A STATEMENT

Several people interested in the formation of a permanent Fair and Racing association have approached me with reference to perfecting an organization. While I heartily share the opinion of these gentlemen with regard to the feasibility and profitableness of such a move, I have been deterred from taking any active measures toward that end owing to the indifference manifested by a goodly portion of our business men. As secretary of the temporary organization I called three different meetings which were so lightly attended that no business could be transacted.

Recently I have talked with a number of citizens of this and adjoining counties who are enthusiastically in favor of the enterprise and who, with out exception, volunteered to take stock in the association. This encouragement, together with favoring circumstances that have since arisen, has induced a number of us to call a meeting for Wednesday night at the Amarillo hotel, when data and a plan of organization will be presented which will convince the most skeptical that we can organize immediately under most favorable auspices.

However, it will require united effort on the part of everybody to make this enterprise the success its merits deserve. Do not stay at home relying on your neighbor to fill your place. There is a place for each of you, and your very presence will add that much to the enthusiasm of the meeting.

If such towns as Quanah and Plainview have big fairs, with thousands in attendance, it behooves Amarilio to ask the question, why have we nothing without the lot. A bargain if of the kind? Ours is by far taken witin 30 days. the best located town on the plains for the establishment of a yearly Fair, Races and Cowboy Reunion that would be of national reputation.
