking and hell-filling traffic is an outrage on the word of God, and nothing short of blasphemy. It shows not into paths of the wicked and go not into the way of evil men. Prov. 4:14. God prohibits the selling or giving away liquors. "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink; that putteth the bottle to him and maketh him drunken."—Hab. 11:15. God prohibits the voting for the saloon or any other method of building up a city by iniquity. "Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity."—Hab. 2:12. these are clear and emphatic declarations from the God of all the earth.

VOTE.

One of our exchanges has the following to say to the man is asking to retain the saloon:

"Go and put your ear to the hearts of these widows and orphans, and after you have listened to a tale of woe and sorrow that would make the cheeks of demons turn pale with horror, and that would outrage the moral sentiments of devils in hell, and then if you are determined to vote for saloons, get your vote ready and besprinkle it with blood and tears, and deposit it with the expressed resolve to turn our fair country into a murder's pandemonium and drive peace, prosperity, liberty and happiness from our midst. If this is not your desire, then in the name of God and humanity, vote against saloons."

justify the art of

But God does speak out on this subject with emphatic denunciation. To the drinker he says; "Wine is mocking strong drink is raging and whosoever is deceived there by is not wise."—Prov. 20: 1. Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink' that continues until night, till wine inflame them"—Is. 5:11. "Awake, ye drunkards, and weep, and howl, all ye drinkers of wine.—Joel 1:5. "Drunkards cannot inherit the Kingdom of Heaven."—1 Cor. 6:10. But God prohibits a man from going to saloons. "Be not among wine bibbers."—Prov. 23:30. "Enter then not for any one. It hardens the tissues of the body, and that is not desirable; besides, it hardens the liver at the same time. When the question arises between a man and alcohol the safe side—for the alcohol—is the outside. Warner Wallace.

Youngest son of Rev. J. T. and Gertrude Bloodworth was born at Claude Texas, April 10th 1899; died at Haskell Texas June 1st 1900.

Although this little life was given them for only one year one month and twenty two days, it was not lived in vain, for who can measure the influence of the sweet memories stored in their hearts of the innocent babe whose little feet had just learned to walk those chubby hands were ever reaching out for something whose prattling tongue had scarcely coined the precious words papa and mama.

Four little boys have been given this home but God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to take two of the precious jewels, little Evans and Warner, to His home above where they may live and grow with Him as an incentive to the other little brother and the grief stricken parents to meet them in the better land.

May God bless and strengthen them in their sorrow is the prayers of their many friends throughout the Clarendon district in which Brother and Sister Bloodworth have spent several years of their ministerial life. P. K. W.

Clarendon to the Front.

A petition was presented to the county judge this week with the required number of signatures attached to order an election on the question of incorporation. With a few exceptions the petition was signed by every business man in town. By ordering an election every man will have an opportunity to vote on this question as his conscience dictates. The election will occur sometime within the next 30 days.

Notice.

Our attention has been called to the fact that the fence around the Citizens' cemetery is badly in need of repair. If there is no fund of this kind one should be created and the fence put in condition so that stock could not trespass on the grounds. A net wire should also be placed around next to the ground so that coyotes and other varmints will not depredate on new made graves. Nothing speaks so well for a community as to see a well kept cemetery. We hope those whose business it is to look after this matter will give it their earliest attention.

Liquid Air in Small Packages.

Liquid air can be bought in New York by the gallon, like cider or coal oil. The Tripler Liquid Air Company named after Charles E. Tripler to whose experiments the world is indebted for liquid air can produce the commodity at a cost of 5 cents a gallon. As thirty gallons will furnish the same amount of initial power as a ton of coal, it will reduce the cost of running machinery on land and sea fully 50 per cent, besides releasing much valuable space now

There seems to have been considerable rivalry between two Clarendon ministers week before last as to which should perform the marriage rite between a couple of coons. We suppose the main attraction was the saluting of the bride. If you desire further information enquire at the AGITATOR office.

If there is any question in some folks mind about how they ought to vote in elections, we would advise them to watch two or three fellows that are always prominent figures in politics, and when you find out which side they are on take the opposite, and our word for it, you won't be far wrong.

The following is an illustration of the grievances that lead to strikes. In a certain town on the Denver road a stone building was being erected that required some eight or ten men. One morning they all quit work and when the cause was learned it was because a man had been employed that did not belong to the Stone Cutters union. The only thing was to discharge this honest workman or loose by having the work stopped, the building damaged, and his life endangered. This is but one of many such instances. Last month several hundred Roman Catholic weavers in the Lowell mills struck unless thirty Protestants were discharged. There is two sides to this strike situation and while our sympathies are with the bottom dog, we should contend for right and we fear the present tendency is sympathizing with strikers right or wrong. The most of these anarchist leaders are foreigners and not in sympathy with the laws of this country.

James E. Moore.

By consulting our announcement columns this week you will see announced the name of James E. Moore for the office of District and county clerk of Donley county. "Jimmie" Moore is a young man of fine business qualifications, being especially a rapid, expert penman. From a small boy Mr. Moore grew to manhood and was married here in Clarendon and is well known to nearly all our citizens for a number of years. Mr. Moore was connected with the railroad service here on the Denver road and has many friends among our citizens engaged in railroad occupations. At the present Mr. Moore is the deputy and acting district and county clerk. He presents himself to the voters of Donley county upon competency and experience and we ask a careful consideration of his claims of the voters for the office which he seeks—DISTRICT AND COUNTY CLERK.

"The Boxers" a powerful secret order among the Chinese are causing great loss of life and property. They are trying to kill all Christians both foreign and native and unless the powers act at once they bid fair to accomplish their purpose, as many valuable lives have already been lost and our work retarded for years to come. There are thousands of soldiers and dozens of war vessels in her harbors, but one power fears the other might gain some advantage and so none of them are doing anything much to stop the slaughter and it is a mere chance if all the Missionaries out in the interior and from under the protection of our guns are not murdered.

Clarendon Scores Again.

Work on the foundation for the new Jones & Trent building commenced in earnest yesterday morning. The building will be 50 foot front by 70 back; two stories high. Half of the upstairs will be fitted up for offices and the remainder will be converted into a hall. The downstairs department will be used for a general market and cold storage room, where everything will be kept that will be found in any first-class market in the country. Mr. Trent returned last week from Dallas and Fort Worth, where he inspected a number of cold storage plants before deciding on putting one in at this place. These gentlemen are both wide awake business men and expect to complete the building and have it in operation just as soon as possible.

CLARENDON COLLEGE.

The Board Elect a President—The New Board. ing Hall.

On Wednesday, June 13th the Board of Trustees, of Clarendon College met and elected Prof. Frank B. St. John, of Albany, Texas, as president. Prof. St. John is an educator of ten years experience in the management of large schools, a graduate of one of the best institutions of learning in the South and comes recommended by many prominent educators as well as some of the ablest men of our church. He begins work at once in the interest of the college and the board hopes he will receive the hearty welcome and co-operation of the friends of education wherever he goes. Only a part of the faculty has yet been elected but a full corps of efficient teachers will soon be installed and the outlook for prosperity for Clarendon college is very gratifying to the board. The effort now on foot to build a two thousand dollar boarding hall by a joint stock company is meeting with favor. Already several hundred dollars have been subscribed and we hope to have this much needed convenience before the opening of school. Our annual catalogue will be issued within the next few weeks and will contain valuable information for those looking for college advantages in a healthful climate. Citizens of the Panhandle should weigh this important advantage before sending their sons and daughters to the lower malarial climate of this or other Southern states.

Simpson-Buntin.

At the Methodist church Wednesday night, June 13th, in the presence of a crowd of their friends that filled the church to overflowing, Mr. Finis A. Simpson and Miss Ella Buntin were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Henson. The church had been beautifully decorated with flowers and mottoes for the occasion. Miss Rubie Stephens played the wedding march and Mr. William Compere and Miss Nora Henderson and Mr. James Patman and Miss Bessie Kelley were the attendants.

Mr. Simpson has resided here for a number of years and is a locomotive fireman on the Denver railroad. He is one of our most worthy young men, being moral, industrious, generous and manly, and has the respect and esteem of all who know him.

Miss Ella is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Buntin and from innocent childhood to beautiful young womanhood was reared here in Clarendon and possesses those admirable traits of mind and heart that have endeared her to her friends and made her a personal favorite with all who know her. This happy young couple presented a beautiful picture as they stood at the altar and pledged their lives "each to the other" and many silent prayers joined the public prayer for blessings, joy and happiness on their future lives and the AGITATOR joins their host of friends in heartiest congratulations and well wishes. After the ceremony the bridal couple and the attendants enjoyed a bountiful repast at the home of the bride's parents.

We prepared a list of the presents but it was so very large we have not the space to publish it. It comprised a large assortment of table and ornamental silver ware, decorated China and glass ware, table linens, jewelry and various toilet and ornamental souvenirs.

The happy couple left this morning for a bridal tour to Galveston. They will be home to their friends in their home on East First street after July 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Westenhauer, who reside at the Miller boarding house, are the parents of a boy babe, born Monday morning of this week, so reports Dr. Morris.

The Story of a Great work.

The average American becomes so accustomed to large figures in financial transactions that he is apt to overlook some of the underlying facts when a statement is presented him giving figures running up into hundred millions. The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, Richard A. McCurdy President, publishes a statement in this issue that rivals anything in the way of a financial character that has ever before appeared. This great company has good reasons to assume the title of "The Greatest Financial Institution in the world."

When it is understood that the combined capital of the greatest banking institutions in the world, namely: the Bank of England, The Bank of France, The Imperial Bank of Germany, and The Bank of Russia, is EXCEEDED by the assets of the Mutual Life by over 125 million of dollars, then it is realized what is meant by the last statement of the Mutual Life, which shows $301,844,537.52 in well invested assets; the greatest and grandest trust fund ever accumulated in the world's history.

That it has been a beneficent trust is fully assured; when it states what it has paid to its policy holders since organization over 514 MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. The mind can hardly grasp the enormity of the sum.

That it has been a trust fund profitably handled and in the interest of its policy-holders is evidenced by the company having paid them in profits OVER 100 MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

That its record is still being kept is shown by the fact that during 1899 it paid to its policy-holders OVER 26 MILLIONS OF DOLLARS besides earning for them an increase of surplus of over six million and adding to its assets, as an additional trust for future settlement over 24 millions of dollars.

A statement like this certainly carries assurance to its policy holders in Texas, for which a record in the past, there can be no doubt as to the future. The General Agent for the company Messrs. Chamberlain & Gillette, represent the Mutual Life's interest in Texas, with head offices in San Antonio. That those interested have been well served by the last statement filed in Austin, showing that the company had almost 30 million of insurance on the lives of the residents of this state:

Be a Man:

When a young man stands in the corner with a group of loafers and makes remarks about the character of the young ladies passing by, we wonder if he has a sister at home, asks the editor of the Cameron Observer. Yes, we question his love for the mother that gave him birth. Truly he does not understand that he may, in a careless, indifferent way, say that which will cause many hearts to ache for years. "Unuttered thoughts may sometimes fall back dead; even God himself can not kill them when they are said." Yet how many times is some loving daughter and sister slandered by a foul mouth whelp, who has not the principle of a contemptible cur. Boys, when you are lightly jesting about the character of some poor girl, do you stop to think that some one else may be oiling the tongue of slander to use in poisoning the mind of the people against you. Let us in all tenderness and kindness be a man.

Liquid Air in Small Packages.

Liquid air can be bought in New York by the gallon, like cider or coal oil. The Tripler Liquid Air Company named after Charles E. A reporter dreamed one night that the editor decided for once in his career to get out a paper that was entirely satisfactory. Every item that was brought in was carried around to the different houses and if any objection was raised it was killed. At four o'clock the paper went to press as usual, and when the patrons unfolded it that evening they found nothing but blank sheet. The editor slept sweetly that night realizing that he had printed nothing to offend anybody, and that his paper was for once entirely satisfactory.—Ex.

Every morning, July and August. That's what Texans may enjoy while camping during the Summer in the mountains adjacent to the TEXAS-COLORADO CHAUTAUQUA.

The Session Opens at Boulder, Colo., Sunday July 1, Closes August 15.

Four days every week devoted to study and instruction. Two days utilized for every kind of pleasure. Mountain excursions accompanied by out door lectures. Fishing native trout full of guminess. Ideal sport and health for young men. Then, too, each will have as associates the intellectual young womanhood of the continent.

No Other Combination of pleasure, intellectual growth, and healthful association equal to that provided at the Chautauqua and adjacent resorts. Send name and address for free copies of the Illustrated Chautauqua Journal.

Best Line to the "Old States"

One reason why most people go back to the "Old States" via the Cotton Belt is because the Cotton Belt makes from one to five hours quicker time than other lines.

The Cotton Belt offers you the quickest and shortest route to the "Old States," without unnecessary change of cars. Both day and night trains are equipped with comfortable Coaches and Reclining Chair Cars; also Parlor Cafe Cars by day and Pullman Sleepers at night. Write and tell us where you are going and when you will leave, and we will tell you what your ticket will cost and what train to take to make the best time and connections. We will also send you an interesting little booklet, "A Day on a Parlor Cafe Car."
