Approximately Thirteen Thousand Dollars Has Been Spent Improving College And Ward School Buildings

Thursday afternoon, September 28th, has been designated by the School Board and officials of the Clarendon independent school district as "open house" for inspection of local school buildings, which have been renovated from top to bottom the past few months with the aid of the Federal Works Progress Administration.

The School Board is very anxious that every patron and friend of the schools, who possibly can, attend the affair and see the wonderful improvements made.

A program will be rendered with A. A. Meredith, district director of District 16 of Amarillo, as principal speaker at the Junior High school auditorium at 2 p. m. After the program, teachers will conduct the visitors around that they may see the improvements that have been made.

Brothers On Trip See Nine States

SEE OLD HOME PLACE AFTER ABSENCE OF FORTY YEARS

Around forty years ago, two lads moved with the family from Clay county, Tennessee to Texas. Those lads, now somewhat older of course, recently made the trip back there. These "boys" are J. R. Dale of the Goldston community and his brother W. R. Dale of Seagraves.

They traveled by auto covering more than three thousand miles, returning here Friday. The trip took them through East Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

The longest stop was made in Clay county where numerous relatives yet reside. In speaking of the trip, J. R. Dale said: "The barn on the old home place was all that I could recognize. They had good crops, appeared to be getting along in good shape and well satisfied. The generation that we knew forty years ago had all passed on. The wealthy of that day had become the poorer class of today. Old customs were still in use with plenty of food stored for winter and plenty of blind stiffs. After we established our identity, we got around in great shape visiting over the country."

The Indiana trip was made especially to see a sister, of the two men whom our neighbor had not seen for thirty-one years. She failed to recognize either at first, so great was the change, Mr. Dale said.

In concluding, Mr. Dale summed it up as "the greatest time of my life. We were boys again out to see it all and we saw it." When asked what interested him most on the trip, Mr. Dale stated that the big hogs in Indiana and the corn crop making 80 bushels to the acre almost got him down. "Why they have enough hams up there to supply all of Texas," he said.

BURNS FATAL TO GROOM MAN IN AMARILLO

Harold Wagner, 29, groom farmer, was critically burned about 1 a. m. Monday when his clothing took fire while he was sleeping in his car near the "Y" on the highway in the northeast suburbs of Amarillo.

Men seeing the blaze, supposedly caused from matches ignited in Wagner's pocket as he was sleeping, rushed to the doomed man tearing away his clothing. Wagner was rushed to a hospital where he expired within a few hours.

He is a son of Mrs. J. M. Brittain, and Paul Wagner of Groom is a brother. Funeral services were held from the Groom Catholic church Wednesday.

He married a minister's daughter, Miss Maggie Osborn, a native of Georgia. They have five children, two sons and three daughters. Two of them have college degrees. Three of the daughters are teaching school, the other is in her second year in college.

Clyde Peabody was the other team member and Ray Robertson and Lee Christie judged as alternates. Twenty-two regular and sixteen alternate teams competed in the event.

MAN IS PAINFULLY INJURED DOING ACT OF MERCY

Among the tough element there is an expression of "I'll build a head on you that you can eat oats with." Oats are scarce right now, but a colt rather than a man attempted to do that very thing Monday morning.

E. P. Hahn, on the G. A. Anderson farm near Goldston attempted to remove a can encasing the hoof of a colt. The colt objected to surgery practice without a license, or removal of the hoof without a license, and something. The colt kicked Mr. Hahn, the blow striking his upper lip and nose. The nose was broken out. No teeth were loosened, though the lip swelled somewhat. A local surgeon straightened the nose and patched up the damage just as soon as Mr. Hahn could get to town.

Check Statute Is Outstanding

Severe Penalties Provided For Dry Check Artists

Approximately forty new laws in Texas became effective the 20th, ninety days after the adjournment of the last session of the Legislature.

County officials took cognizance of the law remitting to counties one-half of state property taxes assessed after tomorrow. The statute is expected to increase the state general fund deficit of nearly $20,000,000 by $5,000,000 annually after 1940.

Severe penalties hereafter will face hot check artists upon whom the burden of proof will fall that they were not issuing worthless paper with intent to defraud. Attempts to withdraw complaints filed against hot check writers will draw fines.

Taxpayers will start receiving a three per cent discount on state taxes paid prior to 90 days before they become delinquent, two per cent on 60 days and one per cent on 30 days.

DONLEY CO. AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS WIN AT AMARILLO

Cattlemen Find Cake Shortage Critical

Ranchmen in this section who begin making arrangements for cotton seed cake at this time, are not only finding a much higher market, but practically no market at all.

Cake is said to be selling at around $32 a ton, and that only in small lots. Hundreds of tons are purchased annually by ranchmen of this section who feed their cattle through the winter.

Roughage feed is said to be scarce due to the late drought through August. The feed situation is fast becoming critical, a leading ranchman informed the Leader Tuesday.

Bronchos Defeat Claude Mustangs In Season Opener

Power and Deception Gives Local Boys 13-0 Victory In Last Half

The Maroon and White clad Bronchos of Clarendon High School opened gridiron hostilities here Friday night under lights at College Park, with a 13-0 triumph over the Claude Mustangs. The first half ended in a scoreless tie with the Clarendon boys putting up a stubborn defensive stand against a light but fast charging Mustang squad.

The second half was but four minutes old when the Bronchos struck with lightning rapidity, using power plays with one well executed lateral. Starting on their own 45 yard line the Clarendon boys drove for four successive first-downs to place the ball on the one-yard line where Allison plunged over for the first count. Huffman's try for the extra point was good, making the score 7-0 in Clarendon's favor.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter Claude recovered a Broncho fumble on their own 16 yard line, thus stemming a Clarendon drive but momentarily. At this period of the game Claude reverted to a fast passing attack. However this bit of strategy bogged down when Morrow, playing heads-up football, snatched a Claude pass on the Mustang 35 and raced it back to the 28 yard line. On the second play Allison faded back and threw a quick pass into the arms of fleet-footed L. B. Hartzog, who raced 28 yards across the goal line standing up. Huffman's try for the point struck the cross section of the uprights, leaving the score 13-0 in favor of the Bronchos.

During the last few seconds of the game Claude made a desperate attempt to score with long passes. This last minute aerial attack ended abruptly when Hartzog intercepted a Mustang pass and raced it back 30 yards. A few plays later the game ended with both teams battling in mid field.

KIRTLEY INVESTS IN BRICK BUILDING ON MAIN STREET

Workmen are putting on a new roof and remodeling the front of the brick building next door to the Beech auto store. This building was purchased by B. F. Kirtley from the Donley County bank a few days ago.

Mr. Kirtley will move his saddle and harness stock to the building just as soon as remodeling is completed.

FOOTBALL GAME IS FREE TO STUDENTS FRIDAY

Authorities have announced that no charge will be made for public school students of the county to see the football game here Friday night. Quitaque will play the Bronchos, the game beginning at 8 p. m.

Hundreds of students from all over the county saw the game free last Friday night. An even larger crowd is expected to see the game tomorrow night.

MRS. GRACE LLEWELLEN IS CRITICALLY ILL

The condition of Mrs. Llewellen became critical last night, and relatives are arriving today. She has been ill for several months at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. Tyree.

Mrs. Llewellen has been teaching school for several years, the past few years at the Farrington school near Pampa.

Donley county agricultural exhibit took 28 ribbons at Tri-State Fair. Ten firsts, seven seconds, seven thirds, four fourth places.

Believe it or not, Donley county took first place on wheat, grown by Jodie Helm of Jericho, testing 63.5.

Four places on baled alfalfa swept the platter clean, county agent H. M. Broadlove enthusiastically announced.

First were taken in hegaria, sudan, field peas, alfalfa, pinto beans, alfalfa seed, egg plant, milo seed, wheat, white maize heads.

Donley county's exhibit will be shown at the Lubbock Fair next week, county agent Broadlove stated.

A complete report on the winners in all classes will appear in the Leader next week. Judges have not made their announcement up to time of going to press today.

In the poultry department, here again Donley county made big winnings when exhibitors received $235 in cash prizes on 220 birds. The list of winners cannot be obtained from the judges just yet, but will be printed in full next issue.

BURN GRASS WITH SAFETY

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart and son Nicky, and Ken Germond of Dallas spent the week end in Clarendon. The youths were on their way to attend Tech at Lubbock.

New Auto Law Effective Oct. 1

Prospective car buyers had better see their collectors about the newest of many laws to which an automobile owner is subject.

Department of public safety officials prodded the public memory last week that on Oct. 1, the new "certificate of title" law goes into effect. It was passed by the regular session of the Legislature. It means what the name implies—the motorists buying a car after Oct. 1 must have a certificate of title to show where he got his car and who owned it before.

The cost to the motorist is 26 cents per certificate.

The law is designed to catch up with auto thieves and those attempting to sell mortgaged automobiles. The tax collector issues the certificate and certain phases of the law are enforced by the department of public safety.

More Parity Checks Allay Drouth Effects

With the arrival of 19 checks Monday, and 294 Wednesday, the total parity money received by cotton growers here this week amounted to $23,913.30. Added to that of last week, the total for the month is $54,227.44.

Coming at a time when the best cotton prospects in years turned out to be almost a failure due to the ravages of hot winds and dry weather of the past month, the federal aid means much to citizens of Donley county.

Husky Quitaque Team To Invade Broncho Field

The Quitaque High School football team comes to Clarendon for a game at 8:00 p. m. Friday night. Even the Quitaque team is opening its season this week on Broncho Field, it looms up as a powerful foe, since 22 fairly husky boys will make the trip.

The Broncho team looks to this hard tussle with anticipation and gusto since the Bronchos were lucky enough to take the Claude Mustangs 13 to 0 here at home last week.

The Bronchos are in good shape and are working hard to improve the offensive attack. The passing attack was much more successful against Claude than the running plays. The combination: Allison to Spier, seems to give promise of many touchdowns before the season closes.

WHAT IS NEUTRALITY?

The editor of this weekly has been taken seriously to task for advocating no change in the present arms embargo and neutrality law. As the matter now stands, we cannot ship war supplies to any nation after such nation declares war on one or more other nations. Our national lawmakers passed an Embargo Act making this possible.

One critic writes that "we should sell all that we can, to whomsoever we can, and make all the money possible out of the war." This writer goes on to say that we have all along sold to both Japan and China during their conflict. Too true. We sold to Japan because they could come and get it. China got little or nothing because China is unable to help herself because of the penalty of religious superstition that has robbed their nation for centuries, preventing protective measures principally from a lack of capital and initiative.

As this editor views the matter, our principal products would naturally be sold to France and England—for cash. That is in the event we change our Arms Embargo neutrality laws to permit sales to any and every body regardless of war declarations. That would mean that the other side, being bottled up, could not buy in our nation. In other words, that would be active intervention in European affairs with the hope that we could stay out of the war ourselves.

But, unfortunately, that is a hope no individual or nation can guarantee. Looking at the matter from another standpoint, we cannot, by our acts, help one side without incurring the ill will and reprisals from the other side. Such reprisals would eventually lead to our getting mixed up in the war. There is no such a thing as a little neutrality. Once we declare by our own acts that we prefer to help those who can readily reach our shores, we cannot hope to fool the other side into believing that we are strictly neutral.

Neutrality is a fine point at issue. Every nation on the eastern hemisphere would like to see our nation help them, or go down in ultimate defeat and be wiped off the map as has been Poland's fate the past week. Let's remember that fact as we wrestle along with our views on neutrality.

In measuring dollars against our manhood, this writer would prefer to save our manhood and get our money by economic development and trade with South America. We can induce a flow of money from South America without endangering the life, liberty and pursuit of happiness of our millions of citizens, if we will go after the business of foreign trade to the South.

PATERNALISTIC ABSURDITY

When the subsidizing of an American crop permits the American commodity to be purchased abroad and shipped back for less than it costs in the United States, it is time to withdraw the subsidy. The paradoxical situation is illustrated in the case of cotton. In order to prevent under-cutting of the American market, the United States Tariff Commission has laid quotas on imports of cotton and cotton waste. The thought of import restrictions being necessary in the greatest cotton-producing country in the world is ridiculous. Thus governmental paternalism, no matter how well-intentioned, becomes an absurdity.

THE END OF HITLER IN 1939

Liar's will figure, but figures don't lie. At any rate, let's hope that this mathematical genius who with pencil and paper predicts the doom of Hitler in 1939, is correct. Here is the way he does it:

Thomas Masaryk, founder of the Czech republic, was born in 1850, became president of the republic in 1918. He governed seventeen years, quit when he was 85. Those numbers add up to 3870. Divide by two and you have 1935, the year he withdrew as president. Wilhelm II, the Kaiser, was born in 1859 and started his rule in 1888. He reigned thirty years, when he was 59. The numbers add up to 3836. Divide by two and you get 1918, the year he abdicated and fled to Holland. President Benes, born in 1884, became president of the Czech republic in 1935, remained in that office three years. He fled Czechoslovakia at the age of 54. The total is 3874. Divide by two and the sum is 1937, the year of Czech dismemberment. Hitler, born in 1889, rose to power in 1933. Up to now he has been Der Fuehrer six years. His age is 50. The total is 3878; divide by two, the result is 1939!—Downs (Kans.) News.

DALLAS FIRM PROPOSES LOW HOSPITAL COSTS

Launching a drive last week for low cost hospitalization for Texas tenant farmers and share-croppers was the Group Hospital Service, Inc., in Dallas.

Tentative plans include cooperation between county judge, county agent, merchant, doctors and the various communities' leading citizens. Public talks and letters to the workers, plus cooperation of newspapers and magazines would help put the plan through it was suggested.

Tenant farmer-families would be organized into county hospital groups, and the monthly family charge would be $1.55 for a family of six persons. Charges for a man per month 50 cents, for his wife, 45 cents extra.

Bryce Twitty of Dallas is state manager of the service.

Mrs. Annie Wadsworth, who has been visiting her grandson at Hayden, N. M., has returned home.

HOG JUDGING CONTEST TO ATTRACT MANY

Invitations have been mailed to over forty F.F.A. judging teams to compete in the first strictly hog judging contest to ever be held in this part of the state on October 7th. A large number of coaches have already expressed their intention of attending and over one hundred contestants are expected for the event.

The contest will be held in connection with the annual Clarendon 4-H and F.F.A. fall pig show which is being combined with a dairy show and being sponsored by the local Lions Club this year. Approximately 125 pigs will be shown in the local show.

Four classes of barrows and two classes of gilts will be judged by all contestants. Each school will be limited to one team of three and as many alternates as they desire to enter. A registered Hampshire weaning size gilt pig will be awarded the high man in the contest. Each team will give reasons on two classes of barrows and one class of gilts. A registered feeder barrow will be awarded to the high alternate of the contest and no reasons will be required of the alternates, but they will judge the same classes as the regular teams. A banner will be presented the winning team.

NEGROES SERVED AS TEXAS LAWMAKERS BOTH HOUSES

Probably what a lot of Texans don't know is that from 1870 through the early nineties Negroes served in the State legislature.

E. R. Lindley, chief clerk of the Texas House of Representatives, is writing a history of the legislature. In his research he ran across that information.

In the 12th legislature in 1870-71, there were two negro senators and three representatives, sent to the legislature from Brenham, Galveston, Houston, Marshall, and Huntsville. The next legislature the negro representative reached its peak with two senators and eight House members.

Through the 14th, 15th, 17th, and 18th, 19th, 20th Legislatures there were a varying number of negro members. In the 21st the number was reduced to one negro representative.

The following session not a single negro was elected. Then, in the 24th legislature, an election contest seated a negro from Brazoria County district as the last negro representative of record.

There may have been one or more in the 26th legislature—the record is not clear—but in the 27th legislature the Terrell election law was passed and there have been no negroes elected since that time, Lindley said.

ACE DEFINED.

Since Russia has spilled what is left of the Polish "cuspidor," she explains her act of vandalism as being an exhibition of neutrality. Thinking along the same line, one will recall that hijackers for some time have been "neutral" on the same basis, and should be liberated.

PROPAGANDA DOPE.

Leaflets by the millions have been printed and dropped from the sky in enemy territory on both sides. The printers, who have to "do it or die," will no doubt be happy when the enforced printing orders cease.

BLESSED EVENTS.

Blessed is the restless young wife when she hangs the white flags on the clothesline and becomes a willing prisoner.

MEMBER WHEN?

It's not the verbal foliage that counts in law, but what the contract says.

MISSIONARY STUFF.

Christianity cannot do much for the individual who is already sanctified.

THE STOP SIGN.

After looking over the Sunday papers, it appears that some speedsters continue to think the locomotive should "stop, look and listen!"

BUILDING BOOM.

An insurance company reporting on vital statistics gives out the information that more and better hospitals are built where the traffic is heaviest.

MORE Q&A IN SCHOOL.

Grapefruit: A lemon that has been given a chance and made the most of it.

Reckless Driver: A fellow who is lucky when the highway turns the same way he does.

Synonym: A word you can use when you can't spell the other one.
Trailer: A 24-hour breakfast nook.

An appendix is the last thing in the book which nobody has found any use for.

THE OPTIMIST.

Is the farmer who pitches a crop from year to year in an effort to get even.

SEASONABLE.

It may be true that age is a quality of mind, but stiff joints the first cool weather in autumn remind many that they have passed 45.

LIMITED.

Then it was an old colored man who said: "Money may talk alright, but she only knows one word, and that one word is 'goodbye!'"

WHOOPE! ALSO HURRAH!!

The happiest man in the world has been located in Izzard county, Arkansas. He has six fiddles, ten children, thirteen hounds, a deaf and dumb wife, and a moonshine still that has eluded the "revenuers" for forty years.

YEH, JUST WHY?

Why do men who claim they can't sing, insist on proving it.

FAILED TO JELL, MAYBE.

The new book, "Grapes of Wrath," has been barred from the public library in Oscaloosa, Alabama.

INFERNAL PRINTERS.

Speaking of typographical errors in your newspaper, the last legislature of Oklahoma was made to "set aside $10,000 to control babies." In reality the subject was "rabies," meaning mad dog stuff. Then again, the Bernice, La. weekly apologized last week for the manner in which they mentioned the garden club meeting. "After the business session, the ladies exchanged pants." The "L" failed to fall in the last word, but the printer caught "L" a plenty from the manner in which apologies were extended.

TWO CELEBRATIONS.

Maybe the President guessed right after all. We really should have two Thanksgiving days this season. The first to be thankful for the Atlantic, and the regular day of Thanksgiving for the Pacific ocean.

Texas Natural Resource Hunt

AUSTIN.—A survey to seek a means to tap the nation's largest supply of granite and marble will be launched this week by University of Texas geologists.

The 40-mile-square belt of the five-county Central Mineral Region, barricaded high behind the hills just west of Austin—termed the State's number one "mineral frontier"—will be explored for potential industrial development.

Dr. V. E. Barnes, geologist for the University Bureau of Economic Geology, will investigate reported traces of two war minerals, chromium and nickel, discovery of which would bolster an "almost negligible United States supply."

Also reported in the region are traces of copper, lead, graphite, gypsum and gold.

A $5,000 legislative appropriation for the Llano area, or Central Mineral Region, has adequately equipped the bureau for its work.

Construction of four dams on the Colorado River, affording a source of cheap power, will greatly facilitate commercial development of the region, Dr. E. H. Sellards, bureau director, said.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allison and children, Shirley and Johnny of McLean, spent the week end here with his mother, Mrs. J. L. Allison.

AMERICAN TIENSIN Y.M.C.A. REPORTED SEIZED

PEIPING.—Reliable reports from Tiensin said Japanese gendarmes on Sept. 2 occupied the American Y. M. C. A. in a Japanese-controlled section.

The Japanese were said to have explained they wanted the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in which to train soldiers. United States Consul General John K. Caldwell was reported to have asked the gendarmes to vacate the building.

The United States protested to the Japanese against the damaging of the American Seventh Day Adventist mission at Nanning on Aug. 30. It was struck by bombs.

An unidentified man rode through the legation quarter today in a speeding car, showering handbills which threatened Britons failing to leave Peiping immediately.

MEMORY LANE

(From the Leader, 10 years ago this week).

Business lots on the main street were advertised at "82500 with 8500 down and $25 a month." The murder of district attorney Johnny Holmes caused the Governor to put Berger under martial law, policing it with Rangers. The guilty party never was brought to justice for this murder.

In Clarendon's business world, Hommel Bros. were operating the City Garage; Charley Bell was distributor for Pierce petroleum products; Wm. S. Bagby was in the fire insurance business; Taylor's planing mill was building cabinets; the Leader store, managed by Ben Saied, was running double page ads in the Leader; Jack Jones was operating the Clarendon Drug; Ryan Bros. were real-estate; A. N. Wood's grocery quotes Marvin Jones in advertising; J. Cobb Harris was selling "Plains land"; S. F. Huneycutt was doing optician practice, and C. W. Gallaway was the local chiropractor. The names above are given since there has been changes in every one of them as to their business relations.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brumley returned home Sunday after spending the summer in Manitou, Colorado, and Albuquerque, N. M. for the benefit of Mr. Brumley's health. He says he gained 20 pounds, and feels like a new man.

CHUNN & CLAMPITT

THE BIG DITCH

Twenty-five years ago as Germany was doing its best to annihilate civilization, the United States was modestly opening the Panama Canal, an engineering feat of magnificent proportions which linked for the first time in a man-made history the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

The Panama Canal has proved its worth and its record is easily one of the glowing stars in our flag of achievement. It has aided our commerce and the maritime service of the world immeasurably, it has provided a short cut to Eastern waters, but above all, it helped more than anything else, except the railroad, to unite our Western States more closely with those of the Atlantic Seaboard. It provided the vital link which knitted all the sister States together, equipped us with a highly important aid to the national defense, and opened a new era in shipping.

On the day that the nations were hurling their messages of death, the steamer "Aconon" made the first commercial passage through the canal. The name of the vessel has grown obscure in the course of time but the date to be compared with the great happenings in the world's events, for it clearly demonstrated to the peoples of all nations that the American nation had really come into its own, that its people had succeeded where the experts of another nation had failed.

Donley County Leader, $1.50 a year.

ACT MUST BE CLEAR

There is a special session of Congress starting today whose deliberations will be watched with the closest interest by the people of this country. The purpose, undeniably, is an endeavor to have the neutrality act repealed so that arms and war materials may be sold on a "cash and carry" basis to belligerents. At present the law forbids such dealings but it has been possible to sell goods which can be fabricated into war necessities. The shipping example of this has been the sale of scrap iron to Japan.

Just how this present law has reacted in favor of one side against another was ably demonstrated in the late Spanish war. Germany and Italy could buy from us and then re-ship to Franco all he needed to carry on his campaigns. His opponents not having these sources of supply undeniably suffered. Germany and Italy were, ostensibly, not in the war in Spain, no matter how many "volunteers" went from those countries to aid Franco.

How ridiculous the whole thing was, is shown by the fact that Franco was engaged in putting down the efforts of the Communists to gain control of Spain. This is why Germany and Italy were aiding him. Now Russia and Germany are Allies and where does this leave Franco, where Japan and where Italy? It certainly is a mad world and for anyone to place an ounce of dependence on the word of these "statesmen" is to join the madhouse.

If the neutrality act is repealed to enable belligerents to buy from us, it must be made very sure that American ships and goods will not be involved in any way that would result in pulling this country into war. All shipments should be made in the vessels of the purchasing countries, and the American interests strictly aloof from any involvement in the shipping process.—R. M. Sperry.

METHODIST
CIRCUIT NOTES
J. G. Walker, P. C.

We enjoyed the entire day at Goldston Sunday. Both services were dominated by a good spirit. Goldston does not furnish a big crowd, but always shows a fine spirit. We just can't be with them as often as we would like. Have not heard from Lella Lake Sunday school, but hope it was fine. We go there next Sunday morning and to Naylor in the evening. Do you really realize how fast the time is passing by? Hardly two months in this Conference year. How great the task of closing up the year's work well. This has been one of the busiest years of the pastor's life. We have had no vacation. Have not asked for any. See no place for a moments rest. Do not ask for any. The responsibility of the Clarendon Circuit gets larger every day. Must ask that each and every one do his best in these closing days. We want to be able to add more to the spiritual report. Pastor should not have to give one moment of his time to finances. These should be cared for by laymen of the church. Can not call it a full report unless finances are met.

Be sure to be with us next Sunday at Lella Lake. They have recently done a lot of work on and around the church, and we want to do more. This is the only church building on the Clarendon Circuit. Every member on the entire work should be anxious for it to be well kept, especially Lella Lake people. Our next and last Quarterly Conference for this year will be there the Fourth Sunday (Oct. 22). We are expecting a great day. Preaching in the morning, dinner on the ground, and conference in the afternoon. Let all the stewards from each church come with their heads up and with joy and gladness in their hearts. If all the people in the bounds of the Clarendon Circuit were really Christian, it would be a wonderful place to live. We are not tired of it as it is.

Mr. O. B. Pauk and son of Dallas are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGowan of Lella Lake.

GIVE THE COWS A REAL CHANCE

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Associate Editor
FARM and RANCH
Breeder-Feeder Association

Most of the four-gallon cows are found in the classified "For Sale" columns of the daily and weekly newspapers. There's many a potential four-gallon cow growing up on Southwestern farms but a four-gallon cow is only a two-gallon cow when she is given the feed material from which she manufactures only two gallons. We have wonderful sunshine and a balmy climate in the Southwest, as compared with, say New York, Michigan or Wisconsin. But sunshine doesn't fill the milk pail, any more than moonshine does. It takes food and water, plenty of it at the right time, to bring out all the milk-making faculties of the cow, here or in the north.

Once a year on July 1 the Department of Agriculture asks its thousands of volunteer crop reporters—mostly farmers—throughout the country to report the average daily production of their cows. This date in the Southwest is in the heat of mid-summer, and after the flush milk flow of early summer has declined, while in the northern states the season corresponds more nearly to our May. The figures therefore are somewhat weighted in favor of the northern states.

The sad fact remains, however, that (with the sole exception of Mississippi) Texas and Arkansas stand at the foot of the class in daily production per cow, with 10.7 pounds. Even South Carolina bests this by a fraction. Oklahoma heads the class in the Southwest with 14.1 pounds daily per cow, or about six and a half quarts. The most significant point is that Oklahoma has raised her average about a quart per cow during the past few years, while Texas and Arkansas have raised their average daily production only half a pound, or less than a pint per cow, during the same period.

Maybe we shouldn't expect to stand up by the side of Minnesota, (23.6 pounds), Wisconsin (22.5 pounds), New York (21.4 pounds) or Oregon (20.3 pounds,) but there's something radically wrong when we fall so far below North Dakota (19.7 pounds), South Dakota (16.9 pounds,) and Kansas (15.7 pounds).

Don't blame it on Old Bossy until you give her a chance to "do her stuff." We have some pretty poor cows in the Southwest, but we also have a high percentage with good Jersey blood, and we have some as good as the best anywhere in the United States. But we have been much more negligent in feeding than in breeding. The majority of our cows have never had a fair chance to prove themselves, because we have not furnished them enough of the right kind of feed and water for an entire lactation period to test their capacity for production. We have condemned many a cow as a poor producer without giving her the materials with which to produce.

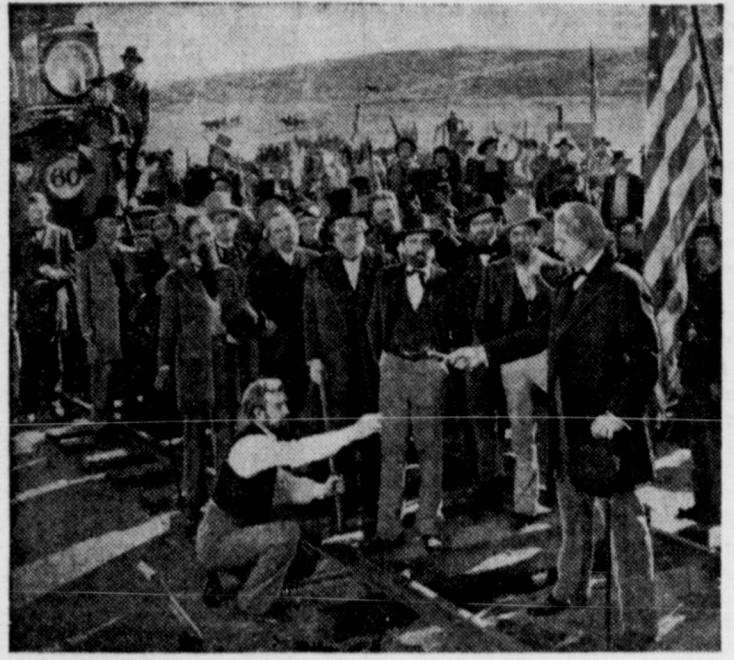

There are a number of dairy cow testing associations in the Southwest, and ought to be a great many more. The average herd under test in Texas produced last year about 26 pounds of butterfat per cow in May and less than 22 pounds in September, October and November, averaging about 23 pounds per month for the year. One association (Central Plains) averaged 33 pounds in May and never fell below 24 pounds in the fall months, averaging 30 pounds for the year. It raised the average annual production per cow 16 pounds in one year, mostly by better feeding, though a few "culls" were sold after the first year's test proved they did not have the manufacturing capacity, even when supplied with the essential raw materials for milk and butterfat production.

This same association produced butterfat last year at an average feed cost of 13.4 cents per pound. Since home-grown feed constituted most of the feed cost, the feed was really "sold" to the cows on the farm, and hauled to town in cans. It brought two profits—one for the growing and harvesting, and one for the feeding and milking.

It does not pay to keep a five-quart cow; but it is worse to hold a ten or twelve-quart cow down to five quarts by refusing to give her the raw materials for her full capacity.

Miss Dorothy De Hart of Pampa, spent the week end with Jacque Foster of Clarendon.

Miss Fannie McGowan returned to her school study at West Texas College Sunday.

An historical event that has much the same meaning for Westerners as the ringing of the Liberty Bell has for citizens of the East—the Gold Spike ceremony that signified the completion of the "Union Pacific" railroad—is brought to the screen by Cecil B. De Mille in his epic picture of the same name, which opens Saturday night Prevue at the Pastime Theatre. The stars of the production are Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea, assisted by Akim Tamiroff and Lynne Overman.

"Union Pacific" Stars Stanwyck, And Joel McCrea

Barbara Stanwyck, in a role completely different from any she has previously attempted, and Joel McCrea, as a character strongly reminiscent of the one he portrayed last season in "Wells Fargo," are co-starred in the romantic leads of "Union Pacific." Cecil B. De Mille's grand-scale interpretation of the building of America's first transcontinental railroad.

Although the popular Miss Stanwyck has played roles as varied as Middle Western farm-woman, New England factory wench and Park Avenue debutante, her Mollie Monahan in "Union Pacific," which Paramount will show at the Saturday night Prevue at the Pastime Theatre, marks something totally new in the Stanwyck repertoire. She is a daring, warm-hearted, fiery girl of the West, the daughter of the "U.P." first engineer, the postmistress of "end of track" and little sister of the husky railroad builders. She is equally at home outwitting Western sharpers, comforting the homesick Irish laborers, battling Indians on the war-path or engaging in high-powered romance.

Mollie's romantic interest in "Union Pacific" is one Jeff Butler (played by the handsome McCrea), a brave and reckless trouble-shooter whom the Washington government has assigned to help keep order along the right-of-way. The two meet at "end of track," the gaudy, brawling, settlement that moves ever westward with the railroad, and their romance moves as swiftly forward as the phenomenal railroad itself.

Although Indian attacks, corrupt officials and hostile nature can all be dealt with, Mollie and Jeff meet a real difficulty in Dick Allen (Robert Preston), a smooth young Western adventurer who has teamed up with a crowd of sharpers to sabotage the railroad. In love with Mollie, Dick has the double incentive of ruining Jeff's work and stealing his sweetheart at the same time.

When the irresponsible Dick goes so far as to help rob a pay train, upon which the "U.P." vitally depends, the good-hearted Mollie marries him to save him from the law. But before the railroad is finished Dick's own crimes remove him from the scene, leaving the track to romance clear for Jeff.

A dozen other popular Hollywood players will be seen in equally unusual roles in De Mille's production. Akim Tamiroff, the roistering Russian actor, is "Fiesta," a rowdy Mexican railroad cop who brings his own kind of law and order to the West at the point of a bullwhip. Lynne Overman holds up the comedy end of the picture as a hard-as-nails fur-trapper and pioneer. Brian Donlevy is the sharper who is hired by financiers to sabotage the project.

BRONCHOS—

Although the first half seemed a bit drabby, the local boys showed some excellent tackling and blocking while feeling out the strength of their opponents. At the end of the game there was but little doubt in the minds of the fans but that the Broncho forward line was the best to don Maroon and White colors in several years. The backfield aggregation showed plenty of power but failed to coordinate in several critical moments. This is not alarming however, as this was the first game, and such defects will be rubbed out as more practice is gained. Without a doubt there are plenty of potential touchdowns waiting to be released by these boys who lug the pig skin.

Back of this fine bunch of Bronchos who displayed more power and skill than last year, is their coach, Emil Hutto, who has worked diligently and faithfully to build a winning grid machine for Clarendon high school. Football patrons will see plenty of action this school year as the season gains momentum and the Bronchos gradually come into their own.

Statistics of the game bear out the fact that the Bronchos did themselves proud in their first game of the season. Clarendon made six first downs to three for Claude. In the game of passing, Claude threw five incomplete, and completed two for a total of 11 yards. Clarendon had one to go incomplete, and completed two for a total of 40 yards. The Bronchos intercepted three of Claude's passes, but lost none to the Claude lads.

DONLEY PIGS PLACE HIGH AT TRI-STATE FAIR

Bill Alexander, Pete Morrow, and Herman Higgins, Clarendon F.F.A. members placed high at Amarillo with their fat hawks in the club show. Alexander's entries won second in light Hamp and first, second, and fourth in heavy Hamps. Morrow's litter placed fifth, and Higgins Duroc placed third in the heavy red class.

The hog show was the largest ever held in Amarillo and the capacity of the pens was not sufficient to care for all of the entries. All of the local pigs, with one exception, were exceedingly heavy pigs that could not be carried over to the local show October 7th. The champion heavy Hampshire weighed 334 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson, Mrs. Lena Antrobus, Mrs. Edythe Maher and Mrs. Ruth Teat were Amarillo visitors Friday.

Brice Farmer Takes Own Life

Financial Worries Coupled With Ill Health Said To Be Cause

Tuesday morning, W. E. Shepard walked out into the pasture in front of his home and cut his throat with a razor, his death resulting almost instantly, according to reports.

He is said to have been a peaceable man industrious in his work as a tenant on the W. E. Davis ranch, plying his efforts to grow a crop in the face of one of the worst drouths in recent years.

He is survived by his widow, three daughters and four sons. The daughters are Mrs. John Lemons of Brice; Mrs. Bobbie McBryer of Amarillo, and Miss Clyde Shepard at home. The sons are W. E. and Scott and two younger sons.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Methodist church in Brice, with interment in the Clarendon Citizens cemetery.

NOTED QUARTETS TO APPEAR ON CONVENTION PROGRAM

A number of the leading quartets of Texas and neighboring states have notified A. B. Wills, Memphis, Texas, President of the Oklahoma-Texas District Singers Association, that they plan to be on hand for the annual singing convention to be held here October 7th and 8th. V. O. Stamps and his quartet, the Strong City quartet from Strong City, Oklahoma, are among the quartets that have announced their intention of attending the convention. Mr. Wills stated that he believed between five and seven thousand would attend the two day convention.

Efforts are being made now to secure fifty rooms for the night of October 7th for the official delegates to the convention. An effort is being made to secure the rooms through an appeal to the various church congregations.
